Central Valley Project, Friant Division, San Joaquin River Restoration.—The agreement does not include a separate account for this item. Funding is included in the Water and Related Resources account as a separate line item under the Friant Division of the Central Valley Project.

Middle Rio Grande, New Mexico.—The agreement encourages development and implementation of the Water Acquisition Program along the Middle Rio Grande and San Juan Chama Projects and the Physical Habitat Restoration and Management efforts along the San Acacia Reach consistent with fiscal year 2014 activities.

Scoggins Dam, Tualatin Project, Oregon.—As part of its Dam Safety Program, Reclamation is working on a Corrective Action Alternatives Study (CAS) for Scoggins Dam, the main feature of the Tualatin Project. Working with local stakeholders, Reclamation is evaluating how water supply objectives, such as increased storage, may be coordinated with CAS implementation. Phase two of the CAS, including appraisal level designs and cost estimates, currently is scheduled to be completed in fiscal year 2016. With that date in mind, Reclamation should submit legislative language to the appropriate congressional committees as soon as it becomes clear such authorization is necessary and advisable so that dam safety work can be addressed concurrently with additional storage capacity.

Yakima River Basin Water Enhancement Project, Washington.—The Yakima River Basin Integrated Water Resource Management Plan is recognized as an innovative water management plan representing the culmination of years of collaboration among Yakima Basin stakeholders. The Department of the Interior and the Bureau of Reclamation are encouraged to request funding in future budgets to support additional authorized elements of the Plan. Federal funding should be used in combination with stakeholder funding to ensure continued implementation of a balanced plan including water storage and water supply reliability, habitat and watershed conservation, fish passage, and appropriate land acquisition activities to support agriculture, fish, and municipalities within the Yakima River Basin in Central Washington.

Additional Funding for Water and Related Resources Work.—The agreement includes funds in addition to the budget request for Water and Related Resources studies, projects, and activities. Priority in allocating these funds should be given to advance and complete ongoing work; improve water supply reliability; improve water deliveries; enhance national, regional, or local economic development; promote job growth; advance tribal and nontribal water settlement studies and activities; or address critical backlog maintenance and rehabilitation activities. Funding provided under the heading “Western Drought Response” may be allocated to any authorized purposes, but shall be allocated to those activities that will have the most direct, most immediate, and largest impact on extending limited water supplies during current drought conditions. Funding included in the budget request under “Drought Response and Comprehensive Plans” is incorporated into this line item. Reclamation is encouraged to use all available authorities to provide for additional water supplies through conservation, minor changes to the operations of existing projects, drilling emergency wells, or other means authorized under current law. This additional funding may be used alone or in combination with any other funding provided in a program, project, or activity. For rural water projects, Reclamation shall not use the ability of a non-federal sponsor to contribute funds in excess of the authorized non-federal cost-share as a criterion for prioritizing these funds. Not later than 45 days after enactment of this Act, Reclamation shall provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a report delineating how these funds are to be distributed, in which phase the work is to be accomplished, and an explanation of the criteria and rankings used to justify each allocation.

Indian Water Rights Settlements.—The agreement includes funds for these activities in the Water and Related Resources account, instead of in a separate account as proposed in the budget request. To maintain the visibility of these projects, the agreement includes the four projects under the Regional Programs heading with a subheading called Indian Water Rights Settlements.

Buried Metallic Water Pipe.—Reclamation again is directed to act in a manner consistent with the direction provided in the fiscal year 2012 and 2014 Acts regarding buried metallic water pipe. That direction included, among other things, the requirement for an objective, independently peer-reviewed analysis of pipeline reliability standards. Reclamation is reminded that this study, including all data assembly and analysis must be conducted by an appropriate, independent third-party. Reclamation and its contractors involved in these efforts are expected to protect business-sensitive data that is collected during this process.

Rural Water.—Voluntary funding in excess of legally required cost shares for rural water projects is acceptable, but shall not be used by Reclamation as a criterion for budgeting in future years.

Zebra and Quagga Mussels.—Reclamation has completed, is working on, and intends to initiate additional invasive mussel vulnerability assessments at numerous federal dams in the Pacific Northwest. Reclamation is encouraged to continue these efforts.

CENTRAL VALLEY PROJECT RESTORATION FUND

The agreement provides $56,995,000 for the Central Valley Project Restoration Fund.

CALIFORNIA BAY-DELTA RESTORATION (INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $37,000,000 for the California Bay-Delta Restoration Program.

POLICY AND ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides $58,500,000 for Policy and Administration.

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION LOAN PROGRAM ACCOUNT

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement includes a rescission of $500,000 in unobligated balances.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

The agreement includes a provision limiting the Bureau of Reclamation to purchase not more than five passenger vehicles for replacement only.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

The agreement includes a provision outlining the circumstances under which the Bureau of Reclamation may reprogram funds.

The agreement includes a provision regarding the San Luis Unit and Kesterson Reservoir in California.

The agreement includes a provision regarding an authorization of appropriations under the Secure Water Act of 2009.

The agreement includes a technical correction regarding the Reclamation States Emergency Drought Relief Act of 1991.

The agreement includes a provision extending authorization of the CalFed Bay-Delta Authorization Act.

The agreement includes a provision regarding pilot projects in the Colorado River Basin.

TITLE III—DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

The agreement provides $27,916,797,000 for the Department of Energy to fund programs in its five primary mission areas: science, energy, environment, nuclear non-proliferation, and national security.

Educational Activities.—The Department is prohibited from funding fellowship and scholarship programs in fiscal year 2015 unless they were included in the budget justification or funded within this agreement. The Department may waive this requirement upon notification to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the fellowship or scholarship program to be funded.

Technology Transfer.—The Department is encouraged to fill the position of Technology Transfer Coordinator immediately and implement the recommendations of the Department's Office of the Inspector General as stated in the February 2014 Audit Report: Technology Transfer and Commercialization Efforts at the Department of Energy's National Laboratories, OAS-M-14-02. As detailed in the report, the Department is also encouraged to support the finalization of performance metrics and place special emphasis on establishing targets and quantitative metrics that support the growth of U.S. companies. Additionally, the Department is encouraged to take a more forward-looking approach to implementing the Technology Commercialization Fund to enhance the effectiveness of the Department's expenditures.

REPROGRAMMING REQUIREMENTS

The agreement carries the Department's reprogramming authority in statute to ensure that the Department carries out its programs consistent with congressional direction. The Department should, when possible, submit consolidated, cumulative notifications to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Definition.—A reprogramming includes the reallocation of funds from one program, project, or activity to another within an appropriation. For construction projects, a reprogramming constitutes the reallocation of funds from one construction project to another project or a change of $2,000,000 or 10 percent, whichever is less, in the scope of an approved project.

ENERGY PROGRAMS

ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND RENEWABLE ENERGY

(INCLUDING TRANSFER AND RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $1,936,999,858 in new budget authority for Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy and rescinds $13,064,858 in prior-year unobligated balances. The agreement includes a provision that authorizes the transfer of up to $45,000,000 to the Defense Production Act Fund.

The Department is encouraged to support continuation of regional research bodies through competitive funding awards with the goal of fostering research collaboration, technology transfer, and commercialization efforts that will lead to increased domestic production of energy and lower prices for consumers. The Department is further encouraged to examine the feasibility of supplementing the expertise provided by the national laboratories by entering into technical assistance partnerships with non-profit partners to provide affordable grid technology testing and technical assistance to the electric industry to address the variability of renewable power generation.

Unless specifically contravened, the agreement supports grid integration and incubator activities to the extent possible within available funds.

SUSTAINABLE TRANSPORTATION

Vehicle Technologies.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $8,000,000 for the SuperTruck program to fulfill existing contracts to support commercialization of truck technologies demonstrated by industry partners. The Department is directed to identify future collaborative research initiatives with the freight industry to improve fuel efficiency in their vehicles. In addition, the Department is directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act a report on the industry's adoption rates of new fuel efficient technologies from the SuperTruck program into its manufacturing lines. Within available funds, the agreement provides $10,000,000 to continue funding of section 131 of the Energy Independence and Security Act of 2007. The agreement provides no direction for the topline funding levels of the Vehicle and Systems Simulation and Testing, Advanced Combustion Engine Research and Development, Materials Technology, and Fuels and Lubricant Technologies subprograms, rather than the levels specified in the House report.

Shortfalls remain in the research and development of dual-fuel systems that meet the power and reliability requirements for severe heavy duty engines used in some buses, fire trucks, on-highway construction haul trucks, and class 8 long-haul trucks. The Department is directed to continue research and development on dual-fuel activities to address the needs of severe heavy duty engine vehicles. The research should consider whether direct-fuel-injected or dual-fuel-converted diesel engines can provide the necessary horsepower and reliability for safe and efficient long-haul trucking in consideration of the higher temperature exposure of parts and lubricants, in addition to the large onboard fuel storage volume requirements. The research should incorporate highly controlled fleet operations that evaluate the practicality of both dual-fuel systems and gas-to-liquid (GTL) fuel produced directly from natural gas. Since GTL has the potential for broad implementation without changes in truck engine technology or distribution infrastructure, the research should determine the cost, maintenance, and economy of GTL fuels produced directly from natural gas using scalable technology.

Bioenergy Technologies.—The agreement provides not less than $25,000,000 for research and development of biofuels from algae feedstocks and up to $45,000,000 to support the collaboration among the Navy, the Department of Agriculture, and the Department of Energy to develop innovative technologies for jet and diesel fuels. The agreement provides no direction for the topline funding levels of the Feedstocks, Conversion Technologies, Demonstration and Deployment, and Strategic Analysis and Cross Cutting Sustainability subprograms, rather than the levels specified in the House report.

For purposes of allocating resources, the Department is directed to include biosolids derived from the municipal wastewater treatment and agricultural processes, and other similar renewables, within the definition of noncellulosic. Furthermore, biosolids from wastewater treatment is encouraged as a feedstock for all research, development, and demonstration activities conducted within the available funding. Technologies utilizing biosolids must provide evidence of the potential to reduce the volume of waste materials and reduce greenhouse gas emissions over current uses of this feedstock. The Department is directed to host a stakeholder meeting to discuss the current state of technologies that utilize biosolids and determine the key barriers that need to be overcome to make substantial gains in reduction of greenhouse gases and cost of energy over full-scale operations already in existence globally.

Hydrogen and Fuel Cells Technologies.—Within available funds, the agreement provides an additional $5,000,000 for Technology Validation to conduct testing and analysis of fuel cells as industrial-scale energy storage devices, with validation and testing using full-scale testing and demonstration capabilities. To support this effort, the Department is encouraged to leverage national laboratory, university, and regional stakeholder partnerships and capabilities, including at-scale grid infrastructure, modeling expertise, extreme environment testing capabilities, and public-private partnerships.

The agreement supports the collaborative approach reflected in H2USA and sees it as an important step toward commercialization of fuel cell electric vehicles and the supply chain. With regard to infrastructure, the Department is encouraged to analyze, research, and make suitable investments to transform the size, cost, scalability (including modular stations), and interoperability of new retail hydrogen stations. The Department should also emphasize consumer acceptance to meet the needs of the initial commercial market beginning in 2015, while having the ability to increase the station capacity as commercialization develops. These investments should focus on strategic locations where early market introduction of vehicles is likely to occur.

RENEWABLE ENERGY

Solar Energy.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $10,000,000 for the joint Supercritical Transformational Electric Power Generation program with the Offices of Fossil Energy and Nuclear Energy. The agreement further directs the Solar Energy program to provide funding opportunities, as proposed in the budget request, that support U.S. equipment supply chain technology efforts. These efforts will reduce the cost of manufacturing silicon photovoltaic cells by reducing the amount of raw material silicon needed to produce a solar cell while also increasing manufacturing efficiencies by removing manufacturing process steps to produce solar cells. The Department is also encouraged to continue work on systems integration and balance of systems cost areas to reduce costs and ensure that consumers and businesses can yield sustained benefits from distributed solar power installations and their connections to the grid.

The agreement provides no direction for the topline funding levels of the Concentrating Solar Power, Photovoltaic Research and Development, Systems Integration, and Innovations in Manufacturing Competitiveness subprograms, rather than the levels specified in the House report.

Wind Energy.—Within available funds, the agreement provides an additional $5,000,000 to further substantiate the design and economic value proposition of alternate project designs for offshore wind power and up to $6,400,000 for distributed wind.

Geothermal Technologies.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $32,100,000 for Enhanced Geothermal Systems. For future awards, the full spectrum of geothermal technologies as authorized by the Energy Independence and Security Act of 2007 shall be eligible for the funds appropriated for Geothermal Technologies by this Act. The Department is also encouraged to continue its support of comprehensive programs that support academic and professional development initiatives.

Water Power.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $41,300,000 for marine and hydrokinetic technologies (MHK) and $19,200,000 for conventional hydropower. Of the funding provided for conventional hydropower, $3,960,000 is for the purposes of Section 242 of the Energy Policy Act of 2005.

Of the funding provided for marine and hydrokinetic technologies, no funding is available for the incubator program or the clean energy manufacturing initiative. The Department is directed to continue ongoing consultations with the marine and hydrokinetic energy industry on research, development, and demonstration priorities and ensure that related programs by the national laboratories support industry-driven technology advancement projects. The agreement further directs the Department to continue marine hydrokinetic wave testing infrastructure development work, including preliminary development of an open water, fully energetic wave energy test facility. The Department is encouraged to coordinate closely with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the Bureau of Ocean Energy Management, the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration, other relevant agencies, and industry to reduce the amount of time to permit MHK test and demonstration projects. Further, within available funding for marine and hydrokinetic technologies, the Department is encouraged to support activities to develop advanced systems and component technologies to increase energy capture, reliability, and survivability for lower costs, and to assess and monitor environmental effects.

ENERGY EFFICIENCY

Advanced Manufacturing.—Within available funds, the agreement provides not less than $4,205,000 for improvements in the steel industry and $79,000,000 for Next Generation Manufacturing Research and Development Projects, of which $6,000,000 is for incubator activities and $3,000,000 is for a competitive solicitation for universities and industry to help bridge the gap between laboratory research and marketplace deployment of nanostructured metals. The agreement supports $25,000,000 for the fourth year of funding for the Critical Materials Energy Innovation Hub and $56,000,000 for four Clean Energy Manufacturing Institutes.

The Department is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 120 days after enactment of this Act a report that provides metrics-based performance measures to assess the effectiveness of existing institutes in achieving the goals of the Clean Energy Manufacturing Initiative, including criteria to assess each institute's progress in becoming self-sufficient after the award term ends by relying exclusively on non-federal funding sources, the benefit of each institute, and specific milestones and objectives over the period of the award term. In awarding new institutes, the Department shall conduct an open solicitation and a competitive, merit-based review process and shall include metrics-based performance measures and milestones as part of each award. Should it propose funding for new institutes in the future, the Department shall include in each budget justification the potential specific research topics associated with the proposed institutes, which will provide Congress with the necessary transparency to evaluate and prioritize funding to ensure that only highly-effective centers closely aligned with the Advanced Manufacturing program missions are funded.

Building Technologies.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $25,800,000 for solid state lighting research and development and includes no further direction within the Emerging Technologies subprogram. Within the Residential Buildings Integration subprogram, the Department is encouraged to engage stakeholders, including the existing home performance industry and weatherization network, for the purpose of developing policy recommendations that could lead to a new residential energy efficiency retrofit program supporting all residential buildings and income levels.

The agreement provides no direction for topline funding levels of the Commercial Buildings Integration, Residential Buildings Integration, Emerging Technologies, and Equipment and Buildings Standards subprograms, rather than the levels specified in the House report.

Weatherization Assistance Program.—The Department is urged to continue working with implementing agencies at the State level to ensure that independent, third-party audits are conducted and results are shared with the relevant parties. Worker training should continue, but contractors repeatedly failing to perform adequately should be disqualified from future work.

ELECTRICITY DELIVERY AND ENERGY RELIABILITY

The agreement provides $147,306,000 for Electricity Delivery and Energy Reliability, of which $8,000,000 shall be for the Operational Energy and Resilience program to support construction of the Energy Resilience and Operations Center within the Department's Washington, D.C. headquarters.

Within available funds, the agreement provides $5,000,000 to continue development of the industry-scale electric grid test bed and up to $7,000,000 for the Energy Systems Predictive Capability activity. Within Energy Systems Predictive Capability and Advanced Modeling Grid Research, the Department is directed to consider an expanded scope of projects, in addition to response to energy supply disruption, and to include university and industry teams for research and workforce development. Within Cyber Security for Energy Delivery Systems, the Department is encouraged to expand collaborative efforts and increase the deployment of analytical and security tools with industry partners to increase overall resilience of the grid.

The Department is further encouraged to consider expanding research and development partnerships, including related to the development and deployment of microgrids, with stakeholders in diverse geographic regions with unique market dynamics and policy challenges that can help to inform nationwide efforts to improve grid resiliency, reliability, security, and integration of a broad range of generation sources.

NUCLEAR ENERGY

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $913,500,000 in new budget authority for nuclear energy activities and rescinds $80,000,000 in prior-year unobligated balances, of which $62,000,000 shall be derived from non-Program Direction funding and $18,000,000 shall be derived from Program Direction funding. The agreement includes no funding derived from the Nuclear Waste Fund.

The Department is directed to provide support for reconvening a nuclear working group among national laboratories to foster collaboration and identification of nuclear capabilities. As part of the update to the Nuclear Research, Development, and Demonstration (RD&D) Roadmap, the Secretary is directed to solicit input from, and collaborate with, the nuclear working group to recommend a plan to integrate the missions and expertise of the national laboratories to accomplish the RD&D goals of the updated roadmap.

Nuclear Energy Enabling Technologies.—Within available funds, $24,300,000 is available for the Modeling and Simulation Energy Innovation Hub upon completion by the Office of Nuclear Energy of an internal peer review of the first five-year term; a determination to extend the hub, together with the benefit of the extension and specific milestones and objectives over the period of the extension; and notification of and approval by the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate. The agreement also provides $36,500,000 for the National Science User Facility, of which funding above the request is to complete the installation of advanced post-irradiation examination equipment at the Irradiated Materials Characterization Laboratory.

SMR Licensing Technical Support Program.—The agreement provides $54,500,000 for the Small Modular Reactor (SMR) Licensing Technical Support Program, all of which shall be to support the second award for an SMR design. Prior-year funds shall be available for site permitting and related licensing activities to support the continued development of small modular reactor technologies previously selected under this program.

Reactor Concepts Research and Development.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $98,000,000 for Advanced Reactor Concepts, of which $33,000,000 is for research of the fuel and graphite qualification program for the High Temperature Gas Reactor previously funded under the Next Generation Nuclear Plant line. The agreement accepts the Department's proposal to consolidate Advanced Small Modular Reactor Research and Development within Advanced Reactor Concepts and directs all other activities not specified in the House report within Advanced Reactor Concepts be supported to the extent possible within available funds. The Department is directed to focus funding within Reactor Concepts Research and Development on technologies that show clear potential to be safer, less waste producing, more cost competitive, and more proliferation-resistant than existing nuclear power technologies.

Fuel Cycle Research and Development.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $60,100,000 for the Advanced Fuels program to continue implementation of accident tolerant fuels development, of which $12,000,000 is for additional support of feasibility studies for accident tolerant light water reactor fuels; $5,000,000 is for additional support of capability development of transient testing, including test design and validation data for reactor modeling; $10,000,000 is for the development and qualification of meltdown-resistant fuels based on ceramic-compacted coated particles; and $3,000,000 is for the advancement of promising and innovative research, including ceramic cladding and other technologies, emanating from qualified and competitively selected small business research task awards that complement the three major industry and university projects and are focused on the development and testing of accident tolerant fuels. Not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, the Department shall provide the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a report detailing the results achieved in developing accident tolerant fuels and the expected milestones to achieving in-reactor testing and utilization by 2020.

The agreement provides $71,500,000 for Used Nuclear Fuel Disposition, of which $49,000,000 is for research and development activities, as requested, and $22,500,000 is for integrated waste management system activities. Within funds provided for integrated waste management system activities, $3,000,000 shall be to design, procure, and test industry-standard compliant rail rolling stock.

Supercritical Transformational Electric Power Research and Development.—Within available funds, the Department shall gather information and engage industry to develop an effective solicitation for a public-private cost-shared supercritical carbon dioxide demonstration program, including support for a Request for Information, conceptual design, and cost estimation. Any remaining funding shall be for additional support of the research and development of supercritical carbon dioxide technologies within the nuclear energy program.

Radiological Facilities Management.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $20,000,000 for hot cells at Oak Ridge National Laboratory and directs the Office of Nuclear Energy to work with the Office of Science to demonstrate a commitment to operation and maintenance of these capabilities that support multiple critical missions in future budget requests.

Idaho Facilities Management.—The agreement provides funding above the budget request for Idaho Facilities Management, to include an additional $5,000,000 for nuclear facility and support systems major maintenance; $2,000,000 for Advanced Test Reactor (ATR) safety margin improvement electrical distribution; $6,000,000 for transient testing scope acceleration and risk reduction; $4,000,000 for ATR evaporation pond liner replacement; and $3,000,000 for the replacement of windows, manipulators, and process equipment at the Hot Fuel Examination Facility.

FOSSIL ENERGY RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The agreement provides $571,000,000 for Fossil Energy Research and Development. The Department is directed to submit not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act a comprehensive program plan and research and development roadmap for the Office of Fossil Energy.

The Department is encouraged to assess the technical landscape of innovative, commercial-scale gas-to-liquid technology development that is not based on the traditional Fischer-Tropsch technology, is less capital intensive than Fischer-Tropsch technology, and can be developed in smaller units that can be deployed in locations where excessive natural gas is being flared to convert that natural gas to liquid transportation fuel.

Coal Carbon Capture and Storage (CCS) and Power Systems.—Within available funds, the agreement includes funding for the Department of Energy's National Carbon Capture Center consistent with the budget request. To the extent possible within available funds, the Department is directed to support the joint industrial scale integrated energy systems research and development effort with the Offices of Nuclear Energy and Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy.

Within Carbon Capture, the agreement includes $76,000,000 for post-combustion capture systems, of which funding above the request is for additional support of bench-scale and pilot projects. Within Advanced Energy Systems, the agreement provides $30,000,000 for Solid Oxide Fuel Cells; $28,000,000 for Advanced Combustion Systems, of which funding above the request is for additional support of pressure gain reduction, chemical looping, and pressurized combustion technologies and projects; and $25,000,000 for Gasification Systems, of which $8,000,000 is for the Advanced Air Separation Program to continue activities improving advanced air separation technologies. Within Cross Cutting Research, the agreement provides $24,000,000 for Coal Utilization Science. Within National Energy Technology Laboratory Coal Research and Development, the agreement provides $15,000,000 above the budget request for the Department to continue its activities to economically recover rare earth elements from coal and coal byproduct streams, such as fly ash, coal refuse, and aqueous effluents. Within the Supercritical Transformational Electric Power Generation program, the agreement provides funding for additional support of supercritical carbon dioxide technologies within the fossil energy program.

Natural Gas Technologies.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $15,000,000 for ongoing methane hydrates research and development, including characterization of deep water hydrates, the assessment of the potential impact of hydrate development on climate, and the characterization of Arctic offshore hydrates, and $10,121,000 for collaborative research and development regarding hydraulic fracturing, to include $3,100,000 for the Department to continue the Risk Based Data Management System. Any funding in the area of hydraulic fracturing, including funding to support the proposed joint effort with the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the United States Geological Survey (USGS), is for research into hydraulic fracturing technologies that aims both to improve the economics and recoverability of reserves and to address the health, safety, and environmental risks of shale gas extraction. Together with EPA and USGS, the Department of Energy is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act an interagency detailed research plan, to include the proposed length of a collaborative study regarding hydraulic fracturing, out-year budget costs, and specific milestones and objectives.

Unconventional Technologies.—The agreement provides $4,500,000, of which up to $500,000 shall be for the Department to assess the technical landscape of scalable energy conversion technologies as specified in the House report.

NAVAL PETROLEUM AND OIL SHALE RESERVES

The agreement provides $19,950,000 for the operation of the Naval Petroleum and Oil Shale Reserves.

ELK HILLS SCHOOL LANDS FUND

The agreement provides $15,579,815 for the final payment of the settlement agreement.

STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVE

The agreement provides $200,000,000 for the Strategic Petroleum Reserve. The Department has continued to ignore the statutory directive in Public Law 111-8 to submit to the Congress by April 27, 2009, a report regarding the effects of expanding the Reserve on the domestic petroleum market. The Department has not yet submitted the report, and continues to fail to meet other congressionally mandated deadlines without explanation or cause. Although now more than five years delayed, the information requested in the report continues to be pertinent to policy decisions, and the Secretary is directed to submit the report as directed in Section 315 of this Act.

NORTHEAST HOME HEATING OIL RESERVE (INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $7,600,000 in new budget authority for the Northeast Home Heating Oil Reserve. The agreement also includes a rescission of prior-year unobligated balances of $6,000,000, resulting in a net appropriation of $1,600,000.

ENERGY INFORMATION ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides $117,000,000 for the Energy Information Administration.

NON-DEFENSE ENVIRONMENTAL CLEANUP

The agreement provides $246,000,000 for Non-Defense Environmental Cleanup.

Small Sites.—The agreement provides $80,049,000. Within these funds, $20,000,000 shall be available for design and construction of security upgrades at Fort St. Vrain, for the cleanup of existing contamination and improvement of seismic standards of buildings at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, and for the cleanup of outstanding Department of Energy liabilities at the Southwest Experimental Fast Oxide Reactor. To the extent possible within available funds, the Department should take advantage of near-term opportunities to realize lifecycle cost savings by accelerating completion of ongoing small sites.

Fort St. Vrain.—Instead of direction in the House report, the Department is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 180 days of enactment of this Act on the costs of continuing to store spent nuclear fuel at Fort St. Vrain and other Department locations, and on options for consolidating inventories of all defense-related wastes, spent nuclear fuel, and special nuclear material at one or more private sector or Government sites to reduce ongoing maintenance, operations, and security costs. The Department is further directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a project data sheet for security upgrades at Fort St. Vrain prior to the use of funds for construction.

URANIUM ENRICHMENT DECONTAMINATION AND DECOMMISSIONING FUND

The agreement provides $625,000,000 for activities funded from the Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund.

Reporting Requirement.—The Department is directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act a report that describes the status of the Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund and provides an update of cleanup progress by site since the last report submitted to satisfy requirements of Section 1805 of the Atomic Energy Act. The report shall include a general schedule of milestones and costs required to complete the mission at each site within the current lifecycle cost estimates. In addition, the report shall provide an updated timeline and shall explain the cost and schedule assumptions in the current lifecycle cost estimates for Paducah to reflect the Department's assumption of responsibility for the process buildings in fiscal year 2015.

SCIENCE

The agreement provides $5,071,000,000 for the Office of Science. The agreement includes legislative language restricting cash contributions to the International Thermonuclear Experimental Reactor (ITER) Organization pending implementation of the Third Biennial International Organization Management Assessment Report recommendations.

Advanced Scientific Computing Research.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $91,000,000 for the exascale initiative, $104,317,000 for the Oak Ridge Leadership Computing Facility, $80,320,000 for the Argonne Leadership Computing Facility, $75,605,000 for the National Energy Research Scientific Computing Center at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, and up to $3,000,000 for the Computational Sciences Graduate Fellowship program. Should the Department wish to continue the Computational Sciences Graduate Fellowship program, the Office of Science is directed to include it in future budget submissions within Advanced Scientific Computing Research.

Basic Energy Sciences.—The Office of Science is directed to work with the Office of Nuclear Energy to demonstrate a commitment to operation and maintenance of nuclear facilities at Oak Ridge National Laboratory that support multiple critical missions in future budget requests. Within available funds, the agreement provides up to $100,000,000 for Energy Frontier Research Centers.

For materials science and engineering research, the agreement provides $371,000,000, of which $24,175,000 is for the third year of the Batteries and Energy Storage Innovation Hub, $10,000,000 is for the Experimental Program to Stimulate Competitive Research, and $8,000,000 is for computational materials science. For chemical sciences, geosciences, and biosciences, the agreement provides $307,103,000, of which up to $15,000,000 is available for the Fuels from Sunlight Innovation Hub upon completion by the Office of Science of an internal peer review of the first five-year term; a determination to extend the hub, together with the benefit of the extension and specific milestones and objectives over the period of extension; and notification of and approval by the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

In lieu of previous direction for scientific user facilities, the agreement provides $916,397,000, of which $804,948,000 is for facilities operations. The agreement supports the budget request's proposal to terminate the Office of Science-operated user program at the Lujan Neutron Scattering Center at Los Alamos National Laboratory and provides $2,000,000 to transition instruments and materials to safe storage conditions.

Biological and Environmental Research.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $75,000,000 for the third year of the second five-year term of the three BioEnergy Research Centers, $45,501,000 for the operation of the Environmental Molecular Sciences Lab at Pacific Northwest National Lab, and no funding for a new initiative on climate model development and validation.

Fusion Energy Sciences.—The agreement accepts the new proposed budget structure for fusion energy sciences and provides funding accordingly. Unless specifically contravened in this agreement, references in the House report using the old budget structure shall stand. The agreement further directs the Office of Science to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act a report on the contribution of fusion energy sciences to scientific discovery and the development and deployment of new technologies beyond possible applications in fusion energy.

Within available funds, the agreement provides not less than $70,220,000 for the National Spherical Torus Experiment, not less than $79,950,000 for DIII-D, and not less than $22,260,000 for Alcator C-Mod. The Office of Science is advised that fiscal year 2016 will be the final year of funding for Alcator C-Mod, consistent with the Fusion Energy Sciences Advisory Committee strategic planning and priorities report under all budget scenarios, and is directed to plan for an orderly shutdown following fiscal year 2016. The Office of Science is further directed to seek community engagement on the strategic planning and priorities report through a series of scientific workshops on research topics that would benefit from a review of recent progress, would have potential for broadening connections between the fusion energy sciences portfolio and related fields, and would identify scientific research opportunities. The Department is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act a report on its community engagement efforts.

The agreement provides $216,062,000 for burning plasma science foundations, $38,956,000 for burning plasma science long pulse, and $59,682,000 for discovery plasma science. In addition to these funds, the agreement provides $2,500,000 to continue high energy density laboratory plasma science at the Neutralized Drift Compression Experiment-II and $300,000 for the National Undergraduate Fellowship Program to support the study of plasma physics.

The agreement provides $150,000,000 for ITER, of which not less than $125,000,000 is for in-kind hardware contributions and up to $25,000,000 is for cash contributions to the ITER Organization.

High Energy Physics.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $22,000,000 for the Long Baseline Neutrino Experiment (LBNE) and its alternatives, to include $10,000,000 for research and development and $12,000,000 for project engineering and design activities. The agreement includes no funding for long-lead procurements or construction activities for the LBNE project. The agreement also includes $15,000,000 for Homestake Mine and $23,000,000 to support superconducting radio frequency accelerator research, development, facilities, and infrastructure.

For energy frontier experimental physics, the agreement provides $147,584,000. For intensity frontier experimental physics, the agreement provides $264,949,000, of which $43,970,000 is for projects, to include $20,000,000 for future projects research and development, and shifts funding for superconducting operations to advanced technology research and development. For cosmic frontier experimental physics, the agreement provides $105,545,000, of which $41,878,000 is for projects. Prior to the execution of $6,878,000 for dark matter, dark energy, and cosmic microwave background experiments, the Office of Science shall submit a spend plan to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate. The agreement provides no direction for research or facility operations and experimental support within the intensity frontier and cosmic frontier subprograms, rather than the levels specified in the House report.

For other subprograms within high energy physics, the agreement provides $59,274,000 for theoretical and computational physics; $120,366,000 for advanced technology research and development, of which $45,772,000 is for general accelerators; and $10,000,000 for accelerator stewardship.

Nuclear Physics.—Within available funds, the agreement provides $150,892,000 for medium energy nuclear physics, of which $97,050,000 is for operations at 12 GeV Continuous Electron Beam Accelerator Facility at Thomas Jefferson National Accelerator Facility; $199,966,000 for heavy ion nuclear physics, of which $166,072,000 is for Relativistic Heavy Ion Collider operations at Brookhaven National Laboratory; and $17,541,000 for operation of the Argonne Tandem Linac Accelerator System.

Science Laboratories Infrastructure.—Within available funds, the agreement provides an additional $3,000,000 to de-inventory New Brunswick Laboratory below the Hazard Category 3 threshold, as well as any follow-on work to remove remaining material and unneeded equipment.

Program Direction.—The agreement provides no funding, including for salaries and benefits and travel, to support the Under Secretary for Science and Energy.

ADVANCED RESEARCH PROJECTS AGENCY—ENERGY

The agreement provides $280,000,000 for the Advanced Research Projects Agency—Energy.

TITLE 17—INNOVATIVE TECHNOLOGY LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM

The agreement provides $42,000,000 for administrative expenses for the Title 17 Innovative Technology Loan Guarantee Program. This amount is offset by estimated revenues of $25,000,000, resulting in a net appropriation of $17,000,000.

Recent reviews of the loan program by DOE's Office of the Inspector General and the Government Accountability Office (GAO) have shown progress in the loan program's implementation of recommendations to improve the program's administration and oversight, but several important deficiencies remain. In particular, the speed at which the loan program is finalizing the actions taken to address the deficiencies in the program's administration is unsatisfactory. Concerns persist about the continued lack of comprehensive policies for oversight and monitoring risk of existing loan guarantees. The Department is directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 60 days after enactment of this Act a report responding to the recommendations from GAO-14-367, including a plan for fully complying with its credit review, compliance, and reporting functions.

The Department is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 30 days after enactment of this Act on the status of the Cape Wind conditional commitment, including an update on ongoing litigation and the risks this litigation poses to the success of the project. The Department shall update this report quarterly through fiscal year 2016.

ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY VEHICLES MANUFACTURING LOAN PROGRAM

The agreement provides $4,000,000 for the Advanced Technology Vehicles Manufacturing Loan Program.

CLEAN COAL TECHNOLOGY

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement rescinds $6,600,000 from the Clean Coal Technology Program.

DEPARTMENTAL ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides $245,142,000 for Departmental Administration, of which up to $1,670,000 is for salaries and expenses for the Office of the Under Secretary for Science and Energy. The Department is directed to request funding for this office under Departmental Administration in fiscal year 2016 and subsequent years to increase transparency.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

The agreement provides $40,500,000 for the Office of the Inspector General.

ATOMIC ENERGY DEFENSE ACTIVITIES NATIONAL NUCLEAR SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides $11,407,295,000 for the National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA). Instead of restrictions in the House report regarding contractor defined benefit pension plan payments above requirements, the Department is directed to notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the amounts paid that are above the minimum required contribution and the percent funded status of each plan if payments above the minimum required contribution are anticipated to be made in fiscal year 2015.

WEAPONS ACTIVITIES

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $8,231,770,000 for Weapons Activities. The agreement rescinds $45,113,000 in funds not apportioned to the Department of Energy in fiscal year 2013 and fiscal year 2014.

Directed Stockpile Work.—The agreement provides $2,692,588,000. The agreement includes $176,615,934 within Stockpile Systems and $58,407,000 within Stockpile Services for surveillance.

The NNSA is directed to work with the Nuclear Weapons Council and the military services to update the procedures governing nuclear weapons refurbishments prior to submitting future warhead refurbishment proposals that would integrate Air Force and Navy systems in order to better define joint military requirements and to ensure that Air Force and Navy programs and resources are appropriately aligned. The NNSA is directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 30 days after enactment of this Act a report that describes the interagency plan for revising and updating the joint Phase 6.x warhead acquisition process.

The NNSA is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 120 days after enactment of this Act a report on the options available to avoid a dismantlement workload gap in the mid-2020s while still meeting the 2022 dismantlement goal.

Cruise Missile Warhead life extension study.—The agreement provides $9,418,000 to commence a Phase 6.1 Concept Study for a cruise missile warhead life extension. The NNSA is expected to fully adhere to the fiscal year 2012 Act reporting requirements that direct the NNSA to provide a report on the military requirements and preliminary cost and schedule estimates for a life extension effort at the commencement of Phase 6.2a Design Definition and Cost Study, should those activities be requested in future budget requests. The NNSA is directed to promptly submit its required report regarding its Phase 6.1 Concept Study activities.

Research and Development Certification and Safety.—The agreement provides $160,000,000. The agreement does not include a prohibition on exploratory development activities that support early life extension and other stockpile stewardship activities in the House report.

Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation (RDT&E).—The agreement provides $1,766,191,000 for the NNSA's research, development, test, and evaluation activities previously referred to as Campaigns.

Science.—The agreement provides $412,091,000. Within these funds, $8,000,000 is to support the Dynamic Compression Sector at the Advanced Photon Source at Argonne National Laboratory. Within funds for Advanced Radiography, $21,000,000 is for the design of new radiography capabilities at Ula.

Inertial Confinement Fusion and High Yield.—The agreement provides $512,895,000. Within these funds, $68,000,000 is for Omega at the University of Rochester and $329,000,000 is for the National Ignition Facility (NIF). The NNSA is directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act an assessment on whether the likelihood of achieving ignition at the NIF has increased since December 2012 and the level of confidence that the NNSA will achieve ignition at the NIF by December 2015.

Advanced Simulation and Computing.—The agreement provides $598,000,000. Within these funds, $50,000,000 is for activities associated with the exascale initiative.

Advanced Manufacturing Development.—The agreement provides $107,200,000 to develop, demonstrate, and utilize advanced technologies that are needed to enhance the NNSA's secure manufacturing capabilities and to ensure timely support for the production of nuclear weapons and other critical national security components as described in the House report. Instead of specific funding allocations directed in the House report, the agreement includes $12,600,000 for Additive Manufacturing, $75,000,000 for Component Manufacturing Development, and $19,600,000 for Process Technology Development.

The NNSA is directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 120 days after enactment of this Act a ten-year strategic plan for using additive manufacturing to reduce costs at NNSA production facilities while meeting stringent qualification requirements.

Readiness in Technical Base and Facilities.—The agreement provides $2,033,400,000. The NNSA is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 120 days after enactment of this Act a ten-year strategic plan that would reduce the deferred maintenance backlog below fiscal year 2014 baseline levels and dispose of unneeded facilities.

Recapitalization.—The agreement provides $224,600,000. The allocation for projects and activities within Recapitalization is shown in the following table:

Uranium Processing Facility, Y-12 National Security Complex.—The agreement provides $335,000,000. The agreement does not include a restriction on the use of funds for construction prior to achieving 90 percent design. Upon completion of a conceptual design for the project that incorporates the Red Team recommendations, the NNSA shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a report that describes the preliminary project execution plan, including any tailoring strategy to break project milestones into smaller projects with distinct performance baselines. The report shall also include an updated cost range for the revised project design that has been independently reviewed by the Department of Energy's Office of Engineering and Construction Management.

Nuclear Counterterrorism Incident Response.—The agreement provides $177,940,000. Within this amount, $142,577,000 is for emergency response activities to fully support the ninth stabilization city and $14,850,000 is for Operations Support to address improvements for the Department of Energy's Emergency Operations Center.

Site Stewardship.—The agreement provides $76,531,000. Within these funds, $14,531,000 is provided for the Minority Serving Institution Partnerships Program.

Defense Nuclear Security.—The agreement provides $636,123,000. Within funds for physical security systems, up to $5,000,000 may be used to procure advanced security technologies for the Y-12 National Security Complex and the Pantex Plant.

Domestic Uranium Enrichment Research, Development, and Demonstration.—The agreement provides $97,200,000. The agreement provides funds to maintain centrifuges in standby and to conduct further analysis of enriched uranium and tritium needs. The Department is directed to conduct an interagency bottoms-up reevaluation of the active and reserve tritium stockpile requirements and provide a certification from the Nuclear Weapons Council as directed by the House report. Instead of the analysis of process technologies in the House report, the agreement includes a general provision that prohibits the use of funds in fiscal year 2015 to build centrifuges for enriched uranium production and requires an accounting of nuclear material available to meet defense needs and a cost-benefit analysis of domestic uranium enrichment options.

DEFENSE NUCLEAR NONPROLIFERATION (INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $1,641,369,000 for Defense Nuclear Nonproliferation. The agreement rescinds $24,731,000 in funds not apportioned to the Department of Energy in fiscal year 2013 and fiscal year 2014.

Defense Nuclear Nonproliferation Research and Development.—The agreement provides $393,401,000. Within these funds, the agreement provides $66,900,000 for the National Center for Nuclear Security and additional funds to accelerate efforts to develop the next generation of warhead monitoring technologies, improve low-yield nuclear test detection capabilities, and deploy long-range remote monitoring technologies for plutonium and uranium production detection. The NNSA is directed to conduct a joint assessment with the Department of Defense on the continued need to deploy space-based sensors for atmospheric testing and provide the results to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 120 days after enactment of this Act.

International Material Protection and Cooperation (IMP&C).—The agreement provides $270,911,000. Within these funds, the agreement provides $148,000,000 for the Second Line of Defense Program to complete installation of fixed detection equipment at vulnerable border crossings, airports, and small seaports in Ukraine, Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, Romania, Belarus, and Jordan and expand work in high threat areas in the Middle East. The agreement does not include $66,900,000 requested within IMP&C for projects in Russia. No funds may be used for the Multiple Integrated Laser Engagement System for Russia.

Mixed Oxide (MOX) Fuel Fabrication Facility, Savannah River.—The agreement provides $345,000,000 for continued construction of the MOX Fuel Fabrication Facility, including Other Project Costs. The agreement includes statutory language that prohibits the NNSA from using funds to place the project in cold standby in fiscal year 2015. Instead of the reporting requirements in the House report, the NNSA is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 120 days after enactment of this Act an independently-verified lifecycle cost estimate for the option to complete construction and operate the MOX facility and the option to downblend and dispose of the material in a repository.

Global Threat Reduction Initiative (GTRI).—The agreement provides $325,752,000. Within these funds, the agreement provides $36,600,000 for international material protection to complete additional security upgrades at research reactor and radiological buildings, including facilities in Turkey and Algeria that have Category 1 source materials. Also within funds for GTRI, the agreement provides $67,987,000 for domestic material protection to help meet the goal of securing all buildings in the U.S. with Category 1 source materials by the end of 2016. The NNSA's efforts to develop a U.S. capability to produce Moly-99 from sources other than high-enriched uranium should include but not be limited to low-enriched uranium and natural molybdenum. The agreement does not include $25,400,000 requested within GTRI for projects in Russia.

Use of Prior-Year Balances.—The agreement directs the use of $22,963,000 in prior-year balances from Russian Fissile Material Disposition.

NAVAL REACTORS

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $1,238,500,000 for Naval Reactors. Within these funds, the agreement provides $68,000,000 for Advanced Test Reactor Operations. The agreement rescinds $4,500,000 in prior-year funds for program direction.

Naval Reactors Operations and Infrastructure.—The agreement provides $390,000,000. Within these funds, $119,279,000 is for Research Reactor Facility Operations and Maintenance, including the full amount requested for operations and maintenance of the prototype reactors at the Kesselring Site.

Spent Fuel Handling Recapitalization Project, Naval Reactors Facility.—The agreement provides $70,000,000, including Other Project Costs.

FEDERAL SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $370,000,000 for the federal salaries and expenses of the Office of the NNSA Administrator. Within this amount, the NNSA is directed to provide any funds needed for Corporate Project Management in fiscal year 2015.

NNSA Albuquerque Complex.—Instead of direction regarding the Albuquerque Complex in the House report under Office of the Administrator and Weapons Activities, the agreement permits the NNSA to lease new office space in fiscal year 2015 after the NNSA Administrator notifies the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the full costs of the lease, relocation, vault construction and other capital expenses, and any associated increases in annual operating and security costs. The notification shall include a description of the NNSA's plan to demolish legacy buildings at the Albuquerque Complex to meet footprint reduction requirements and shall provide a certification that the cyber and physical security requirements have been reviewed and approved by the responsible intelligence authority.

ENVIRONMENTAL AND OTHER DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

DEFENSE ENVIRONMENTAL CLEANUP (INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $5,010,830,000 for Defense Environmental Cleanup. Within these funds, the Department is directed to fund hazardous waste worker training at $10,000,000. The agreement rescinds $10,830,000 in prior-year funds for program direction.

Separations Process Research Unit (SPRU).—The Department is directed to preserve the approximately $33,000,000 in prior-year appropriations for SPRU until a plan has been determined for the site. If, at that time, the Department is found to have a liability, the Department shall apply all remaining prior-year balances toward that outstanding obligation. If additional funding is needed once final agreement between the parties is achieved, the Department should submit a reprogramming request to fully support the agreed upon plan.

Hanford Site.—The agreement provides $941,000,000. Within available funds in the River Corridor control point, the Department is directed to carry out maintenance and public safety efforts at the B Reactor and the Hazardous Materials Management and Emergency Response facilities.

Oak Ridge Reservation.—The agreement provides $223,050,000. Within cleanup and disposition, $41,626,000 is provided for the U233 Disposition Program. While the agreement does not include a Congressional reprogramming control point, the Department shall continue to separately report funds for this activity in its monthly financial balances report and in its budget request.

Outfall 200 Mercury Treatment Facility, Oak Ridge.—The agreement provides $9,400,000 to continue a project to construct a water treatment plant at the outfall 200 site as originally approved in the fiscal year 2014 Act. The Department should continue to advance plans to construct the water treatment plant at its originally planned outfall 200 location upstream of the Upper East Fork Poplar Creek. None of the funds available in this Act or any other Act are available for a new siting study for this project. If the Department wishes to use project funds to pursue a significant change in the approved scope of this project, including a change in project location, the Department shall submit a reprogramming request in accordance with the reprogramming requirements carried in this Act.

Office of River Protection.—The agreement provides $1,212,000,000. The Department is encouraged to complete work previously undertaken on removing salts from the low-activity tank waste streams by conducting conceptual design and cost estimating activities in order to gain a deeper understanding of its potential within recent waste treatment system changes.

Waste Isolation Pilot Plant (WIPP).—The agreement provides $320,000,000, including funds needed in fiscal year 2015 to fully support the WIPP recovery effort. None of the funds for WIPP shall be used to fund incident recovery or other transuranic waste activities at any other site. The Department is directed to provide a separate accounting of all funds supporting the WIPP recovery plan in its budget request for fiscal year 2016. The Secretary of Energy is directed to designate an official responsible for implementing the Department's recovery plan who shall provide quarterly updates on the Department's progress to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Technology Development and Deployment.—The agreement provides $14,000,000. Within these funds, $2,000,000 is for the National Spent Fuel Program at Idaho National Laboratory.

DEFENSE URANIUM ENRICHMENT

DECONTAMINATION AND DECOMMISSIONING

The agreement provides $463,000,000 for Defense Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning. Funds provide for a federal contribution into the Uranium Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund. The agreement does not include a reauthorization for the collection of a special assessment from private industry.

OTHER DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

The agreement provides $754,000,000 for Other Defense Activities.

POWER MARKETING ADMINISTRATIONS

BONNEVILLE POWER ADMINISTRATION FUND

The agreement provides no appropriation for the Bonneville Power Administration, which derives its funding from revenues deposited into the Bonneville Power Administration Fund.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, SOUTHEASTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides a net appropriation of $0 for the Southeastern Power Administration.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE,

SOUTHWESTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides a net appropriation of $11,400,000 for the Southwestern Power Administration.

CONSTRUCTION, REHABILITATION, OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, WESTERN AREA POWER ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides a net appropriation of $93,372,000 for the Western Area Power Administration.

FALCON AND AMISTAD OPERATING AND MAINTENANCE FUND

The agreement provides a net appropriation of $228,000 for the Falcon and Amistad Operating and Maintenance Fund. The agreement includes legislative language authorizing the acceptance and use of contributed funds in fiscal year 2015 for operating, maintaining, repairing, rehabilitating, replacing, or upgrading the hydroelectric facilities at the Falcon and Amistad Dams.

FEDERAL ENERGY REGULATORY COMMISSION SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $304,389,000 for the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC). Revenues for FERC are set to an amount equal to the budget authority, resulting in a net appropriation of $0. The agreement does not include language in House Report 113-486 regarding increased salaries and benefits.

The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) recently approved a request by the New York Independent System Operator (NYISO) for a new capacity zone (Docket N. ER13-1380-000). Concerns persist regarding the effect of the capacity zone on consumer costs. The FERC is not currently required to take further action in fiscal year 2015. However, should the Second Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals remand the order during 2015, the Commission would be required to issue an order in response to the decision. The FERC is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate on a quarterly basis through fiscal year 2016, beginning not later than 30 days after enactment of this Act, on the status of the court case, actions taken by FERC, and estimates of additional planned capacity and consumer costs.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

(INCLUDING TRANSFER AND RESCISSIONS OF FUNDS)

The agreement includes a provision prohibiting the use of funds provided in this title to initiate requests for proposals, other solicitations, or arrangements for new programs or activities that have not yet been approved and funded by the Congress; requires notification or a report for certain funding actions; prohibits funds to be used for certain multi-year "Energy Programs" activities without notification; and prohibits the obligation or expenditure of funds provided in this title through a reprogramming of funds except in certain circumstances.

The agreement includes a provision relating to unexpended balances.

The agreement includes a provision authorizing intelligence activities of the Department of Energy for purposes of section 504 of the National Security Act of 1947.

The agreement includes a provision prohibiting the use of funds in this title for capital construction of high hazard nuclear facilities, unless certain independent oversight is conducted.

The agreement includes a provision prohibiting the use of funds provided under this title to approve critical decision-2 or critical decision-3 for certain construction projects, unless a separate independent cost estimate has been developed for that critical decision.

The agreement includes a provision regarding uranium adverse material impact determinations and notification requirements for uranium transactions.

The agreement includes a provision prohibiting the Office of Science from entering into multi-year funding agreements with a value below a specific threshold.

The agreement includes a provision requiring analysis of alternatives for warhead life extension programs.

The agreement includes a provision rescinding certain prior-year funds. The rescission does not include funds previously appropriated in the "Construction, Rehabilitation, Operation and Maintenance, Western Area Power Administration" account for work related to the Animas-LaPlata Project. The Western Area Power Administration should note, however, that in future years this funding will be treated the same as other prior-year funds within DOE accounts. Therefore, Western and the Bureau of Reclamation are directed to work together to ensure that future budget requests include appropriate funding for these activities such that the costs will not be shifted to power customers who receive no benefit from the activities.

The agreement includes a provision prohibiting funds in the "Defense Nuclear Nonproliferation" account for certain activities and assistance in the Russian Federation.

The agreement includes a provision standardizing the availability of funds for certain research and development activities beginning in fiscal year 2016.

The agreement includes a provision directing the use of funds for the Domestic Uranium Enrichment program.

The agreement includes a provision regarding prohibiting funds to implement or enforce higher efficiency light bulb standards.

The agreement includes a provision regarding analysis and transparency requirements for uranium sales.

The agreement includes a provision regarding management of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve.

TITLE IV—INDEPENDENT AGENCIES

It is the mission of all the regional commissions to maximize spending on programs rather than personnel. Given the budget cuts the regional commissions have experienced in recent years, the regional commissions are directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a detailed accounting of all personnel costs, including an accounting for employees who are designated as non-federal employees, in their annual budget requests to Congress. If the regional commissions are to continue to be successful they need to show they are maximizing the public good and making sound personnel management decisions.

APPALACHIAN REGIONAL COMMISSION

The agreement provides $90,000,000 for the Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC). To diversify and enhance regional business development, $10,000,000 is provided to continue the program of high-speed broadband deployment in distressed counties within the Central Appalachian region that have been most negatively impacted by the downturn in the coal industry. This funding shall be in addition to the 30 percent directed to distressed counties.

Within the funding provided, $10,000,000 is recommended to support a workforce training program in Southern Appalachia, primarily focused on the automotive supplier industry. The program will benefit economically distressed counties in Southern Appalachia. This funding shall be in addition to any funds otherwise directed to distressed counties. The funds shall be distributed according to ARC's Distressed Counties Formula which includes land area, population estimates, and the number of distressed counties.

DEFENSE NUCLEAR FACILITIES SAFETY BOARD
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $28,500,000 for the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board.

DELTA REGIONAL AUTHORITY
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $12,000,000 for the Delta Regional Authority.

DENALI COMMISSION

The agreement provides $10,000,000 for the Denali Commission.

NORTHERN BORDER REGIONAL COMMISSION

The agreement provides $5,000,000 for the Northern Border Regional Commission.

SOUTHEAST CRESCENT REGIONAL COMMISSION

The agreement provides $250,000 for the Southeast Crescent Regional Commission.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $1,003,233,000 for Nuclear Regulatory Commission salaries and expenses. This amount is offset by estimated revenues of $885,375,000, resulting in a net appropriation of $117,858,000.

The agreement reduces the amount made available for salaries and expenses by $34,200,000 below the budget request to account for fee-based unobligated carryover from fiscal year 2014 to fiscal year 2015 and authorizes the Commission to re-allocate its unobligated carryover to supplement its fiscal year 2015 appropriation. The Commission is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 30 days after enactment of this Act a base table that documents this re-allocation. The agreement further reduces salaries and expenses by $10,000,000 below the budget request to account for lower-than-anticipated staffing levels. Within available funds, not more than $7,500,000 is included for salaries, travel, and other support costs for the Office of the Commission.

The Commission is directed to engage an outside entity with expertise on federal agency management to recommend ways it can reduce its corporate support requirements and improve the efficiency of the Commission's internal processes. The Commission is further directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than May 1, 2015, the review's findings, budgetary impacts, and a long-term strategic workforce plan. The Commission is also encouraged to have a fair, effective, predictable, and efficient process for subsequent license renewal that builds upon the technical and regulatory success of the initial license renewal process and to act expeditiously, particularly for licensees actively planning to pursue subsequent license renewal in the 2017 timeframe, to ensure timely issuance of the regulatory guidance and establishment of the updated framework for subsequent license renewal.

A recent report by the Department of Energy's Office of Nuclear Energy concluded that the nuclear energy workforce is more stable than it has been in several decades, noting that this is due in part to established programs that drive interest in the field. In light of current circumstances, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, in consultation with the Department of Energy's Office of Nuclear Energy and industry, is directed to review the Integrated University Program with regard to its effectiveness and recommend any changes necessary to maintain its efficacy in ensuring that the Nation continues to have a sufficient nuclear workforce. The study should include any specialized areas that may require training beyond that which is necessary for the general nuclear workforce.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The agreement includes $12,071,000 for the Office of Inspector General in the Nuclear Regulatory Commission. This amount is offset by revenues of $10,099,000, for a net appropriation of $1,972,000.

The agreement includes a provision to permanently authorize the Inspector General of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to execute the duties and responsibilities in the Inspector General Act of 1978 with respect to the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board. The agreement provides $850,000 to carry out these responsibilities in fiscal year 2015.

NUCLEAR WASTE TECHNICAL REVIEW BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $3,400,000 for the Nuclear Waste Technical Review Board.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—INDEPENDENT AGENCIES

The agreement includes a provision permanently requiring reporting on the use of emergency authority.

The agreement includes a provision instructing the Nuclear Regulatory Commission on responding to congressional requests for information.

The agreement includes a provision mandating an evaluation of and reporting on the effectiveness of domestic radiological security requirements.

The agreement includes a provision requiring each agency receiving funding to submit a Congressional Budget Justification and annual report.

TITLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

The agreement includes a provision relating to lobbying restrictions.

The agreement includes a provision relating to transfer authority. No additional transfer authority is implied or conveyed by this provision. For the purposes of this provision, the term "transfer" shall mean the shifting of all or part of the budget authority in one account to another. In addition to transfers provided in this Act or other appropriations Acts, and existing authorities, such as the Economy Act (31 U.S.C. 1535), by which one part of the United States Government may provide goods or services to another part, the Act allows transfers using Section 4705 of the Atomic Energy Defense Act (50 U.S.C. 2745) and 15 U.S.C. 638 regarding SBIR/STTR.

The agreement includes a provision prohibiting funds to be used in contravention of the executive order entitled "Federal Actions to Address Environmental Justice in Minority Populations and Low-Income Populations."

DIVISION E—FINANCIAL SERVICES AND GENERAL GOVERNMENT APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

Language included in House Report 113–508 that is not changed by this explanatory statement is approved. This explanatory statement, while repeating some report language for emphasis, is not intended to negate the language referenced in the House Committee report unless expressly provided herein.

Program, Project and Activity.—During fiscal year 2015, for the purposes of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (Public Law 99–177), as amended, with respect to appropriations contained in Division E of the agreement, the terms “program, project, and activity” (PPA) shall mean any item for which a dollar amount is contained in appropriations acts (including joint resolutions providing continuing appropriations) or accompanying reports of the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees), or accompanying conference reports and joint explanatory statements of the committee of conference.

Operating Plan.—Each agency shall submit an operating plan to the Committees not later than 60 days after enactment of this Act to establish the baseline for application of reprogramming and transfer authorities. The operating plan shall provide a table for each appropriation with columns displaying the budget request; adjustments made by Congress; adjustments for rescissions, if appropriate; and the fiscal year enacted level. The table shall delineate the appropriation both by object class and by PPA, and identify items of special congressional interest.

Reprogramming of Funds.—The bill includes a general provision (section 608) establishing the authority of agencies to reprogram funds, the limitation on that authority, and the circumstances under which the advance approval of the Committees is required prior to the reprogramming of funds. Except in emergency situations, reprogramming requests should be submitted no later than June 30.

When a Department or agency submits a reprogramming or transfer request to the Committees and does not receive identical responses from the House and the Senate, it is the responsibility of the Department or agency to reconcile the House and the Senate differences before proceeding, and if reconciliation is not possible, to consider the request to reprogram funds unapproved.

Relationship with Budget Offices.—The bill directs that justifications submitted with the fiscal year 2016 budget requests by agencies funded under this Act must contain the customary level of detailed data and explanatory statements to support the appropriations requests at the level of detail contained in the funding table included at the end of the report. Among other items, agencies shall provide a detailed discussion of proposed new initiatives, proposed changes in the agency's financial plan from prior year enactment, and detailed data on all programs and comprehensive information on any office or agency restructurings. At a minimum, each agency must also provide adequate justification for funding and staffing changes for each individual office. Explanatory materials should compare programs, projects, and activities that are proposed for fiscal year 2016 to the fiscal year 2015 enacted level. The budget justification materials shall also incorporate a separate table briefly describing the top management challenges for fiscal year 2015 as identified by the agency inspector general, along with an explanation of how the fiscal year 2016 budget request addresses each such management challenge.

Agency Reports.—Agencies funded by this Act that currently provide separate copies of periodic reports and correspondence to the chairs and ranking members of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees and Subcommittees on Financial Services and General Government are directed to use a single cover letter jointly addressed to the chairs and ranking members of the Committees and Subcommittees of both the House and the Senate. To the greatest extent feasible, agencies should include in the cover letter a reference or hyperlink to facilitate electronic access to the report and provide the documents by electronic mail delivery. These measures will help reduce costs, conserve paper, expedite agency processing, and ensure that consistent information is conveyed concurrently to the majority and minority committee offices of both chambers of Congress.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

DEPARTMENTAL OFFICES
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $210,000,000 for departmental offices salaries and expenses. Within the amount provided under this heading, $9,500,000 is for the audit, oversight, and administration of the Gulf Coast Restoration Trust Fund, including evaluation of implementation plans submitted by Gulf Coast States and coastal political subdivisions; $3,400,000 is for the development and implementation of programs within the Office of Critical Infrastructure Protection and Compliance Policy; and up to $1,000,000 is for continued contributions to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development to cover the Department's participation in programs related to global tax administration.

Communication Failures.—The Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate are concerned about the responsiveness of the Office of the Secretary and the Office of Legislative Affairs to Congressional requests. Communication failures undermine the Administration's ability to achieve its legislative priorities and the Congress' ability to understand the activities, expenditures, budget needs and policy priorities of the Department's bureaus and offices. The Office of the Secretary and the Office of Legislative Affairs are strongly encouraged to provide timely and complete responses to Congressional requests, to make officials and staff available for briefings, and to follow through when additional agency action is required.

Cloud Computing Usage.—Well-planned cloud-based computing solutions offer the opportunity for potential savings on the order of millions of dollars. The Department shall provide a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate by September 30, 2015, on current and planned cloud computing usage by bureau and office. The report should also include the costs and savings in 2014–15 realized as a result of such usage, plans to retire associated legacy systems, and milestones in meeting Federal security standards.

Wildlife Trafficking.—The Secretary shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate and the appropriate authorizing committees, not later than 90 days after the date of enactment, outlining the specific steps being taken by the Department to further address wildlife trafficking and illegal natural resources trade, the engagement of the Department with the Presidential Task Force on Wildlife Trafficking, steps taken by the Department to implement the National Strategy on Wildlife Trafficking, resources aligned to activities and initiatives to address wildlife and natural resources trafficking, and recommendations for any authorities needed to combat money laundering related to wildlife trafficking and the trade of illegally harvested timber.

Foreclosure Crisis.—The Secretary is directed to encourage mortgage servicers and investors, including Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, to consider and implement foreclosure mitigation authorities as provided in P.L. 110–343 to help save taxpayer dollars while allowing homeowners to remain in their homes. The Department shall also ensure mortgage servicers are properly complying with the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP) agreements and to provide ample technical assistance and outreach to properly educate servicers about their responsibilities under the program.

Crimea.—Due to concerns about the Russian aggression in Ukraine, Russia's illegal annexation of Crimea, and Russia's illegal and unacceptable efforts to exploit stolen Crimean resources, the Department is urged to spend none of the funds in this Act to recognize, or imply recognition, of the sovereignty of the Russian Federation over Crimea, its territory, airspace, or territorial waters.

Cybercrime.—To better enhance data protection, the Department of the Treasury shall report to Congress within 120 days after enactment identifying ways in which it engages with various Federal law enforcement agencies and regulators, including but not limited to the Department of Homeland Security, including the Secret Service, and the Department of Justice, as well as key international partners, to coordinate to combat cybercrime and data breaches. In particular, this report should include ways that these law enforcement entities currently, or may in the future, leverage resources of other agencies in order to enhance data security. Further, the report should identify where Federal regulatory agencies fail to effectively cooperate with each other as well as with law enforcement to ensure the most effective protections, standards, and enforcement measures are in place to protect consumers' financial data. The report should also identify recommendations for additional supervision, legislation, regulation and enforcement where significant gaps exist.

Ivory Poaching.—The Department is directed to pursue and enforce money laundering and other related laws as related to the illegal ivory trade, particularly in Africa, and to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate semi-annually during fiscal year 2015 on enforcement actions taken during such fiscal year.

Gulf Coast Restoration.—The Department is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate within 180 days of enactment on staffing for oversight and implementation of the Gulf Coast Restoration Trust Fund, including full-time equivalents hired and their specific responsibilities, and applications for the fund, including number of applications received, and the average number of days to approve or reject complete applications. Consistent with Subtitle F of Public Law 112–141, the Department's statutory role in administering the Direct Component is not to determine which projects and programs will best benefit the Gulf Coast region. Instead, Treasury is expected to expeditiously review applications to solely determine compliance with eligibility criteria and other requirements set forth in the Resources and Ecosystem Sustainability, Tourist Opportunities, and Revived Economies of the Gulf Coast States (RESTORE) Act and other Federal laws and policies.

Management of Capital Investments.—As required by Section 120 of this bill, the Department is directed to submit a Capital Investment Plan to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate, including estimated funding requirements for the lifetime capital needs of a project, not just the budget year, and meaningful, understandable summaries of capital investments by project type.

OFFICE OF TERRORISM AND FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $112,500,000 for the Office of Terrorism and Financial Intelligence, of which no more than $27,000,000 is for administrative expenses and $1,000,000 is available until September 30, 2016.

Economic Sanctions and Divestments.—The Department of the Treasury will fully implement sanctions and divestment measures applicable to the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant, Russia, North Korea, Syria, Iran, Sudan, Zimbabwe and designated rebel groups operating in and around the Democratic Republic of Congo. The Department will promptly notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate of any resource constraints that adversely impact the implementation of these sanctions programs.

DEPARTMENT-WIDE SYSTEMS AND CAPITAL INVESTMENTS PROGRAMS

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $2,725,000 for the Department-Wide Systems and Capital Investments Programs.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $35,351,000 for the Office of Inspector General.

The Inspector General shall utilize funds provided to perform audits on Treasury's anti-money laundering and terrorist financing activities, capital investment spending and planning, and the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund.

TREASURY INSPECTOR GENERAL FOR TAX
ADMINISTRATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $158,210,000 for salaries and expenses of the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA).

TIGTA is directed to keep the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate regularly informed about its ongoing audit, investigative, and examination work, including briefings on final reports before such reports are publicly released.

SPECIAL INSPECTOR GENERAL FOR THE TROUBLED ASSET RELIEF PROGRAM

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $34,234,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of the Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program (SIGTARP).

SIGTARP is expected, within its audits and investigations, to continue to monitor the Hardest Hit Fund (HHF) and alert the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate if any HHF funds are used inappropriately by any State or local government for the purpose of funding pension obligations.

FINANCIAL CRIMES ENFORCEMENT NETWORK
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $112,000,000 for salaries and expenses of the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN).

FinCEN is directed to continue efforts to improve the completeness and reliability of Bank Secrecy Act data in accordance with Treasury Inspector General and Government Accountability Office (GAO) recommendations. FinCEN is directed to submit a written update to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate within 60 days of enactment on the status of its reorganization including information about any significant impacts on productivity due to staff transitions, as well as a final report one year after the last step of the reorganization is completed. As part of marshalling its unique expertise in analyzing financial flows to combat human trafficking, in the course of ongoing strategic operations, FinCEN shall routinely monitor the effectiveness of its September 2014 advisory to financial institutions on including red flag indicators in relevant suspicious activity report narratives.

TREASURY FORFEITURE FUND
(RESCISSION)

The bill includes a rescission of $769,000,000 of the unobligated balances in the Treasury Forfeiture Fund.

BUREAU OF THE FISCAL SERVICE
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $348,184,000 for salaries and expenses of the Bureau of the Fiscal Service, and provides $165,000 to be derived from the Oil Spill Liability Trust Fund to reimburse Fiscal Service personnel for financial management of the fund.

Do Not Pay Center.—The Bureau is directed to submit a report within 180 days of enactment of this Act to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate on its progress toward developing the Do Not Pay Center, including how the center incorporates (1) comparisons of payment and beneficiary enrollment lists for State programs that use Federal funds to identify improper payments, (2) reviews of payments across Federal programs to identify payment duplication, and (3) metrics used to determine the effectiveness of analytical and investigatory efforts to reduce improper payments.

ALCOHOL AND TOBACCO TAX AND TRADE BUREAU

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $100,000,000 for salaries and expenses of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau. Within this amount, $3,000,000 is for the cost of special law enforcement agents to target tobacco smuggling and other criminal diversion activities.

The Bureau is directed to include in their fiscal year 2016 budget request the full cost of supporting special law enforcement agents working on tobacco smuggling and other criminal diversion activities solely within the Bureau. These activities are clearly within the Bureau's expertise and should be better reflected in the Bureau's future budget requests.

UNITED STATES MINT

UNITED STATES MINT PUBLIC ENTERPRISE FUND

The bill specifies that not more than $20,000,000 in new liabilities and obligations may be incurred during fiscal year 2015 for circulating coinage and protective service capital investments of the U.S. Mint.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS FUND PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The bill provides $230,500,000 for the Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI) Fund program. Within this amount, not less than $152,400,000 is for financial and technical assistance grants; not less than $15,000,000 is for technical assistance and other purposes for Native American, Native Hawaiian, and Alaskan Native communities; not less than $22,000,000 is for the Healthy Food Financing Initiative; not less than $18,000,000 is for the Bank Enterprise Award program; and up to $23,100,000 is for administrative expenses. The bill limits the total loan principal for the Bond Guarantee program to $750,000,000.

Healthy Food Financing Initiative.—The CDFI Fund is directed to encourage awardees to include food hubs as part of the overall strategy for increasing the availability of healthy, affordable foods, as required under the Healthy Food Financing Initiative.

CDFI Capacity Building.—To enhance the CDFI Fund's efforts in building the capacity of CDFIs to serve the needs of underserved communities, $1,000,000 is provided to support the enhancement of CDFIs' presence and activities in underserved communities.

Non-Metropolitan and Rural Areas.—The Treasury Department is directed to take into consideration the unique conditions, challenges and scale of non-metropolitan areas when designing programs to address economic revitalization and community development.

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

Operating Plan and Notification.—In its operating plan submitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees), the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) shall include comments of the IRS Oversight Board as well as details on any planned agency reorganizations, job reductions, or increases to offices or activities, and modifications to any service or enforcement activity, and shall promptly notify the Committees and the IRS Oversight Board of any substantial changes to these plans.

Budget Presentation for Staffing of New Initiatives.—The IRS is directed to ensure that the justification materials submitted to the Committees for fiscal year 2016 accurately reflect the anticipated hiring dates for staff identified for proposed new initiatives, rather than assuming that such planned hiring will occur at the start of the fiscal year.

Reconciliation.—The IRS shall submit quarterly reports about reconciling advance premium tax credits as described in House Report 113-508.

Bonuses.—Not later than 30 days after enactment of this Act, the Commissioner shall submit a report to the Committees on the policy used to consider conduct issues resulting in disciplinary actions, including the nonpayment of taxes, prior to awarding all types of employee performance and discretionary awards. This report shall also explain the internal controls that ensure strict adherence to the policy by IRS management.

TAXPAYER SERVICES

The bill provides $2,156,554,000 for Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Taxpayer Services. Within the overall amount, not less than $10,000,000 is for low-income taxpayer clinic grants, not less than $7,000,000 is for the Tax Counseling for the Elderly program, and not less than $206,000,000 is provided for operating expenses of the IRS Taxpayer Advocate Service, of which not less than $5,000,000 is for identity theft casework.

In addition, within the overall amount provided, not less than $12,000,000, available until September 30, 2016, is included for the Community Volunteer Income Tax Assistance matching grants program.

Free File.—In lieu of the House report language requiring monthly reports on the Free File program, IRS is directed to provide quarterly briefings to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate on actions taken and planned to complete a five-year Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Free File Alliance in a timely manner. The current MOU expires in October 2015 and this valuable service should continue without interruption.

Taxpayer Assistance Blueprint Updates.—The IRS, the IRS Oversight Board, and the National Taxpayer Advocate are directed to continue to submit to Congress annual updates to the Taxpayer Assistance Blueprint identifying any changes to the current strategic plan for taxpayer service, including the results of any new research and relevant findings, and any open issues requiring additional research.

Rural Service Delivery Issues.—The IRS is directed to identify changes to its current strategic plan for taxpayer service delivery to help alleviate difficulties faced by rural taxpayers seeking guidance and assistance to properly file their tax returns. The IRS is directed to examine the impacts on minority, rural, elderly, disabled, and low-income populations of closing Taxpayer Assistance Center locations, limiting the types of questions and time of year IRS employees can answer such questions, and eliminating the tax return preparation assistance for qualifying taxpayers.

Taxpayer Services in Alaska and Hawaii.—As directed annually since fiscal year 1997, the IRS shall continue to staff each Taxpayer Advocate Service Center in Alaska and Hawaii with a collection technical advisor and an examination technical advisor in addition to the current complement of office staff.

ENFORCEMENT

The bill provides $4,860,000,000 for Enforcement.

Combating Refund Fraud and Identity Theft.—The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is directed to institute, and share with the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees) within 90 days of enactment of this Act, an updated action plan and timetable predicated on a goal of reducing by half the average amount of time a taxpayer must await a disposition of a refund fraud claim.

Preventing Payroll Tax Fraud.—The IRS is directed to intensify its scrutiny of questionable practices of payroll service providers and continue to inform taxpayers of their responsibility for payment of all Federal and State employment taxes notwithstanding any contractual relationship with a payroll service provider. The IRS is further directed to update its 2014 report to the Committees within 60 days of enactment of this Act of changes in information provided in the earlier submission.

Addressing Fraud and Filing Errors in Refundable Credit Programs.—In an effort to reduce intentional fraud and filing errors in refundable credit programs intended to help taxpayers, the Department of the Treasury is directed to ensure that the same questions are being asked of taxpayers whether they are preparing their returns with a paid tax preparer or via do it-yourself methods such as paper forms, preparation software, or online preparation tools. Implementing uniform questions for refundable credit filers is a common sense step that will help alleviate confusion over eligibility and better establish qualification for these credits. The Department of the Treasury shall ensure that all questions asked on forms 8867 or 9867, or for any other refundable tax credit programs, will be the same questions the Internal Revenue Service requires tax filers to answer regardless of filing method.

Misclassification of Contractors.—Prior to any staffing reductions at IRS SS-8 processing locations, the IRS shall provide a report to the Committees detailing the past 5 years of staffing levels and employee productivity, SS-8 receipt volumes, and rationale for the proposed workforce changes.

OPERATIONS SUPPORT

The bill provides $3,638,446,000 for Operations Support.

Information Technology Management and Oversight.—The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) shall include within its fiscal year 2016 budget request a proposed long-term multiyear funding strategy and timetable to upgrade and modernize the aging legacy IRS information technology infrastructure. The IRS shall utilize and keep the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate informed of a strategic plan, including identification of specific short-term and long-term opportunities for new or enhanced uses of e-services and an assessment of the related resource needs.

BUSINESS SYSTEMS MODERNIZATION

The bill provides $290,000,000 for Business Systems Modernization.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill includes the following provisions: Section 101 provides transfer authority.

Section 102 requires the IRS to maintain an employee training program on topics such as taxpayers' rights.

Section 103 requires the IRS to safeguard taxpayer information and to protect taxpayers against identity theft.

Section 104 permits funding for 1-800 help line services for taxpayers and directs the Commissioner to make improving phone service a priority and to enhance response times.

Section 105 prohibits funds for videos unless reviewed in advance by the IRS' Video Editorial Board for cost, topic, tone, and purpose.

Section 106 requires the IRS to issue notices to employers of any address change request and to give special consideration to offers in compromise for taxpayers who have been victims of payroll tax preparer fraud.

Section 107 prohibits the use of funds by the IRS to target United States citizens for exercising any right guaranteed under the First Amendment to the Constitution.

Section 108 prohibits the use of funds by the IRS to target groups for regulatory scrutiny based on their ideological beliefs.

Section 109 requires the IRS to comply with procedures and policies on conference spending in accordance with IRS policies issued as a result of Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration recommendations.

Section 110 prohibits the IRS from using funds made available by this Act to contravene a provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 related to the confidentiality and disclosure of returns and return information.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill includes the following provisions:

Section 111 allows Treasury to use funds for certain specified expenses.

Section 112 allows for the transfer of up to 2 percent of funds among various Treasury bureaus and offices.

Section 113 allows for the transfer of up to 2 percent from the IRS accounts to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration.

Section 114 prohibits funding to redesign the $1 note.

Section 115 allows for the transfer of funds from the Bureau of Fiscal Service-Salaries and Expenses to the Debt Collection Fund conditional on future reimbursement.

Section 116 prohibits funds to build a United States Mint museum without the approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate and the authorizing committees of jurisdiction.

Section 117 prohibits funding for consolidating the functions of the United States Mint and the Bureau of Engraving and Printing without the approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate and the authorizing committees of jurisdiction.

Section 118 specifies that funds for Treasury intelligence activities are deemed to be specifically authorized until enactment of the fiscal year 2015 intelligence authorization act.

Section 119 permits the Bureau of Engraving and Printing to use up to $5,000 from the Industrial Revolving Fund for reception and representation expenses.

Section 120 requires the Secretary to submit a Capital Investment Plan.

Section 121 requires the Office of Financial Research and Office of Financial Stability Oversight to submit quarterly reports.

Section 122 requires a Franchise Fund report.

Section 123 requires the Department to submit a report on economic warfare and financial terrorism.

Health Insurance Exchange Premium Payments.—The Secretary shall submit each month to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate an accounting of the number of individuals who have not paid the full amount of any premium owed for the preceding month for coverage under a qualified health plan that was enrolled in through a health insurance exchange.

TITLE II—EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT AND FUNDS APPROPRIATED TO THE PRESIDENT

THE WHITE HOUSE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $55,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the White House. The Executive Office of the President is directed to allocate sufficient resources to continue the robust operation of the Office of National AIDS Policy and to continue to coordinate a Government-wide effort to achieve the goals of the National HIV/AIDS strategy.

EXECUTIVE RESIDENCE AT THE WHITE HOUSE

OPERATING EXPENSES

The bill provides $12,700,000 for the Executive Residence at the White House.

WHITE HOUSE REPAIR AND RESTORATION

The bill provides $625,000 for repair, alteration and improvement of the Executive Residence at the White House.

COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISERS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $4,184,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Council of Economic Advisers.

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL AND HOMELAND SECURITY COUNCIL

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $12,600,000 for the salaries and expenses of the National Security Council and Homeland Security Council.

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $111,300,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Office of Administration. The bill includes not to exceed $12,006,000, to remain available until expended, for information technology modernization. The Office of Administration is directed to continue to implement comprehensive policies to preserve all records, including electronic records, consistent with the Presidential Records Act, the Federal Records Act, and other pertinent laws, and in close coordination with the National Archives and Records Administration.

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $91,750,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).

OMB is directed to allocate increased funds toward non-politically appointed civil service staff and to utilize additional resources to respond to, in a timely and complete manner, requests from Congress.

In lieu of House report language regarding reports on personnel and obligations, OMB is directed to provide the Committees with quarterly reports on personnel and obligations, including: on-board staffing levels by office, estimated staffing levels by office for the remainder of the fiscal year, total obligations incurred to date, estimated total obligations for the remainder of the fiscal year, and a narrative description of current hiring initiatives and any other issues that affect OMB's ability to add additional staff as intended.

OMB is directed to continue to enhance the Federal Budgeting System, which is accessed by over 1,000 users Government-wide to collect, analyze and publish information related to the Federal budget, and to notify the Committees of any cost-effective opportunities that OMB may identify to further improve the system.

Agency staffing decisions should be based on agency workload and the level of funds made available rather than pre-determined formulaic reductions. Decisions to backfill vacant positions should be based on the number of staff with the combination of skills and qualifications necessary to carry out the agency's mission within available funding levels. The OMB Director shall report within 60 days of enactment of this Act to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees) on any agencies not adhering to the policies mentioned above.

OMB is directed to issue guidance, consistent with section 735 of division D of the Omnibus Appropriations Act, 2009, Public Law 111-8, and section 739(a)(1) of division D of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2008 (Public Law 110-161), and section 327 of the 2008 National Defense Authorization Act (Public Law 110-181), regarding use of direct conversions to contract out, in whole or in part, activities or functions last performed by Federal employees.

OMB is directed to issue guidance within 60 days of enactment of this Act, notifying all agencies of their responsibilities to adhere to the requirements included in the Government-wide general provisions.

OMB shall notify the Committees annually of any agencies that fail to report conference expenditures on their agency websites, as required by OMB Memorandum M-12-12.

OMB shall report to the Committees within 180 days of enactment of this Act on recommendations to improve the Federal Acquisition Regulation to prevent agencies from issuing contract incentives to underperforming contractors.

In lieu of the general provision previously included in this bill to require certain agencies to provide quarterly reports on unobligated balances, OMB is directed to report to the Committees within 45 days of the end of each fiscal quarter on available balances at the start of the fiscal year, current year obligations, and resulting unobligated balances for each discretionary account within the following agencies: the Department of the Treasury, the Executive Office of the President, the Federal Communications Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the General Services Administration, the National Archives and Records Administration, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the Small Business Administration.

OFFICE OF NATIONAL DRUG CONTROL POLICY

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $22,647,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP).

There is cause for concern about the increasing popularity of synthetic drugs, particularly among teens and young adults. Synthetic drugs have caused significant abuse, addiction, emergency department visits, organ damage, and overdose deaths. ONDCP is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate no later than 90 days after enactment of this Act on: (1) what preventative steps the Administration is taking to educate people about the health risks posed by these substances; (2) how the Administration intends to address the manufacture, distribution, sale and use of synthetic drugs; and (3) ONDCP's coordination with other Federal agencies, Drug-Free Community coalitions, and High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA) partners to combat this threat.

FEDERAL DRUG CONTROL PROGRAMS

HIGH INTENSITY DRUG TRAFFICKING AREAS PROGRAM

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $245,000,000 for the High Intensity Drug Trafficking Areas (HIDTA) Program.

ONDCP is directed to consult with the HIDTAs in advance of deciding programmatic spending allocations for discretionary (supplemental) funding.

ONDCP is directed to transfer HIDTA funds to the appropriate drug control agencies expeditiously and provisions are included in the bill to help prevent delay. Transferred funds that are no longer necessary for their original purpose may be transferred back to the HIDTA program.

HIDTA funds should not be used to supplant existing support for ongoing Federal, State, or local drug control operations normally funded out of the operating budgets of each agency. ONDCP is directed to withhold all HIDTA funds from a State until such time as a State or locality has met its financial obligation.

The Midwest region continues to serve as a strategic conduit for drug traffickers between the east and west coasts. ONDCP is directed to update the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate on how its programs are addressing these challenges.

In previous years, ONDCP has provided HIDTA discretionary funding for a Native American program to combat drug trafficking on tribal lands. This is a worthwhile and necessary investment that should be continued.

Opioid addiction and the resultant increase in trafficking of, and addiction to, heroin is an emergent threat to communities across the nation. To the extent practicable, ONDCP is encouraged, in consultation with the HIDTA Directors, to prioritize discretionary funds to aid States that have identified heroin addiction as an emergent threat and that are developing community responses to combat addiction to heroin and other opioids.

OTHER FEDERAL DRUG CONTROL PROGRAMS

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $107,150,000 for Other Federal Drug Control Programs. The agreement allocates funds among specific programs as follows:

Drug-Free Communities Program .....	93,500,000
(Training .....	2,000,000)
Drug court training and technical assistance .....	1,400,000
Anti-Doping activities .....	9,000,000
World Anti-Doping Agency (U.S. membership dues) .....	2,000,000
Discretionary Grants as authorized by P.L. 109-469, section 1105 .....	1,250,000

ONDCP and Drug Free Communities grantees should emphasize training and assistance in the prevention of prescription drug and heroin abuse in States that have seen a spike in opioid abuse. Training, assistance, and coordination with other State and local efforts can reduce heroin and prescription opioid addiction through education and prevention efforts.

UNANTICIPATED NEEDS

The bill provides $800,000 for Unanticipated Needs.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY OVERSIGHT AND REFORM

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $20,000,000 for information technology oversight and reform activities. The bill continues language requiring the submission of quarterly reports outlining the savings achieved through the Administration's information technology reform efforts.

High Priority IT Investments.—The Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate are concerned about the large number of major IT development projects that are over-budget, off-schedule and ultimately fail to function. To address these concerns, funding is included to support the budget request for the new "Digital Service", which will provide enhanced oversight and guidance for major IT investments. As one component of this oversight, the Executive Office of the President (EOP) shall identify the 10 highest priority IT investment projects that are under development across Federal agencies and report quarterly to the Committees on Appropriations, the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs and the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform on the status of these projects. In addition, the EOP shall provide the Committees on Appropriations a quarterly report describing progress made by the Department of Defense and the Department of Veterans Affairs to build interoperability between the current Electronic Health Records (EHR) legacy systems and future EHR systems.

IT Dashboard.—The EOP is directed to issue guidance to Federal agencies requiring all major IT investments to be consistently included on the IT Dashboard, to explore other meaningful data to include on the Dashboard, and to ensure the accuracy of investment data.

SPECIAL ASSISTANCE TO THE PRESIDENT
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $4,211,000 for salaries and expenses to enable the Vice President to provide special assistance to the President.

OFFICIAL RESIDENCE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
OPERATING EXPENSES
(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $299,000 for operating expenses for the official residence of the Vice President.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT AND FUNDS APPROPRIATED TO THE PRESIDENT

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides the following Administrative Provisions under this title:

Section 201 provides transfer authority among various Executive Office of the President accounts.

Section 202 requires the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to report on the costs of implementing the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Public Law 111-203).

Section 203 requires the Director of the OMB to include a statement of budgetary impact with any Executive order issued during fiscal year 2015.

Section 204 requires a detailed narrative and financial plan for Office of National Drug Control Policy Funds.

Section 205 provides transfer authority among Office of National Drug Control Policy accounts.

Section 206 governs reprogramming of Office of National Drug Control Policy funds.

Section 207 provides a technical correction to the fiscal year 2014 Data-Driven Innovation appropriations language.

TITLE III—THE JUDICIARY

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $74,967,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Supreme Court. In addition, the bill provides mandatory costs as authorized by current law for the salaries of the chief justice and associate justices of the court.

CARE OF THE BUILDING AND GROUNDS

The bill provides $11,640,000 for the care of the Supreme Court building and grounds.

The Supreme Court shall provide biannual updates of the facade stone restoration project as well as any other significant rehabilitative work to be undertaken, including descriptions, timelines, and funding details.

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $30,212,000 for the salaries and expenses of the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. In addition, the bill provides mandatory costs as authorized by current law for the salaries of the chief judge and judges of the court.

UNITED STATES COURT OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $17,807,000 for the salaries and expenses of the United States Court of International Trade. In addition, the bill provides mandatory costs as authorized by current law for the salaries of the chief judge and judges of the court.

COURTS OF APPEALS, DISTRICT COURTS, AND OTHER JUDICIAL SERVICES

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $4,846,818,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Courts of Appeals,

District Courts, and Other Judicial Services. In addition, the bill provides mandatory costs as authorized by current law for the salaries of circuit and district judges (including judges of the territorial courts of the United States), bankruptcy judges, and justices and judges retired from office or from regular active service. The bill provides the Judiciary with its most current estimate of costs for this account. The bill also provides $5,423,000 from the Vaccine Injury Compensation Trust Fund.

The Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts in coordination with the Court of Federal claims is directed to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees) on the historical caseload, staffing, and spending levels for the Vaccine Injury Compensation Trust Fund within 120 days of enactment of this Act.

Beginning in fiscal year 2016, the Judiciary shall provide to the Committees annually, as part of its budget justification, a description of its courthouse capital planning process, including the Judiciary's highest priorities for that fiscal year.

DEFENDER SERVICES

The bill provides $1,016,499,000 for Defender Services. The bill provides the Judiciary with its most current estimate of costs for this account.

FEES OF JURORS AND COMMISSIONERS

The bill provides $52,191,000 for Fees of Jurors and Commissioners. The bill provides the Judiciary with its most current estimate of costs for this account.

COURT SECURITY

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $513,975,000 for Court Security. The bill provides the Judiciary with its most current estimate of costs for this account.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES COURTS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $84,399,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

FEDERAL JUDICIAL CENTER

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $26,959,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Federal Judicial Center.

UNITED STATES SENTENCING COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $16,894,000 for the salaries and expenses of the United States Sentencing Commission.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—THE JUDICIARY
(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill includes the following administrative provisions:

Section 301 makes funds appropriated for salaries and expenses available for services authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109.

Section 302 provides transfer authority among Judiciary appropriations.

Section 303 permits not more than $11,000 to be used for official reception and representation expenses of the Judicial Conference.

Section 304 extends through fiscal year 2015 the delegation of authority to the Judiciary for contracts for repairs of less than $100,000.

Section 305 continues a pilot program where the United States Marshals Service provides perimeter security services at selected courthouses.

Section 306 extends temporary judgeships in the eastern district of Missouri, Kansas, Arizona, the central district of California, Hawaii, the northern district of Alabama, the southern district of Florida, New Mexico, the western district of North Carolina, and the eastern district of Texas.

Section 307 establishes a place of holding court in Bakersfield, California.

Section 308 eliminates a reporting requirement.

TITLE IV—DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA FEDERAL FUNDS

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR RESIDENT TUITION SUPPORT

The bill provides $30,000,000 for District of Columbia resident tuition support. The State Superintendent is directed to include, as a component of the fiscal year 2016 budget justification submission, an annual update of the District's efforts, including research findings, to enhance the retention, persistence, and graduation rates of program participants, including early awareness and readiness initiatives to promote academic college preparation, guidance, and other support mechanisms and partnerships. The budget justification should also describe the status and effectiveness of cost containment measures instituted.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR EMERGENCY PLANNING AND SECURITY COSTS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

The bill provides $12,500,000 for emergency planning and security costs in the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia is directed to submit a detailed budget justification for emergency planning and security with its funding request for fiscal year 2016. The District of Columbia shall also submit, within 60 days of the end of fiscal year 2015, a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate detailing the purposes and amounts expended using the funds, particularly noting any deviation from the original proposed spending.

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURTS

The bill provides $245,110,000 for the District of Columbia Courts. Within the amount provided, $13,622,000 is for the District of Columbia Court of Appeals; $116,443,000 is for the Superior Court of the District of Columbia; $71,155,000 is for the District of Columbia Court System; and $43,890,000 is for capital improvements for District of Columbia court facilities.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR DEFENDER SERVICES IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURTS

The bill provides $49,890,000 for Defender Services in District of Columbia Courts.

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE COURT SERVICES AND OFFENDER SUPERVISION AGENCY FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

The bill provides $234,000,000 to the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency for the District of Columbia. Within the amount provided, $173,155,000 is for Community Supervision and Sex Offender Registration and $60,845,000 is for the Pretrial Services Agency for the District of Columbia. The recommendation includes $9,000,000 in multi-year funds for costs associated with the expiration of facility leases.

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICE

The bill provides $41,231,000 for the District of Columbia Public Defender Service. The recommendation includes a $1,150,000 multi-year funds provision for costs associated with the expiration of facility leases.

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA WATER AND SEWER AUTHORITY

The bill provides $14,000,000 for the District of Columbia Water and Sewer Authority.

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE COORDINATING COUNCIL

The bill provides $1,900,000 for the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC). The CJCC is directed to submit annual performance measures in a report to accompany the fiscal year 2016 budget justification, which should also describe progress made on specific CJCC initiatives.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR JUDICIAL COMMISSIONS

The bill provides $565,000 for Judicial Commissions. Within the amount provided, $295,000 is for the Commission on Judicial Disabilities and Tenure, and $270,000 is for the Judicial Nomination Commission.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

The bill provides $45,000,000 for school improvement in the District of Columbia, in accordance with the provisions of the Scholarship for Opportunity and Results Act (P.L. 112-10) (SOAR Act).

The Secretary of Education (Secretary) shall ensure that all students eligible for a scholarship are aware of the program and have an opportunity to participate. Within the funds available in this and prior years, the Secretary shall provide scholarships for students currently enrolled and as many new students as financially feasible based on the eligibility requirements outlined in section 3013(3) of the SOAR Act and using the priorities outlined in section 3006 of the SOAR Act.

The Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees) understand that the Secretary is working on a grant competition for the administration of the Opportunity Scholarships Program (OSP) in accordance with the requirements in section 3004 of the SOAR Act and using the criteria outlined in section 3005 of the SOAR Act. The Committees support this process. In reviewing potential grantees, it is imperative that the Secretary ensure that the administrator of the program improves oversight of the participating schools and increases awareness of the program to eligible students.

In November 2013, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) published a report regarding the management of OSP (GAO-13-805). GAO identified weaknesses in program management signaling a need for improved oversight and attention. The Secretary is directed to submit a written report to the Committees, no later than 60 days following enactment of this Act, describing the specific corrective actions undertaken and the current status of progress to address GAO's recommendations.

The Secretary shall ensure that any grant-ee awarded funds to administer OSP can implement GAO's recommendations and ensure participating schools are in compliance with the statutory requirements of section 3007(a)(4) of the SOAR Act. The Secretary shall also ensure that any grantee awarded funds to administer OSP can increase awareness and participation in the program.

The Mayor is directed to submit, as part of the 2016 budget, a detailed FY 2016-2019 public education facilities plan that will ensure public charter schools access to surplus and underutilized space.

The District of Columbia Public Schools and the Office of the State Superintendent of Education are reminded of the requirement of section 3011 of the SOAR Act to provide annual reports on how the funds provided for the SOAR Act are utilized.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA NATIONAL GUARD

The bill provides $435,000 for the Major General David F. Wherley, Jr. District of Columbia National Guard Retention and College Access Program.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR TESTING AND TREATMENT OF HIV/AIDS

The bill provides $5,000,000 for the purpose of HIV/AIDS testing and treatment.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA FUNDS

The bill provides authority for the District of Columbia to spend its local funds in accordance with the Fiscal Year 2015 Budget Request Act of 2014.

TITLE V—INDEPENDENT AGENCIES

ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED STATES

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $3,100,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, for the Administrative Conference of the United States.

COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION (INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The explanatory statement remains silent on provisions that were in the House Report (H. Rpt. 113-468) that remain unchanged by this agreement, except as noted.

The agreement provides $250,000,000 for the Commodity Futures Trading Commission. This total includes not less than $50,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, for information technology investments; not less than $2,620,000 for the Office of the Inspector General; and not to exceed $10,000,000 for transfers between the amounts for salaries and expenses and information technology.

The agreement directs the Commission to consult with the Committees in developing its five-year strategic plan as required by Public Law 111-352. The agreement further directs the Commission to develop a comprehensive, multi-year technology plan as a separate appendix with defined goals for overseeing electronic trading environments.

The agreement directs the Commission to submit, within 30 days of enactment, a detailed spending plan for the allocation of the funds made available, displayed by discrete program, project, and activity, including staffing projections, specifying both FTEs and contractors, and planned investments in information technology.

CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill includes $123,000,000 for the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC).

Within the amount provided, $1,000,000 is for test burden reduction. Resolution is expected on the question of whether the CPSC, within its authority and without materially impacting its core safety work, can provide meaningful third-party testing cost relief while still assuring compliance. The CPSC is urged to articulate to the regulated community any additional data or information the CPSC needs to provide third-party testing cost relief while still assuring compliance. Upon receipt of such information, the CPSC shall inform the regulated community what, if any, steps it can take, and along what timeline, to reduce third-party testing costs while still assuring compliance. The CPSC shall report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees) on the status of this effort within 90 days of enactment.

Within the amount provided, $4,000,000 is for port surveillance. This funding increase is provided to address CPSC's ongoing need to fulfill the statutory requirements of section 222 of the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act (CPSIA) of 2008 (P.L. 110-314) to develop and implement a risk assessment methodology for the identification of shipments of consumer products that are intended for import into the United States and likely to include consumer products in violation of section 17(a) of the CPSIA or other import provisions enforced by the Commission.

As the Commission considers new upholstered furniture flammability standards, CPSC is directed to take steps to reduce or limit the use of flame retardant chemicals.

CPSC is directed to report to the Committees within 180 days of enactment of this Act on the progress to update the current National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE) football helmet standards regarding new and reconditioned football helmets.

In some cases, voluntary standards go further than the existing safety criteria set forth under CPSC mandatory standards for identical products. However, since manufacturers are required by law to comply with the mandatory, but not voluntary standards, the public might not derive the added safety benefit of a more effective voluntary standard. Toward this end, the Commission is requested to report to the committees of jurisdiction within 180 days of enactment of this Act: (1) the extent to which any voluntary standards go further in terms of safety criteria than any similar mandatory standards enforced by the Commission, and, if any, (2) the legislative changes that would be necessary to allow the Commission to make updates more expeditiously to the relevant mandatory standards.

ELECTION ASSISTANCE COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $10,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Election Assistance Commission (EAC). This includes $1,900,000 to be transferred to the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST).

As in previous years, within 30 days of the transfer to NIST, NIST shall provide to EAC and the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate a detailed expenditure plan. Both EAC and NIST shall establish priorities for the work jointly in order to meet timelines.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $339,844,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). This includes $300,000 for consultation with Federally recognized Indian tribes, Alaskan Native villages, and entities related to Hawaiian Home Lands, and $11,090,000 for the FCC Office of Inspector General. The bill provides that $339,844,000 be derived from offsetting collections, resulting in no net appropriation.

Call Completion in Rural Areas.—The FCC shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate within 90 days of enactment of this Act detailing the agency's efforts to resolve call completion issues and to prevent discriminatory delivery of calls to any area of the country.

Joint Sales Agreements.—The FCC is directed to outline the process and factors it will use in evaluating waiver requests regarding the recently promulgated rules addressing Joint Sales Agreements. There is concern that questions surrounding this waiver process have caused uncertainty for many broadcasters and possible delays in approval of applications for broadcast license transfers.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

The bill includes the following administrative provisions for the Federal Communications Commission:

Section 501 extends an exemption for the Universal Service Fund.

Section 502 prohibits the FCC from changing rules governing the Universal Service Fund regarding single connection or primary line restrictions.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

The bill provides a transfer of $34,568,000 to fund the Office of Inspector General (OIG) for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The OIG's appropriations are derived from the Deposit Insurance Fund and the FSLIC Resolution Fund.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $67,500,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Federal Election Commission.

FEDERAL LABOR RELATIONS AUTHORITY SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $25,548,000 for the Federal Labor Relations Authority.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $293,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Federal Trade Commission. This appropriation is partially offset by premerger filing and Telemarketing Sales Rule fees estimated at $100,000,000 and $14,000,000.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

White Oak Consolidation.—The General Services Administration (GSA), in consultation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, is directed to provide a detailed report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate within 120 days of enactment of this Act on the progress for completion, including identification of necessary funding levels, of the fiscal year 2009 Master Plan (Phases II and III) for the White Oak Consolidation.

Use of Stairs.—GSA is directed to display signage at various locations in future GSA-owned and leased buildings to encourage the use of stairs and to utilize new building designs that promote the use of stairs.

Rural Leases.—GSA is directed to take further steps to improve its leasing process in rural areas.

Feasibility Studies.—The Judiciary has completed three-fourths of its asset management planning reviews of Federal courthouse facilities, which were undertaken to address cost containment concerns and to incorporate changes recommended by the Government Accountability Office (GAO) for courthouse construction. However, several of the Federal courthouses that ranked highest in relative urgency under the new evaluation criteria have not received a feasibility study. GSA is directed to perform feasibility studies for the highest ranking Federal courthouses by urgency evaluation scores, as prioritized by the Judiciary's urgency evaluation rating, that have not already undergone such a study.

Large Scale Construction.—GSA is encouraged to procure construction goods and services at the best value for the Federal Government on behalf of American taxpayers and to follow existing laws with regard to worker protections and wages.

Activities Report.—GSA is directed to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate within 120 days of enactment of this Act regarding how it ensures an appropriate level of minority, women, and veteran owned firm participation in its facilities and procurement activities.

FBI Headquarters Consolidation.—The FBI headquarters consolidation is expected to result in a full consolidation of FBI headquarters so that employees currently located at the J. Edgar Hoover building may be collocated with colleagues who are currently spread out across 20 leased offices in the region. GSA has begun this important process and narrowed the field down to a short list of 3 possible sites. GSA is expected to move forward in a timely and transparent way so that the agency does not fall behind its acquisition timeline, seeking the appropriate authorization and appropriation as required as the agency works to complete the project.

REAL PROPERTY ACTIVITIES

FEDERAL BUILDINGS FUND

LIMITATIONS ON AVAILABILITY OF REVENUE (INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides resources from the General Services Administration (GSA) Federal Buildings Fund totaling $9,238,310,000.

Construction and Acquisition.—The bill provides $509,670,000 for construction and acquisition.

For Major Repairs and Alterations, GSA is directed to submit a spending plan, by project, as specified in Section 516 of this Act to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees) and to provide notification to the Committees, within 15 days prior to any changes in the use of these funds.

Rental of Space.—The bill provides $5,666,348,000 for rental of space.

Building Operations.—The bill provides $2,244,132,000 for building operations. Within this amount, $1,122,727,000 is for building services and $1,121,405,000 is for salaries and expenses. Up to five percent of the funds may be transferred between these activities upon the advance notification to Committees. Not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Administrator shall submit a spend plan, by region, regarding the use of these funds to the Committees.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

GOVERNMENT-WIDE POLICY

The bill provides $58,000,000 for General Services Administration (GSA) Government-wide policy activities.

GSA Contracting Issues.—Untimely payments from prime contractors to subcontractors continue to be a problem. Following up on the guidance in the previous fiscal year, GSA is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate, no later than 120 days after enactment of this Act, on steps taken to improve payments to subcontractors.

Federal Fleet Maintenance.—GSA is encouraged to utilize remanufactured vehicle components to maintain Federal vehicles, if using such components reduces the cost while maintaining quality, but not if using such components: (1) does not reduce the cost; (2) lowers the quality of vehicle performance, as determined by the employee of the Federal agency responsible for the repair decision; or (3) delays the return to service of a vehicle.

OPERATING EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $61,049,000 for operating expenses. Within the amount provided under this heading, the bill provides $26,328,000 for Real and Personal Property Management and Disposal, $25,729,000 for the Office of the Administrator, and $8,992,000 for the Civilian Board of Contract Appeals. Up to five percent of the funds for the Office of the Administrator may be transferred to Real and Personal Property Management and Disposal upon the advance notification to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The bill provides $65,000,000 for the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

ALLOWANCES AND OFFICE STAFF FOR FORMER PRESIDENTS

The bill provides $3,250,000 for allowances and office staff for former Presidents.

FEDERAL CITIZEN SERVICES FUND

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $53,294,000 for deposit into the Federal Citizen Services Fund (the Fund) and authorizes use of appropriations, revenues and collections in the Fund in an aggregate amount not to exceed $90,000,000. Within the amount provided, $14,135,000 is for Electronic Government projects. GSA is directed to submit a spending plan, by project, as specified in Section 516 of this Act to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate. The bill merges the funding and authorities of the Federal Citizen Services Fund and the Electronic Government Fund in fiscal year 2015 as proposed by the budget request.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill includes the following provisions: Section 510 specifies that funds are available for hire of motor vehicles.

Section 511 authorizes transfers within the Federal Buildings Fund, with advance approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate.

Section 512 requires transmittal of a fiscal year 2016 request for courthouse construction that meets design guide standards, reflects the priorities in the Judicial Conference's 5-year construction plan, and includes a standardized courtroom utilization study.

Section 513 specifies that funds in this Act may not be used to increase the amount of occupiable space or provide services such as cleaning or security for any agency that does not pay the rental charges assessed by GSA.

Section 514 permits GSA to pay certain construction-related claims against the Federal Government from savings achieved in other projects.

Section 515 requires that the delineated area of procurement for leased space match the approved prospectus, unless the Administrator provides an explanatory statement to the appropriate congressional committees.

Section 516 requires a spend plan for certain accounts and programs.

Section 517 requires that any consolidation of the headquarters of the Federal Bureau of Investigation result in a full consolidation.

HARRY S TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $750,000 for a payment to the Harry S Truman Scholarship Foundation Trust Fund.

MERIT SYSTEMS PROTECTION BOARD
SALARIES AND EXPENSES
(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $45,085,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, for the salaries and expenses of the Merit Systems Protection Board. Within the amount provided, $42,740,000 is a direct appropriation and $2,345,000 is a transfer from the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund to adjudicate retirement appeals.

MORRIS K. UDALL AND STEWART L. UDALL FOUNDATION

MORRIS K. UDALL AND STEWART L. UDALL TRUST FUND

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $1,995,000 for payment to the Morris K. Udall and Stewart L. Udall Trust Fund, of which $200,000 shall be transferred to the Department of the Interior Office of Inspector General to conduct audits and investigations.

Previous reports that the Udall Foundation (Foundation) may have not been implementing basic internal controls related to contract oversight and personnel management are deeply concerning. A recent review by the Government Accountability Office (GAO) of the Foundation's internal controls found that the Foundation was beginning to overhaul its internal controls and implement the recommended reforms. GAO is directed to conduct an additional evaluation of the Foundation's internal controls to determine the degree to which internal controls are being fully implemented. The Foundation is directed to fully cooperate with GAO and implement the reforms as soon as possible, and to report semiannually to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate regarding its progress on instituting reformed internal controls, including milestones achieved.

ENVIRONMENTAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION FUND

The bill provides $3,400,000 for payment to the Environmental Dispute Resolution Fund.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

The bill provides $365,000,000 for the operating expenses of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Archivist of the United States shall conduct an inspection and submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and the Senate, the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, and the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs on the compliance by the Internal Revenue Service with the provisions of chapters 29, 31, and 33 of title 44, United States Code, during calendar years 2009 through 2013.

It is noted that NARA is taking steps to reduce costs by reducing its real property footprint. However, NARA facilities play an important role in providing citizens with access to archival Federal records, and there is concern that relocation of records out of the State where they are currently stored will require researchers to travel significant distances to access original records. NARA is encouraged to digitize and post on-line archival records that are relocated as a result of a facility closure; however, there is concern that NARA has not yet provided detailed plans that show a firm commitment to digitizing relocated archival records in a timely manner. NARA is directed to report, within 90 days of enactment of this Act, on its plans to digitize and preserve physical access to archival records that have been or will be relocated to another State by any facility closure occurring in fiscal year 2014 or planned for fiscal year 2015. The report shall: (1) describe NARA's digitization priorities for any relocated archival records; (2) explain how NARA incorporated stakeholder input when developing its priorities; (3) include a timeline for digitization and posting on-line; (4) identify any relocated archival records that NARA does not believe are suitable for digitizing or making publicly available on-line; and (5) describe the services that NARA will provide to facilitate access for researchers who must travel significant distances to access records previously stored in their States of residence. NARA is further directed to give due consideration and appropriate adjudication, within the limits of the Federal Records Act and all applicable laws, of any request to review archival records that are relocated as a result of a facility closure, to determine whether those records continue to require permanent preservation in the National Archives.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The bill provides $4,130,000 for NARA's Office of Inspector General.

REPAIRS AND RESTORATION

The bill provides $7,600,000 for repairs and restoration.

NATIONAL HISTORICAL PUBLICATIONS AND RECORDS COMMISSION GRANTS PROGRAM

The bill provides $5,000,000 for the National Historical Publications and Records Commission grants program.

NATIONAL CREDIT UNION ADMINISTRATION COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT REVOLVING LOAN FUND

The bill provides $2,000,000 for the Community Development Revolving Loan Fund.

OFFICE OF GOVERNMENT ETHICS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $15,420,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of Government Ethics.

OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF TRUST FUNDS)

The bill provides $214,464,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). Within the amount provided, $96,039,000 is a direct appropriation and $118,425,000 is a transfer from OPM trust funds.

OPM is directed to provide monthly updates on its progress to address the backlog of retirement claims and continue to report on retirement modernization efforts.

OPM is directed to review the Department of Veterans Affairs request to consider the establishment of two new General Schedule occupational series to meet the hiring needs of the Department. OPM is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate within 90 days of enactment of this Act on its progress.

An inherent conflict of interest exists when Federal security clearance contractors are contractually permitted to conduct final quality reviews of their own work. Agencies conducting background investigations for Federal suitability and security clearances should prevent future occurrences of potential contractor conflicts of interest by enacting stricter contractual control mechanisms. OPM should implement internal controls to ensure that contractor activities are properly monitored and investigations are being done appropriately.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF TRUST FUNDS)

The bill provides $25,724,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of Inspector General. Within the amount provided, $4,384,000 is a direct appropriation and $21,340,000 is a transfer from OPM trust funds.

OFFICE OF SPECIAL COUNSEL
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill includes $22,939,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Office of Special Counsel. The amount provided above the request level is to address new casework estimates.

POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $14,700,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Postal Regulatory Commission.

PRIVACY AND CIVIL LIBERTIES OVERSIGHT BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $7,500,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board.

RECOVERY ACCOUNTABILITY AND TRANSPARENCY BOARD
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $18,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Recovery Accountability and Transparency Board.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $1,500,000,000 for the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The bill provides $56,613,000 for the Division of Economic and Risk Analysis, and stipulates that $1,500,000,000 be derived from offsetting collections resulting in no net appropriation. The bill provides that the SEC Office of Inspector General shall receive no less than $9,239,000.

Reserve Fund.—In its written notifications to Congress regarding amounts obligated from the Reserve Fund as required by 15 U.S.C. 78d(i)(3), the SEC shall specify: 1) the balance in the fund remaining available after the obligation is deducted; 2) the estimated total cost of the project for which amounts are being deducted; 3) the total amount for all projects that have withdrawn funding from the Reserve Fund since fiscal year 2012; and 4) the estimated amount, per project, that will be required to complete all ongoing projects which use funding derived from the Reserve Fund.

Disclosures.—The Commission is directed to submit an updated report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate on SEC's efforts to modernize disclosure requirements within 90 days of enactment of this Act, including an update on cybersecurity.

SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $22,500,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Selective Service System.

SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $257,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Small Business Administration (SBA).

Loan and Lender Monitoring System.—The SBA is directed to continue its use of the Loan and Lender Monitoring System (L/LMS) to ensure that lenders are employing sound financial risk management techniques to manage and monitor risk within their SBA loan portfolios. SBA is directed to continue to maintain the current capability and capacity of the L/LMS system, and to strongly consider ways to upgrade the system to improve lender oversight.

IT Modernization.—The SBA is directed to continue to report quarterly to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate summarizing the agency's progress regarding the IT modernization effort. In its report, the SBA shall include progress on schedule and spending, both estimated and actual, beginning with the first fiscal year of the modernization project. Such reports are expected to include plain language descriptions of the project rather than technical jargon.

ENTREPRENEURIAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

The bill provides $220,000,000 for SBA Entrepreneurial Development Programs. The SBA shall not reduce these amounts and shall not merge any of the entrepreneurial development programs without the advance written approval from the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees).

Project	($000)
7(j) Technical Assistance Program (Contracting Assistance)	2,800
Boots to Business	7,500
Entrepreneurship Education	7,000
Growth Accelerators	4,000
HUBZone Program	3,000
Microloan Technical Assistance	22,300
National Women's Business Council	1,000
Native American Outreach	2,000
PRIME Technical Assistance	5,000
Regional Innovation Clusters	6,000
SCORE	8,000
Small Business Development Centers (SBDC)	115,000
State Trade & Export Promotion (STEP)	17,400
Veterans Business Outreach Centers (VBOC)	3,000
Women's Business Centers (WBC)	15,000
Intermediate Lending Program	1,000
Total, Entrepreneurial Development Programs	220,000

Veterans Programs.—The SBA is directed to report to the Committees within 180 days of enactment of this Act on outreach to veterans, including an analysis of the efficacy of providing counseling and training services before deployment, an assessment of the current level of outreach to women veterans provided by Women's Business Centers, Veterans Business Centers and Small Business Development Centers, and recommendations for improving outreach to these demographic groups.

Native American Outreach.—The SBA is directed to submit a spending plan within 60 days of enactment of this Act to the Committees detailing planned spending on Native American out-reach programs in fiscal year 2015.

Growth Accelerators.—The SBA is directed to require $4 of matching funds for every $1 awarded under the growth accelerator program, and to report within 60 days of enactment of this Act to the Committees on the use of fiscal year 2014 funds, including performance metrics to assess the success of the program.

HUBZone.—The HUBZone program is a critical resource for distressed communities, especially those surrounding military bases closed under the Base Realignment and Closure [BRAC] process. Businesses located in a BRAC HUBZone face unique challenges in qualifying for the program and competing for Federal procurement opportunities. SBA is directed to examine ways to address these issues in any future revisions of the Small Business Act or other legislation.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The bill provides $19,400,000 for the Office of Inspector General of the Small Business Administration.

The Inspector General is directed to continue routine analysis and reporting on SBA's modernization of its loan management and accounting systems, including acquisition, contractor oversight, implementation, and progress regarding budget and schedule.

OFFICE OF ADVOCACY

The bill provides $9,120,000 for the Office of Advocacy.

A recent Government Accountability Office (GAO) study found weaknesses in the Office of Advocacy's internal controls over research and regulatory activities (GAO 14-525), strengthening concerns over the transparency and inclusivity of the Office's efforts to solicit the views of small businesses in the regulatory process. The Office of Advocacy is directed to report within 60 days of enactment of this Act to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate on steps it has taken to address the concerns raised by the GAO and improve transparency of its regulatory functions.

BUSINESS LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $195,226,000 for the Business Loans Program Account. Of the amount provided, $2,500,000 is for the cost of direct loans in the microloan program, $45,000,000 is for the cost of guaranteed loans, and $147,726,000 is for administrative expenses to carry out the direct and guaranteed loan programs which may be transferred to and merged with Salaries and Expenses.

504 loans.—A recent change to the 504 loan program has resulted in significant delays in the approval process for 504 loans due to existing indemnities, covenants or liens. The SBA is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations and Small Business of the House and Senate explaining the legal rationale for the change in interpretation of this longstanding policy and, if needed, recommend any legislative changes to address this issue.

Loan Application Process.—The SBA's recent efforts to streamline the application and approval process for SBA guaranteed loans are appreciated. The SBA is encouraged to continue to assess options to improve and streamline the loan process while collecting necessary information. The SBA is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate on the steps the agency has taken to streamline the application and review process for 7(a) and 504 loans, including recommendations for further improvements.

Microloans.—The SBA is directed to assess the impact of the requirement that only 25 percent of funds for microloan technical assistance may be used for prospective buyers, and to submit any recommendations for statutory changes to improve the microloan technical assistance program to the Committees on Appropriations and Small Business of the House and Senate within 90 days of enactment of this Act.

DISASTER LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT
(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill includes $186,858,000 for the administrative costs of the Disaster Loans Program Account.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill includes the following administrative provisions for the Small Business Administration:

Section 520 concerns transfer authority and availability of funds.

Section 521 waives 7(a) loan guarantee fees for veterans and their spouses.

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE

PAYMENT TO THE POSTAL SERVICE FUND

The bill provides $70,000,000 for a payment to the Postal Service Fund of which $41,000,000 is an advance appropriation.

Letter Carrier Safety.—Since October 2011, there have been more than 130 robberies and 330 assaults committed against postal workers. The Postmaster General is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate within 90 days of enactment of this Act on the steps the United States Postal Service (USPS) will take in fiscal year 2015 to improve postal worker safety.

Facility Closures.—On June 30, 2014 the Postmaster General announced the USPS' plan to begin consolidating up to 82 mail processing facilities, beginning in January 2015. The USPS Office of Inspector General reported that the USPS had not completed all of the impact analysis as required in the Area Mail Processing feasibility studies under the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act of 2006. The USPS is encouraged to complete the required analysis in advance of the proposed closings, with sufficient outreach and communication to the affected communities.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $243,883,000 for the Office of Inspector General.

UNITED STATES TAX COURT

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $51,300,000 for the salaries and expenses of the United States Tax Court.

TITLE VI—GENERAL PROVISIONS—THIS ACT (INCLUDING RESCISSION)

The bill includes the following provisions: Section 601 prohibits paying expenses or otherwise compensating non-Federal parties in regulatory or adjudicatory proceedings funded in this Act.

Section 602 prohibits obligations beyond the current fiscal year and transfers of funds unless expressly so provided herein.

Section 603 limits consulting service expenditures to contracts where such expenditures are a matter of public record, with exceptions.

Section 604 prohibits funds from being transferred to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States without express authority provided in this or any other appropriations Act.

Section 605 prohibits the use of funds to engage in activities that would prohibit the enforcement of section 307 of the 1930 Tariff Act.

Section 606 prohibits funds from being expended unless the recipient agrees to comply with the Buy American Act.

Section 607 prohibits funding to a person or entity convicted of violating the Buy American Act.

Section 608 provides reprogramming authority and requires agencies to submit financial plans to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate.

Section 609 provides that not to exceed 50 percent of unobligated balances from salaries and expenses may remain available for certain purposes.

Section 610 prohibits funds for the Executive Office of the President to request either a Federal Bureau of Investigation background investigation, except with the express consent of the individual involved in an investigation or in extraordinary circumstances involving national security, or an Internal Revenue Service determination with respect to section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Section 611 provides that cost accounting standards not apply to a contract under the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program.

Section 612 permits the Office of Personnel Management to accept funds related to non-foreign area cost-of-living allowances.

Section 613 prohibits the expenditure of funds for abortions under the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program.

Section 614 provides an exemption from section 613 if the life of the mother is in danger or the pregnancy is a result of an act of rape or incest.

Section 615 waives certain restrictions on the purchase of non-domestic articles, materials, and supplies for information technology acquired by the Federal Government.

Section 616 prohibits the acceptance by any regulatory agency or commission funded by this Act, or by their officers or employees, of payment or reimbursement for travel, subsistence, or related expenses from any person or entity, or their representative, that engages in activities regulated by such agency or commission.

Section 617 permits the Securities and Exchange Commission and Commodity Futures Trading Commission to fund a joint advisory committee to advise on emerging regulatory issues, notwithstanding section 708 of this Act.

Section 618 requires agencies covered by this Act with independent leasing authority to consult with the General Services Administration before seeking new office space or making alterations to existing office space.

Section 619 provides funding for several appropriated mandatory accounts. These are accounts where authorizing language requires the payment of funds. The budget request assumes the following estimated cost for the programs addressed in this provision: $450,000 for Compensation of the President including $50,000 for expenses, $143,600,000 for the Judicial Retirement Funds (Judicial Officers' Retirement Fund, Judicial Survivors' Annuities Fund, and the United States Court of Federal Claims Judges' Retirement Fund), $11,806,000,000 for the Government Payment for Annuity, Employee Health Benefits, $55,000,000 for the Government Payment for Annuity, Employee Life Insurance, and $8,975,000,000 for the Payment to the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund.

Section 620 provides authority for the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board to obligate funds for a scholarship program.

Section 621 prohibits funds for the Federal Trade Commission to complete the draft report on food marketed to children unless certain requirements are met.

Section 622 prohibits funds for certain positions.

Section 714 prohibits Federal employee training not directly related to the performance of official duties.

Section 715 prohibits executive branch agencies from using funds for propaganda or publicity purposes in support or defeat of legislative initiatives.

Section 716 prohibits any Federal agency from disclosing an employee's home address to any labor organization, absent employee authorization or court order.

Section 717 prohibits funds to be used to provide non-public information such as mailing, electronic mailing, or telephone lists to any person or organization outside the government without the approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate.

Section 718 prohibits the use of funds for propaganda and publicity purposes not authorized by Congress.

Section 719 directs agency employees to use official time in an honest effort to perform official duties.

Section 720 authorizes the use of funds to finance an appropriate share of the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board administrative costs.

Section 721 authorizes the transfer of funds to the General Services Administration to finance an appropriate share of various government-wide boards and councils under certain conditions.

Section 722 permits breastfeeding in a Federal building or on Federal property if the woman and child are authorized to be there.

Section 723 permits interagency funding of the National Science and Technology Council and requires the Office of Management and Budget to provide a report to the House and Senate on the budget and resources of the National Science and Technology Council.

Section 724 requires that the Federal forms that are used in distributing Federal funds to a State must indicate the agency providing the funds, the Federal Domestic Assistance Number, and the amount provided.

Section 725 prohibits Federal agencies from monitoring individuals' internet use.

Section 726 requires health plans participating in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program to provide contraceptive coverage and provides exemptions to certain religious plans.

Section 727 recognizes the United States is committed to ensuring the health of the Olympic, Pan American and Paralympic athletes, and supports the strict adherence to antidoping in sport activities.

Section 728 allows funds for official travel to be used by departments and agencies, if consistent with OMB and Budget Circular A-126, to participate in the fractional aircraft ownership pilot program.

Section 729 prohibits funds for implementation of the Office of Personnel Management regulations limiting detailees to the Legislative Branch or implementing limitations on the Coast Guard Congressional Fellowship Program.

Section 730 restricts the use of funds for Federal law enforcement training facilities with an exception for the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center.

Section 731 prohibits executive branch agencies from creating prepackaged news stories that are broadcast or distributed in the United States unless the story includes a clear notification within the text or audio of that news story that the prepackaged news story was prepared or funded by that executive branch agency.

Section 732 prohibits funds from being used in contravention of the Privacy Act or associated regulations.

Section 733 prohibits funds in this or any other Act to be used for Federal contracts with inverted domestic corporations, unless the contract preceded this Act or the Secretary grants a waiver in the interest of national security.

Section 734 requires agencies to pay a fee to the Office of Personnel Management for processing retirements of employees who separate under Voluntary Early Retirement Authority or who receive Voluntary Separation Incentive payments.

Section 735 prohibits funds to require any entity submitting an offer for a Federal contract to disclose political contributions.

Section 737 limits the pay increases of certain prevailing rate employees.

Section 738 eliminates automatic statutory pay increases for the Vice President, political appointees paid under the executive schedule, ambassadors who are not career members of the Foreign Service, politically appointed (noncareer) Senior Executive Service employees, and any other senior political appointee paid at or above level IV of the executive schedule.

Section 739 requires reports to Inspectors General concerning expenditures for agency conferences.

Section 740 prohibits the use of funds to increase, eliminate, or reduce a program or project unless such change is made pursuant to reprogramming or transfer provisions.

Section 741 prohibits agencies from using funds to implement regulations changing the competitive areas under reductions-in-force for Federal employees.

Section 742 prohibits funds to begin or announce a study or public-private competition regarding conversion to contractor performance pursuant to OMB Circular A-76.

Section 743 ensures that contractors are not prevented from reporting waste, fraud, or abuse by signing confidentiality agreements that would prohibit such disclosure.

Section 744 prohibits funds to any corporation with certain unpaid Federal tax liabilities unless an agency has considered suspension or debarment of the corporation and made a determination that further action is not necessary to protect the interests of the Government.

Section 745 prohibits funds to any corporation that was convicted of a felony criminal violation within the preceding 24 months unless an agency has considered suspension or debarment of the corporation and made a determination that further action is not necessary to protect the interests of the Government.

Section 746 improves financial reporting and Government transparency.

Section 747 prohibits the expenditure of funds for the implementation of certain nondisclosure agreements unless certain provisions are included in the agreements.

Section 748 requires the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection to notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate, the Committee on Financial Services of the House, and the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate of requests for a transfer of funds from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Budget Briefing.—Given the need for transparency and accountability in the Federal budgeting process, and that the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection's budget is funded independently of the annual appropriations spending bills, the Bureau is directed to provide an informal, nonpublic full briefing at least annually before the relevant subcommittee of the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate on the Bureau's finances and expenditures.

Section 749 prohibits funds to implement a new Federal Flood Risk Management Standard until the Administration has solicited and considered input from Governors, mayors, and other stakeholders.

Section 750 declares references to "this Act" contained in any title other than title IV or VIII shall not apply to such titles IV or VIII.

Federal Disaster Programs.—The Comptroller General of the United States shall report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate (Committees) on disaster assistance expenditures by the Federal Government. For purposes of this report, "disaster assistance" should go beyond the definition included in the Budget Control Act (Public Law 112-25). The report should include expenditures for major disaster, emergencies, and fire management assistance grants under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (Public Law 93-288 as amended), and encompass disaster-related spending in all Federal departments and agencies, whether or not they are specifically referenced in the Stafford Act. The resulting report shall also include recommendations for how the process of estimating future disaster accounting can be improved. The Government Accountability Office shall consult with the Committees in its development of the scope of the report, and complete its work no later than 1 year after enactment.

Restrictions on Use of Funds.—Executive Branch agencies shall not use appropriated funds to hire contractors to train staff on how to support or defeat legislation pending before Congress. Section 1913 of title 18 of the United States Code and section 715 of this Act, prohibit the use of appropriated funds for the purpose of lobbying to support or defeat pending legislation except in normal executive-legislative relationships. These legislative prohibitions should be vigorously enforced.

TITLE VIII—GENERAL PROVISIONS— DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill includes the following general provisions for the District of Columbia:

Section 801 allows the use of local funds for making refunds or paying judgments against the District of Columbia government.

Section 802 prohibits the use of Federal funds for publicity or propaganda designed to support or defeat legislation before Congress or any State legislature.

Section 803 establishes reprogramming procedures for Federal funds.

Section 804 prohibits the use of Federal funds for the salaries and expenses of a shadow U.S. Senator or U.S. Representative.

Section 805 places restrictions on the use of District of Columbia government vehicles.

Section 806 prohibits the use of Federal funds for a petition or civil action which seeks to require voting rights for the District of Columbia in Congress.

Section 807 prohibits the use of Federal funds in this Act to distribute, for the purpose of preventing the spread of blood borne pathogens, sterile needles or syringes in any location that has been determined by local public health officials or local law enforcement authorities to be inappropriate for such distribution.

Section 808 concerns a "conscience clause" on legislation that pertains to contraceptive coverage by health insurance plans.

Section 809 prohibits Federal funds to enact or carry out any law, rule, or regulation to legalize or reduce penalties associated with the possession, use or distribution of any schedule I substance under the Controlled Substances Act or any tetrahydrocannabinols derivative. In addition, section 809 prohibits Federal and local funds to enact any law, rule, or regulation to legalize or reduce penalties associated with the possession, use or distribution of any schedule I substance under the Controlled Substances Act or any tetrahydrocannabinols derivative for recreational purposes.

Section 810 prohibits the use of funds for abortion except in the cases of rape or incest or if necessary to save the life of the mother.

Section 811 requires the CFO to submit a revised operating budget no later than 30 calendar days after the enactment of this Act for agencies the CFO certifies as requiring a reallocation in order to address unanticipated program needs.

Section 812 requires the CFO to submit a revised operating budget for the District of Columbia Public Schools, no later than 30 calendar days after the enactment of this Act, that aligns school budgets to actual enrollment.

Section 813 allows for transfers of local funds between operating funds and capital and enterprise funds.

Section 814 prohibits the obligation of Federal funds beyond the current fiscal year and transfers of funds unless expressly provided herein.

Section 815 provides that not to exceed 50 percent of unobligated balances from Federal appropriations for salaries and expenses may remain available for certain purposes. This provision will apply to the District of Columbia Courts, the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency and the District of Columbia Public Defender Service.

Section 816 appropriates local funds during fiscal year 2016 if there is an absence of a continuing resolution or regular appropriation for the District of Columbia. Funds are provided under the same authorities and conditions and in the same manner and extent as provided for fiscal year 2015.

Section 817 specifies that references to "this Act" in this title or title IV are treated as referring only to the provisions of this title and title IV.

DIVISION F—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, ENVIRONMENT, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

The following statement is an explanation of the effects of Division F, which makes appropriations for the Department of the Interior, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the Forest Service, the Indian Health Service, and related agencies for fiscal year 2015. Language contained in House Report 113-551 providing specific guidance to agencies regarding the administration of appropriated funds and any corresponding reporting requirements carries the same emphasis as the language included in this explanatory statement and should be complied with unless specifically addressed to the contrary herein.

In instances where the House report speaks more broadly to policy issues or offers views that are subject to interpretation, such views remain those of the House and are not affirmed by this explanatory statement unless repeated herein. In cases where the House report or this explanatory statement directs the submission of a report, such report is to be submitted to both the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations. Where this explanatory statement refers to the Committees or the Committees on Appropriations, unless otherwise noted, this reference is to the House Subcommittee on Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies and the Senate Subcommittee on Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies.

The Committees direct each department and agency funded in this Act to follow the directions set forth in this Act and the accompanying statement, and not reallocate resources or reorganize activities except as provided herein or otherwise approved by the Committees through the reprogramming process as described in this explanatory statement. This explanatory statement addresses only those agencies and accounts for which there is a need for greater explanation than provided in the Act itself. Funding levels for appropriations by account, program, and activity, with comparisons to the fiscal year 2014 enacted level and the fiscal year 2015 budget request, can be found in the table at the end of this division.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, any reference to “this Act” or “at the end of this statement” shall be treated as referring only to the provisions of this division.

National Ocean Policy.—The President’s budget submission for fiscal year 2016 shall identify all funding and associated actions proposed for the implementation of the National Ocean Policy. In addition, not later than 90 days after the date on which the President’s fiscal year 2016 budget request is submitted to the Congress, the President shall submit a comprehensive report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations identifying Federal expenditures since fiscal year 2012 by agency and account that have supported the development, administration, or implementation of the National Ocean Policy developed under Executive Order 13547. The report shall also identify funding proposed for the implementation of the National Ocean Policy in the fiscal year 2016 budget. In addition, the Administration is directed to include in the report a summary of the actions taken to date to execute the April 2013 National Ocean Policy Implementation Plan and the outcomes of such actions.

State Wildlife Data.—The Department of the Interior and the Forest Service are expected to prioritize continued coordination with other Federal agencies and State fish and wildlife agencies to recognize and fully utilize State fish and wildlife data and analyses as a primary source to inform land use, planning, and related natural resource decisions. Federal agencies should not unnecessarily duplicate raw data, and when appropriate, evaluate existing analysis of data prepared by the States, and reciprocally share data with State wildlife managers, to ensure that the most complete data set is available for decision support systems.

Making Litigation Costs Transparent.—The Department of the Interior, EPA, and the Forest Service are directed to provide to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, and to make publicly available no later than 60 days after enactment of this Act, detailed Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA) fee information as specified in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014.

Public Access.—The Department of the Interior and the Forest Service are directed to notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations in advance of any proposed project specifically intending to close an area to recreational shooting, hunting, or fishing on a non-emergency basis of more than 30 days.

Sage-Grouse.—The agreement includes a general provision in Title I of the bill, prohibiting for fiscal year 2015 any use of funds to write or issue a final rule to list the Gunnison sage-grouse or the bi-State Distinct Population Segment of greater sage-grouse, and any proposed rule to list the greater sage-grouse range-wide or in the Columbia Basin. The Committees recognize the unprecedented collaboration regarding sage-grouse conservation. This provision is not intended to impede current conservation efforts; it is imperative that stakeholders continue on-the-ground conservation and monitoring activities. The Committees direct the Fish and Wildlife Service to include with its fiscal year 2016 budget submission an update on the status of all sage-grouse. The agreement does not contain the other directives pertaining to sage-grouse in the front of House Report 113-551, with the exception of guidance provided within the Wildland Fire Management accounts later in this explanatory statement.

Payments in Lieu of Taxes (PILT).—Section 11 of this consolidated Act provides $372,000,000 for payments in lieu of taxes under chapter 69 of title 31, United States Code. Together with an additional $33,000,000 available for fiscal year 2015, and $37,000,000 available on October 1, 2015, provided by section 3096 of the Carl Levin and Howard P. “Buck” McKeon National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015, a total of $442,000,000 will be available for the program.

REPROGRAMMING GUIDELINES

The following are the procedures governing reprogramming actions for programs and activities funded in the Department of the Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act. The Committees remind the agencies funded in this Act that these reprogramming guidelines are in effect, and must be complied with, until such time as the Committees modify them through bill or report language.

Definitions.—“Reprogramming,” as defined in these procedures, includes the reallocation of funds from one budget activity, budget line-item, or program area, to another within any appropriation funded in this Act.

For construction, land acquisition, and forest legacy accounts, a reprogramming constitutes the reallocation of funds, including unobligated balances, from one construction, land acquisition, or forest legacy project to another such project.

A reprogramming shall also consist of any significant departure from the program described in the agency’s budget justifications. This includes proposed reorganizations, especially those of significant national or regional importance, even without a change in funding. Any change to the organization table presented in the budget justification shall be subject to this requirement.

General Guidelines for Reprogramming.

(a) A reprogramming should be made only when an unforeseen situation arises, and then only if postponement of the project or the activity until the next appropriation year would result in actual loss or damage.

(b) Any project or activity, which may be deferred through reprogramming, shall not later be accomplished by means of further reprogramming, but instead, funds should again be sought for the deferred project or activity through the regular appropriations process.

(c) Except under the most urgent situations, reprogramming should not be employed to initiate new programs or increase allocations specifically denied or limited by Congress, or to decrease allocations specifically increased by the Congress.

(d) Reprogramming proposals submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations for approval shall be considered approved 30 calendar days after receipt if the Committees have posed no objection. However, agencies will be expected to extend the approval deadline if specifically requested by either Committee.

Criteria and Exceptions.—A reprogramming must be submitted to the Committees in writing prior to implementation if it exceeds $1,000,000 annually or results in an increase or decrease of more than 10 percent annually in affected programs, with the following exceptions:

(a) With regard to the tribal priority allocations of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Bureau of Indian Education, there is no restriction on reprogrammings among these programs. However, the Bureaus shall report on all reprogrammings made during a given fiscal year no later than 60 days after the end of the fiscal year.

(b) With regard to the EPA, State and Tribal Assistance Grants account, the Committee does not require reprogramming requests associated with States and Tribes Partnership Grants.

Assessments.—“Assessment” as defined in these procedures shall refer to any charges, reserves, or holdbacks applied to a budget activity or budget line item for costs associated with general agency administrative costs, overhead costs, working capital expenses, or contingencies.

(a) No assessment shall be levied against any program, budget activity, sub-activity, budget line item, or project funded by the Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act unless such assessment and the basis therefor are presented to the Committees on Appropriations in the budget justifications and are subsequently approved by the Committees. The explanation for any assessment in the budget justification shall show the amount of the assessment, the activities assessed, and the purpose of the funds.

(b) Proposed changes to estimated assessments, as such estimates were presented in annual budget justifications, shall be submitted through the reprogramming process and shall be subject to the same dollar and reporting criteria as any other reprogramming.

(c) The Committees direct that each agency or bureau which utilizes assessments shall submit an annual report to the Committees which provides details on the use of all funds assessed from any other budget activity, line item, sub-activity, or project.

(d) In no case shall contingency funds or assessments be used to finance projects and activities disapproved or limited by Congress, or to finance programs or activities that could be foreseen and included in the normal budget review process.

(e) New programs requested in the budget should not be initiated before enactment of the bill without notification to, and the approval of, the Committees on Appropriations. This restriction applies to all such actions regardless of whether a formal reprogramming of funds is required to begin the program.

Quarterly Reports.—All reprogrammings between budget activities, budget line-items, program areas, or the more detailed activity levels shown in this agreement, including those below the monetary thresholds established above, shall be reported to the Committees within 60 days of the end of each quarter and shall include cumulative totals for each budget activity, budget line item, or construction, land acquisition, or forest legacy project.

Land Acquisitions, Easements, and Forest Legacy.—Lands shall not be acquired for more than the approved appraised value (as addressed in section 301(3) of Public Law 91-646), unless such acquisitions are submitted to the Committees on Appropriations for approval in compliance with these procedures.

Land Exchanges.—Land exchanges, wherein the estimated value of the Federal lands to be exchanged is greater than $1,000,000, shall not be consummated until the Committees have had a 30-day period in which to examine the proposed exchange. In addition, the Committees shall be provided advance notification of exchanges valued between $500,000 and $1,000,000.

Budget Structure.—The budget activity or line item structure for any agency appropriation account shall not be altered without advance approval of the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT

MANAGEMENT OF LANDS AND RESOURCES

The bill provides $970,016,000 for Management of Lands and Resources. In addition to the funding allocation table at the end of this explanatory statement, the agreement includes the following instructions:

Soil, Water, and Air Management.—The agreement includes $1,130,000 for the requested Colorado River Basin Salinity Program, $300,000 above the fiscal year 2014 level.

Rangeland Management.—The Committees direct the Bureau, to the greatest extent practicable, to make vacant grazing allotments available to a holder of a grazing permit or lease when lands covered by the holder of the permit or lease are unusable because of drought or wildfire.

The Committees urge the Secretary to convene a stakeholders meeting on the California Desert Conservation Area to resolve remaining issues, as described in House Report 113-551.

The Committees direct the Bureau to comply with the language in House Report 113-551 regarding the Steens Mountain Cooperative Management and Protection Act of 2000.

Wild Horse and Burro Management.—The Committees encourage the Bureau to consider sterilization as a tool for population management and to request funding for a pilot program in fiscal year 2016, in accordance with recommendations from the National Research Council and others.

Wildlife Management.—The agreement includes $15,000,000 as requested for sage-grouse. The BLM should dedicate funding for collaboration with States on the development of State plans designed to promote sustainable sage-grouse populations through conservation of sensitive habitat and to avoid an Endangered Species Act listing designation of the species. The Bureau is urged to support advanced collaboration efforts that could be models for conservation strategies in other places.

Recreation Management.—The Committees encourage the Bureau to continue its collaborative efforts with non-Federal partners to teach outdoor ethics and stewardship to staff and visitors.

Realty and Ownership Management.—Section 326 of Public Law 101-512 required the Secretary of the Interior to report to Congress on contaminated lands conveyed through the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA). Section 103 of Public Law 104-42 required the Secretary of the Interior to provide a more detailed report on contaminants on lands prior to conveyance to Alaska Native Corporations. In December 1998, the Department submitted a report to Congress in which it acknowledged conveying approximately 650 contaminated sites on lands conveyed through ANCSA. The Bureau shall provide the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations with a detailed report within 180 days of enactment of this Act, which includes the following information: (1) a comprehensive inventory of contaminated sites conveyed through ANCSA, including sites identified subsequent to the 1998 report; (2) an updated status on the six recommendations listed in the 1998 report; and (3) a detailed plan on how the Department intends to complete cleanup of each contaminated site.

Resource Protection and Maintenance.—The agreement includes $1,000,000 for the requested enterprise geospatial system.

The Bureau is expected to defer any final decision-making regarding land use plans as part of the Oklahoma, Kansas, and Texas Resource Management Plan Revision until appropriate surveys have been conducted to determine ownership along the Red River.

Law Enforcement.—The Bureau is encouraged to focus on visitor safety and archaeological resource protection, and work with the Department of Justice and the Department of Homeland Security on other matters of Federal law not unique to Bureau lands or property.

Challenge Cost Share.—The Committees encourage the Bureau to consider how it might leverage program partnerships to support the goals of the Youth in the Great Outdoors Initiative through projects such as the development and maintenance of trails.

BLM Foundation.—The Administration is encouraged to submit a legislative proposal to create such a foundation for the Bureau of Land Management with the fiscal year 2016 budget request.

LAND ACQUISITION

The bill provides $19,746,000 for Land Acquisition. The amounts recommended by this bill compared with the budget estimates by activity are shown in the table below, listed in priority order pursuant to the budget request for fiscal year 2015. The Bureau of Land Management is directed to prioritize recreational access projects that significantly enhance access to existing public lands that have inadequate access for hunting, fishing, and other recreational activities.

OREGON AND CALIFORNIA GRANT LANDS

The bill provides $113,777,000 for Oregon and California Grant Lands, to be distributed as displayed in the funding allocation table at the end of this explanatory statement.

Improvement in Federal forest management will improve forest health, reduce hazardous fuels, increase timber production, and restore forest jobs. The Bureau is encouraged to engage with regional academic institutions to conduct research that furthers these goals. The Bureau is also encouraged to prioritize hiring that will expedite the backlog of planning work.

RANGE IMPROVEMENTS

The bill provides $10,000,000 to be derived from public lands receipts and Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act lands grazing receipts.

SERVICE CHARGES, DEPOSITS, AND FORFEITURES

The bill provides an indefinite appropriation estimated to be $32,465,000 for Service Charges, Deposits, and Forfeitures.

MISCELLANEOUS TRUST FUNDS

The bill provides an indefinite appropriation estimated to be $24,000,000 for Miscellaneous Trust Funds.

UNITED STATES FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE
RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

The bill provides $1,207,658,000 for Resource Management. In addition to the funding allocation table at the end of this explanatory statement, the agreement includes the following instructions:

Budget Structure.—The agreement keeps in place the budget structure from fiscal year 2014.

Candidate Conservation.—The agreement includes $500,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level, which may be used for but is not limited to sage-grouse conservation.

Consultation and HCPs.—The agreement includes $1,000,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level for Habitat Conservation Plans.

Listing and Critical Habitat.—In agreement with the request, funding caps for petition processing and for listing activities related to foreign species have been retained. The agreement does not include the directive contained in House Report 113-551.

Recovery.—The agreement includes $2,500,000 for the State of the Birds program and $1,000,000 to continue the livestock loss demonstration program as authorized by Public Law 111-11. States with de-listed wolf populations shall continue to be eligible for funding, provided that those States continue to meet the eligibility criteria contained in Public Law 111-11.

The Service is directed to prioritize the recovery of the California condor and northern aplomado falcon and provide the necessary funding to enable the longstanding public-private partnerships to continue to support the wild populations through captive propagation, releases, and management, as the Service and the States work to address the continued environmental threats to these species.

The agreement does not include the directive regarding the Recovery Report to Congress contained in House Report 113-551.

The Service is directed to publish in the Federal Register advance notice of its intent to approve any future phase of the La Purissima Conservation Bank project involving a split estate, and to invite public comment on the proposed agreement.

Coastal Barrier Resources Act.—The agreement includes $500,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level to accelerate technical corrections and updates of coastal floodplain maps.

National Wildlife Refuge System.—In recognition of the important bottomland hardwood research being conducted by the Forest Service Southern Research Station at the Yazoo National Wildlife Refuge, the Service is encouraged to continue cooperating in these efforts.

Migratory Bird Management.—The agreement does not include the directive contained in House Report 113-551. The Service is encouraged to submit with its fiscal year 2016 budget request: (a) an estimate of average permit processing times and a goal to minimize such times; and (b) an estimate of costs, FTE, and a timeline to develop and test an appropriate survey protocol to assess black vulture distribution and population size, and to determine whether and where the species may be overabundant.

The Service's strategy of allocating increased Migratory Bird Conservation Fund dollars to mitigate against conversion of natural waterfowl habitat to cropland is supported. The Service is encouraged to consider the important value of the nesting habitat in the southern prairie potholes region to ensure that waterfowl habitat acquisition and preservation continue to occur across the entire prairie potholes region.

Law Enforcement and International Affairs.—The agreement includes the increases as requested to combat wildlife trafficking. The Secretary is directed to submit a status update report, not later than 90 days after the date of enactment of this Act, outlining the specific steps being taken by the Department to further address wildlife trafficking and illegal natural resources trade, including steps to improve coordination with the Department of Homeland Security and Department of Justice related to wildlife trafficking, and what, if any, authorizations are required to implement the National Strategy for Combating Wildlife Trafficking.

Science Support.—The agreement is $250,000 below the fiscal year 2014 enacted level. The Service is directed to take the reduction from Landscape Conservation Cooperatives grants. White-nose syndrome in bats research is level-funded at $2,500,000.

National Fish Hatchery System Operations.—The bill provides $52,860,000 for operations, including not less than $237,000 for the Aquatic Animal Drug Approval Partnership as requested. None of the funds may be used to terminate operations or to close any facility. No production programs may be reduced or terminated without advance, informal consultation with affected States and Indian tribes. Within 90 days of enactment of this Act, the Service shall publish an operations and maintenance plan for fiscal year 2015 for the National Fish Hatchery System that includes funding allocations by region, together with an explanation of the allocation methodology. The Service is directed to publish fiscal year 2015 funding allocations and production targets for each facility of the National Fish Hatchery System before the end of the fiscal year, and to submit estimates for fiscal year 2016 along with the President's budget request.

The Committees support the Service's position that its hatchery mitigation activities should be fully reimbursed by the Federal agencies responsible for the Federal water development projects. The Service is directed to submit as part of its annual budget request an estimate of its mitigation activities by facility, along with an estimate of sources of reimbursement funding by agency.

The Committees direct the Service, through its Fisheries Program, to continue the nation's 140-year tradition of supporting commercial, subsistence, and recreational fishing. In addition, the fisheries archives, including the National Fishery Artifacts and Records Center and the Collection Management Facility, shall be maintained in its current location.

Aquatic Habitat and Species Conservation.—The agreement includes $3,000,000 for the Klamath Basin restoration program, $5,500,000 for the Asian carp program, and $2,000,000 for the quagga and zebra mussel program.

Population Assessment and Cooperative Management are funded at the requested level. This funding supports inventory, monitoring, management, restoration, and maintenance of healthy and diverse aquatic species populations. These activities include working with hatcheries to monitor captive propagation programs across the country, including both the Pacific Northwest and the Great Lakes fisheries.

CONSTRUCTION

The bill provides $15,687,000 for Construction. The detailed allocation of funding by activity is included in the table at the end of this statement. The Service is expected to follow the construction project priority list included in the President's fiscal year 2015 budget request, and as shown in the table below.

LAND ACQUISITION

The bill provides $47,535,000 for Land Acquisition. The amounts recommended by this bill compared with the budget estimates by activity are shown in the table below, listed in priority order pursuant to the budget request for fiscal year 2015.

Highlands Conservation Act Grants.—Since budgetary constraints only allow for a limited number of new land acquisition projects, it is critical to support programs that leverage public-private partnerships for land conservation like the Highlands Conservation Act, which has a record of more than a 2 to 1 ratio in non-Federal matching funds. This bill provides $3,000,000 for the Highlands Conservation Act Grants and the Committees direct the Fish and Wildlife Service to work with the Highlands States regarding priority projects for fiscal year 2015.

California Foothills Legacy Area.—During the past year, the Fish and Wildlife Service has been developing a proposal to place certain private rangeland in central California into permanent Federal conservation easements. In recognition of the concerns raised in House Report 113-551, the Service, in a letter dated December 3, 2014, has committed not to proceed any further in development of this program. The Committees on Appropriations expect the Service to adhere to this agreement.

COOPERATIVE ENDANGERED SPECIES CONSERVATION FUND

The bill provides $50,095,000 for the Cooperative Endangered Species Conservation Fund, of which $22,695,000 is to be derived from the Cooperative Endangered Species Conservation Fund, and $27,400,000 is to be derived from the Land and Water Conservation Fund. The detailed allocation of funding by activity is included in the table at the end of this statement.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE FUND

The bill provides $13,228,000 for payments to counties authorized by the National Wildlife Refuge Fund.

NORTH AMERICAN WETLANDS CONSERVATION FUND

The bill provides $34,145,000 for the North American Wetlands Conservation Fund.

NEOTROPICAL MIGRATORY BIRD CONSERVATION FUND

The bill provides $3,660,000 for the Neotropical Migratory Bird Conservation Fund.

MULTINATIONAL SPECIES CONSERVATION FUND

The bill provides $9,061,000 for the Multinational Species Conservation Fund. The detailed allocation of funding by activity is included in the table at the end of this statement.

STATE AND TRIBAL WILDLIFE GRANTS

The bill provides $58,695,000 for State and Tribal Wildlife Grants. The detailed allocation of funding by activity is included in the table at the end of this statement.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

The bill does not provide the Service with the authority to seek compensation from responsible parties who injure or destroy National Wildlife Refuge System or other Service resources. The Service should resubmit the proposal in the next budget justification and provide more detail regarding the Service's current practice for litigating and seeking damages from responsible parties and a discussion of how the new process would differ.

The bill does not contain reprogramming language proposed in H.R. 5171. The Committees have been concerned in recent years with actions taken by the Service that have the appearance of attempting to sidestep the long-standing reprogramming guidelines contained in this explanatory statement. This concern has been further compounded by requested reprogrammings that have on occasion appeared to be not unforeseen or not a true emergency. In lieu of the language proposed by the House, the Committees expect the Service to fulfill both the letter and spirit of the existing reprogramming guidelines. Failure to do so will result in the Committees revisiting the House language next year.

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

OPERATION OF THE NATIONAL PARK SYSTEM

The bill provides $2,275,773,000 for the Operation of the National Park System. The detailed allocation of funding by program area and activity is included in the table at the end of this division.

Operation of the National Park System.—The bill provides $25,000,000 in new discretionary funding within the Operation of the National Park System (ONPS) appropriation to strengthen visitor services, public safety, and infrastructure programs in anticipation of increased visitation leading up to the Centennial of the National Park Service in 2016. The agreement includes $6,000,000 to support youth and veterans programs; $8,000,000 to increase seasonal ranger staff and enhance education and interpretation services; and $11,000,000 to improve facilities at national park units across the country. These funds will be supplemented by a $10,000,000 Centennial Challenge appropriation to fund joint public-private infrastructure investments. These funds are complemented by language in Title I General Provisions addressing the Volunteers in Parks program, as requested. The Service is directed to provide a report, no later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations detailing the distribution of funds supporting the Centennial Initiative and the anticipated return on this Federal investment.

Operating Plan.—The Service is directed to submit to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, within 60 days of enactment of this Act, an operating plan for the Operation of the National Park System appropriations account that includes any necessary adjustments to the amounts provided to maintain park operations of all units budgeted in the fiscal year 2015 request. Such plan shall be subject to the reprogramming guidelines contained in this explanatory statement.

Quagga and Zebra Mussel Control.—The Committees remain concerned about the rapid spread of quagga and zebra mussels in the West. The Secretary of the Interior is directed to develop and continue to update, using the best available science, minimum protocols and training techniques for Federal, State, local, and private entities, a consistent standard of inspection and decontamination of recreational watercraft and equipment, as prescribed in the February 2010 Quagga/Zebra Mussel Action Plan for Western U.S. Waters. Further, the Service is directed to provide no less than $2,000,000 for quagga and zebra mussel containment, prevention, and enforcement and prioritize the decontamination of watercraft and equipment leaving the watersheds of contaminated bodies, including Lake Powell and Lake Mead. Lastly, the Service is directed to report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, no later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, on steps taken to address this pervasive threat to western watersheds.

White-Nose Syndrome in Bats.—The Committees urge the Service to provide no less than $3,000,000 within the funds provided for monitoring and surveillance activities associated with white-nose syndrome in bats.

Park Partnerships.—The Committees continue to support ongoing public-private partnerships which leverage Federal dollars and promote the efficient management of park resources. Such partnerships are fundamental to the long-term fiscal and administrative health of the Service. There is merit in the Service partnering with qualified entities to cooperatively finance and manage improvements to park facilities and programs. Efforts made by the Service thus far to expand partnerships are commendable, but more can be done. The Department and the Service are urged to continue reassessing recent policy interpretations and review procedures to promote the greater use of partnerships that have historically proven beneficial to national parks and partners.

Sewall-Beimont House and Museum.—The Sewall-Beimont House and Museum occupies an important role in the history of the women's suffrage and equal rights movements and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Service is presently conducting a study to determine whether this historic landmark merits inclusion in the national park system as a standalone unit. The Service is directed to complete the study in a timely manner and share its findings with the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

National Capital Area Performing Arts Program.—Within the amounts provided, the Service is directed to maintain funding for the National Capital Area Performing Arts Program, including the summer concert series staged on the U.S. Capitol grounds, at the fiscal year 2014 enacted level.

National Mall and Memorial Parks.—Within 60 days of enactment of this Act, the Service is directed to provide the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations a long-term plan for renewal of the concessions contract on the National Mall. The Plan shall include options for expanding services and increasing revenues to the park.

Ozark National Scenic Riverways.—The Service is directed to work collaboratively with affected parties to ensure that any Draft Management Plan for the Ozark National Scenic Riverways addresses the legitimate concerns of affected stakeholders including, but not limited to, local communities and businesses.

Roosevelt-Campobello International Park.—Funding for Roosevelt-Campobello International Park on the Maine-Canada border is jointly supported by the U.S. and Canadian governments. The Service is encouraged to provide funding for the park that is commensurate with past fiscal years and consistent with international agreements.

Jefferson National Expansion Memorial.—The CityArchRiver project has raised significant private donations for the Gateway Arch in St. Louis, Missouri. The Service is expected to exercise the maximum flexibility with respect to the recognition of private donors. The Service is further urged to engage with all stakeholders to reach agreements on donor recognition which will help to facilitate the raising of private funds while protecting the values of the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial.

Mississippi Civil Rights Sites.—There are a number of historically significant civil rights sites in Mississippi, such as the Medgar Evers House in Jackson, which are deserving of special recognition and preservation. Within 180 days of enactment of this Act, the Service, working with the State of Mississippi and other interested stakeholders, shall provide the Committees an inventory of such sites that includes a listing of each site's current historic designation status and an analysis of possible threats to their preservation.

Affiliated Areas.—The bill includes language within the Operation of the National Park System account addressing certain longstanding affiliated areas of the National Park System.

NATIONAL RECREATION AND PRESERVATION

The bill provides $63,117,000 for National Recreation and Preservation with the following specific directives:

Chesapeake Gateways and Trails Program.—As requested, the agreement includes $1,999,000 for the Chesapeake Gateways and Trails Program.

Heritage Partnership Program.—The agreement provides $20,321,000 for the Heritage Partnership Program. The recommendation rejects the Administration's proposal to reduce funding for national heritage areas. This proposed reduction would have a particularly acute impact since the Service is in the process of approving management plans for newer areas which allow them access to additional funding to implement their restoration and recreation programs.

In order to maintain stable funding sources for all areas, the bill restores funding for longstanding areas to each area's fiscal year 2014 level; provides a total of $300,000 to national heritage areas with recently approved management plans, known as tier 2 areas, including funding for those areas whose plans are expected to be approved during the fiscal year; and provides $150,000 to each tier 1 area that has been authorized and is still in the process of having its management plan approved. The Service is directed to refrain from further funding reallocations from longstanding areas.

The agreement includes within Title I General Provisions bill language extending by one year the authorization for the Automobile National Heritage Area, as requested. The agreement also includes language addressing a national heritage area in Wheeling, West Virginia.

The agreement includes within Title IV General Provisions bill language extending until 2021 the authorization for the American Battlefield Protection Program.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION FUND

The bill provides $56,410,000 for the Historic Preservation Fund. Within this amount, $46,925,000 is provided for grants to States and $8,985,000 is provided to Tribes, consistent with the request. The recommendation also includes $500,000 for grants to underserved communities, as requested.

CONSTRUCTION

The bill provides $138,339,000 for Construction with the following specific directives:

Line Item Construction.—The bill provides $61,678,000 for line item construction projects in the fiscal year 2015 budget request and as shown in the table below. Requests for reprogramming will be considered pursuant to the guidelines in the front of this statement.

Brooks Lodge, Katmai National Park.—Funds have been provided, as requested, for the Service to construct a new bridge across the Brooks River within Katmai National Park. However, additional plans to relocate the lodge, based on the existing outdated Development Concept Plan (DCP), are unwarranted. No fundamental changes at Brooks Lodge shall be undertaken unless and until the Service prepares a new factually and legally sufficient DCP.

LAND AND WATER CONSERVATION FUND (RESCISSION)

The bill includes a rescission of $28,000,000 in annual contract authority. This authority has not been used in recent years and there are no plans to use this authority in fiscal year 2015.

LAND ACQUISITION AND STATE ASSISTANCE

The bill provides $98,960,000 for Land Acquisition and State Assistance. The amounts recommended by this bill compared with the budget estimates by activity are shown in the table below, listed in priority order pursuant to the budget request for fiscal year 2015.

CENTENNIAL CHALLENGE

The bill provides $10,000,000 for the Centennial Challenge matching grant program, a key component of the Service's Centennial Initiative. The program provides dedicated Federal funding to leverage partnerships for signature projects and programs for the national park system, including critical infrastructure investments. The amount provided for the Centennial Challenge is intended to complement funding for core operations provided in the Operation of the National Park System account to enhance the visitor experience and to protect cultural and natural resources at national park system units in anticipation of the Service's Centennial celebration. A one-to-one matching requirement is required for projects to qualify for these funds. The Service is urged to give preference to projects that demonstrate additional leveraging capacity from its partners.

UNITED STATES GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

SURVEYS, INVESTIGATIONS, AND RESEARCH

The bill provides $1,045,000,000 for Surveys, Investigations, and Research of the U.S. Geological Survey (USGS). In addition to the funding allocation table at the end of this explanatory statement, the agreement includes the following instructions:

Ecosystems.—Within the Ecosystems activity, $1,005,000 is provided to address white-nose syndrome in bats, and $5,646,000 is included for Asian carp control efforts. The Survey is directed to continue to analyze the distribution and magnitude of endocrine-disrupting chemicals impacting fish and wildlife in the Chesapeake Bay Watershed; therefore, the bill includes the requested increases for research in the Chesapeake Bay.

Climate and Land Use Change.—Within the Climate and Land Use Change activity, $3,000,000 is provided for drought impacts and adaptive management; $3,343,000 is provided for Landsat science activities; and $5,024,000 is provided for the National Civil Applications Program.

Natural Hazards.—Funding for Natural Hazards programs includes $59,503,000 for earthquake hazards, of which $5,000,000 is provided to transition the earthquake early warning demonstration project into an operational capability on the West Coast. A critical component of the earthquake early warning system is maintaining the existing real-time broadband and strong motion seismic networks along with geodetic monitoring networks. As the earthquake early warning system is developed, USGS is directed to collaborate with universities, companies and other Federal agencies with expertise and existing digital seismic observing networks to continue precise observation of critical fault locations.

The bill includes $25,121,000 for volcano hazards, of which $2,000,000 is provided for repairing and upgrading current systems, with a focus on the highest risk volcanoes as described in the Survey's 2005 volcano assessment inventory. Several monitors are currently inoperable and maintenance is needed to continue rapid detection for public safety dissemination, including information critical to civilian and military air routes.

The bill also includes $3,485,000 for landslide hazards. This important public safety program is encouraged to continue and strengthen its partnerships with other Federal agencies, such as the U.S. Forest Service, as well as with State and local emergency managers, in order to increase the dissemination of information and enhance coordination among them.

In order to develop a better understanding of marine hazard risk and resource availability, the Survey is encouraged to work in partnership with other Federal agencies and non-governmental organizations where practicable to support research and assessments of marine hazards and critical minerals on deepwater ships of exploration.

Water Resources.—Within Water Resources, $34,901,000 is provided for the National Streamflow Information Program, and $6,500,000 is provided for Water Resources Research Institutes. The National Groundwater Monitoring Network is funded at $2,600,000 and the Survey is directed to provide cost-share grants to States in the form of cooperative agreements to upgrade monitoring networks to national standards and to incorporate wells into the network. This funding will also support the additional work by the Survey to manage the network and provide data access through an Internet web portal.

BUREAU OF OCEAN ENERGY MANAGEMENT

OCEAN ENERGY MANAGEMENT

The bill provides $169,770,000 for Ocean Energy Management to be partially offset with the collection of rental receipts and cost recovery fees totaling $97,348,000, for a net discretionary appropriation of $72,422,000. The request did not include any funds for coastal marine spatial planning and accordingly the bill provides no funds for such activities. The agreement includes the following additional guidance:

Renewable Energy.—The Bureau should continue to work with the Department of Energy to identify and permit a national offshore wind test site that incorporates new technology related to the structural material of transitional depth and floating wind turbines. The Bureau is also expected to continue working with coastal States and other stakeholders to study new wind energy areas, including those in shallow, transitional, and deep (over 200 feet) waters.

BUREAU OF SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENTAL ENFORCEMENT

OFFSHORE SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENTAL ENFORCEMENT

The bill provides $189,726,000 for Offshore Safety and Environmental Enforcement to be partially offset with the collection of rental receipts, cost recovery fees and inspection fees totaling $123,579,000, for a net discretionary appropriation of $66,147,000.

OIL SPILL RESEARCH

The bill provides $14,899,000 for Oil Spill Research.

OFFICE OF SURFACE MINING RECLAMATION AND ENFORCEMENT

REGULATION AND TECHNOLOGY

The bill provides $122,713,000 for Regulation and Technology. Within this amount, the bill funds regulatory grants at $68,590,000, equal to the fiscal year 2014 enacted level. The Committees find that the budget proposal to reduce regulatory grants would undermine the State-based regulatory system. It is imperative that States continue to operate protective regulatory programs as delegation of authority to the States is the cornerstone of the surface mining regulatory program. Further, the agreement does not provide funds to expand and enhance Federal oversight activities of State programs.

Coal Miners' Benefits.—For nearly 20 years, Congress has facilitated the secure retirement of coal miners by providing funding for retiree healthcare benefits through the Abandoned Mine Lands program. However, there are additional threats to miners' pension and health plans as the result of the 2008 financial crisis and a recent corporate bankruptcy. If Congressional action is not taken to address the long-term solvency of these pension and healthcare funds prior to the end of the 113th Congress, the Administration is encouraged to consider legislative alternatives to address these concerns as part of the fiscal year 2016 budget request.

ABANDONED MINE RECLAMATION FUND

The bill provides $27,399,000 for the Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund.

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS AND BUREAU OF INDIAN EDUCATION

OPERATION OF INDIAN PROGRAMS (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $2,429,236,000 for Operation of Indian Programs. In addition to the funding allocation table at the end of this explanatory statement, the agreement includes the following instructions and changes to the budget request:

New Tribes.—The agreement supports the requested amount of $463,000 for new Tribes and notes the challenge of reconciling the timing of the tribal recognition process with the annual budget formulation process. If additional Tribes are recognized during fiscal year 2015 beyond those contemplated in the budget request, the Bureau is urged to support their capacity building efforts to the extent feasible.

Road Maintenance.—The agreement includes $2,000,000 above the budget request which may be used for school bus routes. The agreement does not include further reporting requirements.

Trust-Real Estate Services.—Consistent with the request, $127,002,000 is provided for trust-real estate services programs, including $7,000,000 to implement Klamath Basin Restoration Agreement activities.

Education.—The agreement includes $2,000,000 for the development and operation of tribal departments or divisions of education as authorized in 25 U.S.C. 2020.

The Bureau is directed to publish its internal review of Early Child and Family Development programs and to consult with Tribes, other current program partners, and Congress before initiating the pilot projects proposed in the request. Any new pilot projects shall not reduce funding for currently operating Family and Child Education programs.

The Bureau is directed to publish the results of the most recent Johnson-O'Malley student count, and to consult with Tribes and Congress before proposing any changes in the distribution of future funds or in the frequency or method of future counts.

The Bureau is encouraged to coordinate with the Indian Health Service to establish a pilot program integrating preventive dental care at schools within the Bureau system.

The agreement includes bill language providing the Secretary with the authority to approve satellite locations of existing BIE schools if a Tribe can demonstrate that the establishment of such locations would provide comparable levels of education as are being offered at such existing BIE schools, and would not significantly increase costs to the Federal Government. The intent is for this authority to be exercised only in extraordinary circumstances to provide Tribes with additional flexibility regarding where students are educated without compromising how they are educated, and to significantly reduce the hardship and expense of transporting students over long distances, all without unduly increasing costs that would otherwise unfairly come at the expense of other schools in the BIE system.

In order to be successful, the Administration's emphasis on education must be complemented by efforts to improve interagency coordination for the multiplicity of programs that affect the wellbeing of Native American children. In addition to education, these include healthcare, social services, child welfare and juvenile justice programs. It is recommended that the Bureau, working in concert with other affected Federal agencies, examine ways to support such a cross-cutting coordination effort, including the establishment of a commission on Native American children.

Public Safety and Justice.—The agreement includes $1,000,000 above the budget request to provide training in Indian country to carry out the new provisions in the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013.

The Indian Law and Order Commission's November 2013 report notes that Federal investment in tribal justice for Public Law 83-280 States has been more limited than elsewhere in Indian country. Within 180 days of enactment of this Act, the Bureau, in coordination with the Department of Justice, is directed to report to the House and Senate committees of jurisdiction on the budgetary needs of tribal courts in these States.

Executive Direction and Administrative Services.—The Bureau is directed to fund the requested program evaluations for education and social service programs within the amounts provided in this program.

Indian Arts and Crafts Board.—Funding for the Indian Arts and Crafts Board is retained within the Office of the Secretary rather than transferred to the Bureau as requested.

CONSTRUCTION

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $128,876,000 for Construction. In addition to the funding allocation table at the end of this explanatory statement, the agreement includes the following instructions and changes to the budget request:

Education.—The agreement includes $20,165,000 for school replacement, $3,823,000 for employee housing repair, and $50,513,000 for facilities improvement and repair. The amount for school replacement completes the funding requirements for the school construction project started in fiscal year 2014 and covers design costs for the final two schools on the 2004 priority list. The Bureau is directed to publish a new list in time for the fiscal year 2016 funding cycle.

Significant health and safety hazards exist at Indian educational facilities across the country, including the Bug-O-Nay-Ge-Shig School of the Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe. The Bureau is urged to continue to work with Tribes to repair and replace substandard educational facilities.

Public Safety and Justice.—The Committees continue to encourage the Bureau to consider establishing regional detention centers at new or existing facilities, such as the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes' Justice Center, as it works to combat the crime problem in Indian Country.

Maintenance Shortfalls.—The Bureau is encouraged to request full funding for facilities maintenance needs in future budget requests.

INDIAN LAND AND WATER CLAIMS SETTLEMENTS AND MISCELLANEOUS PAYMENTS TO INDIANS

The bill provides $35,655,000 for Indian Land and Water Claims Settlements and Miscellaneous Payments to Indians. The detailed allocation of funding by activity is included in the table at the end of this explanatory statement.

INDIAN GUARANTEED LOAN PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The bill provides $7,731,000 for the Indian Guaranteed Loan Program Account.

DEPARTMENTAL OFFICES

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

DEPARTMENTAL OPERATIONS

The bill provides $265,263,000 for Departmental Offices, Office of the Secretary, Departmental Operations. The detailed allocation of funding by program area and activity is included in the table at the end of the statement. The bill provides $12,000,000 for the Office of Valuation Services. The amount provided for the Office of Natural Resources Revenue includes fixed costs and partial funding for verification pilots, as requested.

National Monument Designations.—The Department is directed to work collaboratively with interested parties, including the Congress, States, local communities, Tribal governments and others before making national monument designations.

Indian Arts and Crafts Board.—The Committees have provided funding for the Indian Arts and Crafts Board within the Office of the Secretary rather than moving it to the Bureau of Indian Affairs as proposed in the budget request.

Invasive Species.—The National Invasive Species Council is directed to submit an interagency crosscut budget for fiscal years 2013 through 2016 not later than 90 days after the President submits a fiscal year 2016 budget to the Congress. The crosscut budget should include the same seven general spending categories as in prior year reports.

INSULAR AFFAIRS

ASSISTANCE TO TERRITORIES

The bill provides $85,976,000 for Assistance to Territories, equal to the fiscal year 2014 enacted level. In addition to the funding allocation table at the end of this explanatory statement, the agreement includes the following instructions:

Within these amounts, the bill includes a total of $3,000,000 to continue discretionary grants to mitigate the impact of Compact-related migration on affected jurisdictions, as authorized by section 104(e) of Public Law 108-188. This amount is equal to the fiscal year 2014 level. As in previous years, the Department shall allocate these grants in conjunction with other currently authorized mandatory grants in order to help offset educational costs incurred by these jurisdictions.

COMPACT OF FREE ASSOCIATION

The bill provides $3,318,000 for Compact of Free Association. The detailed allocation of funding is included in the table at the end of this explanatory statement.

OFFICE OF THE SOLICITOR

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $65,800,000 for the Office of the Solicitor. The detailed allocation of funding is included in the table at the end of this explanatory statement.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $50,047,000 for the Office of Inspector General. The detailed allocation of funding is included in the table at the end of this explanatory statement.

OFFICE OF THE SPECIAL TRUSTEE FOR ##### AMERICAN INDIANS

FEDERAL TRUST PROGRAMS

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $139,029,000 for the Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians. The detailed allocation of funding by activity is included in the table at the end of this explanatory statement.

DEPARTMENT-WIDE PROGRAMS

WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $804,779,000 for Department of the Interior Wildland Fire Management, which is $63,797,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level (excluding the additional fire suppression funding that was included as repayment for fire transfers in fiscal year 2013). Of the funds provided, $291,657,000 is for suppression operations, which combined with $92,000,000 in the FLAME Wildfire Suppression Reserve Fund fully funds the 10-year average for fire suppression at $383,657,000. Total funding provided in fiscal year 2015 for Department of the Interior Wildland Fire Management accounts is $896,779,000. The detailed allocation of funding for these accounts is included in the table at the end of this statement. The following directions are also provided:

Hazardous Fuels Management.—The bill provides $164,000,000 for hazardous fuels management activities, of which $10,000,000 is for resilient landscapes activities. The total for hazardous fuels management activities is $18,976,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level.

The Department of the Interior is encouraged to evaluate existing commercial satellite technology to determine whether such technology may provide a low-cost early warning capability to save lives and property.

Sage-Grouse Habitat.—The Department of the Interior is directed to work collaboratively with the Forest Service and other stakeholders in developing hazardous fuels management plans that take into consideration the conservation of sage-grouse habitat. The Committees encourage the Administration to seek additional funding in fiscal year 2016 and subsequent fiscal years to continue this concerted effort.

FLAME WILDFIRE SUPPRESSION RESERVE FUND
(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $92,000,000 for the FLAME Wildfire Suppression Reserve Fund.

CENTRAL HAZARDOUS MATERIALS FUND

The bill provides $10,010,000 for the Central Hazardous Materials Fund.

NATURAL RESOURCE DAMAGE ASSESSMENT AND RESTORATION

NATURAL RESOURCE DAMAGE ASSESSMENT FUND

The bill provides $7,767,000 for the Natural Resource Damage Assessment Fund. The detailed allocation of funding by activity is included in the table at the end of this explanatory statement.

WORKING CAPITAL FUND

The bill provides $57,100,000 for the Department of the Interior, Working Capital Fund. Within the funds provided, a total of $1,200,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level has been provided to initiate office space consolidation in lieu of the amounts requested. The Secretary may proceed with additional consolidation activities if cost savings are realized from other Working Capital Fund programs during the fiscal year, consistent with reprogramming guidelines.

GENERAL PROVISIONS, DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The agreement includes various legislative provisions affecting the Department in Title I of the bill, "General Provisions, Department of the Interior." The provisions are:

Section 101 provides Secretarial authority for the intra-bureau transfer of program funds for expenditures in cases of emergencies when all other emergency funds are exhausted.

Section 102 provides for the Department-wide expenditure or transfer of funds by the Secretary in the event of actual or potential emergencies including forest fires, range fires, earthquakes, floods, volcanic eruptions, storms, oil spills, grasshopper and Mormon cricket outbreaks, and surface mine reclamation emergencies.

Section 103 provides for the use of appropriated funds by the Secretary for contracts, rental cars and aircraft, telephone expenses, and other certain services.

Section 104 provides for the transfer of funds from the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Bureau of Indian Education, and Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians.

Section 105 permits the redistribution of tribal priority allocation and tribal base funds to alleviate funding inequities.

Section 106 authorizes the acquisition of lands for the purpose of operating and maintaining facilities that support visitors to Ellis, Governors, and Liberty Islands.

Section 107 continues Outer Continental Shelf inspection fees to be collected by the Secretary of the Interior.

Section 108 authorizes the Bureau of Land Management to implement an oil and gas leasing Internet program.

Section 109 authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to continue the reorganization of the Bureau of Ocean Energy Management, Regulation, and Enforcement in conformance with Committee reprogramming guidelines.

Section 110 provides the Secretary of the Interior with authority to enter into multi-year cooperative agreements with non-profit organizations for long-term care of wild horses and burros.

Section 111 addresses the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's responsibilities for mass marking of salmonid stocks.

Section 112 continues a provision which directs the Secretary of the Interior to make certain certifications with respect to existing rights of way. The section also retains a provision limiting funding for a proposal to approve specified rights-of-way on the Mojave National Preserve or lands managed by the Needles Field Office of the Bureau of Land Management.

Section 113 extends authorization for certain payments to the Republic of Palau for fiscal year 2015.

Section 114 addresses Bureau of Land Management actions regarding grazing on public lands.

Section 115 continues a provision prohibiting funds to implement, administer, or enforce Secretarial Order 3310 issued by the Secretary of the Interior on December 22, 2010.

Section 116 extends a provision allowing the Bureau of Indian Education authority to rent or lease land and facilities and retain the receipts.

Section 117 continues through fiscal year 2020 forest ecosystem health and recovery activities.

Section 118 addresses the National Park Service's ability to implement the Volunteers in Parks program in anticipation of increased volunteer activity related to the Service's Centennial in 2016.

Section 119 allows the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Bureau of Indian Education to more efficiently and effectively perform reimbursable work.

Section 120 addresses National Heritage Areas.

Section 121 addresses certain payments made by the National Park Service.

Section 122 addresses the issuance of rules for sage-grouse.

TITLE II—ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

The bill provides $8,139,887,000 for the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). Based on estimates provided by EPA in the fiscal year 2015 congressional budget justification, the funding level provided is adequate to fully fund payroll. EPA shall make payroll its top priority as it executes its fiscal year 2015 appropriation. Further, this amount fully funds rent needs in each account and program project area, taking into account the fiscal year 2014 reprogramming that shifted funds between program areas to restore rent.

Congressional Budget Justification.—The Agency is directed to continue to include the information requested in House Report 112-331 and any proposals to change State allocation formulas that affect the distribution of appropriated funds in future budget justifications.

Reprogramming.—The Agency is held to the reprogramming limitation of $1,000,000 and should continue to follow the reprogramming directives as provided in the front of this explanatory statement. Further, the Agency may not use any amount of deobligated funds to initiate a new program, office, or initiative, without the prior approval of the Committees.

Within 30 days of enactment of this Act, the Agency is directed to submit to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations its annual operating plan for fiscal year 2015, which shall detail how the Agency plans to allocate funds at the program project level.

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

The bill provides $734,648,000 for Science and Technology programs and transfers

$18,850,000 from the Hazardous Substance Superfund account to this account. The bill provides the following specific funding levels and direction:

Indoor Air and Radiation.—The agreement includes $5,997,000. The proposed elimination of radon activities has been rejected.

Research: Chemical Safety and Sustainability.—The agreement includes $126,930,000. The agreement rejects the proposed reduction for the IRIS program and provides no further directives related to the program.

Research: National Priorities.—The bill provides $4,100,000 which shall be used for extramural research grants, independent of the Science to Achieve Results grant program, to fund high-priority water quality and availability research by not-for-profit organizations who often partner with the Agency. Funds shall be awarded competitively with priority given to partners proposing research of national scope and who provide a 25 percent match. The Agency is directed to allocate funds to grantees within 180 days of enactment of this Act.

Research: Safe and Sustainable Water Resources.—The agreement includes $107,434,000. The proposed elimination of the beach program has been rejected and the agreement provides no further directives.

Research: Sustainable and Healthy Communities.—The agreement includes $149,975,000. Funding is included for the Agency's STAR and the Greater Research Opportunities fellowship programs consistent with fiscal year 2014 levels.

Additional Guidance.—The agreement includes the following additional guidance:

Bristol Bay Assessment.—The agreement does not include a directive on the Bristol Bay Watershed assessment.

Integrated Risk Information System (IRIS).—The Agency is directed to provide the report requested in House Report 113-551.

Nanomaterial Research.—The Agency is encouraged to continue collaborative research efforts with the Food and Drug Administration and, where possible, seek to maximize the impact of their respective research program related to nanotechnology and safe and sustainable molecular design.

Public Access to Research.—In February 2013, the Office of Science and Technology Policy, Executive Office of the President issued guidelines on increasing public access to the results of federally funded scientific research. Given the importance of research funded by EPA, the Agency is encouraged to comply expeditiously.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROGRAMS AND MANAGEMENT

The bill provides $2,613,679,000 for Environmental Programs and Management and includes the following specific funding levels and direction:

Enforcement.—The agreement includes $240,637,000 and includes no further directives under this heading.

Environmental Protection: National Priorities.—The bill provides $12,700,000 for a competitive grant program to provide technical assistance for improved water quality or safe drinking water to rural and urban communities or individual private well owners. The Agency is directed to provide $11,000,000 for grants to qualified not-for-profit organizations, on a national or multi-State regional basis, for on-site training and technical assistance for water systems in rural or urban communities. The Agency is also directed to provide $1,700,000 for grants to qualified not-for-profit organizations for technical assistance for individual private well owners, with priority given to organizations that currently provide technical and educational assistance to individual private well owners.

The Agency shall require each grantee to provide a minimum 10 percent match, including in-kind contributions. The Agency is directed to allocate funds to grantees within 180 days of enactment of this Act.

Geographic Programs.—The bill provides $427,737,000, as distributed in the table at the end of this division, and includes the following direction:

Great Lakes Restoration Initiative (GLRI).—The bill provides $300,000,000. EPA shall follow the direction provided in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014 as it implements the program in fiscal year 2015. Further, new research tools are providing more rapid tests of organism health and environmental conditions, which can serve to reduce costs and leverage public investment in the health of the Great Lakes. The Agency is encouraged to consider such promising fields of study as they allocate research funding under the GLRI.

Chesapeake Bay.—The bill provides $73,000,000. From within the amount, the Committees direct $6,000,000 for nutrient and sediment removal grants and $6,000,000 for small watershed grants to control polluted runoff from urban, suburban and agricultural lands, and include no further directives.

Gulf of Mexico.—The bill provides $4,482,000. The increasing problem of hypoxia is a cause for concern. The Gulf of Mexico program is crucial in partnering with States and universities to study and monitor the effects of hypoxia.

Indoor Air and Radiation.—The agreement includes $27,637,000. The proposed elimination of radon activities has been rejected.

Information Exchange.—The agreement includes $126,538,000, including $3,427,000 for the Immediate Office of the Administrator and $7,163,000 for the Office of Congressional Affairs (OCIR). Bill language is included withholding $856,750 from the Immediate Office and $1,790,750 from OCIR until the following overdue reports from the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014 are submitted to the Committees: (1) the progress report under the heading Integrated Risk Information System (IRIS); (2) the report under the heading Drinking Water Treatment Compliance Flexibility; (3) the report under the heading State Role in Clean Air Act Implementation; and (4) the report under the heading Infrastructure Assistance.

Operations and Administration.—The agreement includes $482,751,000, including $2,966,000 for the Immediate Office of the Chief Financial Officer. Bill language is included withholding $741,500 from the Immediate Office until the following overdue reports from the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014 are submitted to the Committees: (1) the progress report under the heading Integrated Risk Information System (IRIS); (2) the report under the heading Drinking Water Treatment Compliance Flexibility; (3) the report under the heading State Role in Clean Air Act Implementation; and (4) the report under the heading Infrastructure Assistance.

Water: Ecosystems.—The agreement includes $47,788,000. The Agency is strongly encouraged to provide cooperative funding to enhance real-time monitoring of coastal and estuarine water quality in areas affected by extreme weather events, and to develop tools to provide real time and dynamic information to inform management decisions. In addition, the Committees direct EPA to use the funds provided to accelerate the processing of mining permits with the Corps of Engineers. Further, the Committees direct EPA, in consultation with the Corps of Engineers, to report monthly on the number of Section 404 permits under EPA's review. The report should include the information requested under this heading in House Report 112-589, and the Committees include no further directives under this heading.

Water: Human Health Protection.—The agreement includes $98,507,000. The proposed elimination of the beach program has been rejected and funding for this program has been restored within the funds provided.

Water Quality Protection.—The agreement includes $210,417,000. From within this amount, $2,200,000 is for hiring and staffing needs to implement the Agency's new responsibilities under the Water Infrastructure Finance and Innovation Act of 2014 (WIFIA). The Committees support the Agency's development of the Integrated Planning Guidance to enhance flexibility for communities struggling to meet compliance costs mandated under the Clean Water Act (CWA) as well as the Agency's efforts to consider a community's ability to pay for compliance costs when determining settlement agreements under the CWA. Further, the Agency is directed to maintain technical assistance and outreach to communities seeking to develop and implement an integrated planning approach to meeting Clean Water Act requirements.

Additional Guidance.—The agreement includes additional guidance detailed in House Report 113-551 related only to Antimicrobial Solutions for Citrus Disease, Brown Marmorated Stink Bug, Composite Wood Products, Consent Decree, E15 outreach, and Pending herbicide registrations. The agreement also includes the following:

Administrator Priorities.—Funding for Administrator priorities shall not exceed the fiscal year 2014 enacted level. The Agency is directed to submit a report within 90 days of enactment of this Act that identifies how the fiscal year 2013 and 2014 funding was used by account, program area and program project and includes a description of the activities and any anticipated results. Future congressional budget justifications should identify funding in each program project that has been set aside for Administrator priorities, and include a justification for the effort and any anticipated results.

Combined Sewer Overflows (CSOs).—CSOs are a major contributor to water quality issues in the Lake Michigan Basin and it is noted that many communities have made strides to update wastewater infrastructure to mitigate the impact of CSOs. As such, the Agency is directed to provide a report based on available data indicating, for each CSO community in the Great Lakes Basin, the implementation status of each CSO long term control plan. Additionally, the report should include a summary of annual discharge volumes.

Lead Test Kit.—In 2008, EPA adopted the Lead Renovation, Repair and Painting rule which included criteria by which the Agency could certify a test kit that contractors could use onsite to comply with the rule; yet, six years later no kit has been developed that meets these standards. The Agency is directed to prioritize efforts with stakeholders in fiscal year 2015 to identify solutions that would allow for a test kit to meet the criteria within the 2008 rule to reduce costs for consumers, remodelers and families to comply with the rule. If no solution is reached by the end of the fiscal year, EPA should revisit the test kit criteria in the 2008 rule and solicit public comment on alternatives.

Protection of Personal Information.—The Committees understand that the Government Accountability Office's (GAO's) investigation into the EPA's policies for protecting personal information is ongoing. The Committees look forward to the GAO's findings and recommendations to ensure that all personally identifiable information, when collected, is appropriately safeguarded.

Reclaimed and Recycled Oil.—The Agency is urged to support public-private partnerships that address the reclamation, recycling and beneficial reuse of refined petroleum products.

HAZARDOUS WASTE ELECTRONIC MANIFEST SYSTEM FUND

The bill provides $3,674,000 for the Hazardous Waste Electronic Manifest System Fund.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The bill provides $41,489,000 for the Office of Inspector General.

BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES

The bill provides $42,317,000 for Buildings and Facilities. From within this amount $7,850,000 is provided for design and engineering plans for a new research facility as described in the budget request, and the Agency is directed to submit a status report to the Committees on Appropriations on a quarterly basis.

HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SUPERFUND (INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $1,088,769,000 for the Hazardous Substance Superfund account and includes bill language to transfer $9,939,000 to the Office of Inspector General account and $18,850,000 to the Science and Technology account. The agreement only includes the following directives for the Superfund program:

Community Involvement.—The Agency is directed to factor community acceptance into its Superfund remedial cleanup remedy selection process and, when supported by a community, consider remedial cleanup remedies that provide green space as part of a remedial action.

Financial Assurance.—Prior to proposing any rule pursuant to section 108(b) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. 9608(b)), the Administrator is directed to collect and analyze information from the commercial insurance and financial industries regarding the use and availability of necessary instruments (including surety bonds, letters of credit and insurance) for meeting any new financial responsibility requirements and to make that analysis available to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations and to the general public on the Agency website 90 days prior to a proposed rulemaking. In addition, the analysis shall include the Agency's plan to avoid requiring financial assurances that are duplicative of those already required by other Federal agencies.

LEAKING UNDERGROUND STORAGE TANK TRUST FUND PROGRAM

The bill provides $91,941,000 for the Leaking Underground Storage Tank Trust Fund Program.

INLAND OIL SPILL PROGRAMS

The bill provides $18,209,000 for Inland Oil Spill Programs.

STATE AND TRIBAL ASSISTANCE GRANTS

The bill provides $3,545,161,000 for the State and Tribal Assistance Grants (STAG) program and includes the following specific funding levels and direction:

Diesel Emissions Reductions Grants (DERA).—The bill provides $30,000,000 for DERA grants. The Agency shall continue to make at least 70 percent of DERA grants available to improve air quality in non-attainment areas.

Targeted Airshed Grants.—The bill provides $10,000,000 for targeted airshed grants to reduce air pollution in non-attainment areas. These grants shall be distributed on a competitive basis to non-attainment areas that EPA determines are ranked as the top five most polluted areas relative to annual ozone or particulate matter 2.5 standards. To determine these areas, the Agency shall use the most recent design values calculated from validated air quality data. The Committees note that these funds are available for emission reduction activities deemed necessary for compliance with national ambient air quality standards and included in a State Implementation Plan submitted to EPA.

Categorical Grants.—The bill provides $1,054,378,000 for Categorical Grants and funding levels are specified in the table at the end of this division. The amount also includes $228,219,000 for the State and Local Air Quality Management grant program. The Agency is directed to allocate funds for this program using the same formula as fiscal year 2014.

Use of Iron and Steel.—The bill includes language in Title IV General Provisions that stipulates requirements for the use of iron and steel in State Revolving Fund projects. The Committees acknowledge that EPA may issue a waiver of said requirements for de minimis amounts of iron and steel building materials. The Committees emphasize that any coating processes that are applied to the external surface of iron and steel components that otherwise qualify under the procurement preference shall not render such products ineligible for the procurement preference regardless of where the coating processes occur, provided that final assembly of the products occurs in the United States.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY
(INCLUDING TRANSFER AND RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The bill includes language that addresses the collection and expenditure of pesticide fees, allows cooperative agreements to Tribes, allows transfer of funds for the Great Lakes Restoration Initiative, and authorizes amounts for one-time facility repairs. EPA shall follow the direction provided in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014 as it utilizes its special pay authority, and submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations that details the Agency's use of such authority within 60 days of the date of enactment of this Act. The report should include the number of employees, by program office, that the Agency has hired in the last two years using its authority. The report should include a breakdown of how many employees were hired from outside the Agency, and how many were internal hires.

Rescission.—The bill rescinds $40,000,000 of unobligated balances from the State and Tribal Assistance Grants account. The Committee is aware that the Agency has $16,600,000 of remaining balances from prior year special project infrastructure grants that grantees could not use or repurpose and therefore returned to the Agency. The Agency is directed to rescind these balances; however, beyond this amount the Agency is not to include any other unobligated balances from prior year special project infrastructure grants. The remaining $23,400,000 of the rescission shall be taken from all other unobligated balances in the State and Tribal Assistance Grants appropriation account, applying a percentage that is proportional to the unobligated balance remaining for each program project, except that the Committee does not expect EPA to include brownfield infrastructure assistance grants in the rescission. Thirty days prior to executing the rescission, the Agency shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations detailing the amount of rescission by program project.

Purchase Cards.—The recent Inspector General report detailing significant improper transactions on purchase cards issued to employees is concerning. Employees whose purchase card transactions are found to be prohibited, improper, or erroneous should have their purchase card privileges immediately revoked. Further, the Agency shall submit a report within 60 days of enactment of this Act to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations detailing what steps it has taken to ensure further violations will not occur if it wishes to reinstate the card, and that restitution by the employee has been made.

TITLE III—RELATED AGENCIES
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE FOREST SERVICE
FOREST AND RANGELAND RESEARCH

The bill provides $296,000,000 for Forest and Rangeland Research, which includes $70,000,000 for Forest Inventory and Analysis. The following directions are also provided:

The Forest Service is directed to continue making significant investments in research and development and to prioritize white-nose syndrome in bats, research to improve management of the stressors impacting forests, and development of markets to offset the increasing cost of forest management. The Forest Service is urged to invest in high value, high volume markets for low value wood through a wide range of biomass uses, including nanotechnology, wood for energy, and green building construction. This includes innovative building systems to support growth in the market share of wood in both residential and non-residential construction; research, grants, and demonstration projects to advance the use of wood products in high-rise construction; and wood-based nanotechnology.

Urban Forest Research.—The Forest Service is encouraged to maintain a vibrant urban forest research program to assist urban communities in inventorying and assessing the changing conditions and health of urban forests and develop strategic plans to sustain these natural resources.

Bighorn Sheep Research.—The Forest Service is urged to collaborate with the Bureau of Land Management and the Agricultural Research Service on research involving the risk of disease transmission between domestic and bighorn sheep.

STATE AND PRIVATE FORESTRY

The bill provides $232,653,000 for State and Private Forestry. The following directions are also provided:

Landscape Scale Restoration.—The Forest Service is expected to continue the competitive process and to award the funding in a manner that provides each State with funds to implement the highest priorities in their Forest Action Plans, engage woodland owners in active forest management, leverage non-Federal resources, and produce measurable economic, ecological and social benefits. The Forest Service is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations within 90 days of enactment of this Act on the progress made during the first year of implementation and projections for the coming year.

Cooperative Forestry.—The Forest Stewardship Program is uniquely positioned to engage woodland owners on active forest management and conservation activities to address the growing threats of fire, insects and disease, fragmentation, and other challenges facing privately owned forest lands. The Forest Service is directed to provide the Committees on Appropriations with a report on its actions to improve this program, better leverage partner resources, engage additional landowners, and ensure sustained follow-up, as part of the fiscal year 2016 budget justification.

The Forest Service is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations within 90 days of enactment of this Act on the progress being made with regard to salvage and rehabilitation operations on the Stanislaus National Forest.

Forest Legacy.—The bill provides $53,000,000 for the Forest Legacy program. This includes $6,400,000 for program administration and $46,600,000 for projects. The Service should fund projects in priority order according to the competitively selected national priority list submitted by the Forest Service as part of its fiscal year 2015 budget request.

International Forestry.—The Forest Service is expected to continue making investments in this program that plays a large role in protecting the U.S. forest products industry by improving the sustainability and legality of timber management overseas, thereby reducing the amount of underpriced and illegally harvested timber on the world market.

NATIONAL FOREST SYSTEM
(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $1,494,330,000 for the National Forest System. The following directions are also provided:

Integrated Resource Restoration (IRR).—The bill continues funding for the IRR pilot in Regions 1, 3, and 4. The Forest Service is expected to complete an evaluation during fiscal year 2015 of the first three years of the proof of concept pilot, including the metrics required in the initiation of the pilot in fiscal year 2012. If the Forest Service expects due consideration of a fiscal year 2016 request to expand IRR beyond these three regions, the report should be provided no later than 90 days after enactment of this Act.

Land Management Planning, Inventory and Monitoring.—The bill provides $37,754,000 for Land Management Planning and $151,019,000 for Inventory and Monitoring. The agreement does not approve the consolidation of these two line items.

Travel Management Plans.—The Committees expect the Forest Service to work with impacted communities prior to and during the travel management planning process to gain comprehensive information regarding current and historic road location and usage and to ensure understanding of the social, cultural and economic impact of travel management plans.

Recreation, Heritage and Wilderness.—The Forest Service is urged to provide sufficient funding for the maintenance of rural airstrips in future budget requests and to consult with Congress, State and local officials, and affected stakeholders, prior to making a determination to close or terminate the use of any rural airstrips. The Forest Service is encouraged to work with local partners to facilitate the rehabilitation of historic structures, some of which were constructed by the Civilian Conservation Corps, to generate revenue and provide opportunities for interpretation.

The Forest Service is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations within 90 days of enactment of this Act on its plans for continued operation of the Philadelphia Peak radio repeater in the Green Mountain National Forest.

The Forest Service is urged to target a higher board feet volume and to implement larger projects and reduce unit costs.

Grazing Management.—The Committees direct the Forest Service, to the greatest extent practicable, to make vacant grazing allotments available to a holder of a grazing permit or lease when lands covered by the holder of the permit or lease are unusable because of drought or wildfire.

Law Enforcement Operations.—The Forest Service is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations 90 days after the enactment of this Act, regarding the steps taken to include Law Enforcement and Investigations as an integral participant in the annual forest planning process as a means to ensure stronger collaboration among all partners and focused enforcement strategies aimed at safety, interdiction and mitigation of illegal marijuana cultivation on public lands.

Valles Caldera National Preserve.—In accordance with Sec. 3043 of the National Defense Authorization Act of Fiscal Year 2015, this bill provides the Secretary of Agriculture with the necessary authority to transfer all unobligated balances from the Valles Caldera National Preserve account to the Secretary of the Interior.

Stewardship Contracting.—The Forest Service is strongly encouraged to expeditiously prepare and publish draft rulemaking to establish a small business set-aside program for timber contracts undertaken using stewardship contracting authority that is consistent with previous commitments made by the Service and the Department of Agriculture on this matter.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT AND MAINTENANCE (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $360,374,000 for Capital Improvement and Maintenance programs offset by a $17,000,000 scoring credit related to the road and trail fund. The following directions are also provided:

Facilities.—The bill provides $71,600,000 for Facilities including $16,231,000 for construction and $55,369,000 for maintenance.

Roads.—The bill provides $168,094,000 for Roads including $24,640,000 for construction and $143,454,000 for maintenance.

Trails.—The bill provides $77,530,000 for Trails including $7,753,000 for construction and $69,777,000 for maintenance.

Legacy Roads and Trails.—The bill provides $40,000,000 for the Legacy Roads and Trails program. The Forest Service is expected to allocate this funding in a manner proportionate to the distribution of roads in need of attention across the system and to direct funds to regions most in need of road remediation.

Gifford Pinchot National Forest.—Within the Gifford Pinchot National Forest, the Forest Service is encouraged to give preference to the reduction of a road to Maintenance Level 1 over decommissioning and to decommission only after final plantation restoration work in Late Successional Reserve habitat development, or on a portion of road where resource protection cannot be adequately met by closing and stabilizing.

LAND ACQUISITION

The bill provides $47,500,000 for Land Acquisition. The amounts recommended by this bill compared with the budget estimates by activity are shown in the table below, listed in priority order pursuant to the budget request for fiscal year 2015. The Forest Service is expected to use the Cash Equalization, Critical Inholdings, and Priority Recreational Access line items to acquire high priority lands that maximize benefits to the public through consolidated Federal ownership that creates management efficiencies, or protects critical resources, including wilderness. The Forest Service is directed to prioritize recreational access projects that significantly enhance access to existing public lands that have inadequate access for hunting, fishing, and other recreational activities.

ACQUISITION OF LANDS FOR NATIONAL FORESTS SPECIAL ACTS

The bill provides $950,000 for the Acquisition of Lands for National Forests Special Acts.

ACQUISITION OF LANDS TO COMPLETE LAND EXCHANGES

The bill provides $216,000 for the Acquisition of Lands to Complete Land Exchanges.

RANGE BETTERMENT FUND

The bill provides $2,320,000 for the Range Betterment Fund.

GIFTS, DONATIONS AND BEQUESTS FOR FOREST AND RANGELAND RESEARCH

The bill provides $45,000 for Gifts, Donations and Bequests for Forest and Rangeland Research.

MANAGEMENT OF NATIONAL FOREST LANDS FOR SUBSISTENCE USES

The bill provides $2,500,000 for the Management of National Forest Lands for Subsistence Uses and does not support the proposed elimination of this appropriation.

WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT (INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $2,333,298,000 for Forest Service Wildland Fire Management, which is $170,996,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level, (excluding the additional fire suppression funding that was included as repayment for fire transfers in fiscal year 2013). Of the funds provided, $708,000,000 is for suppression operations, which combined with $303,060,000 in the FLAME Wildfire Suppression Reserve Fund fully funds the 10-year average for suppression at $1,011,060,000. Total funding provided in fiscal year 2015 for Forest Service

Wildland Fire Management accounts is $2,636,358,000. The following directions are also provided:

Wildfire Preparedness Operations.—The bill provides an additional $65,000,000 for the acquisition of aircraft for the next-generation airtanker fleet to enhance firefighting mobility, effectiveness, efficiency, and safety. Funding for the acquisition of new airtankers is essential to support the need of the Forest Service to phase out numerous antiquated aircraft and its desire to maintain 18 to 28 airtankers for wildland fire suppression. While aircraft being transferred to the Forest Service from the Coast Guard under the National Defense Authorization Act, 2014 will be a helpful short-term solution, the Forest Service anticipates a life expectancy of six to twelve years once they take possession, due to the mission stressors of aerial firefighting. Therefore, it is critical to begin the process of developing a long-term solution for air support in fighting wildfires. The Forest Service is directed to budget for ongoing airtanker modernization needs in fiscal year 2016 and subsequent fiscal years, and to continue to provide regular updates to the Committees on Appropriations on cost-containment and risk management efforts and the budgetary impact of additional aviation assets.

The Forest Service is encouraged to evaluate existing commercial satellite technology to determine whether such technology may provide a low-cost early warning capability to save lives and property.

Hazardous Fuels Management.—The bill provides $361,749,000 for hazardous fuels management activities, $55,249,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level. Within this amount, $15,000,000 is for biomass utilization grants, which the Forest Service is expected to use for the development of bioenergy and bio-based products that will expand commercial markets for low value wood to facilitate increased removal of biomass beyond traditional fuels treatment. The Forest Service is urged to work proactively with States, as well as new and existing local forest collaboratives on project areas where risk from fire to communities, sensitive wildlife habitat, and healthy forests is high, where risk can effectively be mitigated, and where communities are proactively investing in risk reduction activities on adjacent private lands.

Sage-Grouse Habitat.—The Forest Service is directed to work collaboratively with the Department of the Interior and other stakeholders in developing hazardous fuels management plans that take into consideration the conservation of sage-grouse habitat. The Committees encourage the Administration to seek additional funding in fiscal year 2016 and subsequent fiscal years to continue this concerted effort.

FLAME WILDFIRE SUPPRESSION RESERVE FUND (INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $303,060,000 for the FLAME Wildfire Suppression Reserve Fund.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES INDIAN HEALTH SERVICE INDIAN HEALTH SERVICES

The bill provides $4,182,147,000 for Indian Health Services. In addition to the table at the end of this explanatory statement, the agreement includes the following instructions and changes to the budget request:

The agreement includes $662,970,000 for contract support costs. This amount includes $45,765,000 to meet the fiscal year 2015 shortfall estimate that was provided to the Committees following submission of the President's budget request. The agreement includes funds requested to re-pay other budget line items which were reprogrammed in order to cover the fiscal year 2014 contract support cost shortfall.

The agreement does not include requested funds for medical inflation.

The agreement includes $914,139,000 for Purchased/Referred Care, which is an increase of $35,564,000 above the fiscal year 2014 enacted level. Additional dollars in support of Purchased/Referred Care remains a top priority for Tribes.

The agreement includes a transfer of $4,876,000 in loan repayment funds from Hospitals and Health Clinics to Indian Health Professions. In addition, there is a $5,000,000 program increase above the budget request for loan repayments.

The agreement includes $62,324,000 for the staffing of newly opened health facilities.

Funds for the staffing of new facilities are limited to facilities funded through the Health Care Facilities Construction Priority System or the Joint Venture Construction Program that have opened in fiscal year 2014 or will open in fiscal year 2015. None of these funds may be allocated to a facility until such facility has achieved beneficial occupancy status.

The Service is encouraged to coordinate with the Bureau of Indian Education to establish a pilot program integrating preventive dental care at schools within the Bureau system.

The Service is encouraged to work with Tribes and health care organizations to find creative ways to address the Service's health care provider shortage, including improvements to the credentialing process.

INDIAN HEALTH FACILITIES

The bill provides $460,234,000 for Indian Health Facilities. In addition to the table at the end of this explanatory statement, the agreement includes the following instructions:

The agreement includes $8,494,000 for the staffing of newly opened health facilities. The stipulations included in the 'Indian Health Services' account regarding the allocation of funds pertains to this account as well.

NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SCIENCES

The bill provides $77,349,000 for the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences.

AGENCY FOR TOXIC SUBSTANCES AND DISEASE REGISTRY

TOXIC SUBSTANCES AND ENVIRONMENTAL PUBLIC HEALTH

The bill provides $74,691,000 for the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT COUNCIL ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY AND OFFICE OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

The bill provides $3,000,000 for the Council on Environmental Quality and Office of Environmental Quality.

CHEMICAL SAFETY AND HAZARD INVESTIGATION BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $11,000,000 for the Chemical Safety and Hazard Investigation Board.

OFFICE OF NAVAJO AND HOPI INDIAN RELOCATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The bill provides $7,341,000 for the Office of Navajo and Hopi Indian Relocation.

INSTITUTE OF AMERICAN INDIAN AND ALASKA NATIVE CULTURE AND ARTS DEVELOPMENT PAYMENT TO THE INSTITUTE

The bill provides $9,469,000 for the Institute of American Indian and Alaska Native Culture and Arts Development.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides a total of $819,541,000 for all Smithsonian Institution accounts, of which $675,343,000 is provided for salaries and expenses. The Committees maintain their longstanding commitment to the preservation of priceless, irreplaceable Smithsonian collections and have provided funds, as requested, for improving the stewardship of national collections. The Committees direct the Smithsonian to provide, within 90 days of enactment of this Act, a progress report on the multi-year effort to improve the stewardship of national collections including those within the National Museum of American History. The Committees support the Smithsonian Latino Center's goal of promoting the inclusion of Latino contributions in Smithsonian Institution programs, exhibitions, collections, and public outreach. The Committees continue to urge collaboration between the Smithsonian Latino Center and appropriate Federal and local organizations in order to advance these goals and expand the American Latino presence at the Institution. The Committees have not included requested funding for the Administration's Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) initiative believing that the administrative costs of implementing such a program are not sustainable and would divert scarce resources that could be applied to greater advantage among the Institution's existing programs. The Committees have received the report requested from the Smithsonian in the fiscal year 2014 joint explanatory statement describing the Asian Pacific American Center's current activities and future plans. The Committees support the Center's goal of developing a more robust program, both within the Institution and through external partnerships, which will promote a better understanding of the Asian Pacific American experience.

FACILITIES CAPITAL

The bill provides $144,198,000 for the Facilities Capital account, of which $24,010,000 is to complete the construction of the National Museum of African American History and Culture.

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $119,500,000 for the Salaries and Expenses account of the National Gallery of Art, of which not to exceed $3,578,000 is for the special exhibition program.

REPAIR, RESTORATION AND RENOVATION OF BUILDINGS

The bill provides $19,000,000 for the Repair, Restoration and Renovation of Buildings account. This funding level includes the requested increase to address fire protection and life safety requirements in the East Building, which will allow the building to reopen to the public, as scheduled, in 2016.

JOHN F. KENNEDY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

OPERATIONS AND MAINTENANCE

The bill provides $22,000,000 for the Operations and Maintenance account.

CAPITAL REPAIR AND RESTORATION

The bill provides $10,800,000 for the Capital Repair and Restoration account.

WOODROW WILSON INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR SCHOLARS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $10,500,000 for the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars.

NATIONAL FOUNDATION ON THE ARTS AND THE HUMANITIES

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS GRANTS AND ADMINISTRATION

The bill provides $146,021,000 for the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

The Committees greatly value the longstanding collaborative relationship between the NEA and the States. The Committees commend the NEA for its work through its Healing Arts Partnerships with Walter Reed National Military Medical Center and Fort Belvoir Community Hospital to incorporate arts therapy into the treatment of active-duty military patients and their families. The Committees direct that priority be given to providing services and grant funding for projects, productions, or programs that encourage public knowledge, education, understanding, and appreciation of the arts. Any reduction in support to the States for arts education should be no more than proportional to other funding decreases taken in other NEA programs.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES
GRANTS AND ADMINISTRATION

The bill provides $146,021,000 for the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). The Committees commend the NEH for its support of grant programs to benefit Wounded Warriors and to ensure educational opportunities for American heroes transitioning to civilian life. The Committees commend the NEH Federal/State partnership for its ongoing, successful collaboration with State humanities councils in each of the 50 States as well as Washington, DC, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa. The Committees urge the NEH to provide program funding to support the critical work of State humanities councils consistent with guidance provided in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014.

COMMISSION OF FINE ARTS
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $2,524,000 for the Commission of Fine Arts.

NATIONAL CAPITAL ARTS AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS

The bill provides $2,000,000 for the National Capital Arts and Cultural Affairs program.

ADVISORY COUNCIL ON HISTORIC PRESERVATION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $6,204,000 for the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation.

NATIONAL CAPITAL PLANNING COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $7,948,000 for the National Capital Planning Commission.

UNITED STATES HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL MUSEUM

The bill provides $52,385,000 for the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER MEMORIAL COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The bill provides $1,000,000 for the Salaries and Expenses account. The Committees understand that the Eisenhower Memorial Commission is continuing to meet with the Commission of Fine Arts and the National Capital Planning Commission in an effort to refine the Eisenhower Memorial's design and obtain final agency approvals that are required before construction can begin. Less clear, however, is whether the concerns of the Eisenhower family and Congress regarding the Memorial design have been addressed satisfactorily in the revisions that have been proposed. This remains an area of significant concern for the Committees that must be resolved before the project plans are finalized and ground is broken. Resolution of any outstanding disagreements is in the best interest of all involved in this effort and the Committees hope this can be done expeditiously. No funds have been appropriated to the "Construction" account for fiscal year 2015 because of ongoing delays in the planning and approval process. The agreement includes in Section 423 of Title IV General Provisions bill language contained in the Continuing Appropriations Resolution, 2015 (PL 113-164).

TITLE IV—GENERAL PROVISIONS

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The agreement includes various legislative provisions in Title IV of the bill. The provisions are:

Section 401 continues a provision providing that appropriations available in the bill shall not be used to produce literature or otherwise promote public support of a legislative proposal on which legislative action is not complete.

Section 402 continues a provision providing for annual appropriations unless expressly provided otherwise in this Act.

Section 403 continues a provision providing restrictions on departmental assessments unless approved by the Committees on Appropriations.

Section 404 continues a limitation on accepting and processing applications for patents and on the patenting of Federal lands.

Section 405 continues a provision regarding the payment of contract support costs.

Section 406 addresses the payment of contract support costs for fiscal year 2014.

Section 407 addresses the payment of contract support costs for fiscal year 2015.

Section 408 continues a provision providing that the Secretary of Agriculture shall not be considered in violation of certain provisions of the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act solely because more than 15 years have passed without revision of a forest plan, provided that the Secretary is working in good faith to complete the plan revision.

Section 409 continues a provision limiting preleasing, leasing, and related activities within the boundaries of National Monuments.

Section 410 restricts funding appropriated for acquisition of land or interests in land from being used for declarations of taking or complaints in condemnation.

Section 411 continues a provision addressing timber sales involving Alaska western red and yellow cedar.

Section 412 continues a provision which prohibits no-bid contracts.

Section 413 continues a provision which requires public disclosure of certain reports.

Section 414 continues a provision which delineates the grant guidelines for the National Endowment for the Arts.

Section 415 continues a provision which delineates the program priorities for the programs managed by the National Endowment for the Arts.

Section 416 adjusts existing statutory caps for international and domestic arts exhibition indemnity agreements under the Arts and Artifacts Indemnity Act.

Section 417 requires the Department of the Interior, Environmental Protection Agency, Forest Service and Indian Health Service to provide the Committees on Appropriations quarterly reports on the status of balances of appropriations.

Section 418 requires the President to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations no later than 120 days after submission of the fiscal year 2016 budget request describing Federal agency obligations and expenditures for climate change programs in fiscal years 2014 and 2015.

Section 419 continues a provision prohibiting the use of funds to promulgate or implement any regulation requiring the issuance of permits under Title V of the Clean Air Act for carbon dioxide, nitrous oxide, water vapor, or methane emissions.

Section 420 continues a provision prohibiting the use of funds to implement any provision in a rule if that provision requires mandatory reporting of greenhouse gas emissions from manure management systems.

Section 421 extends the authorization for American Battlefield Protection program grants.

Section 422 provides an extension of the current recreation fee authority.

Section 423 continues a provision modifying authorities relating to the Dwight D. Eisenhower Memorial Commission.

Section 424 sets requirements for the use of American iron and steel for certain loans and grants.

Section 425 prohibits the use of funds to regulate the lead content of ammunition or fishing tackle.

DIVISION G—DEPARTMENTS OF LABOR, HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, AND EDUCATION, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

The Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2015, put in place by this division incorporates the following agreements. Funds for the individual programs and activities within the accounts in this division are displayed in the detailed table at the end of the explanatory statement for this division. Funding levels that are not displayed in the detailed table are identified within this explanatory statement.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING ADMINISTRATION

TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The agreement notes that Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCUs) are eligible for grants under section 166 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA). Since TCUs are well-positioned to positively impact the employment and training of native populations, the agreement urges the Department to give full and fair consideration to TCUs competing for grant funds.

The agreement includes language that allows the Secretary to transfer and utilize additional funds to provide technical assistance activities related to the implementation of the WIOA. The additional funds are intended to be a one-time provision only. The agreement expects the Department to use the funds to help implement the WIOA as quickly and effectively as possible.

In January 2011, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) issued a report entitled “Multiple Employment and Training Programs” (GAO-11-92) and stated that “even when programs overlap, the services they provide and the populations they serve may differ in meaningful ways.” The agreement supports efforts by the Department to work with other agencies, specifically the Department of Health and Human Services, to evaluate the delivery strategies and increase administrative efficiencies in employment and training programs.

Not later than 180 days after enactment of this act, the Department, in collaboration with the other agencies identified in the GAO report, shall submit to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations a report on the status of efforts to implement the GAO recommendation to facilitate further progress by States and localities in increasing administrative efficiencies in employment and training programs. The report should also include how the Department is supporting improved collaboration among job training programs in response to GAO Report 12-97 entitled “Innovative Collaborations between Workforce Boards and Employers Helped Meet Local Needs.”

OFFICE OF JOB CORPS

The agreement notes continued concern about the Department's mismanagement of Job Corps, and in particular the deficient financial oversight which resulted in projected costs exceeding the funding provided for the operations account in program years 2011 and 2012. After the Department implemented a series of cost cutting measures, including freezes on new student enrollment, Job Corps ended program year 2012 with more than $40,000,000 in cost underruns. The agreement notes that Job Corps announced plans to increase On-Board Strength, utilizing $12,000,000 from the underruns to support this effort. The agreement places a high priority on maximizing student enrollment within the appropriation provided, and directs the Secretary to provide a report on the policies and procedures in place to address this priority within 60 days of enactment of this act. The Department is directed to provide semi-annual updates to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on its implementation of the recommendations in the Office of Inspector General (OIG) report No. 22-13-015-03-370 (May 31, 2013) and the OIG report No. 26-14-001-03-370 (April 29, 2014) to improve Job Corps financial management and controls.

The Department is directed to submit in its fiscal year 2015 operating plan, in coordination with the Department of Agriculture, a detailed and comprehensive estimate of all costs and savings related to the closure of the Treasure Lake Job Corps center.

FEDERAL UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS AND ALLOWANCES

The agreement provides funding to carry out the Trade Adjustment Assistance for Workers program at the requested level to allow for the full operation of the program throughout fiscal year 2015, including the provision of benefits to groups of workers certified after December 31, 2014.

STATE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE AND EMPLOYMENT SERVICE OPERATIONS

The agreement continues to support investments in unemployment insurance program integrity activities, including technology-based programs that identify and reclaim overpayments. The agreement expects the Secretary to submit a follow-up report by September 30, 2015 on the Department's progress in meeting the outcomes identified in the plan requested in Senate Report 113—71.

To the extent that funds not needed for workload become available at the end of the fiscal year, the Department is encouraged to make funding available to States for program integrity, performance improvement, and technology investments, including associated implementation and operational support services for each, with a portion of funds not needed for workload to be distributed to all States proportionally based on each State's base allocation.

There is significant concern that automation acquisition being carried out through consortia of States has fallen critically behind schedule and that funds provided for this purpose, as far back as fiscal year 2011, are at risk of lapsing before the projects are completed. The Department is directed to collect and approve detailed automation acquisition plans for each project that include lifecycle systems cost estimates and implementation timelines, and to submit to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations a report by April 1 of each fiscal year, until funds available to consortia are expended or expire, that includes the status of all project funds and analysis of each project's progress toward executing the acquisition plan.

The agreement supports the use of combining reemployment and eligibility assessments and reemployment services and training referrals to address unemployment and urges the Department to use its evaluation authority to evaluate and report on their effectiveness.

PENSION BENEFIT GUARANTY CORPORATION

The agreement treats investment management fees as program expenses, not subject to the limitation on administrative expenses established by this act. These fees will continue to be subject to oversight through various mechanisms, including reviews by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) Board, PBGC Inspector General and GAO. PBGC should continue to report on these expenses, including an analysis of the forces driving any trends, in its annual congressional budget justification.

WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION

The Wage and Hour Division is directed to submit a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 180 days of enactment of this act on the steps taken to improve the process for wage determinations for public works projects and correct the deficiencies found in the 2004 OIG report titled “Concerns Persist with the Integrity of Davis-Bacon Act Prevailing Wage Determinations.”

The Wage and Hour Division is directed to submit a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 120 days of enactment of this act on the methodology and accuracy of the Adverse Effect Wage Rates.

OFFICE OF FEDERAL CONTRACT COMPLIANCE PROGRAMS

Compensation discrimination is one form of discrimination that is prohibited by Executive Order 11246. The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs is directed to seek input from stakeholders on issues related to scope, content and format of the Nondiscrimination in Compensation: Compensation Data Collection Tool and to carefully consider input and public comments on any proposed rule.

BLACK LUNG DISABILITY TRUST FUND

The agreement provides $4,860,000 in addition to the $25,543,000 requested in the fiscal year 2015 budget for Departmental Management Salaries and Expenses within the Black Lung Disability Trust Fund account. These additional funds shall be used to reduce the backlog of black lung cases pending before the Department.

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ADMINISTRATION

The bill continues the exemption of small farming operations from Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) regulation. The OSHA is encouraged to continue working with the Department of Agriculture before moving forward with any attempts to redefine and regulate post-harvest activities, to include, but not limited to, storing, drying, grinding, and other activities necessary to market farm products to subsequent users in the agricultural value chain, and clarify that this exemption shall apply to on farm post-harvest activities.

OSHA is directed to notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations 10 days prior to the announcement of any new National, Regional or Local Emphasis Program including the circumstances and data used to determine the need for the launch of a new Program.

OSHA is urged to consider all currently available technology as it develops any new standard for workers' exposure to silica dust.

BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS

The Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) is directed to conduct a review of the methodology for the collection and reporting of data for Metropolitan Statistical Areas within the Current Employment Statistics program. Within 180 days of enactment of this act, BLS shall submit a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on ways that reporting for Metropolitan Statistical areas could be improved and any estimated costs of implementation.

DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT
IT MODERNIZATION

The Department is directed to submit to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations a detailed IT modernization implementation plan by May 29, 2015. The plan shall include: a complete list of all new systems and significant improvements of existing systems proposed for development; the projected cost of each development project each year to completion including the total estimated cost of development; the estimated annual operations and maintenance costs for each system once development is complete; and a timeline and estimated maintenance cost savings of any legacy systems that will no longer be necessary and are proposed to be eliminated. The plan should also include an assessment of the Department's information technology management controls that includes: How the systems integrate into the Department's enterprise architecture; an analysis of the Department's project management capabilities; and a review of the Department's information technology investment and human capital management practices. The requested plan shall address IT funding provided in this account, the related general provision established in title I of this Act and other spending authority planned for or proposed to be used for such purposes.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The Office of Inspector General (OIG) plans to initiate a long-term, cyclical oversight program to independently review, on a prioritized basis, individual States' efforts to identify and recover UI overpayments. The OIG should conduct as many multi-State reviews as funding will allow in fiscal year 2015 and submit a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations by March 31, 2016 on the progress and effectiveness of this effort.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The bill includes a new provision related to Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation actions under 4062(e) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act.

The bill includes a new provision related to information technology transfer authority.

The bill includes a new provision related to the Fair Labor Standards Act.

TITLE II—DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

The agreement includes tables within and at the end of the statement allocating funding for the programs, projects, and activities in this act. The agencies within this act are directed to fully implement these allocations in accordance with the statement, except as permitted by the reprogramming and transfer authorities provided in this act. Any action to eliminate or consolidate programs, projects, and activities should be pursued through a proposal in the President's budget so it can be considered by the Committees on Appropriations.

The Department is directed to include in its fiscal year 2016 congressional budget justification the amount of expired unobligated balances available for transfer to the non-recurring expenses fund (NEF) and the amount of any such balances transferred to the NEF. This should include actual or estimated amounts for the prior, current, and budget years.

HEALTH RESOURCES AND SERVICES
ADMINISTRATION
PRIMARY HEALTHCARE

Health Centers.—Of the available funding for fiscal year 2015, the agreement directs not less than $165,000,000 shall be awarded for base grant adjustments to existing centers and not less than $350,000,000 shall be awarded for the establishment of new delivery sites, medical capacity expansions, and expanded medical services including oral, behavioral, pharmacy, or vision services. In addition, not more than $150,000,000 will be awarded for construction and capital improvement projects. In addition, within the funds provided for Primary Health Care, the agreement includes not less than the fiscal year 2014 level for the Native Hawaiian Health Care Program.

HEALTH WORKFORCE

National Health Service Corps.—The agreement includes section 223 of this act to modify the rules governing National Health Service Corps (NHSC) to allow every Corps member 60 days to cancel their contract. HRSA is directed to evaluate the establishment of a demonstration project within the NHSC in which optometrists are recognized as primary health services providers for purposes of the Loan Repayment Program.

Oral Health Training.—The agreement includes not less than $9,000,000 for General Dentistry programs and not less than $10,000,000 for Pediatric Dentistry programs.

Alternative Dental Health Providers.—While the agreement continues to carry bill language that prohibits the use of funds for alternative dental health care provider demonstration projects, this language is not intended to prohibit or preclude a State's ability to independently develop policies to increase patient access to dental care in underserved areas in order to address the unique needs and demands of that State.

Mental and Behavioral Health.—The agreement provides $8,916,000 for Mental and Behavioral Health programs. With increasing numbers of military service members reintegrating into civilian life following multiple deployments, the Administrator of HRSA is directed to devote the increase to the Graduate Psychology Education Program for a special effort to focus additional grants on the inter-professional training of doctoral psychology graduate students and interns to address the psychological needs of military personnel, veterans and their families in civilian and community-based settings, including those in rural areas. The agreement continues funding for the Leadership Training Program in Social Work to support centers of excellence at schools of social work to help develop the next generation of social workers and to provide critical leadership, resources, and training.

Public Health and Preventive Medicine Training.—The agreement provides $21,000,000 for Public Health Workforce Development and directs that no less than $6,000,000 for preventive medicine residencies and no less than $4,000,000 for existing programs and residencies related to integrative medicine.

MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH

Maternal and Child Health Block Grant.—The agreement includes bill language setting aside $77,093,000 for Special Projects of Regional and National Significance (SPRANS), which is intended to include sufficient funding to continue the set-asides for oral health, epilepsy, sickle cell, and fetal alcohol syndrome at not less than fiscal year 2014 levels. The agreement also provides $551,631,000 for the State grants.

Autism and Other Developmental Disorders.—The agreement provides $47,099,000 for the Autism and Other Developmental Disorders program and directs that HRSA provide no less than the fiscal year 2014 level for the LEND programs. Further, the agreement acknowledges that the Autism and Other Developmental Disorders program has demonstrated an ability to develop early detection, education, and intervention activities on autism and other developmental disorders. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recently announced that the highest rate of increased diagnoses for children with autism is from minority and rural communities. HRSA is directed to ensure that competitive funding opportunities are made available to specifically target innovative diagnosis and treatment models, including the use of telehealth networks, to improve the diagnosis and treatment of Autism Spectrum Disorders in minority and rural communities.

Heritable Disorders Program.—The agreement provides $13,883,000 for the Heritable Disorders Program, of which $2,000,000 is provided for a new grant competition to support the wider implementation, education and awareness of newborn screening for Severe Combined Immune Deficiency (SCID) and related disorders. The qualifying grantee must have at least five years of direct involvement in the effort to support implementation of SCID screening in State newborn screening protocols and offer a national network of medical centers to provide linkage to care for diagnosed newborns.

Healthy Start.—The Fetal Infant Mortality Review (FIMR) program is an important component of many Healthy Start Initiatives and that providing evidence-based interventions are crucial to improving infant health in high risk communities. HRSA is encouraged to continue to support the FIMR program with Healthy Start funding while educating Healthy Start Programs on the successes of the FIMR.

HRSA is also encouraged to assist Healthy Start grantees that did not receive grants in fiscal year 2014 due to changes in the grant process, but were funded in previous years, with transitional funding to help alleviate their shortfalls.

HEALTH CARE SYSTEMS

340B Drug Program.—HRSA is required to make 340B ceiling prices available to covered entities through a secure Web site. Funding was provided in fiscal year 2014 to implement such requirements, including the creation of a Web site. HRSA is directed to provide a briefing to update the House and Senate Appropriations Committees on implementation by March 3, 2015. There are concerns that HRSA has been unable to demonstrate that the 340B program benefits the most vulnerable patients. In order to best serve the public need, the program should examine its ability to ensure patients' access to 340B savings for outpatient drugs. HRSA is directed to work with covered entities to better understand the way these entities support direct patient benefits from 340B discounted sales.

Poison Control Centers.—Increased education and outreach services provided by the poison control centers to Medicare and Medicaid beneficiaries could result in substantial savings by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. The Secretary is directed to continue the discussions with the Nation's poison control centers to develop an action plan to achieve these possible new Medicare and Medicaid cost savings.

RURAL HEALTH

The agreement includes sufficient funding to continue the five key program areas identified in the President's budget: outreach services grants, rural network development grants, network planning grants, small healthcare provider quality improvement grants, and the Delta States network grant program.

Oral Health.—There is a significant need for dental providers in rural communities who can provide oral healthcare and education to individuals on the importance of proper oral care and prevention, and concerns remain about the number of unnecessary hospital emergency room visits for oral health issues. The Office of Rural Health Policy is encouraged to support mobile dentistry programs led by properly licensed dental providers.

Rural Access to Emergency Devices.—The agreement provides $4,500,000 for the Rural Access to Emergency Devices program. In past fiscal years, the funding was used to purchase automated external defibrillators for public locations and to train emergency responders in their use. The increase over fiscal year 2014 should be competitively awarded for the purchase of other emergency devices used to rapidly reverse the effects of opioid overdoses, as well as training licensed healthcare professionals and emergency responders on their use. Funding will be used to buy automated external defibrillators and other emergency devices used to rapidly reverse the effects of opioid overdoses and put them in public areas where cardiac arrests and other life threatening events are likely to occur as well as train licensed healthcare professionals to include paramedics on their use.

Telehealth.—The Office of the Advancement of Telehealth (OAT) expands high quality medical care to rural communities that do not have adequate access to medical providers including many medical specialties. OAT is directed to use these funds to expand existing telehealth networks and to award new grants under the Telehealth Network Grant Program while also increasing activities that demonstrate the use and success of telehealth networks across the country.

OAT is commended for its work to provide greater access, quality, and scope of care to medically underserved populations. OAT is urged to fund sustainable programs with demonstrable accomplishments, placing particular emphasis on programs seeking to aid diverse populations in regions with significant chronic disease burden and evident health disparities such as diabetes.

VACCINE INJURY COMPENSATION PROGRAM TRUST FUND

HHS is directed to implement the Advisory Commission on Childhood Vaccines' recommendations on maternal immunization that were adopted in 2013 as HRSA administers the Vaccine Injury Compensation Program under existing authorities.

CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL AND PREVENTION

The agreement includes a program level of $6,925,776,000, which includes $6,023,476,000 in appropriated funds for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). In addition, it provides $887,300,000 in transfers from the Prevention and Public Health (PPH) Fund and $15,000,000 in Public Health and Social Services Emergency Fund (PHSSEF) unobligated balances from pandemic influenza supplemental appropriations.

IMMUNIZATION AND RESPIRATORY DISEASES

The agreement includes a total of $798,405,000 for Immunization and Respiratory Diseases, which includes $573,105,000 in discretionary appropriations, $210,300,000 in transfers from the PPH Fund and $15,000,000 in transfers from PHSSEF unobgated balances. Within this total, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Section 317 Immunization Program .....	$610,847,000
National Immunization Survey .....	12,864,000
Influenza Planning and Response .....	187,558,000

Cost Estimates.—CDC is requested to update its report on estimated funding needs of the Section 317 Immunization Program, which should be submitted not later than February 1, 2015, to reflect fiscal year 2016 cost estimates.

Influenza.—The agreement directs the Department to use $15,000,000 in pandemic influenza supplemental balances to support CDC's global influenza activity. CDC and the Department are expected to clearly identify in budget documents when and how prior year supplemental appropriations are used.

HIV/AIDS, VIRAL HEPATITIS, SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASES AND TUBERCULOSIS PREVENTION

The agreement includes $1,117,609,000 for HIV/AIDS, Viral Hepatitis, Sexually Transmitted Diseases and Tuberculosis Prevention, in discretionary appropriations.

Within this total, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Domestic HIV/AIDS Prevention and Research .....	$786,712,000
HIV Prevention by Health Departments .....	397,161,000
HIV Surveillance .....	119,861,000
Activities to Improve Program Effectiveness .....	103,208,000
National, Regional, Local, Community and Other Organizations .....	135,401,000
School Health .....	31,081,000
Viral Hepatitis .....	31,331,000
Sexually Transmitted Infections .....	157,310,000
Tuberculosis .....	142,256,000

HIV Screening.—The agreement notes concerns have been raised related to CDC's promotion of draft HIV screening algorithms that would limit antibody testing.

Tuberculosis (TB).—The agreement notes the high costs associated with treating TB, especially multi-drug resistant TB. CDC and the Federal Tuberculosis Task Force are urged to work with the FDA and other partners to identify long-term strategies to ensure an adequate and affordable supply of tuberculosis drugs.

Youth-based Programs.—Youth under the age of 24 have one of the highest rates of HIV diagnosis. CDC is encouraged to improve outreach and education to this population via youth-based programs.

EMERGING AND ZOONOTIC INFECTIOUS DISEASES

The agreement includes $404,990,000 for Emerging and Zoonotic Infectious Diseases, which includes $352,990,000 in discretionary appropriations and $52,000,000 that is made available from amounts in the PPH Fund.

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Emerging and Zoonotic core activities .....	$29,840,000
Vector-borne Diseases .....	26,410,000
Lyme Disease .....	10,663,000
Prion Disease .....	5,850,000
Chronic Fatigue Syndrome .....	5,400,000
Emerging Infectious Diseases .....	147,230,000
Food Safety .....	47,993,000
National Healthcare Safety Network .....	18,032,000
Quarantine .....	31,572,000
Advanced Molecular Detection .....	30,000,000
Epidemiology and Lab Capacity program .....	40,000,000
Healthcare-Associated Infections .....	12,000,000

CDC Lab Capacity.—The agreement includes an increase of $7,250,000 to increase CDC's internal lab capacity. CDC shall use the additional funding provided to establish cutting-edge lab diagnostics to improve rapid identification and detection of emerging pathogens; establish an innovative e-pathology system to speed communication and establish virtual specimen sharing in real time; and increase research capacity and safety in high-containment labs.

Food Safety.—The agreement includes an increase of $8,000,000 to apply advanced DNA technology to improve and modernize our diagnostic capabilities; and enhance surveillance, detection, and prevention efforts at the State and local level.

Lyme Disease.—The agreement encourages CDC to consider expanding activities related to developing sensitive and more accurate diagnostic tools and tests for Lyme disease, including evaluating emerging diagnostic methods and improving the utilization of adequate diagnostic testing; expanding its epidemiological research to determine the frequency and nature of the long-term complications of Lyme disease; improving surveillance and reporting of Lyme disease to produce more accurate data on its incidence; evaluate developing a national reporting system; and expanding prevention activity such as community-based public education and healthcare provider programs based on the latest scientific research on the disease.

Responding to Emerging Threats.—The agreement continues to support the Epidemiology and Laboratory Capacity and Advanced Molecular Detection programs to strengthen epidemiologic and laboratory capacity by providing critical resources to address 21st century public health challenges.

Surveillance.—The agreement commends CDC for its surveillance strategy, and expects CDC to continue to take steps to modernize and improve this strategy across all CDC-wide public health programs. CDC is urged to expeditiously improve standardization and commonality of platforms across all CDC systems, which would reduce duplication, tackle workforce and informatics challenges at CDC, and State and local public health agencies, and reduce the burden of participation in surveillance. The agreement requests an update on the plans and progress in the fiscal year 2016 congressional budget request.

CHRONIC DISEASE PREVENTION AND HEALTH PROMOTION

The agreement includes $1,199,220,000 for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, which includes $747,220,000 in discretionary appropriations, and $452,000,000 that is made available from amounts in the PPH Fund.

Within this total, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Tobacco .....	$216,492,000
Nutrition, Physical Activity, and Obesity .....	47,585,000
High Obesity Rate Counties .....	7,500,000
School Health .....	15,383,000
Health Promotion .....	19,970,000
Community Health Promotion .....	6,348,000
Glaucoma .....	3,294,000
Visual Screening Education .....	512,000
Alzheimer's Disease .....	3,344,000
Inflammatory Bowel Disease .....	716,000
Interstitial Cystitis .....	659,000
Excessive Alcohol Use .....	3,000,000
Chronic Kidney Disease .....	2,097,000
Prevention Research Centers .....	25,461,000
Heart Disease and Stroke .....	130,037,000
Diabetes .....	140,129,000
National Diabetes Prevention Program .....	10,000,000
Cancer Prevention and Control .....	352,649,000
Breast and Cervical Cancer .....	206,993,000
WISWOMAN .....	21,114,000
Breast Cancer Awareness for Young Women .....	4,951,000
Cancer Registries .....	49,440,000
Colorectal Cancer .....	43,294,000
Comprehensive Cancer .....	19,673,000
Johanna's Law .....	5,500,000
Ovarian Cancer .....	7,000,000

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Prostate Cancer .....	13,205,000
Skin Cancer .....	2,121,000
Cancer Survivorship Resource Center .....	472,000
Oral Health .....	15,749,000
Safe Motherhood/Infant Health .....	45,473,000
Arthritis .....	9,598,000
Epilepsy .....	7,994,000
National Lupus Patient Registry .....	5,750,000
REACH .....	50,950,000
Community Prevention Grants .....	80,000,000
Million Hearts .....	4,000,000
Workplace Wellness .....	10,000,000
National Early Child Care Collaboratives .....	4,000,000
Hospitals Promoting Breastfeeding .....	8,000,000

Alzheimer's and Healthy Aging.—The agreement notes the importance of developing and maintaining a population-based surveillance system with longitudinal follow-up. The agreement also urges that significant effort be made to ensure comprehensive implementation of the action steps listed in the updated Road Map. The agreement supports this important initiative to further develop and expand the surveillance system on cognitive decline and caregiving, including widespread dissemination of the data gathered, and to implement the updated Road Map.

Burden of Disease.—The agreement directs the CDC Director to implement a population-adjusted burden of disease criteria as a significant factor for new competitive awards within the Chronic Disease portfolio for Heart Disease, Stroke, and Diabetes.

Chronic Disease.—The agreement directs that the CDC Director shall not consolidate programs under Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion in any manner, including through use of contracting, grant, cooperative agreement, or other such mechanism, which does not allow for an auditable accounting process to certify that all the funding provided supported the programs and activities at the levels identified in this statement.

Division of Oral Health (DOH).—The agreement provides the DOH support for enhancements to the State oral health infrastructure grants, national surveillance activities and community prevention programs. The agreement urges DOH to support clinical and public health interventions that target pregnant women and young children at highest risk for dental caries. CDC is encouraged to work across HHS to improve the coordination of oral health surveillance in a manner that reliably measures and reports health outcomes.

Diabetes, Heart Disease, and Stroke.—The agreement expects a significant portion of resources will support local communities with the highest burden of these diseases. Further, CDC shall conduct an evaluation of supported activities to ensure they are effective and achieve the anticipated results. The agreement requests a report within 180 days of enactment on how much of the funding directly supported local communities with the highest disease burden and an analysis on how CDC evaluates its program effectiveness.

Epilepsy.—The agreement applauds the CDC epilepsy program for the progress it has made in advancing a public health agenda to improve the lives of people living with epilepsy. CDC is encouraged to support internal and external collaborations that advance the recommendations of the 2012 Institute of Medicine Report "Epilepsy Across the Spectrum: Promoting Health and Understanding".

Excessive Alcohol Use.—The agreement includes an increase above the fiscal year 2014 level for CDC to increase its support of alcohol epidemiologists in State and local health departments, and to widely disseminate existing research on effective strategies for reducing underage drinking, including translational research, and to make that research easily accessible to the public.

Interstitial Cystitis.—The agreement commends CDC for developing partnerships to enhance awareness of Interstitial Cystitis (IC). It also recognizes the progress made to assure proper diagnosis and treatment of IC through the development of continuing medical education and patient self-management modules available online.

Mississippi Delta Health Collaborative (MDHC).—The Mississippi Delta Region experiences some of the Nation's highest rates of chronic diseases, such as diabetes, hypertension, obesity, heart disease, and stroke. The agreement recognizes CDC's expertise in supporting evidence-based programs to prevent the leading causes of death and disability and commends their partnership with the MDHC. The CDC is urged to continue to support MDHC's work to strengthen linkages between the community and clinical services in the region and to continue CDC's support for implementation of strategies that increase prevention efforts and improve access to physical activity and healthy nutrition.

Moderate Drinking.—The agreement notes that numerous epidemiological and basic science studies have demonstrated that moderate drinking can be beneficial to health by reducing risk for coronary artery disease, type 2 diabetes, and rheumatoid arthritis, among others. However, these studies used different protocols or questionnaires, and may be difficult to compare. The agreement urges the Center to work with National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism on this issue.

National Diabetes Prevention Program (NDPP).—The agreement provides support for the NDPP that encourages collaboration among federal agencies, community-based organizations, employers, insurers, health care professionals, academia, and other stakeholders to prevent or delay the onset of type 2 diabetes among people in the United States. The agreement expects CDC to have measurable long-term public health measures for this program that are reported annually in the congressional budget request. Further, the agreement requests CDC provide an update in the fiscal year 2016 budget request on how this program coordinates with other CDC and HHS programs.

Obesity.—The agreement expands support for the rural extension and outreach services pilot to support additional grants for rural counties with an obesity prevalence of over 40 percent. The agreement expects CDC to work with State and local public health departments to support measurable outcomes through evidenced based obesity research, intervention and prevention programs. CDC should focus its efforts in areas of the country with the highest burden of obesity and with the co-morbidities of hypertension, cardiac disease and diabetes from county level data in the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System. The agreement encourages CDC childhood obesity efforts to only support activities that are supported by scientific evidence.

Special Interest Projects.—The agreement directs CDC to ensure that any funds used to support Special Interest Projects will be competitively awarded through an open process that is available to all qualified entities, including non-profit organizations, small businesses, and for-profit organizations.

Vitiligo.—The agreement directs the CDC to report on the epidemiology of vitiligo, including incidence, causal factors, any associations with minority populations, and hereditary occurrence. The agreement requests a report within 180 days on the medical research that has been done to date, suggestions on treatment for consequent conditions, and prospects for a cure.

BIRTH DEFECTS AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

The agreement includes $131,781,000 for Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities.

Within the total for Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Child Health and Development .....	$64,232,000
Birth Defects .....	18,074,000
Fetal Death .....	891,000
Fetal Alcohol Syndrome .....	10,505,000
Folic Acid .....	3,121,000
Infant Health .....	8,639,000
Autism .....	23,002,000
Health and Development for People with Disabilities .....	52,440,000
Disability & Health .....	20,042,000
Tourette Syndrome .....	2,000,000
Early Hearing Detection and Intervention .....	10,752,000
Muscular Dystrophy .....	6,000,000
Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder .....	1,850,000
Fragile X .....	1,800,000
Spina Bifida .....	5,996,000
Congenital Heart Failure .....	4,000,000
Public Health Approach to Blood Disorders .....	4,500,000
Hemophilia CDC Activities .....	3,504,000
Hemophilia Treatment Centers .....	5,000,000
Thalassemia .....	2,105,000

Birth Defects Prevention.—The Center for Birth Defects Research and Prevention is commended for its work toward greater understanding of the causes of birth defects and for expanding the National Birth Defects Prevention Network to include the work of the BD-STEPS program. CDC is encouraged to allocate additional resources to expand the BD-STEPS program, with the goal of incorporating States that do not currently have a birth defects surveillance system. Priority should be given to programs in these States that have previously submitted meritorious applications but did not receive grant funding due to budget constraints.

Congenital Heart Defects (CHDs).—The agreement provides $4,000,000 to expand CDC's surveillance of CHD among adolescents and adults in order to better understand issues relating to CHDs incidence, prevalence, disparities and barriers to optimal care for those with CHDs.

Hemophilia.—The agreement includes sufficient funding to maintain the Center's hemophilia programs, particularly the surveillance and research activities of the national network of hemophilia treatment centers and CDC's national outreach and education programs on hemophilia.

Limb Loss Resource Center.—The agreement transfers funding for the Limb Loss Resource Center to the Administration for Community Living (ACL). CDC is expected to work with ACL to ensure a smooth transition for grantees and those served by this program.

Thalassemia.—The agreement continues to support blood safety surveillance at major thalassemia research and treatment centers, as well as support patients outside of major research and treatment centers by working with the thalassemia patient advocacy community.

PUBLIC HEALTH SCIENTIFIC SERVICES

The agreement includes a total of $481,061,000 for Public Health Scientific Services in discretionary appropriations.

Within the total for Public Health Scientific Services, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Health Statistics .....	$155,397,000
Surveillance, Epidemiology, and Informatics .....	273,464,000
Public Health Workforce .....	52,200,000

Alzheimer's Disease & Dementia.—CDC is directed to recommend ways to obtain more accurate and complete measurements of the death rate due to Alzheimer's disease and dementia and to develop a consensus on the mortality burden of the disease.

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

The agreement includes $179,404,000 for Environmental Health programs, which includes $166,404,000 in discretionary appropriations, and $13,000,000 that is made available from amounts in the PPH Fund.

Within this total, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Environmental Health Laboratory .....	$55,870,000
Newborn Screening Quality Assurance Program .....	8,243,000
Newborn Screening/Severe Combined Immuno-deficiency Diseases .....	1,175,000
Environmental Health Activities .....	45,580,000
Environmental Health Activities .....	17,703,000
Safe Water .....	8,601,000
Amotrophic Lateral Sclerosis Registry .....	7,820,000
Built Environment & Health Initiative .....	2,843,000
Climate Change .....	8,613,000
Environmental and Health Outcome Tracking Network .....	34,904,000
Asthma .....	27,528,000
Childhood Lead Poisoning .....	15,522,000

Amotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) Registry.—The agreement supports CDC's national ALS registry, which may help to identify the incidence and prevalence of the disease in the United States and advance research into the causes and treatments of ALS. CDC is encouraged to promote enrollment in the registry and facilitate the use of registry information for ALS research. CDC is also encouraged to continue to consult with other Federal agencies, including the NIH and the Department of Veterans Affairs to coordinate efforts and to avoid duplication.

Environmental Public Health Tracking Network.—The agreement includes sufficient funding for this network to continue to support the 23 States and one city that are currently funded through the program. The program has strengthened State and local agencies' ability to prevent and control diseases and health conditions that may be linked to environmental hazards.

Harmonization of Laboratory Test Results.—Laboratory professionals use a variety of test methods to obtain accurate and informative results to diagnose and treat patients, which may result in the reporting of different numeric values for the same test. CDC is urged to partner with the private sector in "harmonizing" clinical laboratory test results.

Primary Immunodeficiency.—The agreement recognizes CDC's support for physician education and public awareness for primary immunodeficiency diseases and strongly encourages the agency to maintain its efforts to elevate the understanding of this important set of disorders.

INJURY PREVENTION AND CONTROL

The agreement includes $170,447,000 for Injury Prevention and Control activities.

Within this total, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Intentional Injury .....	$92,001,000
Domestic Violence and Sexual Violence .....	32,674,000
Child Maltreatment .....	7,250,000

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Youth Violence Prevention .....	15,086,000
Domestic Violence Community Projects .....	5,414,000
Rape Prevention .....	38,827,000
National Violent Death Reporting System .....	11,302,000
Unintentional Injury .....	8,598,000
Traumatic Brain Injury .....	6,548,000
Elderly Falls .....	2,050,000
Injury Prevention Activities .....	28,950,000
Prescription Drug Overdose .....	20,000,000

Prescription Drug Overdose Prevention.—The agreement applauds CDC's public health approach to combating this problem. However, it does not concur with the administration's proposal to fund this initiative through the Core Violence and Injury Prevention Program because it does not sufficiently target funds where they are most needed. Instead, the agreement directs CDC to fund this initiative through cooperative agreements that target States that contribute significantly to the national burden of prescription drug overdose morbidity and mortality. The agreement directs CDC to incorporate State burden of prescription drug overdose, including CDC's mortality data (age adjusted rate), in the competitive process to test and implement best practices for identification, treatment, and control of prescription drug abuse. Further, the States are expected to work with local businesses, medical providers, medical organizations, law enforcement, and support not-for-profit organizations to prevent prescription drug overdose. Further, the agreement directs that funding to States should address data issues, improve data standards and the ability to share data across State lines and nationally to improve prescription drug overdose prevention activities. The agreement expects the activities will include working with States to establish or expand prescription drug monitoring databases of physicians writing prescriptions for opiates and pharmacists filling prescriptions. Finally, the agreement requests CDC to develop performance measures with annual targets for this program.

NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

The agreement includes a total of $334,863,000 for the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) in discretionary appropriations.

Within the total for NIOSH, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
National Occupational Research Agenda .....	$114,500,000
Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing .....	24,000,000
Education and Research Centers .....	27,445,000
Personal Protective Technology .....	19,695,000
Healthier Workforce Centers .....	4,976,000
Mining Research .....	59,420,000
Other Occupational Safety and Health Research .....	107,721,000
National Mesothelioma Registry and Tissue Bank .....	1,106,000

Combination Unit Respirator.—The agreement notes with concern the lack of progress by NIOSH in the development of a certification standard for Combination Unit Respirators. Therefore, the agreement directs NIOSH to provide an update on the progress of the research needed to validate the requirements and standards for combination unit respirators within one year from the date of enactment.

Facilities.—NIOSH is urged to maximize the use of existing federally owned research facilities and property to conduct its work, in particular its Catastrophic Failure and Prevention, Mining Injury and Disease Prevention and Mining and Surveillance and Statistical programs. Utilization of non-rental, non-leased, existing federally owned properties, such as those located near the newly revitalized Silver Valley of Idaho, the gold mining areas of Nevada, the platinum area in Montana, mines in Wyoming, and mines of various types in Alaska, would allow NIOSH to use Federal funds efficiently.

ENERGY EMPLOYEES OCCUPATIONAL ILLNESS COMPENSATION PROGRAM

The agreement includes $55,358,000 in mandatory funding for CDC's responsibilities with respect to the Energy Employee Occupational Illness Compensation Program.

GLOBAL HEALTH

The agreement includes $416,517,000 for Global Health activities. Within this total, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Global AIDS Program .....	$128,421,000
Global Immunization Program .....	208,608,000
Polio Eradication .....	158,774,000
Measles and Other Vaccine Preventable Diseases .....	49,834,000
Global Disease Detection and Emergency Response .....	45,360,000
Parasitic Diseases/Malaria .....	24,369,000
Global Public Health Capacity .....	9,759,000

Global Public Health.—The agreement requests an operating plan, within 90 days after enactment, for all international activities funded through this CDC activity to the Appropriations Committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

PUBLIC HEALTH PREPAREDNESS AND RESPONSE

The agreement includes $1,352,551,000 for public health preparedness and response activities.

Within the total for Public Health Preparedness and Response, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Public Health Emergency Preparedness Cooperative Agreements .....	$643,609,000
Academic Centers for Public Health Preparedness .....	8,018,000
All Other State and Local Capacity .....	9,415,000
CDC Preparedness and Response .....	133,797,000
BioSense .....	23,369,000
Strategic National Stockpile .....	534,343,000

Public Health Emergency Preparedness (PHEP) Cooperative Agreement Program.—The agreement is aware that State and local health departments rely on the PHEP cooperative agreement program to support their work with Federal government officials, law enforcement, emergency management, health care, business, education, and religious groups to plan, train, and prepare for emergencies so that when disaster strikes communities are prepared. The agreement requests that the fiscal year 2016 budget request describe how PHEP funding is distributed at the local level and how CDC coordinates with States to ensure the funds are being directed toward the highest priorities. The agreement continues the traditional breakout of separate funding lines. The agreement does not expect the cooperative agreements to fund any CDC programmatic operating costs.

Strategic National Stockpile (SNS).—The agreement is concerned that CDC's response plans do not include guidance to State, county, and local public health officials regarding new acquisitions to the SNS and how those new acquisitions should be used in a response effort. Therefore, the agreement directs CDC to update all current response plans within 120 days of enactment to include countermeasures procured with Project BioShield funds since its inception in an effort to ensure that first responders and health care providers have the most up-to-date guidance to respond to potential threats, including anthrax, smallpox, and acute radiation syndrome. Further, the agreement requests CDC to develop a process to ensure that all plans are reviewed annually and that new countermeasures acquired are in the plan within 60 days of receipt into the SNS program.

BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES

The agreement includes $10,000,000 for Buildings and Facilities.

The agreement includes separate bill language for buildings and facilities given the recent implementation of the working capital fund and distribution of the funds to the appropriate centers, in lieu of having this account within the CDC-wide activity account.

Underground Mine Safety.—The agreement is disappointed that the administration has not taken steps necessary to ensure that the mine explosive research capacity that was present at the now-closed CDC Lake Lynn facility in Pennsylvania continues to exist. The agreement is concerned with the CDC's proposal to abandon plans to find an alternative site for the underground mining research facility at Lake Lynn. The Lake Lynn Laboratory and Experimental Mine is a unique and critical resource for conducting large scale explosion tests and mine fire research, which are essential components of preventing accidents and disasters in the mining industry. The agreement rejects the budget proposal to redirect existing resources intended for a new mine safety research center to other CDC facility projects and expects this funding to remain available for an alternative site for Lake Lynn. Further, CDC shall move forward with a new site selection process and report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations no later than 60 days after enactment of this act on a specific timeline for replacing this research capability.

CDC-WIDE ACTIVITIES

The agreement includes $273,570,000 for CDC-wide activities, which includes $113,570,000 in discretionary appropriations and $160,000,000 made available through the PPH Fund.

Within this total, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Preventive Health & Health Services Block Grant .....	$160,000,000
Public Health Leadership and Support .....	113,570,000

Preventive Health and Health Services Block Grant (PHHSBG).—The agreement rejects the Administration's proposed elimination of the PHHSBG. The agreement restores the PHHSBG to a level of $160,000,000. CDC is expected to provide these flexible funds to State public health agencies. CDC is urged to enhance reporting and accountability for the PHHSBG, such as providing technical assistance to States regarding using funds for core public health capacities that may not be supported through other CDC categorical funding streams, such as information exchange systems, health information technology, billing capacity, public health accreditation preparation, and implementation of evidence-based practices.

CDC Director's Discretionary Fund.—The CDC Director shall provide timely quarterly reports on all obligations made with the Director's Discretionary Fund to the Appropriations Committees of the House of Representatives and Senate.

Grant Table.—The agreement directs the CDC Director to include in the fiscal year 2016 and future budget requests a table that identifies each type of grant awarded under each CDC program. It should clearly include for each program the percentage of funds awarded by formula and non-formula for each type of and competitive grant for each of the past three years, current year, and budget year.

Public Health Leadership and Support Detail.—The agreement expects the budget request for fiscal year 2016 and future years to include specific breakouts and details by budget activity with typical object class data for each activity.

Single Web-based Data Collection Information Technology (IT) Platform.—The agreement recognizes the efforts by CDC to develop a plan for a single Web-based data collection IT platform for public health. A significant need exists for an agile, cloud-based, and flexible IT platform to reduce the reporting burden on State public health departments, and create economic efficiencies. The agreement directs CDC to continue to work with State and local health officials to develop a timeline for a cloud-based and flexible IT public health data reporting platform for CDC programs and provide it to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees no later than 180 days after enactment of this act.

Scientific Research Coordination with NIH.—The agreement directs CDC programs to coordinate with the Institutes and Centers of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and share scientific gaps to accelerate knowledge research related to disease and prevention activity supported through NIH's research portfolios. The Director shall include an update in the fiscal year 2016 budget request on this effort.

Strategic Plan.—The agreement includes language to require CDC to establish a budget based on measurable public health goals and objectives. Further, CDC is expected to develop a report examining options on how to align funding based on measurable public health and preparedness goals to address countries with the highest burden of each disease.

The agreement continues to support CDC public health and preparedness activities in the following areas and requests an update for each listed disease, condition, or topic in the fiscal year 2016 budget request to describe the latest efforts ongoing and planned for the fiscal year 2016 request:

Advocacy Restrictions.—Describe mechanisms, processes, and on-going efforts to educate its staff and recipients to prevent violations;

Autism.—How CDC works with NIH and other agencies to identify research gaps;

Chikungunya.—How the National Center for Emerging and Zoonotic Infectious Diseases works with the Center for Global Health on this cross-cutting issue;

Cerebral Palsy;

Colorectal Cancer;

Duchene Muscular Dystrophy;

Duplication.—Process to ensure no funds support activities funded via a competitive announcement from the NIH or other Federal agency, such as the Federal Trade Commission's report to Congress on alcohol industry self-regulatory initiatives;

Fragile X;

Global Health Strategy.—How CDC, FDA, and NIH jointly develop, coordinate, plan, and prioritize global health research activities;

Healthcare-Associated Infections (HAIs);

Hepatitis C.—Details on progress and activities undertaken to prevent new infections;

Inflammatory Bowel Disease;

National Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) Registry;

National Environmental Public Health Tracking Network;

Neglected Tropical Diseases;

National Lupus Patient Registry;

Ovarian Cancer;

Public Health Emergency Preparedness

Index;

Preterm Birth;

Psoriasis and Psoriatic Arthritis Data Col- lection;

Sepsis;

Tourette Syndrome;

Thalassemia;

Vaccine Safety.—Specific actions with State and local officials and the provider community to reduce waste and ensure vaccine potency;

West Virginia Tap Project; and

Spina Bifida Registry.

NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH

The National Institutes of Health (NIH) receives a total of $30,084,304,000 in this agreement. Within this total, increases are generally distributed proportionately among NIH Institutes and Centers (ICs). Additional amounts have been added to the National Institute on Aging (NIA), in recognition of the Alzheimer's disease research initiative throughout NIH, several institutes received support in connection with the Brain Research through Application of Innovative Neurotechnologies (BRAIN) initiative, National Cancer Institute for cancer research, and the Common Fund to support the Gabriella Miller Kids First Research Act (Kids First).

The agreement also includes an important reform for NIH and the stakeholder community. In response to growing concern at the loss of NIH funds to PHS Act section 241 transfers, the agreement reforms section 241 allocations such that NIH, still subject to the transfer, now will receive $715,000,000 in return which is more than the estimated $700,000,000 it will contribute. All the section 241 transfer funds are allocated to the National Institute of General Medical Sciences (NIGMS). This reform ensures the section 241 transfers are a net benefit to NIH rather than a liability.

The NIH is expected to base its funding decisions only on scientific opportunities and the peer review process. In accordance with longstanding tradition, funding is not directed to any specific disease research area.

The agreement notes concern that the number of Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Awards has declined since fiscal year 2007. The agreement expects the NIH to provide no less than last year in stipend levels and training awards.

The agreement expects NIH to promote the advancement of biomedical science in a manner that builds public trust and accountability and expects NIH to conduct rigorous oversight prior to the awarding of funds to ensure that all grants are connected to the core mission and priorities of NIH.

Recent GAO reports (GAO-14-490R and GAO-14-246) on NIH research allocations highlight that NIH's research allocation process does not significantly take into account any method related to burden of disease on the American public, such as death or prevalence rate. Therefore, the agreement urges NIH to ensure research dollars are invested in areas in which Americans lives may be improved.

The agreement continues to protect the Clinical and Translational Science Awards program, the Institutional Development Awards program, and the mission of the National Children's Study.

The Common Fund is supported as a set-aside within the Office of the Director at $545,639,000, which includes the $12,600,000 to support pediatric research as described in the recently enacted Kids First legislation.

The agreement directs the NIH Director and each IC Director to ensure a process is in place to make certain new scientific information reaches the public and health care providers through the various other HHS outreach programs. The agreement requests a report within 180 days of enactment to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate on how this process operates across each IC and the HHS agencies, with an eye toward reducing duplication, and improving dissemination of information.

Administrative Burden Workgroup.—The agreement for FY 2014 requested that the NIH Director to initiate an Administrative Burden Workgroup that included relevant stakeholders to develop a plan to reduce the administrative burden on grantees and their organizations. The NIH has not yet chartered this workgroup and is directed to do so within 60 days of enactment and conduct the first meeting within 30 days of that date. The agreement requests a copy of the plan and any applicable goals or reduction targets within 180 days of enactment to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Antibiotic Resistance.—The agreement reflects concern about growing antibiotic resistance. The agreement encourages NIAID, BARDA, CDC, and other appropriate partners, within 180 days, to conduct a workshop and develop a coordinated action plan to address research, public health and preparedness issues in this field. It is anticipated that NIAID will work with partners to develop a comprehensive plan with a timeline and measurable objectives for each partner to address the issues over the next five years. The agreement also urges NIAID to increase its efforts to accelerate the development of new antibiotics.

Alzheimer's Disease.—The agreement includes an increase of $25,000,000 for NIA. In keeping with longstanding practice, the agreement does not recommend a specific amount of NIH funding for this purpose or for any other individual disease. Doing so would establish a dangerous precedent that could politicize the NIH peer review system. Nevertheless, in recognition that Alzheimer's disease poses a serious threat to the Nation's long-term health and economic stability, the agreement expects that a significant portion of the recommended increase for NIA should be directed to research on Alzheimer's. The exact amount should be determined by scientific opportunity of additional research on this disease and the quality of grant applications that are submitted for Alzheimer's relative to those submitted for other diseases.

Autism and Telehealth.—The agreement supports NIMH's funding of meaningful research into the use of telehealth resources in the diagnosis and treatment of autism spectrum disorders. NIMH shall report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 90 days of enactment of this act detailing the current research opportunities involving telehealth and autism diagnosis and treatment.

Basic Biomedical Research.—The agreement urges the NIH Director to continue the traditional focus on basic biomedical research. The purpose of basic research is to discover the nature and mechanics of disease and identify potential therapeutic avenues likely to lead to the prevention and treatment of human disease. Without this early scientific investigation, future development of treatments and cures would be impossible. Basic biomedical research must remain a key component of both the intramural and extramural research portfolio at the NIH.

Big Data.—The agreement continues to expect NIH to protect the privacy of individuals who are the subject of research. As the Big Data to Knowledge Initiative (or any similar initiative) creates new methods of collecting data from research, attention must be paid to new ways of protecting the data of individuals involved. NIH is directed to include requirements related to privacy protections in every grant that involves human research, such as the issuance of certificates of confidentiality.

Blue Ribbon Commission on Scientific Standing.—The agreement directs the NIH Office of the Director to fund, in consultation with the National Science Foundation and Department of Education, a contract with the National Academy of Sciences to establish a Blue Ribbon Commission charged with discerning American public opinion on, understanding of, and acceptance of scientific research. The Commission shall examine the present state of scientific repute in America and present recommendations for how to improve scientific literacy, education, and enhance scientific regard amongst the American public.

Cardiovascular Disease.—The agreement reflects awareness that in March 2014, Cambridge University researchers reported that current evidence does not clearly support cardiovascular guidelines that encourage high consumption of polyunsaturated fatty acids and low consumption of total saturated fats. The agreement recognizes that these findings create conflicting information being provided to the public. The agreement requests NHLBI convene a state of the science meeting within 180 days after enactment with participants from CDC and other appropriate scientists from all sides of this debate to identify the open questions arising from this new study.

Clinical Trials.—The agreement requests GAO to conduct a review of how NIH applied the recommendations from the 2010 IOM report on NCI's clinical trials across all NIH ICs to improve NIH-wide clinical trial activity. Specifically, the review should provide recommendations related to administering, monitoring, managing, and supporting an appropriate NIH-wide portfolio of clinical trial activity. Further, the agreement expects NIH to review its policies and make changes as appropriate to ensure appropriate minority participation in clinical trials across all NIH ICs.

Commitment to New and Early Stage Investigators.—The agreement appreciates NIH's commitment to identifying and attracting new biomedical researchers and expects it will continue to explore novel ways to encourage early transition to independence. The agreement reflects significant concern that the average age at which an investigator first obtains R01 funding from NIH remains around age 42. Therefore, NIH is directed to develop a new approach with actionable steps to reduce the average age at which an investigator first obtains R01 funding. The agreement requests NIH to provide the Committees a report within 120 days of enactment on the steps it will take, measurement methods, and a senior level IC Director monitoring plan. Further, the plan should include an analysis of the role of the universities in this effort. It is also requested that future budget requests include the past ten years of actual data on the average age at which an investigator obtains R01 funding and the next three years of future estimates.

Common Fund.—NIH is expected to continue the longstanding policy for Common Fund projects to be short-term, high-impact awards, with no projects receiving funding for more than 10 years. Funding is not included for research within the Common Fund specifically related to health care financing reform and insurance incentive activities related to the Affordable Care Act. The agreement continues to encourage NIH to consider research related to new treatments, diagnostics, and the impact of widespread adoption of the results of biomedical science done with taxpayer dollars.

Dental Caries.—Although dental caries have significantly decreased for most Americans over the past four decades, disparities remain among some population groups. The agreement is concerned with these trends and encourages NIDCR to explore more opportunities related to dental caries research. In addition, NIDCR should coordinate with CDC Division of Oral Health to identify research opportunities.

Enhanced NIH Reporting on Research Spending by Disease and Affected Populations.—The NIH reports and makes available to the public on an annual basis the amount of research spending by disease. This information is helpful and provides insight to the public and the research community about overall NIH research. The agreement requests NIH include, no later than 180 days after enactment and thereafter, the number of Americans affected by each category listed in the RCDC database, according to CDC or another federally-sourced data file.

Extramural and Intramural Research.—The agreement requests an update in the fiscal year 2016 budget request on what processes NIH has in place to ensure consistency between the application of scientific policies to both extramural and intramural researchers. The update should also describe how NIH has implemented the request that all peer reviewers for extramural research are provided detailed knowledge on the scope of intramural activities that are related to the subjects under consideration within their study sections to prevent unintended support for duplicative research activity.

Health Disparities.—The principles that serve as the foundation of NCATS (public-private partnerships, community outreach, and faster access to clinical trials) have tremendous potential for addressing the longstanding diseases associated with health disparities. NIH is encouraged to support NCATS centers with a history of serving health disparity populations so that research funding provided through the various institutes can be leveraged to address the higher incidences of cancer, stroke, and heart disease disproportionately suffered by minority populations.

Improve Data Availability.—The agreement directs that within 90 days after enactment, the NIH Director should submit a report that assures the Committees on Appropriations that all journals supported with NIH resources are consistent with the February 2013 memorandum from the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy in the White House, which states that data sets used in publications supported by government grants should be made available to the public where possible. The agreement expects NIH to take immediate actionable steps to ensure all data from NIH supported journals is available and reproducible.

Institutional Development Award (IDEA).—Many institutions in Experimental Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (EPSCoR) qualifying States that could benefit from the IDEA program are ineligible for funding. The IDEA Director is directed to develop a legislative plan, including legislative language, to update eligibility criteria and specifically incorporate flexibility into the program to address EPSCoR eligibility. The NIH is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations within 60 days after enactment of this act.

Microbicides.—With NIH and USAID leadership, research has shown the potential for antiretroviral (ARV) drugs to prevent HIV infection in women. NIAID is encouraged to continue coordination with USAID, the State Department and others to advance ARV based microbicide development efforts with the goal of enabling regulatory approval of the first safe and effective microbicide for women and supporting product development and efficacy trials of alternative ARV based microbicides.

Moderate Drinking.—Numerous epidemiological and basic science studies have demonstrated that moderate drinking can be beneficial to health by reducing risk for coronary artery disease, type 2 diabetes, and rheumatoid arthritis, among others. However, these studies used different protocols or questionnaires, and may be difficult to compare. The agreement encourages NIAAA to undertake a multicenter, multiyear clinical study to clarify the health impact of moderate alcohol consumption.

NIH Workforce Study.—NIH performed a workforce study in 2008 that examined the state of the biomedical workforce in the United States and provided insight on the future workforce capacity and the need for new investigators to sustain the enterprise. The agreement requests NIH update the NIH New Investigator Projection (PI) report developed by the NIH Office of Budget, assuming level funding. It should consider the historical data, success rates of new investigators, the success rates of second R01 (first renewal) applications for early stage investigators, trends in the workforce, data and actuarially sound assumptions with updates on the number of researchers who receive NIH F or K funding who then go on to work in industry. In addition, the report should survey the historical change over time of university policies that feed into the length of time to become a PI and use that data to update the PI projection model to ensure it has the correct mix of new and experienced PIs in the workforce.

National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine.—The agreement includes a provision to change the name of this center from the “National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine” to the “National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health.” Since the inception of this center, the practices it researches have grown in use to the point that Americans no longer consider them an alternative to medical care: well over half of Americans report using a dietary supplement; CDC data shows that Americans spend $3,900,000,000 annually on spinal manipulation therapy; and a recent survey showed that three-quarters of healthcare workers prefer to utilize complementary methods when suffering from illness or injury. These methods are no longer being used instead of medical care; they are increasingly being integrated into the Nation’s healthcare system, whether by practitioners or by patients themselves. For that reason, the term “alternative medicine” is being retired in favor of supporting research on integrative health.

National Children’s Study (NCS).—The recommendations of the Institute of Medicine’s (IOM) June 2014 NCS assessment provided valuable insight. The NCS’s goals and mission has the potential to add immeasurably to the scientific knowledge on children’s health and the Committees on Appropriations have supported this project for numerous years. The IOM provided a framework of recommendations and concerns about the recent changes to the NCS. The NIH Director is expected to use this framework to ensure the mission and goals of the NCS are realized to generate the anticipated returns from the years of tax-payer support.

NIH has an on-going workgroup reviewing the NCS that will provide input to the NIH Director who will consider the NCS’s next phase over the coming weeks. In particular, the NIH decision process should ensure full consideration of IOM comments prior to any changes. The NIH Director is to provide the House and Senate Appropriations Committees, within 90 days of enactment, a detailed report and plan about the actions taken, decision making process, options under consideration, and other similar structural issues identified by the IOM.

Nurturing Talent and Innovation in Research.—The agreement understands that NIDA is considering a new kind of award, which would blend NIH’s Pioneer and new innovator award mechanisms. The agreement requests that NIH provide the data used to develop this approach, the expected outcome measures for this mechanism, and annual updates on the progress related to the measures prior to any forward movement on this approach.

Office of the Director.—The agreement encourages the NIH Director to ensure all ICs continue to support the pathways to independence program, which provides new investigators with mentored grants that convert into independent research project grants. In addition, the agreement continues to support new innovator awards, pioneer awards, and the transformative R01 program through the Common Fund. The agreement has provided bill language for specific funds authorized by the recently enacted Kids First Act within the Common Fund to support the first year of the 10-year Pediatric Research Initiative.

Pediatric Cancer.—The agreement understands NCI reduced support for some pediatric cancer clinical trials. The agreement requests an update in the fiscal year 2016 budget request with a summary of all pediatric cancer activity supported in fiscal years 2013, 2014, and 2015 estimate. Further, the agreement expects NIH to review how it can use the Cures Acceleration Network (CAN) activity and funds to develop regulatory and other tools that can be used to accelerate the development of pediatric drugs.

Pilot on Third Party Collections.—The agreement understands from NIH that it determined, after much effort that it could not effectively implement the 3rd party collections pilot. Thus, the agreement deletes the 3rd party collections language that appeared in prior appropriations bills.

Prioritization of Funding.—NIH is expected to prioritize Federal funds for medical research over outreach and education. The agreement expects NIH to distribute grant funding in the spirit of its long-standing reputation as a meritocracy, basing eligibility requirements on the merit of the researchers’ ideas and productivity, with no discriminatory review requirements, and supporting both research institutes and team-based research.

Quarterly Updates of NIH Operating Plans.—The agreement acknowledges the IC mechanism tables serve as the NIH operating plans for available resources and directs NIH to provide quarterly updates of these plans to the Appropriations Committees of the House and Senate.

Rehabilitation Research.—The agreement expects the NIH Rehabilitation Coordinating Committee (NIH RCC) to host a trans-NIH State of the Science Conference on Medical Rehabilitation Research, develop and regularly update a trans-NIH plan for medical rehabilitation science, and better coordinate the grants to adhere to the definition of rehabilitation research recommended by the Blue Ribbon Panel on Medical Rehabilitation Research. NIH is urged to establish certain benchmarks to assess whether the coordination proposals being implemented are having a positive impact on rehabilitation science at NIH. Finally, the agreement requests the NICHD and the NIH Director receive an annual briefing to discuss progress in rehabilitation research and the level of trans-NIH activity in this area of research.

Reproducibility of Research Results.—The agreement expects NIH to stress the importance of experimental rigor and transparency of reporting of research findings in order to enhance the ability of others to replicate them. The agreement concurs in the view that the gold standard of good science is the ability of a lab to reproduce a method and finding and is therefore concerned with reports that so much published biomedical research cannot be easily reproduced. The agreement expects that NIH will develop incentives for scientists to undertake confirmation studies, best practice guidelines that would facilitate the conduct of replicable research and guidelines to encourage research transparency in the reporting of methods and findings. In addition, the agreement expects an NIH-wide policy and trans-NIH oversight to address the replication concerns. The agreement requests an update in the fiscal year 2016 budget request on the activities NIH has on-going toward this effort, the annual measure and amount of resources spent or estimated each year toward this effort.

Science, Technology, Education and Mathematics (STEM).—The President’s fiscal year 2015 budget recommends eliminating several STEM programs at the NIH as part of a government-wide consolidation of STEM education activities. The proposed STEM consolidation would affect NIAID Science Education Awards, NIDA Science Education Drug Abuse Partnership Award, NIEHS Short Term Education Experience for Research, and NINDS Diversity Research Education Grants in Neuroscience. NIH is directed to continue funding these programs in fiscal year 2015 and sufficient funding is provided to do so.

Study Sections Pediatric Expertise.—The agreement recognizes the importance of having experts in pediatric cancer serve on study sections that review pediatric cancer applications to provide a better understanding of the value and implication of pediatric cancer research proposals. The agreement expects NIH to ensure that when study sections are reviewing pediatric research applications they have permanent or ad hoc members who are experts in the field as part of the review.

Transforming Basic Science to Preventive Medicine through Technology.—The agreement requests NIH to develop an NIH-wide approach (including all ICs) to rapidly improve the speed and validity of personalized preventative medicine through the convergence of technology and biomedical science. The agreement requests NIH hold a joint forum with these types of industries, academic engineers, and appropriate biomedical research organizations to develop a range of potential scientific questions, capabilities, gaps, and related biomedical scientific constraints.

Undiagnosed Disease Program.—The agreement encourages NIH to create a public/private partnership for the Undiagnosed Disease Network (UDN) similar to other partnerships NIH has fostered with other entities. The partnership should include how the UDN can support physicians who are handling cases of undiagnosed diseases with new knowledge, consistent with applicable privacy laws, including HIPAA privacy and security law, through an ability to search for similar cases and to network and collaborate with physicians handling similar cases in order to accelerate the diagnosis, treatment options, and improve patient outcomes across the country. The agreement expects NIH to fully leverage the public/private partnership with other federal research agencies to facilitate even earlier recognition and improved treatment options of undiagnosed symptoms and diseases across the country.

Women's Health Research.—The agreement notes the recent 25th anniversary of the NIH's Office of Research on Women's Health. This office was authorized by Congress to correct the gender imbalance of research and highlight the importance of women's health issues to the larger scientific community. The agreement congratulates the office on its longevity and success. In that vein, the agreement supports NIH's recent shift toward achieving balance between females and males in pre-clinical research and encourages the NIH to ensure this applies to experimental models used for basic science research and that both males and females are utilized to investigate diseases that affect men and women. It is recommended that the NIH expand its current policies to require NIH funded investigators to prominently indicate the sex of their experimental model in their grant application and progress reports. Further, those investigators studying both sexes, should be required to report, and when appropriate, analyze their data by sex as part of grant progress reporting to the Agency. The same should be encouraged in all published results resulting from NIH funding. When it is unknown what proportions of women and men are affected by a specific disease, NIH is encouraged to require investigators to utilize valid experimental design including consideration of sex as a biological variable in relevant research on animals, cells, and human subjects, as scientifically appropriate.

The agreement recognizes NIH's efforts to include female participants in all phases of pre-clinical and clinical trials, as scientifically appropriate. The agreement also supports requiring investigators to analyze study results by sex/gender and minority subpopulations as appropriate, based on the scope of the research. Proposals that include adequate numbers of women and men and include a robust plan for analysis, publication, and distribution of findings should be given priority in funding decisions, when appropriate.

NIH is directed to include in their biannual report the proportion of women and minorities as subjects in clinical research participant enrollment by trial phase and in all studies of human subjects. The NIH is also directed to report on preclinical research in terms of the proportion of studies that incorporate sex as a biological variable and of those studies which analyze data by sex as part of grant review, award, and oversight processes and this data should be reported by Institute and Center across the Agency.

The National Library of Medicine is urged to implement changes to Clinicaltrials.gov that will require users to input the number of participants that drop out of trials and break those participants out by sex/gender and race.

Valley Fever.—The agreement acknowledges the joint NIH and CDC efforts to combat coccidioidomycosis, also known as Valley Fever. Specifically, the agreement supports ongoing efforts by NIH and CDC to develop a Randomized Controlled Trial (RCT) to identify an effective treatment for coccidioidomycosis, develop a vaccine, and increase awareness of this disease among medical professionals and the public, which can help with early diagnosis and treatments to reduce the length and severity of this disease. The agreement encourages NIH and CDC to work with relevant experts in coccidioidomycosis endemic areas to consider RCT activity.

Young Investigators.—The agreement requests NIH review the grant success rates for early stage investigators in their first two grant submissions to consider whether the grant applications submitted by all early stage investigators, regardless of whether they successfully achieved their first submission, should compete against other early stage investigators instead of all submissions as a whole.

In particular, the agreement continues to support NIH biomedical research activities in the following areas and requests an update for each listed disease, condition, or topic in the fiscal year 2016 budget request to describe the latest efforts ongoing and planned for the fiscal year 2016 request:

Amyloidosis; Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis; Angelman syndrome; ARV based microbicides; Autism; autoimmune diseases; behavioral research and cancer; biomarkers; botanical products to treat cancer; Brain Research through Advancing Innovative Neurotechnologies initiative; breast cancer screenings; chemical risk assessments; chromosome abnormalities; chronic constipation; chronic overlapping pain conditions; chronic pelvic pain; chronic obstructive pulmonary disease; congenital heart disease; contraception research and development; cures related to blindness-inducing illnesses; Cystic Fibrosis; diabetes; diabetes-related kidney disease; DPCPSI portfolio analysis NIH-wide policies; drug rescue and repurposing; Duchenne muscular dystrophy; The Entrepreneurs-in-Residence initiative; fiscal management; focal gastric cancer; Fragile X research; gastrointestinal cancer; global health technologies; health disparities in children and adolescents; Healthy Homes; Hepatitis B; heterotaxy research; high risk and high reward research; human placenta project; implementation of CTSA IOM recommendations; implementation of the Recalcitrant Cancer Research Act; inflammatory bowel disease; information technology related to behavioral risk factors for cancer; infusion pumps; interstitial cystitis; Jackson Heart Study; Kennedy's disease; liver cancer; lower life expectancy; Lupus;

Lymphangioleiomyomatosis; Malaria and neglected tropical diseases; marijuana research; maternal morbidity; medications in pregnancy; metastasis genetics; minority participation in clinical trials; mitochondrial disease; multiple sclerosis;

National Pediatric Research Network Act; Nephrotic syndrome; Neurofibromatosis; Network for Excellence in Neuroscience Clinical Trials; non-small lung cancer; opioid drug abuse; ovarian cancer; palliative care; pancreatic cancer; pediatric low grade astrocytoma research; pediatric kidney disease; performance measures for each NCATS program, project, or activity; precision medicine; preterm birth; psychosocial distress complications; psychotropic medications and children; rare bone diseases; research centers in minority institutions; research focused on drug abuse in veterans; segmental glomerulosclerosis; scleroderma; Sickle Cell disease; sleep disorders; Spina Bifida; spinal muscular atrophy; stroke; telemedicine; temporomandibular disorders; training and career development for clinical investigators ("K" and "T" Awards); translational research results and expenditures since FY 2013; trans-NIH basic behavioral and social science opportunity network; type 1 diabetes; universal flu vaccine; Usher Syndrome; vision research relating to "Regenerating Neurons and Neural Connections in the Eye and Visual System"; and Wilms tumor.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

The agreement continues bill language directing the Administrator of the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) to exempt the Mental Health Block Grant and the Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment Block Grant from being used as a source for the PHS evaluation set-aside in fiscal year 2015, as was done prior to fiscal year 2012.

MENTAL HEALTH

Within the total provided for Mental Health Programs of Regional and National Significance, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Capacity:
Seclusion & Restraint .....	$1,147,000
Youth Violence Prevention .....	23,099,000
Project Aware State Grants .....	39,902,000
Mental Health First Aid .....	14,963,000
Healthy Transitions .....	19,951,000
National Traumatic Stress Network .....	45,887,000
Children and Family Programs .....	6,458,000
Consumer and Family Network Grants .....	4,954,000
MH System Transformation and Health Reform .....	3,779,000
Project LAUNCH .....	34,555,000
Primary and Behavioral Health Care Integration .....	49,877,000
National Strategy for Suicide Prevention .....	2,000,000
Suicide Lifeline .....	7,198,000
GLS—Youth Suicide Prevention—States .....	35,427,000
GLS—Youth Suicide Prevention—Campus .....	6,488,000
AI/AN Suicide Prevention Initiative .....	2,931,000
Homelessness Prevention Programs .....	30,696,000
Minority AIDS .....	9,224,000
Criminal and Juvenile Justice Programs .....	4,269,000
Tribal Behavioral Health Grants .....	4,988,000
Science and Service:
GLS—Suicide Prevention Resource Center .....	5,988,000
Consumer & Consumer Support T.A. Centers .....	1,918,000
Primary/Behavioral Health Integration T.A. .....	1,991,000
Minority Fellowship Program .....	8,059,000
Disaster Response .....	1,953,000
Homelessness .....	2,296,000
HIV/AIDS Education .....	771,000

Access to Mental Health Services for Veterans.—Many localities have successfully used customized web portals to assist veterans struggling with mental health and substance abuse issues. SAMHSA is encouraged to promote locally-customized web portals in order to expand their use nationwide.

Primary and Behavioral Healthcare Integration.—The agreement directs SAMHSA to ensure that new Integration grants awarded for fiscal year 2015 are funded under the authorities in section 520K of the PHS Act.

Community Mental Health Services Block Grant.—The agreement continues bill language from last year requiring that at least 5 percent of the funds for the Mental Health Block Grant program be set-aside for evidence-based programs that address the needs of individuals with early serious mental illness, including psychotic disorders. SAMHSA is expected to continue its collaboration with NIMH to ensure that funds from this set-aside are used only for programs showing strong evidence of effectiveness.

Children's Mental Health Services.—The agreement includes bill language requested by the administration allowing SAMHSA to provide technical assistance to communities wanting to establish comprehensive children's mental health services even if they are not current grantees. The authorization currently limits the provision of technical assistance by SAMHSA only to current grantees.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE TREATMENT

Within the total provided for Substance Abuse Treatment Programs of Regional and National Significance, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY15 Agreement
Capacity:
Opioid Treatment Programs/Regulatory Activities ..	$8,724,000
Screening, Brief Intervention, Referral, and Treatment ..	44,889,000
PHS Evaluation Funds ..	2,000,000
TCE.—General ..	23,223,000
Pregnant & Postpartum Women ..	15,931,000
Strengthening Treatment Access and Retention ..	1,000,000
Recovery Community Services Program ..	2,434,000
Access to Recovery ..	38,223,000
Children and Families ..	29,605,000
Treatment Systems for Homeless ..	41,386,000
Minority AIDS ..	65,570,000
Criminal Justice Activities ..	78,000,000
Science and Service:
Addiction Technology Transfer Centers ..	9,046,000
Minority Fellowship Program ..	2,539,000
Special Initiatives/Outreach ..	1,432,000

Addiction Technology Transfer Centers (ATTC).—The agreement rejects the administration request to reduce funding for the ATTCs. SAMHSA is directed to ensure that ATTCs maintain a primary focus on addiction treatment and recovery services.

Criminal Justice Activities.—The agreement provides $78,000,000 for Criminal Justice Activities and directs that no less than $50,000,000 will be used exclusively for Drug Court activities. SAMHSA is directed to ensure that all Drug Treatment Court funding is allocated to serve people diagnosed with a substance use disorder as their primary condition. SAMHSA is further directed to ensure that all drug treatment court grant recipients work directly with the corresponding State substance abuse agency in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of the grant. SAMHSA is further directed to expand training and technical assistance to drug treatment court grant recipients to ensure evidence-based practices are fully implemented.

SAMHSA is directed to make Criminal Justice funding available for competitive grants to community-based providers through the Offender Reentry Program to implement overdose prevention programs for incarcerated and recently released individuals. The Administrator is directed to ensure an equitable amount of grant opportunities are available to grantees that serve those currently in custody, prior to release from incarceration, and continue for at least two months post-release into community-based services as part of a transition plan. Overdose prevention programs should include an educational component that includes SAMHSA's Opioid Overdose Prevention Toolkit. Additionally, grant award decisions should give particular weight to overdose prevention programs that collaborate with community corrections and law enforcement entities as well as judges.

Adult Behavioral Health Court Collaborative.—SAMHSA is directed to provide a briefing within 30 days of enactment to explain the basis for awarding Behavioral Health Court Collaborative grants. There are concerns that such awards may not be based primarily on factors that demonstrate the effectiveness of these grants.

Opioid Treatment Education and Training Programs.—The agreement reflects concern that the United States has seen a 500 percent increase in admissions to treatment for prescription drug abuse since 2000. Further, according to a recent study, 37 States saw an increase in admissions to treatment for heroin dependence during the past 2 years. To address the ongoing opioid crisis, SAMHSA is directed to update all of its professional education and training programs for opioid treatment programs (OTPs), office-based opioid treatment programs (OBOTs) and other addiction treatment settings, such that evidence-based innovations in counseling, recovery support, and abstinence-based relapse prevention medication assisted treatments, are fully incorporated.

Prescription Drug and Heroin Treatment.—Of the amount provided for Targeted Capacity Expansion, the agreement includes $12,000,000 for discretionary grants to States for the purpose of expanding treatment services to those with heroin or opioid dependence. The agreement directs CSAT to ensure that these grants include as an allowable use the support of medication assisted treatment and other clinically appropriate services. These grants should be made available to States with the highest rates of primary treatment admissions for heroin and opiates per capita, and should target those States that have demonstrated a dramatic increase in admissions for the treatment of opiates and heroin in recent years.

Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT).—SAMHSA is directed to ensure that funds provided for SBIRT are used for existing evidence-based models of providing early intervention and treatment services to those at risk of developing substance abuse disorders.

Overdose Fatality Prevention.—The agreement reflects strong concerns about the increasing number of unintentional overdose deaths attributable to prescription and non-prescription opioids. SAMHSA is urged to take steps to encourage and support the use of Substance Abuse and Prevention Block Grant funds for opioid safety education and training, including initiatives that improve access for licensed healthcare professionals, to include paramedics, to emergency devices used to rapidly reverse the effects of opioid overdoses. Such initiatives should incorporate robust evidence-based intervention training, and facilitate linkage to treatment and recovery services.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE PREVENTION

Within the total provided for Substance Abuse Prevention Programs of Regional and National Significance, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY15 Agreement
Capacity:
Strategic Prevention Framework/Partnerships for Success ..	$109,484,000
Mandatory Drug Testing ..	4,894,000
Minority AIDS ..	41,205,000
Sober Truth on Preventing Underage Drinking (STOP Act) ..	7,000,000
National Adult-Oriented Media Public Service Campaign ..	1,000,000

Budget Activity	FY15 Agreement
Community-based Coalition Enhancement Grants ..	5,000,000
Intergovernmental Coordinating Committee on the Prevention of Underage Drinking ..	1,000,000
Science and Service:
Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder ..	1,000,000
Center for the Application of Prevention Technologies ..	7,493,000
Science and Service Program Coordination ..	4,072,000
Minority Fellowship Program ..	71,000

The agreement directs that all of the funding appropriated explicitly for substance abuse prevention purposes both in CSAP's PRNS lines as well as the funding from the 20 percent prevention set-aside in the SAPT Block Grant be used only for bona fide substance abuse prevention programs and not for any other purpose.

Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grant (SPFSIG) and Partnerships for Success.—The agreement provides $109,484,000 for the Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grant and Partnerships for Success program. These two programs shall continue to focus exclusively on: addressing State- and community-level indicators of alcohol, tobacco, and drug use; targeting and implementing appropriate universal prevention strategies; building infrastructure and capacity; and preventing substance use and abuse.

The agreement does not approve of SAMHSA's proposal to use $1,500,000 from the SPFSIG to expand the focus of community coalitions to include mental health promotion and mental illness prevention. SAMHSA is directed not to use any SPFSIG funds for this initiative.

STOP Act.—SAMHSA is commended for delivering annual reports to Congress that include best practices standards and provide guidance to States regarding underage drinking prevention policies. In recognition of the increasingly strong evidence of a relationship between youth exposure to alcohol marketing and underage drinking, SAMHSA is urged to add to its data collection activities monitoring and reporting of State laws and regulations that address alcohol marketing targeting young people, including but not limited to: sponsorships of family events, marketing on college campuses, and signage in locales where children are likely to be present. SAMHSA is also encouraged to initiate a dissemination program to alert community coalitions, policy makers, researchers, and other interested parties to the findings and resources found in the reports to Congress, working collaboratively with STOP Act Drug Free Community coalition grantees. All funds appropriated for STOP Act community based coalition enhancement grants shall be used for making grants to eligible communities and not for any other purposes or activities.

HEALTH SURVEILLANCE AND PROGRAM SUPPORT

Within the total provided for health surveillance and program support, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY15 Agreement
Health Surveillance ..	$16,830,000
PHS Evaluation Fund ..	30,428,000
Program Management ..	72,002,000
Behavioral Health Workforce ..	35,000,000
Public Awareness and Support ..	13,482,000
Performance and Quality Info. Systems ..	12,918,000
Behavioral Health Workforce Data ..	0
PHS Evaluation Fund ..	1,000,000

The agreement includes bill language requested by the administration to allow funds tapped for emergency response grants, as authorized by section 501(m) of the PHS Act, to be available for an additional year. SAMHSA shall provide a report within 90 days of enactment on its use of this authority for the past 5 years, which should include the amount of funds tapped from programs and the amount lapsing at the end of the year.

The agreement notes that SAMHSA is taking steps to change the platforms used to collect data describing outcomes associated with substance abuse grants and mental health grants. Any data collection effort must reflect the fact that mental illness and addiction are two separate and unique diseases requiring different data elements to accurately assess program performance. SAMHSA is directed to submit a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations by March 31, 2015, describing any changes made to date; any plans for additional changes to data platforms; the reasons behind the changes; and the process by which input has been, or is being, sought regarding any proposed changes.

The agreement includes $1,000,000 for the Behavioral Health Minimum Data Set, which will develop consistent data collection methods to identify and track behavioral health workforce needs.

AGENCY FOR HEALTHCARE RESEARCH AND QUALITY

HEALTHCARE RESEARCH AND QUALITY

The agreement provides $363,698,000 for the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ).

Within the total for Health Costs, Quality, and Outcomes, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Patient-Centered Health Research .....	$0
Prevention/Care Management .....	11,590,000
Value .....	0
Health Information Technology (IT) .....	28,170,000
Patient Safety Research .....	76,584,000
Healthcare Delivery Systems .....	10,000,000
Crosscutting Activities Related to Quality, Effectiveness and Efficiency Research .....	112,207,000
Investigator-Initiated Research Grants .....	45,882,000
MEPS .....	65,447,000
Program Management .....	69,700,000

The agreement expects AHRQ to focus its research on its traditional mission, such as improving patient safety and preventing healthcare associated infections.

Health IT.—The agreement continues to fund research on safe health IT practices specifically related to the design, implementation, usability, and safe use of health IT systems.

Healthcare Delivery Systems.—The agreement includes a $5,000,000 increase for Healthcare Delivery Systems grants, or “patient safety learning labs.” This funding supports a systems model approach to patient safety issues in order to identify interrelated threats, generate new ways of thinking about these threats, and establish new environments conducive to brainstorming and rapid prototyping techniques.

Investigator-Initiated Research.—The agreement provides support for investigator-initiated research at the same level provided in fiscal year 2014. Investigator-initiated research should not be targeted to any specific area of health services research so as to generate the best unsolicited ideas from the research community about a wide variety of topics. For this reason the agreement rejects the administration’s request to target $15,000,000 of the investigator-initiated grants to health economics. No funds are included for this purpose.

CENTERS FOR MEDICARE AND MEDICAID SERVICES

PROGRAM MANAGEMENT

The agreement includes $3,669,744,000 for the Program Management account to support a broad range of activities including claims processing and program safeguard activities performed by Medicare contractors.

Access to Home Health Care.—The agreement requests that in the fiscal year 2016 budget request, CMS quantify and explain how the policy directing physicians to conduct face-to-face certifications for home health care has prevented fraud, increased access to health care, and impacted costs to the Medicare and Medicaid programs. The agreement requests that CMS include in the budget request how provider documentation for face-to-face encounters can be simplified. In addition, CMS should provide a public analysis related to rebasing Medicare home health agencies within 90 days of enactment of this act.

Budget Request.—The CMS is expected to provide the detailed plans for all of the agency’s mandatory and discretionary resources. The CMS tables should include the prior year actual, current year request level, current year actual (based on the operating plan) and budget request year level. Further, include a description in the fiscal year 2016 budget request on the CMS fiscal management processes.

Congressional Notice.—CMS has not been providing congressional notification on issues of importance to the Committees, such as ACA innovation grants and Health Insurance Marketplace enrollment figures. These notifications often are provided to organizations and the media prior to notification to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, and in some cases without any notification provided to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations. CMS is directed to notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations not less than one full business day before ACA-related data and grant opportunities are released by the Department.

CMS Test Environment for Testing Industry Solutions.—The agreement requests an update in the fiscal year 2016 budget request on how CMS is making users aware of this IT solution test space.

Critical Access Hospitals (CAH).—The agreement continues to be concerned about the proposal to eliminate CAH status from facilities located less than 10 miles from another hospital as this would require individuals to travel long distances to access proper care and would fail to consider whether nearby hospitals are capable of providing the services that would be lost if a CAH is closed as a result of losing its designation. It would also cause individuals to delay seeking medical treatment and preventive care. The agreement requests that CMS provide a report within 90 days of enactment of this act to the appropriate Committees of the House and Senate on how this proposal is expected to impact access to services in rural communities, including the analysis and criteria.

Demonstration of Part C and D Update.—The agreement requests CMS provide an update in the fiscal year 2016 budget request on demonstrations related to parts C and D. It should specifically include evaluations that examine the advantages and disadvantages of the service area of such plans that may impact senior housing options in a given geographical area.

Dialysis Facilities.—The agreement notes that dialysis facilities and manufacturers may be receiving contradictory guidance from State surveyors regarding conditions for coverage. CMS is directed to review this issue and take appropriate corrective actions as needed.

Emergency Preparedness Plans.—The agreement encourages CMS to partner with the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response as the Department moves forward on a rule to require emergency preparedness planning for all Medicare and Medicaid providers.

Enteral Nutrition.—In 2004, CMS concluded in a report to Congress that enteral nutrition formulas and supplies were not well suited for competitive acquisition. CMS is directed to submit a report within 90 days after enactment of this act that assesses the impact of the program on changes in treatment patterns of enteral nutrition patients residing in skilled nursing facilities, nursing facilities, and intermediate care facilities, including the impact on the patient’s health, whether access has been reduced, and if costs have increased due to new suppliers unfamiliar with the clinical demands associated with such care.

Fraud, Waste, and Abuse.—The agreement requests an update in the fiscal year 2016 budget request on CMS’ process, across all operations, to ensure CMS maintains a focus on preventing improper payments and paying claims right the first time. The update shall include a proposal to measure prevention as opposed to typical “pay and chase” measures reported by CMS. Further, CMS is directed to increase its collaboration with the HHS OIG on the oversight of ACA-related contracts to ensure all contract recipients meet their performance obligations and are held accountable for any actions not in accordance to the contract. The agreement requests a report no later than 90 days after enactment of this act describing the current oversight measures in place for contracts awarded by CMS, including the recourse available in the event that an organization fails to meet its contractual obligations.

Health Insurance Marketplace Transparency.—The agreement includes modified bill language in section 226 that requires CMS to provide cost information for the following categories: Federal Payroll and Other Administrative Costs; Marketplace related Information Technology (IT); Non IT Program Costs, including Health Plan Benefit and Rate Review, Marketplace Oversight, Payment and Financial Management, Eligibility and Enrollment; Consumer Information and Outreach, including the Call Center, Navigator Grants and Consumer Education and Outreach; Marketplace Quality Review; Small Business Health Options Program and Employer Activities; and Other Marketplace Activities. Cost information should be provided for each fiscal year since the enactment of Public Law 111-148. CMS is also required to include the estimated costs for fiscal year 2016.

Hepatitis C.—The agreement encourages CMS to consider the prevalence of chronic viral hepatitis among beneficiaries and the cost of providing care to those who are in the late stages of this disease. The agreement encourages CMS to educate Medicare beneficiaries and healthcare providers about hepatitis C and the need for screening while identifying opportunities to improve the quality of treatments and services.

Implantable Pain Pumps.—For 20 years, both pharmacies and providers have billed Medicare directly for patient-specific Part B drugs prescribed by providers and used for certain implantable pain pumps. The agreement encourages CMS to review their technical billing change made in 2013 whereby only providers could bill CMS for these Part B drugs, so that patient access to these medications will not be restricted in States where State law prohibits pharmacies from selling these medications to providers who directly bill CMS.

Indian Eligibility.—The agreement directs CMS to work with the Internal Revenue Service to review federal regulations under their respective jurisdictions to determine who is eligible as an Indian for the benefits and protections provided to Indians. The agreement directs CMS to submit a report with the agency's findings to the Senate and House Appropriations Committees within 180 days of enactment of this act.

Medicaid Authority.—CMS is strongly urged to continue any hospital pool payment authorities granted under Sec. 1115 of the Social Security Act on the same terms and conditions as the authorities currently apply to the demonstration project for states not provided a disproportionate share hospital allotment by law.

Medicare Star Quality Rating System's (Stars).—The agreement requests CMS provide an update on the status of implementing the changes to the Stars methodology in the fiscal year 2016 budget request.

Physician Fee Schedule.—The agreement is concerned that CMS has not provided adequate opportunity for public comment on changes to surgical procedures described in the annual Medicare Physician Fee Schedule (MPFS) final rules, and is concerned appropriate methodology has not been tested to ensure no negative impact on patient care, patient access, and undue administrative burdens are not placed on providers and CMS. The agreement believes additional consideration should be given to these changes prior to implementation of changes outlined in the MPFS.

Provider Nondiscrimination.—The fiscal year 2014 omnibus directed HHS to correct the 2013 FAQ on Section 2706 of the ACA to reflect the law and congressional intent; CMS has not complied with this directive. CMS is directed to provide a corrected FAQ by March 3, 2016 or an explanation for ignoring congressional intent.

Ophthalmology.—The agreement directs CMS to review its current policy regarding awarding in-patient hospital status for the purpose of Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement for specialty eye hospitals and report to the Senate and House Appropriations Committees on results of the review within 180 days of enactment of this act.

Outpatient Drug Dispensing.—The agreement directs the Administrator of CMS to develop additional proposals designed to encourage short-cycle dispensing of outpatient prescription drugs in long-term care facilities and investigate the effects of dispensing fee changes on cost savings in the short-cycle dispensing program. These proposals should be submitted to the Senate and House Appropriations Committees no later than 90 days after enactment of this act.

Recovery Audit Contractors (RACs).—Unintended consequences of RAC audits can reduce patient access to care and jeopardize the economic viability of critical health care providers. The Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals (OMHA) has a backlog of nearly 750,000 appeals. The length of time to resolve an appeal, including OMHA's assignment of an Administrative Law Judge, can take over five years. CMS has an obligation to find a reasonable balance to eliminate true fraud and abuse while not slowing payment to the majority of honest providers that are negatively impacted by the RAC process. CMS is directed to educate providers on how to reduce errors, develop procedures to reduce the OMHA backlog; and establish a process that provides educational feedback from the OMHA to CMS and RAC contractors to reduce the identification of claims that are likely to be overturned once elevated to the OMHA. The fiscal year 2016 budget request shall include a timeline, milestones, and measurable goals to address these concerns with the RACs to reduce the appeals backlog. The budget request for fiscal year 2016, and subsequent years, shall include an actuarial estimate on the amount of improper payments, actual and estimated recoveries by year with percentage of recovered payments. CMS is directed to submit a report to the appropriate committees of the House and Senate, within 180 days of enactment, on the cross-agency working group reviewing the Medicare appeals process and its recommendations. The report should include the agency's strategy to analyze and improve the entire appeals process, as well as areas related to Medicare audit contractors' quality of medical reviews; proposed statutory challenges; timeline and strategy to eliminate the backlog; steps to address the high overturn rates at OMHA; and steps to improve stakeholder confidence that Medicare policies are interpreted consistently and transparently throughout the system.

Rehabilitation Innovation Centers.—Comprehensive rehabilitation research centers in the United States serve a unique role in complex fields such as brain injury, strokes, multiple traumas, and wartime injuries. Given the high volume of Medicare and Medicaid patients served by these centers, HHS is urged to evaluate the current prospective payment rate with the goal of maintaining these centers of excellence and continuing the high quality of care provided by these centers.

Risk Corridor Program.—In 2014, HHS issued a regulation stating that the risk corridor program will be budget neutral, meaning that the federal government will never pay out more than it collects from issuers over the three year period risk corridors are in effect. The agreement includes new bill language to prevent the CMS Program Management appropriation account from being used to support risk corridors payments.

Ventricular Assist Devices.—The agreement is concerned with the Medicare National Coverage Analysis for Ventricular Assist Devices for Bridge-to-Transplant and Destination Therapy (CAG-00432R), Decision Memo dated October 30, 2013. CMS is encouraged to review the decision, and upon receipt of appropriate new evidence, to consider whether to cover ventricular assist devices for 1) individuals who are undergoing an evaluation to determine candidacy for heart transplantation; and 2) individuals who would be potential heart transplant candidates, but are not eligible because of a contraindication that may be favorably modified by the use of a ventricular assist device.

HEALTH CARE FRAUD AND ABUSE CONTROL ACCOUNT

The agreement includes $672,000,000, to be transferred from the Medicare trust funds, for Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control activities. This includes a base amount of $311,000,000 and an additional $361,000,000 through a budget cap adjustment authorized by section 251(b) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

ADMINISTRATION FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES LOW INCOME HOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Technical assistance, training, and monitoring.—The director of the Office of Community Services should ensure that funds provided for training and technical assistance are provided to organizations with significant expertise working with State, tribal, and local home energy assistance programs.

REFUGEE AND ENTRANT ASSISTANCE

Refugee Social Services.—In allocating social services funding to States, the director of Office of Refugee Resettlement should account for secondary migration of refugees to ensure, to the greatest extent practicable, that funding is allocated based on the total need for such services in the State, and the total number of eligible refugees living in that State. The director should work with national resettlement agencies, State refugee coordinators, and other organizations to determine ways to improve data collection on secondary migration, and the mental and physical health care and housing needs of refugees. Finally, the director should also provide guidance to national resettlement agencies and State refugee coordinators on how to best consult with local stakeholders in the refugee resettlement process.

PAYMENTS TO STATES FOR THE CHILD CARE AND DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT

State plan requirements.—In submitting plans under section 658E of the Child Care and Development Block Grant (CCDBG) Act, States shall include an assurance that CCDBG Act funds received by the State will not be used to develop or implement an assessment for children that will be the primary or sole basis for a child care provider being determined to be ineligible to participate in the program.

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES SERVICES

Head Start Designation Renewal System.—The agreement continues to encourage HHS to consider the unique challenges faced by Head Start providers in remote and frontier areas when reviewing grantees as part of the Designation Renewal System.

Child Abuse Discretionary Activities.—The agreement includes funding to continue the Quality Improvement Center for Research-Based Infant-Toddler Court Teams program. These funds support efforts that bring together the court system, child welfare agencies, health professionals, and community leaders to improve current practices in the child welfare system and make better informed decisions on behalf of the child.

Child Welfare Research, Training and Demonstration.—The agreement includes funding within this program to resume the National Survey of Child and Adolescent Well-Being.

The Administration for Children and Families is encouraged to continue to work with the Department of Housing and Urban Development to improve the availability and coordination of housing, child welfare, and foster care services for older youth in or aging out of the child welfare and foster care systems.

Community Services Block Grant (CSBG).—The Office of Community Services (OCS) is commended for developing additional assessment measures of the CSBG program and management performance at the State, federal and local levels in collaboration with grantees and community action agencies. In addition, the agreement encourages OCS to renew support for implementing a standard of excellence initiative for community action agencies.

The director of OCS should ensure CSBG funding is released to grantees in a timely manner, and instruct grantees to allocate funds to sub-grantees as quickly as reasonably possible. Delays in awarding and distributing these funds can cause unnecessary hardships on both State and local agencies administering these funds and the individuals they serve.

ADMINISTRATION FOR COMMUNITY LIVING AGING AND DISABILITY SERVICES PROGRAMS

The agreement includes a new general provision that supports implementation of section 491 of the WIOA and the transfer of the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research, independent living programs under chapter 1 of title VII of the Rehabilitation Act, and programs under the Assistive Technology Act from the Department of Education to the Department of Health and Human Services.

Home- and Community-Based Supportive Services.—ACL is directed to work with States to prioritize innovative service models, like naturally occurring retirement communities, which help older Americans remain independent as they age.

Elder Rights Support Activities.—The agreement includes $7,874,000 for Elder Rights Support Activities, of which $4,000,000 is included for a new Elder Justice Initiative to provide competitive grants to States to test and evaluate innovative approaches to preventing and responding to elder abuse.

Aging Network Support Activities.—The agreement provides $9,961,000 for Aging Network Support Activities. The agreement includes $2,500,000 to help provide supportive services for aging Holocaust survivors living in the United States.

Limb Loss.—Funding and administrative responsibility for the Limb Loss Program is transferred from CDC to ACL in fiscal year 2015 because the program is better aligned with the ACL mission of increasing the independence and well-being of people with disabilities. ACL is directed to work with CDC on a smooth transition of the program, which ensures that support for current grantees is continued in fiscal year 2015.

University Centers for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD).—Within the amount appropriated for UCEDD, the agreement provides no less than the fiscal year 2014 level for technical assistance for the UCEDD network.

Human Services Transportation.—The agreement includes $1,000,000 for a competitive grant or contract for the purpose of providing generally available technical assistance to local government and nonprofit transportation providers. This assistance should focus on the most cost-effective ways to provide transportation assistance to all persons of any age with disabilities.

GENERAL DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT

Overhead Costs.—The Department is directed to include in its annual budget justification for fiscal year 2016, the amount of administrative and overhead costs spent by the Department for every major budget line. Beginning in fiscal year 2017, and each year thereafter, the agreement directs the Department to include the amount and percentage of administrative and overhead costs spent by the Department for every program, project and activity.

Office of Women's Health.—The agreement includes $3,100,000 to continue the State partnership initiative to reduce violence against women, which provides funding to state-level public and private health programs to improve healthcare providers' ability to help victims of violence and improve prevention programs.

Sports-Related Injuries.—The agreement encourages the Department to investigate the development of new and better standards for testing sports equipment that is supported through independent research, governance, and industrial independence. These standards should actually replicate on-field impacts and produce testing data for "worst-practical-impact" conditions. Such standards will lead to research and development of new safety equipment to ensure that athletes have state-of-the-art gear that significantly reduces injuries.

Lupus.—The agreement includes $2,000,000 to continue the national health education program on lupus for healthcare providers, with the goal of improving diagnosis for those with lupus and reducing health disparities. The agreement reflects strong support for this program, which is intended to engage healthcare providers, educators, and schools of health professions in working together to improve lupus diagnosis and treatment through education.

Tribal Lease Agreements.—The agreement encourages the Secretary to work with tribal governments in recognizing the unique circumstances of Native Americans while maximizing their full participation in Federal programs. Specifically, the Secretary should review issues relating to real property lease agreements when such agreements are "less-than-arm's-length" as defined under the Office of Management and Budget's Circular A-87. The Secretary should work with tribes in resolving such issues in the future.

Transparency in Health Plans.—The agreement directs the Secretary to provide additional clarification to qualified health plans, based upon relevant and related GAO findings, to ensure greater consistency and full transparency of coverage options included in health insurance plans prior to plan purchase in the marketplace enrollment process. The agreement requests a timeline for such clarifying guidance to be submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 30 days after enactment of this act.

Seafood Sustainability.—The agreement prohibits the Department from using or recommending third party, nongovernmental certification for seafood sustainability.

Healthcare Provider Complaints.—Legislation appropriating funding for the Department of Health and Human Services has carried a general provision relating to health care providers since fiscal year 2005 (Division H, Section 507(d) of Public Law 113-76). Complaints regarding reported violations of these provisions have been filed with the Office for Civil Rights at the Department of Health and Human Services. The Secretary is directed to respond to these complaints expeditiously in accordance with final rule 45 CFR Part 88 published in Federal Register Vol. 76 No. 36.

Evaluation Set-Aside.—The agreement expects that the Department's calculation of the PHS evaluation set-aside will be consistent with that of previous years.

OFFICE OF MEDICARE HEARINGS AND APPEALS

Appeals Backlog.—The agreement continues to be concerned over the substantial backlog in the number of cases pending before the administrative law judges at the Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals (OMHA) and the two-year moratorium on assigning new cases. OMHA is directed to use the additional funds provided to address the current backlog and to increase its capacity to process the rising caseload. The agreement requests a report no later than 90 days after enactment of this act describing the plan to resolve the current and future backlog at OMHA.

OFFICE OF THE NATIONAL COORDINATOR FOR HEALTH INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Information Blocking.—The Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology (ONC) is urged to use its certification program judiciously in order to ensure certified electronic health record technology (CEHRT) provides value to eligible hospitals, eligible providers and taxpayers. ONC should use its authority to certify only those products that clearly meet current meaningful use program standards and that do not block health information exchange. ONC should take steps to decertify products that proactively block the sharing of information because those practices frustrate congressional intent, devalue taxpayer investments in CEHRT, and make CEHRT less valuable and more burdensome for eligible hospitals and eligible providers to use. The agreement requests a detailed report from ONC no later than 90 days after enactment of this act regarding the extent of the information blocking problem, including an estimate of the number of vendors or eligible hospitals or providers who block information. This detailed report should also include a comprehensive strategy on how to address the information blocking issue.

Interoperability.—The agreement directs the Health IT Policy Committee to submit a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations and the appropriate authorizing committees no later than 12 months after enactment of this act regarding the challenges and barriers to interoperability. The report should cover the technical, operational and financial barriers to interoperability, the role of certification in advancing or hindering interoperability across various providers, as well as any other barriers identified by the Policy Committee.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The agreement includes $71,000,000 for the HHS Office of the Inspector General (OIG) account.

The agreement expects the OIG to improve its annual budget request and looks forward to a revised format with more details and performance measures related to discretionary oversight. Further, the agreement expects the OIG to ensure full oversight of ACA activities are included and described in the fiscal year 2015 work plan. The work plan should provide substantive activity for all HHS operating divisions including the Food and Drug Administration.

Lobbying.—The agreement requests an update on how the OIG is working with the HHS agencies to improve monitoring of grantee activities to ensure that no taxpayer resources are used for lobbying.

Top-25 Unimplemented Recommendations.—The agreement again requests that within 90 days of enactment the OIG provide a revised top-25 unimplemented recommendations report under the same terms and condition as described in the explanatory statement accompanying the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2014.

Office for Human Research Protections (OHRP).—Recent reviews by the OIG raise questions about the independence of the OHRP during the process to make determinations. The agreement requests the OIG conduct a formal review of OHRP procedures and make appropriate recommendations to ensure and strengthen human subjects protections in future research and ensure the independence of OHRP.

Health Reform Oversight.—The agreement provides support for oversight activities related to health reform. The OIG is expected to provide a plan of how it will conduct these oversight activities within 60 days after enactment to the appropriate House of Representatives and Senate Committees.

Effectiveness of Subsidy Data.—No later than June 1, 2015, the HHS OIG, in consultation with the Treasury Inspector General, shall submit a report to Congress that assesses Internal Revenue Service procedures to reconcile Advance Premium Tax Credit (APTC) amounts paid to individual taxpayers for health care coverage in Federal and State Health Insurance Exchanges and how HHS uses IRS information to reduce fraud and overpayments.

PUBLIC HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES EMERGENCY FUND

The agreement reflects strong support for the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response's (ASPR) International Influenza Vaccine Manufacturing program and includes $15,000,000 in annual pandemic influenza funding for this purpose. The funding level provided by the agreement reflects a recognition that balances from previous pandemic flu supplemental appropriations remain unobligated and available for use by the Department. The agreement does not support the request to establish a strategic investor program.

Pandemic Influenza Response Activities.—The agreement is increasingly concerned about the threat posed to public health by novel influenza strains such as H7N9, which caused an outbreak in 2013. As a result of these potentially devastating outbreaks, the agreement continues to support the goals of protecting the U.S. population from national health security threats posed by pandemic influenza and other new and emerging threats.

Project BioShield.—The agreement is committed to ensuring the nation is adequately prepared against chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear attacks. The agreement recognizes a public-private partnership to develop medical countermeasures (MCMs) is required to successfully prepare and defend the nation against these threats as has been demonstrated in the decade since the initiation of the Project BioShield Special Reserve Fund (SRF). Where there is little or no commercial market, the agreement supports the goal of an explicit commitment by the Government to biodefense medical countermeasures, such as was provided during fiscal years 2004–2013 by the initial SRF. Although the agreement cannot provide the authorized 5-year amount of $2,800,000,000, it continues to support the procurement of MCMs. Further, the agreement requests the agency provide an update in the fiscal year 2016 congressional budget on how it can support training and simulated events to prepare for the coordinated management and utilization of medical countermeasures.

Spend Plan.—ASPR has still not provided the 5-year spend plan for the MCM enterprise as referenced in Senate report 113–71, as well as the Explanatory Statement accompanying Public Law 113–76, and as required by Public Law 113–5, the Pandemic and All-Hazards Preparedness Reauthorization Act of 2013. ASPR is directed to brief the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 90 days of enactment on the status of this report and the reasons for the delay in its receipt.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

PREVENTION AND PUBLIC HEALTH TRANSFER TABLE

The agreement includes a provision that directs the transfer of the Prevention and Public Health (PPH) Fund. In fiscal year 2015, the level appropriated for the fund is $927,000,000 after accounting for sequestration. The agreement includes bill language in section 219 of this act that requires that funds be transferred within 45 days of enactment of this act to the following accounts, for the following activities, and in the following amounts:

Agency	Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
ACL	Alzheimer's Disease Prevention Education and Outreach .....	$14,700,000
ACL	Chronic Disease Self Management .....	8,000,000
ACL	Falls Prevention .....	5,000,000
CDC	Breast Feeding Grants (Hospitals Promoting Breastfeeding) .....	8,000,000
CDC	Cancer Prevention & Control .....	104,000,000
CDC	Diabetes .....	73,000,000
CDC	Epidemiology and Laboratory Capacity Grants .....	40,000,000
CDC	Healthcare Associated Infections .....	12,000,000
CDC	Heart Disease & Stroke Prevention Program .....	73,000,000
CDC	Million Hearts Program .....	4,000,000
CDC	Nutrition, Physical Activity, & Obesity Base Activities .....	35,000,000
CDC	Office of Smoking and Health .....	110,000,000
CDC	Preventive Health and Health Services Block Grants .....	160,000,000
CDC	Racial and Ethnic Approaches to Community Health (REACH) .....	30,000,000
CDC	Section 317 Immunization Grants .....	210,300,000
CDC	Lead Poisoning Prevention .....	13,000,000
CDC	Workplace Wellness Grants .....	10,000,000
CDC	Early Care Collaboratives ...	4,000,000
SAMHSA	Suicide Prevention (Garrett Lee Smith) .....	12,000,000

The agreement modifies the qualifying recipients of National Research Service Awards funding for research in primary medical care.

The agreement includes a new provision renaming the National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine as the National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health.

The agreement includes a new provision allowing NIH to retain reimbursements for research substances and credit them to NIH Institutes and Centers.

The agreement modifies the provision related to ACA exchange funding transparency.

The agreement includes new bill language to prevent the CMS Program Management appropriation account from being used to support risk corridors payments.

The agreement includes a reauthorization of the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program.

The agreement includes a new provision requiring unused abstinence education funding to be reallocated to qualifying States.

The agreement includes a new provision requiring the NIH Director to prepare and submit an annual independent Alzheimer's budget request directly to Congress.

TITLE III—DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION EDUCATION FOR THE DISADVANTAGED

The Department shall continue to use its existing formula in allocating funds to Bureau of Indian Education schools and to follow this practice in any relevant future emergency funding that provides it the same authority and discretion.

With regard to the School Improvement Grants (SIG) program, the Department's proposed implementation of bill language that allows local educational agencies (LEAs) to implement a State-determined school improvement strategy falls short of Congressional intent. Several new bill language provisions provide flexibility from the existing prescriptive SIG requirements, so that LEAs will have the opportunity to implement alternative strategies beyond those previously required by the Department. However, the Department's Notice of Proposed Requirements would require a State-determined intervention strategy to be aligned with turnaround principles, as well as impose seven additional requirements on the State-determined strategy. The Department shall ensure that any Final Requirements for the SIG program strictly adhere to bill language which stipulates that LEAs may implement an alternative State-determined school improvement strategy that has been established by a State educational agency (SEA) with the approval of the Secretary. In addition, not later than 15 days prior to the publication of a Notice Inviting Applications to submit State-determined school improvement strategies, the Department shall brief the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, Committee on Education and the Workforce, and Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions on the Final Notice Inviting Applications.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMS

The Department should recognize that the roles and responsibilities of principals continue to expand, including the implementation of State-led teacher evaluation systems, college and career-ready standards and new on-line assessments, so they must be afforded specialized opportunities for professional learning and growth targeted to their role as instructional leaders. Therefore, the Department should provide guidance to SEAs on ensuring that sufficient professional development opportunities are provided to principals in order to help them improve instructional leadership capacity.

Civic Education.—The agreement includes funding within the SEED program for competitive grants to non-profit organizations with demonstrated effectiveness in the development and implementation of civic learning programs. Priority should be given to applicants that demonstrate innovation, scalability, and a focus on underserved populations, including rural schools and students.

The 21st Century Community Learning Center initiative is the only federal funding source authorized specifically for before-school, afterschool and summer learning programs for students attending high-poverty, low-performing schools. Data demonstrates that quality afterschool programs have a positive impact on a number of measures of student academic achievement, positively affecting behavior and discipline and helping relieve parents' worries about their children's safety during the hours when school is out.

The Department shall conduct a new grant competition in fiscal year 2015 for the Alaska Native Educational Equity Assistance program. Additionally, the Department should continue its efforts to ensure maximum participation of Alaska Native organizations in programs funded under the Alaska Native Education Equity Act, implement statutory requirements that SEAs and LEAs apply in consortia with Alaska Native organizations, ensure that all grantees have meaningful plans for consultation with Alaska Native leaders, and strictly adhere to the programmatic priorities contained in the statute.

INNOVATION AND IMPROVEMENT

Within the funds for the Javits Gifted and Talented Students Education program, funds shall be used for projects that build the capacity of elementary and secondary schools to meet the educational needs of gifted and talented students, a group that includes high achieving students as well as those capable of high achievement. The Department also should continue support to a National Research Center on the Gifted and Talented.

Within the Fund for the Improvement of Education, the agreement includes funding for the following activities in the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Arts in Education .....	$25,000,000
Non-cognitive Skills Initiative .....	2,000,000
Full Service Community Schools .....	10,000,000
Educational Facilities Clearinghouse .....	1,000,000
Preschool development grants .....	250,000,000
Innovative Approaches to Literacy .....	25,000,000
Javits Gifted and Talented Students Education Program .....	10,000,000
Teacher Incentive Fund .....	230,000,000
Total .....	553,000,000

The bill also modifies existing language related to charter school renewals.

In 2012, the Government Accountability Office recommended that an effective and inclusive Early Childhood Education coordinating group could help mitigate early care and education program fragmentation through simplifying children's access to these services, identifying and managing service gaps, meeting data requirements for the coordinated operation and evaluation of these programs, and identifying and minimizing any unwarranted overlap. This effort, along with the review required by section 13 of Public Law 113-186, could also provide a vehicle to conduct a coordinated analysis of child care tax expenditures and program spending. The Departments of Health and Human Services and Education are directed, in consultation with the heads of all federal agencies that administer federal early education and care programs, to provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate and relevant authorizing Committees the report on the review of federal early learning and care programs required by section 13 of Public Law 113-186.

The Department is directed to establish an absolute priority in the investing in innovation notice inviting applications for funds available in this act for the implementation of comprehensive high school reform strategies that will increase the number and percentage of students who graduate from high school and enroll in postsecondary education without the need for remediation and with the ability to think critically, solve complex problems, evaluate arguments on the basis of evidence, and communicate effectively. This competition should target schools where not less than 40 percent of the students to be served will be from low-income families as calculated under section 1113 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

The Department should continue to make progress in accessible images, graphics and math, including further research, development, and dissemination of new and emerging platforms and tools for students with disabilities to access images, graphics, math, and chemistry. The Department should also take note of the growing challenge of ensuring accessibility for interactive educational content for students with visual disabilities and the need for useful tools, standards or guidelines in this fast-emerging arena.

REHABILITATION SERVICES AND DISABILITY RESEARCH

The agreement continues language allowing excess funds above those requested during the reallocation process to support innovative activities aimed at improving outcomes for individuals with disabilities, including activities under the Promoting Readiness of Minors in Supplemental Security Income (PROMISE) program. After covering the continuation costs of PROMISE, the agreement includes VR funds remaining available at the end of fiscal year 2015 to support a new Transition Model System (TMS) that addresses the complex challenges facing youth with disabilities as they transition from school to adult life. The agreement expects that an estimated $15,000,000 will be needed to support the cost of the 5-year TMS projects. The Department shall notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations in advance of announcements related to the initiative.

Access to and knowledge of public transportation—especially in rural areas—is critical for transition-aged youth with disabilities to participate in employment programs and receive services. Given the challenges facing youth with disabilities in accessing reliable public transportation, the Secretary shall collaborate with transit experts on increasing transportation access for transition-aged youth with disabilities when designing and implementing the TMS. Partnerships with local transportation providers to develop transportation education and coordination strategies shall be a strong component of the initiative.

The agreement includes $1,000,000 in increased funding for Client Assistance State Grants to help transition-aged students with disabilities and persons with disabilities in subminimum wage positions obtain competitive, integrated employment through advocacy and the enforcement of their rights under the Rehabilitation Act.

The agreement includes not less than $985,000 to continue support for the Parent Information and Training Centers as well as the National Parent Technical Assistance Center.

The agreement includes $33,000,000 for the Assistive Technology programs. This includes $25,704,000 for State grant activities authorized under section 4 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; $4,300,000 for protection and advocacy systems authorized by section 5; and $996,000 for technical assistance activities authorized under section 6.

The agreement also includes $2,000,000 within the Assistive Technology program for competitive grants to support alternative financing programs that provide for the purchase of assistive technology devices. The goal in providing these funds is to allow greater access to affordable financing to help people with disabilities purchase the specialized technologies needed to live independently, to succeed at school and work and to otherwise live active and productive lives. Applicants should incorporate credit building activities in their programs, including financial education and information about other possible funding sources. Successful applicants must emphasize consumer choice and control and build programs that will provide financing for the full array of assistive technology devices and services and ensure that all people, regardless of type of disability or health condition, age, level of income and residence have access to the program.

SPECIAL INSTITUTIONS FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

The agreement includes $24,931,000 to support the American Printing House for the Blind, of which $475,000 is to support the Resources with Enhanced Accessibility for Learning (REAL) plan.

The agreement includes $67,016,000 for the National Technical Institute for the Deaf. Funding for construction will be considered in the future as needs may warrant.

CAREER, TECHNICAL, AND ADULT EDUCATION

The agreement includes $13,712,000 for adult education national leadership activities, including up to $3,000,000 for continued support for the reentry education model demonstration initiative.

STUDENT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The agreement includes $8,390,000 for the Work Colleges program authorized under section 448 of the HEA from the Federal Work Study appropriation.

The Department is directed to submit a report to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees, no later than 120 days after the enactment of this Act, on enrollment and graduation information for Pell Grant recipients included in the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Enrollment Reporting roster files for the 2013-2014 Pell Grant Award Year. The Department is also directed to continue to provide enrollment and graduation information to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees in the future as more robust and useful information becomes available.

Since Pell Grant recipient enrollment and graduation information was not included in the NSLDS Enrollment Reporting roster files as a separate category for an institution's Pell Grants-only recipients until the 2012-2013 Pell Grant Award Year, it is understood that six year graduation cohort rates will not be available for analysis until 2019. While understanding the limitation of the data, the report should continue to include enrollment and graduation information for Pell Grant recipients by each institution of higher education. The report should also include an updated plan to minimize the burden of recent changes to the NSLDS Enrollment Reporting roster files on institutions of higher education, an updated proposal to improve the tracking of enrollment and graduation rates for students that transfer and nontraditional students, and strategies to increase enrollment and improve graduation rates for Pell Grant recipients.

STUDENT AID ADMINISTRATION

The agreement directs the Department to continue to provide quarterly reports detailing its obligation plan by quarter for student aid administrative activities broken out by servicer and activity.

The agreement includes new bill language providing the Department with the authority to administer the Health Education Assistance Loan (HEAL) program, since Public Law 113-76 required HHS to transfer the HEAL program to the Department to improve administrative efficiencies.

The agreement commends the Department for the increased focus it has placed on preventing campus sexual violence. Within the amount for Student Aid Administration, the agreement expects the Department to continue its efforts to prevent sexual violence on campus.

The agreement requests an update on the progress of the interagency task force to ensure oversight of for-profit institutions of higher education in the fiscal year 2016 congressional justification.

The agreement requests that the fiscal year 2016 congressional budget justification include an update on the Department's implementation of the expanded student complaint system detailed in Senate Report 113-71.

In October 2013, the Department announced that the impact of the 7.3 percent reduction in funds for NFP servicers, pursuant to the mandatory sequester provisions in the Budget Control Act of 2011, prevented the Department from entering into contracts with new not-for-profit (NFP) servicers, including those that had signed memoranda of understanding. The agreement notes that the Department expects to begin the process of re-competing servicing contracts not later than fiscal year 2016. One of the evaluation factors will be the servicers' utilization of small business subcontractors, with the goal of broadening opportunities for new entities to participate in Federal student loan servicing. The agreement directs the Secretary to hold a full and open competition consistent with legal procurement requirements that allows eligible NFP servicers to compete for servicing contracts, including those NFP servicers that were affected by the mandatory sequester.

HIGHER EDUCATION

The agreement requests that a report be submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations no later than March 2, 2015, providing the following information about the fiscal year 2014 First in the World competition: number of applicants; number of applicants and awardees that applied under the competitive priority, including how many applicants and awardees each submitted as supporting evidence correlational studies, randomized control trials, or quasi-experimental design studies; analysis of geographic distribution of applicants and awardees; and the number of applicants and awardees that partnered with public and private organizations and agencies as well as a description of the types of partner organizations and agencies.

The agreement includes $67,775,000 for the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE). Within the amounts for FIPSE, the agreement includes $60,000,000 for the First in the World Initiative (FITW). Of the amount recommended for FITW, the agreement includes $16,000,000 to continue the set-aside for minority-serving institutions, as defined in titles III and V of the HEA.

The agreement includes new bill language allowing up to 2.5 percent of the funds made available for FITW to be used for technical assistance and evaluation. Within the remaining funding for FIPSE, the agreement includes $2,500,000 for a National Center for Information and Technical Support for Postsecondary Students with Disabilities, as authorized by section 777(a) of the HEA. The agreement also includes $5,000,000 for the Centers of Excellence for Veteran Student Success program, as authorized by section 873 of the HEA, and $275,000 for a database contract.

The agreement includes $11,800,000 for the Model Comprehensive Transition and Postsecondary Programs for Students with Intellectual Disabilities (TPSID). Of that amount, the agreement includes no less than $2,000,000 to support a national coordinating center to conduct and disseminate research on strategies to promote positive academic, social, employment, and independent living outcomes for students with intellectual disabilities. The coordinating center will establish a comprehensive research and evaluation protocol for TPSID programs; administer a mentoring program matching current and new TPSID grantees based on areas of expertise; and coordinate longitudinal follow-up data collection and technical assistance to TPSID grantees on programmatic components and evidence-based practices. The coordinating center will also provide technical assistance to build the capacity of K-12 transition services as well as postsecondary education inclusive practices, among other activities.

The agreement recognizes the important role the Jacob K. Javits Fellowship has played in encouraging scholarship in the social sciences and humanities. As the Secretary consults with appropriate agencies and organizations to designate the fields that are considered "areas of national need," the Secretary is strongly encouraged to consider the humanities and social sciences as eligible fields and take into account the extent to which these areas fulfill a compelling national interest during the fiscal year 2015 Graduate Assistance in Areas of National Need grant competition.

The agreement supports the Department's effort in developing and testing competency-based education as an alternative method for delivering federal financial aid, including its most recent Experimental Sites Initiative that will provide institutions flexibility in how they provide financial aid to students enrolled in self-paced competency-based education programs. The agreement encourages the Department to continue incentivizing institutions to develop and test this model.

INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION SCIENCES

Increased NAEP contract costs and the 2013 sequester led to decisions in 2013 to postpone indefinitely implementation of assessments for 4th and 12th grade students in United States History, Civics and Geography. Previous assessments conducted by the National Assessment Governing Board indicate that fewer than one in four 4th, 8th, and 12th grade students at all grade levels is proficient in United States History. Reducing the frequency of assessments in this area will limit the ability of Congress to track the progress of the American education system in addressing this important problem. At its next scheduled meeting, the National Assessment Governing Board should consider options for implementing assessments in 4th and 12th grade United States History, Civics and Geography and schedule them to be conducted as soon as is feasible.

DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT

The GAO shall conduct a study on the use of State, local, Federal, and philanthropic funds to support year-round learning activities. The study should include (1) what is known about LEAs' and SEAs' use of funds to support year-round school calendars; (2) a discussion of barriers, if any, to the use of funds to implement year-round school calendars; and (3) a review of what is known about the effectiveness of summer learning in improving the achievement gap, addressing summer-slide, the propensity of involvement in criminal behavior, and other key challenges facing the Nation's school systems. To address the third objective, the study should include information about evaluations from schools and school districts that have implemented year-round school calendars, to the extent such evaluations are available.

Vision and Educational Performance.—According to the NIH, one out of four children in the United States has a vision problem and at least two million schoolchildren start the school year not being able to see clearly. As a result, thousands of schoolchildren from economically disadvantaged families are unable to make the most of their education. Most of these cases of poor vision are due to refractive error and can be easily corrected. The Department of Education is encouraged to consider steps it could take to raise awareness of the need to identify children with poor vision and promote options for children from low-income families to acquire prescription eyeglasses. These steps could help such children achieve educational performance and future vocational success that otherwise may be hindered due to poor vision.

OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS

The agreement includes an increase in the Office for Civil Rights to help ensure that educational institutions are protecting students from sexual violence.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The Secretary, in consultation with the Director of the Institute of Education Sciences, is required to provide the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, Committee on Education and the Workforce, and Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions an operating plan describing the proposed uses of this evaluation authority as well as the source appropriation for such activities. In addition, not later than 45 days prior to the submission of the required operating plan, the Department shall brief the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, Committee on Education and the Workforce, and Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions on the programs and activities being considered for inclusion in the plan, how ESEA programs will be regularly evaluated, and how finding of evaluations completed under this section will be widely disseminated. Further, the Secretary and Director shall include in future congressional budget justifications a discussion of the planned use of this authority.

The agreement includes a new provision reinstating student aid eligibility for students enrolled in career pathways programs.

The agreement includes a new provision allowing certain institutions to continue to use endowment income for student scholarships.

The agreement includes a new provision to ensure that TRIO Student Support Services Grants are awarded in a timely manner.

TITLE IV—RELATED AGENCIES

CORPORATION FOR NATIONAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

The agreement rejects the budget request's proposal to restructure the Senior Corps programs, and includes funding for each of the Senior Corps programs at no less than the fiscal year 2014 level.

The agreement includes new bill language to reinforce longstanding policy that a professional corps program may demonstrate an inadequate number of professionals in a community in a number of ways, including a determination of need by the local community. Further, the Corporation for National and Community Service is directed to ensure that any changes in policies regarding professional corps programs operating expenses do not adversely impact the ability of AmeriCorps programs to operate in certain communities. The Corporation should provide AmeriCorps programs the maximum amount of flexibility in demonstrating the importance of these operating costs as part of their grant application to ensure the viability of such programs in all communities.

Consistent with the authorization of the Social Innovation Fund (SIF) in section 198K(e) of the National and Community Service Act of 1990, the Corporation is directed to allow current high-performing SIF grantees to apply for renewal funding to continue implementation and evaluation of their current projects, and to compete for new SIF funding for projects not currently funded by the SIF.

The agreement includes an increase in funding for Innovation, Demonstration, and Other Activities to support national call to service activities, including the September 11th National Day of Service and Remembrance and the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Day of Service.

INSTITUTE OF MUSEUM AND LIBRARY SERVICES

Within the total for IMLS, the bill includes funds for the following activities in the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY15 Agreement
Library Services Technology Act:
Grants to States .....	$154,848,000
Native American Library Services .....	3,861,000
National Leadership: Libraries .....	12,200,000
Laura Bush 21st Century Librarian .....	10,000,000
Museum Services Act:
Museums for America .....	20,200,000
Native American/Hawaiian Museum Services .....	924,000
National Leadership: Museums .....	7,600,000
African American History and Culture Act:
Museum Grants for African American History & Culture .....	1,407,000
Program Administration .....	16,820,000
Total .....	227,860,000

The agreement includes an increase of $1,000,000 to assist with relocation costs.

MEDICARE PAYMENT ADVISORY COMMISSION

Current law requires the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (MedPAC) to be comprised of a mix of individuals with expertise in the financing and delivery of healthcare services and have a broad geographic representation, including, but not limited to, those with rural backgrounds and experience. The Government Accountability Office is directed to continue to follow the statute when making appointments to MedPAC.

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME

Disability Early Intervention Initiative.—Within the total for research and demonstration, the agreement includes $35,000,000 for a disability early intervention initiative. This demonstration project will test innovative and evidence-based approaches to improve outcomes for individuals with disabilities who are not yet receiving Social Security disability benefits, but who are likely to be eligible for benefits in the future, focusing on helping them remain in the workforce. The Social Security Administration (SSA) is directed to work in close consultation with the Departments of Labor, Education, HHS, and other agencies as appropriate, in developing and administering this demonstration project, including determining the appropriate target population and the types of interventions or services to be tested. Prior to issuing a funding opportunity announcement (FOA) for this demonstration project, SSA should publish a detailed executive summary of a proposed FOA, or a draft FOA itself, and allow for public comment by outside organizations. SSA should also ensure that participation in any demonstration is voluntary and that individuals are not required to waive any of their rights under the Social Security Act.

LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Continuing disability reviews and SSI redeterminations of eligibility.—The agreement includes a total of $1,527,000,000 for SSA to conduct continuing disability reviews (CDRs) under the Disability Insurance and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) programs, and redeterminations of eligibility under the SSI program. This includes $1,396,000,000 specified to meet the terms of section 251(b)(2)(B)(ii)(III) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act, and $131,000,000 in additional funding provided under SSA's Limitation on Administrative Expenses (LAE) account. This allocation is consistent with the funding decisions of the agency in recent years but reprioritizes proposed funding to improve basic services to the public. The Commissioner may allocate more or less than $131,000,000 from SSA's regular LAE account for CDRs and redeterminations but only for reconciling estimated and actual unit costs for conducting such activities, and after notifying the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate at least 15 days prior to any such reallocation. If less funding is allocated for such activities, the funding will be available for regular activities within the LAE account. Finally, the Commissioner is directed to provide in its fiscal year 2016 budget justification a consolidated accounting of total funding spent, or estimated to be spent, on CDRs and redeterminations in the prior year, current year, and budget year.

Field office closings and consolidations.—The Commissioner is directed to provide an opportunity for community input and public comment prior to making a decision to permanently close, consolidate, or significantly reduce service hours or services available at any field office. Before deciding to permanently close or consolidate an office, SSA should make detailed information widely available to the public about any proposed closure, including demographic information of the service area affected; distance to other office locations; access to and the availability of public transportation to other office locations; availability of services for people with disabilities, seniors, non-English speakers, and other vulnerable populations living in the impacted area; and any specific plans for SSA to mitigate any burdens on the public from closing the office. Allowing public input in these decisions will help SSA consider even more information about the impact of closing an office on individual communities and improve the overall transparency of these critical decisions. Further, the Commissioner is directed to provide a widely-available public notice no later than 180 days prior to permanently closing, consolidating, or significantly reducing services available at any field office. SSA is directed to brief the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate within 120 days of enactment on how they plan to implement these changes.

Access and availability of Benefit Verification Letters and SSN printouts.—The Commissioner is directed, consistent with SSA's current guidance, to continue to make Benefit Verification Letters available upon request at field offices. Reducing the availability of this document at field offices could adversely impact individuals who are required to provide proof of this information for a variety of purposes. SSA should continue to encourage third parties to use existing online tools to verify this same information, and eliminate the need for individuals to provide these documents altogether, but this ultimately relies on third parties to do so. Similarly, the Commissioner is directed to ensure the maximum amount of flexibility in helping individuals verify their SSN through a field office. Individuals need to verify their SSN for a variety of purposes, often for time-sensitive issues where waiting for a replacement SSN card is not possible or practical.

ANNUAL SOCIAL SECURITY STATEMENTS.—The agreement includes sufficient resources for SSA to resume mailing Social Security Statements, and to otherwise increase the number of individuals viewing and receiving their statement annually, in accordance with its plan submitted to Congress in March 2014.

Work Incentives Planning and Assistance (WIPA) and Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security (PABSS).—The agreement includes $23,000,000 for WIPA and $7,000,000 for PABSS.

TITLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

The agreement modifies the general provision related to Performance Partnerships Pilot.

The agreement includes a new general provision that supports implementation of section 491 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act and the transfer of the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research, independent living programs under chapter 1 of title VII of the Rehabilitation Act, and programs under the Assistive Technology Act from the Department of Education to the Department of Health and Human Services.

The agreement prohibits funding from going to the Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now (ACORN), or any of its affiliates, subsidiaries, allied organizations, or successors.

TITLE VI—EBOLA RESPONSE AND PREPAREDNESS

The agreement provides $2,742,000,000 across the various accounts of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to support Ebola activities. Within the total for Ebola Response, the agreement includes the following amounts:

Budget Activity	FY 2015 Agreement
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Domestic Ebola Response:
Public Health Emergency Preparedness .....	$155,000,000
State and Local .....	255,000,000
Worker Training .....	10,000,000
Migration/Quarantine .....	114,000,000
Other .....	37,000,000
International Response and Preparedness .....	1,200,000,000
Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority (BARDA) .....	157,000,000
Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response .....	576,000,000
National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases .....	238,000,000

Ebola Reporting.—The Secretary of HHS shall provide a detailed spend plan within 30 days of enactment and quarterly obligation reports by program to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate. HHS should also provide obligation updates to the Committees every six months until all funds are expended or expire. HHS is further reminded that all funding provided to the agency is subject to the reprogramming requirements in title V of this Act.

Ebola Oversight.—The Secretary is directed to ensure procedures are in place to prevent fraud and waste in the expenditure of these funds. Specifically, HHS is directed to work with the HHS Office of Inspector General to develop an oversight plan, which shall be submitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate within 90 days of enactment.

International Preparedness.—Of the total for international response and preparedness, the agreement provides $597,000,000 to CDC for setting up and strengthening National Public Health Institutes (NPHIs) and for other international preparedness activities. Funding is included to continue and expand the work of NPHI grantees who received awards from fiscal year 2014 funding.

Treatment Centers.—The agreement does not concur with the Administration's request to designate at least one treatment center in every State. Instead, the agreement provides funding to the Department to implement a regional strategy for designating treatment centers which balances both geographic need and the fact that different institutional capabilities may be necessary for a successful strategy.

Worker training.—Funds are provided for medical worker training related to Ebola response. Recent incidents involving hospital personnel point to the current shortage of state-of-the-art personal protective equipment, and the need for alternative methods of protection, particularly in small community hospitals. CDC is expected to conduct an independent review of best practices and the training of personnel in the use of alternative methods of protection when first-line personal protective equipment is not available.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The bill includes a provision relating to the use of funds by the Secretary.

The bill includes a provision relating to notification requirements to the Committees on Appropriations.

The bill includes a provision allowing the Secretary to condition grant funding on agreement by the awardee to follow Departmental guidance regarding the control of the spread of Ebola.

The bill includes a provision allowing the Secretary to transfer funds between accounts.

DIVISION H—LEGISLATIVE BRANCH APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

The following is an explanation of the effects of Division H, which makes appropriations for the Legislative Branch for fiscal year 2015. Unless otherwise noted, reference to the House and Senate reports are to House Report 113-417 and Senate Report 113-196. The language included in House Report 113-417 and Senate Report 113-196 should be compiled with and carry the same emphasis as the language included in the explanatory statement, unless specifically addressed to the contrary in this explanatory statement. While repeating some report language for emphasis, this explanatory statement does not intend to negate the language referred to above unless expressly provided herein.

Reprogramming Guidelines.—It is expected that all agencies notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House and the Senate of any significant departures from budget plans presented to the Committees in any agency's budget justifications. In particular, agencies funded through this bill are required to notify the Committees prior to each reprogramming of funds in excess of the lesser of 10 percent or $500,000 between programs, projects or activities, or in excess of $500,000 between object classifications (except for shifts within the pay categories, object class 11, 12, and 13 or as further specified in each agency's respective section). This includes cumulative reprogrammings that together total at least $500,000 from or to a particular program, activity, or object classification as well as reprogramming FTEs or funds to create new organizational entities within the Agency or to restructure entities which already exist. The Committees desire to be notified of reprogramming actions which involve less than the above-mentioned amounts if such actions would have the effect of changing an agency's funding requirements in future years or if programs or projects specifically cited in the Committee's reports are affected.

TITLE I—SENATE

The agreement includes $864,285,102 for Senate operations. This item relates solely to the Senate, and is in accordance with long practice under which each body determines its own housekeeping requirements and the other concurs without intervention.

The Government Accountability Office (GAO) is directed to evaluate the methods available to Senate offices to both communicate with blind and deaf constituents as well as to support congressional staff covered under the Americans with Disabilities Act. GAO should also make recommendations on additional steps needed to reasonably accommodate such constituents and staff, including new technologies that are not currently being utilized.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

The agreement eliminates an outdated requirement that the Secretary of the Senate purchase newspaper advertisements to solicit bids for procuring stationary products for the Senate.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The agreement includes $1,180,736,000 for House operations. This item relates solely to the House, and is in accordance with long practice under which each body determines its own housekeeping requirements and the other concurs without intervention.

To ensure that employees and supervisors of Member, Committee, and House Offices prevent and maintain harassment free work environments, the Chief Administrative Officer is directed to develop and offer online training on workplace sexual harassment. The CAO shall utilize already developed materials from other Federal agencies and build on training already available through the House on similar subject matter. The CAO shall brief the Committee on Appropriations on strategies for dissemination of this new training.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

The agreement provides for unspent amounts remaining in Members' Representational Allowances account to be used for deficit or debt reduction, prohibits the delivery of bills and resolutions, prohibits the delivery of printed copies of the Congressional record, places a limitation on amount available to lease vehicles, places a limitation on print copies of the U.S. Code, prohibits delivery of reports of disbursements, and prohibits delivery of daily calendar.

DIVISION I.—MILITARY CONSTRUCTION AND VETERANS AFFAIRS, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

Matters Addressed by Only One Committee.—The language and allocations set forth in House Report 113-416 and Senate Report 113-174 should be complied with unless specifically addressed to the contrary in this explanatory statement. Report language included by the House, which is not changed by the report of the Senate or this explanatory statement, and Senate report language, which is not changed by this explanatory statement, is approved by the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress. This explanatory statement, while repeating some report language for emphasis, does not intend to negate the language referred to above unless expressly provided herein. In cases where the House or the Senate has directed the submission of a report, such report is to be submitted to both Houses of Congress. House or Senate reporting requirements with deadlines prior to, or within 15 days after, enactment of this Act shall be submitted no later than 60 days after enactment of this Act. All other reporting deadlines not changed by this explanatory statement are to be met.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

Incrementally Funded Projects.—The Administration requested several large military construction projects that can be incrementally funded, but were instead submitted as large single-year requests, in accordance with a directive from the Office of Management and Budget to the Department of Defense (DOD) to severely restrict the use of incremental funding for military construction. The Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress (hereinafter, “the Committees”) have previously notified the Administration that they reserve the prerogative to provide incremental funding where appropriate, in accordance with authorizing legislation. In general, the agreement supports full funding for military construction projects. In some cases, however, incremental funding makes fiscal and programmatic sense. The agreement therefore incrementally funds the following projects: Fort Bliss Hospital Replacement, Texas, and Rhine Ordnance Barracks Medical Center Replacement, Germany.

Real Property.—It is important for DOD to eliminate wasteful spending on unused facilities and properties that have been rated at zero percent utilization. The DOD is urged to manage its facilities and properties in a responsible manner that does not waste taxpayer resources.

Defense Access Roads and Road Improvement Requirements at Military Installations.—Military construction budget constraints are negatively affecting the ability of the Department to address urgent transportation requirements at certain U.S. military installations. This includes both Defense Access Roads (DAR) and internal road improvements that are necessary for the safety and well-being of employees, both civilian and military. This problem is particularly acute on growth installations that serve as host commands for a variety of military departments.

Fort George G. Meade in Maryland is illustrative of the seriousness of this situation. Fort Meade is the epicenter of Department of Defense cyber security in the United States, a mission that has grown exponentially over the past few years. As a result, the Army, as the installation host, is tasked with providing the resources within its budget to support the infrastructure of not only the 6,000 Army personnel assigned to the base, but also of an additional 44,000 military and civilian employees representing other services and Defense agencies, primarily associated with the cyber security missions of the National Security Agency and the U.S. Cyber Command. The recent growth of these affiliated commands has put enormous pressure on the Army to provide necessary road and access improvements at Fort Meade, but as the host command, the Army has been unable to provide the military construction funding within its budget to accommodate these requirements. As a result, access to Fort Meade and traffic congestion on base present increasingly serious problems both on base and on surrounding public roads.

This problem is not unique to Fort Meade. In response to a directive in the report accompanying H.R. 4486, the House of Representatives Fiscal Year 2015 Military Construction, Veterans Affairs and Related Agencies Appropriations Bill, the Department submitted a list of certified unfunded DAR requirements totaling $92,900,000. Significantly, the report noted that these requirements do not compete well against other infrastructure requirements for declining military construction dollars and are not included in the current Future Years Defense Program.

There is concern that the Department does not have a coherent strategy to address the growing problem of access and traffic congestion on installations experiencing rapid growth during a time of severe budget constraints. As a result, traffic congestion and safety concerns on both internal base roads and public connecting roads at growth installations are likely to increase.

Therefore, the Department is directed to submit to the congressional defense committees with the fiscal year 2016 military construction budget request the following reports:

- An updated list of certified unfunded Defense Access Road requirements;
- A list of unfunded requirements for internal road improvements at military installations (1) which have experienced a growth rate of 10 percent or more in tenant populations within the past five years, or (2) where tenant organizations comprise more than 50 percent of the workforce; and
- Recommendations of ways in which the Department can facilitate the contribution and coordination of multiple service and Defense agency components of an installation's population to address unfunded base access and internal transportation requirements.

Each of the services is further directed to submit, with the fiscal year 2016 military construction budget request, a list of unfunded internal road improvement requirements on installations that host other service or Defense agency organizations that could be accomplished within the limit for unspecified minor construction as established in the fiscal year 2015 National Defense Authorization Act, and a plan for how those requirements will be incorporated into their minor construction requests for fiscal years 2017 through 2021.

Unfunded Quality of Life Military Construction Requirements.—Increasingly severe budget constraints have resulted in a precipitous decline in funding for essential quality of life (QOL) military construction requirements, including child development centers, physical fitness facilities and troop housing. Both the Department and the services have acknowledged that they are taking risk in their military construction programs, especially QOL requirements, to provide additional funds for operational readiness.

Unfortunately, deferral of needed QOL investment can adversely impact troop readiness and jeopardize the health and safety of service members. Undersized, overcrowded, and poorly equipped physical fitness centers can impede strength, endurance, and agility training, which are key to troop readiness across all services. Deteriorating barracks can harbor health hazards, such as mold and mildew, and pose other safety concerns. Prolonged waiting lists for child care due to unfunded child development center requirements can endanger the well-being of children and create additional stress on military personnel and their families.

In an era in which repeated combat deployments have imposed increased strain on the military, the assurance of adequate QOL facilities on military installations is of paramount importance to the readiness, health, and well-being of military personnel and their families.

The fiscal year 2015 Senate Military Construction, Veterans Affairs and Related Agencies Appropriations Bill provided additional funding for unfunded QOL military construction requirements identified by the services, subject to authorization. However, no additional funding for QOL projects was authorized in either the fiscal year 2015 Senate or House of Representatives Defense authorization bills.

The Department is therefore directed to provide, with the submission of the fiscal year 2016 budget request, a prioritized list of unfunded QOL requirements to include, but not limited to, troop housing, child development and youth centers, and physical fitness centers, for each of the services, and a plan across the Future Years Defense Program to address these requirements.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, ARMY

The agreement provides $528,427,000 for Military Construction, Army. Within this amount, the agreement provides $51,127,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services, and host nation support.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, NAVY AND MARINE CORPS

The agreement provides $1,018,772,000 for Military Construction, Navy and Marine Corps. Within this amount, the agreement provides $33,366,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, AIR FORCE

The agreement provides $811,774,000 for Military Construction, Air Force. Within this amount, the agreement provides $10,738,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, DEFENSE-WIDE (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $1,991,690,000 for Military Construction, Defense-Wide. Within this amount, the agreement provides $162,240,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services. Within this amount, $58,704,000 is provided for the Missile Defense Agency planning and design account, which is an increase of $20,000,000 over the request. The additional funding is to expedite the construction and deployment of urgently needed missile defense assets, including the second Aegis Ashore system in Redzikowo, Poland, and the Long Range Discrimination Radar in the Pacific Region.

Energy Conservation Investment Program (ECIP).—The agreement provides $150,000,000 for ECIP. Additionally, the agreement provides $10,000,000 in dedicated funding for ECIP planning and design as requested in the budget. The agreement supports the efforts of the Department of Defense to promote energy conservation, green building initiatives, energy security, and investment in renewable energy resources. The Department and the Services are commended for making energy efficiency a key component of construction on military installations. The Department is urged to use the dedicated planning and design funds to invest in innovative renewable energy projects as well as projects that enhance energy security at military installations.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, ARMY NATIONAL GUARD

The agreement provides $128,920,000 for Military Construction, Army National Guard. Within this amount, the agreement provides $17,600,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, AIR NATIONAL GUARD

The agreement provides $92,663,000 for Military Construction, Air National Guard. Within this amount, the agreement provides $7,700,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, ARMY RESERVE

The agreement provides $103,946,000 for Military Construction, Army Reserve. Within this amount, the agreement provides $8,337,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, NAVY RESERVE

The agreement provides $51,528,000 for Military Construction, Navy Reserve. Within this amount, the agreement provides $2,123,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, AIR FORCE RESERVE

The agreement provides $49,492,000 for Military Construction, Air Force Reserve. Within this amount, the agreement provides $6,892,000 for study, planning, design, architect and engineer services.

NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION SECURITY INVESTMENT PROGRAM

The agreement provides $199,700,000 for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Security Investment Program.

FAMILY HOUSING CONSTRUCTION, ARMY

The agreement provides $78,609,000 for Family Housing Construction, Army.

FAMILY HOUSING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, ARMY

The agreement provides $350,976,000 for Family Housing Operation and Maintenance, Army.

FAMILY HOUSING CONSTRUCTION, NAVY AND MARINE CORPS

The agreement provides $16,412,000 for Family Housing Construction, Navy and Marine Corps.

FAMILY HOUSING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, NAVY AND MARINE CORPS

The agreement provides $354,029,000 for Family Housing Operation and Maintenance, Navy and Marine Corps.

FAMILY HOUSING CONSTRUCTION, AIR FORCE

The agreement does not provide funds for Family Housing Construction, Air Force. The budget request did not propose funds.

FAMILY HOUSING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, AIR FORCE

The agreement provides $327,747,000 for Family Housing Operation and Maintenance, Air Force.

FAMILY HOUSING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, DEFENSE-WIDE

The agreement provides $61,100,000 for Family Housing Operation and Maintenance, Defense-Wide.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE FAMILY HOUSING IMPROVEMENT FUND

The agreement provides $1,662,000 for the Department of Defense Family Housing Improvement Fund.

CHEMICAL DEMILITARIZATION CONSTRUCTION, DEFENSE-WIDE

The agreement provides $38,715,000 for Chemical Demilitarization Construction, Defense-Wide.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE BASE CLOSURE ACCOUNT

The agreement provides $315,085,000 for the Department of Defense Base Closure Account, $45,000,000 above the request. The additional funding is for the Navy to accelerate environmental remediation at installations closed under previous Base Closure and Realignment rounds.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS (INCLUDING TRANSFERS AND RESCISSIONS OF FUNDS)

The agreement includes section 101 limiting the use of funds under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract.

The agreement includes section 102 allowing the use of construction funds in this title for hire of passenger motor vehicles.

The agreement includes section 103 allowing the use of construction funds in this title for advances to the Federal Highway Administration for the construction of access roads.

The agreement includes section 104 prohibiting construction of new bases in the United States without a specific appropriation.

The agreement includes section 105 limiting the use of funds for the purchase of land or land easements that exceed 100 percent of the value.

The agreement includes section 106 prohibiting the use of funds, except funds appropriated in this title for that purpose, for family housing.

The agreement includes section 107 limiting the use of minor construction funds to transfer or relocate activities.

The agreement includes section 108 prohibiting the procurement of steel unless American producers, fabricators, and manufacturers have been allowed to compete.

The agreement includes section 109 prohibiting the use of construction or family housing funds to pay real property taxes in any foreign nation.

The agreement includes section 110 prohibiting the use of funds to initiate a new installation overseas without prior notification.

The agreement includes section 111 as modified, establishing a preference for American architectural and engineering services for overseas projects.

The agreement includes section 112 as modified, establishing a preference for American contractors in United States territories and possessions in the Pacific and on Kwajalein Atoll and in countries bordering the Arabian Gulf. The Department's military construction program remains key to advancing U.S. security interests in these regions.

The agreement includes section 113 requiring congressional notification of military exercises when construction costs exceed $100,000.

The agreement includes section 114 limiting obligations in the last two months of the fiscal year.

The agreement includes section 115 allowing funds appropriated in prior years for new projects authorized during the current session of Congress.

The agreement includes section 116 allowing the use of expired or lapsed funds to pay the cost of supervision for any project being completed with lapsed funds.

The agreement includes section 117 allowing military construction funds to be available for five years.

The agreement includes section 118 allowing the transfer of proceeds between BRAC accounts.

The agreement includes section 119 as modified, allowing the transfer of funds from Family Housing Construction accounts to the Family Housing Improvement Fund.

VETERANS BENEFITS ADMINISTRATION
COMPENSATION AND PENSIONS
(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $79,071,000,000 for Compensation and Pensions, reflecting new estimates provided in the Administration's mid-session review. Of the amount provided, not more than $15,430,000 is to be transferred to General Operating Expenses, Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) and Information Technology Systems for reimbursement of necessary expenses in implementing provisions of title 38.

READJUSTMENT BENEFITS

The agreement provides $14,997,136,000 for Readjustment Benefits, reflecting new estimates provided in the Administration's mid-session review.

VETERANS INSURANCE AND INDEMNITIES

The agreement provides $63,257,000 for Veterans Insurance and Indemnities.

VETERANS HOUSING BENEFIT PROGRAM FUND

The agreement provides such sums as may be necessary for costs associated with direct and guaranteed loans for the Veterans Housing Benefit Program Fund. The agreement limits obligations for direct loans to not more than $500,000 and provides that $160,881,000 shall be available for administrative expenses.

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The agreement provides $10,000 for the cost of direct loans from the Vocational Rehabilitation Loans Program Account, plus $361,000 to be paid to the appropriation for General Operating Expenses, Veterans Benefits Administration. The agreement provides for a direct loan limitation of $2,877,000.

NATIVE AMERICAN VETERAN HOUSING LOAN PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The agreement provides $1,130,000 for administrative expenses of the Native American Veteran Housing Loan Program Account.

VETERANS HEALTH ADMINISTRATION MEDICAL SERVICES

The agreement provides $47,603,202,000 in advance for fiscal year 2016 for Medical Services. The agreement also provides $209,189,000 for fiscal year 2015 in addition to the advance appropriation provided last year.

In an effort to address the severe crisis of access to medical care at many Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) hospitals and clinics across the country, Congress took the unusual step of creating as part of the Veterans Access, Choice, and Accountability Act of 2014 (VACAA) a new contract care program designed for veterans who live more than 40 miles from a VA facility or who have to wait an unreasonable time for medical appointments, funding this effort with a total of $10,000,000,000 over three years. In addition, section 801(a) of VACAA provided an additional $5,000,000,000 to increase veterans access to healthcare and improve VA's physical infrastructure. This funding is in addition to the funds appropriated in this Act or the advance funding provided in the fiscal year 2014 appropriations Act, although the appropriated funds are used for many of the same purposes as those provided in VACAA. At this time, the VA is developing the programs to administer the new VACAA authority, and there are many uncertainties about which activities can be funded with which authority, and whether there are significant unfunded liabilities created by the new legislation. To address this uncertainty, the agreement includes bill language permitting the transfer of funding from various VA appropriations accounts to Medical Services to address any unfunded needs.

Rural Healthcare—The agreement includes $250,000,000 for rural healthcare, as requested. This funding continues the Rural Health Initiative established by Congress in fiscal year 2009 to ensure that the VA dedicates sufficient resources to reach veterans residing in rural and highly rural areas who do not have immediate access to a veterans medical center or community-based outpatient clinic. The VA is strongly encouraged to continue to improve the accessibility, efficiency and effectiveness of care for rural veterans.

The funds provided for the Rural Health Initiative include support for Project Access Received Closer to Home (Project ARCH). Section 104 of the VACAA extended the authorization of Project ARCH for an additional two years. The Project ARCH pilot program has been successful for veterans who are enrolled in VA healthcare in five rural and highly rural Veterans Integrated Service Networks (VISNs). Prior to program reauthorization, the Senate bill included an administrative provision (section 237) directing the Department of Veterans Affairs to utilize existing authorities to continue the program at no less than $35,000,000 in fiscal year 2015. This level of funding was intended to allow the VA to continue the program so that veterans depending on the services provided by Project ARCH did not experience any lapse in service until follow-on programs were proven adequate. In addition, the funding level was intended to provide for the expansion of the program to other rural and highly rural areas. Since the Project ARCH authorization has been extended, this agreement does not include the Senate proposed administrative provision. However, the VA is directed to continue funding the program at no less than the estimated fiscal year 2015 funding level and to consider utilizing existing authorities to provide contract care for veterans in other rural and highly rural areas.

The agreement incorporates directions in the House and Senate reports regarding providing an operating plan for the Office of Rural Health, including information on full-time equivalent (FTE) requirements and future requirements for initiatives and programs. As directed in the Senate report, the VA is instructed to conduct a comprehensive needs assessment of veterans in rural and highly rural areas who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless. The agreement incorporates the Senate direction regarding filling healthcare professional vacancies, especially in rural areas, and Health Professional Shortage Areas with the greatest need. The agreement also reflects the Senate direction to the VA to conduct a full assessment of all community-based outpatient clinics in rural and highly rural areas.

The agreement includes $7,448,900,000 for mental health programs in fiscal year 2016 and $436,700,000 for gender-specific healthcare for women veterans in fiscal year 2016.

Concerns continue to be raised in Congress about vacant mental health provider positions at VA clinics, especially in locations where the VA does not receive suitable applications for published job notices. There are several positions in high cost rural and highly rural areas that continue to be vacant for many months after a previous provider's departure, and the VA is not offering competitive salaries. In addition to the elements of the report already requested in House Report 113-416, the VHA is instructed to detail the steps the VA will take to hire replacements after no more than 120 days of a vacancy. The VA is to provide a comprehensive list of current vacant mental health positions, highlighting vacancies in rural and highly rural areas and how long those positions have been vacant. Further, VHA is instructed to provide the VA proposed salary range as well as the salary range of a private provider in the same city.

Women Veterans—Despite efforts over the past few years, the VA must make better progress at addressing the needs of women veterans. Toward this end, the advance appropriation for fiscal year 2015 provided last year and the fiscal year 2016 advance appropriation included in this Act fully fund gender-specific healthcare. Access to and utilization of VA benefits and services by women veterans remain low, with women often encountering cultural roadblocks in a system that was largely designed to meet the needs of male veterans. As part of an effort to better address access, the Department is currently undertaking a system-wide review to determine what type and number of healthcare workers the system should have to address current and future demand. The Department is directed to include in this review whether VHA's current number of healthcare professionals providing gender-specific care is adequate. This review will help the VA properly staff hospitals and clinics with healthcare professionals providing gender-specific care and lead to improved access for women veterans.

Understanding demand is key to providing high-quality services, yet the VA does not collect, analyze, and publish data by gender or minority status. This type of data is essential for the VA and Congress to enhance services for women veterans by developing programs and ensuring adequate funding levels of those programs. The stratification of data would also allow the VA to better understand the demand mix in the system, how it is being met, and what changes need to be implemented to the system to meet current and future trends. The Department is directed through the Women's Health Service and the Center for Women Veterans to collect and analyze gender-specific data and to develop programs and funding recommendations based on this data.

To better assist women veterans and increase their knowledge of the services and benefits to which they are entitled, the Department is directed to continue the Women Veterans Call Center (WVCC). The WVCC answers questions and responds to concerns from women veterans, their families, and caregivers across the Nation about VA services and resources. Additionally, in an effort to leverage the VA's existing local community partnerships, such as those for homeless veterans, the VA should establish support networks for women veterans to assist in accessing healthcare, employment services, financial counseling, and housing.

None of the VA's partnerships is more important than that with the DOD. High priority collaboration and resource sharing between the VA and the DOD are governed by the Joint Executive Committee (JEC). The JEC allows senior leadership at both Departments a forum to develop policies and programs to address overlapping priorities, including transition programs for veterans. While the JEC, through its subordinate committees and working groups, has made tremendous progress in addressing several pressing issues facing active duty military and veterans, there is currently no working group focused solely on the transition of women from active duty to veteran status. The VA, in consultation with the DOD, is encouraged to establish a women's working group within the JEC aimed at creating or strengthening transition programs which address female concerns and cultural roadblocks so that more women veterans access VA benefits and services.

Recent studies have shown that service-women who experience sexual assault while serving in the military are far more likely to develop post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) compared to other female veterans. The VA must be prepared to provide these veterans with mental health services designed to treat the effects of military sexual trauma (MST). The Department is directed to maximize the availability of mental health services available to veterans who were victims of MST.

Physician Ambassadors Helping Veterans Program—In some communities non-VA physicians have encountered difficulties when seeking to volunteer time at VA medical facilities. Under existing authority, Section 7405(a)(1) of title 38, United States Code, the Secretary may appoint on a without compensation basis such personnel found necessary for the provision of healthcare for veterans. At medical facilities exhibiting staffing shortages and appointment backlogs due to waiting time issues, the VA is urged to utilize this existing authority to appoint physicians on a volunteer basis to serve veterans' healthcare needs at VA medical facilities.

To further understand the benefit to the Department of the utilization of volunteer physicians, the VA is directed to establish a three-year pilot program, under the authorities contained in Section 7405(a)(1) of title 38, United States Code, entitled the "Physician Ambassadors Helping Veterans Program." The Secretary is directed to establish this pilot program in no fewer than two medical facilities in two distinct VISNs. The Secretary is urged to select medical facilities for this pilot program that have a demonstrated need for additional physicians in any practice area or specialty, yet have been unable to expeditiously fill such vacancies and/or continue to exceed VA's appointment waiting time goals in any area of practice.

Each pilot location shall establish a volunteer coordinator who shall develop relationships with local medical associations to educate non-VA physicians in the area about the program. The volunteer coordinator shall be the initial point of contact for physicians seeking to volunteer at the medical facility.

Due to the cost and effort exerted to credential and educate physicians for such volunteer opportunities, the Department, as part of this pilot program, shall establish a required number of hours per year physician ambassadors must commit to serving at a facility that is cost beneficial to the Department. This metric should be no fewer than 60 hours a year and no more than 100 hours a year, though there is no limit to the total number of hours a physician ambassador may volunteer a year. The medical facility shall enter into agreement with the physician ambassadors regarding the minimum number of hours required before beginning the credentialing or privilege granting process.

The Department is directed to provide a report no later than 90 days after enactment of this Act to the Committees on Appropriations and the Veterans Affairs Committees of both Houses of Congress detailing the current credentialing process for volunteer physicians, the current cost of credentialing volunteer physicians, and the current utilization rate of volunteer physicians. This report shall also outline the parameters of the pilot program and the reasons for choosing the participating VISNs and facilities.

The Department is also directed to report quarterly, beginning with the first quarter after enactment of this Act, to the Committees on Appropriations and the Veterans Affairs Committees of both Houses of Congress the number of physician ambassadors participating in the pilot program; the number of hours per week physician ambassadors volunteer; the process of bringing on board physician volunteers, to include the amount of time elapsed from the date a physician contacts the facility expressing interest in volunteering, to the time the volunteer and the medical facility enter into an agreement regarding the minimum number of hours required, to the date of completion of the credentialing process; and the appointment waiting times and staffing shortages at each facility. This report shall also include a comparison to an equal number of medical facilities not participating in the pilot program to determine if mandating a minimum number of hours required improves volunteer participation and increases the cost-benefit to the Department.

The agreement reiterates the language in the Senate report directing the VA to provide regular updates on its efforts to rebalance institutional and home-based care, including what metrics have been developed to track implementation.

The agreement incorporates the direction in the Senate report for the VA to provide more detailed explanations within its budget justifications about data that have been modified for the updated actuarial model. The agreement also incorporates the House direction to the VA to provide a healthcare expenditure plan within 20 days of receiving a full-year appropriation.

MEDICAL SUPPORT AND COMPLIANCE

The agreement provides $6,144,000,000 in advance for fiscal year 2016 for Medical Support and Compliance.

The Office of the Medical Inspector (OMI) of the Veterans Health Administration (VHA) is directed to provide the Committees a semi-annual report describing the problems or deficiencies in the VHA identified by the OMI; whether the General Counsel of the Department has reviewed these OMI findings; any violations of law by an employee of the Department identified in the OMI review, with identity redacted; and what legal or administrative action was taken.

MEDICAL FACILITIES

The agreement provides $4,915,000,000 in advance for fiscal year 2016 for Medical Facilities.

The agreement incorporates the House directive requiring the VA to provide a report explaining how non-recurring maintenance projects are rated, scheduled, and budgeted.

MEDICAL AND PROSTHETIC RESEARCH

The agreement provides $588,922,000 for Medical and Prosthetic Research, available until September 30, 2016.

NATIONAL CEMETERY ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides $256,800,000 for the National Cemetery Administration. Of the amount provided, $25,600,000 is available until September 30, 2016.

Public Law 113-6 required the National Cemetery Administration (NCA) to develop a strategy that included eight elements to serve the burial needs of veterans residing in rural areas and mandated the Government Accountability Office (GAO) to review the strategy. The GAO review of the VA strategy was completed in September 2014. The Department is instructed to report to the Committees within 90 days of enactment of this Act explaining why it has not included in its strategy all eight elements mandated by Congress and why it has not accepted the GAO recommendation to use census tract level data to calculate the veteran population served, since the GAO analysis demonstrates that the VA's use of county level data understates the number and location of unserved veterans.

DEPARTMENTAL ADMINISTRATION

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $321,591,000 for General Administration. Of the amount provided, $9,660,000 is available for obligation until September 30, 2016. The agreement continues to include language permitting the transfer of funds from this account to General Operating Expenses, Veterans Benefits Administration.

The agreement includes the following funding levels:

[In thousands of dollars]
Office	Amount
Office of the Secretary .....	$10,032
Office of General Counsel .....	80,365
Office of Management .....	44,098
Office of Human Resources and Administration .....	62,064
Office of Policy and Planning .....	25,009
Office of Operations, Security and Preparedness .....	17,901
Office of Public and Intergovernmental Affairs .....	22,279
Office of Congressional and Legislative Affairs .....	5,969
Office of Acquisition, Logistics and Construction .....	53,874
Total .....	$321,591

The Department is required to submit an annual report identifying the amount of third party health billings owed to the VA, the annual amount collected, and efforts underway to increase the efficiency and accuracy in the collections process. The report should describe the VA's contingency plan to ensure that the provision of healthcare does not suffer should there be a failure to meet billing and collection expectations.

In an effort to improve management and reduce redundancy, the Department has undertaken a review of its organizational structure and will potentially reorganize many functions within the VA. The Department is directed to report on a monthly basis to the Committees the status of reorganization within the Department. The Department is also reminded that while the Committees reserve the right to call upon all offices for information, the primary point of communication should be through the Office of Management. The Committees require timely access to the Department's professional budget staff in order to effectively and efficiently evaluate resource requirements and proposals requested by the Administration. Any reorganization with regard to budgetary matters should take this into consideration. In addition to concerns about the principal point of contact in the VA, Department leadership should be aware that there are continuing problems with the Department's lack of responsiveness to the Committees' information requests, as well as lack of detail in responses when finally received.

BOARD OF VETERANS APPEALS

The agreement provides $99,294,000 for the Board of Veterans Appeals, of which not to exceed $9,429,000 shall remain available until September 30, 2016. Bill language is included in section 239 permitting the VA to transfer funding between this account and the General Operating Expenses, Veterans Benefits Administration account if needed to align funding with the appropriate account to hire staff to address the appeals backlog. The agreement also includes the Senate report directive to the VA to refresh the Department's strategic plan to transform the appeals process.

GENERAL OPERATING EXPENSES, VETERANS BENEFITS ADMINISTRATION

The agreement provides $2,534,254,000 for General Operating Expenses, Veterans Benefits Administration and makes available not to exceed $124,000,000 of this funding until the end of fiscal year 2016.

Disability Claims Processing.—The backlog of veterans compensation claims for service-connected disabilities remains one of the most pressing problems at the VA. Despite progress made over the past year and the efforts of the VA to improve its processes, increase staffing, and increase automation, it is clear that problems persist, and more needs to be done to ensure that veterans are receiving timely access to the benefits they have earned. To that end, the agreement includes provisions to give the VA additional tools to address the backlog and strengthen accountability. This effort is focused not only on production but also on accuracy in an effort to ensure veterans receive fair compensation at the outset and do not encounter additional delays by having to appeal decisions.

To further the reforms instituted by the Committees in response to the backlog, the agreement:

—Includes $40,000,000 above the budget request to hire additional claims and support personnel at the regional offices; to expand the Veterans Claims Intake Program records scanning system; and to implement the centralized mail initiative. The VA is instructed to provide a spending plan for this funding within 30 days of enactment of this Act.

—Directs the VA to continue to provide quality review teams and to conduct spot audits at regional offices to assess the performance of claims processing operations and flag any management or operational weaknesses.

—Includes bill language in section 239 permitting the transfer of funding between this account and the Board of Veterans Appeals if necessary to permit the hiring of staffing at the appropriate stage of the appeals process to address mounting claims appeals workload.

—Continues the requirement first enacted for fiscal year 2014 to provide rigorous, publicly available Web-based monthly reports to the Committees on performance measures for each regional office, including the number of backlogged claims, the average number of days to complete a claim, and error rates.

—Continues the fiscal year 2014 requirement to submit quarterly reports that include the number of claims personnel in each regional office, corrective action taken to remedy any problems at poorly performing offices, training programs undertaken by regional offices, and quality review team audits performed during the quarter.

—Requires the VA to report whether it is feasible to conduct a study to analyze data regarding the statistical progression of disabilities over time and whether this data could be used to more quickly adjudicate claims for increased compensation.

—Directs the VA to develop a plan to execute a uniform mail processing and scanning system throughout all regional offices.

—Directs the VA to contract with the National Academy of Public Administration to review the Department's planned claims processing activities and strategies to prevent future claims processing backlogs.

Eradicating the veterans benefits claims backlog must remain a top priority of the VA, and the agency will continue to be closely monitored to assess progress on this front.

To inform the Committees of its progress in resolving issues of paper claims record retention, the VA is directed to report the status of its work with the Department of Defense (DOD): in obtaining certification of the Veterans Benefits Management System's (VBMS) compliance with DOD data storage requirements; in finalizing the Memorandum of Agreement with DOD allowing DOD appropriate access to electronic records maintained by the VA; and in developing a plan and timeline for selecting courses of action for resolving the storage of paper service treatment records and the associated costs. The report should also include VA plans to brief the various veterans service organizations on the improvements made in the scanning process and its approach and safeguards for transferring the documents to DOD, as well as the VA plan for the most efficient utilization of its office and storage warehouse space once the records are transferred back to DOD.

The VBA has begun to develop and implement new training initiatives and procedures for PTSD claims related to military sexual trauma (MST). The Department is directed to continue to publicize benefits veterans may be entitled to as a result of MST. As stipulated in Senate Report 113-174, the Department is directed to submit a report on the current standard of proof for service-connection under chapter 11 of title 38, U.S.C., for covered mental health conditions based on military sexual trauma. The agreement also incorporates the House direction regarding reporting data sets of information regarding military sexual trauma-related claims.

The agreement incorporates the House direction prohibiting a change in the location of VBA regional offices without providing the Committees a cost-benefit analysis and information on benefits to veterans and operational efficiency.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SYSTEMS (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $3,903,344,000 for Information Technology (IT) Systems. The agreement identifies separately the funding available for pay ($1,039,000,000); operations and maintenance ($2,316,009,000); and systems development, modernization, and enhancement ($548,335,000). The agreement makes $30,792,000 of pay funding available until the end of fiscal year 2016; $160,000,000 of operations and maintenance funding available until the end of fiscal year 2016; and all IT systems development, modernization and enhancement funding available until the end of fiscal year 2016.

The agreement includes $137,000,000 in information technology funding for VBMS; $99,614,000 in information technology funding for the Veterans Relationship Management System; and $343,614,000 for total funding of the interoperable electronic health record (both VHA and IT funding).

The agreement assumes an additional $20,000,000 above the request will be used for additional hardware upgrades at regional offices to ensure that increased VBMS functionality can be supported in the field. The Secretary is directed to report to the Committees within 30 days after enactment of this Act how the Department is implementing this directive.

The agreement includes language prohibiting the obligation of IT development, modernization, and enhancement funding until the VA submits a certification of the amounts to be obligated, in part or in full, for each development project.

The agreement includes language permitting funding made available for the three IT subaccounts to be transferred among them after the VA requests and receives approval from the Committees.

The agreement includes language providing that funding may be transferred between development projects or to new projects subject to the Committees' approval.

The agreement provides $269,406,000 for the VistA Evolution interoperable health record and $74,208,000 for the interoperability actions taking place within the Interagency Program Office (IPO) and the execution of the Virtual Lifetime Electronic Health Record (VLER Health). As with the fiscal year 2014 bill, the fiscal year 2015 agreement includes a prohibition on obligation or expenditure of more than 25 percent of fiscal year 2015 funds provided for development, modernization, and enhancement of the Department's VistA electronic health record until the Department meets reporting and accountability requirements that are similar to those in the House and Senate bills.

The agreement for the DOD appropriations bill includes similar electronic health record requirements.

The agreement requires the VA to provide quarterly briefings to the Committees regarding schedule, milestones, and obligations for the VistA Evolution program, as directed in the Senate report. It also requires quarterly briefings from the IPO on the electronic health record interoperability project and monthly updates to the Federal Chief Information Officer of the United States, as directed in the Senate report. In addition, the agreement requires the VA to report on the process the VA and DOD will follow to establish security standards and identify technology to secure data, as directed in the Senate report.

Bill language is included making funds available for IT development, modernization, and enhancement for the projects and in the amounts specified in the following table:

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS (In thousands of dollars)

Project	Amount
Access to Healthcare .....	$9,686
Healthcare Efficiency IT Development .....	10,723
Electronic Health Record Interoperability/VLER Health ...	49,208
VistA Evolution .....	179,922
New Models of Care .....	30,551
Veterans Benefits Management System (VBMS) .....	63,500
Virtual Lifetime Electronic Record (VLER) .....	18,600
Veterans Relationship Management (VRM) .....	76,600
Health Management Platform .....	5,746
Other IT Systems Development .....	103,799
Total All Development .....	$548,335

This table is intended to serve as the Department's approved list of development projects; any requested changes are subject to reprogramming guidelines.

The agreement directs the Department to continue to provide an IT expenditure plan to the Committees within 30 days of enactment of this Act and on a monthly basis thereafter, as indicated in both the House and Senate reports. This plan should be in the same format as the table above.

The pending Transformation Twenty-One Total Technology Next Generation (T4NG)

draft request for proposals will be the principal information technology procurement vehicle for the VA for up to ten years, with potential total funding of $23,000,000,000. With the complexity and magnitude of VA expenditures on information technology in areas such as electronic health records and appointment scheduling, it is important that the VA permit proposals from a wide range of firms, both large and small, veteran-owned and disabled veteran-owned, in order to benefit from the broad array of IT services that exist. The VA is urged to expand the number of awards under T4NG that are not reserved for particular categories of vendors in order to maximize its consideration of emerging technologies.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The agreement appropriates $126,411,000 for the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Of the amount provided, $12,141,000 is available for obligation until September 30, 2016. The increase above the budget request is intended to be used for ongoing responsibilities associated with the waitlist/appointment scheduling audits as well as the two reviews described below.

The OIG is instructed to review a complaint to the Montana Board of Psychologists reprimanding a VA psychologist in Ft. Harrison, Montana, for practicing outside the scope of his professional qualifications when performing a Compensation and Pensions examination for traumatic brain injury (TBI). The OIG review should address the specific Montana case, but also the protocols the VA uses for examinations for TBI throughout the VA medical system to judge whether the VA needs to revise its protocols nationwide.

Due to questions about VA residential substance abuse treatment in Miami, Florida, that have been raised by the VA OIG (Report No. 13-03089-104, March 27, 2014), the OIG is requested to conduct a broader review of the operations and effectiveness of VA substance abuse inpatient rehabilitation programs and report back to the Committees by August 1, 2015, on the following: the current number of VA inpatient rehabilitation programs; the annual number of veterans who participate and their average length of treatment; the average length of time for VA treatment compared to that of non-VA residential treatment programs; the rate of recidivism for both types of programs; the process used to refer patients to VA inpatient treatment; the degree of supervision of patients in VA programs and how often drug tests are performed; and how well mental health and substance abuse treatment are integrated for veterans with comorbidities.

CONSTRUCTION, MAJOR PROJECTS

The agreement provides $561,800,000 for Construction, Major Projects. The agreement makes this funding available for five years, except that $34,000,000 is made available until expended.

As requested in the House and Senate reports, the agreement requires an annual report on the process used to identify construction project priority listing and directs the VA to work collaboratively with other executive branch agencies with substantial construction portfolios, private sector contractors and other non-governmental experts to explore the feasibility of new funding mechanisms, such as private development lease-backs.

The agreement directs the VA to increase its use of design-build contracting processes and off-site construction methods, including prefabricated components and panelized structures.

The agreement funds the following items as requested in the budget submission:

CONSTRUCTION, MAJOR PROJECTS

(In thousands of dollars)

Location and description	Amount
Veterans Health Admin. (VHA):
West Los Angeles, CA seismic corrections .....	$35,000
Long Beach, CA seismic corrections, mental health and community living replacements .....	101,900
Canandaigua, NY community living center, outpatient clinic, and domiciliary .....	122,400
San Diego, CA spinal cord injury and seismic corrections .....	187,500
Advance Planning Fund—various locations .....	69,000
Major Construction Staff—various locations .....	24,000
Claims Analysis—various locations .....	2,000
Hazardous Waste—various locations .....	6,000
Total VHA .....	547,800
National Cemetery Admin. (NCA):
Advance Planning Fund—various locations .....	2,500
NCA Land Acquisition Fund .....	7,500
Total NCA .....	10,000
General Admin.:
Staff Offices Advance Planning Fund .....	4,000
Major Construction total .....	$561,800

The agreement acknowledges the inclusion of the prospectuses of two NCA projects—Ohio Western Reserve and National Cemetery of the Alleghenies, Pennsylvania—in the 2015 budget request so that these projects may be funded in the future if monies should become available through reprogramming.

CONSTRUCTION, MINOR PROJECTS

The agreement provides $495,200,000 for Construction, Minor Projects. The agreement makes this funding available for five years.

The agreement includes the directive to provide an expenditure plan within 30 days of enactment of this Act, as provided in the Senate report.

GRANTS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF STATE EXTENDED CARE FACILITIES

The agreement provides $90,000,000 for Grants for Construction of State Extended Care Facilities, to remain available until expended.

GRANTS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF VETERANS CEMETERIES

The agreement provides $46,000,000 for Grants for Construction of Veterans Cemeteries, to remain available until expended.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS (INCLUDING TRANSFERS AND RESCISSIONS OF FUNDS)

The agreement includes section 201 allowing for transfer of funds among the three mandatory accounts.

The agreement includes section 202 allowing for the transfer of funds among the three medical accounts.

The agreement includes section 203 allowing salaries and expenses funds to be used for related authorized purposes.

The agreement includes section 204 restricting the accounts that may be used for the acquisition of land or the construction of any new hospital or home.

The agreement includes section 205 limiting the use of funds in the Medical Services account only for entitled beneficiaries unless reimbursement is made to the Department.

The agreement includes section 206 allowing for the use of certain mandatory appropriations accounts for payment of prior year accrued obligations for those accounts.

The agreement includes section 207 allowing the use of appropriations available in this title to pay prior year obligations.

The agreement includes section 208 allowing the Department to use surplus earnings from the National Service Life Insurance Fund, the Veterans' Special Life Insurance Fund, and the United States Government Life Insurance Fund to administer these programs.

The agreement includes section 209 allowing the Department to cover the administrative expenses of enhanced-use leases and provides authority to obligate these reimbursements in the year in which the proceeds are received.

The agreement includes section 210 limiting the amount of reimbursement the Office of Resolution Management and the Office of Employment Discrimination Complaint Adjudication can charge other offices of the Department for services provided.

The agreement includes section 211 limiting the use of funds for any lease with an estimated annual rental cost of more than $1,000,000 unless approved by the Committees.

The agreement includes section 212 requiring the Department to collect third-party payer information for persons treated for a non-service connected disability.

The agreement includes section 213 allowing for the use of enhanced-use leasing revenues for Construction, Major Projects and Construction, Minor Projects.

The agreement includes section 214 outlining authorized uses for Medical Services funds.

The agreement includes section 215 allowing for funds deposited into the Medical Care Collections Fund to be transferred to the Medical Services account.

The agreement includes section 216 which allows Alaskan veterans to use medical facilities of the Indian Health Service or tribal organizations.

The agreement includes section 217 permitting the transfer of funds from the Department of Veterans Affairs Capital Asset Fund to the Construction, Major Projects and Construction, Minor Projects accounts and makes those funds available until expended.

The agreement includes section 218 prohibiting the use of funds for any policy prohibiting the use of outreach or marketing to enroll new veterans.

The agreement includes section 219 requiring the Secretary to submit quarterly reports on the financial status of the Veterans Health Administration.

The agreement includes section 220 requiring the Department to notify and receive approval from the Committees of any proposed transfer of funding to or from the Information Technology Systems account.

The agreement includes section 221 limiting the obligation of non-recurring maintenance funds during the last two months of the fiscal year.

The agreement does not include Senate section 221. The provision is carried as a government—wide provision in division E of this consolidated Act.

The agreement includes section 222 providing up to $259,251,213 for transfer to the Joint DOD-VA Medical Facility Demonstration Fund.

The agreement includes section 223 which permits $245,398,000 of fiscal year 2016 medical care funding to be transferred to the Joint DOD-VA Medical Facility Demonstration Fund.

The agreement includes section 224 which authorizes transfers from the Medical Care Collections Fund to the Joint DOD-VA Medical Facility Demonstration Fund.

The agreement includes section 225 which transfers at least $15,000,000 from VA medical accounts to the DOD-VA Health Care Sharing Incentive Fund.

The agreement includes section 226 which rescinds fiscal year 2015 medical account funding and re-appropriates it to be available for two years. The provision rescinds and re-appropriates $1,400,000,000 for Medical Services, rescinds and re-appropriates $100,000,000 for Medical Support and Compliance, and rescinds and re-appropriates $250,000,000 for Medical Facilities.

The agreement includes section 227 requiring that the Department notify the Committees of bid savings in major construction projects of at least $5,000,000 or five percent within 14 days of a contract identifying the programmed amount.

The agreement includes section 228 which prohibits the VA from increasing the scope of work for a major construction project above the scope specified in the original budget request.

The agreement includes section 229 requiring a quarterly report from each VBA regional office on pending disability claims, error rates, the number of claims processing personnel, corrective actions taken, training programs and review audit results.

The agreement includes section 230 requiring the VA to submit a reprogramming request whenever funding allocated in the expenditure plan for a Medical Care initiative differs by more than $25,000,000 from the allocation shown in the 2015 congressional budget justification.

The agreement includes section 231 limiting the funding from the Medical Services and Medical Support and Compliance accounts for the VistA Evolution and electronic health record interoperability projects.

The agreement includes section 232 requiring the VA to notify the Committees 15 days prior to any staff office relocations within the VA of 25 or more FTE.

The agreement includes section 233 rescinding $41,000,000 in VA discretionary funds to be allocated from fiscal year 2015 funding provided in this Act or in advance in other appropriations Acts. These funds constitute the savings created by section 705 of the Veterans Access, Choice, and Accountability Act of 2014, which limits the aggregate amount of awards and bonuses paid by the Secretary in fiscal year 2015 to $360,000,000. The Secretary is directed to allocate the rescission in alignment with the amount of funding allocated for awards in each appropriation account and to report this allocation to the Committees within 20 days of enactment of this Act.

The agreement includes section 234 requiring the Secretary to report to the Committees each quarter about any single national outreach and awareness marketing campaign exceeding $2,000,000.

The agreement includes section 235 prohibiting the closing of VA medical facilities in VISN 23 as part of a planned realignment of VA services until the Secretary meets a series of reporting requirements.

The agreement includes section 236 prohibiting funds available to the Department in this or any other Act from being used to replace the current system by which VISNs select and contract for diabetes monitoring supplies and equipment.

The agreement includes section 237 prohibiting funding provided in this Act or prior years to duplicate the capacity of contractor-provided dialysis care until the later of September 30, 2015, or the full independent evaluation of the four-site dialysis pilot program being conducted by the VA.

The agreement includes section 238 permitting the transfer to the Medical Services account of fiscal year discretionary 2015 funds appropriated in this Act or available from advance fiscal year 2015 funds already appropriated, except for funds appropriated to General Operating Expenses, VBA, to address possible unmet, high priority needs in Medical Services. Such unanticipated demands may result from circumstances such as increased utilization of Caregiver program benefits, newly available hepatitis C medications, or VACAA requirements. Any such transfer requires the approval of the Committees.

The agreement includes section 239 permitting the transfer of funding between the General Operating Expenses, Veterans Benefits Administration account and the Board of Veterans Appeals account if necessary to permit the hiring of staffing at the appropriate stage of the appeals process to address mounting claims appeals workload. Any such transfer requires the approval of the Committees.

The agreement includes section 240 rescinding $15,000,000 in unobligated balances in the DOD-VA Health Care Sharing Incentive Fund.

The agreement includes section 241 expanding the contract disability examinations pilot program authorized in section 504 of the Veterans' Benefits Improvements Act of 1996 to not more than twelve regional offices in 2015; fifteen in 2016; and the number considered appropriate by the Secretary in 2017 and beyond.

The agreement includes section 242 clarifying that the payment rates used by the VA for VA medical care in the State of Alaska and in those States with an all-payer model agreement under the Social Security Act that became effective on January 1, 2014, should also be used in implementation of the Veterans Access, Choice, and Accountability Act of 2014.

The agreement includes section 243 changing the eligibility period for VA health benefits under the Honoring America's Veterans and Caring for Camp Lejeune Families Act of 2012 (P.L. 112-154) from a minimum 30-day presence at Camp Lejeune during the period of January 1, 1957, through December 31, 1987 to the period from August 1, 1953, to December 31, 1987. This date change conforms to more recent contamination information from the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry.

The agreement includes section 244 creating the authority to provide advance appropriations for three mandatory VA programs within the Veterans Benefits Administration—Compensation and Pensions, Readjustment Benefits, and Veterans Insurance and Indemnities.

TITLE III—RELATED AGENCIES AMERICAN BATTLE MONUMENTS COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement includes $74,100,000 for Salaries and Expenses of the American Battle Monuments Commission (ABMC). The agreement provides an additional $4,000,000 above the budget request to support ABMC's interpretive program and nonrecurring maintenance needs.

FOREIGN CURRENCY FLUCTUATIONS ACCOUNT

The agreement includes such sums as necessary, estimated at $1,900,000 for the Foreign Currency Fluctuations Account.

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement includes $31,386,000 for Salaries and Expenses. The United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims (Court) is the last step in the VA claims process and has exclusive jurisdiction to review decisions made by the Board of Veterans Appeals (BVA). The number of appeals filed with the Court is generally affected by the number of claims processed by the BVA. For the past two years, Congress has increased funding for BVA to hire additional staff and attorneys to address the BVA appeals backlog, and the Court needs to prepare for an increase in appeals as this backlog is resolved. The Court is directed to undertake a five year strategic analysis to determine whether staffing, including the number of judges, will need to grow to handle future demand. The Court is directed to submit this analysis to Congress with the fiscal year 2016 budget request.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE—CIVIL CEMETERIAL EXPENSES, ARMY

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $65,800,000 for Salaries and Expenses, which includes $20,000,000 to address the maintenance and infrastructure repairs proposed for funding through the Operation and Maintenance, Army account. The Committee directs that future budget requests will include all funding proposed for Arlington National Cemetery, to include any funding required for cemetery expansion, within the Cemeterial Expenses, Army account. Language is included to make $3,000,000 available until September 30, 2016.

ARMED FORCES RETIREMENT HOME TRUST FUND

The agreement includes $63,400,000 for the Armed Forces Retirement Home, to be derived from the Trust Fund.

Standardization of Healthcare Delivery.—The Committee is in receipt of DOD IG Report, DODIG-2014-093, "Inspection of the Armed Forces Retirement Home" (AFRH) and notes this report makes numerous recommendations regarding the health and well-being of our Nation's veterans currently served by the AFRH. The Chief Operating Officer of the AFRH is directed to submit a report to the Committees not later than 120 days after enactment of this Act, on the status and implementation of recommendations 3.a, 7.b, and 14.b. The report should include specific actions taken to implement the recommendations.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

The agreement includes section 301 permitting funds to be provided to Arlington County, Virginia, for the relocation of a water main located on the Arlington National Cemetery property.

TITLE IV—OVERSEAS CONTINGENCY OPERATIONS

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

The agreement includes a new title IV, Overseas Contingency Operations, for military construction projects related to the Global War on Terrorism and the European Reassurance Initiative that were requested by the Administration in the FY 2015 Overseas Contingency Operations (OCO) budget request. The OCO request was submitted to Congress subsequent to congressional consideration of the FY 2015 Military Construction, Veterans Affairs and Related Agencies Appropriations bills.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION, DEFENSE-WIDE

The agreement includes $46,000,000 for "Military Construction, Defense-Wide", as requested in the FY 2015 Overseas Contingency Operations budget amendment, for a classified project at a classified location.

EUROPEAN REASSURANCE INITIATIVE MILITARY
CONSTRUCTION

The agreement includes $175,000,000 for military construction projects associated with the European Reassurance Initiative (ERI). The ERI proposal included a provision to allow the use of up to $175,000,000 in Operation and Maintenance funds for unspecified military construction projects associated with the initiative. Subsequent to the initial request, the Department of Defense identified and provided to the Committees line-item ERI military construction requirements. Military construction projects should be funded within the Military Construction appropriations bill, and thus the agreement provides funding in this division for specific ERI military construction projects as identified by the Department.

TITLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

The agreement includes section 501 prohibiting the obligation of funds in this Act beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided.

The agreement includes section 502 prohibiting the use of the funds in this Act for programs, projects or activities not in compliance with Federal law relating to risk assessment, the protection of private property rights, or unfunded mandates.

The agreement includes section 503 encouraging all Departments to expand their use of “E-Commerce.”

The agreement includes section 504 specifying the congressional committees that are to receive all reports and notifications.

The agreement includes section 505 prohibiting the transfer of funds to any instrumentality of the United States Government without authority from an appropriations Act.

The agreement includes section 506 prohibiting the use of funds for a project or program named for a serving Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner of the United States House of Representatives.

The agreement includes section 507 requiring all reports submitted to the Congress to be posted on official Web sites of the submitting agency.

The agreement includes section 508 prohibiting the use of funds to establish or maintain a computer network unless such network blocks the viewing, downloading, and exchanging of pornography, except for law enforcement investigation, prosecution, or adjudication activities.

The agreement includes section 509 prohibiting the use of funds for the payment of first-class travel by an employee of the executive branch.

The agreement includes section 510 prohibiting the use of funds in this Act for any contract where the contractor has not complied with E-Verify requirements.

The agreement includes section 511 prohibiting the use of funds in this Act by the Department of Defense or the Department of Veterans Affairs for the purchase or lease of a new vehicle except in accordance with Presidential Memorandum—Federal Fleet Performance, dated May 24, 2011.

The agreement includes section 512 prohibiting the use of funds in this Act for the renovation, expansion, or construction of any facility in the continental United States for the purpose of housing any individual who has been detained at the United States Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

The agreement does not include House section 403/Senate section 404. The provision is carried as a government-wide provision in division E of this consolidated Act.

The agreement does not include House section 413. The provision is carried as a government-wide provision in division E of this consolidated Act.

The agreement does not include House section 414. The provision is carried as a government-wide provision in division E of this consolidated Act.

The agreement does not include Senate section 411. The provision is carried as a government-wide provision in division E of this consolidated Act.

The agreement does not include Senate section 412. The provision is carried as a government-wide provision in division E of this consolidated Act.

DIVISION J—DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
FOREIGN OPERATIONS, AND RELATED PROGRAMS APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

In implementing this agreement, Federal departments, agencies, commissions, and other entities shall comply with the directives, reporting requirements, instructions, and allocations contained in H. Rept. 113-499 (House report) accompanying H.R. 5013 (House bill) and S. Rept. 113-195 (Senate report) accompanying S. 2499 (Senate bill) as though stated in this explanatory statement, unless specifically directed to the contrary. This explanatory statement, while repeating some House and Senate report language for emphasis or clarification, does not negate such language unless expressly provided herein.

The agreement modifies language in section 7019 by including all funding directives referenced in this explanatory statement. In executing the directives provided in this explanatory statement, the Secretary of State, the Administrator of the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), and the Broadcasting Board of Governors (BBG) shall exercise the authority provided in section 7019(b) of this Act in a limited manner and in response to extraordinary circumstances. Additionally, the agreement assumes that the report required pursuant to section 653(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (FAA) shall be submitted within the specified time frame established by such Act.

In lieu of the funding directives in the House and Senate reports for Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Iraq, the Secretary of State shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations proposed funding levels for such countries in the report required in section 653(a) of the FAA and in the spend plan required by section 7076 of this Act. Prior to the submission of both reports, the Secretary of State shall consult with the Committees on Appropriations.

The Department of State, USAID, and other Federal agencies, as applicable, are directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, on the estimated cost and steps required for the Department and such agencies to provide the compensation information requested under Executive Salaries and Compensation in the Introduction of the Senate report.

Section 7076(e) of this Act directs the Department of State and USAID to submit congressional budget justifications (CBJs) concurrent with the President's fiscal year 2016 budget request, including justifications for multi-year availability for funds requested under Diplomatic and Consular Programs and Operating Expenses. The Department of State, USAID, and other agencies shall also include in CBJs, as applicable, the information in the Introduction of the Senate report under Congressional Budget Request and Justifications, on reimbursement agreements, the Economy Act, Working Capital Fund, office closures, and representation expenses.

The Department of State, USAID, and other agencies funded by this Act are directed to notify the Committees on Appropriations of—

- 1) reprogrammings of funds, as required by sections 7015 and 7019 of this Act, at the most detailed level of the CBJ, this Act, or explanatory statement;
- 2) significant departures in funding from the CBJ or the final report submitted pursuant to section 653(a) of the FAA; and
- 3) commitments requiring significant funding and staffing in future fiscal years.

The regular notification procedures of the Committees on Appropriations, including CBJ documents and operating and spend plans, shall not suffice for purposes of satisfying special notification requirements contained in this Act.

With respect to prior year reporting requirements referenced in the House and Senate reports, if such reporting requirements were completed prior to the enactment of this Act, the reporting agency shall consult with the Committees on Appropriations to determine if an additional report is required in fiscal year 2015. With regard to reporting requirements and instructions contained in prior year Acts that have not yet been submitted, unless specifically stated to the contrary, the agreement does not terminate such reporting requirements.

With respect to appropriations contained in this Act, the term “program, project, and activity” shall mean any item for which a dollar amount is specified in this Act or explanatory statement. In addition, the definition of program, project, and activity in section 7023 of this Act shall apply to the accounts listed in such section.

Funds that are described in this explanatory statement under title IX for Ebola response and preparedness are in addition to funds described under titles I through VIII.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND RELATED AGENCY

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
ADMINISTRATION OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS
DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR PROGRAMS

The agreement provides $6,461,172,000 for Diplomatic and Consular Programs. The agreement provides an additional $1,350,803,000 in title VIII under this heading designated for Overseas Contingency Operations/Global War on Terrorism (OCO/GWOT) pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

Within the total provided, up to $2,128,115,000 is for Worldwide Security Protection (WSP) and may remain available until expended, $4,332,524,000 is for operations, of which $650,000,000 may remain available until September 30, 2016, and $533,000 is for the International Chancery Center. The Secretary of State is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than September 1, 2015, on projected amounts that are to remain available for operations beyond fiscal year 2015, by category and bureau.

Funds for activities, bureaus, and offices under this heading are allocated according to the following table and are subject to paragraph (6)(A) under such heading and section 7019 of this Act:

Office of the Special Coordinator for Tibetan Issues .....	1,000
Office for Global Women's Issues .....	9,988

The agreement provides $2,128,115,000 for WSP under this heading and an additional $989,706,000 for WSP is provided in title VIII and designated for OCO/GWOT, for a total of $3,117,821,000 for WSP in this Act.

No funds were requested, and no funds are provided in the agreement, for a Foreign Affairs Security Training Center (FASTC). The Secretary of State shall comply with the reporting and information directives in the House and Senate reports. No funds from this Act or prior Acts may be made available for obligation for FASTC without prior notification to the appropriate congressional committees.

The agreement supports the efforts of the Department of State to monitor United States assistance for foreign security forces. In addition to funds made available for such activities, not less than $5,000,000 under this heading is included to implement section 620M of the FAA.

The agreement includes the funds recommended in the Senate report for the Bureau of Oceans and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs, including for the Arctic Council, and the authority included in the Senate bill to make grants pursuant to section 504 of Public Law 95-426.

The agreement includes section 7034(l)(1), which extends for one year the Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative surcharge authority, which is the same authority included in prior years.

Section 7034(l)(7) of this Act continues the Foreign Service overseas pay comparability authority, but, as in prior years, prohibits implementation of the third phase of the authority and does not include funds requested for such implementation.

Section 7034(n) of this Act provides limitations on the uses of the Department of State Working Capital Fund. The Secretary of State is directed to include information on the Working Capital Fund in the operating plan required by section 7076 of this Act and reprogramming notifications for funds made available under this heading.

The agreement does not specifically designate funds for the new non-security positions related to the Department-wide hiring initiatives included in the fiscal year 2015 budget request. The Secretary of State is directed to examine the assignment of existing lower priority positions, including vacancies and such positions identified by the Department of State's Office of Inspector General, to meet higher priority staffing requirements, including those enumerated under this heading in the Senate report. If, however, the Secretary determines that it is in the national interest of the United States to redirect the funds appropriated under this heading for additional positions, the Committees on Appropriations will consider such request as part of the operating plan required by section 7076 of this Act. Such plan shall include a detailed description of any new or reassigned Foreign or Civil Service positions requested by a bureau or office, a justification of the request, and the salary and benefit costs for fiscal years 2015 and 2016.

The agreement designates up to $23,500,000 under this heading for conflict and stabilization operations and permits such amount to be transferred to, and merged with, funds available under Conflict Stabilization Operations. In addition, $15,000,000 is included under Conflict Stabilization Operations in title VIII.

The agreement does not include the requested authority to transfer $1,000,000 of the funds available under this heading to funds available under Representation Expenses.

The agreement does not include a prohibition on the use of funds appropriated under this heading for the Ambassadors Fund for Cultural Preservation that was included in the House bill. Instead, the agreement continues the limitation on the use of funds for the preservation of religious sites as included in prior years.

The Office of Inspector General of the Department of State released three Management Alerts in fiscal year 2014 that included recommendations to strengthen contract files, grants management, and information system security programs. The Secretary of State, in coordination with the Department of State's Office of Inspector General, is directed to submit a report to the appropriate congressional committees, not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, detailing the status of each of the recommendations included in the Alerts.

Funds made available by this Act should be used to support Department of State efforts to reopen and operate a diplomatic presence in the Eastern Congo, once the security environment permits such a presence.

The Secretary of State shall report to the appropriate congressional committees, not later than 45 days after enactment of this Act, on the Department of State's policy regarding its presence in Somalia, including personnel involved, current limitations imposed on temporary duty assignments, an assessment of the ability of such personnel to affect inter-agency and international donor coordination efforts and diplomacy under such limitations, an assessment of the security situation, and the costs associated with such activities, including for security.

CAPITAL INVESTMENT FUND

The agreement provides $56,400,000 for Capital Investment Fund.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The agreement provides $73,400,000 for Office of Inspector General, of which $11,000,000 may remain available until September 30, 2016, and an additional $56,900,000 in title VIII under this heading is designated for OCO/GWOT pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985. The agreement waives the requirement of section 209(a)(1) of the Foreign Service Act of 1980, as included in the Senate bill and in prior years.

Funding for the Department of State Office of Inspector General is provided under title I of this Act, which may be used for oversight of operations and programs funded under title VIII of this Act.

EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

The agreement provides $589,900,000 for Educational and Cultural Exchange Programs, of which not less than $236,485,000 shall be for the Fulbright Program.

The agreement does not include funds for an Exchanges Rapid Response program.

Funds under this heading are allocated according to the following table and are subject to section 7019 of this Act:

EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

(Budget authority in thousands of dollars)

Program/Activity	Final Bill
Academic Exchanges:
Fulbright Program: Students, Scholars, Teachers, Humphrey, Undergraduates .....	236,485

Total, Educational and Cultural Exchange Programs .....	589,900

REPRESENTATION EXPENSES

The agreement provides $8,030,000 for Representation Expenses, to be provided in accordance with section 7020 of this Act.

PROTECTION OF FOREIGN MISSIONS AND OFFICIALS

The agreement provides $30,036,000 for Protection of Foreign Missions and Officials.

Section 7034(j) of this Act includes authority for the Secretary of State to transfer expired unobligated balances from funds made available under Diplomatic and Consular Programs, which is similar to authority made available in fiscal year 2014 and that was proposed in the House and Senate bills.

EMBASSY SECURITY, CONSTRUCTION, AND MAINTENANCE

The agreement provides $2,063,255,000 for Embassy Security, Construction, and Maintenance, of which $1,240,500,000 is for Worldwide Security Upgrades and $822,755,000 is for other construction, operations, and maintenance. The agreement provides an additional $260,800,000 in title VIII under this heading designated for OCO/GWOT pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, of which, $250,000,000 is available for Worldwide Security Upgrades and is subject to the requirements and authorities of section 7004 of this Act.

The Secretary of State should consider providing additional support to protect soft targets in Kenya and such amounts should be included in the operating plan required by section 7076 of this Act.

Section 7004(d) of this Act directs that all purchase of land and award of construction contracts be subject to prior consultation with, and the regular notification procedures of, the Committees on Appropriations. Notifications made pursuant to such section shall include the information detailed under Embassy Security, Construction, and Maintenance in title I of the House report. The Department of State should not proceed with any purchase of land or award of contracts for construction without approval by the Committees on Appropriations. In addition, the Department of State is directed to consult with the Committees on Appropriations after both the rightsizing study and the planning for a major construction project are complete and before the pre-solicitation for the construction award is released.

Section 7004(f) of this Act continues, in modified form, the directives concerning expeditionary, interim, and temporary diplomatic facilities abroad.

EMERGENCIES IN THE DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR SERVICE

The agreement provides $7,900,000 for Emergencies in the Diplomatic and Consular Service.

REPATRIATION LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The agreement provides $1,300,000 for Repatriation Loans Program Account.

PAYMENT TO THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE IN TAIWAN

The agreement provides $30,000,000 for Payment to the American Institute in Taiwan.

PAYMENT TO THE FOREIGN SERVICE RETIREMENT AND DISABILITY FUND

The agreement provides $158,900,000 for Payment to the Foreign Service Retirement and Disability Fund.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS CONTRIBUTIONS TO INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

The agreement provides $1,399,151,000 for Contributions to International Organizations and an additional $74,400,000 in title VIII under this heading is designated for OCO/GWOT pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

The agreement does not include funds for an assessed contribution to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), which is prohibited due to the application of Public Law 101-246 and Public Law 103-236.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACEKEEPING ACTIVITIES

The agreement provides $2,118,891,000 for Contributions for International Peacekeeping Activities. The agreement provides funding for the United States share of United Nations Operations in Somalia under Peacekeeping Operations in title VIII.

The agreement provides funding and authorities under titles I, VII, and VIII of this Act to fund fiscal year 2015 United States contributions to United Nations peacekeeping missions. The Secretary of State may not exceed the assessed rate described in the last proviso under this heading with appropriated funds, but credits may be applied to meet the current assessment rate. The Secretary of State is directed to submit an operating plan for international peacekeeping activities that specifies the planned apportionment of funds for all known fiscal year 2015 peacekeeping assessments, including funds available from this Act, prior year unobligated balances, credits, and the planned use of transfer and other authorities provided by this Act under sections 7009 and 8003, as necessary.

The Department of State has informed the Committees on Appropriations that, as of November 2014, unobligated balances under Diplomatic and Consular Programs from fiscal year 2014, excluding WSP and Diplomatic Security, totaled $588,264,000. The Secretary of State should transfer unobligated fiscal year 2014 funds from Diplomatic and Consular Programs, as necessary and within the limitations and notification requirements of section 7009 of this Act, to fund assessed international peacekeeping contributions at the assessed rate described in the last proviso under this heading.

The Department of State and the United States Mission to the United Nations (USUN) should work with the UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations to evaluate and prioritize peacekeeping missions, and consider phase-out and withdrawal when mission goals have been substantially achieved. The Secretary of State is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act, on efforts and progress made to address these issues.

The Department of State and USUN should seek a reduction of the United States-assessed rate for international peacekeeping activities for future years.

USUN shall work to ensure that the United Nations is pursuing investigations and prosecutions of human rights abuses committed by international peacekeepers, including sexual exploitation, and shall encourage a focus on monitoring and investigating such abuses within the United Nations Organization Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSIONS

INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY AND WATER COMMISSION, UNITED STATES AND MEXICO

The agreement includes a limitation of $6,000 on representation expenses of the International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico (IBWC).

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $44,707,000 for salaries and expenses of IBWC.

CONSTRUCTION

The agreement provides $29,000,000 for planning, preparation, and construction.

Funds under this heading are allocated according to the following table, and are subject to section 7019 of this Act:

CONSTRUCTION

(Budget authority in thousands of dollars)

Total, Construction .....	29,000

Section 7045(g)(3) of this Act directs the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Commissioner for the United States Section of the IBWC, to report to the Committees on Appropriations not later than 45 days after enactment of this Act.

If the mechanisms and actions detailed in section 7045(g)(3) of this Act are not in place or have not been taken by June 30, 2015, the Secretary of State shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations detailing why no such mechanisms are in place or no such actions have been taken and provide updated projections of the balance of the water delivery deficit at the end of the current 5-year cycle, and the estimated impact on the United States of such deficit.

The Secretary of State is directed to provide to the Committees on Appropriations the annual report required in section 12310 of the Agricultural Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-79) on efforts by Mexico to meet its deliveries of water to the Rio Grande in accordance with the treaty.

AMERICAN SECTIONS, INTERNATIONAL COMMISSIONS

The agreement provides $12,561,000 for American Sections, International Commissions to support the International Boundary Commission, International Joint Commission, and Border Environment Cooperation Commission.

Funds under this heading are allocated according to the following table and are subject to section 7019 of this Act:

AMERICAN SECTIONS

BROADCASTING BOARD OF GOVERNORS

INTERNATIONAL BROADCASTING OPERATIONS

The agreement provides $726,567,000 for International Broadcasting Operations, and an additional $10,700,000 in title VIII under this heading is designated for OCO/GWOT pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

Of the funds made available under this heading, up to $44,025,000 may remain available until expended for satellite transmissions and Internet freedom programs, of which not less than $17,500,000 is for Internet freedom and circumvention programs. BBG is directed to include amounts planned for Internet freedom in fiscal year 2015 as part of the operating plan required by section 7076 of this Act and to expand upon the planned activities in the Internet freedom spend plan required by section 7078 of this Act.

The agreement includes a one year extension of the personal services contract authority of the BBG, as included in prior year Acts.

The agreement includes $27,130,000 for the Office of Cuba Broadcasting (OCB). In addition to the amount provided, funds may be transferred to OCB from Economic Support Fund for the purposes proposed in the Congressional Budget Request, Fiscal Year 2015, for the BBG up to the amount necessary to restore the proposed program reductions. The BBG is further directed to include in the fiscal year 2016 budget request the full amount required to support the proposed staffing and program requirements for OCB during fiscal year 2016 and to not rely on proposed interagency transfers to maintain program requirements.

The BBG is directed to consult with the Committees on Appropriations prior to the submission of the fiscal year 2015 operating plan on the program increases and reductions recommended under this heading in the House and Senate reports, including for enhanced broadcasts to Ukraine and the surrounding region. The BBG shall include in the operating plan detailed information on the increases and reductions the BBG proposes to implement in fiscal year 2015, including the timeframe for implementation and the fiscal years 2015 and 2016 costs or savings for each of the program increases and reductions.

TITLE II—UNITED STATES AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

FUNDS APPROPRIATED TO THE PRESIDENT

OPERATING EXPENSES

The agreement provides $1,090,836,000 for USAID Operating Expenses, of which $163,625,000 may remain available until September 30, 2016, and an additional $125,464,000 in title VIII under this heading is designated for OCO/GWOT pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

No funds are provided under this heading to increase the number of employee positions at USAID in fiscal year 2015. In addition to the reporting requirements regarding USAID staff included in the House and Senate reports, the USAID Administrator shall include the staffing levels and position titles for all Washington-based employees by bureau, office, or other unit. The USAID Administrator shall consult with the Committees on Appropriations prior to the submission of the report.

Section 7031(a)(1)(A)(iv) of this Act requires that "no level of acceptable fraud is assumed" by any implementing agency or ministry of a foreign government that receives direct government-to-government assistance. Recognizing that the risk of fraud exists in all countries, the USAID Administrator is directed to implement such section by ensuring that each implementing agency or ministry has fraud risk mitigation procedures that appropriately protect against fraud and the misappropriation of funds.

The agreement does not include a House provision that would authorize funds under Operating Expenses to remain available for an additional 4 years if such funds were initially obligated prior to expiration. The independent audit of USAID's fiscal year 2014 consolidated financial statements, dated November 17, 2014, states that USAID's process for de-obligating unliquidated obligations is ineffective and identifies this process as a significant internal control deficiency. In response, USAID set a target date of June 30, 2015, for completing actions to implement the audit recommendation. The USAID Administrator is directed to report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than July 31, 2015, on the status of the implementation of the recommendation, any additional steps USAID has taken to improve the process for de-obligating unliquidated obligations, and the total unliquidated obligations by fiscal year funded in Operating Expenses.

Section 7057(j) of this Act directs the USAID Administrator to submit to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act, a plan to modify USAID's Foreign Service training, assignment, and promotion practices to enable all Foreign Service Officers to effectively incorporate local sustainable development practices into USAID assistance programs.

Using existing authority, funds are included under this heading for USAID to support the salaries and benefits for Global Development Lab (the Lab) program staff. No new authority is included to fund personnel from other accounts in this Act. USAID is encouraged to find innovative solutions to development challenges through the Lab and is further encouraged to seek buy-in from countries that the Lab programs seek to benefit. The USAID Administrator shall regularly consult with, and ensure the participation of, nongovernmental and governmental entities in developing countries at all stages of the Lab's activities. The Administrator shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than April 1, 2015, detailing projects supported by the Lab since October 1, 2013.

Funds in this Act under this heading are allocated according to the following table and are subject to section 7019 of this Act:

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

The agreement modifies language in section 7029 on the evaluation policies of the international financial institutions. The Secretary of the Treasury shall instruct the United States executive director of each IFI to work to strengthen the respective institution's independent evaluation policies and practices, including by: (a) adopting transparent, pre-established criteria for when impact, in-depth, and other evaluations shall be conducted; (b) increasing the use of external and peer reviews; (c) instituting regular external evaluations of the IFI's internal evaluation offices; (d) creating incentives and feedback mechanisms to ensure that lessons learned are incorporated into IFI programming; and (e) strengthening public disclosure of data in usable forms.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall instruct the United States Executive Directors of the World Bank and the Inter-American Development Bank to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act and every 90 days thereafter until September 30, 2015, on actions taken in the previous 90 days by such institutions to support, and by the Government of Guatemala to implement, the Policy for Reparations to Communities Affected by the Construction of the Chixoy Hydroelectric Dam, Whose Human Rights Were Violated (Executive Decree 378–2014).

The agreement includes language in section 7029(f) that provides for application of the provision “to the maximum extent practicable,” to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to take into consideration important law enforcement objectives.

The Secretary of the Treasury, when evaluating a proposal by an IFI to finance construction of a large dam, shall apply due diligence, including reviewing for full compliance with IFI policies and legislative voting mandates and the relevant policies of other Federal agencies. The United States executive director of such IFI may vote to support such a project only if the Secretary, after consulting with USAID, the Department of State, and other technical personnel, as appropriate, determines that the IFI is taking the necessary steps to meet the following safeguards, which the Secretary shall encourage the IFI to adopt in relevant strategy and policy reviews—

1) Risk Assessment—Projects are selected based on resource and river basin management plans that include full stakeholder participation. These processes include a thorough, objective assessment of social and environmental impacts (including cumulative and life cycle gas emissions from sediment accumulation), and economic risks and returns;

2) Sustainability—Based on the comprehensive impact assessment described above, projects will safeguard river basin ecosystems, including by maintaining sufficient operational flows to protect existing ecosystems and critical natural habitats;

3) Citizens' Rights—Demonstrable public acceptance of projects, planned mitigation, and benefits are achieved through transparent, good faith engagement with full participation of affected people in the catchment, reservoir, and downstream areas. In addition, in recognition of communal ownership and usage rights of lands, territories, cultural and natural resources, decisions affecting indigenous people require meaningful informed participation during all phases of planning, implementation, and monitoring and good faith negotiations with affected indigenous people communities, including individuals and their representative bodies and organizations. Affected people have access to grievance mechanisms at the project and IFI level or through the borrowing country government;

4) Public Oversight—The project has been developed transparently, with timely public access to key documents including environmental and social impact assessments and management plans, feasibility studies, economic and risk analyses, and revenue management plans, with appropriate exceptions for proprietary information;

5) Management—The country has in place sound dam management practices, or, where necessary, commits to appropriate and timely capacity building. Outstanding operational problems with existing dams in the country in the same river basin are being addressed before investments in new dams; and

6) Independent Monitoring—The project includes environmental and social mitigation measures to be funded and implemented throughout the life of the project based on a monitoring and mitigation plan. Progress on these mitigation measures is regularly monitored and publicly reported.

Sec. 7031. Financial Management and Budget Transparency (Modified)

The Secretary of State shall consult with the Committees on Appropriations prior to the initial obligation of funds made available pursuant to section 7031(b).

Funds appropriated by this Act under titles I and II, and funds made available to independent agencies under title III, as appropriate, shall be made available to support the Department of State's foreign assistance Web site. The Department of State and USAID shall include in the fiscal year 2016 CBJ funding by account for the purposes of this section. The Secretary of State shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, detailing the funding in fiscal years 2013 and 2014, estimated in fiscal year 2015, and projected in fiscal year 2016 for maintaining the foreign assistance database and the expected future year costs as a result of increased data collection.

Sec. 7032. Democracy Programs (Modified)

The agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate in section 7032(c)(2)(A) regarding the policy and conduct of USAID democracy programs in closed societies. However, the USAID Administrator, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall follow the directives contained in such section, which reflects such policy.

The agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate in section 7032(c)(2)(B) regarding the clarification of the role and responsibilities of the Department of State and USAID in the promotion of democracy abroad. However, such agencies shall submit the report required in the manner described. In addition, the Comptroller General of the United States shall consult with the Committees on Appropriations prior to evaluating such report.

Section 7032(j) is modified and provides $10,000,000 above the budget request to countries in the Western Hemisphere following the consultation required in such section.

Sec. 7034. Special Provisions (Modified)

Section 7034(o) modifies section 7034(p) in the Senate bill to direct the Secretary of State to report to the Committees on Appropriations on the uses of funds to implement section 620M(c) of the FAA.

Section 7034(r) includes the authority to establish and operate one or more enterprise funds for Egypt and Tunisia. Such funds should be used to strengthen the private sector in Egypt and Tunisia with a strong focus on startup, small- and medium-sized private enterprises and women-led businesses, to create economic opportunity and employment.

Section 7034(s) directs the head of any non-Federal or quasi-Federal organization that is provided a direct appropriation with funds made available by this Act under titles I or III (defined for the purposes of this section as an organization receiving appropriated funds from an account heading under titles I or III that is the same as the organization's name) to report to the Committees on Appropriations on salary and compensation for such organization's executive level employees. Such report shall include—

1) The position title, base salary, bonuses, and other compensation for each employee whose base salary is equivalent to or higher than the salary of level IV of the Executive Schedule;

2) A description of current law, as applicable, related to salary and compensation limitations for such organization's executive level employees;

3) Other sources of funding (including donations and fees) available to such organization for salary, benefit, and other employee compensation costs, and whether such funds are currently used for such costs; and

4) A description of the executive salary information that is made publicly available, including where it is available.

The head of each such organization is also directed to consult with the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, on ways to reduce the amount of appropriated funds used for executive employee compensation costs and increase the amount of appropriated funds available for program costs.

Sec. 7041. Middle East and North Africa (Modified)

Egypt.—The agreement requires the Secretary of State to submit a report on any defense articles withheld from delivery to Egypt, which shall include a detailed description of the conditions the Government of Egypt must meet to resume the delivery of such defense articles, and any actions by the Government of Egypt to meet such conditions. The report shall also include a description of the cost incurred for each category of defense article withheld, including the cost of storage and subsequent delivery of such articles.

Iraq.—In fulfilling the reporting requirement in section 7041(c)(4), the Secretary of State shall be guided by the directives in the Senate report.

Lebanon.—The agreement includes language similar to that proposed in the Senate bill. The Secretary of State should inform the Committees on Appropriations of any further deterioration in security or stability in Lebanon that arises from the conflict in Syria, and should encourage political stability in Lebanon in order to strengthen the country's unity and sovereignty. The Secretary of State shall regularly consult with the Committees on Appropriations on the activities of the Lebanese Internal Security Forces and the Lebanese Armed Forces and assistance provided by the United States.

Libya.—The agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate in section 7041(f)(1) regarding assistance for Libya. However, the Department of State and USAID, as appropriate, should support programs that support security, stability, and governance in that country.

Middle East Response.—The agreement recommends the following amounts to address instability and conflict in the Middle East: $400,000,000 under Economic Support Fund; $15,000,000 under Nonproliferation, Anti-terrorism, Demining and Related Programs; $5,000,000 under International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement; and $110,000,000 under Foreign Military Financing Program. Section 8003 of the Act provides the Department of State with the necessary flexibility to transfer funding between specific accounts, if needed to address unanticipated contingencies.

Funds made available for Middle East Response shall be made available to meet the directives in sections 7041(d) and (h), regarding assistance for Jordan and non-lethal assistance to address the Syrian conflict, respectively. The agreement does not provide funding in a new Counterterrorism Partnerships Fund proposed by the Administration, and instead includes funding for similar purposes under existing headings.

Funds made available for Middle East Response should be used to promote inclusive governance in countries in the Middle East to maintain and enhance security; strengthen the rule of law, civil society, and institutions; and provide basic services to citizens, particularly in areas vulnerable to influence by extremist groups. In addition, funds should be used to disrupt and deny the financial revenue of extremist groups, counter violent extremism in accordance with section 7060(b) of this Act, and prevent the formation of splinter extremist groups.

The Secretary of State shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees, not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, a strategy for countering, degrading, and marginalizing extremism in the Middle East, which shall be updated on an ongoing basis. The strategy shall include clear goals and objectives; data on the obligation and expenditure of funds appropriated for such a strategy; an assessment of political stability in countries in the Middle East affected by extremist-related conflict; an assessment of the military capabilities of such countries to counter, degrade, and marginalize such groups; and a description of efforts taken to achieve a political solution to the Syrian conflict.

The agreement provides an additional $1,011,626,000 above the budget request under Migration and Refugee Assistance and an additional $505,000,000 above the budget request under International Disaster Assistance in titles III and VIII of this Act, a significant portion of which should address growing humanitarian needs in the Middle East.

Sec. 7042. Africa (Modified)

Counterterrorism Programs.—The Secretary of State, after consultation with the heads of other relevant Federal agencies, is directed to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, on the Trans-Sahara Counterterrorism Partnership (TSCTP) and Partnership for Regional East Africa Counterterrorism (PREACT). The report shall include the specific objectives of each program, how funds support such objectives, an assessment of the effectiveness of the programs, the criteria used to measure and evaluate results, and the extent to which the programs are capable of being sustained by partner governments. The report shall also include an update on the status of implementation of the recommendations made by the Government Accountability Office (GAO) in GAO-14-502 and GAO-14-518.

The Secretary of State is directed to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than May 1, 2015, and 30 days after the end of fiscal year 2015, on the status of cumulative unobligated balances and obligated, but unexpended, balances made available for TSCTP and PREACT.

Ethiopia.—The agreement modifies section 7042(d) and recognizes the cooperation between the United States and Ethiopia on counterterrorism as well as Ethiopia's important role in support of peacekeeping efforts.

Kenya.—The agreement does not include section 7042(f) of the Senate bill regarding assistance for Kenya. However, not less than $10,500,000 should be made available for such purposes under title IV of this Act. Not later than 45 days after enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State is directed to consult with the Committees on Appropriations on the uses of such funds.

Lord's Resistance Army.—The Secretary of State is directed to continue the reporting requirement in the Joint Explanatory Statement of Public Law 113-76 during fiscal year 2015.

Somalia.—The agreement does not include a prohibition on lethal assistance for Somalia to train select units of the Somali National Forces. Such training should be conducted in an inclusive manner that reduces ethnic and clan rivalries. Prior to the initial obligation of funds appropriated by this Act for such assistance, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the heads of other relevant federal agencies, shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees (as defined in section 1206(e) of Public Law 113-66) the updated strategy on Somalia required by section 1206(b)(3) of Public Law 113-66 and consult with the Committees on Appropriations on the content of such strategy, including specific program details, funding levels, and objectives. The Secretary shall also submit a report to such Committees, not later than September 30, 2015, detailing any obstacles encountered in implementing such strategy during the previous 12 months, and challenges for the future.

South Sudan.—The Secretary of State is directed to ensure that data collected by the Intergovernmental Authority on Development's Monitoring and Verification Mechanism (MVM) is shared in a timely manner and in its entirety with the United States Government, including all relevant bureaus and offices of the Department of State, and is made publicly available as appropriate. The agreement recognizes that the United States provides the majority of international donor assistance for the MVM, and directs the Secretary of State to leverage assistance from other international donors to the extent practicable.

Sudan.—The Secretary of State should review United States assistance provided to the central government of any country that admits President Omar al-Bashir of Sudan and should consider reducing such assistance if the admission was for any reason other than to bring President Bashir to justice or to further the peace process between South Sudan and Sudan.

Sec. 7043. East Asia and the Pacific (Modified)

Asia Rebalancing Initiative.—Section 7043(a) modifies language in section 7043(a)(2) of the Senate bill regarding alliances and partnerships in Asia. The Department of State and USAID, as appropriate, shall include in congressional notifications any estimated costs associated with travel and accommodation for foreign government officials to regional conferences or other meetings.

The Secretary of State shall implement the directive on information regarding public and private economic investment in respective countries in the Asia region in the manner described in Section 7043(a)(3)(A) of the Senate bill.

The agreement does not include language proposed in the Senate bill regarding calculations for the Asia Rebalancing Initiative. However, in preparing the report required by section 7043(a)(4) of the agreement, the Secretary of State shall be guided by the direction in section 7043(a)(4) of the Senate bill, except that for purposes of such calculations the baseline fiscal year shall be 2011 instead of 2012, and may include programs initiated prior to fiscal year 2011 for which significant funding increases were proposed for the Initiative in subsequent fiscal years.

Prior to the obligation of funds for the purposes of section 7043(a)(7), the Secretary of State shall submit the report required in such section in the Senate bill in the manner described.

Burma.—Section 7043(b) prohibits assistance for Burma under International Military Education and Training and Foreign Military Financing Program.

Cambodia.—The agreement modifies language in section 7043(c) of the Senate bill regarding assistance for Cambodia.

The agreement includes no funds for Cambodia under Foreign Military Financing Program as none were included in the budget request. In addition, the reporting requirements for the Department of the Treasury in Senate Report 113-195 shall be submitted in the manner described in such report.

Philippines.—Section 7043(f) directs that funds under Foreign Military Financing Program should only be obligated for assistance for the Philippine army if the Secretary of State certifies and reports to the Committees on Appropriations that the Government of the Philippines is—

1) investigating and prosecuting army personnel who are credibly alleged to have committed, or aided or abetted, extra-judicial executions, forced disappearances, and other gross violations of human rights, and strengthening government institutions working to eliminate such crimes;

2) implementing a policy of promoting army personnel who demonstrate professionalism and respect for human rights; and

3) taking steps to ensure that the Philippine army and paramilitary groups under its control are not engaging in acts of intimidation or violence against journalists or human rights defenders.

Sec. 7044. South and Central Asia (Modified)

Afghanistan.—Section 7044(a)(2)(B) provides the Chief of Mission in Afghanistan with the responsibility for determining whether the Government of Afghanistan or other Afghan entities are capable of sustaining programs funded by this Act pursuant to the requirement of such section. Submission of congressional notifications for assistance for Afghanistan shall include a description of determinations on program sustainability for each program being notified.

Section 7044(a)(7) provides funding for an endowment to empower women and girls in Afghanistan, and the Secretary of State and USAID Administrator, as appropriate, shall submit a concept proposal and consult with the appropriate congressional committees prior to obligating funds for such purpose.

The spend plan required by section 7076 of this Act shall prioritize the following: governance, women's rights, rule of law, anti-trafficking, civil society, education, health, food security, natural resource management, private sector development, and counter-narcotics.

Sri Lanka.—Section 7044(e) continues restrictions on assistance, export licenses, sales and transfers of equipment for the Sri Lankan military unless the Secretary of State certifies and reports in writing to the Committees on Appropriations that the Government of Sri Lanka is—

1) conducting credible, thorough investigations of war crimes and violations of international humanitarian law by government forces and the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam;

2) bringing to justice individuals who have been credibly alleged to have committed such violations;

3) supporting and cooperating with any UN investigation of war crimes and violations of international humanitarian law;

4) implementing policies to protect judicial independence; freedom of expression, association, assembly, and religion; the right of political parties, civil society organizations, and journalists to operate without harassment or interference; and due process of law, including ending arrest and detention under emergency-type regulations;

5) providing access to detainees by humanitarian organizations; and

6) implementing policies to promote reconciliation and justice including the demilitarization of public administration and development activities in the north, and devolution of power.

Sec. 7045. Western Hemisphere (Modified)

Central America Migration Prevention and Response.—Section 7045(a) requires a strategy to address the key factors in the countries in Central America contributing to the migration of unaccompanied, undocumented minors to the United States. The Secretary of State, in consultation with the USAID Administrator, shall designate a lead office that is responsible for coordinating the strategy.

To implement such strategy, the agreement provides $130,000,000 above the budget request under Development Assistance for El Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras and under Economic Support Fund and International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement for CARSI. Economic and social development programs funded under Development Assistance and Economic Support Fund should aim to improve prosperity in the region by focusing on education, vocational training, and employment opportunities, and should seek to strengthen families, including by reducing child abuse and neglect and facilitating foster care and adoption. Funds provided under International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement should be prioritized for enhanced border security initiatives, anti-trafficking and anti-gang programs, and counternarcotics and law enforcement activities.

Colombia.—The Government of Colombia has taken steps to improve respect for human rights and to dismantle illegal armed groups. However, significant challenges remain. In accordance with section 7045(b), 25 percent of the funds under Foreign Military Financing Program that are available for assistance for Colombia may be obligated only if the Secretary of State certifies and reports to the Committees on Appropriations that—

1) cases involving members of the Colombian military who have been credibly alleged to have violated human rights are subject only to civilian jurisdiction and the Colombian military is cooperating with civilian prosecutors and judicial authorities in such cases;

2) the Government of Colombia is upholding its international obligations by investigating, prosecuting, and punishing persons responsible for crimes against humanity, war crimes, and other gross violations of human rights, and is not offering amnesty to such persons; and

3) the Government of Colombia is making progress in dismantling illegal armed groups; taking effective steps to protect the rights of human rights defenders, journalists, trade unionists, and other social activists; and respecting the rights and territory of indigenous and Afro-Colombian communities, including protecting them from forced displacement, killings, and other violations.

Guatemala.—The agreement recognizes that the Government of Guatemala has a timeline for developing and implementing a proposal for the progressive reduction of the armed forces that support the police in citizen security activities. In accordance with section 7045(d), funds under Foreign Military Financing Program may be obligated for assistance for the Guatemalan army only if the Secretary of State certifies and reports to the Committees on Appropriations that—

1) the Government of Guatemala is implementing a credible plan to build a professional, accountable police force and end the army's involvement in internal law enforcement; and

2) civilian judicial authorities are investigating and prosecuting current and retired army personnel who are credibly alleged to have committed gross violations of human rights, and the Guatemalan army is fully cooperating in such cases, with the Inter-American Commission for Human Rights, and with the International Commission against Impunity in Guatemala, including providing timely access for investigators to witnesses, documents (including archival documents), forensic evidence, and other relevant information.

Honduras.—In accordance with section 7045(f), 25 percent of the funds under International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement and Foreign Military Financing Program that are available for assistance for the Honduran army and police may be obligated only if the Secretary of State certifies and reports to the Committees on Appropriations that—

1) agreements between the United States and Honduras concerning counternarcotics operations, including assistance for innocent victims of such operations, are being implemented;

2) the Government of Honduras is implementing policies to protect freedoms of expression, association, and assembly, and due process of law, including in the Bajo Aguan Valley, and taking steps to prevent threats and attacks against social activists and human rights defenders; and

3) civilian judicial authorities are investigating and prosecuting army and police personnel who are credibly alleged to have violated human rights, including forced evictions, or to have aided or abetted armed groups involved in such acts, the Honduran army and police are cooperating in such cases, and judicial proceedings are making steady progress.

Mexico.—The agreement supports assistance for Mexico to combat drug trafficking and related violence and corruption, and to strengthen judicial and law enforcement capacity. In recent years, Mexico has undertaken positive judicial reforms, including changes to the Code of Military Justice and enactment of the National Penal Procedures Code. However, significant challenges remain.

In accordance with section 7045(g), 15 percent of the funds under International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement and Foreign Military Financing Program that are available for assistance for the Mexican army and police may be obligated only if the Secretary of State reports to the Committees on Appropriations that—

1) the Government of Mexico is investigating and prosecuting violations of human rights in civilian courts;

2) the Government of Mexico is enforcing prohibitions against torture and the use of testimony obtained through torture;

3) the Mexican army and police are promptly transferring detainees to the custody of civilian judicial authorities, in accordance with Mexican law, and are cooperating with such authorities in such cases; and

4) the Government of Mexico is searching for the victims of forced disappearances and is investigating and prosecuting those responsible for such crimes.

Sec. 7048. United Nations (Modified)

Sec. 7057. United States Agency for International Development Management (Including Transfer of Funds) (Modified)

Sec. 7058. Global Health Activities (Modified)

Sec. 7059. Gender Equality (Modified)

Sec. 7060. Sector Allocations (Modified)

The agreement provides not less than $1,153,500,000 for bilateral and multilateral environment programs in this Act, including not less than $123,500,000 for sustainable landscapes and not less than $250,000,000 for biodiversity. Funds for certain bilateral environment programs are allocated according to the following table and are subject to section 7019 of this Act:

The agreement includes $55,000,000 to combat wildlife poaching and trafficking, of which not less than $10,000,000 shall be made available for programs to combat rhinoceros poaching and shall be used primarily for site-based anti-poaching activities to address immediate requirements. Funds are directed to support regional wildlife enforcement networks; address consumer demand, including in Asia; strengthen law enforcement; and enhance regional cooperation and anti-trafficking networks. The Secretary of State, USAID Administrator, and Director of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) are directed to consult with the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 45 days after enactment of this Act, on the uses of funds for these purposes. The Secretary of State is further directed to update the report required in the joint explanatory statement accompanying Public Law 113-76, and expects such strategy to include how funds are being used to implement the National Strategy for Combating Wildlife Trafficking. The Secretary of State shall include country and program funding levels for combating wildlife poaching and trafficking in the fiscal year 2016 CBJ.

Funds appropriated by this Act to support international conservation programs of the United States Forest Service and the USFWS shall be apportioned directly to such agencies and are in addition to funds otherwise available from this Act for such agencies.

The agreement provides authority for contributions to the multilateral environmental funds and facilities included in the fiscal year 2015 CBJ to support adaptation and mitigation programs. Any other funding made available for such funds and facilities not identified in the fiscal year 2015 CBJ may only be available subject to the regular notification procedures of the Committees on Appropriations, except that no funds may be made available for the Green Climate Fund, for which no funds were requested in fiscal year 2015. Prior to the initial obligation of funds, the Secretary of State, or the Secretary of the Treasury, as appropriate, shall report to the Committees on Appropriations on the planned contributions for such funds in fiscal year 2015.

The agreement provides not less than $60,000,000 for programs and activities to combat trafficking in persons internationally, including for assistance as provided in the following table:

TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS

(Budget authority in thousands of dollars)

Account	Budget Authority
Development Assistance .....	11,244
Economic Support Fund .....	10,912
International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement ...	30,344

The agreement includes $7,500,000 under Diplomatic and Consular Programs for the Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons, Department of State. The agreement includes $5,000,000 to support a multifaceted approach to combat human trafficking in Guatemala pursuant to section 7045(a) of this Act.

The agreement includes $12,500,000 for latrines in Africa and Asia and expects funds to be prioritized for programs that provide women and girls access to safe, public latrines.

Sec. 7066. Prohibition on Use of Torture (Modified)

Sec. 7069. Independent States of the Former Soviet Union (Modified)

Sec. 7070. Russia (Modified)

The agreement includes restrictions and conditions on assistance for the Russian Federation similar to that proposed by the House and the Senate.

The agreement does not include a requirement proposed in section 7070(c) of the Senate bill regarding the uses of funds appropriated under International Military Education and Training. However, the Secretary of State shall follow the directive of such section.

The agreement provides $139,283,000 for assistance for Ukraine, and authority for loan guarantees under section 7034(r)(1) of this Act. In addition to amounts made available for bilateral assistance for Ukraine, the following amounts are provided in Europe and Eurasia Regional funding to counter Russian Federation aggression and influence: $502,000,000 under Economic Support Fund, which may also be used for loan guarantees for Ukraine pursuant to the authority in section 7034(r)(1) of this Act; $15,800,000 under International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement; $5,850,000 under Nonproliferation, Anti-terrorism, Demining and Related Programs; and $29,550,000 under Foreign Military Financing Program.

Sec. 7071. International Monetary Fund (Modified)

Sec. 7072. Public Posting of Reports (New)

Sec. 7075. Enterprise Funds (Modified)

Sec. 7076. Budget Documents (Modified)

Sec. 7078. Global Internet Freedom (Modified)

Sec. 7079. Disability Programs (Modified)

Sec. 7080. Small Grants Program (New)

Section 7080, which is modified from the Senate bill, establishes a Small Grants Program (SGP) to replace the existing Development Grants Program to provide small organizations access to USAID support for unsolicited proposals and funding through open and competitive processes. To ensure continuity of program expertise, the SGP program design and management shall be the responsibility of USAID's Local Sustainability Office of the Bureau for Economic Growth, Education and Environment. For purposes of this section, "eligible entities" means small local, international, and United States-based nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), educational institutions, and other small entities that have received less than a total of $5,000,000 in direct United States Government support over the previous five years. USAID guidance shall include procedures in which not less than three USAID missions shall be competitively selected to run a multi-year SGP for their respective countries. Missions shall be selected, in part, on the basis of their engagement with local entities, which can provide long-term support to NGOs and other civil society organizations. Mission requests for SGP are not required to fit within USAID's country development plan, which has often acted as a barrier to meritorious unsolicited proposals. For the same reason, SGP funding may not be allocated or attributed toward certain funding directives prior to making awards. The agreement provides for a five-year period of availability of funds made available for the SGP. The agreement also provides that, upon selection, a mission may be allocated the full, estimated amount of SGP funding to carry out a multi-year SGP rather than having funds incrementally allocated on a yearly basis. These authorities should allow selected missions to plan and implement a multi-year SGP, and ensure the availability of necessary funding not otherwise attributed to meet additional funding directives. The agreement requires consultation with the appropriate congressional committees and expects such consultations to occur prior to the issuance of guidance for the SGP.

Sec. 7082. Reporting Requirements Concerning Individuals Detained at Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba (New)

Sec. 7083. Authority for Replenishments (New)

Sec. 7084. Rescission of Funds (New)

Sec. 7085. Modifications to the Vietnam Education Foundation Act of 2000 (New)

Sec. 7086. Impact on Jobs in the United States (Modified)

The agreement includes a provision to allow support by the Export-Import Bank of the United States and OPIC for coal-fired and other power generation projects in International Development Association (IDA) and IDA-blend eligible countries. This provision is expected to increase affordable electricity, especially to those without current access to electricity, as well as to support increased exports from the United States and prevent the loss of United States jobs.

The agreement does not continue the following general provisions included in division K of Public Law 113-76: sections 7073, 7082, and 7083.

TITLE VIII—OVERSEAS CONTINGENCY OPERATIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 8001. Additional Appropriations

Section 8001 clarifies that amounts appropriated by this title are in addition to amounts appropriated or otherwise made available in this Act for fiscal year 2015.

Sec. 8002. Extension of Authorities and Conditions

Section 8002 requires that the authorities and conditions applicable to funding elsewhere in this Act are applicable to funds in this title.

Sec. 8003. Transfer and Additional Authority

Section 8003(a) provides authority for the Secretary of State to transfer funds appropriated by this title under Transition Initiatives, Complex Crises Fund, Economic Support Fund, International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement, Nonproliferation, Anti-terrorism, Demining and Related Programs, Peacekeeping Operations, and Foreign Military Financing Program between such headings and to International Disaster Assistance and Migration and Refugee Assistance. However, no authority is provided to transfer funds from International Disaster Assistance and Migration and Refugee Assistance.

Section 8003(b) provides authority for the Secretary of State to transfer funds appropriated by this title under International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement, Peacekeeping Operations, and Foreign Military Financing Program in an amount that shall not exceed $25,000,000 to the Global Security Contingency Fund and requires the Secretary of State to notify the Committees on Appropriations on the implementation plans and timeline.

Section 8003(c) requires that any transfers pursuant to sections 8003(a) and (b) of this section may only be exercised to address unanticipated contingencies.

Section 8003(d) includes authority for the Secretary of State to provide up to $380,000,000 appropriated by this title under Bilateral Economic Assistance to support international peacekeeping requirements if the Secretary of State submits a determination to the Committees on Appropriations that additional funds are necessary to support such requirements above the amounts provided under Contributions for International Peacekeeping Activities in title I of this Act and under Peacekeeping Operations in this title, and that it is in the national security interest of the United States to do so. Such funds may only be made available for the purposes described in the determination, are subject to the regular notification procedures of the Committees on Appropriations, and must be used in accordance with the terms and conditions of funds appropriated under Peacekeeping Operations.

Section 8003(e) requires that the transfer authority provided by subsections (a) and (b) is subject to prior consultation with, and the regular notification procedures of, the Committees on Appropriations and that such transfer authority is in addition to any transfer authority otherwise available under any other provision of law.

TITLE IX—EBOLA RESPONSE AND PREPAREDNESS

Funds designated under this title address requirements related to the Ebola virus disease outbreak. The Secretary of State and USAID Administrator are directed to consult with the Committees on Appropriations on a regular and ongoing basis on assistance for these efforts.

The agreement provides an additional $5,300,000 for Nonproliferation, Anti-terrorism, Demining and Related Programs, which is designated as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(i) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

Sec. 9001. Transfer Authority

Section 9001(a) provides the authority to transfer funds appropriated by this title under Global Health Programs, International Disaster Assistance, and Economic Support Fund between such headings, and from such headings to funds appropriated under International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement, Nonproliferation, Anti-terrorism, Demining and Related Programs, and Peacekeeping Operations in this Act.

Section 9001(b) provides the authority to transfer up to $1,000,000 in funds appropriated under Diplomatic and Consular Programs to Repatriation Loans Program Account.

Section 9001(c) provides the authority to transfer up to $50,000,000 in funds appropriated under Global Health Programs to International Organizations and Programs.

Section 9001(d) provides the authority to transfer up to $35,300,000 in funds appropriated under International Disaster Assistance to International Organizations and Programs and Contributions to International Organizations.

Section 9001(e) provides that the transfer authorities of this section are in addition to any other transfer authority provided by law.

Section 9001(f) includes a notification requirement regarding funds transferred pursuant to this section.

Section 9001(g) provides that, upon a determination that all or part of the funds transferred pursuant to this section are not necessary for such purposes, such amounts may be transferred back to such headings, subject to the notification requirement in section 9001(f).

Sec. 9002. Reimbursement Authority

Section 9002 provides the authorities to use funds appropriated by this title under Global Health Programs, International Disaster Assistance, and Economic Support Fund to reimburse obligations incurred prior to the enactment of this Act for the purposes of this title.

Sec. 9003. Notification Requirement

Section 9003 contains a notification requirement for the accounts in this title except for International Disaster Assistance.

Sec. 9004. Reporting Requirement

Section 9004 requires a report, not later than 30 days after enactment of this Act, on the proposed uses of all funds in this title on a country and project basis for which the obligation of funds is anticipated. Such report should be updated every 30 days until September 30, 2016, and every 180 days until all funds are expended.

Sec. 9005. Comptroller General Oversight

Section 9005 makes available up to $500,000 of funds appropriated by this title under Economic Support Fund for the Comptroller General of the United States for oversight of activities supported with funds appropriated by this title.

DIVISION K—TRANSPORTATION, HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

CONGRESSIONAL DIRECTIVES

The language and allocations set forth in the House report (House Report 113-464) and the Senate report (Senate Report 113-182) should be complied with unless specifically addressed to the contrary in this division or explanatory statement. Report language included by the House, which is not changed by the report of the Senate or this explanatory statement, and the Senate report language, which is not changed by this explanatory statement, is a result of the 2015 appropriations agreement. The explanatory statement, while repeating some report language for emphasis, does not intend to negate the language referred to above unless expressly provided herein. In cases where the House or the Senate has directed the submission of a report, such report is to be submitted to both the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations. The Department of Transportation and the Department of Housing and Urban Development are directed to notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations seven days prior to the announcement of a new program or authority. Any reprogramming requests must be submitted to the Committees on Appropriations no later than June 30, 2015.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $105,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Office of the Secretary. The agreement includes funding by office as specified below, and offices are to manage staffing levels within the amounts provided. Funds are available for transfer between all offices under certain conditions.

Immediate Office of the Secretary ..	$2,696,000
Immediate Office of the Deputy Secretary .....	1,011,000
Office of the General Counsel .....	19,900,000
Office of the Under Secretary for Transportation Policy .....	9,800,000
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Budget and Programs .....	12,500,000
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Government Affairs .....	2,500,000
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Administration .....	25,365,000

Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs .....	2,000,000
Office of the Executive Secretariat .....	1,714,000
Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization .....	1,414,000
Office of Intelligence, Security, and Emergency Response .....	10,600,000
Office of the Chief Information Officer .....	15,500,000

RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY

The agreement provides $13,000,000 for the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Research and Technology.

NATIONAL INFRASTRUCTURE INVESTMENTS

The agreement provides $500,000,000 for capital investments in surface transportation infrastructure, commonly known as the "TIGER" program. Funds are available for highway and bridge projects, transit projects, passenger and freight rail projects, and port and inland port projects, but not planning activities.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT CAPITAL

The agreement provides $5,000,000 for the financial management capital program.

CYBER SECURITY INITIATIVES

The agreement provides $5,000,000 for departmental cyber security initiatives.

OFFICE OF CIVIL RIGHTS

The agreement provides $9,600,000 for the office of civil rights.

TRANSPORTATION PLANNING, RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The agreement provides $6,000,000 for planning, research and development activities. The Department is urged to use funds made available under this heading for increasing the number of projects published in the Federal Infrastructure Projects Permitting Dashboard.

WORKING CAPITAL FUND

The agreement limits expenditures for working capital fund activities to $181,500,000.

MINORITY BUSINESS RESOURCE CENTER PROGRAM

The agreement provides a total appropriation of $925,000 for the minority business center program: $333,000 for the cost of guaranteed loans and $592,000 for the administrative expenses of the program. The bill limits loans to $18,367,000.

MINORITY BUSINESS OUTREACH

The agreement provides $3,099,000 for minority business outreach.

PAYMENTS TO AIR CARRIERS

(AIRPORT AND AIRWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement provides $155,000,000 for payments to air carriers. In addition to these funds, the program will receive approximately $100,000,000 in overflight fees pursuant to the FAA Modernization and Reform Act of 2012.

The agreement includes a provision that allows amounts authorized for the essential air service program to be immediately available from resources of the Federal Aviation Administration and that such resources shall be reimbursed from collected overflight fees.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION

Section 101 prohibits funds available to the Department of Transportation from being obligated for the Office of the Secretary of Transportation to approve assessments or reimbursable agreements pertaining to funds appropriated to the modal administrations, except for activities underway on the date of enactment of this Act, unless such assessments or agreements have completed the normal reprogramming process for Congressional notification.

Section 102 allows the Secretary of Transportation or his designee to engage with states to consider proposals related to the reduction of motorcycle fatalities.

Section 103 allows the Department of Transportation Working Capital Fund to provide payments in advance to vendors for the Federal transit pass fringe benefit program.

Section 104 requires the Secretary of Transportation to post on the web a schedule of all Credit Council meetings, agendas, and meeting minutes.

OPERATIONS

(AIRPORT AND AIRWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement includes $9,740,700,000 for the operations of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA). Of the total amount provided, $8,595,000,000 is to be derived from the airport and airway trust fund. Funds are distributed in the bill by budget activity.

The following table compares the agreement to the levels proposed in the budget request by activity:

	Budget Request	Agreement
Air Traffic Organization .....	$7,396,654,000	$7,396,654,000
Aviation Safety .....	1,215,458,000	1,218,458,000
Commercial Space Transportation .....	16,605,000	16,605,000
Finance and management .....	765,047,000	756,047,000
NextGen and operations planning .....	60,089,000	60,089,000
Staff offices .....	296,147,000	292,847,000
Total .....	$9,750,000,000	$9,740,700,000

Operations funding.—The agreement includes the full budget request for the air traffic organization, commercial space transportation, and NextGen operations and planning. An increase of $3,000,000 above the budget request is provided for aviation safety activities to facilitate the safe integration of unmanned aircraft into the national airspace. The agreement includes reductions of $9,300,000 below the budget request from non-operational, administrative activities.

Facility security.—In the aftermath of the fire at the Chicago Air Route Traffic Control Center, FAA completed a 30-day review of agency contingency plans and security procedures. The FAA identified near and long term measures that will improve security and minimize service disruptions. The agency, however, has not yet been able to indicate how measures that can be taken in fiscal year 2015 impact the priorities it had identified in the budget request. FAA is therefore directed to identify resources to advance these measures through the prioritization of its programs and, if necessary, submit a reprogramming request to complete the most urgent security initiatives.

Contract towers.—The agreement provides $144,500,000 for the contract tower program, including $9,500,000 for the contract tower cost-sharing program.

Controller hiring eligibility.—The agreement includes language prohibiting the use of funds to issue a job announcement for air traffic control specialists that renders ineligible by reason of age an applicant in the specialist inventory as of January 15, 2014 who was born between February 9, 1983 and October 1, 1984.

Controller hiring.—The FAA is directed to provide an update on its fiscal year 2014 controller hiring progress, including hiring totals, academy completion totals, and an analysis of hiring and screening procedures, within 60 days of enactment.

Air traffic control optimum training solution (ATCOTS).—The FAA is directed to provide a training plan for meeting hiring goals in fiscal year 2015 within 60 days after enactment. Further, the Office of Inspector General (OIG) is directed to submit an update to the December 2013 report on the ATCOTS program no later than six months after enactment.

Aircraft certification review process and reform.—The FAA is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations a report within 60 days of enactment on measures of effectiveness that the FAA is applying to its implementation of the aviation rulemaking committee's recommendations to expanding the use of delegated authority and a risk-based, systems safety approach to its oversight. The report should include all of the requirements outlined in House report 113-464 and Senate report 113-182.

Aircraft certification workforce staffing.—The FAA is directed to include in its annual aviation workforce safety workforce plan a section devoted to the actions undertaken and planned by the FAA to further enhance aircraft certification workforce skills and training.

International coordination of certification activities.—The FAA is expected to use such funds as may be necessary to coordinate with and educate other international aviation authorities about FAA's certification processes.

Small Airplane Revitalization Act.—The FAA is expected to use the resources as requested in the budget request to support the completion of a final rule that advances the safety and continued development of small airplanes, as required by the Small Airplane Revitalization Act of 2013.

Pilots records database.—The FAA is directed to provide a letter report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on its progress in meeting the requirements of section 203 of the Airline Safety Act of 2010 no later than 60 days after enactment of this Act.

Public comment periods.—Public comment periods play a critical role in the FAA's rulemaking proceedings and the agency's non-rulemaking activities related to special use airspace. To ensure the public's ability to submit comments on actions being considered by the FAA, it is important to make electronic submissions available, especially as many individuals have shifted toward providing comments to the Federal government through the internet. The FAA is urged to update its procedures to ensure an online venue is available for comment submissions for proceedings initiated after the date of enactment of this Act. These updates should not undermine progress or in any way impede current airspace proceedings.

Phoenix departure procedures.—The FAA has been helpful in evaluating measures to address local concerns that have been raised as a result of new departure routes out of Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport. The FAA is directed to continue to work expeditiously to identify appropriate mitigation measures and to enforce adherence to flight procedures, unless specific flight modifications are necessary for safety purposes, in order to avoid impacts on nearby residential neighborhoods. The FAA is expected to provide a progress report on these measures to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 90 days of enactment of this Act.

FACILITIES AND EQUIPMENT

(AIRPORT AND AIRWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement includes $2,600,000,000 for FAA facilities and equipment. Of the total amount available, $460,000,000 is available until September 30, 2015 and $2,140,000,000 is available until September 30, 2017. The agreement includes language directing FAA to transmit a detailed five-year capital investment plan to Congress with its fiscal year 2016 budget submission, and reducing funding by $100,000 for each day the capital investment plan is late.

The following table provides a breakdown of the agreement by program:

NextGen-environment.—The agreement includes $3,000,000 above the budget request for the NextGen-environment portfolio to support the Continuous Low Energy, Emissions and Noise (CLEEN) program to develop and test aircraft technologies that reduce noise, emissions and fuel burn.

NextGen-improve multiple runway operations.—The agreement includes $5,500,000 for FAA's program to improve multiple runway operations. Of this amount, $2,000,000 is to enhance procedures to allow operations on closely spaced parallel runways, $1,500,000 is to mitigate wake turbulence on arrivals, and $2,000,000 is to support Category III development and certification efforts needed for FAA's ground-based augmentation system.

Automatic dependent surveillance-broadcast (ADS-B) implementation.—The agreement includes an increase of $7,500,000 above the budget request to advance the use of space-based ADS-B for air traffic control separation services and support the collection and validation of surveillance data and help assess the impact on FAA's oceanic automation system. The FAA is directed to make an investment decision regarding satellite-based ADS-B no later than 30 days after enactment of this Act to address the concern that the agency's absence from the program is undermining its status as a global safety and technology leader.

Enhanced low visibility operations.—The agreement includes $1,500,000 above the budget request to support enhanced low visibility operations and directs FAA to use the funding for advanced aircraft and airport navigation safety equipment for airports serving remote communities that rely on aviation for basic transportation needs.

RESEARCH, ENGINEERING AND DEVELOPMENT
(AIRPORT AND AIRWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement provides $156,750,000 for the FAA's research, engineering, and development activities.

The agreement provides the following levels for specific programs:

Program	Request	Agreement
Fire Research and Safety .....	6,929,000	6,000,000
Propulsion and Fuel Systems .....	2,413,000	2,000,000

TOTAL .....	156,750,000	156,750,000

Unmanned Aerial Systems (UAS).—The agreement includes $14,974,000 for unmanned aircraft systems research, an increase of $6,000,000 above the budget request. Within this increase, $4,000,000 is provided for a new center of excellence on unmanned aircraft systems, for a total of $5,000,000 for the center; and $2,000,000 is provided to help meet FAA's UAS research goals of system safety and data gathering, aircraft certification, command and control link challenges, control station layouts and certification, sense and avoid, and environmental impacts.

NextGen environmental research-aircraft technologies, fuels, and metrics.—The agreement provides $23,014,000 for environmental research-aircraft technologies, fuels, and metrics, an increase of $3,500,000 above the budget request to continue the research, development and testing of alternative fuels, including efforts to produce fit for purpose chemical-analytical, fuel-property and material compatibility testing, and to continue the Continuous, Lower Energy Emission, and Noise (CLEEN) program.

GRANTS-IN-AID FOR AIRPORTS
(LIQUIDATION OF CONTRACT AUTHORIZATION)
(LIMITATION ON OBLIGATIONS)
(AIRPORT AND AIRWAY TRUST FUND)
(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)
(INCLUDING RESCISSION)

The agreement includes an obligation limitation of $3,350,000,000; a liquidating cash appropriation of $3,200,000,000; a limitation on administrative expenses of not more than $107,100,000; not less than $15,000,000 for the airport cooperative research program; and not less than $29,750,000 for airport technology research.

Small community air service development program.—The agreement includes $5,500,000 under the obligation limitation to continue the small community air service development program (SCASDP) and directs the FAA to transfer funds to the Office of the Secretary salaries and expenses appropriation.

Cost share.—The agreement includes a provision that allows small airports to continue contributing five percent of the total cost for unfinished phased projects that were underway prior to the passage of the FAA Modernization and Reform Act of 2012.

Rescission.—The agreement includes a rescission of amounts authorized for fiscal year 2015 and prior years under section 48112 of title 49, U.S.C.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

Section 110 allows no more than 600 technical staff-years at the Center for Advanced Aviation Systems Development.

Section 111 prohibits funds for adopting guidelines or regulations requiring airport sponsors to provide FAA “without cost” building construction or space.

Section 112 allows reimbursement for fees collected and credited under 49 U.S.C. 45303.

Section 113 allows reimbursement of funds for providing technical assistance to foreign aviation authorities to be credited to the operations account.

Section 114 prohibits funds for Sunday premium pay unless work was actually performed on a Sunday.

Section 115 prohibits funds in the Act from being used to buy store gift cards with Government issued credit cards.

Section 116 allows all airports experiencing the required level of boardings through charter and scheduled air service to be eligible for funds under 49 U.S.C. 47114(c).

Section 117 prohibits funds from being obligated or expended for retention bonuses for FAA employees without prior written approval of the DOT Assistant Secretary for Administration.

Section 118 limits to 20 percent the cost share required under the contract tower cost-share program.

Section 119 requires the Secretary to block the display of an owner or operator’s aircraft registration number in the Aircraft Situational Display to Industry program upon the request of an owner or operator.

Section 119A prohibits funds for salaries and expenses of more than nine political and Presidential appointees in the FAA.

Section 119B prohibits funds to increase fees under 49 U.S.C. 44721 until the FAA provides a report to the Committees on Appropriations that justifies all fees related to aeronautical navigation products and explains how such fees are consistent with Executive Order 13642.

Section 119C prohibits funds from being used to change weight restrictions or prior permission rules at Teterboro Airport in New Jersey.

Section 119D requires FAA to notify the Committees on Appropriations at least 90 days before closing a regional operations center or reducing the services provided.

Section 119E clarifies the name of the FAA center of excellence on advanced materials.

Section 119F provides an average Federal share for a primary non-hub airport located in a public lands state within 15 miles from the border of another public lands state with a higher Federal share.

FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION
LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES
(HIGHWAY TRUST FUND)
(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The agreement limits obligations for the administrative expenses of the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) to $426,100,000. In addition, the agreement provides $3,248,000 above this limitation for the administrative expenses of the Appalachian Regional Commission in accordance with 23 U.S.C. 104.

FEDERAL-AID HIGHWAYS
(LIMITATION ON OBLIGATIONS)
(HIGHWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement limits obligations for the federal-aid highways program to $40,256,000,000 in fiscal year 2015.

Safety performance measures and reporting requirements.—FHWA is directed to establish separate, non-motorized safety performance measures for the highway safety improvement program, define performance measures for fatalities and serious injuries from pedestrian and bicycle crashes, and publish its final rule on safety performance measures no later than September 30, 2015.

(LIQUIDATION OF CONTRACT AUTHORIZATION)
(HIGHWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement provides a liquidating cash appropriation of $40,995,000,000, which is available until expended, to pay the outstanding obligations of the various highway programs at the levels provided in this Act and prior appropriations acts.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION

Section 120 distributes the federal-aid highways program obligation limitation.

Section 121 allows funds received by the Bureau of Transportation Statistics from the sale of data products to be credited to the federal-aid highways account.

Section 122 provides requirements for any waiver of Buy America requirements.

Section 123 prohibits tolling in Texas, with exceptions.

Section 124 prohibits funds from being used to provide credit assistance under sections 603 and 604 of title 23, United States Code, unless the Secretary of Transportation notifies the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, the Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works, the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs, and the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure at least three days prior to credit application approval.

Section 125 changes title 23, United States Code, to add additional exemptions to federal truck weight limitations.

FEDERAL MOTOR CARRIER SAFETY ADMINISTRATION
MOTOR CARRIER SAFETY OPERATIONS AND PROGRAMS
(LIQUIDATION OF CONTRACT AUTHORIZATION)
(LIMITATION ON OBLIGATIONS)
(HIGHWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement includes a liquidation of contract authorization and a limitation on obligations of $271,000,000 for the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA), of which $12,000,000 is made available from prior year unobligated balances of contract authority. Of this limitation, $9,000,000 is for research and technology programs and will remain available for obligation until September 30, 2017; $34,545,000 is for information management and shall be available until September 30, 2017; $2,300,000 is for commercial motor vehicle operator grants; $4,000,000 is available for the study required under section 133 of this Act; and, $6,700,000 is available for inspection and enforcement activities related to the transportation of energy products, information management and technology needs, and the implementation of the Capital Improvement Plan for border facilities and field offices. The agreement includes a provision which requires the Secretary to complete final regulatory action on the implementation of 49 U.S.C. 31137 no later than June 1, 2015.

Compliance reviews of mandatory carriers.—The Secretary shall transmit to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations a report on FMCSA’s ability to meet its requirement to conduct compliance reviews on mandatory carriers for the preceding fiscal year no later than March 27, 2015.

Safety fitness determination.—The Secretary shall initiate action on a safety fitness determination rule no later than June 1, 2015.

Small passenger van compliance.—The Secretary is directed to engage with stakeholders through a notice and comment period prior to issuing any guidance that would enforce commercial regulations against an entity providing transportation for no more than fifteen passengers by passenger van as an incidental business activity for which it does not receive direct compensation.

Hours of service.—The agreement does not require the report on the FMCSA’s hours of service rule referenced in House Report 113-464. However, under section 133, the agreement includes a temporary suspension of certain hours of service regulations and requires a comprehensive field study of the impact of those regulations.

MOTOR CARRIER SAFETY GRANTS
(LIQUIDATION OF CONTRACT AUTHORIZATION)
(LIMITATION ON OBLIGATIONS)
(HIGHWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement provides a liquidating cash appropriation and a limitation on obligations of $313,000,000 for motor carrier safety grants. The agreement allocates the total grant funding as follows:

Program	Funding
Motor carrier safety assistance program .....	$218,000,000
Commercial driver’s license program improvement grants .....	30,000,000
Border enforcement grants .....	32,000,000
Performance and registration information system management grants .....	5,000,000
Commercial vehicle information systems and networks deployment program .....	25,000,000
Safety data improvement grants .....	3,000,000

Of the $218,000,000 provided for the motor carrier safety assistance program, the agreement provides $32,000,000 for audits of new entrant motor carriers.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—FEDERAL MOTOR CARRIER SAFETY ADMINISTRATION

Section 130 subjects funds appropriated in this Act to the terms and conditions of section 350 of Public Law 107–87 and section 6901 of Public Law 110–28.

Section 131 requires FMCSA to send notice of 49 CFR section 385.308 violations by certified mail, registered mail, or some other manner of delivery which records receipt of the notice by the persons responsible for the violations.

Section 132 prohibits funding provided under the Act from being used to enforce any regulation prohibiting a state from issuing a commercial learner's permit to individuals under the age of eighteen if state law authorizes such issuance as of May 9, 2011.

Section 133 temporarily suspends enforcement of the hours of service regulation related to the restart provisions that went into effect on July 1, 2013 and directs the Secretary to conduct a study of the operational, safety, health and fatigue aspects of the restart provisions in effect before and after July 1, 2013. The Inspector General is directed to review the study plan and report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations whether it meets the requirements under this provision.

Section 134 prohibits funds from being used to deny an application to renew a hazardous materials safety permit unless a carrier has the opportunity to present its own corrective actions and the Secretary determines such actions are insufficient.

NATIONAL HIGHWAY TRAFFIC SAFETY ADMINISTRATION

OPERATIONS AND RESEARCH

The agreement provides $130,000,000 from the general fund for operations and research activities. Of this amount, $20,000,000 shall remain available until September 30, 2016.

The agreement provides funding as requested in the budget for vehicle electronics and emerging technology research and for advanced testing of emerging technologies at the Vehicle Research and Test Center in East Liberty, Ohio. Additional resources are provided to improve the Office of Defect Investigation's ability to identify vehicle safety defects, expand crash worthiness testing, conclude equipment compliance testing, conduct research and testing for motorcoach safety regulatory activities, and to continue testing of emerging alternative fuel systems. Specifically, $9,300,000 is provided to support the implementation and maintenance of the electronic document and records management system corporate information factory and $10,000,000 is provided for the new car assessment program. In addition, as requested, $9,140,000 is provided for federal motor vehicle safety standards and $7,900,000 is provided for the corporate average fuel economy program.

OPERATIONS AND RESEARCH

(LIQUIDATION OF CONTRACT AUTHORIZATION)

(LIMITATION ON OBLIGATIONS)

(HIGHWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement provides a liquidating cash appropriation and an obligation limitation of $138,500,000, to remain available until expended, which reflects the authorized level of contract authority plus $20,000,000 from prior-year unobligated contract authority balances. Of the total, $133,500,000 is provided for the programs authorized under 23 U.S.C. 403, and $5,000,000 is for the National Driver Register. Of the total amount provided under this heading, $20,000,000 shall remain available until September 30, 2016 and shall be in addition to any limitation imposed on obligations in future fiscal years.

National roadside survey.—The agreement directs the Secretary and GAO to report on the national roadside survey as directed by Senate Report 113–182.

HIGHWAY TRAFFIC SAFETY GRANTS

(LIQUIDATION OF CONTRACT AUTHORIZATION)

(LIMITATION ON OBLIGATIONS)

(HIGHWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement provides a liquidating cash appropriation and an obligation limitation of $561,500,000 for highway traffic safety grants, to remain available until expended. The agreement allocates funding as follows:

Highway safety programs (section 402) .....	$235,000,000
National priority safety programs (section 405) .....	272,000,000
High visibility enforcement program .....	29,000,000
Administrative expenses .....	25,500,000
Total .....	561,500,000

The agreement continues a provision which prohibits certain construction and furnishing activities and limits technical assistance to States to $500,000 of the funds made available for impaired driving countermeasures under 23 U.S.C. 405(d), as amended by MAP–21.

The agreement allows for the transfer of funds within the grant programs consistent with 23 U.S.C. 405(a)(1)(G) and requires NHTSA to notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations of the exercise of this authority within 60 days of enactment of this Act.

The agreement includes $5,574,000 for in-vehicle alcohol detection device research.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—NATIONAL HIGHWAY TRAFFIC SAFETY ADMINISTRATION

Section 140 provides funding for travel and related expenses for state management reviews and highway safety core competency development training.

Section 141 exempts obligation authority made available in previous public laws from the obligation limitations set for the current year.

Section 142 prohibits the use of funds to implement 23 U.S.C. 404.

FEDERAL RAILROAD ADMINISTRATION

SAFETY AND OPERATIONS

The agreement provides $186,870,000 for safety and operations of the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA). Of the funds provided, $15,400,000 is available until expended. The agreement provides $370,000 for five new safety inspectors and $3,000,000 for the automated track inspection program, including amounts to fund an automated car for inspection of crude oil routes.

RAILROAD RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The agreement provides $39,100,000 for railroad research and development. The agreement is consistent with the budget request and provides an additional $2,000,000 to improve safety practices and safety training for Class II and Class III freight railroads. This additional funding supports FRA's initiative to partner with short line and regional railroads to build a stronger, sustainable safety culture in this segment of the rail industry. The initiative will support safety compliance assessments and training on short lines that transport crude oil. In addition, the agreement provides $2,000,000 for the design, testing and evaluation of liquefied natural gas (LNG) bulk tank cars, LNG locomotive tenders, and technologies suitable to retrofit tank cars that transport certain high-risk flammable liquids.

RAILROAD REHABILITATION AND IMPROVEMENT FINANCING PROGRAM

The agreement authorizes the Secretary to issue notes or other obligations pursuant to section 501 through 504 of P.L. 94–210. The agreement prohibits new direct loans or loan guarantee commitments using Federal funds for the credit risk premium during fiscal year 2015. The agreement also prohibits new direct loans or loan guarantee commitments in fiscal year 2015 that cause the total principal amount committed to projects in a single state to exceed $5,600,000,000.

OPERATING GRANTS TO THE NATIONAL RAILROAD PASSENGER CORPORATION

The agreement provides $250,000,000 in quarterly operating grants to Amtrak, based on the Secretary's assessment of Amtrak's seasonal cash flow requirements, and provides that funds remain available until expended. Before approving funding to cover operating losses, the agreement requires the Secretary to review a grant request for each specific train route. The agreement prohibits Amtrak from discounting tickets at more than 50 percent off the normal peak fare, unless the operating loss due to the discounted fare is covered by a state and the state participates in setting the fares.

The agreement requires Amtrak to take actions to reduce food and beverage losses identified in the October 31, 2013 OIG report, and as summarized in House Report 113–464. Within 60 days of enactment of this Act, Amtrak is directed to provide a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations detailing reforms Amtrak has implemented to reduce food and beverage losses, the savings each reform generated since Amtrak's October 3, 2013 announcement, and its plan to eliminate food and beverage losses by October 2018.

CAPITAL AND DEBT SERVICE GRANTS TO THE NATIONAL RAILROAD PASSENGER CORPORATION

The agreement provides $1,140,000,000 for capital and debt service grants to Amtrak to remain available until expended. Within the funds provided, the agreement includes up to $175,000,000 for Amtrak's debt service payments, and not less than $50,000,000 for investments to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act. In addition, the agreement provides for an initial distribution of $200,000,000 for a working capital account, allows the Secretary to use up to $50,000,000 for operating grants to Amtrak should its operating losses in fiscal year 2015 exceed amounts provided under the previous heading, and conditions the Secretary's approval of grants for capital expenditures upon the receipt and review of a grant request for each specific capital project justifying the Federal support to the Secretary's satisfaction. The agreement allows the Secretary to retain up to one-half of one percent of the funds provided under this heading for oversight of both operating activities and capital expenditures. The agreement also allows the Secretary to retain up to $5,000,000 to fund the costs associated with implementing section 212 of division B of Public Law 110–432.

The agreement retains the requirement that the Northeast Corridor Infrastructure and Operations Advisory Commission submit a fiscal year 2016 budget request. The agreement directs Amtrak to provide transparent, accurate cost information to States on the section 209 cost methodology consistent with Senate Report 113–182, requires Amtrak to conduct a business case analysis on all major capital acquisitions that exceed $10,000,000 in life cycle costs, and directs Amtrak to increase transparency regarding capital projects in its budget submissions. The agreement retains a reporting requirement included in House Report 113-464 relating to Amtrak's contract to purchase 70 electric locomotives, and directs Amtrak to submit within 90 days of enactment of this Act, a determination of how many locomotives it needs and a business case analysis on continuing the contract or reducing its scope if Amtrak needs fewer than 70.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—FEDERAL RAILROAD ADMINISTRATION

Section 150 allows the FRA safety and operations account to receive and use cash or spare parts to repair and replace damaged track inspection cars.

Section 151 authorizes the Secretary to allow the issuer of preferred stock sold to the Department to redeem or repurchase such stock upon payment to the Department as determined by the Secretary.

Section 152 limits overtime to $35,000 per employee. The agreement allows Amtrak's president to waive this restriction for specific employees for safety or operational efficiency reasons. Amtrak's president is required to delineate the reasons for granting such waivers, provide quarterly reports on waivers granted, amounts paid above the cap, and the department that incurred the overtime for each employee by month for the quarter. The agreement also requires Amtrak's president to provide an annual report by March 1, 2015 that summarizes Amtrak's total overtime expenses by month and by department, the number of employees receiving overtime cap waivers by department and the total overtime payments resulting from waivers for each employee by month of the 2014 calendar year and the three prior calendar years.

Section 153 appropriates $10,000,000 to the Secretary to make grants for grade crossing and track improvements on rail routes that transport energy products.

FEDERAL TRANSIT ADMINISTRATION ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

The agreement provides $105,933,000 for the administrative expenses of the Federal Transit Administration (FTA), of which not less than $4,500,000 is for the safety office and $1,000,000 is for asset management activities. Staffing levels are to be determined by funding levels under this heading. FTA is directed to follow the process for informing the Committees on Appropriations on full funding grant agreement notifications consistent with prior years and include appropriations information through fiscal year 2019.

TRANSIT FORMULA GRANTS (LIQUIDATION OF CONTRACT AUTHORIZATION) (LIMITATION ON OBLIGATIONS) (HIGHWAY TRUST FUND)

The agreement limits obligations from the Mass Transit Account for transit formula grants to $8,595,000,000, as authorized by MAP-21. Funds are to be distributed as authorized. Further, the agreement provides $9,500,000,000 for the liquidation of contract authority.

TRANSIT RESEARCH

The agreement provides $33,000,000 for FTA's research program, of which $30,000,000 is for the national research program (§5312) and $3,000,000 is for the cooperative research program (§5313).

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE AND TRAINING

The agreement provides $4,500,000 for transit technical assistance and training, of which $4,000,000 is for technical assistance and standards development (§5314) and $500,000 is for training (§5322). FTA should recognize the continuing need for a strong technical assistance, education and research program for every component of public transit systems.

CAPITAL INVESTMENT GRANTS (INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

The bill appropriates $2,120,000,000 for new fixed-guideway projects. Combined with available prior year transit funds, a total of $2,147,989,839 is available for new start activities.

Of the funds available, $1,510,137,944 is for projects with signed full funding grant agreements (FFGAs), $120,000,000 is available for core capacity projects, and $21,149,233 is available for oversight activities. For new small start projects, $143,712,823 of the funds provided under this heading, plus $27,989,839 in prior year funds (as provided in Sec. 168), are available. The agreement rescinds a total of $121,546,138 in prior year funds.

For projects anticipated to be under a signed FFGA in fiscal year 2015, $325,000,000 is available. FTA is directed to give funding priority to projects requiring a 40 percent or less Federal share.

GRANTS TO THE WASHINGTON METROPOLITAN AREA TRANSIT AUTHORITY

The agreement provides $150,000,000 to carry out section 601 of division B of Public Law 110-432 to remain available until expended. The bill includes language temporarily waiving the wireless access requirements in the Passenger Rail Investment and Improvement Act for fiscal year 2015 and requiring the Secretary to certify that WMATA is making significant progress addressing audit recommendations.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—FEDERAL TRANSIT ADMINISTRATION

Section 160 exempts previously made transit obligations from limitations on obligations.

Section 161 allows funds provided in this Act for fixed guideway capital investment projects that remain unobligated by September 30, 2019 be available for projects eligible to use the funds for the purposes for which they were originally provided.

Section 162 allows for the transfer of appropriations made prior to October 1, 2014 from older accounts to be merged into new accounts with similar current activities.

Section 163 exempts an area in Washington State from enforcement of the charter bus rule.

Section 164 allows the Secretary to consider significant private contributions when calculating the non-Federal share of capital costs for new starts projects.

Section 165 limits FTA to signing full funding grant agreements with a new starts share of 60 percent or less.

Section 166 prohibits funds in this Act from being used to advance a specific transit line in Harris County, Texas.

Section 167 directs that in developing guidance implementing 49 U.S.C. 5309(i) regarding interrelated projects, the Secretary shall consider projects eligible under 5309(h), including streetcars.

Section 168 allows bus rapid transit projects recommended for funding in fiscal year 2015 under "capital investment grants" to be funded by $27,989,839 in unobligated and unexpended discretionary formula funds.

SAINT LAWRENCE SEAWAY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

OPERATIONS AND MAINTENANCE (HARBOR MAINTENANCE TRUST FUND)

The agreement provides $32,042,000 for the operations, maintenance and capital asset renewal program of the Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation (SLSDC), of which $542,000 is to support the economic and trade development mission of the SLSDC. The agreement requires the SLSDC to report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations by April 30, 2015 on the asset renewal program, consistent with the requirements of the Explanatory Statement of the Department of Transportation Appropriations Act of 2009.

MARITIME ADMINISTRATION MARITIME SECURITY PROGRAM

The agreement provides the full authorized level of $186,000,000 for the maritime security program.

OPERATIONS AND TRAINING

The agreement provides a total of $148,050,000 for the Maritime Administration's (MARAD) operations and training account.

For the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy (USMMA), the bill provides a total of $79,150,000. Of the funds provided, $64,150,000 is for Academy operations and $15,000,000 is for capital asset management activities, of which $12,000,000 is for capital improvements and $3,000,000 is for maintenance, repairs and equipment.

The agreement provides a total of $18,500,000 for the state maritime academies, of which $3,600,000 is for direct payments, $2,400,000 is for student incentive payments, $11,300,000 is for scholarship maintenance and repair, and $1,200,000 is for fuel assistance.

Finally, the agreement provides a total of $50,400,000 for MARAD headquarters, regional offices, and maritime program expenses. Of the amount, $3,000,000 is for the maritime environmental and technical assistance program as authorized by 46 U.S.C. 50307.

SHIP DISPOSAL

The agreement provides $4,000,000 for the disposal of obsolete vessels of the National Defense Reserve Fleet.

MARITIME GUARANTEED LOAN (TITLE XI) PROGRAM ACCOUNT

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $3,100,000 for the administrative expenses of the Title XI program. Funds are to be transferred to MARAD's operations and training account.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—MARITIME ADMINISTRATION

Section 170 authorizes MARAD to furnish utilities and services and make necessary repairs in connection with any lease, contract, or occupancy involving Government property under control of MARAD, and allow payments received to be credited to the Treasury and remain available until expended.

Section 171 prohibits a fee-for-service contract for vessel disposal, scrapping or recycling unless a qualified domestic ship recycler will pay for the vessel.

PIPELINE AND HAZARDOUS MATERIALS SAFETY ADMINISTRATION

OPERATIONAL EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The agreement provides $22,225,000 for the necessary operational expenses of the Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA). Of the amount provided, $1,500,000 is to be transferred to the pipeline safety account to fund pipeline safety information grants to communities.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS SAFETY

The agreement provides $52,000,000 for the agency's hazardous materials safety functions. Of this amount, $7,000,000 shall be available until September 30, 2017, and $800,000 in fees collected under 49 U.S.C. 5108(g) shall be deposited in the general fund as offsetting receipts. Funds made available until September 30, 2017 are for long-term research and development contracts.

Tank car design.—The Secretary is directed to finalize DOT-111 tank car design regulations no later than January 15, 2015.

Small-scale natural gas liquefaction facilities.—The agreement directs PHMSA to evaluate and develop new approaches for the siting, design and construction of small-scale liquefaction facilities that generate and package liquefied natural gas as a transportation fuel for domestic delivery via non-pipeline means. The agency shall consider ways to facilitate the growing demand for this alternative fuel while also ensuring appropriate public safety protections consistent with updated National Fire Protection Standards and industry best practices, in cooperation with state authorities where applicable.

PIPELINE SAFETY

(PIPELINE SAFETY FUND)

(OIL SPILL LIABILITY TRUST FUND)

(PIPELINE SAFETY DESIGN REVIEW FUND)

The agreement provides $146,000,000 for pipeline safety activities. Of this amount, $19,500,000 is derived from the oil spill liability trust fund, to remain available until September 30, 2017, $124,500,000 is derived from the pipeline safety fund, of which $66,309,000 is available until September 30, 2017, and $2,000,000 is derived from the pipeline safety design review fund, to remain available until expended. The agreement provides not less than $1,058,000 for the one-call state grant program.

The agreement does not include funding requested for a national pipeline information exchange.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS GRANTS

(EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS FUND)

The agreement provides $188,000, derived from the emergency preparedness fund and available until September 30, 2016, and an obligation limitation of $28,318,000 for emergency preparedness grants. The agreement provides PHMSA the authority to use prior year carryover and recaptures to develop a web-based hazardous materials response training curriculum for emergency responders, including response activities for crude oil, ethanol, and other flammable liquids by rail. The training curriculum shall be developed in coordination with the FRA and be consistent with National Fire Protection Association standards. Prior year carryover balances shall also be used to train public sector emergency response personnel in communities on or near rail lines that transport a significant volume of high-risk energy commodities or toxic inhalation hazards. Further, the amount of funding provided under this account that is available for administrative costs is increased from two percent to four percent.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement includes $86,223,000 for the Office of Inspector General. The agreement includes language that provides the Inspector General with authority to participate in asset forfeiture programs.

SURFACE TRANSPORTATION BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $31,375,000 for salaries and expenses of the Surface Transportation Board. The agreement permits the collection of up to $1,250,000 in user fees to be credited to this appropriation. The agreement provides that the general fund appropriation be reduced on a dollar-for-dollar basis by the actual amount collected in user fees to result in a final appropriation from the general fund estimated at no more than $30,125,000.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Section 180 allows the Department of Transportation to use funds for aircraft, motor vehicles, liability insurance, uniforms, or allowances, as authorized by law.

Section 181 limits appropriations for services authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109 to the rate for an Executive Level IV.

Section 182 prohibits funds from being used for salaries and expenses of more than 110 political and Presidential appointees in DOT. The provision also requires that none of the personnel covered by this provision may be assigned on temporary detail outside DOT.

Section 183 prohibits recipients of funds made available in this Act from releasing certain personal information and photographs from a driver's license or motor vehicle record without express consent of the person to whom such information pertains, and prohibits the withholding of funds provided in this Act for any grantee if a state is in noncompliance with this provision.

Section 184 permits funds received by specified DOT agencies from states or other private or public sources for expenses incurred for training to be credited to certain specified agency accounts.

Section 185 prohibits funds for loans, loan guarantees, lines of credit, or grants unless the Secretary of Transportation notifies the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations no less than three days in advance, and directs the Secretary to give concurrent notification for any "quick release" of funds from the Federal Highway Administration's emergency release program.

Section 186 allows funds received from rebates, refunds, and similar sources to be credited to appropriations of the DOT.

Section 187 allows amounts from improper payments to a third party contractor that are lawfully recovered by the DOT to be available to cover expenses incurred in the recovery of such payments, and allows the Secretary to credit an account that is associated with such improper payments.

Section 188 mandates that reprogramming action notifications shall be transmitted solely to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, and are to be approved or denied solely by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

Section 189 caps the amount of fees the Surface Transportation Board can charge and collect for rate or practice complaints filed at the amount authorized for court civil suit filing fees.

Section 190 allows funds appropriated to modal administrations to be obligated for the Office of the Secretary for costs related to assessments only when such funds provide a direct benefit to that modal administration.

Section 191 authorizes DOT to set uniform standards for transit benefits for agency transit passes and transit benefits.

TITLE II—DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

EXECUTIVE OFFICES

The agreement includes $14,500,000 for the salaries and expenses for Executive Offices which shall be comprised of seven offices including Offices of the Secretary, Deputy Secretary, Adjudicatory Services, Congressional and Intergovernmental Relations, Public Affairs, Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization, and the Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships. The agreement includes a provision limiting official reception and representation expenses to no more than $25,000.

The Department is not directed to find efficiencies adequate to reduce travel and contracting expenses within the account by at least ten percent. The Department is directed to submit a spending plan to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within ninety days of the date of enactment which outlines how budgetary resources are to be distributed among the seven offices.

ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT OFFICES

The agreement provides $518,100,000 for Administrative Support Offices. Funds are provided as follows:

Office of the Chief Financial Officer .....	$47,000,000
Office of the General Counsel ...	94,000,000
Office of Administration .....	200,000,000
Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer .....	57,000,000
Office of Field Policy and Management .....	50,000,000
Office of the Chief Procurement Officer .....	16,500,000
Office of Departmental Equal Employment Opportunity .....	3,200,000
Office of Strategic Planning and Management .....	4,400,000
Office of the Chief Information Officer .....	46,000,000
Total .....	518,100,000

The increase for the Office of the Chief Information Officer includes amounts transferred from the information technology fund account for contractor support.

PROGRAM OFFICE SALARIES AND EXPENSES

PUBLIC AND INDIAN HOUSING

The agreement provides $203,000,000 for the salaries and expenses for the Office of Public and Indian Housing. The amount provided supports critical new hires in key areas including additional staff in oversight and moving-to-work, one FTE dedicated to the Office of Native American Programs, and at least one FTE dedicated to work on the family self-sufficiency and the resident opportunity and self-sufficiency programs. In fiscal year 2014, HUD was directed to increase the budgetary resources dedicated to unit inspections by $5,000,000 above fiscal year 2013, and the agreement includes $5,000,000 to sustain the increased level of investment in fiscal year 2015. These investments include the establishment of a consistent inspection standard across housing assistance programs and oversight of Section 8 units.

COMMUNITY PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

The agreement provides $102,000,000 for the salaries and expenses for the Office of Community Planning and Development.

HOUSING

The agreement provides $379,000,000 for the salaries and expenses for the Office of Housing, of which at least $9,000,000 is for the Office of Risk and Regulatory Affairs.

Office of Multi-Family Housing Reorganization.—The Department is directed to report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 180 days of enactment of this Act on the progress of the reorganization of the Office of Multifamily Housing, including any issues identified in the initial waves of the plan and any adjustments HUD is making to its implementation based on lessons learned.

POLICY DEVELOPMENT AND RESEARCH

The agreement provides $22,700,000 for the salaries and expenses for the Office of Policy Development and Research.

FAIR HOUSING AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The agreement provides $68,000,000 for the salaries and expenses for the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity.

OFFICE OF LEAD HAZARD CONTROL AND HEALTHY HOMES

The agreement provides $6,700,000 for the salaries and expenses for the Office of Lead Hazard Control and Healthy Homes.

PUBLIC AND INDIAN HOUSING

TENANT-BASED RENTAL ASSISTANCE

The agreement provides $19,304,160,000 for all tenant-based section 8 activities under the Tenant-Based Rental Assistance Account. Language is included designating funds provided as follows:

Activity	Agreement
Voucher Renewals .....	$17,486,000,000
Tenant Protection Vouchers .....	130,000,000
Administrative Fees .....	1,530,000,000
HUD-VASH Incremental Vouchers .....	75,000,000
Section 811 Vouchers .....	83,160,000

The amount in the agreement included for voucher renewals is based on revised estimates from the Department using more recent data. This estimate also includes amounts to cover leasing that is anticipated to occur before the end of the year.

The agreement includes language allowing the Secretary to take into account anticipated impact of changes in income targeting and utility allowances in determining funding allocations. The agreement includes a provision requiring the notification of obligations to public housing authorities (PHAs) 60 days after enactment or by March 1, 2015.

The agreement includes language that allows the Secretary to consider PHAs' net restricted assets balances when determining allocations.

The agreement provides $120,000,000 for PHAs that need additional funds to administer their Section 8 programs related to specified circumstances, including PHAs that experienced significant end of year leasing in calendar year 2014.

The agreement includes provisions requiring HUD to set aside a portion of HUD-Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing Program (HUD-VASH) funds for a pilot designed to provide housing and supportive services to veterans who are homeless or at risk of homelessness living on tribal reservations or in Indian areas. Funds are to be provided to entities eligible to receive block grants under the Native American Housing Assistance and Self Determination Act (NAHASDA).

HOUSING CERTIFICATE FUND
(INCLUDING RESCISSIONS)

The agreement includes language allowing unobligated balances in the housing certificate fund to be used for renewal of or amendments to section 8 project-based contracts and for performance-based contract administrators.

PUBLIC HOUSING CAPITAL FUND

The agreement provides $1,875,000,000 for the public housing capital fund. The agreement provides up to $5,000,000 for public housing financial and physical assessment activities, not to exceed $23,000,000 for emergency capital needs, $45,000,000 for supportive services, service coordinators and congregate services, and up to $15,000,000 for the jobs-plus pilot initiative.

The agreement includes language allowing PHAs to transfer additional amounts from their capital funds into their operating fund for activities related to safety and security.

The agreement prohibits HUD from requiring or enforcing the physical needs assessment (PNA) in fiscal year 2015. HUD is not, however, prohibited from continuing to work on a PNA tool that will help PHAs assess the physical quality of their public housing stock in a way that is not overly burdensome. HUD is expected to continue to evaluate the PNA tool and update its 2014 report to the Committees on Appropriations, as specified in the Senate report accompanying this Act, no later than March 2, 2015.

The agreement encourages housing authorities that participate in the rental assistance demonstration program to grant current workers whose employment positions are eliminated during conversion the right of first refusal for new employment openings for which they are qualified.

PUBLIC HOUSING OPERATING FUND

The agreement provides $4,440,000,000 for the public housing operating fund.

CHOICE NEIGHBORHOODS INITIATIVE

The agreement provides $80,000,000 for the choice neighborhoods initiative (Choice). The agreement includes language requiring that at least $50,000,000 be made available to Public Housing Authorities, and provides up to $5,000,000 to assist communities in developing strategies for implementing the program with community notice and input. HUD is expected to take into account regional diversity when awarding Choice planning and implementation grants.

FAMILY SELF-SUFFICIENCY

The agreement provides $75,000,000 for the family self-sufficiency (FSS) program to support service coordinators serving residents in both the public housing and voucher programs. The agreement also allows project-based owners to participate in the program, using their own funds. The agreement includes a new pilot program to test the effectiveness of pairing the FSS program with the family unification program (FUP) vouchers for homeless youth to increase their opportunities for self-sufficiency through housing stability, education and job training.

NATIVE AMERICAN HOUSING BLOCK GRANTS

The agreement provides $650,000,000 for Native American Housing Block Grants, to remain available until September 30, 2019. The agreement provides $3,500,000 for training and technical assistance, with no less than $2,000,000 for a national organization as designated under NAHASDA. The agreement provides $2,000,000 for inspections, contracting expertise, training, and technical assistance by HUD or its designee, including up to $300,000 for related travel; and $2,000,000 to subsidize a loan level of $16,530,000 under title VI of NAHASDA.

HUD is directed to collaborate with the Council on Environmental Quality and affected Federal agencies specified in the Senate Report 113-182 to develop a coordinated environmental review process to simplify tribal housing development and related infrastructure needs. The agencies are directed to consult with tribes and tribally designated housing entities and report their conclusions, recommendations and any statutory changes that may be necessary to facilitate this progress to the Committees on Appropriations by May 1, 2015.

HUD is expected to use technical assistance funding to regional and national tribal organizations to aid tribes with capacity challenges, especially tribes receiving small grant awards. It is expected that any assistance provided will reflect the unique needs and cultures of Native Americans.

NATIVE HAWAIIAN HOUSING BLOCK GRANT

The agreement provides $9,000,000 for the Native Hawaiian Housing Block Grant, to remain available until September 30, 2019.

INDIAN HOUSING LOAN GUARANTEE FUND
PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The agreement provides $7,000,000, to remain available until expended, to subsidize a loan level of $744,047,000.

NATIVE HAWAIIAN HOUSING LOAN GUARANTEE FUND PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The agreement provides $100,000, to remain available until expended, to subsidize a loan level of $16,130,000.

COMMUNITY PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT HOUSING OPPORTUNITIES FOR PERSONS WITH AIDS

The agreement provides $330,000,000 for the housing opportunities for persons with AIDS program, to remain available until September 30, 2017. The agreement includes a provision that requires HUD to adequately fund supportive housing contract commitments made in fiscal year 2010 and prior years that meet all program requirements before awarding funds for any new contract commitments.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT FUND

The agreement provides $3,066,000,000 for the community development fund, to remain available until September 30, 2017. Of the total, the agreement provides $3,000,000,000 in formula funding and $66,000,000 for Indian tribes, of which $6,000,000 shall be for grants for mold remediation and prevention.

The agreement includes a new provision prohibiting funds from being provided to a for-profit entity for an economic development project under section 105(a)(17) unless such project has been evaluated and selected in accordance with guidelines under subparagraph (e)(2) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT LOAN GUARANTEES
PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The agreement does not provide a credit subsidy for this program, but instead provides the authority to collect fees from borrowers adequate to result in a subsidy cost of zero. The agreement also provides an aggregate limitation of no more than $500,000,000 in section 108 loan guarantees.

The agreement does not rescind unobligated balances of funds previously appropriated under this heading.

HOME INVESTMENT PARTNERSHIPS PROGRAM

The agreement provides $900,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2018, for the home investment partnerships (HOME) program. The agreement does not set-aside $10,000,000 of the amounts provided under this heading for the self-help and assisted homeownership opportunity program. Instead, this program continues to be funded under a separate heading.

SELF-HELP AND ASSISTED HOMEOWNERSHIP OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM

The agreement provides $50,000,000 for this account, to remain available until September 30, 2017. Of the total, $10,000,000 is provided for the self-help and assisted homeownership opportunity program; $35,000,000 is provided for the second, third and fourth capacity building activities authorized under section 4(a) of the HUD Demonstration Act of 1993, of which not less than $5,000,000 shall be for rural capacity building activities; and $5,000,000 is provided for capacity building activities by national organizations with expertise in rural housing development.

HOMELESS ASSISTANCE GRANTS

The agreement provides $2,135,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2017, for homeless assistance grants. Of the amount provided, not less than $250,000,000 is for the emergency solutions grants program; not less than $1,862,000,000 is for the continuum of care and rural housing stability assistance programs; and up to $7,000,000 is for the national homeless data analysis project.

HUD is required to submit the annual homeless assessment report by August 28, 2015.

HOUSING PROGRAMS

PROJECT-BASED RENTAL ASSISTANCE

The agreement provides $9,330,000,000 for project-based rental assistance activities, of which not to exceed $210,000,000 is for performance-based contract administrators. The agreement also provides an advance appropriation of $400,000,000 to be made available on October 1, 2015. The agreement allows the Secretary to use project funds held in residual receipt accounts, unobligated balances, including recaptures, and carryover balances for program activities. The agreement does not make renewal of senior preservation rental assistance contracts as authorized by section 811(e) of the American Housing and Economic Opportunity Act of 2000 an eligible expense.

HOUSING FOR THE ELDERLY

The agreement provides a total of $436,000,000 for the section 202 program to be available until September 30, 2018, of which up to $70,000,000 shall be for service coordinators and existing congregate service grants. The agreement fully funds all renewal and amendments of project-based rental assistance contracts, senior preservation rental assistance contracts, service coordinators, and existing congregate service grants. The agreement does not provide funding for an elderly project rental assistance demonstration program.

HOUSING FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

The agreement provides $135,000,000 for the section 811 program to be available until September 30, 2018. The agreement allows the Secretary to use project funds held in residual receipt accounts, or unobligated balances including recaptures and carryover balances, to supplement the recent demonstration competition for project rental assistance to State housing finance agencies.

HOUSING COUNSELING ASSISTANCE

The agreement provides $47,000,000 for housing counseling assistance, including up to $4,500,000 for administrative contract services. The agreement allows the Secretary to enter into multiyear grant agreements, subject to the availability of annual appropriations.

RENTAL HOUSING ASSISTANCE

The agreement provides $18,000,000 for the rental housing assistance program and allows HUD to use funds, including unobligated balances and recaptured amounts, for one year contract extensions.

PAYMENT TO MANUFACTURED HOUSING FEES TRUST FUND

The agreement provides $10,000,000 for authorized activities, of which $10,000,000 is to be derived from the Manufactured Housing Fees Trust Fund.

FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION MUTUAL MORTGAGE INSURANCE PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The agreement establishes a limitation of $400,000,000,000 on commitments to guarantee single-family loans during fiscal year 2015, and provides that such commitment authority shall be available until September 30, 2016. For administrative contract expenses, the bill provides $130,000,000, plus $1,400 (up to $30,000,000) for each $1,000,000 in additional guaranteed loan commitments if guaranteed loan commitment levels exceed $200,000,000,000 by April 1, 2015. The agreement prohibits implementation of the homeowners armed with knowledge pilot program.

GENERAL AND SPECIAL RISK PROGRAM ACCOUNT (INCLUDING RESCISSION)

The agreement establishes a $30,000,000,000 limitation on multifamily and specialized loan guarantees during fiscal year 2015, and provides that such commitment authority shall be available until September 30, 2016. The agreement includes a rescission of $10,000,000 previously provided to support programs with positive credit subsidies that are no longer issuing new commitments.

GOVERNMENT NATIONAL MORTGAGE ASSOCIATION

GUARANTEES OF MORTGAGE-BACKED SECURITIES

LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The agreement establishes a limitation of up to $500,000,000,000 for new commitments during fiscal year 2015, which shall be available until September 30, 2016. The agreement also provides $23,000,000 for salaries and expenses for the Government National Mortgage Association during fiscal year 2015. The agreement increases salaries and expenses by $100 for each $1,000,000 in additional guaranteed loan commitments, up to $3,000,000, if guaranteed loan commitments exceed $155,000,000,000 by April 1, 2015.

POLICY DEVELOPMENT AND RESEARCH

RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY

The agreement provides $72,000,000 for research and technology activities, including activities formerly funded under the transformation initiative.

The agreement provides $12,300,000 for research support, dissemination, studies, data, and partnerships; demonstrations; and ongoing evaluations, plus new evaluations of the Native American VASH demonstration and the family self-sufficiency homeless youth demonstration. HUD is encouraged to work with the Federal Emergency Management Agency and the Small Business Administration to identify ways to improve post-disaster recovery coordination and data sharing, and implement best practices moving forward.

The agreement provides a total of $22,000,000 under this heading for technical assistance including OneCPD and OneHUD; assistance to, and finance and governance training for, public housing authorities; assistance for various programs under the Office of Housing; and coordinating new requirements under the Violence Against Women Act. Further, $37,700,000 is provided for various housing market surveys.

FAIR HOUSING AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

FAIR HOUSING ACTIVITIES

The agreement provides $65,300,000 for fair housing activities, of which $40,100,000 is for the fair housing initiatives program (FHIP), $23,300,000 is for the fair housing assistance program, $1,600,000 is for the National Fair Housing Training Academy, and $300,000 is for translated materials. Of the funds available for FHIP, $29,275,000 is available for private enforcement grants.

HUD is directed to work with the United States Access Board, interested disability advocates, and other stakeholders to consider mechanisms to increase the availability of accessible housing, including but not limited to voluntary accessibility standards, innovative model designs, and demonstration programs that will improve the ability of individuals with disabilities to have a fair opportunity to rent or own accessible housing in their communities. HUD, in consultation with the Access Board, shall report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on recommended options or areas for further study within one year of enactment of this Act.

OFFICE OF LEAD HAZARD CONTROL AND ##### HEALTHY HOMES

LEAD HAZARD REDUCTION

The agreement provides $110,000,000 for the lead hazard control and healthy homes programs. Of the total, $15,000,000 is provided for the healthy homes program, and $45,000,000 is to be made available on a competitive basis for areas with the highest lead abatement needs.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY FUND

The agreement provides $250,000,000 for the information technology fund, which is available until September 30, 2016. The agreement does not include separate funding for development, modernization and enhancement (DM&E) activities and does not include statutory language for GAO to review the Department's spend plan for DM&E. HUD has effectively crafted expenditure plans and the Committees are putting greater focus on HUD's ability to implement those plans. Integrating and implementing information technology (IT) best practices are still weaknesses at the Department. In light of this, the agreement directs HUD to provide a report within 120 days of enactment of this Act that details the status of how the Department is implementing GAO's IT-related recommendations. Further, the agreement directs GAO to evaluate how the New CORE system project integrates into the Department's strategic plan and report on project milestones as well as how HUD is integrating IT best practices into this critical project for the next two years.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The agreement provides $126,000,000 for the necessary expenses of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Concurrent with the next budget submission, the OIG is directed to provide information on new acquisition plans and account for funding in all Schedule O activities, information technology investments, and other capacity enhancing investments.

TRANSFORMATION INITIATIVE

The agreement provides funds for program technical assistance, program demonstrations and evaluations, and other similar activities under the Policy Development and Research account. No funds or transfer authorities are provided under this heading for fiscal year 2015.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF ##### HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

(INCLUDING RESCISSIONS)

Section 201 splits overpayments evenly between Treasury and State HFAs.

Section 202 prohibits the use of funds to investigate or prosecute legal activities under the Fair Housing Act.

Section 203 extends HOPWA formula modifications affecting certain jurisdictions in New York, New Jersey, and North Carolina.

Section 204 requires that funds be distributed on a competitive basis unless specified otherwise in statute.

Section 205 allows HUD to use funds to reimburse the Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA), Fannie Mae and other Federal entities for services and facilities.

Section 206 requires HUD to comport with the budget estimates except as otherwise provided in this Act or through an approved reprogramming.

Section 207 provides authorization for HUD corporations to utilize funds under certain conditions and restrictions.

Section 208 requires a report on available balances each quarter.

Section 209 requires that the Administration's budget and the Department's budget justifications for fiscal year 2016 be submitted in the identical account and sub-account structure provided in this Act.

Section 210 exempts PHA Boards in Alaska, Iowa, and Mississippi and the County of Los Angeles from the public housing resident representation requirement, and provides alternative requirements.

Section 211 exempts GNMA from certain requirements of the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990.

Section 212 authorizes HUD to transfer debt and use agreements from an obsolete project to a viable project, provided certain conditions are met.

Section 213 sets forth the requirements for eligibility for section 8 voucher assistance.

Section 214 distributes Native American Housing Block Grant funds to the same Native Alaskan recipients as in Fiscal Year 2005.

Section 215 authorizes the Secretary to insure mortgages under section 255 of the National Housing Act.

Section 216 instructs HUD on managing and disposing of any multifamily property that is owned or held by HUD.

Section 217 allows amounts provided under the Section 108 loan guarantee program to be used to guarantee notes or other obligations issued by any State on behalf of non-entitled communities in the State.

Section 218 allows PHAs that own and operate 400 or fewer units of public housing to be exempt from asset management requirements.

Section 219 restricts the Secretary from imposing any requirement or guideline relating to asset management that restricts or limits the use of capital funds for central office costs, up to the limit established in the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998.

Section 220 directs that no HUD employee, including those working in the offices of the IG and GNMA, shall be designated as an allotment holder unless the Chief Financial Officer determines that they have received training.

Section 221 requires HUD to provide an annual report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on the status of all section 8 project-based housing.

Section 222 requires that the Secretary publish all notice of funding availability on the internet for fiscal year 2015.

Section 223 requires that attorney fees for programmatic litigation must be paid from the personnel and benefits accounts of affected offices and the Office of General Counsel, and be restricted to payment of attorney fees only.

Section 224 sets reprogramming guidelines for Administrative Support Offices and Program Office Salaries and Expenses, and transfers between the two.

Section 225 allows the Disaster Housing Assistance Programs to be considered a program of HUD for the purpose of income verifications and matching.

Section 226 requires HUD to take certain actions against owners receiving rental subsidies that do not maintain safe properties (do not meet minimum REAC standards).

Section 227 places a salary and bonus limit on public housing agency officials and employees.

Section 228 prohibits funds from being used for the doctoral dissertation research grant program at HUD.

Section 229 extends the HOPE VI program until September 30, 2015.

Section 230 requires the Secretary to provide the Committees on Appropriations advance notice of discretionary awards.

Section 231 allows the Secretary to transfer up to $2,500,000 from salaries and expenses accounts to the "Information Technology Fund".

Section 232 extends section 579 of MAHRAA through October 1, 2017.

Section 233 prohibits funds from being used to require or enforce the physical needs assessment (PNA).

Section 234 modifies the rental assistance demonstration included in the fiscal year 2012 bill.

Section 235 prohibits funds from being used for the homeowners armed with knowledge (HAWK) program.

Section 236 prohibits funds for HUD financing of mortgages for properties that have been subject to eminent domain.

Section 237 rescinds balances from various HUD programs that are no longer funded.

Section 238 makes adjustments to flat-rents to accommodate local markets.

Section 239 prohibits funds from being used for the relocation of any asset management positions within the Office of Multifamily Housing currently in existence on the date of enactment of this Act.

Section 240 prohibits funds from being used to terminate the status of a unit of local government as a metropolitan city, as defined under section 102 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, with respect to grants under section 106 of such Act.

Section 241 requires lenders that provide loans under the Native American loan program to consider loan modifications and meet standards for servicing loans in default before the payment of a claim by HUD.

TITLE III—RELATED AGENCIES

ACCESS BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $7,548,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Access Board.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $25,660,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Federal Maritime Commission, of which not more than $2,000 may be available for official reception and representation expenses.

NATIONAL RAILROAD PASSENGER CORPORATION

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $23,999,000 for the Office of the Inspector General for Amtrak.

NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The agreement provides $103,981,000 for the salaries and expenses of the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB). Some offices of the NTSB are currently experiencing vacancies in some of its investigative offices, and it is expected that the agency will use travel and investigative staff in other offices to ensure transportation incidents are fully covered.

NEIGHBORHOOD REINVESTMENT CORPORATION

PAYMENT TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD REINVESTMENT CORPORATION

The agreement provides $185,000,000 for the Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation (NRC), of which $135,000,000 is for the core program, including $5,000,000 for the multifamily rental housing program. Of the total provided, $50,000,000 is for the national foreclosure mitigation counseling (NPMC) program. The agreement provides $4,000,000 to wind down and close out this program, which could be a multiyear effort. It also allows NRC to use up to 5 percent of NPMC funds on administrative expenses to carry out foreclosure mitigation activities.

UNITED STATES INTERAGENCY COUNCIL ON HOMELESSNESS

OPERATING EXPENSES

The agreement provides $3,530,000 for operating expenses of the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness (USICH) and includes a provision which amends Title II of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act to extend the sunset date of USICH to October 1, 2017.

USICH is encouraged to work with agencies to establish long-term working interagency relationships among permanent federal agencies, and to leverage the resources of those agencies to continue interagency coordination on "Opening Doors: the Federal Strategic Plan to Prevent and End Homelessness".

TITLE IV—GENERAL PROVISIONS, THIS ACT

Section 401 prohibits pay and other expenses for non-Federal parties in regulatory or adjudicatory proceedings funded in this Act.

Section 402 prohibits obligations beyond the current fiscal year and prohibits transfers of funds unless expressly so provided herein.

Section 403 limits consulting service expenditures through a procurement contract to contracts where such expenditures are a matter of public record, with exceptions.

Section 404 prohibits employee training not specifically related to the performance of official duties.

Section 405 specifies reprogramming procedures and requires tables to include prior year enacted levels.

Section 406 allows up to fifty percent of unobligated balances appropriated for salaries and expenses to remain available for certain purposes, contingent upon approval by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

Section 407 prohibits funds from being used for any project that seeks to use the power of eminent domain unless eminent domain is employed only for a public use.

Section 408 requires agencies and departments funded herein to report on all sole-source contracts by July 30, 2015.

Section 409 denies the transfer of funds made available in this Act, except pursuant to a transfer made by this Act or by authority granted in this Act.

Section 410 prohibits funds in this Act from being used to permanently replace an employee intent on returning to his or her past occupation after completion of military service.

Section 411 prohibits funds in this Act from being used unless the expenditure is in compliance with the Buy American Act.

Section 412 prohibits funds from being made available to any person or entity that has been found to have violated the Buy American Act.

Section 413 prohibits funds for first-class airline accommodations in contravention of section 301–10.122 and 301–10.123 of title 41, C.F.R.

Section 414 prohibits funds from being used in contravention of the 5th or 14th Amendments to the Constitution or title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Section 415 prohibits funds from being used for the approval of a new foreign air carrier permit or exemption application if that approval would contravene United States law or Article 17 bis of the U.S.-E.U.-Iceland-Norway Air Transport Agreement and specifies that nothing in this section shall prohibit, restrict, or preclude the Secretary of DOT from granting a permit or exemption where such authorization is consistent with the U.S.-E.U.-Iceland-Norway Air Transport Treaty and U.S. law.

Section 416 prohibits funds from being used to obligate or award funds for NHTSA's National Roadside Survey.

Section 417 prohibits funds for global positioning systems without providing full and appropriate consideration of privacy concerns under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 5, subchapter II.

Section 418 prohibits funds from being used by the Federal Transit Administration to implement, administer, or enforce section 18.36(c)(2) of title 49, U.S.C. for construction hiring purposes.

Section 419 prohibits funds from being used to lease or purchase new light duty vehicles for any executive fleet or an agency's fleet inventory, except in accordance with Presidential Memorandum-Federal Fleet Performance, dated May 24, 2011.

Section 420 states that Congress should not pass any legislation authorizing spending cuts that would increase poverty in the United States.

Section 421 requires agencies and departments funded by this Act to report to Congress, at the end of fiscal year 2015, a complete inventory of the number of vehicles owned, retired, and purchased in fiscal year 2015, as well as the total cost of the vehicle fleet, including maintenance, fuel, storage, purchasing, and leasing.

Section 422 limits the number of employees a single agency or department may send to an international conference to 50, unless the relevant Secretary reports to the Committees on Appropriations at least five days in advance that such attendance is important to the national interest.

Section 423 requires any reports sent to the Committees on Appropriations to be posted on the public Web site of that agency 45 days following its receipt by the Committees, unless such reports would compromise national security or contain proprietary information.

Section 424 requires any Federal agency or department funded in this Act to respond to GAO recommendations in a timely manner.

INSULAR AREAS AND FREELY ASSOCIATED STATES ENERGY DEVELOPMENT

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to House Resolution 776, I call up the bill (H.R. 83) to require the Secretary of the Interior to assemble a team of technical, policy, and financial experts to address the energy needs of the insular areas of the United States and the Freely Associated States through the development of energy action plans aimed at promoting access to affordable, reliable energy, including increasing use of indigenous clean-energy resources, and for other purposes, with the Senate amendment thereto, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. HASTINGS of Washington). The Clerk will designate the Senate amendment.

Senate amendment:

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert the following:

SECTION 1. STUDY OF ELECTRIC RATES IN THE INSULAR AREAS.

(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) COMPREHENSIVE ENERGY PLAN.—The term “comprehensive energy plan” means a comprehensive energy plan prepared and updated under subsections (c) and (e) of section 604 of the Act entitled “An Act to authorize appropriations for certain insular areas of the United States, and for other purposes”, approved December 24, 1980 (48 U.S.C. 1492).

(2) ENERGY ACTION PLAN.—The term “energy action plan” means the plan required by subsection (d).

(3) FREELY ASSOCIATED STATES.—The term “Freely Associated States” means the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau.

(4) INSULAR AREAS.—The term “insular areas” means American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Virgin Islands.

(5) SECRETARY.—The term “Secretary” means the Secretary of the Interior.

(6) TEAM.—The term “team” means the team established by the Secretary under subsection (b).

(b) ESTABLISHMENT.—Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall, within the Empowering Insular Communities activity, establish a team of technical, policy, and financial experts—

(1) to develop an energy action plan addressing the energy needs of each of the insular areas and Freely Associated States; and

(2) to assist each of the insular areas and Freely Associated States in implementing such plan.

(c) PARTICIPATION OF REGIONAL UTILITY ORGANIZATIONS.—In establishing the team, the Secretary shall consider including regional utility organizations.

(d) ENERGY ACTION PLAN.—In accordance with subsection (b), the energy action plan shall include—

(1) recommendations, based on the comprehensive energy plan where applicable, to—

(A) reduce reliance and expenditures on fuel shipped to the insular areas and Freely Associated States from ports outside the United States;

(B) develop and utilize domestic fuel energy sources; and

(C) improve performance of energy infrastructure and overall energy efficiency;

(2) a schedule for implementation of such recommendations and identification and prioritization of specific projects;

(3) a financial and engineering plan for implementing and sustaining projects; and

(4) benchmarks for measuring progress toward implementation.

(e) REPORTS TO SECRETARY.—Not later than 1 year after the date on which the Secretary establishes the team and annually thereafter, the team shall submit to the Secretary a report detailing progress made in fulfilling its charge and in implementing the energy action plan.

(f) ANNUAL REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 30 days after the date on which the Secretary receives a report submitted by the team under subsection (e), the Secretary shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress a summary of the report of the team.

(g) APPROVAL OF SECRETARY REQUIRED.—The energy action plan shall not be implemented until the Secretary approves the energy action plan.

SEC. 2. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSOLIDATED NATURAL RESOURCES ACT.

Section 6 of Public Law 94–241 (90 Stat. 263; 122 Stat. 854) is amended—

(1) in subsection (a)(2), by striking “December 31, 2014, except as provided in subsections (b) and (d)” and inserting “December 31, 2019”; and

(2) in subsection (d)—

(A) in the third sentence of paragraph (2), by striking “not to extend beyond December 31, 2014, unless extended pursuant to paragraph 5 of this subsection” and inserting “ending on December 31, 2019”;;

(B) by striking paragraph (5); and

(C) by redesignating paragraph (6) as paragraph (5).

MOTION OFFERED BY MR. ROGERS OF KENTUCKY

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion at the desk. The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will designate the motion.

The text of the motion is as follows:

Mr. Rogers of Kentucky moves that the House concur in the Senate amendment to H.R. 83 with an amendment.

The text of the House amendment to the Senate amendment to the text is as follows:

In lieu of the matter proposed to be inserted by the Senate, insert the following:

SEC. 3. REFERENCES.

Except as expressly provided otherwise, any reference to “this Act” contained in any division of this Act shall be treated as referring only to the provisions of that division.

SEC. 4. EXPLANATORY STATEMENT.

The explanatory statement regarding this Act, printed in the House of Representatives section of the Congressional Record on or about December 11, 2014 by the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House, shall have the same effect with respect to the allocation of funds and implementation of divisions A through K of this Act as if it were a joint explanatory statement of a committee of conference.

SEC. 5. STATEMENT OF APPROPRIATIONS.

The following sums in this Act are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2015.

SEC. 6. AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS.

(a) Each amount designated in this Act by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 shall be available only if the President subsequently so designates all such amounts and transmits such designations to the Congress.

(b) Each amount designated in this Act by the Congress for Overseas Contingency Operations/Global War on Terrorism pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 shall be available (or rescinded, if applicable) only if the President subsequently so designates all such amounts and transmits such designations to the Congress.

SEC. 7. TECHNICAL ALLOWANCE FOR ESTIMATING DIFFERENCES.

If, for fiscal year 2015, new budget authority provided in appropriations Acts exceeds the discretionary spending limit for any category set forth in section 251(c) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 due to estimating differences with the Congressional Budget Office, an adjustment to the discretionary spending limit in such category for fiscal year 2015 shall be made by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget in the amount of the excess but the total of all such adjustments shall not exceed 0.2 percent of the sum of the adjusted discretionary spending limits for all categories for that fiscal year.

SEC. 8. ADJUSTMENTS TO COMPENSATION.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no adjustment shall be made under section 610(a) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 (2 U.S.C. 31) (relating to cost of living adjustments for Members of Congress) during fiscal year 2015.

SEC. 9. STUDY OF ELECTRIC RATES IN THE INSULAR AREAS.

(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) COMPREHENSIVE ENERGY PLAN.—The term “comprehensive energy plan” means a comprehensive energy plan prepared and updated under subsections (c) and (e) of section 604 of the Act entitled “An Act to authorize appropriations for certain insular areas of the United States, and for other purposes”, approved December 24, 1980 (48 U.S.C. 1492).

(2) ENERGY ACTION PLAN.—The term “energy action plan” means the plan required by subsection (d).

(3) FREELY ASSOCIATED STATES.—The term “Freely Associated States” means the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau.

(4) INSULAR AREAS.—The term “insular areas” means American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Virgin Islands.

(5) SECRETARY.—The term “Secretary” means the Secretary of the Interior.

(6) TEAM.—The term “team” means the team established by the Secretary under subsection (b).

(b) ESTABLISHMENT.—Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall, within the Empowering Insular Communities activity, establish a team of technical, policy, and financial experts—

(1) to develop an energy action plan addressing the energy needs of each of the insular areas and Freely Associated States; and

(2) to assist each of the insular areas and Freely Associated States in implementing such plan.

(c) PARTICIPATION OF REGIONAL UTILITY ORGANIZATIONS.—In establishing the team, the Secretary shall consider including regional utility organizations.

(d) ENERGY ACTION PLAN.—In accordance with subsection (b), the energy action plan shall include—

(1) recommendations, based on the comprehensive energy plan where applicable, to—

(A) reduce reliance and expenditures on fuel shipped to the insular areas and Freely Associated States from ports outside the United States;

(B) develop and utilize domestic fuel energy sources; and

(C) improve performance of energy infrastructure and overall energy efficiency;

(2) a schedule for implementation of such recommendations and identification and prioritization of specific projects;

INDEPENDENT AGENCY

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION

LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Not to exceed $60,500,000 (from assessments collected from farm credit institutions, including the Federal Agricultural Mortgage Corporation) shall be obligated during the current fiscal year for administrative expenses as authorized under 12 U.S.C. 2249: Provided, That this limitation shall not apply to expenses associated with receiverships: Provided further, That the agency may exceed this limitation by up to 10 percent with notification to the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress.

TITLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

(INCLUDING RESCISSIONS AND TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

SEC. 701. Within the unit limit of cost fixed by law, appropriations and authorizations made for the Department of Agriculture for the current fiscal year under this Act shall be available for the purchase, in addition to those specifically provided for, of not to exceed 71 passenger motor vehicles of which 68 shall be for replacement only, and for the hire of such vehicles: Provided, That notwithstanding this section, the only purchase of new passenger vehicles shall be for those determined by the Secretary to be necessary for transportation safety, to reduce operational costs, and for the protection of life, property, and public safety.

SEC. 702. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture may transfer unobligated balances of discretionary funds appropriated by this Act or any other available unobligated discretionary balances that are remaining available of the Department of Agriculture to the Working Capital Fund for the acquisition of plant and capital equipment necessary for the delivery of financial, administrative, and information technology services of primary benefit to the agencies of the Department of Agriculture, such transferred funds to remain available until expended: Provided, That none of the funds made available by this Act or any other Act shall be transferred to the Working Capital Fund without the prior approval of the agency administrator: Provided further, That none of the funds transferred to the Working Capital

Fund pursuant to this section shall be available for obligation without written notification to and the prior approval of the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress: Provided further, That none of the funds appropriated by this Act or made available to the Department's Working Capital Fund shall be available for obligation or expenditure to make any changes to the Department's National Finance Center without written notification to and prior approval of the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress as required by section 719 of this Act: Provided further, That of annual income amounts in the Working Capital Fund of the Department of Agriculture allocated for the National Finance Center, the Secretary may reserve not more than 4 percent for the replacement or acquisition of capital equipment, including equipment for the improvement and implementation of a financial management plan, information technology, and other systems of the National Finance Center or to pay any unforeseen, extraordinary cost of the National Finance Center: Provided further, That none of the amounts reserved shall be available for obligation unless the Secretary submits written notification of the obligation to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate: Provided further, That the limitation on the obligation of funds pending notification to Congressional Committees shall not apply to any obligation that, as determined by the Secretary, is necessary to respond to a declared state of emergency that significantly impacts the operations of the National Finance Center; or to evacuate employees of the National Finance Center to a safe haven to continue operations of the National Finance Center.

SEC. 703. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 704. No funds appropriated by this Act may be used to pay negotiated indirect cost rates on cooperative agreements or similar arrangements between the United States Department of Agriculture and nonprofit institutions in excess of 10 percent of the total direct cost of the agreement when the purpose of such cooperative arrangements is to carry out programs of mutual interest between the two parties. This does not preclude appropriate payment of indirect costs on grants and contracts with such institutions when such indirect costs are computed on a similar basis for all agencies for which appropriations are provided in this Act.

SEC. 705. Appropriations to the Department of Agriculture for the cost of direct and guaranteed loans made available in the current fiscal year shall remain available until expended to disburse obligations made in the current fiscal year for the following accounts: the Rural Development Loan Fund program account, the Rural Electrification and Telecommunication Loans program account, and the Rural Housing Insurance Fund program account.

SEC. 706. None of the funds made available to the Department of Agriculture by this Act may be used to acquire new information technology systems or significant upgrades, as determined by the Office of the Chief Information Officer, without the approval of the Chief Information Officer and the concurrence of the Executive Information Technology Investment Review Board: Provided, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, none of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be transferred to the Office of the Chief Information Officer without written notification to and the prior approval of the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress: Provided further, That none of the funds available to the Department of Agriculture for information technology shall be obligated for projects over $25,000 prior to receipt of written approval by the Chief Information Officer: Provided further, That the Chief Information Officer may authorize an agency to obligate funds without written approval from the Chief Information Officer for projects up to $250,000 based upon the performance of an agency measured against the performance plan requirements described in the explanatory statement described in section 4 (in the matter preceding division A of this consolidated Act).

SEC. 707. Funds made available under section 12401 and section 1241(a) of the Food Security Act of 1985 and section 524(b) of the Federal Crop Insurance Act (7 U.S.C. 1524(b)) in the current fiscal year shall remain available until expended to disburse obligations made in the current fiscal year.

SEC. 708. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any former RUS borrower that has repaid or prepaid an insured, direct or guaranteed loan under the Rural Electrification Act of 1936, or any not-for-profit utility that is eligible to receive an insured or direct loan under such Act, shall be eligible for assistance under section 313(b)(2)(B) of such Act in the same manner as a borrower under such Act.

SEC. 709. Of the unobligated balances provided pursuant to section 12033 and section 15101 of the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008, $125,000,000 are rescinded.

SEC. 710. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, not more than $20,000,000 in unobligated balances from appropriations made available for salaries and expenses in this Act for the Farm Service Agency shall remain available through September 30, 2016, for information technology expenses: Provided, That except as otherwise specifically provided by law, unobligated balances from appropriations made available for salaries and expenses in this Act for the Rural Development mission area shall remain available through September 30, 2016, for information technology expenses.

SEC. 711. The Secretary of Agriculture may authorize a State agency to use funds provided in this Act to exceed the maximum amount of liquid infant formula specified in 7 CFR 246.10 when issuing liquid infant formula to participants.

SEC. 712. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be used for first-class travel by the employees of agencies funded by this Act in contravention of sections 301-10.122 through 301-10.124 of title 41, Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 713. In the case of each program established or amended by the Agricultural Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-79), other than by title I or subtitle A of title III of such Act, or programs for which indefinite amounts were provided in that Act, that is authorized or required to be carried out using funds of the Commodity Credit Corporation—

(1) such funds shall be available for salaries and related administrative expenses, including technical assistance, associated with the implementation of the program, without regard to the limitation on the total amount of allotments and fund transfers contained in section 11 of the Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act (15 U.S.C. 714i); and

(2) the use of such funds for such purpose shall not be considered to be a fund transfer or allotment for purposes of applying the limitation on the total amount of allotments and fund transfers contained in such section.

SEC. 714. Of the funds made available by this Act, not more than $2,000,000 shall be used to cover necessary expenses of activities related to all advisory committees, panels, commissions, and task forces of the Department of Agriculture, except for panels used to comply with negotiated rule makings and panels used to evaluate competitively awarded grants.

SEC. 715. None of the funds in this Act shall be available to pay indirect costs charged against any agricultural research, education, or extension grant awards issued by the National Institute of Food and Agriculture that exceed 30 percent of total Federal funds provided under each award: Provided, That notwithstanding section 1462 of the National Agricultural Research, Extension, and Teaching Policy Act of 1977 (7 U.S.C. 3310), funds provided by this Act for grants awarded competitively by the National Institute of Food and Agriculture shall be available to pay full allowable indirect costs for each grant awarded under section 9 of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 638).

SEC. 716. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act shall be used to pay the salaries and expenses of personnel to carry out the following:

(1) The Watershed Rehabilitation program authorized by section 14(h)(1) of the Watershed and Flood Protection Act (16 U.S.C. 1012(h)(1)) in excess of $73,000,000.

(2) The Environmental Quality Incentives Program as authorized by sections 1240–1240H of the Food Security Act of 1985 (16 U.S.C. 3839aa–3839aa–8) in excess of $1,347,000,000: Provided, That this limitation shall apply only to funds provided by section 1241(a)(5)(B) of the Food Security Act of 1985 (16 U.S.C. 3841(a)(5)(B)).

(3) The Conservation Stewardship Program as authorized by sections 1238D–1238G of the Food Security Act of 1985 (16 U.S.C. 3838d–3838g) in excess of 7,741,000 acres.

(4) The Biomass Crop Assistance Program authorized by section 9011 of the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002 (7 U.S.C. 8111) in excess of $23,000,000 in new obligational authority.

(5) The Biorefinery, Renewable Chemical and Biobased Product Manufacturing Assistance program as authorized by section 9003 of the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002 (7 U.S.C. 8103) in excess of $30,000,000.

SEC. 717. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act shall be used to pay the salaries and expenses of personnel to carry out a program under subsection (b)(2)(A)(vii) of section 14222 of Public Law 110–246 in excess of $959,000,000, as follows: Child Nutrition Programs Entitlement Commodities—$465,000,000; State Option Contracts—$5,000,000; Removal of Defective Commodities—$2,500,000: Provided, That none of the funds made available in this Act or any other Act shall be used for salaries and expenses to carry out in this fiscal year section 19(i)(1)(E) of the Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act, as amended, except in an amount that excludes the transfer of $122,000,000 of the funds to be transferred under subsection (c) of section 14222 of Public Law 110–246, until October 1, 2015: Provided further, That $122,000,000 made available on October 1, 2015, to carry out section 19(i)(1)(E) of the Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act, as amended, shall be excluded from the limitation described in subsection (b)(2)(A)(viii) of section 14222 of Public Law 110–246: Provided further, That none of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act shall be used to pay the salaries or expenses of any employee of the Department of Agriculture or officer of the Commodity Credit Corporation to carry out clause 3 of section 32 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1935 (Public Law 74–320, 7 U.S.C. 612c, as amended), or for any surplus removal activities or price support activities under section 5 of the Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act: Provided further, That of the available unobligated balances under (b)(2)(A)(vii) of section 14222 of Public Law 110–246, $203,000,000 are rescinded.

SEC. 718. None of the funds appropriated by this or any other Act shall be used to pay the salaries and expenses of personnel who prepare or submit appropriations language as part of the President's budget submission to the Congress for programs under the jurisdiction of the Appropriations Subcommittees on Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies that assumes revenues or reflects a reduction from the previous year due to user fees proposals that have not been enacted into law prior to the submission of the budget unless such budget submission identifies which additional spending reductions should occur in the event the user fees proposals are not enacted prior to the date of the convening of a committee of conference for the fiscal year 2016 appropriations Act.

SEC. 719. (a) None of the funds provided by this Act, or provided by previous Appropriations Acts to the agencies funded by this Act that remain available for obligation or expenditure in the current fiscal year, or provided from any accounts in the Treasury derived by the collection of fees available to the agencies funded by this Act, shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming, transfer of funds, or reimbursements as authorized by the Economy Act, or in the case of the Department of Agriculture, through use of the authority provided by section 702(b) of the Department of Agriculture Organic Act of 1944 (7 U.S.C. 2257) or section 8 of Public Law 89–106 (7 U.S.C. 2263), that—

- (1) creates new programs;
  - (2) eliminates a program, project, or activity;
  - (3) increases funds or personnel by any means for any project or activity for which funds have been denied or restricted;
  - (4) relocates an office or employees;
  - (5) reorganizes offices, programs, or activities; or
  - (6) contracts out or privatizes any functions or activities presently performed by Federal employees;
- unless the Secretary of Agriculture or the Secretary of Health and Human Services (as the case may be) notifies in writing and receives approval from the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress at least 30 days in advance of the reprogramming of such funds or the use of such authority.

(b) None of the funds provided by this Act, or provided by previous Appropriations Acts to the agencies funded by this Act that remain available for obligation or expenditure in the current fiscal year, or provided from any accounts in the Treasury derived by the collection of fees available to the agencies funded by this Act, shall be available for obligation or expenditure for activities, programs, or projects through a reprogramming or use of the authorities referred to in subsection (a) involving funds in excess of $500,000 or 10 percent, whichever is less, that—

(1) augments existing programs, projects, or activities;

(2) reduces by 10 percent funding for any existing program, project, or activity, or numbers of personnel by 10 percent as approved by Congress; or

(3) results from any general savings from a reduction in personnel which would result in a change in existing programs, activities, or projects as approved by Congress;

unless the Secretary of Agriculture or the Secretary of Health and Human Services (as the case may be) notifies in writing and receives approval from the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress at least 30 days in advance of the reprogramming or transfer of such funds or the use of such authority.

(c) The Secretary of Agriculture or the Secretary of Health and Human Services shall notify in writing and receive approval from the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress before implementing any program or activity not carried out during the previous fiscal year unless the program or activity is funded by this Act or specifically funded by any other Act.

(d) None of the funds provided by this Act, or provided by previous Appropriations Acts to the agencies funded by this Act that remain available for obligation or expenditure in the current fiscal year, or provided from any accounts in the Treasury derived by the collection of fees available to the agencies funded by this Act, shall be available for—

(1) modifying major capital investments funding levels, including information technology systems, that involves increasing or decreasing funds in the current fiscal year for the individual investment in excess of $500,000 or 10 percent of the total cost, whichever is less;

(2) realigning or reorganizing new, current, or vacant positions or agency activities or functions to establish a center, office, branch, or similar entity with five or more personnel; or

(3) carrying out activities or functions that were not described in the budget request; unless the agencies funded by this Act notify, in writing, the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress at least 30 days in advance of using the funds for these purposes.

(e) As described in this section, no funds may be used for any activities unless the Secretary of Agriculture or the Secretary of Health and Human Services receives from the Committee on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress written or electronic mail confirmation of receipt of the notification as required in this section.

SEC. 720. Notwithstanding section 310B(g)(5) of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act (7 U.S.C. 1932(g)(5)), the Secretary may assess a one-time fee for any guaranteed business and industry loan in an amount that does not exceed 3 percent of the guaranteed principal portion of the loan.

SEC. 721. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available to the Department of Agriculture, the Food and Drug Administration, or the Farm Credit Administration shall be used to transmit or otherwise make available to any non-Department of Agriculture, non-Department of Health and Human Services, or non-Farm Credit Administration employee questions or responses to questions that are a result of information requested for the appropriations hearing process.

SEC. 722. Unless otherwise authorized by existing law, none of the funds provided in this Act, may be used by an executive branch agency to produce any prepackaged news story intended for broadcast or distribution in the United States unless the story includes a clear notification within the text or audio of the prepackaged news story that the prepackaged news story was prepared or funded by that executive branch agency.

SEC. 723. No employee of the Department of Agriculture may be detailed or assigned from an agency or office funded by this Act or any other Act to any other agency or office of the Department for more than 60 days in a fiscal year unless the individual's employing agency or office is fully reimbursed by the receiving agency or office for the salary and expenses of the employee for the period of assignment.

SEC. 724. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to pay the salaries and expenses of personnel who provide non-recourse marketing assistance loans for mohair under section 1201 of the Agricultural Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-79).

SEC. 725. There is hereby appropriated $1,996,000 to carry out section 1621 of Public Law 110-246.

SEC. 726. There is hereby appropriated $600,000 for the purposes of section 727 of division A of Public Law 112-55.

SEC. 727. Not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration, and the Chairman of the Farm Credit Administration shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a detailed spending plan by program, project, and activity for all the funds made available under this Act including appropriated user fees, as defined in the explanatory statement described in section 4 (in the matter preceding division A of this consolidated Act).

SEC. 728. Funds made available under title II of the Food for Peace Act (7 U.S.C. 1721 et seq.) may only be used to provide assistance to recipient nations if adequate monitoring and controls, as determined by the Administrator of the U.S. Agency for International Development, are in place to ensure that emergency food aid is received by the intended beneficiaries in areas affected by food shortages and not diverted for unauthorized or inappropriate purposes.

SEC. 729. The Secretary shall continue the pilot program in effect for fiscal year 2013 for packaging and reviewing section 502 single family direct loans. The Secretary shall continue agreements with current intermediary organizations and not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act enter into additional agreements that increase the number of participating intermediary organizations to not less than 10. The Secretary shall work with these organizations to increase the effectiveness of the section 502 single family direct loan program in rural communities and shall set aside and make available from the national reserve section 502 loans an amount necessary to support the work of such intermediaries and provide a priority for review of such loans.

SEC. 730. For loans and loan guarantees that do not require budget authority and the program level has been established in this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture may increase the program level for such loans and loan guarantees by not more than 25 percent: Provided, That prior to the Secretary implementing such an increase, the Secretary notifies, in writing, the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress at least 15 days in advance.

SEC. 731. None of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be used to write, prepare, or publish a final rule or an interim final rule in furtherance of, or otherwise to implement or enforce the proposed rule entitled "Implementation of Regulations Required Under Title XI, of the Food, Conservation and Energy Act of 2008; Conduct in Violation of the Act" published by the Department of Agriculture in the Federal Register on June 22, 2010 (75 Fed. Reg. 35338 et seq.) unless the combined annual cost to the economy of such rules does not exceed $100,000,000: Provided, That none of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be used to publish a final or interim final rule in furtherance of, or otherwise to implement, sections 201.2(l), 201.2(t), 201.2(u), 201.3(c), 201.210, 201.211, 201.213, or 201.214, as proposed to be added to title 9 of the Code of Federal Regulations, by such proposed rule: Provided further, That none of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be used to implement, enforce, or to take regulatory action other than rescission or repeal based on, or in furtherance of, 201.2(o), 201.3(a), or 201.215(a), of title 9 of the Code of Federal Regulations (as in effect on the date of the enactment of this Act), or to write, prepare, or publish a final or interim final rule in furtherance of, or otherwise to implement, the definitions or criteria specified in such sections: Provided further, That sections 201.2(o), 201.3(a), and 201.215(a), of title 9 of the Code of Federal Regulations (as in effect on the date of enactment of this Act) are hereby indefinitely declared null and void and shall have no force under the laws, and the Secretary of Agriculture shall, within 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, rescind sections 201.2(o), 201.3(a), and 201.215(a), of title 9 of the Code of Federal Regulations (as in effect on such date).

SEC. 732. None of the credit card refunds or rebates transferred to the Working Capital Fund pursuant to section 729 of the Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2002 (7 U.S.C. 2235a; Public Law 107-76) shall be available for obligation without written notification to, and the prior approval of, the Committees on Appropriations of both Houses of Congress: Provided, That the refunds or rebates so transferred shall be available for obligation only for the acquisition of plant and capital equipment necessary for the delivery of financial, administrative, and information technology services of primary benefit to the agencies of the Department of Agriculture.

SEC. 733. For the 2014 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, losses under section 1501 of Public Law 113-79 shall not be considered the same loss for the purposes of 7 U.S.C. 7333(i)(3) and 7 U.S.C. 1508(n).

SEC. 734. Of the funds made available to the Food and Drug Administration, Salaries and Expenses, Office of the Commissioner, $20,000,000 shall not be available for obligation until the Food and Drug Administration finalizes the draft guidance of January 2013 entitled "Guidance for Industry: Abuse-Deterrent Opioids- Evaluation and Labeling": Provided, That if the Food and Drug Administration fails to finalize such guidance by June 30, 2015, such funds shall be made available for obligation to the Food and Drug Administration's Office of Criminal Investigation for the purpose of assisting Federal, state, and local agencies to combat the diversion and illegal sales of controlled substances.

SEC. 735. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act shall be used to pay the salaries and expenses of personnel to carry out section 307(b) of division C of the Omnibus Consolidated and Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act, 1999 (Public Law 105-277; 112 Stat. 2681-640) in excess of $4,000,000.

SEC. 736. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to procure processed poultry products imported into the United States from the People's Republic of China for use in the school lunch program under the Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act (42 U.S.C. 1751 et seq.), the Child and Adult Food Care Program under section 17 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1766), the Summer Food Service Program for Children under section 13 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1761), or the school breakfast program under the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 (42 U.S.C. 1771 et seq.).

SEC. 737. In addition to amounts otherwise made available by this Act and notwithstanding the last sentence of 16 U.S.C. 1310, there is appropriated $4,000,000, to remain available until expended, to implement non-renewable agreements on eligible lands, including flooded agricultural lands, as determined by the Secretary, under the Water Bank Act (16 U.S.C. 1301-1311).

SEC. 738. (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services, on behalf of the United States may hereafter, whenever the Secretary deems desirable, relinquish to the State of Arkansas all or part of the jurisdiction of the United States over the lands and properties encompassing the Jefferson Labs campus in the State of Arkansas that are under the supervision or control of the Secretary.

(b) TERMS.—Relinquishment of jurisdiction under this section may be accomplished, under terms and conditions that the Secretary deems advisable—

(1) by filing with the Governor of the State of Arkansas a notice of relinquishment to take effect upon acceptance thereof; or

(2) as the laws of such State may otherwise provide.

(c) DEFINITION.—In this section, the term "Jefferson Labs campus" means the lands and properties of the National Center for Toxicological Research and the Arkansas Regional Laboratory.

(d) AGREEMENT REGARDING JEFFERSON COUNTY TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH AND COMMERCIALIZATION CENTER.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may hereafter enter into an agreement with the State of Arkansas or an agency of such State or a public or private entity with respect to the establishment or operation of a technology research and commercialization center in Jefferson County, Arkansas, proximate to the Jefferson Labs campus.

(2) RECEIPT AND EXPENDITURE OF FUNDS.—Pursuant to such agreement, the Secretary may hereafter receive and retain funds from such entity and use such funds, in addition to such other funds as are made available by this act or future acts for the operation of the National Center for Toxicological Research, for the purposes listed in paragraph (3). Funds received from such entity shall be deemed to be appropriated for such purposes and shall remain available until expended.

(3) PURPOSES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Funds described by paragraph (2) shall be available to defray—

(i) the costs of creating, upgrading, and maintaining connections between such center and roads, communications facilities, and utilities that are on the Jefferson Labs campus; and

(ii) the costs of upgrades, relocation, repair, and new constructions of roads, communications facilities, and utilities on such campus as may be necessary for such agreement.

(B) OTHER ACTS.—For purposes of this and any subsequent Act, the operation of the National Center for Toxicological Research shall be deemed to include the purposes listed in subparagraph (A).

SEC. 739. The Secretary shall set aside for Rural Economic Area Partnership (REAP) Zones, until August 15, 2015, an amount of funds made available in title III as follows: (a) with respect to funds under the headings of Rural Housing Insurance Fund Program Account, Mutual and Self-Help Housing Grants, Rural Community Facilities Program Account, Rural Development Loan Fund Program Account, and Rural Water and Waste Disposal Program Account the set aside shall equal the amount obligated in REAP Zones with respect to funds provided under such headings during the 2008 fiscal year; and (b) with respect to funds under the headings of Rural Business Program Account, and Rural Housing Assistance Grants the set aside shall equal the amount obligated in REAP Zones with respect to funds provided under such headings in the most recent fiscal year funds were obligated under the heading.

SEC. 740. In response to an eligible community where the drinking water supplies are inadequate due to a natural disaster, as determined by the Secretary, including drought or severe weather, the Secretary may provide potable water through the Emergency Community Water Assistance Grant Program for an additional period of time not to exceed 120 days beyond the established period provided under the Program in order to protect public health.

SEC. 741. Hereafter, none of the funds appropriated by this or any other Act may be used to carry out section 410 of the Federal Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 679a) or section 30 of the Poultry Products Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 471).

SEC. 742. There is hereby established in the Treasury of the United States a fund to be known as the “Nonrecurring expenses fund” (the Fund); Provided, That unobligated balances of expired discretionary funds appropriated in this or any succeeding fiscal year from the General Fund of the Treasury to the Department of Agriculture (except the Forest Service) by this or any other Act may be transferred (not later than the end of the fifth fiscal year after the last fiscal year for which such funds are available for the purposes for which appropriated) into the Fund; Provided further, That amounts deposited in the Fund shall be available until expended, and in addition to such other funds as may be available for such purposes, for facilities infrastructure capital acquisition necessary for the operation of the Department of Agriculture, subject to approval by the Office of Management and Budget; Provided further, That amounts in the Fund may be obligated only after the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate are notified at least 15 days in advance of the planned use of funds.

SEC. 743. There is hereby appropriated for the “Emergency Watershed Protection Program”, $78,581,000, to remain available until expended; for the “Emergency Forestry Restoration Program”, $3,203,000, to remain available until expended; and for the “Emergency Conservation Program”, $9,216,000, to remain available until expended; Provided, That funds under this section are for necessary expenses resulting from a major disaster declared pursuant to the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq.), and are designated by the Congress as being for disaster relief pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(D) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

SEC. 744. Of the funding provided in section 743 of division A of Public Law 113–76, not more than $75,000 may be used for administrative purposes, including a modification to an existing contract to allow reimbursement for travel and other administrative purposes.

SEC. 745. Of the unobligated balances identified by Treasury Appropriation Fund Symbol 12X1401, $1,530,000 are rescinded.

SEC. 746. The unobligated balances identified by Treasury Appropriation Fund Symbol 12X2271 are rescinded.

SEC. 747. Section 501(f)(1)(C)(ii)(II) of the Federal Agriculture Improvement and Reform Act of 1996 (7 U.S.C. 7401(f)(1)(C)(ii)(II)) is amended by striking “section 514” and inserting “a commodity promotion law”.

SEC. 748. Of the unobligated balances provided pursuant to section 9004(d)(1) of the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002, as amended, (7 U.S.C. 8104(d)(1)), $8,000,000 are hereby rescinded.

SEC. 749. Funds provided by this or any prior Appropriations Act for the Agriculture and Food Research Initiative under 7 U.S.C. 450i(b) shall be made available without regard to section 7128 of the Agricultural Act of 2014 (7 U.S.C. 3371 note), under the matching requirements in laws in effect on the date before the date of enactment of such section: Provided, That the requirements of 7 U.S.C. 450i(b)(9) shall continue to apply.

SEC. 750. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used to pay the salaries or expenses of personnel—

(1) to inspect horses under section 3 of the Federal Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 603);

(2) to inspect horses under section 903 of the Federal Agriculture Improvement and Reform Act of 1996 (7 U.S.C. 1901 note; Public Law 104–127); or

(3) to implement or enforce section 352.19 of title 9, Code of Federal Regulations (or a successor regulation).

SEC. 751. For the period beginning on the date of enactment of this Act through school year 2015–2016, with respect to the school lunch program established under the Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act (42 U.S.C. 1751 et seq.) or the school breakfast program established under the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 (42 U.S.C. 1771 et seq.) and final regulations published by the Department of Agriculture in the Federal Register on January 26, 2012 (77 Fed. Reg. 4088 et seq.), the Secretary shall allow States to grant an exemption from the whole grain requirements that took effect on or after July 1, 2014, and the States shall establish a process for evaluating and responding, in a reasonable amount of time, to requests for an exemption: Provided, That school food authorities demonstrate hardship, including financial hardship, in procuring specific whole grain products which are acceptable to the students and compliant with the whole grain-rich requirements; Provided further, That school food authorities shall comply with the applicable grain component or standard with respect to the school lunch or school breakfast program that was in effect prior to July 1, 2014.

SEC. 752. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act shall be used to pay the salaries and expenses of personnel to implement any regulations under the Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act (42 U.S.C. 1751 et seq.), the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 (42 U.S.C. 1771 et seq.), the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010 (Public Law 111–296), or any other law that would require a reduction in the quantity of sodium contained in federally reimbursed meals, foods, and snacks sold in schools below Target 1 (as described in section 220.8(f)(3) of title 7, Code of Federal Regulations (or successor regulations)) until the latest scientific research establishes the reduction is beneficial for children.

SEC. 753. (a) None of the funds made available by this Act or any other Act may be used to exclude or restrict, or to pay the salaries and expenses of personnel to exclude or restrict, the eligibility of any variety of fresh, whole, or cut vegetables (except for vegetables with added sugars, fats, or oils) from being provided under the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children under section 17 of the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 (42 U.S.C. 1786) (in this section referred to as the “program”).

(b) Not later than 15 days after the date of enactment of this Act, each State agency shall carry out the program in a manner consistent with subsection (a).

(c) Not later than 90 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture shall commence under section 17(f)(11)(C) of the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 (42 U.S.C. 1786(f)(11)(C)) the next regular review of the supplemental foods available under this program, including a review of the nutrient value of all vegetables.

(d) If, upon completing the review under subsection (c), the Secretary of Agriculture recommends that a vegetable be eligible for purchase under the program, none of the funds made available under this Act or any other Act may be used to exclude or restrict the eligibility of that variety of vegetable (except if that vegetable has added sugars, fats, or oils) from being purchased under the program, and subsection (a) shall continue to be effective.

(e) If the review in subsection (c) recommends that any vegetable shall not be available for purchase under the program, based upon the nutritional content of the vegetable and the nutrition needs of WIC participants, subsection (a) shall expire upon the publication of the regularly scheduled review.

(f) Not later than 90 days after completing the review under subsection (c), the Secretary of Agriculture shall make publicly available all scientific research and data used to make the final recommendations and explain the results of the review by submitting a report containing such information to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry of the Senate, the Committee on Education and Workforce of the House of Representatives, and the Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

(g) Upon completion of the review under subsection (c) by the Secretary of Agriculture, the Comptroller General of the United States shall conduct an audit of the review which shall include an audit of the scientific research and data used to conduct the review.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

SEC. 101. During the current fiscal year, applicable appropriations and funds made available to the Department of Commerce by this Act shall be available for the activities specified in the Act of October 26, 1949 (15 U.S.C. 1514), to the extent and in the manner prescribed by the Act, and, notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3324, may be used for advanced payments not otherwise authorized only upon the certification of officials designated by the Secretary of Commerce that such payments are in the public interest.

SEC. 102. During the current fiscal year, appropriations made available to the Department of Commerce by this Act for salaries and expenses shall be available for hire of passenger motor vehicles as authorized by 31 U.S.C. 1343 and 1344; services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109; and uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by law (5 U.S.C. 5901-5902).

SEC. 103. Not to exceed 5 percent of any appropriation made available for the current fiscal year for the Department of Commerce in this Act may be transferred between such appropriations, but no such appropriation shall be increased by more than 10 percent by any such transfers: Provided, That any transfer pursuant to this section shall be treated as a reprogramming of funds under section 505 of this Act and shall not be available for obligation or expenditure except in compliance with the procedures set forth in that section: Provided further, That the Secretary of Commerce shall notify the Committees on Appropriations at least 15 days in advance of the acquisition or disposal of any capital asset (including land, structures, and equipment) not specifically provided for in this Act or any other law appropriating funds for the Department of Commerce.

SEC. 104. The requirements set forth by section 105 of the Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2012 (Public Law 112-55), as amended by section 105 of title I of division B of Public Law 113-6, are hereby adopted by reference and made applicable with respect to fiscal year 2015: Provided, That the life cycle cost for the Joint Polar Satellite System is $11,323,400,000 and the life cycle cost for the Geostationary Operational Environmental Satellite R-Series Program is $10,829,500,000.

SEC. 105. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary may furnish services (including but not limited to utilities, telecommunications, and security services) necessary to support the operation, maintenance, and improvement of space that persons, firms, or organizations are authorized, pursuant to the Public Buildings Cooperative Use Act of 1976 or other authority, to use or occupy in the Herbert C. Hoover Building, Washington, DC, or other buildings, the maintenance, operation, and protection of which has been delegated to the Secretary from the Administrator of General Services pursuant to the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 on a reimbursable or non-reimbursable basis. Amounts received as reimbursement for services provided under this section or the authority under which the use or occupancy of the space is authorized, up to $200,000, shall be credited to the appropriation or fund which initially bears the costs of such services.

SEC. 106. Nothing in this title shall be construed to prevent a grant recipient from deterring child pornography, copyright infringement, or any other unlawful activity over its networks.

SEC. 107. The Administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration is authorized to use, with their consent, with reimbursement and subject to the limits of available appropriations, the land, services, equipment, personnel, and facilities of any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States, or of any State, local government, Indian tribal government, Territory, or possession, or of any political subdivision thereof, or of any foreign government or international organization, for purposes related to carrying out the responsibilities of any statute administered by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

SEC. 108. The Department of Commerce shall provide a monthly report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate on any official travel to China by any employee of the U.S. Department of Commerce, including the purpose of such travel.

SEC. 109. The National Technical Information Service shall not charge any customer for a copy of any report or document generated by the Legislative Branch unless the Service has provided information to the customer on how an electronic copy of such report or document may be accessed and downloaded for free online. Should a customer still require the Service to provide a printed or digital copy of the report or document, the charge shall be limited to recovering the Service's cost of processing, reproducing, and delivering such report or document.

SEC. 110. To carry out the responsibilities of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), the Administrator of NOAA is authorized to: (1) enter into grants and cooperative agreements with; (2) use on a non-reimbursable basis land, services, equipment, personnel, and facilities provided by; and (3) receive and expend funds made available on a consensual basis from: a Federal agency, State or subdivision thereof, local government, tribal government, territory, or possession or any subdivisions thereof: Provided, That funds received for permitting and related regulatory activities pursuant to this section shall be deposited under the heading "National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration—Operations, Research, and Facilities" and shall remain available until September 30, 2016 for such purposes: Provided further, That all funds within this section and their corresponding uses are subject to section 505 of this Act.

SEC. 111. The Secretary of Commerce may waive the requirement for bonds under 40 U.S.C. 3131 with respect to contracts for the construction, alteration, or repair of vessels, regardless of the terms of the contracts as to payment or title, when the contract is made under the Coast and Geodetic Survey Act of 1947 (33 U.S.C. 883a et seq.).

This title may be cited as the "Department of Commerce Appropriations Act, 2015".

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

SEC. 201. In addition to amounts otherwise made available in this title for official reception and representation expenses, a total of not to exceed $50,000 from funds appropriated to the Department of Justice in this title shall be available to the Attorney General for official reception and representation expenses.

SEC. 202. None of the funds appropriated by this title shall be available to pay for an abortion, except where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term, or in the case of rape: Provided, That should this prohibition be declared unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, this section shall be null and void.

SEC. 203. None of the funds appropriated under this title shall be used to require any person to perform, or facilitate in any way the performance of, any abortion.

SEC. 204. Nothing in the preceding section shall remove the obligation of the Director of the Bureau of Prisons to provide escort services necessary for a female inmate to receive such service outside the Federal facility: Provided, That nothing in this section in any way diminishes the effect of section 203 intended to address the philosophical beliefs of individual employees of the Bureau of Prisons.

SEC. 205. Not to exceed 5 percent of any appropriation made available for the current fiscal year for the Department of Justice in this Act may be transferred between such appropriations, but no such appropriation, except as otherwise specifically provided, shall be increased by more than 10 percent by any such transfers: Provided, That any transfer pursuant to this section shall be treated as a reprogramming of funds under section 505 of this Act and shall not be available for obligation except in compliance with the procedures set forth in that section.

SEC. 206. The Attorney General is authorized to extend through September 30, 2015, the Personnel Management Demonstration Project transferred to the Attorney General pursuant to section 1115 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (Public Law 107-296; 28 U.S.C. 599B) without limitation on the number of employees or the positions covered.

SEC. 207. None of the funds made available under this title may be used by the Federal Bureau of Prisons or the United States Marshals Service for the purpose of transporting an individual who is a prisoner pursuant to conviction for crime under State or Federal law and is classified as a maximum or high security prisoner, other than to a prison or other facility certified by the Federal Bureau of Prisons as appropriately secure for housing such a prisoner.

SEC. 208. (a) None of the funds appropriated by this Act may be used by Federal prisons to purchase cable television services, or to rent or purchase audiovisual or electronic media or equipment used primarily for recreational purposes.

(b) Subsection (a) does not preclude the rental, maintenance, or purchase of audiovisual or electronic media or equipment for inmate training, religious, or educational programs.

SEC. 209. None of the funds made available under this title shall be obligated or expended for any new or enhanced information technology program having total estimated development costs in excess of $100,000,000, unless the Deputy Attorney General and the investment review board certify to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate that the information technology program has appropriate program management controls and contractor oversight mechanisms in place, and that the program is compatible with the enterprise architecture of the Department of Justice.

SEC. 210. The notification thresholds and procedures set forth in section 505 of this Act shall apply to deviations from the amounts designated for specific activities in this Act and in the explanatory statement described in section 4 (in the matter preceding division A of this consolidated Act), and to any use of deobligated balances of funds provided under this title in previous years.

SEC. 211. None of the funds appropriated by this Act may be used to plan for, begin, continue, finish, process, or approve a public-private competition under the Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76 or any successor administrative regulation, directive, or policy for work performed by employees of the Bureau of Prisons or of Federal Prison Industries, Incorporated.

SEC. 212. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no funds shall be available for the salary, benefits, or expenses of any United States Attorney assigned dual or additional responsibilities by the Attorney General or his designee that exempt that United States Attorney from the residency requirements of section 545 of title 28, United States Code.

SEC. 213. At the discretion of the Attorney General, and in addition to any amounts that otherwise may be available (or authorized to be made available) by law, with respect to funds appropriated by this title under the headings "Research, Evaluation and Statistics", "State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance", and "Juvenile Justice Programs"—

(1) up to 3 percent of funds made available to the Office of Justice Programs for grant or reimbursement programs may be used by such Office to provide training and technical assistance; and

(2) up to 2 percent of funds made available for grant or reimbursement programs under such headings, except for amounts appropriated specifically for research, evaluation, or statistical programs administered by the National Institute of Justice and the Bureau of Justice Statistics, shall be transferred to and merged with funds provided to the National Institute of Justice and the Bureau of Justice Statistics, to be used by them for research, evaluation, or statistical purposes, without regard to the authorizations for such grant or reimbursement programs.

SEC. 214. Upon request by a grantee for whom the Attorney General has determined there is a fiscal hardship, the Attorney General may, with respect to funds appropriated in this or any other Act making appropriations for fiscal years 2012 through 2015 for the following programs, waive the following requirements:

(1) For the adult and juvenile offender State and local reentry demonstration projects under part FF of title I of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3797w(g)(1)), the requirements under section 2976(g)(1) of such part.

(2) For State, Tribal, and local reentry courts under part FF of title I of such Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3797w-2(e)(1) and (2)), the requirements under section 2978(e)(1) and (2) of such part.

(3) For the prosecution drug treatment alternatives to prison program under part CC of title I of such Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3797q-3), the requirements under section 2904 of such part.

(4) For grants to protect inmates and safeguard communities as authorized by section 6 of the Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 (42 U.S.C. 15605(c)(3)), the requirements of section 6(c)(3) of such Act.

SEC. 215. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, section 20109(a) of subtitle A of title II of the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 (42 U.S.C. 13709(a)) shall not apply to amounts made available by this or any other Act.

SEC. 216. None of the funds made available under this Act, other than for the national instant criminal background check system established under section 103 of the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act (18 U.S.C. 922 note), may be used by a Federal law enforcement officer to facilitate the transfer of an operable firearm to an individual if the Federal law enforcement officer knows or suspects that the individual is an agent of a drug cartel, unless law enforcement personnel of the United States continuously monitor or control the firearm at all times.

SEC. 217. (a) None of the income retained in the Department of Justice Working Capital Fund pursuant to title I of Public Law 102-140 (105 Stat. 784; 28 U.S.C. 527 note) shall be available for obligation during fiscal year 2015, except up to $40,000,000 may be obligated for implementation of a unified Department of Justice financial management system.

(b) Not to exceed $30,000,000 of the unobligated balances transferred to the capital account of the Department of Justice Working Capital Fund pursuant to title I of Public Law 102-140 (105 Stat. 784; 28 U.S.C. 527 note) shall be available for obligation in fiscal year 2015, and any use, obligation, transfer or allocation of such funds shall be treated as a reprogramming of funds under section 505 of this Act.

(c) In addition to the amount otherwise provided by this Act in the first proviso under the heading "United States Marshals Service—Federal Prisoner Detention", not to exceed $10,000,000 of the excess unobligated balances available under section 524(c)(8)(E) of title 28, United States Code, shall be available for obligation during fiscal year 2015, and any use, obligation, transfer or allocation of such funds shall be treated as a reprogramming of funds under section 505 of this Act.

(d) Of amounts available in the Assets Forfeiture Fund in fiscal year 2015, $154,700,000 shall be for payments associated with joint law enforcement operations as authorized by section 524(c)(1)(I) of title 28, United States Code.

(e) The Attorney General shall submit a spending plan to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act detailing the planned distribution of Assets Forfeiture Fund joint law enforcement operations funding during fiscal year 2015.

(f) Subsections (a) through (d) of this section shall sunset on September 30, 2015.

SEC. 218. No funds provided in this Act shall be used to deny the Inspector General of the Department of Justice timely access to all records, documents, and other materials in the custody or possession of the Department or to prevent or impede the Inspector General's access to such records, documents and other materials, unless in accordance with an express limitation of section 6(a) of the Inspector General Act, as amended, consistent with the plain language of the Inspector General Act, as amended. The Inspector General of the Department of Justice shall report to the Committees on Appropriations within five calendar days any failures to comply with this requirement.

SEC. 219. Discretionary funds that are made available in this Act for the Office of Justice Programs may be used to participate in Performance Partnership Pilots authorized under section 526 of division H of Public Law 113-76.

This title may be cited as the "Department of Justice Appropriations Act, 2015".

TITLE III SCIENCE

OFFICE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY POLICY

For necessary expenses of the Office of Science and Technology Policy, in carrying out the purposes of the National Science and Technology Policy, Organization, and Priorities Act of 1976 (42 U.S.C. 6601 et seq.), hire of passenger motor vehicles, and services as authorized by section 3109 of title 5, United States Code, not to exceed $2,250 for official reception and representation expenses, and rental of conference rooms in the District of Columbia, $5,555,000.

NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION SCIENCE

For necessary expenses, not otherwise provided for, in the conduct and support of science research and development activities, including research, development, operations, support, and services; maintenance and repair, facility planning and design; space flight, spacecraft control, and communications activities; program management; personnel and related costs, including uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by sections 5901 and 5902 of title 5, United States Code; travel expenses; purchase and hire of passenger motor vehicles; and purchase, lease, charter, maintenance, and operation of mission and administrative aircraft, $5,244,700,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016: Provided, That the formulation and development costs (with development cost as defined under section 30104 of title 51, United States Code) for the James Webb Space Telescope shall not exceed $8,000,000,000: Provided further, That should the individual identified under subsection (c)(2)(E) of section 30104 of title 51, United States Code, as responsible for the James Webb Space Telescope determine that the development cost of the program is likely to exceed that limitation, the individual shall immediately notify the Administrator and the increase shall be treated as if it meets the 30 percent threshold described in subsection (f) of section 30104: Provided further, That $100,000,000 shall be for pre-formulation and/or formulation activities for a mission that meets the science goals outlined for the Jupiter Europa mission in the most recent planetary science decadal survey.

AERONAUTICS

For necessary expenses, not otherwise provided for, in the conduct and support of aeronautics research and development activities, including research, development, operations, support, and services; maintenance and repair, facility planning and design; space flight, spacecraft control, and communications activities; program management; personnel and related costs, including uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by sections 5901 and 5902 of title 5, United States Code; travel expenses; purchase and hire of passenger motor vehicles; and purchase, lease, charter, maintenance, and operation of mission and administrative aircraft, $651,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

SPACE TECHNOLOGY

For necessary expenses, not otherwise provided for, in the conduct and support of space research and technology development activities, including research, development, operations, support, and services; maintenance and repair, facility planning and design; space flight, spacecraft control, and communications activities; program management; personnel and related costs, including uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by sections 5901 and 5902 of title 5, United States Code; travel expenses; purchase and hire of passenger motor vehicles; and purchase, lease, charter, maintenance, and operation of mission and administrative aircraft, $596,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

EXPLORATION

For necessary expenses, not otherwise provided for, in the conduct and support of exploration research and development activities, including research, development, operations, support, and services; maintenance and repair, facility planning and design; space flight, spacecraft control, and communications activities; program management; personnel and related costs, including uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by sections 5901 and 5902 of title 5, United States Code; travel expenses; purchase and hire of passenger motor vehicles; and purchase, lease, charter, maintenance, and operation of mission and administrative aircraft, $4,356,700,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016: Provided, That not less than $1,194,000,000 shall be for the Orion Multi-Purpose Crew Vehicle: Provided further, That not less than $2,051,300,000 shall be for the Space Launch System, which shall have a lift capability not less than 130 metric tons and which shall have an upper stage and other core elements developed simultaneously: Provided further, That of the funds made available for the Space Launch System, $1,700,000,000 shall be for launch vehicle development and $351,300,000 shall be for exploration ground systems: Provided further, That the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) shall provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, concurrent with the annual budget submission, a 5 year budget profile and funding projection that adheres to a 70 percent Joint Confidence Level (JCL) and is consistent with the Key Decision Point C (KDP-C) for the Space Launch System and with the future KDP-C for the Orion Multi-Purpose Crew Vehicle: Provided further, That in complying with the preceding proviso NASA shall include budget profiles and funding projections that conform to the KDP-C management agreement for development completion of the Space Launch System by December 2017, and the management agreement for the Orion Multi-Purpose Crew Vehicle upon completing KDP-C: Provided further, That in no case shall the JCL of the Space Launch System or the Orion Multi-Purpose Crew Vehicle be less than the guidance outlined in NASA Procedural Requirements 7120.5E: Provided further, That funds made available for the Orion Multi-Purpose Crew Vehicle and Space Launch System are in addition to funds provided for these programs under the "Construction and Environmental Compliance and Restoration" heading: Provided further, That $805,000,000 shall be for commercial spaceflight activities: Provided further, That $306,400,000 shall be for exploration research and development.

SPACE OPERATIONS

For necessary expenses, not otherwise provided for, in the conduct and support of space operations research and development activities, including research, development, operations, support and services; space flight, spacecraft control and communications activities, including operations, production, and services; maintenance and repair, facility planning and design; program management; personnel and related costs, including uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by sections 5901 and 5902 of title 5, United States Code; travel expenses; purchase and hire of passenger motor vehicles; and purchase, lease, charter, maintenance and operation of mission and administrative aircraft, $3,827,800,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

EDUCATION

For necessary expenses, not otherwise provided for, in the conduct and support of aerospace and aeronautical education research and development activities, including research, development, operations, support, and services; program management; personnel and related costs, including uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by sections 5901 and 5902 of title 5, United States Code; travel expenses; purchase and hire of passenger motor vehicles; and purchase, lease, charter, maintenance, and operation of mission and administrative aircraft, $119,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, of which $18,000,000 shall be for the Experimental Program to Stimulate Competitive Research and $40,000,000 shall be for the National Space Grant College program.

SAFETY, SECURITY AND MISSION SERVICES

For necessary expenses, not otherwise provided for, in the conduct and support of science, aeronautics, space technology, exploration, space operations and education research and development activities, including research, development, operations, support, and services; maintenance and repair, facility planning and design; space flight, spacecraft control, and communications activities; program management; personnel and related costs, including uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by sections 5901 and 5902 of title 5, United States Code; travel expenses; purchase and hire of passenger motor vehicles; not to exceed $63,000 for official reception and representation expenses; and purchase, lease, charter, maintenance, and operation of mission and administrative aircraft, $2,758,900,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

CONSTRUCTION AND ENVIRONMENTAL COMPLIANCE AND RESTORATION

For necessary expenses for construction of facilities including repair, rehabilitation, revitalization, and modification of facilities, construction of new facilities and additions to existing facilities, facility planning and design, and restoration, and acquisition or condemnation of real property, as authorized by law, and environmental compliance and restoration, $419,100,000, to remain available until September 30, 2020: Provided, That of the $429,100,000 provided for in direct obligations under this heading, $419,100,000 is appropriated from the general fund and $10,000,000 is provided from recoveries of prior year obligations: Provided further, That proceeds from leases deposited into this account shall be available for a period of 5 years to the extent and in amounts as provided in annual appropriations Acts: Provided further, That such proceeds referred to in the preceding proviso shall be available for obligation for fiscal year 2015 in an amount not to exceed $9,584,100: Provided further, That each annual budget request shall include an annual estimate of gross receipts and collections and proposed use of all funds collected pursuant to section 20145 of title 51, United States Code.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

For necessary expenses of the Office of Inspector General in carrying out the Inspector General Act of 1978, $37,000,000, of which $500,000 shall remain available until September 30, 2016.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

Funds for any announced prize otherwise authorized shall remain available, without fiscal year limitation, until the prize is claimed or the offer is withdrawn.

Not to exceed 5 percent of any appropriation made available for the current fiscal year for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in this Act may be transferred between such appropriations, but no such appropriation, except as otherwise specifically provided, shall be increased by more than 10 percent by any such transfers. Balances so transferred shall be merged with and available for the same purposes and the same time period as the appropriations to which transferred. Any transfer pursuant to this provision shall be treated as a reprogramming of funds under section 505 of this Act and shall not be available for obligation except in compliance with the procedures set forth in that section.

The spending plan required by this Act shall be provided by NASA at the theme, program, project and activity level. The spending plan, as well as any subsequent change of an amount established in that spending plan that meets the notification requirements of section 505 of this Act, shall be treated as a reprogramming under section 505 of this Act and shall not be available for obligation or expenditure except in compliance with the procedures set forth in that section.

(TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The unexpired balances of a previous account, for activities for which funds are provided in this Act, may be transferred to the new account established in this Act that provides such activities. Balances so transferred shall be merged with the funds in the newly established account, but shall be available under the same terms, conditions and period of time as previously appropriated.

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION RESEARCH AND RELATED ACTIVITIES

For necessary expenses in carrying out the National Science Foundation Act of 1950 (42 U.S.C. 1861 et seq.), and Public Law 86-209 (42 U.S.C. 1880 et seq.); services as authorized by section 3109 of title 5, United States Code; maintenance and operation of aircraft and purchase of flight services for research support; acquisition of aircraft; and authorized travel; $5,933,645,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, of which not to exceed $520,000,000 shall remain available until expended for polar research and operations support, and for reimbursement to other Federal agencies for operational and science support and logistical and other related activities for the United States Antarctic program: Provided, That receipts for scientific support services and materials furnished by the National Research Centers and other National Science Foundation supported research facilities may be credited to this appropriation: Provided further, That not less than $159,690,000 shall be available for activities authorized by section 7002(c)(2)(A)(iv) of Public Law 110-69.

MAJOR RESEARCH EQUIPMENT AND FACILITIES CONSTRUCTION

For necessary expenses for the acquisition, construction, commissioning, and upgrading of major research equipment, facilities, and other such capital assets pursuant to the National Science Foundation Act of 1950 (42 U.S.C. 1861 et seq.), including authorized travel, $200,760,000, to remain available until expended.

EDUCATION AND HUMAN RESOURCES

For necessary expenses in carrying out science, mathematics and engineering education and human resources programs and activities pursuant to the National Science Foundation Act of 1950 (42 U.S.C. 1861 et seq.), including services as authorized by section 3109 of title 5, United States Code, authorized travel, and rental of conference rooms in the District of Columbia, $866,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016: Provided, That not less than $60,890,000 shall be available for activities authorized by section 7030 of Public Law 110-69.

AGENCY OPERATIONS AND AWARD MANAGEMENT

For agency operations and award management necessary in carrying out the National Science Foundation Act of 1950 (42 U.S.C. 1861 et seq.); services authorized by section 3109 of title 5, United States Code; hire of passenger motor vehicles; uniforms or allowances therefor, as authorized by sections 5901 and 5902 of title 5, United States Code; rental of conference rooms in the District of Columbia; and reimbursement of the Department of Homeland Security for security guard services; $325,000,000: Provided, That not to exceed $8,280 is for official reception and representation expenses: Provided further, That contracts may be entered into under this heading in fiscal year 2015 for maintenance and operation of facilities and for other services to be provided during the next fiscal year: Provided further, That of the amount provided for costs associated with the acquisition, occupancy, and related costs of new headquarters space, not more than $27,370,000 shall remain available until expended.

OFFICE OF THE NATIONAL SCIENCE BOARD

For necessary expenses (including payment of salaries, authorized travel, hire of passenger motor vehicles, the rental of conference rooms in the District of Columbia, and the employment of experts and consultants under section 3109 of title 5, United States Code) involved in carrying out section 4 of the National Science Foundation Act of 1950 (42 U.S.C. 1863) and Public Law 86-209 (42 U.S.C. 1880 et seq.), $4,370,000: Provided, That not to exceed $2,500 shall be available for official reception and representation expenses.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

For necessary expenses of the Office of Inspector General as authorized by the Inspector General Act of 1978, $14,430,000, of which $400,000 shall remain available until September 30, 2016.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

Not to exceed 5 percent of any appropriation made available for the current fiscal year for the National Science Foundation in this Act may be transferred between such appropriations, but no such appropriation shall be increased by more than 10 percent by any such transfers. Any transfer pursuant to this section shall be treated as a reprogramming of funds under section 505 of this Act and shall not be available for obligation except in compliance with the procedures set forth in that section.

This title may be cited as the "Science Appropriations Act, 2015".

TITLE IV

RELATED AGENCIES

COMMISSION ON CIVIL RIGHTS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses of the Commission on Civil Rights, including hire of passenger motor vehicles, $9,200,000: Provided, That none of the funds appropriated in this paragraph shall be used to employ in excess of four full-time individuals under Schedule C of the Excepted Service exclusive of one special assistant for each Commissioner: Provided further, That none of the funds appropriated in this paragraph shall be used to reimburse Commissioners for more than 75 billable days, with the exception of the chairperson, who is permitted 125 billable days: Provided further, That none of the funds appropriated in this paragraph shall be used for any activity or expense that is not explicitly authorized by section 3 of the Civil Rights Commission Act of 1983 (42 U.S.C. 1975a).

TITLE V
GENERAL PROVISIONS
(INCLUDING RESCISSIONS)

SEC. 501. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes not authorized by the Congress.

SEC. 502. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 503. The expenditure of any appropriation under this Act for any consulting service through procurement contract, pursuant to section 3109 of title 5, United States Code, shall be limited to those contracts where such expenditures are a matter of public record and available for public inspection, except where otherwise provided under existing law, or under existing Executive order issued pursuant to existing law.

SEC. 504. If any provision of this Act or the application of such provision to any person or circumstances shall be held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of each provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid shall not be affected thereby.

SEC. 505. None of the funds provided under this Act, or provided under previous appropriations Acts to the agencies funded by this Act that remain available for obligation or expenditure in fiscal year 2015, or provided from any accounts in the Treasury of the United States derived by the collection of fees available to the agencies funded by this Act, shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming of funds that: (1) creates or initiates a new program, project or activity; (2) eliminates a program, project or activity; (3) increases funds or personnel by any means for any project or activity for which funds have been denied or restricted; (4) relocates an office or employees; (5) reorganizes or renames offices, programs or activities; (6) contracts out or privatizes any functions or activities presently performed by Federal employees; (7) augments existing programs, projects or activities in excess of $500,000 or 10 percent, whichever is less, or reduces by 10 percent funding for any program, project or activity, or numbers of personnel by 10 percent; or (8) results from any general savings, including savings from a reduction in personnel, which would result in a change in existing programs, projects or activities as approved by Congress; unless the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations are notified 15 days in advance of such reprogramming of funds by agencies (excluding agencies of the Department of Justice) funded by this Act and 45 days in advance of such reprogramming of funds by agencies of the Department of Justice funded by this Act.

SEC. 506. (a) If it has been finally determined by a court or Federal agency that any person intentionally affixed a label bearing a "Made in America" inscription, or any inscription with the same meaning, to any product sold in or shipped to the United States that is not made in the United States, the person shall be ineligible to receive any contract or subcontract made with funds made available in this Act, pursuant to the debarment, suspension, and ineligibility procedures described in sections 9.400 through 9.409 of title 48, Code of Federal Regulations.

(b)(1) To the extent practicable, with respect to authorized purchases of promotional items, funds made available by this Act shall be used to purchase items that are manufactured, produced, or assembled in the United States, its territories or possessions.

(2) The term "promotional items" has the meaning given the term in OMB Circular A-87, Attachment B, Item (1)(f)(3).

SEC. 507. (a) The Departments of Commerce and Justice, the National Science Foundation, and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration shall provide to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a quarterly report on the status of balances of appropriations at the account level. For unobligated, uncommitted balances and unobligated, committed balances the quarterly reports shall separately identify the amounts attributable to each source year of appropriation from which the balances were derived. For balances that are obligated, but unexpended, the quarterly reports shall separately identify amounts by the year of obligation.

(b) The report described in subsection (a) shall be submitted within 30 days of the end of each quarter.

(c) If a department or agency is unable to fulfill any aspect of a reporting requirement described in subsection (a) due to a limitation of a current accounting system, the department or agency shall fulfill such aspect to the maximum extent practicable under such accounting system and shall identify and describe in each quarterly report the extent to which such aspect is not fulfilled.

SEC. 508. Any costs incurred by a department or agency funded under this Act resulting from, or to prevent, personnel actions taken in response to funding reductions included in this Act shall be absorbed within the total budgetary resources available to such department or agency: Provided, That the authority to transfer funds between appropriations accounts as may be necessary to carry out this section is provided in addition to authorities included elsewhere in this Act: Provided further, That use of funds to carry out this section shall be treated as a reprogramming of funds under section 505 of this Act and shall not be available for obligation or expenditure except in compliance with the procedures set forth in that section: Provided further, That for the Department of Commerce, this section shall also apply to actions taken for the care and protection of loan collateral or grant property.

SEC. 509. None of the funds provided by this Act shall be available to promote the sale or export of tobacco or tobacco products, or to seek the reduction or removal by any foreign country of restrictions on the marketing of tobacco or tobacco products, except for restrictions which are not applied equally to all tobacco or tobacco products of the same type.

SEC. 510. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, amounts deposited or available in the Fund established by section 1402 of chapter XIV of title II of Public Law 98-473 (42 U.S.C. 10601) in any fiscal year in excess of $2,361,000,000 shall not be available for obligation until the following fiscal year: Provided, That notwithstanding section 1402(d) of such Act, of the amounts available from the Fund for obligation $10,000,000 shall remain available until expended to the Department of Justice Office of Inspector General for oversight and auditing purposes.

SEC. 511. None of the funds made available to the Department of Justice in this Act may be used to discriminate against or denigrate the religious or moral beliefs of students who participate in programs for which financial assistance is provided from those funds, or of the parents or legal guardians of such students.

SEC. 512. None of the funds made available in this Act may be transferred to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government, except pursuant to a transfer made by, or transfer authority provided in, this Act or any other appropriations Act.

SEC. 513. Any funds provided in this Act used to implement E-Government Initiatives shall be subject to the procedures set forth in section 505 of this Act.

SEC. 514. (a) The Inspectors General of the Department of Commerce, the Department of Justice, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the National Science Foundation, and the Legal Services Corporation shall conduct audits, pursuant to the Inspector General Act (5 U.S.C. App.), of grants or contracts for which funds are appropriated by this Act, and shall submit reports to Congress on the progress of such audits, which may include preliminary findings and a description of areas of particular interest, within 180 days after initiating such an audit and every 180 days thereafter until any such audit is completed.

(b) Within 60 days after the date on which an audit described in subsection (a) by an Inspector General is completed, the Secretary, Attorney General, Administrator, Director, or President, as appropriate, shall make the results of the audit available to the public on the Internet website maintained by the Department, Administration, Foundation, or Corporation, respectively. The results shall be made available in redacted form to exclude—

(1) any matter described in section 552(b) of title 5, United States Code; and

(2) sensitive personal information for any individual, the public access to which could be used to commit identity theft or for other inappropriate or unlawful purposes.

(c) Any person awarded a grant or contract funded by amounts appropriated by this Act shall submit a statement to the Secretary of Commerce, the Attorney General, the Administrator, Director, or President, as appropriate, certifying that no funds derived from the grant or contract will be made available through a subcontract or in any other manner to another person who has a financial interest in the person awarded the grant or contract.

(d) The provisions of the preceding subsections of this section shall take effect 30 days after the date on which the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, in consultation with the Director of the Office of Government Ethics, determines that a uniform set of rules and requirements, substantially similar to the requirements in such subsections, consistently apply under the executive branch ethics program to all Federal departments, agencies, and entities.

SEC. 515. (a) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available under this Act may be used by the Departments of Commerce and Justice, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, or the National Science Foundation to acquire a high-impact or moderate-impact information system, as defined for security categorization in the National Institute of Standards and Technology's (NIST) Federal Information Processing Standard Publication 199, "Standards for Security Categorization of Federal Information and Information Systems" unless the agency has—

(1) reviewed the supply chain risk for the information systems against criteria developed by NIST to inform acquisition decisions for high-impact and moderate-impact information systems within the Federal Government;

(2) reviewed the supply chain risk from the presumptive awardee against available and relevant threat information provided by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other appropriate agencies; and

(3) in consultation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation or other appropriate Federal entity, conducted an assessment of any risk of cyber-espionage or sabotage associated with the acquisition of such system, including any risk associated with such system being produced, manufactured, or assembled by one or more entities identified by the United States Government as posing a cyber threat, including but not limited to, those that may be owned, directed, or subsidized by the People's Republic of China.

(b) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available under this Act may be used to acquire a high-impact or moderate-impact information system reviewed and assessed under subsection (a) unless the head of the assessing entity described in subsection (a) has—

(1) developed, in consultation with NIST and supply chain risk management experts, a mitigation strategy for any identified risks;

(2) determined that the acquisition of such system is in the national interest of the United States; and

(3) reported that determination to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

SEC. 516. None of the funds made available in this Act shall be used in any way whatsoever to support or justify the use of torture by any official or contract employee of the United States Government.

SEC. 517. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law or treaty, none of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available under this Act or any other Act may be expended or obligated by a department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States to pay administrative expenses or to compensate an officer or employee of the United States in connection with requiring an export license for the export to Canada of components, parts, accessories or attachments for firearms listed in Category I, section 121.1 of title 22, Code of Federal Regulations (International Trafficking in Arms Regulations (ITAR), part 121, as it existed on April 1, 2005) with a total value not exceeding $500 wholesale in any transaction, provided that the conditions of subsection (b) of this section are met by the exporting party for such articles.

(b) The foregoing exemption from obtaining an export license—

(1) does not exempt an exporter from filing any Shipper's Export Declaration or notification letter required by law, or from being otherwise eligible under the laws of the United States to possess, ship, transport, or export the articles enumerated in subsection (a); and

(2) does not permit the export without a license of—

(A) fully automatic firearms and components and parts for such firearms, other than for end use by the Federal Government, or a Provincial or Municipal Government of Canada;

(B) barrels, cylinders, receivers (frames) or complete breech mechanisms for any firearm listed in Category I, other than for end use by the Federal Government, or a Provincial or Municipal Government of Canada; or

(C) articles for export from Canada to another foreign destination.

(c) In accordance with this section, the District Directors of Customs and postmasters shall permit the permanent or temporary export without a license of any unclassified articles specified in subsection (a) to Canada for end use in Canada or return to the United States, or temporary import of Canadian-origin items from Canada for end use in the United States or return to Canada for a Canadian citizen.

(d) The President may require export licenses under this section on a temporary basis if the President determines, upon publication first in the Federal Register, that the Government of Canada has implemented or maintained inadequate import controls for the articles specified in subsection (a), such that a significant diversion of such articles has and continues to take place for use in international terrorism or in the escalation of a conflict in another nation. The President shall terminate the requirements of a license when reasons for the temporary requirements have ceased.

SEC. 518. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States receiving appropriated funds under this Act or any other Act shall obligate or expend in any way such funds to pay administrative expenses or the compensation of any officer or employee of the United States to deny any application submitted pursuant to 22 U.S.C. 2778(b)(1)(B) and qualified pursuant to 27 CFR section 478.112 or .113, for a permit to import United States origin "curios or relics" firearms, parts, or ammunition.

SEC. 519. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used to include in any new bilateral or multilateral trade agreement the text of—

(1) paragraph 2 of article 16.7 of the United States-Singapore Free Trade Agreement;

(2) paragraph 4 of article 17.9 of the United States-Australia Free Trade Agreement; or

(3) paragraph 4 of article 15.9 of the United States-Morocco Free Trade Agreement.

SEC. 520. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used to authorize or issue a national security letter in contravention of any of the following laws authorizing the Federal Bureau of Investigation to issue national security letters: The Right to Financial Privacy Act; The Electronic Communications Privacy Act; The Fair Credit Reporting Act; The National Security Act of 1947; USA PATRIOT Act; and the laws amended by these Acts.

SEC. 521. If at any time during any quarter, the program manager of a project within the jurisdiction of the Departments of Commerce or Justice, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, or the National Science Foundation totaling more than $75,000,000 has reasonable cause to believe that the total program cost has increased by 10 percent or more, the program manager shall immediately inform the respective Secretary, Administrator, or Director. The Secretary, Administrator, or Director shall notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 30 days in writing of such increase, and shall include in such notice: the date on which such determination was made; a statement of the reasons for such increases; the action taken and proposed to be taken to control future cost growth of the project; changes made in the performance or schedule milestones and the degree to which such changes have contributed to the increase in total program costs or procurement costs; new estimates of the total project or procurement costs; and a statement validating that the project's management structure is adequate to control total project or procurement costs.

SEC. 522. Funds appropriated by this Act, or made available by the transfer of funds in this Act, for intelligence or intelligence related activities are deemed to be specifically authorized by the Congress for purposes of section 504 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 414) during fiscal year 2015 until the enactment of the Intelligence Authorization Act for fiscal year 2015.

SEC. 523. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be used to enter into a contract in an amount greater than $5,000,000 or to award a grant in excess of such amount unless the prospective contractor or grantee certifies in writing to the agency awarding the contract or grant that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, the contractor or grantee has filed all Federal tax returns required during the three years preceding the certification, has not been convicted of a criminal offense under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and has not, more than 90 days prior to certification, been notified of any unpaid Federal tax assessment for which the liability remains unsatisfied, unless the assessment is the subject of an installment agreement or offer in compromise that has been approved by the Internal Revenue Service and is not in default, or the assessment is the subject of a non-frivolous administrative or judicial proceeding.

(c) The Departments of Commerce and Justice shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a report no later than September 1, 2015, specifying the amount of each rescission made pursuant to subsections (a) and (b).

SEC. 525. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used to purchase first class or premium airline travel in contravention of sections 301–10.122 through 301–10.124 of title 41 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 526. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used to send or otherwise pay for the attendance of more than 50 employees from a Federal department or agency at any single conference occurring outside the United States unless such conference is a law enforcement training or operational conference for law enforcement personnel and the majority of Federal employees in attendance are law enforcement personnel stationed outside the United States.

SEC. 527. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this Act may be used in a manner that is inconsistent with the principal negotiating objective of the United States with respect to trade remedy laws to preserve the ability of the United States—

(1) to enforce vigorously its trade laws, including antidumping, countervailing duty, and safeguard laws;

(2) to avoid agreements that—

(A) lessen the effectiveness of domestic and international disciplines on unfair trade, especially dumping and subsidies; or

(B) lessen the effectiveness of domestic and international safeguard provisions, in order to ensure that United States workers, agricultural producers, and firms can compete fully on fair terms and enjoy the benefits of reciprocal trade concessions; and

(3) to address and remedy market distortions that lead to dumping and subsidization, including overcapacity, cartelization, and market-access barriers.

SEC. 528. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this or any other Act may be used to transfer, release, or assist in the transfer or release to or within the United States, its territories, or possessions Khalid Sheikh Mohammed or any other detainee who—

(1) is not a United States citizen or a member of the Armed Forces of the United States; and

(2) is or was held on or after June 24, 2009, at the United States Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, by the Department of Defense.

SEC. 529. (a) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this or any other Act may be used to construct, acquire, or modify any facility in the United States, its territories, or possessions to house any individual described in subsection (c) for the purposes of detention or imprisonment in the custody or under the effective control of the Department of Defense.

(b) The prohibition in subsection (a) shall not apply to any modification of facilities at United States Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

(c) An individual described in this subsection is any individual who, as of June 24, 2009, is located at United States Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and who—

(1) is not a citizen of the United States or a member of the Armed Forces of the United States; and

(2) is—

(A) in the custody or under the effective control of the Department of Defense; or

(B) otherwise under detention at United States Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

SEC. 530. To the extent practicable, funds made available in this Act should be used to purchase light bulbs that are "Energy Star" qualified or have the "Federal Energy Management Program" designation.

SEC. 531. The Director of the Office of Management and Budget shall instruct any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States receiving funds appropriated under this Act to track undisbursed balances in expired grant accounts and include in its annual performance plan and performance and accountability reports the following:

(1) Details on future action the department, agency, or instrumentality will take to resolve undisbursed balances in expired grant accounts.

(2) The method that the department, agency, or instrumentality uses to track undisbursed balances in expired grant accounts.

(3) Identification of undisbursed balances in expired grant accounts that may be returned to the Treasury of the United States.

(4) In the preceding 3 fiscal years, details on the total number of expired grant accounts with undisbursed balances (on the first day of each fiscal year) for the department, agency, or instrumentality and the total finances that have not been obligated to a specific project remaining in the accounts.

SEC. 532. (a) None of the funds made available by this Act may be used for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) or the Office of Science and Technology Policy (OSTP) to develop, design, plan, promulgate, implement, or execute a bilateral policy, program, order, or contract of any kind to participate, collaborate, or coordinate bilaterally in any way with China or any Chinese-owned company unless such activities are specifically authorized by a law enacted after the date of enactment of this Act.

(b) None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to effectuate the hosting of official Chinese visitors at facilities belonging to or utilized by NASA.

(c) The limitations described in subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to activities which NASA or OSTP has certified—

(1) pose no risk of resulting in the transfer of technology, data, or other information with national security or economic security implications to China or a Chinese-owned company; and

(2) will not involve knowing interactions with officials who have been determined by the United States to have direct involvement with violations of human rights.

(d) Any certification made under subsection (c) shall be submitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate no later than 30 days prior to the activity in question and shall include a description of the purpose of the activity, its agenda, its major participants, and its location and timing.

SEC. 533. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to pay the salaries or expenses of personnel to deny, or fail to act on, an application for the importation of any model of shotgun if—

(1) all other requirements of law with respect to the proposed importation are met; and

(2) no application for the importation of such model of shotgun, in the same configuration, had been denied by the Attorney General prior to January 1, 2011, on the basis that the shotgun was not particularly suitable for or readily adaptable to sporting purposes.

SEC. 534. (a) None of the funds made available in this Act may be used to maintain or establish a computer network unless such network blocks the viewing, downloading, and exchanging of pornography.

(b) Nothing in subsection (a) shall limit the use of funds necessary for any Federal, State, tribal, or local law enforcement agency or any other entity carrying out criminal investigations, prosecution, or adjudication activities.

SEC. 535. The Departments of Commerce and Justice, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the National Science Foundation shall submit spending plans, signed by the respective department or agency head, to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate within 45 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 536. None of the funds made available by this Act may be obligated or expended to implement the Arms Trade Treaty until the Senate approves a resolution of ratification for the Treaty.

SEC. 537. None of the funds made available by this Act under the heading “Pacific Coastal Salmon Recovery” may be used for grant guidelines or requirements to establish minimum riparian buffers.

SEC. 538. None of the funds made available in this Act to the Department of Justice may be used, with respect to the States of Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, Washington, and Wisconsin, to prevent such States from implementing their own State laws that authorize the use, distribution, possession, or cultivation of medical marijuana.

SEC. 539. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used in contravention of section 7606 (“Legitimacy of Industrial Hemp Research”) of the Agricultural Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-79) by the Department of Justice or the Drug Enforcement Administration.

SEC. 607. REPEAL OF ASSESSMENT AUTHORITY.

The Travel Promotion Act of 2009 (22 U.S.C. 2131), as amended by this Act, is further amended by striking subsection (e) (as redesignated by section 606(1) of this Act).

TITLE VII—REVITALIZE AMERICAN MANUFACTURING AND INNOVATION ACT OF 2014

SEC. 701. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the “Revitalize American Manufacturing and Innovation Act of 2014”.

SEC. 702. FINDINGS.

Congress finds the following:

(1) In 2012, manufacturers contributed \$2.03 trillion to the economy, or  $\frac{1}{5}$  of United States Gross Domestic Product.

(2) For every $1.00 spent in manufacturing, another $1.32 is added to the economy, the highest multiplier effect of any economic sector.

(3) Manufacturing supports an estimated 17,400,000 jobs in the United States—about 1 in 6 private-sector jobs. More than 12,000,000 Americans (or 9 percent of the workforce) are employed directly in manufacturing.

(4) In 2012, the average manufacturing worker in the United States earned $77,505 annually, including pay and benefits. The average worker in all industries earned $62,063.

(5) Taken alone, manufacturing in the United States would be the 8th largest economy in the world.

(6) Manufacturers in the United States perform two-thirds of all private-sector research and development in the United States, driving more innovation than any other sector.

SEC. 703. ESTABLISHMENT OF NETWORK FOR MANUFACTURING INNOVATION.

The National Institute of Standards and Technology Act (15 U.S.C. 271 et seq.) is amended—

(1) by redesignating section 34 as section 35; and

(2) by inserting after section 33 (15 U.S.C. 278r) the following:

“SEC. 34. NETWORK FOR MANUFACTURING INNOVATION.

“(a) ESTABLISHMENT OF NETWORK FOR MANUFACTURING INNOVATION PROGRAM.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish within the Institute a program to be known as the ‘Network for Manufacturing Innovation Program’ (referred to in this section as the ‘Program’).

“(2) PURPOSES OF PROGRAM.—The purposes of the Program are—

“(A) to improve the competitiveness of United States manufacturing and to increase the production of goods manufactured predominantly within the United States;

“(B) to stimulate United States leadership in advanced manufacturing research, innovation, and technology;

“(C) to facilitate the transition of innovative technologies into scalable, cost-effective, and high-performing manufacturing capabilities;

“(D) to facilitate access by manufacturing enterprises to capital-intensive infrastructure, including high-performance electronics and computing, and the supply chains that enable these technologies;

“(E) to accelerate the development of an advanced manufacturing workforce;

“(F) to facilitate peer exchange of and the documentation of best practices in addressing advanced manufacturing challenges;

“(G) to leverage non-Federal sources of support to promote a stable and sustainable business model without the need for long-term Federal funding; and “(H) to create and preserve jobs.

“(3) SUPPORT.—The Secretary, acting through the Director, shall carry out the purposes set forth in paragraph (2) by supporting—

“(A) the Network for Manufacturing Innovation established under subsection (b); and “(B) the establishment of centers for manufacturing innovation.

“(4) DIRECTOR.—The Secretary shall carry out the Program through the Director.

“(b) ESTABLISHMENT OF NETWORK FOR MANUFACTURING INNOVATION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—As part of the Program, the Secretary shall establish a network of centers for manufacturing innovation.

“(2) DESIGNATION.—The network established under paragraph (1) shall be known as the ‘Network for Manufacturing Innovation’ (referred to in this section as the ‘Network’).

“(c) CENTERS FOR MANUFACTURING INNOVATION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this section, a ‘center for manufacturing innovation’ is a center that—

“(A) has been established by a person or group of persons to address challenges in advanced manufacturing and to assist manufacturers in retaining or expanding industrial production and jobs in the United States;

“(B) has a predominant focus on a manufacturing process, novel material, enabling technology, supply chain integration methodology, or another relevant aspect of advanced manufacturing, such as nanotechnology applications, advanced ceramics, photonics and optics, composites, biobased and advanced materials, flexible hybrid technologies, and tool development for microelectronics;

“(C) as determined by the Secretary, has the potential—

“(i) to improve the competitiveness of United States manufacturing, including key advanced manufacturing technologies such as nanotechnology, advanced ceramics, photonics and optics, composites, biobased and advanced materials, flexible hybrid technologies, and tool development for microelectronics;

“(ii) to accelerate non-Federal investment in advanced manufacturing production capacity in the United States; or

“(iii) to enable the commercial application of new technologies or industry-wide manufacturing processes; and

“(D) includes active participation among representatives from multiple industrial entities, research universities, community colleges, and such other entities as the Secretary considers appropriate, which may include industry-led consortia, career and technical education schools, Federal laboratories, State, local, and tribal governments, businesses, educational institutions, and nonprofit organizations.

“(2) ACTIVITIES.—Activities of a center for manufacturing innovation may include the following:

“(A) Research, development, and demonstration projects, including proof-of-concept development and prototyping, to reduce the cost, time, and risk of commercializing new technologies and improvements in existing technologies, processes, products, and research and development of materials to solve precompetitive industrial problems with economic or national security implications.

“(B) Development and implementation of education, training, and workforce recruitment courses, materials, and programs.

“(C) Development of innovative methodologies and practices for supply chain integration and introduction of new technologies into supply chains.

“(D) Outreach and engagement with small and medium-sized manufacturing enterprises, including women and minority owned manufacturing enterprises, in addition to large manufacturing enterprises.

“(E) Such other activities as the Secretary, in consultation with Federal departments and agencies whose missions contribute to or are affected by advanced manufacturing, considers consistent with the purposes described in subsection (a)(2).

“(3) ADDITIONAL CENTERS FOR MANUFACTURING INNOVATION.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The National Additive Manufacturing Innovation Institute and other manufacturing centers formally recognized as manufacturing innovation centers pursuant to Federal law or executive actions, or under pending interagency review for such recognition as of the date of enactment of the Revitalize American Manufacturing and Innovation Act of 2014, shall be considered centers for manufacturing innovation, but such centers shall not receive any financial assistance under subsection (d).

“(B) NETWORK PARTICIPATION.—A manufacturing center that is substantially similar to those established under this subsection but that does not receive financial assistance under subsection (d) may, upon request of the center, be recognized as a center for manufacturing innovation by the Secretary for purposes of participation in the Network.

“(d) FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO ESTABLISH AND SUPPORT CENTERS FOR MANUFACTURING INNOVATION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—In carrying out the Program, the Secretary shall award financial assistance to a person or group of persons to assist the organization in planning, establishing, or supporting a center for manufacturing innovation.

“(2) APPLICATION.—A person or group of persons seeking financial assistance under paragraph (1) shall submit to the Secretary an application therefor at such time, in such manner, and containing such information as the Secretary may require. The application shall, at a minimum, describe the specific sources and amounts of non-Federal financial support for the center on the date financial assistance is sought, as well as the anticipated sources and amounts of non-Federal financial support during the period for which the center could be eligible for continued Federal financial assistance under this section.

“(3) OPEN PROCESS.—In soliciting applications for financial assistance under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall ensure an open process that will allow for the consideration of all applications relevant to advanced manufacturing regardless of technology area.

“(4) SELECTION.—

“(A) COMPETITIVE, MERIT REVIEW.—In awarding financial assistance under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall use a competitive, merit review process that includes peer review by a diverse group of individuals with relevant expertise from both the private and public sectors.

“(B) PARTICIPATION IN PROCESS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—No political appointee may participate on a peer review panel. The Secretary shall implement a conflict of interest policy that ensures public transparency and accountability, and requires full disclosure of any real or potential conflicts of interest on the parts of individuals that participate in the merit selection process.

“(ii) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this subparagraph, the term ‘political appointee’ means any individual who—

“(I) is employed in a position described under sections 5312 through 5316 of title 5, United States Code, (relating to the Executive Schedule);

“(II) is a limited term appointee, limited emergency appointee, or noncareer appointee in the Senior Executive Service, as defined under paragraphs (5), (6), and (7), respectively, of section 3132(a) of title 5, United States Code; or “(III) is employed in a position in the executive branch of the Government of a confidential or policy-determining character under schedule C of subpart C of part 213 of title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

“(C) PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT, TRANSPARENCY, AND ACCOUNTABILITY.—For each award of financial assistance under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall—

“(i) make publicly available at the time of the award a description of the bases for the award, including an explanation of the relative merits of the winning applicant as compared to other applications received, if applicable; and “(ii) develop and implement metrics-based performance measures to assess the effectiveness of the activities funded.

“(D) COLLABORATION.—In awarding financial assistance under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall, acting through the National Program Office established under subsection (f)(1), collaborate with Federal departments and agencies whose missions contribute to or are affected by advanced manufacturing.

“(E) CONSIDERATIONS.—In selecting a person who submitted an application under paragraph (2) for an award of financial assistance under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall consider, at a minimum, the following:

“(i) The potential of the center for manufacturing innovation to advance domestic manufacturing and the likelihood of economic impact, including the creation or preservation of jobs, in the predominant focus areas of the center for manufacturing innovation.

“(ii) The commitment of continued financial support, advice, participation, and other contributions from non-Federal sources, to provide leverage and resources to promote a stable and sustainable business model without the need for long-term Federal funding.

“(iii) Whether the financial support provided to the center for manufacturing innovation from non-Federal sources significantly exceeds the requested Federal financial assistance.

“(iv) How the center for manufacturing innovation will increase the non-Federal investment in advanced manufacturing research in the United States.

“(v) How the center for manufacturing innovation will engage with small and medium-sized manufacturing enterprises, to improve the capacity of such enterprises to commercialize new processes and technologies.

“(vi) How the center for manufacturing innovation will carry out educational and workforce activities that meet industrial needs related to the predominant focus areas of the center.

“(vii) How the center for manufacturing innovation will advance economic competitiveness and generate substantial benefits to the Nation that extend beyond the direct return to participants in the Program.

“(viii) Whether the predominant focus of the center for manufacturing innovation is a manufacturing process, novel material, enabling technology, supply chain integration methodology, or other relevant aspect of advanced manufacturing that has not already been commercialized, marketed, distributed, or sold by another entity.

“(ix) How the center for manufacturing innovation will strengthen and leverage the assets of a region.

“(x) How the center for manufacturing will encourage the education and training of veterans and individuals with disabilities.

“(5) LIMITATIONS ON AWARDS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—No award of financial assistance may be made under paragraph (1) to a center of manufacturing innovation after the 7-year period beginning on the date on which the Secretary first awards financial assistance to that center under that paragraph.

“(B) MATCHING FUNDS AND PREFERENCES.—The total Federal financial assistance awarded to a center of manufacturing innovation, including the financial assistance under paragraph (1), in a given year shall not exceed 50 percent of the total funding of the center in that year, except that the Secretary may make an exception in the case of large capital facilities or equipment purchases. The Secretary shall give weighted preference to applicants seeking less than the maximum Federal share of funds allowed under this paragraph.

“(C) FUNDING DECREASE.—The amount of financial assistance provided to a center of manufacturing innovation under paragraph (1) shall decrease after the second year of funding for the center, and shall continue to decrease thereafter in each year in which financial assistance is provided, unless the Secretary determines that—“(i) the center is otherwise meeting its stated goals and metrics under this section;

“(ii) unforeseen circumstances have altered the center's anticipated funding; and “(iii) the center can identify future non-Federal funding sources that would warrant a temporary exemption from the limitations established in this subparagraph.

“(e) FUNDING.—

“(1) GENERAL RULE.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), no funds are authorized to be appropriated by the Revitalize American Manufacturing and Innovation Act of 2014 for carrying out this section.

“(2) AUTHORITY.—

“(A) NIST INDUSTRIAL TECHNICAL SERVICES ACCOUNT.—To the extent provided for in advance by appropriations Acts, the Secretary may use not to exceed $5,000,000 for each of the fiscal years 2015 through 2024 to carry out this section from amounts appropriated to the Institute for Industrial Technical Services.

“(B) ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND RENEWABLE ENERGY ACCOUNT.—To the extent provided for in advance by appropriations Acts, the Secretary of Energy may transfer to the Institute not to exceed $250,000,000 for the period encompassing fiscal years 2015 through 2024 for the Secretary to carry out this section from amounts appropriated for advanced manufacturing research and development within the Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy account for the Department of Energy.

“(f) NATIONAL PROGRAM OFFICE.—

“(1) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary shall establish, within the Institute, the National Office of the Network for Manufacturing Innovation Program (referred to in this section as the ‘National Program Office’), which shall oversee and carry out the Program.

“(2) FUNCTIONS.—The functions of the National Program Office are—

“(A) to oversee the planning, management, and coordination of the Program;

“(B) to enter into memorandums of understanding with Federal departments and agencies whose missions contribute to or are affected by advanced manufacturing, to carry out the purposes described in subsection (a)(2);

“(C) to develop, not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of the Revitalize American Manufacturing and Innovation Act of 2014, and update not less frequently than once every 3 years thereafter, a strategic plan to guide the Program;

“(D) to establish such procedures, processes, and criteria as may be necessary and appropriate to maximize cooperation and coordinate the activities of the Program with programs and activities of other Federal departments and agencies whose missions contribute to or are affected by advanced manufacturing;

“(E) to establish a clearinghouse of public information related to the activities of the Program; and “(F) to act as a convener of the Network.

“(3) RECOMMENDATIONS.—In developing and updating the strategic plan under paragraph (2)(C), the Secretary shall solicit recommendations and advice from a wide range of stakeholders, including industry, small and medium-sized manufacturing enterprises, research universities, community colleges, and other relevant organizations and institutions on an ongoing basis.

“(4) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Upon completion, the Secretary shall transmit the strategic plan required under paragraph (2)(C) to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate and the Committee on Science, Space, and Technology of the House of Representatives.

“(5) HOLLINGS MANUFACTURING EXTENSION PARTNERSHIP.—The Secretary shall ensure that the National Program Office incorporates the Hollings Manufacturing Extension Partnership into Program planning to ensure that the results of the Program reach small and medium-sized entities.

“(6) DETAILEES.—Any Federal Government employee may be detailed to the National Program Office without reimbursement. Such detail shall be without interruption or loss of civil service status or privilege.

“(g) REPORTING AND AUDITING.—

“(1) ANNUAL REPORTS TO THE SECRETARY.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall require each recipient of financial assistance under subsection (d)(1) to annually submit a report to the Secretary that describes the finances and performance of the center for manufacturing innovation for which such assistance was awarded.

“(B) ELEMENTS.—Each report submitted under subparagraph (A) shall include—

“(i) an accounting of expenditures of amounts awarded to the recipient under subsection (d)(1); and

“(ii) consistent with the metrics-based performance measures developed and implemented by the Secretary under this section, a description of the performance of the center for manufacturing innovation with respect to—

“(I) its goals, plans, financial support, and accomplishments; and “(II) how the center for manufacturing innovation has furthered the purposes described in subsection (a)(2).

“(2) ANNUAL REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Not less frequently than once each year until December 31, 2024, the Secretary shall submit a report to Congress that describes the performance of the Program during the most recent 1-year period.

“(B) ELEMENTS.—Each report submitted under subparagraph (A) shall include, for the period covered by the report—

“(i) a summary and assessment of the reports received by the Secretary under paragraph (1);

“(ii) an accounting of the funds expended by the Secretary under the Program, including any temporary exemptions provided from the requirements of subsection (d)(5)(C);

“(iii) an assessment of the participation in, and contributions to, the Network by any centers for manufacturing innovation not receiving financial assistance under subsection (d)(1); and “(iv) an assessment of the Program with respect to meeting the purposes described in subsection (a)(2).

“(3) ASSESSMENTS BY GAO.—

“(A) ASSESSMENTS.—Not less frequently than once every 2 years, the Comptroller General shall submit to Congress an assessment of the operation of the Program during the most recent 2-year period.

“(B) FINAL ASSESSMENT.—Not later than December 31, 2024, the Comptroller General shall submit to Congress a final report regarding the overall success of the Program.

“(C) ELEMENTS.—Each assessment submitted under subparagraph (A) or (B) shall include, for the period covered by the report—

“(i) a review of the management, coordination, and industry utility of the Program;

“(ii) an assessment of the extent to which the Program has furthered the purposes described in subsection (a)(2);

“(iii) such recommendations for legislative and administrative action as the Comptroller General considers appropriate to improve the Program; and “(iv) an assessment as to whether any prior recommendations for improvement made by the Comptroller General have been implemented or adopted.

“(h) ADDITIONAL AUTHORITIES.—

“(1) APPOINTMENT OF PERSONNEL AND CONTRACTS.—The Secretary may appoint such personnel and enter into such contracts, financial assistance agreements, and other agreements as the Secretary considers necessary or appropriate to carry out the Program, including support for research and development activities involving a center for manufacturing innovation.

“(2) TRANSFER OF FUNDS.—Of amounts available under the authority provided by subsection (e), the Secretary may transfer to other Federal agencies such sums as the Secretary considers necessary or appropriate to carry out the Program. No funds so transferred may be used to reimburse or otherwise pay for the costs of financial assistance incurred or commitments of financial assistance made prior to the date of enactment of the Revitalize American Manufacturing and Innovation Act of 2014.

“(3) AUTHORITY OF OTHER AGENCIES.—In the event that the Secretary exercises the authority to transfer funds to another agency under paragraph (2), such agency may accept such funds to award and administer, under the same conditions and constraints applicable to the Secretary, all aspects of financial assistance awards under this section.

“(4) USE OF RESOURCES.—In furtherance of the purposes of the Program, the Secretary may use, with the consent of a covered entity and with or without reimbursement, the land, services, equipment, personnel, and facilities of such covered entity.

“(5) ACCEPTANCE OF RESOURCES.—In addition to amounts appropriated to carry out the Program, the Secretary may accept funds, services, equipment, personnel, and facilities from any covered entity to carry out the Program, subject to the same conditions and constraints otherwise applicable to the Secretary under this section and such funds may only be obligated to the extent provided for in advance by appropriations Acts.

“(6) COVERED ENTITY.—For purposes of this subsection, a covered entity is any Federal department, Federal agency, instrumentality of the United States, State, local government, tribal government, territory, or possession of the United States, or of any political subdivision thereof, or international organization, or any public or private entity or individual.

“(i) PATENTS.—Chapter 18 of title 35, United States Code, shall apply to any funding agreement (as defined in section 201 of that title) awarded to new or existing centers for manufacturing innovation.”

SEC. 704. NATIONAL STRATEGIC PLAN FOR ADVANCED MANUFACTURING.

Section 102 of the America COMPETES Reauthorization Act of 2010 (42 U.S.C. 6622) is amended—

(1) in subsection (a), by adding at the end the following: “In furtherance of the Committee’s work, the Committee shall consult with the National Economic Council.”;

(2) in subsection (b), by striking paragraph (7) and inserting the following:

“(7) develop and update a national strategic plan for advanced manufacturing in accordance with subsection (c).”; and

(3) by striking subsection (c) and inserting the following:

“(c) NATIONAL STRATEGIC PLAN FOR ADVANCED MANUFACTURING.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The President shall submit to Congress, and publish on an Internet website that is accessible to the public, the strategic plan developed under paragraph (2).

“(2) DEVELOPMENT.—The Committee shall develop, and update as required under paragraph (4), in coordination with the National Economic Council, a strategic plan to improve Government coordination and provide long-term guidance for Federal programs and activities in support of United States manufacturing competitiveness, including advanced manufacturing research and development.

“(3) CONTENTS.—The strategic plan described in paragraph (2) shall—

“(A) specify and prioritize near-term and long-term objectives, including research and development objectives, the anticipated time frame for achieving the objectives, and the metrics for use in assessing progress toward the objectives;

“(B) describe the progress made in achieving the objectives from prior strategic plans, including a discussion of why specific objectives were not met;

“(C) specify the role, including the programs and activities, of each relevant Federal agency in meeting the objectives of the strategic plan;

“(D) describe how the Federal agencies and Federally funded research and development centers supporting advanced manufacturing research and development will foster the transfer of research and development results into new manufacturing technologies and United States-based manufacturing of new products and processes for the benefit of society to ensure national, energy, and economic security;

“(E) describe how such Federal agencies and centers will strengthen all levels of manufacturing education and training programs to ensure an adequate, well-trained workforce;

“(F) describe how such Federal agencies and centers will assist small and medium-sized manufacturers in developing and implementing new products and processes;

“(G) analyze factors that impact innovation and competitiveness for United States advanced manufacturing, including—

“(i) technology transfer and commercialization activities;

“(ii) the adequacy of the national security industrial base;

“(iii) the capabilities of the domestic manufacturing workforce;

“(iv) export opportunities and trade policies;

“(v) financing, investment, and taxation policies and practices;

“(vi) emerging technologies and markets;

“(vii) advanced manufacturing research and development undertaken by competing nations; and

“(viii) the capabilities of the manufacturing workforce of competing nations; and

“(H) elicit and consider the recommendations of a wide range of stakeholders, including representatives from diverse manufacturing companies, academia, and other relevant organizations and institutions.

“(4) UPDATES.—Not later than May 1, 2018, and not less frequently than once every 4 years thereafter, the President shall submit to Congress, and publish on an Internet website that is accessible to the public, an update of the strategic plan submitted under paragraph (1). Such updates shall be developed in accordance with the procedures set forth under this subsection.

“(5) REQUIREMENT TO CONSIDER STRATEGY IN THE BUDGET.—In preparing the budget for a fiscal year under section 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, the President shall include information regarding the consistency of the budget with the goals and recommendations included in the strategic plan developed under this subsection applying to that fiscal year.

“(6) AMP STEERING COMMITTEE INPUT.—The Advanced Manufacturing Partnership Steering Committee of the President’s Council of Advisors on Science and Technology shall provide input, perspective, and recommendations to assist in the development and updates of the strategic plan under this subsection.”

SEC. 705. REGIONAL INNOVATION PROGRAM.

Section 27 of the Stevenson-Wyder Technology Innovation Act of 1980 (15 U.S.C. 3722) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 27. REGIONAL INNOVATION PROGRAM.

“(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary shall establish a regional innovation program to encourage and support the development of regional innovation strategies, including regional innovation clusters.

“(b) CLUSTER GRANTS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—As part of the program established under subsection (a), the Secretary may award grants on a competitive basis to eligible recipients for activities relating to the formation and development of regional innovation clusters.

“(2) PERMISSIBLE ACTIVITIES.—Grants awarded under this subsection may be used for activities determined appropriate by the Secretary, including the following:

“(A) Feasibility studies.

“(B) Planning activities.

“(C) Technical assistance.

“(D) Developing or strengthening communication and collaboration between and among participants of a regional innovation cluster.

“(E) Attracting additional participants to a regional innovation cluster.

“(F) Facilitating market development of products and services developed by a regional innovation cluster, including through demonstration, deployment, technology transfer, and commercialization activities.

“(G) Developing relationships between a regional innovation cluster and entities or clusters in other regions.

“(H) Interacting with the public and State and local governments to meet the goals of the cluster.

“(3) ELIGIBLE RECIPIENT DEFINED.—In this subsection, the term ‘eligible recipient’ means—

“(A) a State;

“(B) an Indian tribe;

“(C) a city or other political subdivision of a State;

“(D) an entity that—

“(i) is a nonprofit organization, an institution of higher education, a public-private partnership, a science or research park, a Federal laboratory, or an economic development organization or similar entity; and

“(ii) has an application that is supported by a State or a political subdivision of a State; or “(E) a consortium of any of the entities described in subparagraphs (A) through (D).

“(4) APPLICATION.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—An eligible recipient shall submit an application to the Secretary at such time, in such manner, and containing such information and assurances as the Secretary may require.

“(B) COMPONENTS.—The application shall include, at a minimum, a description of the regional innovation cluster supported by the proposed activity, including a description of—

“(i) whether the regional innovation cluster is supported by the private sector, State and local governments, and other relevant stakeholders;

“(ii) how the existing participants in the regional innovation cluster will encourage and solicit participation by all types of entities that might benefit from participation, including newly formed entities and those rival existing participants;

“(iii) the extent to which the regional innovation cluster is likely to stimulate innovation and have a positive impact on regional economic growth and development;

“(iv) whether the participants in the regional innovation cluster have access to, or contribute to, a well-trained workforce;

“(v) whether the participants in the regional innovation cluster are capable of attracting additional funds from non-Federal sources; and “(vi) the likelihood that the participants in the regional innovation cluster will be able to sustain activities once grant funds under this subsection have been expended.

“(C) SPECIAL CONSIDERATION.—The Secretary shall give special consideration to applications from regions that contain communities negatively impacted by trade.

“(5) SPECIAL CONSIDERATION.—The Secretary shall give special consideration to an eligible recipient who agrees to collaborate with local workforce investment area boards.

“(6) COST SHARE.—The Secretary may not provide more than 50 percent of the total cost of any activity funded under this subsection.

“(7) OUTREACH TO RURAL COMMUNITIES.—The Secretary shall conduct outreach to public and private sector entities in rural communities to encourage those entities to participate in regional innovation cluster activities under this subsection.

“(8) FUNDING.—The Secretary may accept funds from other Federal agencies to support grants and activities under this subsection.

“(C) REGIONAL INNOVATION RESEARCH AND INFORMATION PROGRAM.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—As part of the program established under subsection (a), the Secretary shall establish a regional innovation research and information program—

“(A) to gather, analyze, and disseminate information on best practices for regional innovation strategies (including regional innovation clusters), including information relating to how innovation, productivity, and economic development can be maximized through such strategies;

“(B) to provide technical assistance, including through the development of technical assistance guides, for the development and implementation of regional innovation strategies (including regional innovation clusters);

“(C) to support the development of relevant metrics and measurement standards to evaluate regional innovation strategies (including regional innovation clusters), including the extent to which such strategies stimulate innovation, productivity, and economic development; and

“(D) to collect and make available data on regional innovation cluster activity in the United States, including data on—

“(i) the size, specialization, and competitiveness of regional innovation clusters;

“(ii) the regional domestic product contribution, total jobs and earnings by key occupations, establishment size, nature of specialization, patents, Federal research and development spending, and other relevant information for regional innovation clusters; and

“(iii) supply chain product and service flows within and between regional innovation clusters.

“(2) RESEARCH GRANTS.—The Secretary may award research grants on a competitive basis to support and further the goals of the program established under this subsection.

“(3) DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION.—Data and analysis compiled by the Secretary under the program established in this subsection shall be made available to other Federal agencies, State and local governments, and nonprofit and for-profit entities.

“(4) REGIONAL INNOVATION GRANT PROGRAM.—The Secretary shall incorporate data and analysis relating to any grant under subsection (b) into the program established under this subsection.

“(d) INTERAGENCY COORDINATION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—To the maximum extent practicable, the Secretary shall ensure that the activities carried out under this section are coordinated with, and do not duplicate the efforts of, other programs at the Department of Commerce or other Federal agencies.

“(2) COLLABORATION.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall explore and pursue collaboration with other

Federal agencies, including through multi-agency funding opportunities, on regional innovation strategies.

“(B) SMALL BUSINESSES.—The Secretary shall ensure that such collaboration with Federal agencies prioritizes the needs and challenges of small businesses.

“(e) EVALUATION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 3 years after the date of enactment of the Revitalize American Manufacturing and Innovation Act of 2014, the Secretary shall enter into a contract with an independent entity, such as the National Academy of Sciences, to conduct an evaluation of the program established under subsection (a).

“(2) REQUIREMENTS.—The evaluation shall include—

“(A) whether the program is achieving its goals;

“(B) any recommendations for how the program may be improved; and

“(C) a recommendation as to whether the program should be continued or terminated.

“(f) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

“(1) REGIONAL INNOVATION CLUSTER.—The term ‘regional innovation cluster’ means a geographically bounded network of similar, synergistic, or complementary entities that—

“(A) are engaged in or with a particular industry sector and its related sectors;

“(B) have active channels for business transactions and communication;

“(C) share specialized infrastructure, labor markets, and services; and “(D) leverage the region’s unique competitive strengths to stimulate innovation and create jobs.

“(2) STATE.—The term ‘State’ means one of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or any other territory or possession of the United States.

“(g) FUNDING.—

“(1) GENERAL RULE.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), no funds are authorized to be appropriated by the Revitalize American Manufacturing and Innovation Act of 2014 for carrying out this section.

“(2) AUTHORITY.—To the extent provided for in advance by appropriations Acts, the Secretary may use not to exceed $10,000,000 for each of the fiscal years 2015 through 2019 to carry out this section from amounts appropriated for economic development assistance programs.”.

This division may be cited as the “Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2015”.

DIVISION C—DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

TITLE I

MILITARY PERSONNEL

MILITARY PERSONNEL, ARMY

For pay, allowances, individual clothing, subsistence, interest on deposits, gratuities, permanent change of station travel (including all expenses thereof for organizational movements), and expenses of temporary duty travel between permanent duty stations, for members of the Army on active duty (except members of reserve components provided for elsewhere), cadets, and aviation cadets; for members of the Reserve Officers’ Training Corps; and for payments pursuant to section 156 of Public Law 97-377, as amended (42 U.S.C. 402 note), and to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $41,116,129,000.

MILITARY PERSONNEL, NAVY

For pay, allowances, individual clothing, subsistence, interest on deposits, gratuities, permanent change of station travel (including all expenses thereof for organizational movements), and expenses of temporary duty travel between permanent duty stations, for members of the Navy on active duty (except members of the Reserve provided for elsewhere), midshipmen, and aviation cadets; for members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps; and for payments pursuant to section 156 of Public Law 97-377, as amended (42 U.S.C. 402 note), and to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $27,453,200,000.

MILITARY PERSONNEL, MARINE CORPS

For pay, allowances, individual clothing, subsistence, interest on deposits, gratuities, permanent change of station travel (including all expenses thereof for organizational movements), and expenses of temporary duty travel between permanent duty stations, for members of the Marine Corps on active duty (except members of the Reserve provided for elsewhere); and for payments pursuant to section 156 of Public Law 97-377, as amended (42 U.S.C. 402 note), and to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $12,828,931,000.

MILITARY PERSONNEL, AIR FORCE

For pay, allowances, individual clothing, subsistence, interest on deposits, gratuities, permanent change of station travel (including all expenses thereof for organizational movements), and expenses of temporary duty travel between permanent duty stations, for members of the Air Force on active duty (except members of reserve components provided for elsewhere), cadets, and aviation cadets; for members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps; and for payments pursuant to section 156 of Public Law 97-377, as amended (42 U.S.C. 402 note), and to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $27,376,462,000.

RESERVE PERSONNEL, ARMY

For pay, allowances, clothing, subsistence, gratuities, travel, and related expenses for personnel of the Army Reserve on active duty under sections 10211, 10302, and 3038 of title 10, United States Code, or while serving on active duty under section 12301(d) of title 10, United States Code, in connection with performing duty specified in section 12310(a) of title 10, United States Code, or while undergoing reserve training, or while performing drills or equivalent duty or other duty, and expenses authorized by section 16131 of title 10, United States Code; and for payments to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $4,317,859,000.

RESERVE PERSONNEL, NAVY

For pay, allowances, clothing, subsistence, gratuities, travel, and related expenses for personnel of the Navy Reserve on active duty under section 10211 of title 10, United States Code, or while serving on active duty under section 12301(d) of title 10, United States Code, in connection with performing duty specified in section 12310(a) of title 10, United States Code, or while undergoing reserve training, or while performing drills or equivalent duty, and expenses authorized by section 16131 of title 10, United States Code; and for payments to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $1,835,924,000.

RESERVE PERSONNEL, MARINE CORPS

For pay, allowances, clothing, subsistence, gratuities, travel, and related expenses for personnel of the Marine Corps Reserve on active duty under section 10211 of title 10,

United States Code, or while serving on active duty under section 12301(d) of title 10, United States Code, in connection with performing duty specified in section 12310(a) of title 10, United States Code, or while undergoing reserve training, or while performing drills or equivalent duty, and for members of the Marine Corps platoon leaders class, and expenses authorized by section 16131 of title 10, United States Code; and for payments to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $660,424,000.

RESERVE PERSONNEL, AIR FORCE

For pay, allowances, clothing, subsistence, gratuities, travel, and related expenses for personnel of the Air Force Reserve on active duty under sections 10211, 10305, and 8038 of title 10, United States Code, or while serving on active duty under section 12301(d) of title 10, United States Code, in connection with performing duty specified in section 12310(a) of title 10, United States Code, or while undergoing reserve training, or while performing drills or equivalent duty or other duty, and expenses authorized by section 16131 of title 10, United States Code; and for payments to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $1,653,148,000.

NATIONAL GUARD PERSONNEL, ARMY

For pay, allowances, clothing, subsistence, gratuities, travel, and related expenses for personnel of the Army National Guard while on duty under sections 10211, 10302, or 12402 of title 10 or section 708 of title 32, United States Code, or while serving on duty under section 12301(d) of title 10 or section 502(f) of title 32, United States Code, in connection with performing duty specified in section 12310(a) of title 10, United States Code, or while undergoing training, or while performing drills or equivalent duty or other duty, and expenses authorized by section 16131 of title 10, United States Code; and for payments to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $7,643,832,000.

NATIONAL GUARD PERSONNEL, AIR FORCE

For pay, allowances, clothing, subsistence, gratuities, travel, and related expenses for personnel of the Air National Guard on duty under sections 10211, 10305, or 12402 of title 10 or section 708 of title 32, United States Code, or while serving on duty under section 12301(d) of title 10 or section 502(f) of title 32, United States Code, in connection with performing duty specified in section 12310(a) of title 10, United States Code, or while undergoing training, or while performing drills or equivalent duty or other duty, and expenses authorized by section 16131 of title 10, United States Code; and for payments to the Department of Defense Military Retirement Fund, $3,118,709,000.

TITLE II

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, ARMY

For expenses, not otherwise provided for, necessary for the operation and maintenance of the Army, as authorized by law, $31,961,920,000: Provided, That not to exceed $12,478,000 can be used for emergencies and extraordinary expenses, to be expended on the approval or authority of the Secretary of the Army, and payments may be made on his certificate of necessity for confidential military purposes.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, NAVY

For expenses, not otherwise provided for, necessary for the operation and maintenance of the Navy and the Marine Corps, as authorized by law, $37,590,854,000: Provided, That not to exceed $15,055,000 can be used for emergencies and extraordinary expenses, to be expended on the approval or authority of the Secretary of the Navy, and payments may be made on his certificate of necessity for confidential military purposes.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, MARINE CORPS

For drug interdiction and counter-drug activities of the Department of Defense, for transfer to appropriations available to the Department of Defense for military personnel of the reserve components serving under the provisions of title 10 and title 32, United States Code; for operation and maintenance; for procurement; and for research, development, test and evaluation, $950,687,000, of which $669,631,000 shall be for counter-narcotics support; $105,591,000 shall be for the drug demand reduction program; and $175,465,000 shall be for the National Guard counter-drug program: Provided, That the funds appropriated under this heading shall be available for obligation for the same time period and for the same purpose as the appropriation to which transferred: Provided further, That upon a determination that all or part of the funds transferred from this appropriation are not necessary for the purposes provided herein, such amounts may be transferred back to this appropriation: Provided further, That the transfer authority provided under this heading is in addition to any other transfer authority contained elsewhere in this Act.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

For expenses and activities of the Office of the Inspector General in carrying out the provisions of the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, $311,830,000, of which $309,430,000 shall be for operation and maintenance, of which not to exceed $700,000 is available for emergencies and extraordinary expenses to be expended on the approval or authority of the Inspector General, and payments may be made on the Inspector General's certificate of necessity for confidential military purposes; of which $1,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2017, shall be for procurement; and of which $1,400,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, shall be for research, development, test and evaluation.

SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL SPORTING COMPETITIONS

For logistical and security support for international sporting competitions (including pay and non-travel related allowances only for members of the Reserve Components of the Armed Forces of the United States called or ordered to active duty in connection with providing such support), $10,000,000, to remain available until expended.

TITLE VII RELATED AGENCIES

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY RETIREMENT AND DISABILITY SYSTEM FUND

For payment to the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability System Fund, to maintain the proper funding level for continuing the operation of the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability System, $514,000,000.

INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY MANAGEMENT ACCOUNT

For necessary expenses of the Intelligence Community Management Account, $507,600,000.

TITLE VIII GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 8001. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes not authorized by the Congress.

SEC. 8002. During the current fiscal year, provisions of law prohibiting the payment of compensation to, or employment of, any person not a citizen of the United States shall not apply to personnel of the Department of Defense: Provided, That salary increases granted to direct and indirect hire foreign national employees of the Department of Defense funded by this Act shall not be at a rate in excess of the percentage increase authorized by law for civilian employees of the Department of Defense whose pay is computed under the provisions of section 5332 of title 5, United States Code, or at a rate in excess of the percentage increase provided by the appropriate host nation to its own employees, whichever is higher: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to Department of Defense foreign service national employees serving at United States diplomatic missions whose pay is set by the Department of State under the Foreign Service Act of 1980: Provided further, That the limitations of this provision shall not apply to foreign national employees of the Department of Defense in the Republic of Turkey.

SEC. 8003. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year, unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 8004. No more than 20 percent of the appropriations in this Act which are limited for obligation during the current fiscal year shall be obligated during the last 2 months of the fiscal year: Provided, That this section shall not apply to obligations for support of active duty training of reserve components or summer camp training of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

(TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8005. Upon determination by the Secretary of Defense that such action is necessary in the national interest, he may, with the approval of the Office of Management and Budget, transfer not to exceed $4,500,000,000 of working capital funds of the Department of Defense or funds made available in this Act to the Department of Defense for military functions (except military construction) between such appropriations or funds or any subdivision thereof, to be merged with and to be available for the same purposes, and for the same time period, as the appropriation or fund to which transferred: Provided, That such authority to transfer may not be used unless for higher priority items, based on unforeseen military requirements, than those for which originally appropriated and in no case where the item for which funds are requested has been denied by the Congress: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense shall notify the Congress promptly of all transfers made pursuant to this authority or any other authority in this Act: Provided further, That no part of the funds in this Act shall be available to prepare or present a request to the Committees on Appropriations for reprogramming of funds, unless for higher priority items, based on unforeseen military requirements, than those for which originally appropriated and in no case where the item for which reprogramming is requested has been denied by the Congress: Provided further, That a request for multiple reprogrammings of funds using authority provided in this section shall be made prior to June 30, 2015: Provided further, That transfers among military personnel appropriations shall not be taken into account for purposes of the limitation on the amount of funds that may be transferred under this section.

SEC. 8006. (a) With regard to the list of specific programs, projects, and activities (and the dollar amounts and adjustments to budget activities corresponding to such programs, projects, and activities) contained in the tables titled "Explanation of Project Level Adjustments" in the explanatory statement regarding this Act, the obligation and expenditure of amounts appropriated or otherwise made available in this Act for those programs, projects, and activities for which the amounts appropriated exceed the amounts requested are hereby required by law to be carried out in the manner provided by such tables to the same extent as if the tables were included in the text of this Act.

(b) Amounts specified in the referenced tables described in subsection (a) shall not be treated as subdivisions of appropriations for purposes of section 8005 of this Act: Provided, That section 8005 shall apply when transfers of the amounts described in subsection (a) occur between appropriation accounts.

SEC. 8007. (a) Not later than 60 days after enactment of this Act, the Department of Defense shall submit a report to the congressional defense committees to establish the baseline for application of reprogramming and transfer authorities for fiscal year 2015: Provided, That the report shall include—

(1) a table for each appropriation with a separate column to display the President's budget request, adjustments made by Congress, adjustments due to enacted rescissions, if appropriate, and the fiscal year enacted level;

(2) a delineation in the table for each appropriation both by budget activity and program, project, and activity as detailed in the Budget Appendix; and

(3) an identification of items of special congressional interest.

(b) Notwithstanding section 8005 of this Act, none of the funds provided in this Act shall be available for reprogramming or transfer until the report identified in subsection (a) is submitted to the congressional defense committees, unless the Secretary of Defense certifies in writing to the congressional defense committees that such reprogramming or transfer is necessary as an emergency requirement.

(TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8008. During the current fiscal year, cash balances in working capital funds of the Department of Defense established pursuant to section 2208 of title 10, United States Code, may be maintained in only such amounts as are necessary at any time for cash disbursements to be made from such funds: Provided, That transfers may be made between such funds: Provided further, That transfers may be made between working capital funds and the "Foreign Currency Fluctuations, Defense" appropriation and the "Operation and Maintenance" appropriation accounts in such amounts as may be determined by the Secretary of Defense, with the approval of the Office of Management and Budget, except that such transfers may not be made unless the Secretary of Defense has notified the Congress of the proposed transfer. Except in amounts equal to the amounts appropriated to working capital funds in this Act, no obligations may be made against a working capital fund to procure or increase the value of war reserve material inventory, unless the Secretary of Defense has notified the Congress prior to any such obligation.

SEC. 8009. Funds appropriated by this Act may not be used to initiate a special access program without prior notification 30 calendar days in advance to the congressional defense committees.

SEC. 8010. None of the funds provided in this Act shall be available to initiate: (1) a multiyear contract that employs economic order quantity procurement in excess of $20,000,000 in any one year of the contract or that includes an unfunded contingent liability in excess of $20,000,000; or (2) a contract for advance procurement leading to a multiyear contract that employs economic order quantity procurement in excess of $20,000,000 in any one year, unless the congressional defense committees have been notified at least 30 days in advance of the proposed contract award: Provided, That no part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be available to initiate a multiyear contract for which the economic order quantity advance procurement is not funded at least to the limits of the Government's liability: Provided further, That no part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be available to initiate multiyear procurement contracts for any systems or component thereof if the value of the multiyear contract would exceed $500,000,000 unless specifically provided in this Act: Provided further, That no multiyear procurement contract can be terminated without 30-day prior notification to the congressional defense committees: Provided further, That the execution of multiyear authority shall require the use of a present value analysis to determine lowest cost compared to an annual procurement: Provided further, That none of the funds provided in this Act may be used for a multiyear contract executed after the date of the enactment of this Act unless in the case of any such contract—

(1) the Secretary of Defense has submitted to Congress a budget request for full funding of units to be procured through the contract and, in the case of a contract for procurement of aircraft, that includes, for any aircraft unit to be procured through the contract for which procurement funds are requested in that budget request for production beyond advance procurement activities in the fiscal year covered by the budget, full funding of procurement of such unit in that fiscal year;

(2) cancellation provisions in the contract do not include consideration of recurring manufacturing costs of the contractor associated with the production of unfunded units to be delivered under the contract;

(3) the contract provides that payments to the contractor under the contract shall not be made in advance of incurred costs on funded units; and

(4) the contract does not provide for a price adjustment based on a failure to award a follow-on contract.

SEC. 8011. Within the funds appropriated for the operation and maintenance of the Armed Forces, funds are hereby appropriated pursuant to section 401 of title 10, United States Code, for humanitarian and civic assistance costs under chapter 20 of title 10, United States Code. Such funds may also be obligated for humanitarian and civic assistance costs incidental to authorized operations and pursuant to authority granted in section 401 of chapter 20 of title 10, United States Code, and these obligations shall be reported as required by section 401(d) of title 10, United States Code: Provided, That funds available for operation and maintenance shall be available for providing humanitarian and similar assistance by using Civic Action Teams in the Trust Territories of the Pacific Islands and freely associated states of Micronesia, pursuant to the Compact of Free Association as authorized by Public Law 99-239: Provided further, That upon a determination by the Secretary of the Army that such action is beneficial for graduate medical education programs conducted at Army medical facilities located in Hawaii, the Secretary of the Army may authorize the provision of medical services at such facilities and transportation to such facilities, on a nonreimbursable basis, for civilian patients from American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, Palau, and Guam.

SEC. 8012. (a) During fiscal year 2015, the civilian personnel of the Department of Defense may not be managed on the basis of any end-strength, and the management of such personnel during that fiscal year shall not be subject to any constraint or limitation (known as an end-strength) on the number of such personnel who may be employed on the last day of such fiscal year.

(b) The fiscal year 2016 budget request for the Department of Defense as well as all justification material and other documentation supporting the fiscal year 2016 Department of Defense budget request shall be prepared and submitted to the Congress as if subsections (a) and (b) of this provision were effective with regard to fiscal year 2016.

(c) As required by section 1107 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2014 (Public Law 113-66; 10 U.S.C. 2358 note) civilian personnel at the Department of Army Science and Technology Reinvention Laboratories may not be managed on the basis of the Table of Distribution and Allowances, and the management of the workforce strength shall be done in a manner consistent with the budget available with respect to such Laboratories.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to military (civilian) technicians.

SEC. 8013. None of the funds made available by this Act shall be used in any way, directly or indirectly, to influence congressional action on any legislation or appropriation matters pending before the Congress.

SEC. 8014. None of the funds appropriated by this Act shall be available for the basic pay and allowances of any member of the Army participating as a full-time student and receiving benefits paid by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs from the Department of Defense Education Benefits Fund when time spent as a full-time student is credited toward completion of a service commitment: Provided, That this section shall not apply to those members who have reenlisted with this option prior to October 1, 1987: Provided further, That this section applies only to active components of the Army.

(TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8015. Funds appropriated in title III of this Act for the Department of Defense Pilot Mentor-Protégé Program may be transferred to any other appropriation contained in this Act solely for the purpose of implementing a Mentor-Protégé Program developmental assistance agreement pursuant to section 831 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1991 (Public Law 101-510; 10 U.S.C. 2302 note), as amended, under the authority of this provision or any other transfer authority contained in this Act.

SEC. 8016. None of the funds in this Act may be available for the purchase by the Department of Defense (and its departments and agencies) of welded shipboard anchor and mooring chain 4 inches in diameter and under unless the anchor and mooring chain are manufactured in the United States from components which are substantially manufactured in the United States: Provided, That for the purpose of this section, the term “manufactured” shall include cutting, heat treating, quality control, testing of chain and welding (including the forging and shot blasting process): Provided further, That for the purpose of this section substantially all of the components of anchor and mooring chain shall be considered to be produced or manufactured in the United States if the aggregate cost of the components produced or manufactured outside the United States: Provided further, That when adequate domestic supplies are not available to meet Department of Defense requirements on a timely basis, the Secretary of the service responsible for the procurement may waive this restriction on a case-by-case basis by certifying in writing to the Committees on Appropriations that such an acquisition must be made in order to acquire capability for national security purposes.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8017. In addition to amounts provided elsewhere in this Act, there is appropriated $175,000,000, for an additional amount for “Operation and Maintenance, Defense-Wide”, to remain available until expended: Provided, That such funds shall only be available to the Secretary of Defense, acting through the Office of Economic Adjustment of the Department of Defense, or for transfer to the Secretary of Education, notwithstanding any other provision of law, to make grants, conclude cooperative agreements, or supplement other Federal funds to construct, renovate, repair, or expand elementary and secondary public schools on military installations in order to address capacity or facility condition deficiencies at such schools: Provided further, That in making such funds available, the Office of Economic Adjustment or the Secretary of Education shall give priority consideration to those military installations with schools having the most serious capacity or facility condition deficiencies as determined by the Secretary of Defense: Provided further, That a matching share, as outlined by the Department of Defense in the guidelines published in the September 9, 2011, Federal Register (76 Fed. Reg. 55883), is required to be provided by the local education authority or the State in which the school is located: Provided further, That these provisions apply to funds provided under this section, and to funds previously provided by Congress to construct, renovate, repair, or expand elementary and secondary public schools on military installations in order to address capacity or facility condition deficiencies at such schools to the extent such funds remain unobligated on the date of enactment of this section.

SEC. 8018. None of the funds available to the Department of Defense may be used to demilitarize or dispose of M-1 Carbines, M-1 Garand rifles, M-14 rifles, .22 caliber rifles, .30 caliber rifles, or M-1911 pistols, or to demilitarize or destroy small arms ammunition or ammunition components that are not otherwise prohibited from commercial sale under Federal law, unless the small arms ammunition or ammunition components are certified by the Secretary of the Army or designee as unserviceable, unsuitable, or unsafe for further use.

SEC. 8019. No more than $500,000 of the funds appropriated or made available in this Act shall be used during a single fiscal year for any single relocation of an organization, unit, activity or function of the Department of Defense into or within the National Capital Region: Provided, That the Secretary of Defense may waive this restriction on a case-by-case basis by certifying in writing to the congressional defense committees that such a relocation is required in the best interest of the Government.

SEC. 8020. Of the funds made available in this Act, $15,000,000 shall be available for incentive payments authorized by section 504 of the Indian Financing Act of 1974 (25 U.S.C. 1544): Provided, That a prime contractor or a subcontractor at any tier that makes a subcontract award to any subcontractor or supplier as defined in section 1544 of title 25, United States Code, or a small business owned and controlled by an individual or individuals defined under section 4221(9) of title 25, United States Code, shall be considered a contractor for the purposes of being allowed additional compensation under section 504 of the Indian Financing Act of 1974 (25 U.S.C. 1544) whenever the prime contract or subcontract amount is over $500,000 and involves the expenditure of funds appropriated by an Act making appropriations for the Department of Defense with respect to any fiscal year: Provided further, That notwithstanding section 1906 of title 41, United States Code, this section shall be applicable to any Department of Defense acquisition of supplies or services, including any contract and any subcontract at any tier for acquisition of commercial items produced or manufactured, in whole or in part, by any subcontractor or supplier defined in section 1544 of title 25, United States Code, or a small business owned and controlled by an individual or individuals defined under section 4221(9) of title 25, United States Code.

SEC. 8021. Funds appropriated by this Act for the Defense Media Activity shall not be used for any national or international political or psychological activities.

SEC. 8022. During the current fiscal year, the Department of Defense is authorized to incur obligations of not to exceed $350,000,000 for purposes specified in section 2350j(c) of title 10, United States Code, in anticipation of receipt of contributions, only from the Government of Kuwait, under that section: Provided, That upon receipt, such contributions from the Government of Kuwait shall be credited to the appropriations or fund which incurred such obligations.

SEC. 8023. (a) Of the funds made available in this Act, not less than $39,500,000 shall be available for the Civil Air Patrol Corporation, of which—

(1) $27,400,000 shall be available from “Operation and Maintenance, Air Force” to support Civil Air Patrol Corporation operation and maintenance, readiness, counter-drug activities, and drug demand reduction activities involving youth programs;

(2) $10,400,000 shall be available from “Air-craft Procurement, Air Force”; and

(3) $1,700,000 shall be available from “Other Procurement, Air Force” for vehicle procurement.

(b) The Secretary of the Air Force should waive reimbursement for any funds used by the Civil Air Patrol for counter-drug activities in support of Federal, State, and local government agencies.

SEC. 8024. (a) None of the funds appropriated in this Act are available to establish a new Department of Defense (department) federally funded research and development center (FFRDC), either as a new entity, or as a separate entity administrated by an organization managing another FFRDC, or as a nonprofit membership corporation consisting of a consortium of other FFRDCs and other nonprofit entities.

(b) No member of a Board of Directors, Trustees, Overseers, Advisory Group, Special Issues Panel, Visiting Committee, or any similar entity of a defense FFRDC, and no paid consultant to any defense FFRDC, except when acting in a technical advisory capacity, may be compensated for his or her services as a member of such entity, or as a paid consultant by more than one FFRDC in a fiscal year: Provided, That a member of any such entity referred to previously in this subsection shall be allowed travel expenses and per diem as authorized under the Federal Joint Travel Regulations, when engaged in the performance of membership duties.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, none of the funds available to the department from any source during fiscal year 2015 may be used by a defense FFRDC, through a fee or other payment mechanism, for construction of new buildings, for payment of cost sharing for projects funded by Government grants, for absorption of contract overruns, or for certain charitable contributions, not to include employee participation in community service and/or development.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, of the funds available to the department during fiscal year 2015, not more than 5,750 staff years of technical effort (staff years) may be funded for defense FFRDCs: Provided, That of the specific amount referred to previously in this subsection, not more than 1,125 staff years may be funded for the defense studies and analysis FFRDCs: Provided further, That this subsection shall not apply to staff years funded in the National Intelligence Program (NIP) and the Military Intelligence Program (MIP).

(e) The Secretary of Defense shall, with the submission of the department’s fiscal year 2016 budget request, submit a report presenting the specific amounts of staff years of technical effort to be allocated for each defense FFRDC during that fiscal year and the associated budget estimates.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the total amount appropriated in this Act for FFRDCs is hereby reduced by $40,000,000.

SEC. 8025. None of the funds appropriated or made available in this Act shall be used to procure carbon, alloy, or armor steel plate for use in any Government-owned facility or property under the control of the Department of Defense which were not melted and rolled in the United States or Canada: Provided, That these procurement restrictions shall apply to any and all Federal Supply Class 9515, American Society of Testing and Materials (ASTM) or American Iron and Steel Institute (AISI) specifications of carbon, alloy or armor steel plate: Provided further, That the Secretary of the military department responsible for the procurement may waive this restriction on a case-by-case basis by certifying in writing to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate that adequate domestic supplies are not available to meet Department of Defense requirements on a timely basis and that such an acquisition must be made in order to acquire capability for national security purposes: Provided further, That these restrictions shall not apply to contracts which are in being as of the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 8026. For the purposes of this Act, the term “congressional defense committees” means the Armed Services Committee of the House of Representatives, the Armed Services Committee of the Senate, the Subcommittee on Defense of the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate, and the Subcommittee on Defense of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives.

SEC. 8027. During the current fiscal year, the Department of Defense may acquire the modification, depot maintenance and repair of aircraft, vehicles and vessels as well as the production of components and other Defense-related articles, through competition between Department of Defense depot maintenance activities and private firms: Provided, That the Senior Acquisition Executive of the military department or Defense Agency concerned, with power of delegation, shall certify that successful bids include comparable estimates of all direct and indirect costs for both public and private bids: Provided further, That Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76 shall not apply to competitions conducted under this section.

SEC. 8028. (a)(1) If the Secretary of Defense, after consultation with the United States Trade Representative, determines that a foreign country which is party to an agreement described in paragraph (2) has violated the terms of the agreement by discriminating against certain types of products produced in the United States that are covered by the agreement, the Secretary of Defense shall rescind the Secretary's blanket waiver of the Buy American Act with respect to such types of products produced in that foreign country.

(2) An agreement referred to in paragraph (1) is any reciprocal defense procurement memorandum of understanding, between the United States and a foreign country pursuant to which the Secretary of Defense has prospectively waived the Buy American Act for certain products in that country.

(b) The Secretary of Defense shall submit to the Congress a report on the amount of Department of Defense purchases from foreign entities in fiscal year 2015. Such report shall separately indicate the dollar value of items for which the Buy American Act was waived pursuant to any agreement described in subsection (a)(2), the Trade Agreement Act of 1979 (19 U.S.C. 2501 et seq.), or any international agreement to which the United States is a party.

(c) For purposes of this section, the term "Buy American Act" means chapter 83 of title 41, United States Code.

SEC. 8029. During the current fiscal year, amounts contained in the Department of Defense Overseas Military Facility Investment Recovery Account established by section 2921(c)(1) of the National Defense Authorization Act of 1991 (Public Law 101-510; 10 U.S.C. 2687 note) shall be available until expended for the payments specified by section 2921(c)(2) of that Act.

SEC. 8030. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Air Force may convey at no cost to the Air Force, without consideration, to Indian tribes located in the States of Nevada, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Oregon, Minnesota, and Washington relocatable military housing units located at Grand Forks Air Force Base, Malmstrom Air Force Base, Mountain Home Air Force Base, Ellsworth Air Force Base, and Minot Air Force Base that are excess to the needs of the Air Force.

(b) The Secretary of the Air Force shall convey, at no cost to the Air Force, military housing units under subsection (a) in accordance with the request for such units that are submitted to the Secretary by the Operation Walking Shield Program on behalf of Indian tribes located in the States of Nevada, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Oregon, Minnesota, and Washington. Any such conveyance shall be subject to the condition that the housing units shall be removed within a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Secretary.

(c) The Operation Walking Shield Program shall resolve any conflicts among requests of Indian tribes for housing units under subsection (a) before submitting requests to the Secretary of the Air Force under subsection (b).

(d) In this section, the term "Indian tribe" means any recognized Indian tribe included on the current list published by the Secretary of the Interior under section 104 of the Federally Recognized Indian Tribe Act of 1994 (Public Law 103-454; 108 Stat. 4792; 25 U.S.C. 479a-1).

SEC. 8031. During the current fiscal year, appropriations which are available to the Department of Defense for operation and maintenance may be used to purchase items having an investment item unit cost of not more than $250,000.

SEC. 8032. (a) During the current fiscal year, none of the appropriations or funds available to the Department of Defense Working Capital Funds shall be used for the purchase of an investment item for the purpose of acquiring a new inventory item for sale or anticipated sale during the current fiscal year or a subsequent fiscal year to customers of the Department of Defense Working Capital Funds if such an item would not have been chargeable to the Department of Defense Business Operations Fund during fiscal year 1994 and if the purchase of such an investment item would be chargeable during the current fiscal year to appropriations made to the Department of Defense for procurement.

(b) The fiscal year 2016 budget request for the Department of Defense as well as all justification material and other documentation supporting the fiscal year 2016 Department of Defense budget shall be prepared and submitted to the Congress on the basis that any equipment which was classified as an end item and funded in a procurement appropriation contained in this Act shall be budgeted for in a proposed fiscal year 2016 procurement appropriation and not in the supply management business area or any other area or category of the Department of Defense Working Capital Funds.

SEC. 8033. None of the funds appropriated by this Act for programs of the Central Intelligence Agency shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year, except for funds appropriated for the Reserve for Contingencies, which shall remain available until September 30, 2016: Provided, That funds appropriated, transferred, or otherwise credited to the Central Intelligence Agency Central Services Working Capital Fund during this or any prior or subsequent fiscal year shall remain available until expended: Provided further, That any funds appropriated or transferred to the Central Intelligence Agency for advanced research and development acquisition, for agent operations, and for covert action programs authorized by the President under section 503 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 3093) shall remain available until September 30, 2016.

SEC. 8034. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, funds made available in this Act for the Defense Intelligence Agency may be used for the design, development, and deployment of General Defense Intelligence Program intelligence communications and intelligence information systems for the Services, the Unified and Specified Commands, and the component commands.

SEC. 8035. Of the funds appropriated to the Department of Defense under the heading "Operation and Maintenance, Defense-Wide", not less than $12,000,000 shall be made available only for the mitigation of environmental impacts, including training and technical assistance to tribes, related administrative support, the gathering of information, documenting of environmental damage, and developing a system for prioritization of mitigation and cost to complete estimates for mitigation, on Indian lands resulting from Department of Defense activities.

SEC. 8036. (a) None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be expended by an entity of the Department of Defense unless the entity, in expending the funds, complies with the Buy American Act. For purposes of this subsection, the term "Buy American Act" means chapter 83 of title 41, United States Code.

(b) If the Secretary of Defense determines that a person has been convicted of intentionally affixing a label bearing a "Made in America" inscription to any product sold in or shipped to the United States that is not made in America, the Secretary shall determine, in accordance with section 2410f of title 10, United States Code, whether the person should be debarred from contracting with the Department of Defense.

(c) In the case of any equipment or products purchased with appropriations provided under this Act, it is the sense of the Congress that any entity of the Department of Defense, in expending the appropriation, purchase only American-made equipment and products, provided that American-made equipment and products are cost-competitive, quality competitive, and available in a timely fashion.

SEC. 8037. None of the funds appropriated by this Act shall be available for a contract for studies, analysis, or consulting services entered into without competition on the basis of an unsolicited proposal unless the head of the activity responsible for the procurement determines—

(1) as a result of thorough technical evaluation, only one source is found fully qualified to perform the proposed work;

(2) the purpose of the contract is to explore an unsolicited proposal which offers significant scientific or technological promise, represents the product of original thinking, and was submitted in confidence by one source; or

(3) the purpose of the contract is to take advantage of unique and significant industrial accomplishment by a specific concern, or to insure that a new product or idea of a specific concern is given financial support: Provided, That this limitation shall not apply to contracts in an amount of less than $25,000, contracts related to improvements of equipment that is in development or production, or contracts as to which a civilian official of the Department of Defense, who has been confirmed by the Senate, determines that the award of such contract is in the interest of the national defense.

SEC. 8038. (a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), none of the funds made available by this Act may be used—

(1) to establish a field operating agency; or

(2) to pay the basic pay of a member of the Armed Forces or civilian employee of the department who is transferred or reassigned from a headquarters activity if the member or employee's place of duty remains at the location of that headquarters.

(b) The Secretary of Defense or Secretary of a military department may waive the limitations in subsection (a), on a case-by-case basis, if the Secretary determines, and certifies to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate that the granting of the waiver will reduce the personnel requirements or the financial requirements of the department.

(c) This section does not apply to—

(1) field operating agencies funded within the National Intelligence Program;

(2) an Army field operating agency established to eliminate, mitigate, or counter the effects of improvised explosive devices, and, as determined by the Secretary of the Army, other similar threats;

(3) an Army field operating agency established to improve the effectiveness and efficiencies of biometric activities and to integrate common biometric technologies throughout the Department of Defense; or

(4) an Air Force field operating agency established to administer the Air Force Mortuary Affairs Program and Mortuary Operations for the Department of Defense and authorized Federal entities.

SEC. 8039. (a) None of the funds appropriated by this Act shall be available to convert to contractor performance an activity or function of the Department of Defense that, on or after the date of the enactment of this Act, is performed by Department of Defense civilian employees unless—

(1) the conversion is based on the result of a public-private competition that includes a most efficient and cost effective organization plan developed by such activity or function;

(2) the Competitive Sourcing Official determines that, over all performance periods stated in the solicitation of offers for performance of the activity or function, the cost of performance of the activity or function by a contractor would be less costly to the Department of Defense by an amount that equals or exceeds the lesser of—

(A) 10 percent of the most efficient organization's personnel-related costs for performance of that activity or function by Federal employees; or

(B) $10,000,000; and

(3) the contractor does not receive an advantage for a proposal that would reduce costs for the Department of Defense by—

(A) not making an employer-sponsored health insurance plan available to the workers who are to be employed in the performance of that activity or function under the contract; or

(B) offering to such workers an employer-sponsored health benefits plan that requires the employer to contribute less towards the premium or subscription share than the amount that is paid by the Department of Defense for health benefits for civilian employees under chapter 89 of title 5, United States Code.

(b)(1) The Department of Defense, without regard to subsection (a) of this section or subsection (a), (b), or (c) of section 2461 of title 10, United States Code, and notwithstanding any administrative regulation, requirement, or policy to the contrary shall have full authority to enter into a contract for the performance of any commercial or industrial type function of the Department of Defense that—

(A) is included on the procurement list established pursuant to section 2 of the Javits-Wagner-O'Day Act (section 8503 of title 41, United States Code);

(B) is planned to be converted to performance by a qualified nonprofit agency for the blind or by a qualified nonprofit agency for other severely handicapped individuals in accordance with that Act; or

(C) is planned to be converted to performance by a qualified firm under at least 51 percent ownership by an Indian tribe, as defined in section 4(e) of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (25 U.S.C. 450b(e)), or a Native Hawaiian Organization, as defined in section 8(a)(15) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 637(a)(15)).

(2) This section shall not apply to depot contracts or contracts for depot maintenance as provided in sections 2469 and 2474 of title 10, United States Code.

(c) The conversion of any activity or function of the Department of Defense under the authority provided by this section shall be credited toward any competitive or outsourcing goal, target, or measurement that may be established by statute, regulation, or policy and is deemed to be awarded under the authority of, and in compliance with, subsection (h) of section 2304 of title 10, United States Code, for the competition or outsourcing of commercial activities.

SEC. 8041. None of the funds available in this Act may be used to reduce the authorized positions for military technicians (dual status) of the Army National Guard, Air National Guard, Army Reserve and Air Force Reserve for the purpose of applying any administratively imposed civilian personnel ceiling, freeze, or reduction on military technicians (dual status), unless such reductions are a direct result of a reduction in military force structure.

SEC. 8042. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this Act may be obligated or expended for assistance to the Democratic People's Republic of Korea unless specifically appropriated for that purpose.

SEC. 8043. Funds appropriated in this Act for operation and maintenance of the Military Departments, Combatant Commands and Defense Agencies shall be available for reimbursement of pay, allowances and other expenses which would otherwise be incurred against appropriations for the National Guard and Reserve when members of the National Guard and Reserve provide intelligence or counterintelligence support to Combatant Commands, Defense Agencies and Joint Intelligence Activities, including the activities and programs included within the National Intelligence Program and the Military Intelligence Program: Provided, That nothing in this section authorizes deviation from established Reserve and National Guard personnel and training procedures.

SEC. 8044. Of the amounts appropriated for “Working Capital Fund, Army”, $225,000,000 shall be available to maintain competitive rates at the arsenals.

SEC. 8045. (a) None of the funds available to the Department of Defense for any fiscal year for drug interdiction or counter-drug activities may be transferred to any other department or agency of the United States except as specifically provided in an appropriations law.

(b) None of the funds available to the Central Intelligence Agency for any fiscal year for drug interdiction or counter-drug activities may be transferred to any other department or agency of the United States except as specifically provided in an appropriations law.

SEC. 8046. None of the funds appropriated by this Act may be used for the procurement of ball and roller bearings other than those produced by a domestic source and of domestic origin: Provided, That the Secretary of the military department responsible for such procurement may waive this restriction on a case-by-case basis by certifying in writing to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, that adequate domestic supplies are not available to meet Department of Defense requirements on a timely basis and that such an acquisition must be made in order to acquire capability for national security purposes: Provided further, That this restriction shall not apply to the purchase of “commercial items”, as defined by section 4(12) of the Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act, except that the restriction shall apply to ball or roller bearings purchased as end items.

SEC. 8047. In addition to the amounts appropriated or otherwise made available elsewhere in this Act, $44,000,000 is hereby appropriated to the Department of Defense: Provided, That upon the determination of the Secretary of Defense that it shall serve the national interest, the Secretary shall make grants in the amounts specified as follows: $20,000,000 to the United Service Organizations and $24,000,000 to the Red Cross.

SEC. 8048. None of the funds in this Act may be used to purchase any supercomputer which is not manufactured in the United States, unless the Secretary of Defense certifies to the congressional defense committees that such an acquisition must be made in order to acquire capability for national security purposes that is not available from United States manufacturers.

SEC. 8049. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, the Small Business Innovation Research program and the Small Business Technology Transfer program set-asides shall be taken proportionally from all programs, projects, or activities to the extent they contribute to the extramural budget.

SEC. 8050. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, none of the funds available to the Department of Defense for the current fiscal year and hereafter may be obligated or expended to transfer to another nation or an international organization any defense articles or services (other than intelligence services) for use in the activities described in subsection (b) unless the congressional defense committees, the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate are notified 15 days in advance of such transfer.

(b) This section applies to—

(1) any international peacekeeping or peace-enforcement operation under the authority of chapter VI or chapter VII of the United Nations Charter under the authority of a United Nations Security Council resolution; and

(2) any other international peacekeeping, peace-enforcement, or humanitarian assistance operation.

(c) A notice under subsection (a) shall include the following:

(1) A description of the equipment, supplies, or services to be transferred.

(2) A statement of the value of the equipment, supplies, or services to be transferred.

(3) In the case of a proposed transfer of equipment or supplies—

(A) a statement of whether the inventory requirements of all elements of the Armed Forces (including the reserve components) for the type of equipment or supplies to be transferred have been met; and

(B) a statement of whether the items proposed to be transferred will have to be replaced and, if so, how the President proposes to provide funds for such replacement.

SEC. 8051. None of the funds available to the Department of Defense under this Act shall be obligated or expended to pay a contractor under a contract with the Department of Defense for costs of any amount paid by the contractor to an employee when—

(1) such costs are for a bonus or otherwise in excess of the normal salary paid by the contractor to the employee; and

(2) such bonus is part of restructuring costs associated with a business combination.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8052. During the current fiscal year, no more than $30,000,000 of appropriations made in this Act under the heading "Operation and Maintenance, Defense-Wide" may be transferred to appropriations available for the pay of military personnel, to be merged with, and to be available for the same time period as the appropriations to which transferred, to be used in support of such personnel in connection with support and services for eligible organizations and activities outside the Department of Defense pursuant to section 2012 of title 10, United States Code.

SEC. 8053. During the current fiscal year, in the case of an appropriation account of the Department of Defense for which the period of availability for obligation has expired or which has closed under the provisions of section 1552 of title 31, United States Code, and which has a negative unliquidated or unexpended balance, an obligation or an adjustment of an obligation may be charged to any current appropriation account for the same purpose as the expired or closed account if—

(1) the obligation would have been properly chargeable (except as to amount) to the expired or closed account before the end of the period of availability or closing of that account;

(2) the obligation is not otherwise properly chargeable to any current appropriation account of the Department of Defense; and

(3) in the case of an expired account, the obligation is not chargeable to a current appropriation of the Department of Defense under the provisions of section 1405(b)(8) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1991, Public Law 101-510, as amended (31 U.S.C. 1551 note): Provided, That in the case of an expired account, if subsequent review or investigation discloses that there was not in fact a negative unliquidated or unexpended balance in the account, any charge to a current account under the authority of this section shall be reversed and recorded against the expired account: Provided further, That the total amount charged to a current appropriation under this section may not exceed an amount equal to 1 percent of the total appropriation for that account.

SEC. 8054. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Chief of the National Guard Bureau may permit the use of equipment of the National Guard Distance Learning Project by any person or entity on a space-available, reimbursable basis. The Chief of the National Guard Bureau shall establish the amount of reimbursement for such use on a case-by-case basis.

(b) Amounts collected under subsection (a) shall be credited to funds available for the National Guard Distance Learning Project and be available to defray the costs associated with the use of equipment of the project under that subsection. Such funds shall be available for such purposes without fiscal year limitation.

SEC. 8055. Using funds made available by this Act or any other Act, the Secretary of the Air Force, pursuant to a determination under section 2690 of title 10, United States Code, may implement cost-effective agreements for required heating facility modernization in the Kaiserslautern Military Community in the Federal Republic of Germany: Provided, That in the City of Kaiserslautern and at the Rhine Ordnance Barracks area, such agreements will include the use of United States anthracite as the base load energy for municipal district heat to the United States Defense installations: Provided further, That at Landstuhl Army Regional Medical Center and Ramstein Air Base, furnished heat may be obtained from private, regional or municipal services, if provisions are included for the consideration of United States coal as an energy source.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8056. Of the funds appropriated in this Act under the heading "Operation and Maintenance, Defense-wide", $25,000,000 shall be for continued implementation and expansion of the Sexual Assault Special Victims' Counsel Program, and $5,709,000 shall be for support of high priority Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program requirements and activities, including the training and funding of personnel: Provided, That the funds are made available for transfer to the Department of the Army, the Department of the Navy, and the Department of the Air Force: Provided further, That funds transferred shall be merged with and available for the same purposes and for the same time period as the appropriations to which the funds are transferred: Provided further, That this transfer authority is in addition to any other transfer authority provided in this Act.

SEC. 8057. None of the funds appropriated in title IV of this Act may be used to procure end-items for delivery to military forces for operational training, operational use or inventory requirements: Provided, That this restriction does not apply to end-items used in development, prototyping, and test activities preceding and leading to acceptance for operational use: Provided further, That this restriction does not apply to programs funded within the National Intelligence Program: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense may waive this restriction on a case-by-case basis by certifying in writing to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate that it is in the national security interest to do so.

SEC. 8058. (a) The Secretary of Defense may, on a case-by-case basis, waive with respect to a foreign country each limitation on the procurement of defense items from foreign sources provided in law if the Secretary determines that the application of the limitation with respect to that country would invalidate cooperative programs entered into between the Department of Defense and the foreign country, or would invalidate reciprocal trade agreements for the procurement of defense items entered into under section 2531 of title 10, United States Code, and the country does not discriminate against the same or similar defense items produced in the United States for that country.

(b) Subsection (a) applies with respect to—

(1) contracts and subcontracts entered into on or after the date of the enactment of this Act; and

(2) options for the procurement of items that are exercised after such date under contracts that are entered into before such date if the option prices are adjusted for any reason other than the application of a waiver granted under subsection (a).

(c) Subsection (a) does not apply to a limitation regarding construction of public vessels, ball and roller bearings, food, and clothing or textile materials as defined by section 11 (chapters 50-65) of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule and products classified under headings 4010, 4202, 4203, 6401 through 6406, 6505, 7019, 7218 through 7229, 7304.41 through 7304.49, 7306.40, 7502 through 7508, 8105, 8108, 8109, 8211, 8215, and 9404.

SEC. 8059. (a) IN GENERAL.—(1) None of the funds made available by this Act may be used for any training, equipment, or other assistance for a unit of a foreign security force if the Secretary of Defense has credible information that the unit has committed a gross violation of human rights.

(2) The Secretary of Defense, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall ensure that prior to a decision to provide any training, equipment, or other assistance to a unit of a foreign security force full consideration is given to any credible information available to the Department of State relating to human rights violations by such unit.

(b) EXCEPTION.—The prohibition in subsection (a)(1) shall not apply if the Secretary of Defense, after consultation with the Secretary of State, determines that the government of such country has taken all necessary corrective steps, or if the equipment or other assistance is necessary to assist in disaster relief operations or other humanitarian or national security emergencies.

(c) WAIVER.—The Secretary of Defense, after consultation with the Secretary of State, may waive the prohibition in subsection (a)(1) if the Secretary of Defense determines that such waiver is required by extraordinary circumstances.

(d) PROCEDURES.—The Secretary of Defense shall establish, and periodically update, procedures to ensure that any information in the possession of the Department of Defense about gross violations of human rights by units of foreign security forces is shared on a timely basis with the Department of State.

(e) REPORT.—Not more than 15 days after the application of any exception under subsection (b) or the exercise of any waiver under subsection (c), the Secretary of Defense shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report—

(1) in the case of an exception under subsection (b), providing notice of the use of the exception and stating the grounds for the exception; and

(2) in the case of a waiver under subsection (c), describing the information relating to the gross violation of human rights; the extraordinary circumstances that necessitate the waiver; the purpose and duration of the training, equipment, or other assistance; and the United States forces and the foreign security force unit involved.

(f) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this section the term “appropriate congressional committees” means the congressional defense committees and the Committees on Appropriations.

SEC. 8060. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or other Department of Defense Appropriations Acts may be obligated or expended for the purpose of performing repairs or maintenance to military family housing units of the Department of Defense, including areas in such military family housing units that may be used for the purpose of conducting official Department of Defense business.

SEC. 8061. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, funds appropriated in this Act under the heading “Research, Development, Test and Evaluation, Defense-Wide” for any new start advanced concept technology demonstration project or joint capability demonstration project may only be obligated 45 days after a report, including a description of the project, the planned acquisition and transition strategy and its estimated annual and total cost, has been provided in writing to the congressional defense committees: Provided, That the Secretary of Defense may waive this restriction on a case-by-case basis by certifying to the congressional defense committees that it is in the national interest to do so.

SEC. 8062. The Secretary of Defense shall provide a classified quarterly report beginning 30 days after enactment of this Act, to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees, Subcommittees on Defense on certain matters as directed in the classified annex accompanying this Act.

SEC. 8063. During the current fiscal year and hereafter, none of the funds available to the Department of Defense may be used to provide support to another department or agency of the United States if such department or agency is more than 90 days in arrears in making payment to the Department of Defense for goods or services previously provided to such department or agency on a reimbursable basis: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply if the department is authorized by law to provide support to such department or agency on a nonreimbursable basis, and is providing the requested support pursuant to such authority: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense may waive this restriction on a case-by-case basis by certifying in writing to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate that it is in the national security interest to do so.

SEC. 8064. Notwithstanding section 12310(b) of title 10, United States Code, a member of the National Guard serving on full-time National Guard duty under section 502(f) of title 32, United States Code, may perform duties in support of the ground-based elements of the National Ballistic Missile Defense System.

SEC. 8065. None of the funds provided in this Act may be used to transfer to any non-governmental entity ammunition held by the Department of Defense that has a center-fire cartridge and a United States military nomenclature designation of “armor penetrator”, “armor piercing (AP)”, “armor piercing incendiary (API)”, or “armor-piercing incendiary tracer (API-T)”, except to an entity performing demilitarization services for the Department of Defense under a contract that requires the entity to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department of Defense that armor piercing projectiles are either: (1) rendered incapable of reuse by the demilitarization process; or (2) used to manufacture ammunition pursuant to a contract with the Department of Defense or the manufacture of ammunition for export pursuant to a License for Permanent Export of Unclassified Military Articles issued by the Department of State.

SEC. 8066. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Chief of the National Guard Bureau, or his designee, may waive payment of all or part of the consideration that otherwise would be required under section 2667 of title 10, United States Code, in the case of a lease of personal property for a period not in excess of 1 year to any organization specified in section 508(d) of title 32, United States Code, or any other youth, social, or fraternal nonprofit organization as may be approved by the Chief of the National Guard Bureau, or his designee, on a case-by-case basis.

SEC. 8067. In specifying the amounts requested for the Department of the Army for Arlington National Cemetery, Virginia, the budget of the President submitted to Congress shall request such amounts in the Cemetery Expenses, Army appropriation, and shall not request such amounts in the Operation and Maintenance, Army appropriation.

SEC. 8068. None of the funds appropriated by this Act shall be used for the support of any nonappropriated funds activity of the Department of Defense that procures malt beverages and wine with nonappropriated funds for resale (including such alcoholic beverages sold by the drink) on a military installation located in the United States unless such malt beverages and wine are procured within that State, or in the case of the District of Columbia, within the District of Columbia, in which the military installation is located: Provided, That in a case in which the military installation is located in more than one State, purchases may be made in any State in which the installation is located: Provided further, That such local procurement requirements for malt beverages and wine shall apply to all alcoholic beverages only for military installations in States which are not contiguous with another State: Provided further, That alcoholic beverages other than wine and malt beverages, in contiguous States and the District of Columbia shall be procured from the most competitive source, price and other factors considered.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8069. Of the amounts appropriated in this Act under the heading “Operation and Maintenance, Army”, $106,189,900 shall remain available until expended: Provided, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of Defense is authorized to transfer such funds to other activities of the Federal Government: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense is authorized to enter into and carry out contracts for the acquisition of real property, construction, personal services, and operations related to projects carrying out the purposes of this section: Provided further, That contracts entered into under the authority of this section may provide for such indemnification as the Secretary determines to be necessary: Provided further, That projects authorized by this section shall comply with applicable Federal, State, and local law to the maximum extent consistent with the national security, as determined by the Secretary of Defense.

SEC. 8070. (a) None of the funds appropriated in this or any other Act may be used to take any action to modify—

(1) the appropriations account structure for the National Intelligence Program budget, including through the creation of a new appropriation or new appropriation account;

(2) how the National Intelligence Program budget request is presented in the unclassified P-1, R-1, and O-1 documents supporting the Department of Defense budget request;

(3) the process by which the National Intelligence Program appropriations are apportioned to the executing agencies; or

(4) the process by which the National Intelligence Program appropriations are allotted, obligated and disbursed.

(b) Nothing in section (a) shall be construed to prohibit the merger of programs or changes to the National Intelligence Program budget at or below the Expenditure Center level, provided such change is otherwise in accordance with paragraphs (a)(1)–(3).

(c) The Director of National Intelligence and the Secretary of Defense may jointly, only for the purposes of achieving auditable financial statements and improving fiscal reporting, study and develop detailed proposals for alternative financial management processes. Such study shall include a comprehensive counterintelligence risk assessment to ensure that none of the alternative processes will adversely affect counterintelligence.

(d) Upon development of the detailed proposals defined under subsection (c), the Director of National Intelligence and the Secretary of Defense shall—

(1) provide the proposed alternatives to all affected agencies;

(2) receive certification from all affected agencies attesting that the proposed alternatives will help achieve auditability, improve fiscal reporting, and will not adversely affect counterintelligence; and

(3) not later than 30 days after receiving all necessary certifications under paragraph (2), present the proposed alternatives and certifications to the congressional defense and intelligence committees.

(e) This section shall not be construed to alter or affect the application of section 1627 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015 to the amounts made available by this Act.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8077. None of the funds provided in this Act shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming of funds that creates or initiates a new program, project, or activity unless such program, project, or activity must be undertaken immediately in the interest of national security and only after written prior notification to the congressional defense committees.

SEC. 8078. The budget of the President for fiscal year 2016 submitted to the Congress pursuant to section 1105 of title 31, United States Code, shall include separate budget justification documents for costs of United States Armed Forces' participation in contingency operations for the Military Personnel accounts, the Operation and Maintenance accounts, the Procurement accounts, and the Research, Development, Test and Evaluation accounts: Provided, That these documents shall include a description of the funding requested for each contingency operation, for each military service, to include all Active and Reserve components, and for each appropriations account: Provided further, That these documents shall include estimated costs for each element of expense or object class, a reconciliation of increases and decreases for each contingency operation, and programmatic data including, but not limited to, troop strength for each Active and Reserve component, and estimates of the major weapons systems deployed in support of each contingency: Provided further, That these documents shall include budget exhibits OP-5 and OP-32 (as defined in the Department of Defense Financial Management Regulation) for all contingency operations for the budget year and the two preceding fiscal years.

SEC. 8079. None of the funds in this Act may be used for research, development, test, evaluation, procurement or deployment of nuclear armed interceptors of a missile defense system.

SEC. 8080. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, to reflect savings due to favorable foreign exchange rates, the total amount appropriated in this Act is hereby reduced by $386,268,000.

SEC. 8081. None of the funds appropriated or made available in this Act shall be used to reduce or disestablish the operation of the 53rd Weather Reconnaissance Squadron of the Air Force Reserve, if such action would reduce the WC-130 Weather Reconnaissance mission below the levels funded in this Act: Provided, That the Air Force shall allow the 53rd Weather Reconnaissance Squadron to perform other missions in support of national defense requirements during the non-hurricane season.

SEC. 8082. None of the funds provided in this Act shall be available for integration of foreign intelligence information unless the information has been lawfully collected and processed during the conduct of authorized foreign intelligence activities: Provided, That information pertaining to United States persons shall only be handled in accordance with protections provided in the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution as implemented through Executive Order No. 12333.

SEC. 8083. (a) At the time members of reserve components of the Armed Forces are called or ordered to active duty under section 12302(a) of title 10, United States Code, each member shall be notified in writing of the expected period during which the member will be mobilized.

(b) The Secretary of Defense may waive the requirements of subsection (a) in any case in which the Secretary determines that it is necessary to do so to respond to a national security emergency or to meet dire operational requirements of the Armed Forces.

SEC. 8084. Of the amounts appropriated for "Missile Procurement, Air Force", $125,000,000 shall be available for the acceleration of a competitively awarded Evolved Expendable Launch Vehicle mission: Provided, That competitions shall be open to all certified providers of Evolved Expendable Launch Vehicle-class systems: Provided further, That competitions shall consider bids from two or more certified providers: Provided further, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, such providers may compete any certified launch vehicle in their inventory.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8085. The Secretary of Defense may transfer funds from any available Department of the Navy appropriation to any available Navy ship construction appropriation for the purpose of liquidating necessary changes resulting from inflation, market fluctuations, or rate adjustments for any ship construction program appropriated in law: Provided, That the Secretary may transfer not to exceed $16,000,000 under the authority provided by this section: Provided further, That the Secretary may not transfer any funds until 30 days after the proposed transfer has been reported to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, unless a response from the Committees is received sooner: Provided further, That any funds transferred pursuant to this section shall retain the same period of availability as when originally appropriated: Provided further, That the transfer authority provided by this section is in addition to any other transfer authority contained elsewhere in this Act.

SEC. 8086. (a) None of the funds appropriated by this Act may be used to transfer research and development, acquisition, or other program authority relating to current tactical unmanned aerial vehicles (TUAVs) from the Army.

(b) The Army shall retain responsibility for and operational control of the MQ-1C Gray Eagle Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV) in order to support the Secretary of Defense in matters relating to the employment of unmanned aerial vehicles.

SEC. 8087. Up to $15,000,000 of the funds appropriated under the heading "Operation and Maintenance, Navy" may be made available for the Asia Pacific Regional Initiative Program for the purpose of enabling the Pacific Command to execute Theater Security Cooperation activities such as humanitarian assistance, and payment of incremental and personnel costs of training and exercising with foreign security forces: Provided, That funds made available for this purpose may be used, notwithstanding any other funding authorities for humanitarian assistance, security assistance or combined exercise expenses: Provided further, That funds may not be obligated to provide assistance to any foreign country that is otherwise prohibited from receiving such type of assistance under any other provision of law.

SEC. 8088. None of the funds appropriated by this Act for programs of the Office of the Director of National Intelligence shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year, except for funds appropriated for research and technology, which shall remain available until September 30, 2016.

SEC. 8089. For purposes of section 1553(b) of title 31, United States Code, any subdivision of appropriations made in this Act under the heading "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy" shall be considered to be for the same purpose as any subdivision under the heading "Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy" appropriations in any prior fiscal year, and the 1 percent limitation shall apply to the total amount of the appropriation.

SEC. 8090. (a) Not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Director of National Intelligence shall submit a report to the congressional intelligence committees to establish the baseline for application of reprogramming and transfer authorities for fiscal year 2015: Provided, That the report shall include—

(1) a table for each appropriation with a separate column to display the President's budget request, adjustments made by Congress, adjustments due to enacted rescissions, if appropriate, and the fiscal year enacted level;

(2) a delineation in the table for each appropriation by Expenditure Center and project; and

(3) an identification of items of special congressional interest.

(b) None of the funds provided for the National Intelligence Program in this Act shall be available for reprogramming or transfer until the report identified in subsection (a) is submitted to the congressional intelligence committees, unless the Director of National Intelligence certifies in writing to the congressional intelligence committees that such reprogramming or transfer is necessary as an emergency requirement.

SEC. 8091. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to eliminate, restructure or realign Army Contracting Command-New Jersey or make disproportionate personnel reductions at any Army Contracting Command-New Jersey sites without 30-day prior notification to the congressional defense committees.

SEC. 8092. None of the funds made available by this Act for excess defense articles, assistance under section 1206 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2006 (Public Law 109-163; 119 Stat. 3456), or peacekeeping operations for the countries designated annually to be in violation of the standards of the Child Soldiers Prevention Act of 2008 may be used to support any military training or operation that includes child soldiers, as defined by the Child Soldiers Prevention Act of 2008 (Public Law 110-457; 22 U.S.C. 2370c-1), unless such assistance is otherwise permitted under section 404 of the Child Soldiers Prevention Act of 2008.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8093. Of the funds appropriated in the Intelligence Community Management Account for the Program Manager for the Information Sharing Environment, $20,000,000 is available for transfer by the Director of National Intelligence to other departments and agencies for purposes of Government-wide information sharing activities: Provided, That funds transferred under this provision are to be merged with and available for the same purposes and time period as the appropriation to which transferred: Provided further, That the Office of Management and Budget must approve any transfers made under this provision.

SEC. 8094. (a) None of the funds provided for the National Intelligence Program in this or any prior appropriations Act shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming or transfer of funds in accordance with section 102A(d) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 3024(d)) that—

(1) creates a new start effort;

(2) terminates a program with appropriated funding of $10,000,000 or more;

(3) transfers funding into or out of the National Intelligence Program; or

(4) transfers funding between appropriations, unless the congressional intelligence committees are notified 30 days in advance of such reprogramming of funds; this notification period may be reduced for urgent national security requirements.

(b) None of the funds provided for the National Intelligence Program in this or any prior appropriations Act shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming or transfer of funds in accordance with section 102A(d) or the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 3024(d)) that results in a cumulative increase or decrease of the levels specified in the classified annex accompanying the Act unless the congressional intelligence committees are notified 30 days in advance of such reprogramming of funds; this notification period may be reduced for urgent national security requirements.

SEC. 8095. The Director of National Intelligence shall submit to Congress each year, at or about the time that the President's budget is submitted to Congress that year under section 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, a future-years intelligence program (including associated annexes) reflecting the estimated expenditures and proposed appropriations included in that budget. Any such future-years intelligence program shall cover the fiscal year with respect to which the budget is submitted and at least the four succeeding fiscal years.

SEC. 8096. For the purposes of this Act, the term "congressional intelligence committees" means the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives, the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate, the Subcommittee on Defense of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives, and the Subcommittee on Defense of the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate.

SEC. 8097. The Department of Defense shall continue to report incremental contingency operations costs for Operation Inherent Resolve, Operation Enduring Freedom, and any named successor operations, on a monthly basis and any other operation designated and identified by the Secretary of Defense for the purposes of section 127a of title 10, United States Code, on a semi-annual basis in the Cost of War Execution Report as prescribed in the Department of Defense Financial Management Regulation Department of Defense Instruction 7000.14, Volume 12, Chapter 23 "Contingency Operations", Annex 1, dated September 2005.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8098. During the current fiscal year, not to exceed $11,000,000 from each of the appropriations made in title II of this Act for "Operation and Maintenance, Army", "Operation and Maintenance, Navy", and "Operation and Maintenance, Air Force" may be transferred by the military department concerned to its central fund established for Fisher Houses and Suites pursuant to section 2493(d) of title 10, United States Code.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8099. Funds appropriated by this Act for operation and maintenance may be available for the purpose of making remittances and transfer to the Defense Acquisition Workforce Development Fund in accordance with section 1705 of title 10, United States Code.

SEC. 8100. (a) Any agency receiving funds made available in this Act, shall, subject to subsections (b) and (c), post on the public Web site of that agency any report required to be submitted by the Congress in this or any other Act, upon the determination by the head of the agency that it shall serve the national interest.

(b) Subsection (a) shall not apply to a report if—

(1) the public posting of the report compromises national security; or

(2) the report contains proprietary information.

(c) The head of the agency posting such report shall do so only after such report has been made available to the requesting Committee or Committees of Congress for no less than 45 days.

SEC. 8101. (a) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be expended for any Federal contract for an amount in excess of $1,000,000, unless the contractor agrees not to—

(1) enter into any agreement with any of its employees or independent contractors that requires, as a condition of employment, that the employee or independent contractor agree to resolve through arbitration any claim under title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 or any tort related to or arising out of sexual assault or harassment, including assault and battery, intentional infliction of emotional distress, false imprisonment, or negligent hiring, supervision, or retention; or

(2) take any action to enforce any provision of an existing agreement with an employee or independent contractor that mandates that the employee or independent contractor resolve through arbitration any claim under title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 or any tort related to or arising out of sexual assault or harassment, including assault and battery, intentional infliction of emotional distress, false imprisonment, or negligent hiring, supervision, or retention.

(b) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be expended for any Federal contract unless the contractor certifies that it requires each covered subcontractor to agree not to enter into, and not to take any action to enforce any provision of, any agreement as described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (a), with respect to any employee or independent contractor performing work related to such subcontract. For purposes of this subsection, a "covered subcontractor" is an entity that has a subcontract in excess of $1,000,000 on a contract subject to subsection (a).

(c) The prohibitions in this section do not apply with respect to a contractor's or subcontractor's agreements with employees or independent contractors that may not be enforced in a court of the United States.

(d) The Secretary of Defense may waive the application of subsection (a) or (b) to a particular contractor or subcontractor for the purposes of a particular contract or subcontract if the Secretary or the Deputy Secretary personally determines that the waiver is necessary to avoid harm to national security interests of the United States, and that the term of the contract or subcontract is not longer than necessary to avoid such harm. The determination shall set forth with specificity the grounds for the waiver and for the contract or subcontract term selected, and shall state any alternatives considered in lieu of a waiver and the reasons each such alternative would not avoid harm to national security interests of the United States. The Secretary of Defense shall transmit to Congress, and simultaneously make public, any determination under this subsection not less than 15 business days before the contract or subcontract addressed in the determination may be awarded.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8102. From within the funds appropriated for operation and maintenance for the Defense Health Program in this Act, up to $146,857,000, shall be available for transfer to the Joint Department of Defense-Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Facility Demonstration Fund in accordance with the provisions of section 1704 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010, Public Law 111-84: Provided, That for purposes of section 1704(b), the facility operations funded are operations of the integrated Captain James A. Lovell Federal Health Care Center, consisting of the North Chicago Veterans Affairs Medical Center, the Navy Ambulatory Care Center, and supporting facilities designated as a combined Federal medical facility as described by section 706 of Public Law 110-417: Provided further, That additional funds may be transferred from funds appropriated for operation and maintenance for the Defense Health Program to the Joint Department of Defense-Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Facility Demonstration Fund upon written notification by the Secretary of Defense to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

SEC. 8103. The Office of the Director of National Intelligence shall not employ more Senior Executive employees than are specified in the classified annex.

SEC. 8104. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act and hereafter may be obligated or expended to pay a retired general or flag officer to serve as a senior mentor advising the Department of Defense unless such retired officer files a Standard Form 278 (or successor form concerning public financial disclosure under part 2634 of title 5, Code of Federal Regulations) to the Office of Government Ethics.

SEC. 8105. Appropriations available to the Department of Defense may be used for the purchase of heavy and light armored vehicles for the physical security of personnel or for force protection purposes up to a limit of $250,000 per vehicle, notwithstanding price or other limitations applicable to the purchase of passenger carrying vehicles.

SEC. 8106. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act or any other Act may be used by the Department of Defense or a component thereof in contravention of section 1243 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015, relating to limitations on providing certain missile defense information to the Russian Federation.

SEC. 8107. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used by the Secretary of Defense to take beneficial occupancy of more than 3,000 parking spaces (other than handicap-reserved spaces) to be provided by the BRAC 133 project: Provided, That this limitation may be waived in part if: (1) the Secretary of Defense certifies to Congress that levels of service at existing intersections in the vicinity of the project have not experienced failing levels of service as defined by the Transportation Research Board Highway Capacity Manual over a consecutive 90-day period; (2) the Department of Defense and the Virginia Department of Transportation agree on the number of additional parking spaces that may be made available to employees of the facility subject to continued 90-day traffic monitoring; and (3) the Secretary of Defense notifies the congressional defense committees in writing at least 14 days prior to exercising this waiver of the number of additional parking spaces to be made available.

SEC. 8108. The Secretary of Defense shall report quarterly the numbers of civilian personnel end strength by appropriation account for each and every appropriation account used to finance Federal civilian personnel salaries to the congressional defense committees within 15 days after the end of each fiscal quarter.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8109. Upon a determination by the Director of National Intelligence that such action is necessary and in the national interest, the Director may, with the approval of the Office of Management and Budget, transfer not to exceed $2,000,000,000 of the funds made available in this Act for the National Intelligence Program: Provided, That such authority to transfer may not be used unless for higher priority items, based on unforeseen intelligence requirements, than those for which originally appropriated and in no case where the item for which funds are requested has been denied by the Congress: Provided further, That a request for multiple reprogrammings of funds using authority provided in this section shall be made prior to June 30, 2015.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 8110. There is appropriated $540,000,000 for the "Ship Modernization, Operations and Sustainment Fund", to remain available until September 30, 2021: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy shall transfer funds from the "Ship Modernization, Operations and Sustainment Fund" to appropriations for operation and maintenance; research, development, test and evaluation; and procurement, only for the purposes of operating, sustaining, equipping and modernizing the Ticonderoga-class guided missile cruisers CG-63, CG-64, CG-65, CG-66, CG-67, CG-68, CG-69, CG-70, CG-71, CG-72, CG-73, and the Whidbey Island-class dock landing ships LSD-41, LSD-42, and LSD-46: Provided further, That funds transferred shall be merged with and be available for the same purposes and for the same time period as the appropriation to which they are transferred: Provided further, That the transfer authority provided herein shall be in addition to any other transfer authority available to the Department of Defense: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy shall, not less than 30 days prior to making any transfer from the "Ship Modernization, Operations and Sustainment Fund", notify the congressional defense committees in writing of the details of such transfer: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy shall transfer and obligate funds from the "Ship Modernization, Operations and Sustainment Fund" for modernization of not more than two Ticonderoga-class guided missile cruisers as detailed above in fiscal year 2015: Provided further, That no more than six Ticonderoga-class guided missile cruisers shall be in a phased modernization at any time: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy shall contract for the required modernization equipment in the year prior to inducing a Ticonderoga-class cruiser for modernization: Provided further, That the prohibition in section 2244a(a) of title 10, United States Code, shall not apply to the use of any funds transferred pursuant to this section.

SEC. 8111. None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be obligated or expended by the Secretary of a military department in contravention of the provisions of section 352 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2014 to adopt any new camouflage pattern design or uniform fabric for any combat or camouflage utility uniform or family of uniforms for use by an Armed Force.

SEC. 8112. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this or any other Act may be used to transfer, release, or assist in the transfer or release to or within the United States, its territories, or possessions Khalid Sheikh Mohammed or any other detainee who—

(1) is not a United States citizen or a member of the Armed Forces of the United States; and

(2) is or was held on or after June 24, 2009, at the United States Naval Station, Guantánamo Bay, Cuba, by the Department of Defense.

SEC. 8113. (a) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this or any other Act may be used to construct, acquire, or modify any facility in the United States, its territories, or possessions to house any individual described in subsection (c) for the purposes of detention or imprisonment in the custody or under the effective control of the Department of Defense.

(b) The prohibition in subsection (a) shall not apply to any modification of facilities at United States Naval Station, Guantánamo Bay, Cuba.

(c) An individual described in this subsection is any individual who, as of June 24, 2009, is located at United States Naval Station, Guantánamo Bay, Cuba, and who—

(1) is not a citizen of the United States or a member of the Armed Forces of the United States; and

(2) is—

(A) in the custody or under the effective control of the Department of Defense; or

(B) otherwise under detention at United States Naval Station, Guantánamo Bay, Cuba.

SEC. 8114. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available in this Act may be used to transfer any individual detained at United States Naval Station Guantánamo Bay, Cuba, to the custody or control of the individual's country of origin, any other foreign country, or any other foreign entity except in accordance with section 1035 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2014.

SEC. 8115. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used in contravention of section 1590 or 1591 of title 18, United States Code, or in contravention of the requirements of section 106(g) or (h) of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7104(g) or (h)).

SEC. 8116. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used in contravention of the War Powers Resolution (50 U.S.C. 1541 et seq.).

SEC. 8117. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used by the Department of Defense or any other Federal agency to lease or purchase new light duty vehicles, for any executive fleet, or for an agency's fleet inventory, except in accordance with Presidential Memorandum-Federal Fleet Performance, dated May 24, 2011.

SEC. 8118. (a) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act may be used by the Secretary of Defense, or any other official or officer of the Department of Defense, to enter into a contract, memorandum of understanding, or cooperative agreement with, or make a grant to, or provide a loan or loan guarantee to Rosoboronexport or any subsidiary of Rosoboronexport.

(b) The Secretary of Defense may waive the limitation in subsection (a) if the Secretary, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, determines that it is in the vital national security interest of the United States to do so, and certifies in writing to the congressional defense committees that, to the best of the Secretary's knowledge:

(1) Rosoboronexport has ceased the transfer of lethal military equipment to, and the maintenance of existing lethal military equipment for, the Government of the Syrian Arab Republic;

(2) The armed forces of the Russian Federation have withdrawn from Crimea, other than armed forces present on military bases subject to agreements in force between the Government of the Russian Federation and the Government of Ukraine; and

(3) Agents of the Russian Federation have ceased taking active measures to destabilize the control of the Government of Ukraine over eastern Ukraine.

(c) The Inspector General of the Department of Defense shall conduct a review of any action involving Rosoboronexport with respect to a waiver issued by the Secretary of Defense pursuant to subsection (b), and not later than 90 days after the date on which such a waiver is issued by the Secretary of Defense, the Inspector General shall submit to the congressional defense committees a report containing the results of the review conducted with respect to such waiver.

SEC. 8119. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used for the purchase or manufacture of a flag of the United States unless such flags are treated as covered items under section 2533a(b) of title 10, United States Code.

SEC. 8120. None of the funds appropriated in this or any other Act may be obligated or expended by the United States Government for the direct personal benefit of the President of Afghanistan.

SEC. 8121. (a) Of the funds appropriated in this Act for the Department of Defense, amounts may be made available, under such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, to local military commanders appointed by the Secretary of Defense, or by an officer or employee designated by the Secretary, to provide at their discretion ex gratia payments in amounts consistent with subsection (d) of this section for damage, personal injury, or death that is incident to combat operations of the Armed Forces in a foreign country.

(b) An ex gratia payment under this section may be provided only if—

(1) the prospective foreign civilian recipient is determined by the local military commander to be friendly to the United States;

(2) a claim for damages would not be compensable under chapter 163 of title 10, United States Code (commonly known as the "Foreign Claims Act"); and

(3) the property damage, personal injury, or death was not caused by action by an enemy.

(c) NATURE OF PAYMENTS.—Any payments provided under a program under subsection (a) shall not be considered an admission or acknowledgement of any legal obligation to compensate for any damage, personal injury, or death.

(d) AMOUNT OF PAYMENTS.—If the Secretary of Defense determines a program under subsection (a) to be appropriate in a particular setting, the amounts of payments, if any, to be provided to civilians determined to have suffered harm incident to combat operations of the Armed Forces under the program should be determined pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Secretary and based on an assessment, which should include such factors as cultural appropriateness and prevailing economic conditions.

(e) LEGAL ADVICE.—Local military commanders shall receive legal advice before making ex gratia payments under this subsection. The legal advisor, under regulations of the Department of Defense, shall advise on whether an ex gratia payment is proper under this section and applicable Department of Defense regulations.

(f) WRITTEN RECORD.—A written record of any ex gratia payment offered or denied shall be kept by the local commander and on a timely basis submitted to the appropriate office in the Department of Defense as determined by the Secretary of Defense.

(g) REPORT.—The Secretary of Defense shall report to the congressional defense committees on an annual basis the efficacy of the ex gratia payment program including the number of types of cases considered, amounts offered, the response from ex gratia payment recipients, and any recommended modifications to the program.

(h) LIMITATION.—Nothing in this section shall be deemed to provide any new authority to the Secretary of Defense.

SEC. 8122. None of the funds available in this Act to the Department of Defense, other than appropriations made for necessary or routine refurbishments, upgrades or maintenance activities, shall be used to reduce or to prepare to reduce the number of deployed and non-deployed strategic delivery vehicles and launchers below the levels set forth in the report submitted to Congress in accordance with section 1042 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012.

SEC. 8123. The Secretary of Defense shall post grant awards on a public Web site in a searchable format.

SEC. 8124. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to cancel the avionics modernization program of record for C-130 aircraft: Provided, That the Secretary of the Air Force may proceed with a reduced scope program to address safety and airspace compliance requirements, using funds provided in this bill and previous funds appropriated for the avionics modernization program of record, consistent with the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015.

SEC. 8125. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used by the Secretary of the Air Force to reduce the force structure at Lajes Field, Azores, Portugal, below the force structure at such Air Force Base as of October 1, 2013, except in accordance with section 1063 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015.

SEC. 8126. None of the Operation and Maintenance funds made available in this Act may be used in contravention of section 41106 of title 49, United States Code.

SEC. 8127. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to fund the performance of a flight demonstration team at a location outside of the United States: Provided, That this prohibition applies only if a performance of a flight demonstration team at a location within the United States was canceled during the current fiscal year due to insufficient funding.

SEC. 8128. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used by the National Security Agency to—

(1) conduct an acquisition pursuant to section 702 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978 for the purpose of targeting a United States person; or

(2) acquire, monitor, or store the contents (as such term is defined in section 2510(8) of title 18, United States Code) of any electronic communication of a United States person from a provider of electronic communication services to the public pursuant to section 501 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978.

SEC. 8131. None of the funds made available by this Act may be obligated or expended to divest E-3 airborne warning and control system aircraft, or disestablish any units of the active or reserve component associated with such aircraft: Provided, That not later than 90 days following the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of the Air Force shall submit to the congressional defense committees a report providing a detailed explanation of how the Secretary will meet the priority requirements of the commanders of the combatant commands related to airborne warning and control with a fleet of fewer than 31 E-3 aircraft.

SEC. 8132. None of the funds made available by this Act may be obligated or expended to implement the Arms Trade Treaty until the Senate approves a resolution of ratification for the Treaty.

SEC. 8133. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to transfer or divest AH-64 Apache helicopters from the Army National Guard to the active Army in fiscal year 2015: Provided, That the Secretary of the Army shall ensure the continuing readiness of the AH-64 Apache aircraft and ensure the training of the crews of such aircraft during fiscal year 2015, including the allocation of funds for operation and maintenance and personnel connected with such aircraft: Provided further, That this section shall continue in effect through the date of enactment of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015.

SEC. 8134. None of the funds made available in this Act may be obligated for activities authorized under section 1208 of the Ronald W. Reagan National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2005 (Public Law 112-81; 125 Stat. 1621) to initiate support for, or expand support to, foreign forces, irregular forces, groups, or individuals unless the congressional defense committees are notified in accordance with the direction contained in the classified annex accompanying this Act, not less than 15 days before initiating such support: Provided, That none of the funds made available in this Act may be used under such section 1208 for any activity that is not in support of an ongoing military operation being conducted by United States Special Operations Forces to combat terrorism: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense may waive the prohibitions in this section if the Secretary determines that such waiver is required by extraordinary circumstances and, by not later than 72 hours after making such waiver, notifies the congressional defense committees of such waiver.

SEC. 8135. (a) Within 90 days of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall submit a report to the congressional defense committees to assess whether the justification and approval requirements under section 811 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010 (Public Law 111-84; 123 Stat. 2405) have, inconsistent with the intent of Congress—

(1) negatively impacted the ability of covered entities to be awarded sole-source contracts with the Department of Defense greater than $20,000,000;

(2) discouraged agencies from awarding contracts greater than $20,000,000 to covered entities; and

(3) been misconstrued and/or inconsistently implemented.

(b) The Comptroller General shall analyze and report to the congressional defense committees on the sufficiency of the Department's report in addressing the requirements; review the extent to which section 811 has negatively impacted the ability of covered entities to be awarded sole-source contracts with the Department, discouraged agencies from awarding contracts, or been misconstrued and/or inconsistently implemented.

SEC. 8136. The Secretary of the Air Force shall designate a facility located on Scott Air Force Base, Illinois, to be named after Senator Alan J. Dixon in recognition of his significant public service achievements.

SEC. 8137. None of the funds in this Act may be used to require that seafood procured for the Department of Defense from sustainably managed fisheries in the United States, as determined by the National Marine Fisheries Service, be required to additionally meet sustainability certification criteria prescribed by third-party nongovernmental organizations.

SEC. 8138. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to—

(1) disestablish, or prepare to disestablish, a Senior Reserve Officers' Training Corps program in accordance with Department of Defense Instruction Number 1215.08, dated June 26, 2006; or

(2) close, downgrade from host to extension center, or place on probation a Senior Reserve Officers' Training Corps program in accordance with the information paper of the Department of the Army titled "Army Senior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (SROTC) Program Review and Criteria", dated January 27, 2014.

SEC. 8139. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be used to retire, divest, or transfer, or to prepare or plan for the retirement, divestment, or transfer of, the entire KC-10 fleet during fiscal year 2015.

SEC. 8140. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used with respect to Iraq in contravention of the War Powers Resolution (50 U.S.C. 1541 et seq.), including for the introduction of United States armed forces into hostilities in Iraq, into situations in Iraq where imminent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated by the circumstances, or into Iraqi territory, airspace, or waters while equipped for combat, in contravention of the congressional consultation and reporting requirements of sections 3 and 4 of such Resolution (50 U.S.C. 1542 and 1543).

SEC. 8141. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to divest, retire, transfer, or place in storage, or prepare to divest, retire, transfer, or place in storage, any A-10 aircraft, or to disestablish any units of the active or reserve component associated with such aircraft.

For the “Joint Improved Explosive Device Defeat Fund”, $444,464,000, to remain available until September 30, 2017: Provided, That such funds shall be available to the Secretary of Defense, notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the purpose of allowing the Director of the Joint Improved Explosive Device Defeat Organization to investigate, develop and provide equipment, supplies, services, training, facilities, personnel and funds to assist United States forces in the defeat of improvised explosive devices: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense may transfer funds provided herein to appropriations for military personnel; operation and maintenance; procurement; research, development, test and evaluation; and defense working capital funds to accomplish the purpose provided herein: Provided further, That this transfer authority is in addition to any other transfer authority available to the Department of Defense: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense shall, not fewer than 15 days prior to making transfers from this appropriation, notify the congressional defense committees in writing of the details of any such transfer: Provided further, That such amount is designated by the Congress for Overseas Contingency Operations/Global War on Terrorism pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(ii) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

For an additional amount for the “Office of the Inspector General”, $10,623,000: Provided, That such amount is designated by the Congress for Overseas Contingency Operations/Global War on Terrorism pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(ii) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—THIS TITLE

SEC. 9001. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, funds made available in this title are in addition to amounts appropriated or otherwise made available for the Department of Defense for fiscal year 2015.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 9002. Upon the determination of the Secretary of Defense that such action is necessary in the national interest, the Secretary may, with the approval of the Office of Management and Budget, transfer up to $3,500,000,000 between the appropriations or funds made available to the Department of Defense in this title: Provided, That the Secretary shall notify the Congress promptly of each transfer made pursuant to the authority in this section: Provided further, That the authority provided in this section is in addition to any other transfer authority available to the Department of Defense and is subject to the same terms and conditions as the authority provided in the Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 2015.

SEC. 9003. Supervision and administration costs and costs for design during construction associated with a construction project funded with appropriations available for operation and maintenance or the “Afghanistan Security Forces Fund” provided in this Act and executed in direct support of overseas contingency operations in Afghanistan, may be obligated at the time a construction contract is awarded: Provided, That for the purpose of this section, supervision and administration costs and costs for design during construction include all in-house Government costs.

SEC. 9004. From funds made available in this title, the Secretary of Defense may purchase for use by military and civilian employees of the Department of Defense in the U.S. Central Command area of responsibility: (a) passenger motor vehicles up to a limit of $75,000 per vehicle; and (b) heavy and light armored vehicles for the physical security of personnel or for force protection purposes up to a limit of $250,000 per vehicle, notwithstanding price or other limitations applicable to the purchase of passenger carrying vehicles.

SEC. 9005. Not to exceed $10,000,000 of the amounts appropriated in this title under the heading “Operation and Maintenance, Army” may be used, notwithstanding any other provision of law, to fund the Commander's Emergency Response Program (CERP), for the purpose of enabling military commanders in Afghanistan to respond to urgent, small-scale, humanitarian relief and reconstruction requirements within their areas of responsibility: Provided, That each project (including any ancillary or related elements in connection with such project) executed under this authority shall not exceed $2,000,000: Provided further, That not later than 45 days after the end of each fiscal year quarter, the Secretary of Defense shall submit to the congressional defense committees a report regarding the source of funds and the allocation and use of funds during that quarter that were made available pursuant to the authority provided in this section or under any other provision of law for the purposes described herein: Provided further, That, not later than 30 days after the end of each month, the Army shall submit to the congressional defense committees monthly commitment, obligation, and expenditure data for the Commander's Emergency Response Program in Afghanistan: Provided further, That not less than 15 days before making funds available pursuant to the authority provided in this section or under any other provision of law for the purposes described herein for a project with a total anticipated cost for completion of $500,000 or more, the Secretary shall submit to the congressional defense committees a written notice containing each of the following:

(1) The location, nature and purpose of the proposed project, including how the project is intended to advance the military campaign plan for the country in which it is to be carried out.

(2) The budget, implementation timeline with milestones, and completion date for the proposed project, including any other CERP funding that has been or is anticipated to be contributed to the completion of the project.

(3) A plan for the sustainment of the proposed project, including the agreement with either the host nation, a non-Department of Defense agency of the United States Government or a third-party contributor to finance the sustainment of the activities and maintenance of any equipment or facilities to be provided through the proposed project.

SEC. 9006. Funds available to the Department of Defense for operation and maintenance may be used, notwithstanding any other provision of law, to provide supplies, services, transportation, including airlift and sealift, and other logistical support to coalition forces supporting military and stability operations in Afghanistan: Provided, That the Secretary of Defense shall provide quarterly reports to the congressional defense committees regarding support provided under this section.

SEC. 9007. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act shall be obligated or expended by the United States Government for a purpose as follows:

(1) To establish any military installation or base for the purpose of providing for the permanent stationing of United States Armed Forces in Iraq.

(2) To exercise United States control over any oil resource of Iraq.

(3) To establish any military installation or base for the purpose of providing for the permanent stationing of United States Armed Forces in Afghanistan.

SEC. 9008. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used in contravention of the following laws enacted or regulations promulgated to implement the United Nations Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (done at New York on December 10, 1984):

(1) Section 2340A of title 18, United States Code.

(2) Section 2242 of the Foreign Affairs Reform and Restructuring Act of 1998 (division G of Public Law 105-277; 112 Stat. 2681-822; 8 U.S.C. 1231 note) and regulations prescribed thereto, including regulations under part 208 of title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, and part 95 of title 22, Code of Federal Regulations.

(3) Sections 1002 and 1003 of the Department of Defense, Emergency Supplemental Appropriations to Address Hurricanes in the Gulf of Mexico, and Pandemic Influenza Act, 2006 (Public Law 109-148).

SEC. 9009. None of the funds provided for the "Afghanistan Security Forces Fund" (ASFF) may be obligated prior to the approval of a financial and activity plan by the Afghanistan Resources Oversight Council (AROC) of the Department of Defense: Provided, That the AROC must approve the requirement and acquisition plan for any service requirements in excess of $50,000,000 annually and any non-standard equipment requirements in excess of $100,000,000 using ASFF: Provided further, That the Department of Defense must certify to the congressional defense committees that the AROC has convened and approved a process for ensuring compliance with the requirements in the preceding proviso and accompanying report language for the ASFF.

SEC. 9010. Funds made available in this title to the Department of Defense for operation and maintenance may be used to purchase items having an investment unit cost of not more than $250,000: Provided, That, upon determination by the Secretary of Defense that such action is necessary to meet the operational requirements of a Commander of a Combatant Command engaged in contingency operations overseas, such funds may be used to purchase items having an investment item unit cost of not more than $500,000.

SEC. 9011. From funds made available to the Department of Defense in this title under the heading "Operation and Maintenance, Air Force", up to $140,000,000 may be used by the Secretary of Defense, notwithstanding any other provision of law, to support United States Government transition activities in Iraq by funding the operations and activities of the Office of Security Cooperation in Iraq and security assistance teams, including life support, transportation and personal security, and facilities renovation and construction, and site closeout activities prior to returning sites to the Government of Iraq: Provided, That to the extent authorized under the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015, the operations and activities that may be carried out by the Office of Security Cooperation in Iraq may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, include non-operational training activities in support of Iraqi Minister of Defense and Counter Terrorism Service personnel in an institutional environment to address capability gaps, integrate processes relating to intelligence, air sovereignty, combined arms, logistics and maintenance, and to manage and integrate defense-related institutions: Provided further, That not later than 30 days following the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of State shall submit to the congressional defense committees a plan for transitioning any such training activities that they determine are needed after the end of fiscal year 2015, to existing or new contracts for the sale of defense articles or defense services consistent with the provisions of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2751 et seq.): Provided further, That not less than 15 days before making funds available pursuant to the authority provided in this section, the Secretary of Defense shall submit to the congressional defense committees a written notice containing a detailed justification and timeline for the operations and activities of the Office of Security Cooperation in Iraq at each site where such operations and activities will be conducted during fiscal year 2015.

SEC. 9012. (a) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act under the heading "Operation and Maintenance, Defense-Wide" for payments under section 1233 of Public Law 110-181 for reimbursement to the Government of Pakistan may be made available unless the Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Secretary of State, certifies to the congressional defense committees that the Government of Pakistan is—

(1) cooperating with the United States in counterterrorism efforts against the Haqqani Network, the Quetta Shura Taliban, Lashkar e-Tayyiba, Jaish-e-Mohammed, Al Qaeda, and other domestic and foreign terrorist organizations, including taking steps to end support for such groups and prevent them from basing and operating in Pakistan and carrying out cross border attacks into neighboring countries;

(2) not supporting terrorist activities against United States or coalition forces in Afghanistan, and Pakistan's military and intelligence agencies are not intervening extra-judicially into political and judicial processes in Pakistan;

(3) dismantling improvised explosive device (IED) networks and interdicting precursor chemicals used in the manufacture of IEDs;

(4) preventing the proliferation of nuclear-related material and expertise;

(5) implementing policies to protect judicial independence and due process of law;

(6) issuing visas in a timely manner for United States visitors engaged in counterterrorism efforts and assistance programs in Pakistan; and

(7) providing humanitarian organizations access to detainees, internally displaced persons, and other Pakistani civilians affected by the conflict.

(b) The Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Secretary of State, may waive the restriction in paragraph (a) on a case-by-case basis by certifying in writing to the congressional defense committees that it is in the national security interest to do so: Provided, That if the Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Secretary of State, exercises such waiver authority, the Secretaries shall report to the congressional defense committees on both the justification for the waiver and on the requirements of this section that the Government of Pakistan was not able to meet: Provided further, That such report may be submitted in classified form if necessary.

(RESCISSIONS)

SEC. 9013. Of the funds appropriated in Department of Defense Appropriations Acts, the following funds are hereby rescinded from the following accounts and programs in the specified amounts: Provided, That such amounts are designated by the Congress for Overseas Contingency Operations/Global War on Terrorism pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(ii) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, as amended:

"Other Procurement, Army", 2013/2015, $8,200,000;

"Aircraft Procurement, Army", 2014/2016, $464,000,000; and

"Afghanistan Security Forces Fund", 2014/2015, $764,380,000.

SEC. 9014. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used with respect to Syria in contravention of the War Powers Resolution (50 U.S.C. 1541 et seq.), including for the introduction of United States armed or military forces into hostilities in Syria, into situations in Syria where imminent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated by the circumstances, or into Syrian territory, airspace, or waters while equipped for combat, in contravention of the congressional consultation and reporting requirements of sections 3 and 4 of that law (50 U.S.C. 1542 and 1543).

SEC. 9015. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this Act, $250,000,000 is hereby appropriated, notwithstanding any other provision of law, to conduct surface and sub-surface clearance of unexploded ordnance at closed training ranges used by the Armed Forces of the United States in Afghanistan: Provided, That such funds shall be available until September 30, 2016: Provided further, That such ranges shall not have been transferred to the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan for use by its armed forces: Provided further, That within 90 days of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall provide to the congressional defense committees a written plan to mitigate the threat of unexploded ordnance at such ranges, including a detailed spend plan: Provided further, That the Secretary of Defense shall provide the congressional defense committees written progress reports every 180 days after the submission of the initial plan, until such funds are fully expended: Provided further, That such amount is designated by the Congress for Overseas Contingency Operations/Global War on Terrorism pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(ii) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

SEC. 9016. The Secretary of Defense is authorized, in coordination with the Secretary of State, to provide assistance, including training, equipment, supplies, sustainment and stipends, to appropriately vetted elements of the Syrian opposition and other appropriately vetted Syrian groups or individuals for the following purposes: defending the Syrian people from attacks by the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL), and securing territory controlled by the Syrian opposition; protecting the United States, its friends and allies, and the Syrian people from the threats posed by terrorists in Syria; and promoting the conditions for a negotiated settlement to end the conflict in Syria: Provided, That up to $500,000,000 of funds appropriated for the Counterterrorism Partnerships Fund may be used for activities authorized by this section: Provided further, That the Secretary may accept and retain contributions, including assistance in-kind, from foreign governments to carry out activities as authorized by this section and shall be credited to the appropriate appropriations accounts, except that any funds so accepted by the Secretary shall not be available for obligation until a reprogramming action is submitted to the congressional defense committees: Provided further, That the President and the Secretary of Defense shall comply with the reporting requirements in section 149(b)(1), (b)(2), (c), and (d) of the Continuing Appropriations Resolution, 2015 (Public Law 113-164): Provided further, That the term “appropriately vetted” as used in this section shall be construed to mean, at a minimum, assessments of possible recipients for associations with terrorist groups including the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL), Jabhat al Nusra, Ahrar al Sham, other al-Qaeda related groups, Hezbollah, or Shia militias supporting the Governments of Syria or Iran; and for commitment to the rule of law and a peaceful and democratic Syria: Provided further, That none of the funds used pursuant to this authority shall be used for the procurement or transfer of man portable air defense systems: Provided further, That nothing in this section shall be construed to constitute a specific statutory authorization for the introduction of the United States Armed Forces into hostilities or into situations wherein hostilities are clearly indicated by the circumstances, in accordance with section 8(a)(1) of the War Powers Resolution: Provided further, That amounts made available by this section are designated by the Congress for Overseas Contingency Operations/Global War on Terrorism pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(ii) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985: Provided further, That the authority to provide assistance under this section shall terminate on September 30, 2015.

SEC. 9017. None of the funds in this Act may be made available for the transfer of additional C-130 cargo aircraft to the Afghanistan National Security Forces or the Afghanistan Air Force until the Department of Defense provides a report to the congressional defense committees of the Afghanistan Air Force's medium airlift requirements. The report should identify Afghanistan's ability to utilize and maintain existing medium lift aircraft in the inventory and the best alternative platform, if necessary, to provide additional support to the Afghanistan Air Force's current medium airlift capacity.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 9018. In addition to amounts appropriated in title II or otherwise made available elsewhere in this Act, $1,000,000,000 is hereby appropriated to the Department of Defense and made available for transfer to the operation and maintenance accounts of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force (including National Guard and reserve) for purposes of improving military readiness: Provided, That the transfer authority provided under this provision is in addition to any other transfer authority provided elsewhere in this Act: Provided further, That such amount is designated by the Congress for Overseas Contingency Operations/Global War on Terrorism pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A)(ii) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

TITLE X

This division may be cited as the “Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 2015”.

DIVISION D—ENERGY AND WATER DEVELOPMENT AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

TITLE I

CORPS OF ENGINEERS—CIVIL DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY

CORPS OF ENGINEERS—CIVIL

The following appropriations shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Army and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers for authorized civil functions of the Department of the Army pertaining to river and harbor, flood and storm damage reduction, shore protection, aquatic ecosystem restoration, and related efforts.

INVESTIGATIONS

For expenses necessary where authorized by law for the collection and study of basic information pertaining to river and harbor, flood and storm damage reduction, shore protection, aquatic ecosystem restoration, and related needs; for surveys and detailed studies, and plans and specifications of proposed river and harbor, flood and storm damage reduction, shore protection, and aquatic ecosystem restoration projects, and related efforts prior to construction; for restudy of authorized projects; and for miscellaneous investigations, and, when authorized by law, surveys and detailed studies, and plans and specifications of projects prior to construction, $122,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That the Secretary may initiate up to, but not more than, 10 new study starts during fiscal year 2015: Provided further, That the new study starts will consist of seven studies where the majority of the benefits are derived from navigation transportation savings or from flood and storm damage reduction and three studies where the majority of the benefits are derived from environmental restoration: Provided further, That the Secretary shall not deviate from the new starts proposed in the work plan, once the plan has been submitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

CONSTRUCTION

For expenses necessary for the construction of river and harbor, flood and storm damage reduction, shore protection, aquatic ecosystem restoration, and related projects authorized by law; for conducting detailed studies, and plans and specifications, of such projects (including those involving participation by States, local governments, or private groups) authorized or made eligible for selection by law (but such detailed studies, and plans and specifications, shall not constitute a commitment of the Government to construction); $1,639,489,000, to remain available until expended; of which such sums as are necessary to cover the Federal share of construction costs for facilities under the Dredged Material Disposal Facilities program shall be derived from the Harbor Maintenance Trust Fund as authorized by Public Law 104-303; and of which such sums as are necessary to cover one-half of the costs of construction, replacement, rehabilitation, and expansion of inland waterways projects shall be derived from the Inland Waterways Trust Fund, except as otherwise specifically provided for in law: Provided, That the Secretary may initiate up to, but not more than, four new construction starts during fiscal year 2015: Provided further, That the new construction starts will consist of three projects where the majority of the benefits are derived from navigation transportation savings or from flood and storm damage reduction and one project where the majority of the benefits are derived from environmental restoration: Provided further, That for new construction projects, project cost sharing agreements shall be executed as soon as practicable but no later than August 31, 2015: Provided further, That no allocation for a new start shall be considered final and no work allowance shall be made until the Secretary provides to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate an out-year funding scenario demonstrating the affordability of the selected new start and the impacts on other projects: Provided further, That the Secretary may not deviate from the new starts proposed in the work plan, once the plan has been submitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER AND TRIBUTARIES

For expenses necessary for flood damage reduction projects and related efforts in the Mississippi River alluvial valley below Cape Girardeau, Missouri, as authorized by law, $302,000,000, to remain available until expended, of which such sums as are necessary to cover the Federal share of eligible operation and maintenance costs for inland harbors shall be derived from the Harbor Maintenance Trust Fund.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

For expenses necessary for the operation, maintenance, and care of existing river and harbor, flood and storm damage reduction, aquatic ecosystem restoration, and related projects authorized by law; providing security for infrastructure owned or operated by the Corps, including administrative buildings and laboratories; maintaining harbor channels provided by a State, municipality, or other public agency that serve essential navigation needs of general commerce, where authorized by law; surveying and charting northern and northwestern lakes and connecting waters; clearing and straightening channels; and removing obstructions to navigation, $2,908,511,000, to remain available until expended, of which such sums as are necessary to cover the Federal share of eligible operation and maintenance costs for coastal harbors and channels, and for inland harbors shall be derived from the Harbor Maintenance Trust Fund; of which such sums as become available from the special account for the Corps of Engineers established by the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965 shall be derived from that account for resource protection, research, interpretation, and maintenance activities related to resource protection in the areas at which outdoor recreation is available; and of which such sums as become available from fees collected under section 217 of Public Law 104-303 shall be used to cover the cost of operation and maintenance of the dredged material disposal facilities for which such fees have been collected: Provided, That 1 percent of the total amount of funds provided for each of the programs, projects, or activities funded under this heading shall not be allocated to a field operating activity prior to the beginning of the fourth quarter of the fiscal year and shall be available for use by the Chief of Engineers to fund such emergency activities as the Chief of Engineers determines to be necessary and appropriate, and that the Chief of Engineers shall allocate during the fourth quarter any remaining funds which have not been used for emergency activities proportionally in accordance with the amounts provided for the programs, projects, or activities.

REGULATORY PROGRAM

For expenses necessary for administration of laws pertaining to regulation of navigable waters and wetlands, $200,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

FORMERLY UTILIZED SITES REMEDIAL ACTION PROGRAM

For expenses necessary to clean up contamination from sites in the United States resulting from work performed as part of the Nation's early atomic energy program, $101,500,000, to remain available until expended.

FLOOD CONTROL AND COASTAL EMERGENCIES

For expenses necessary to prepare for flood, hurricane, and other natural disasters and support emergency operations, repairs, and other activities in response to such disasters as authorized by law, $28,000,000, to remain available until expended.

EXPENSES

For expenses necessary for the supervision and general administration of the civil works program in the headquarters of the Corps of Engineers and the offices of the Division Engineers; and for costs of management and operation of the Humphreys Engineer Center Support Activity, the Institute for Water Resources, the United States Army Engineer Research and Development Center, and the United States Army Corps of Engineers Finance Center allocable to the civil works program, $178,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, of which not to exceed $5,000 may be used for official reception and representation purposes and only during the current fiscal year: Provided, That no part of any other appropriation provided in title I of this Act shall be available to fund the civil works activities of the Office of the Chief of Engineers or the civil works executive direction and management activities of the division offices: Provided further, That any Flood Control and Coastal Emergencies appropriation may be used to fund the supervision and general administration of emergency operations, repairs, and other activities in response to any flood, hurricane, or other natural disaster.

OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE ARMY FOR CIVIL WORKS

For the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Civil Works as authorized by 10 U.S.C. 3016(b)(3), $3,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—CORPS OF ENGINEERS—CIVIL

(INCLUDING TRANSFER AND RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

SEC. 101. (a) None of the funds provided in title I of this Act, or provided by previous appropriations Acts to the agencies or entities funded in title I of this Act that remain available for obligation or expenditure in fiscal year 2015, shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming of funds that:

- (1) creates or initiates a new program, project, or activity;
- (2) eliminates a program, project, or activity;
- (3) increases funds or personnel for any program, project, or activity for which funds have been denied or restricted by this Act, unless prior approval is received from the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations;
- (4) proposes to use funds directed for a specific activity for a different purpose, unless prior approval is received from the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations;
- (5) augments or reduces existing programs, projects, or activities in excess of the amounts contained in paragraphs 6 through 10, unless prior approval is received from the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations;

(6) INVESTIGATIONS.—For a base level over $100,000, reprogramming of 25 percent of the base amount up to a limit of $150,000 per project, study or activity is allowed: Provided, That for a base level less than $100,000, the reprogramming limit is $25,000: Provided further, That up to $25,000 may be reprogrammed into any continuing study or activity that did not receive an appropriation for existing obligations and concomitant administrative expenses;

(7) CONSTRUCTION.—For a base level over $2,000,000, reprogramming of 15 percent of the base amount up to a limit of $3,000,000 per project, study or activity is allowed: Provided, That for a base level less than $2,000,000, the reprogramming limit is $300,000: Provided further, That up to $3,000,000 may be reprogrammed for settled contractor claims, changed conditions, or real estate deficiency judgments: Provided further, That up to $300,000 may be reprogrammed into any continuing study or activity that did not receive an appropriation for existing obligations and concomitant administrative expenses;

(8) OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE.—Unlimited reprogramming authority is granted for the Corps to be able to respond to emergencies: Provided, That the Chief of Engineers shall notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations of these emergency actions as soon thereafter as practicable: Provided further, That for a base level over $1,000,000, reprogramming of 15 percent of the base amount up to a limit of $5,000,000 per project, study or activity is allowed: Provided further, That for a base level less than $1,000,000, the reprogramming limit is $150,000: Provided further, That $150,000 may be reprogrammed into any continuing study or activity that did not receive an appropriation;

(9) MISSISSIPPI RIVER AND TRIBUTARIES.—The reprogramming guidelines in paragraphs (6), (7), and (8) shall apply to the Investigations, Construction, and Operation and Maintenance portions of the Mississippi River and Tributaries Account respectively; and

(10) FORMERLY UTILIZED SITES REMEDIAL ACTION PROGRAM.—Reprogramming of up to 15 percent of the base of the receiving project is permitted.

(b) DE MINIMIS REPROGRAMMINGS.—In no case should a reprogramming for less than $50,000 be submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

(c) CONTINUING AUTHORITIES PROGRAM.—Subsection (a)(1) shall not apply to any project or activity funded under the continuing authorities program.

(d) Not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations to establish the baseline for application of reprogramming and transfer authorities for the current fiscal year which shall include:

- (1) A table for each appropriation with a separate column to display the President's budget request, adjustments made by Congress, adjustments due to enacted rescissions, if applicable, and the fiscal year enacted level; and
- (2) A delineation in the table for each appropriation both by object class and program, project and activity as detailed in the budget appendix for the respective appropriations; and
- (3) An identification of items of special congressional interest.

SEC. 102. None of the funds made available in this title may be used to award or modify any contract that commits funds beyond the amounts appropriated for that program, project, or activity that remain unobligated, except that such amounts may include any funds that have been made available through reprogramming pursuant to section 101.

SEC. 103. The Secretary of the Army may transfer to the Fish and Wildlife Service, and the Fish and Wildlife Service may accept and expend, up to $4,700,000 of funds provided in this title under the heading "Operation and Maintenance" to mitigate for fisheries lost due to Corps of Engineers projects.

SEC. 104. Subsection (a)(6) of section 511 of the Water Resources Development Act of 1996 (16 U.S.C. 3301 note; 110 Stat. 3761–3762; 113 Stat. 375–376; 121 Stat. 1203) is amended by striking "$25,000,000" and inserting "$43,400,000".

SEC. 105. The Secretary shall allocate funds made available in this Act solely in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the explanatory statement described in section 4 (in the matter preceding division A of this consolidated Act), including the determination and designation of new starts.

SEC. 106. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to continue the study conducted by the Army Corps of Engineers pursuant to section 5018(a)(1) of the Water Resources Development Act of 2007 (Public Law 110–114).

SEC. 107. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used within the borders of the State of Louisiana by the Mississippi Valley Division or the Southwestern Division of the Army Corps of Engineers or any district of the Corps within such divisions to implement or enforce the mitigation methodology, referred to as the "Modified Charleston Method".

SEC. 108. (a) Of the funds made available in prior appropriations Acts for water resources efforts under the headings "Corps of Engineers—Civil, Department of the Army" that remain unobligated as of the date of enactment of this Act, including amounts specified in law for particular projects, programs, or activities, $28,000,000 is rescinded.

(b) None of the funds under subsection (a) may be rescinded from amounts that the Congress designated as an emergency requirement pursuant to the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, as amended.

SEC. 109. None of the funds made available in this or any other Act making appropriations for Energy and Water Development for any fiscal year may be used by the Corps of Engineers during the fiscal year ending September 30, 2015, to develop, adopt, implement, administer, or enforce any change to the regulations in effect on October 1, 2012, pertaining to the definitions of the terms "fill material" or "discharge of fill material" for the purposes of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. 1251 et seq.).

SEC. 110. The limited reevaluation report initiated in fiscal year 2012 for the Mobile Harbor, Alabama navigation project shall include evaluation of the full depth of the project as authorized under section 201 of Public Law 99–662 (110 Stat. 4090) at the same non-Federal share of the cost as in the design agreement executed on August 14, 2012.

SEC. 111. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to require a permit for the discharge of dredged or fill material under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. 1251, et seq.) for the activities identified in subparagraphs (A) and (C) of section 404(f)(1) of the Act (33 U.S.C. 1344(f)(1)(A),(C)).

SEC. 112. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of the Army shall withdraw the interpretive rule, "U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of the Army Interpretive Rule Regarding the Applicability of the Clean Water Act Section 404(f)(1)(A)," signed on March 25, 2014.

TITLE II

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

CENTRAL UTAH PROJECT

CENTRAL UTAH PROJECT COMPLETION ACCOUNT

For carrying out activities authorized by the Central Utah Project Completion Act, $9,874,000, to remain available until expended, of which $1,000,000 shall be deposited into the Utah Reclamation Mitigation and Conservation Account for use by the Utah Reclamation Mitigation and Conservation Commission: Provided, That of the amount provided under this heading, $1,300,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for necessary expenses incurred in carrying out related responsibilities of the Secretary of the Interior: Provided further, That for fiscal year 2015, of the amount made available to the Commission under this Act or any other Act, the Commission may use an amount not to exceed $1,500,000 for administrative expenses.

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION

The following appropriations shall be expended to execute authorized functions of the Bureau of Reclamation:

WATER AND RELATED RESOURCES

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

For management, development, and restoration of water and related natural resources and for related activities, including the operation, maintenance, and rehabilitation of reclamation and other facilities, participation in fulfilling related Federal responsibilities to Native Americans, and related grants to, and cooperative and other agreements with, State and local governments, federally recognized Indian tribes, and others, $978,131,000, to remain available until expended, of which $25,000 shall be available for transfer to the Upper Colorado River Basin Fund and $6,840,000 shall be available for transfer to the Lower Colorado River Basin Development Fund; of which such amounts as may be necessary may be advanced to the Colorado River Dam Fund: Provided, That such transfers may be increased or decreased within the overall appropriation under this heading: Provided further, That of the total appropriated, the amount for program activities that can be financed by the Reclamation Fund or the Bureau of Reclamation special fee account established by 16 U.S.C. 6806 shall be derived from that Fund or account: Provided further, That funds contributed under 43 U.S.C. 395 are available until expended for the purposes for which the funds were contributed: Provided further, That funds advanced under 43 U.S.C. 397a shall be credited to this account and are available until expended for the same purposes as the sums appropriated under this heading: Provided further, That of the amounts provided herein, funds may be used for high-priority projects which shall be carried out by the Youth Conservation Corps, as authorized by 16 U.S.C. 1706.

CENTRAL VALLEY PROJECT RESTORATION FUND

For carrying out the programs, projects, plans, habitat restoration, improvement, and acquisition provisions of the Central Valley Project Improvement Act, $56,995,000, to be derived from such sums as may be collected in the Central Valley Project Restoration Fund pursuant to sections 3407(d), 3404(c)(3), and 3405(f) of Public Law 102–575, to remain available until expended: Provided, That the Bureau of Reclamation is directed to assess and collect the full amount of the additional mitigation and restoration payments authorized by section 3407(d) of Public Law 102–575: Provided further, That none of the funds made available under this heading may be used for the acquisition or leasing of water for in-stream purposes if the water is already committed to in-stream purposes by a court adopted decree or order.

CALIFORNIA BAY-DELTA RESTORATION

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

For carrying out activities authorized by the Water Supply, Reliability, and Environmental Improvement Act, consistent with plans to be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, $37,000,000, to remain available until expended, of which such amounts as may be necessary to carry out such activities may be transferred to appropriate accounts of other participating Federal agencies to carry out authorized purposes: Provided, That funds appropriated herein may be used for the Federal share of the costs of CALFED Program management: Provided further, That CALFED implementation shall be carried out in a balanced manner with clear performance measures demonstrating concurrent progress in achieving the goals and objectives of the Program.

POLICY AND ADMINISTRATION

For necessary expenses of policy, administration, and related functions in the Office of the Commissioner, the Denver office, and offices in the five regions of the Bureau of Reclamation, to remain available until September 30, 2016, $58,500,000, to be derived from the Reclamation Fund and be nonreimbursable as provided in 43 U.S.C. 377: Provided, That no part of any other appropriation in this Act shall be available for activities or functions budgeted as policy and administration expenses.

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION LOAN PROGRAM ACCOUNT

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

Of the unobligated balances available under this heading, $500,000 is hereby rescinded.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

Appropriations for the Bureau of Reclamation shall be available for purchase of not to exceed five passenger motor vehicles, which are for replacement only.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

SEC. 201. (a) None of the funds provided in title II of this Act for Water and Related Resources, or provided by previous appropriations Acts to the agencies or entities funded in title II of this Act for Water and Related Resources that remain available for obligation or expenditure in fiscal year 2015, shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming of funds that—

(1) initiates or creates a new program, project, or activity;

(2) eliminates a program, project, or activity;

(3) increases funds for any program, project, or activity for which funds have been denied or restricted by this Act, unless prior approval is received from the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate;

(4) restarts or resumes any program, project or activity for which funds are not provided in this Act, unless prior approval is received from the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate;

(5) transfers funds in excess of the following limits, unless prior approval is received from the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate:

(A) 15 percent for any program, project or activity for which $2,000,000 or more is available at the beginning of the fiscal year; or

(B) $300,000 for any program, project or activity for which less than $2,000,000 is available at the beginning of the fiscal year;

(6) transfers more than $500,000 from either the Facilities Operation, Maintenance, and Rehabilitation category or the Resources Management and Development category to any program, project, or activity in the other category, unless prior approval is received from the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate; or

(7) transfers, where necessary to discharge legal obligations of the Bureau of Reclamation, more than $5,000,000 to provide adequate funds for settled contractor claims, increased contractor earnings due to accelerated rates of operations, and real estate deficiency judgments, unless prior approval is received from the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

(b) Subsection (a)(5) shall not apply to any transfer of funds within the Facilities Operation, Maintenance, and Rehabilitation category.

(c) For purposes of this section, the term transfer means any movement of funds into or out of a program, project, or activity.

(d) The Bureau of Reclamation shall submit reports on a quarterly basis to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate detailing all the funds reprogrammed between programs, projects, activities, or categories of funding. The first quarterly report shall be submitted not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 202. (a) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be used to determine the final point of discharge for the interceptor drain for the San Luis Unit until development by the Secretary of the Interior and the State of California of a plan, which shall conform to the water quality standards of the State of California as approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, to minimize any detrimental effect of the San Luis drainage waters.

(b) The costs of the Kesterson Reservoir Cleanup Program and the costs of the San Joaquin Valley Drainage Program shall be classified by the Secretary of the Interior as reimbursable or nonreimbursable and collected until fully repaid pursuant to the "Cleanup Program—Alternative Repayment Plan" and the "SJVDP—Alternative Repayment Plan" described in the report entitled "Repayment Report, Kesterson Reservoir Cleanup Program and San Joaquin Valley Drainage Program, February 1995", prepared by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Reclamation. Any future obligations of funds by the United States relating to, or providing for, drainage service or drainage studies for the San Luis Unit shall be fully reimbursable by San Luis Unit beneficiaries of such service or studies pursuant to Federal reclamation law.

SEC. 203. Section 9504(e) of the Secure Water Act of 2009 (42 U.S.C. 10364(e)) is amended by striking "$200,000,000" and inserting "$300,000,000".

SEC. 204. Section 301 of the Reclamation States Emergency Drought Relief Act of 1991 (43 U.S.C. 2241) is amended by striking "2012" and inserting "2017".

SEC. 205. Title I of Public Law 108-361 (the Calfed Bay-Delta Authorization Act) (118 Stat. 1681), as amended by section 210 of Public Law 111-85, is amended by striking "2015" each place it appears and inserting "2016".

SEC. 206. (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of the Interior may fund or participate in pilot projects to increase Colorado River System water in Lake Mead and the initial units of Colorado River Storage Project reservoirs, as authorized by the first section of the Act of April 11, 1956 (43 U.S.C. 620), to address the effects of historic drought conditions.

(b) ADMINISTRATION.—Pilot projects under this section are authorized to be funded through—

(1) grants by the Secretary to public entities that use water from the Colorado River Basin for municipal purposes for projects that are implemented by 1 or more non-Federal entities; or

(2) grants or other appropriate financial agreements to provide additional funds for renewing or implementing water conservation agreements that are in existence on the date of enactment of this Act.

(c) LIMITATIONS.—

(1) Funds in the Upper Colorado River Basin Fund established by section 5 of the Colorado River Storage Project Act (43 U.S.C. 620d) and the Lower Colorado River Basin Development Fund established by section 403 of the Colorado River Basin Project Act (43 U.S.C. 1543) shall not be used to carry out this section; and

(2) the authority to fund these pilot projects through grants shall terminate on September 30, 2018.

(d) REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION.—Not later than September 30, 2018, the Secretary shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations and Natural Resources of the House of Representatives and the Committees on Appropriations and Energy and Natural Resources of the Senate a report evaluating the effectiveness of the pilot projects described in subsection (a) and a recommendation to Congress whether the activities undertaken by the pilot projects should be continued.

TITLE III

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY ENERGY PROGRAMS

ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND RENEWABLE ENERGY (INCLUDING TRANSFER AND RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

For Department of Energy expenses including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment, and other expenses necessary for energy efficiency and renewable energy activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, $1,936,999,858, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $160,000,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction: Provided further, That, of the amount provided under this heading, the Secretary may transfer up to $45,000,000 to the Defense Production Act Fund for activities of the Department of Energy pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. App. 2061, et seq.): Provided further, That $13,064,858 from unobligated balances available from prior year appropriations provided under this heading is hereby rescinded, of which $145,204 is from Public Law 111-8 and $696,654 is from Public Law 111-85: Provided further, That no amounts may be rescinded from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

ELECTRICITY DELIVERY AND ENERGY RELIABILITY

For Department of Energy expenses including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment, and other expenses necessary for electricity delivery and energy reliability activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, $147,306,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $27,606,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction.

NUCLEAR ENERGY

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

For Department of Energy expenses including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment, and other expenses necessary for nuclear energy activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, $913,500,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That, of the amount made available under this heading, $80,000,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction including official reception and representation expenses not to exceed $10,000: Provided further, That, of the funds made available under this heading in prior years, $80,000,000 of unobligated balances is hereby rescinded, including up to $18,000,000 from funds provided for program direction activities: Provided further, That no amounts may be rescinded from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

FOSSIL ENERGY RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

For Department of Energy expenses necessary in carrying out fossil energy research and development activities, under the authority of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91), including the acquisition of interest, including defeasible and equitable interests in any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition or expansion, and for conducting inquiries, technological investigations and research concerning the extraction, processing, use, and disposal of mineral substances without objectionable social and environmental costs (30 U.S.C. 3, 1602, and 1603), $571,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $119,000,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction.

NAVAL PETROLEUM AND OIL SHALE RESERVES

For Department of Energy expenses necessary to carry out naval petroleum and oil shale reserve activities, $19,950,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That, notwithstanding any other provision of law, unobligated funds remaining from prior years shall be available for all naval petroleum and oil shale reserve activities.

ELK HILLS SCHOOL LANDS FUND

For necessary expenses in fulfilling the final payment under the Settlement Agreement entered into by the United States and the State of California on October 11, 1996, as authorized by section 3415 of Public Law 104-106, $15,579,815, for payment to the State of California for the State Teachers' Retirement Fund, of which $15,579,815 shall be derived from the Elk Hills School Lands Fund.

STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVE

For Department of Energy expenses necessary for Strategic Petroleum Reserve facility development and operations and program management activities pursuant to the Energy Policy and Conservation Act (42 U.S.C. 6201 et seq.), $200,000,000, to remain available until expended.

NORTHEAST HOME HEATING OIL RESERVE
(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

For Department of Energy expenses necessary for Northeast Home Heating Oil Reserve storage, operation, and management activities pursuant to the Energy Policy and Conservation Act (42 U.S.C. 6201 et seq.), $7,600,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That of the unobligated balances from prior year appropriations available under this heading, $6,000,000 is hereby rescinded: Provided further, That no amounts may be rescinded from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

ENERGY INFORMATION ADMINISTRATION

For Department of Energy expenses necessary in carrying out the activities of the Energy Information Administration, $117,000,000, to remain available until expended.

NON-DEFENSE ENVIRONMENTAL CLEANUP

For Department of Energy expenses, including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other expenses necessary for non-defense environmental cleanup activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, $246,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That funding made available under this heading may be made available for 15-D-410 Fort St. Vrain Facility Improvements Project.

URANIUM ENRICHMENT DECONTAMINATION AND DECOMMISSIONING FUND

For Department of Energy expenses necessary in carrying out uranium enrichment facility decontamination and decommissioning, remedial actions, and other activities of title II of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, and title X, subtitle A, of the Energy Policy Act of 1992, $625,000,000, to be derived from the Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund, to remain available until expended, of which $10,000,000 shall be available in accordance with title X, subtitle A, of the Energy Policy Act of 1992.

SCIENCE

For Department of Energy expenses including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment, and other expenses necessary for science activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, and purchase of not more than 17 passenger motor vehicles for replacement only, including two buses, $5,071,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $183,700,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction: Provided further, That no funding may be made available for United States cash contributions to the International Thermonuclear Experimental Reactor project until its governing Council implements the recommendations of the Third Biennial International Organization Management Assessment Report: Provided further, That the Secretary of Energy may waive this requirement upon submission to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a determination that the Council is making satisfactory progress towards implementation of such recommendations.

ADVANCED RESEARCH PROJECTS AGENCY—ENERGY

For Department of Energy expenses necessary in carrying out the activities authorized by section 5012 of the America COMPETES Act (Public Law 110-69), as amended, $280,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $28,000,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction.

TITLE 17 INNOVATIVE TECHNOLOGY LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM

Such sums as are derived from amounts received from borrowers pursuant to section 1702(b) of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 under this heading in prior Acts, shall be collected in accordance with section 502(7) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974: Provided, That, for necessary administrative expenses to carry out this Loan Guarantee program, $42,000,000 is appropriated, to remain available until September 30, 2016: Provided further, That $25,000,000 of the fees collected pursuant to section 1702(h) of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 shall be credited as offsetting collections to this account to cover administrative expenses and shall remain available until expended, so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation from the general fund estimated at not more than $17,000,000: Provided further, That fees collected under section 1702(h) in excess of the amount appropriated for administrative expenses shall not be available until appropriated: Provided further, That the Department of Energy shall not subordinate any loan obligation to other financing in violation of section 1702 of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 or subordinate any Guaranteed Obligation to any loan or other debt obligations in violation of section 609.10 of title 10, Code of Federal Regulations.

ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY VEHICLES
MANUFACTURING LOAN PROGRAM

For Department of Energy administrative expenses necessary in carrying out the Advanced Technology Vehicles Manufacturing Loan Program, $4,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

CLEAN COAL TECHNOLOGY
(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

Of the unobligated balances from prior year appropriations under this heading, $6,600,000 is hereby permanently rescinded: Provided, That no amounts may be rescinded from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, as amended.

DEPARTMENTAL ADMINISTRATION

For salaries and expenses of the Department of Energy necessary for departmental administration in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), $245,142,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, including the hire of passenger motor vehicles and official reception and representation expenses not to exceed $30,000, plus such additional amounts as necessary to cover increases in the estimated amount of cost of work for others notwithstanding the provisions of the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. 1511 et seq.): Provided, That such increases in cost of work are offset by revenue increases of the same or greater amount: Provided further, That moneys received by the Department for miscellaneous revenues estimated to total $119,171,000 in fiscal year 2015 may be retained and used for operating expenses within this account, as authorized by section 201 of Public Law 95-238, notwithstanding the provisions of 31 U.S.C. 3302: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated shall be reduced as collections are received during the fiscal year so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation from the general fund estimated at not more than $125,971,000: Provided further, That $31,181,000 is for Energy Policy and Systems Analysis: Provided further, That of the funds made available for Energy Policy and Systems Analysis, the Secretary may obligate only $26,000,000 until the report required under section 315(f) of this Act has been submitted to Congress.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

For necessary expenses of the Office of the Inspector General in carrying out the provisions of the Inspector General Act of 1978, $40,500,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

ATOMIC ENERGY DEFENSE ACTIVITIES
NATIONAL NUCLEAR SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

For Department of Energy expenses, including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other incidental expenses necessary for atomic energy defense weapons activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, and the purchase of not to exceed 4 passenger vehicles, $8,231,770,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $97,118,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction: Provided further, That of the unobligated balances from prior year appropriations available under this heading, $45,113,000 is hereby rescinded: Provided further, That no amounts may be rescinded from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

DEFENSE NUCLEAR NONPROLIFERATION
(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

For Department of Energy expenses, including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other incidental expenses necessary for defense nuclear nonproliferation activities, in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, $1,641,369,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That funds provided by this Act for Project 99-D-143, Mixed Oxide Fuel Fabrication Facility, and by prior Acts that remain unobligated for such Project, may be made available only for construction and program support activities for such Project: Provided further, That of the unobligated balances from prior year appropriations available under this heading, $24,731,000 is hereby rescinded: Provided further, That no amounts may be rescinded from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

NAVAL REACTORS

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

For Department of Energy expenses necessary for naval reactors activities to carry out the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition (by purchase, condemnation, construction, or otherwise) of real property, plant, and capital equipment, facilities, and facility expansion, $1,238,500,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $41,500,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction: Provided further, That $4,500,000 from unobligated balances available from prior year appropriations provided under this heading is hereby rescinded: Provided further, That no amounts may be rescinded from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

FEDERAL SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses for Federal Salaries and Expenses (previously the Office of the Administrator) in the National Nuclear Security Administration, $370,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, including official reception and representation expenses not to exceed $12,000.

ENVIRONMENTAL AND OTHER DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

DEFENSE ENVIRONMENTAL CLEANUP

(INCLUDING RESCISSION OF FUNDS)

For Department of Energy expenses, including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other expenses necessary for atomic energy defense environmental cleanup activities in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, and the purchase of not to exceed one sport utility vehicle, one heavy duty truck, two ambulances, and one ladder fire truck for replacement only, $5,010,830,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $280,784,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction: Provided further, That $10,830,000 from unobligated balances available from prior year appropriations provided under this heading is hereby rescinded: Provided further, That no amounts may be rescinded from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

DEFENSE URANIUM ENRICHMENT

DECONTAMINATION AND DECOMMISSIONING

For an additional amount for atomic energy of defense environmental cleanup activities for Department of Energy contributions for uranium enrichment decontamination and decommissioning activities, $463,000,000, to be deposited into the Defense Environmental Cleanup account which shall be transferred to the "Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund".

OTHER DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

For Department of Energy expenses, including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment and other expenses, necessary for atomic energy defense, other defense activities, and classified activities, in carrying out the purposes of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including the acquisition or condemnation of any real property or any facility or for plant or facility acquisition, construction, or expansion, $754,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That $249,378,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for program direction.

POWER MARKETING ADMINISTRATION

BONNEVILLE POWER ADMINISTRATION FUND

Expenditures from the Bonneville Power Administration Fund, established pursuant to Public Law 93-454, are approved for the Black Canyon Trout Hatchery and, in addition, for official reception and representation expenses in an amount not to exceed $5,000: Provided, That during fiscal year 2015, no new direct loan obligations may be made.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, SOUTHEASTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

For necessary expenses of operation and maintenance of power transmission facilities and of marketing electric power and energy, including transmission wheeling and ancillary services, pursuant to section 5 of the Flood Control Act of 1944 (16 U.S.C. 825s), as applied to the southeastern power area, $7,220,000, including official reception and representation expenses in an amount not to exceed $1,500, to remain available until expended: Provided, That notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3302 and section 5 of the Flood Control Act of 1944, up to $7,220,000 collected by the Southeastern Power Administration from the sale of power and related services shall be credited to this account as discretionary offsetting collections, to remain available until expended for the sole purpose of funding the annual expenses of the Southeastern Power Administration: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated for annual expenses shall be reduced as collections are received during the fiscal year so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation estimated at not more than $0: Provided further, That, notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3302, up to $73,579,000 collected by the Southeastern Power Administration pursuant to the Flood Control Act of 1944 to recover purchase power and wheeling expenses shall be credited to this account as offsetting collections, to remain available until expended for the sole purpose of making purchase power and wheeling expenditures: Provided further, That for purposes of this appropriation, annual expenses means expenditures that are generally recovered in the same year that they are incurred (excluding purchase power and wheeling expenses).

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, SOUTHWESTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

For necessary expenses of operation and maintenance of power transmission facilities and of marketing electric power and energy, for construction and acquisition of transmission lines, substations and appurtenant facilities, and for administrative expenses, including official reception and representation expenses in an amount not to exceed $1,500 in carrying out section 5 of the Flood Control Act of 1944 (16 U.S.C. 825s), as applied to the Southwestern Power Administration, $46,240,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3302 and section 5 of the Flood Control Act of 1944 (16 U.S.C. 825s), up to $34,840,000 collected by the Southwestern Power Administration from the sale of power and related services shall be credited to this account as discretionary offsetting collections, to remain available until expended, for the sole purpose of funding the annual expenses of the Southwestern Power Administration: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated for annual expenses shall be reduced as collections are received during the fiscal year so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation estimated at not more than $11,400,000: Provided further, That, notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3302, up to $53,000,000 collected by the Southwestern Power Administration pursuant to the Flood Control Act of 1944 to recover purchase power and wheeling expenses shall be credited to this account as offsetting collections, to remain available until expended for the sole purpose of making purchase power and wheeling expenditures: Provided further, That, for purposes of this appropriation, annual expenses means expenditures that are generally recovered in the same year that they are incurred (excluding purchase power and wheeling expenses).

CONSTRUCTION, REHABILITATION, OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, WESTERN AREA POWER ADMINISTRATION

For carrying out the functions authorized by title III, section 302(a)(1)(B) of the Act of August 4, 1977 (42 U.S.C. 7152), and other related activities including conservation and renewable resources programs as authorized, $304,402,000, including official reception and representation expenses in an amount not to exceed $1,500, to remain available until expended, of which $296,321,000 shall be derived from the Department of the Interior Reclamation Fund: Provided, That notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3302, section 5 of the Flood Control Act of 1944 (16 U.S.C. 825s), and section 1 of the Interior Department Appropriation Act, 1939 (43 U.S.C. 392a), up to $211,030,000 collected by the Western Area Power Administration from the sale of power and related services shall be credited to this account as discretionary offsetting collections, to remain available until expended, for the sole purpose of funding the annual expenses of the Western Area Power Administration: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated for annual expenses shall be reduced as collections are received during the fiscal year so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation estimated at not more than $93,372,000, of which $85,291,000 is derived from the Reclamation Fund: Provided further, That, notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3302, up to $260,510,000 collected by the Western Area Power Administration pursuant to the Flood Control Act of 1944 and the Reclamation Project Act of 1939 to recover purchase power and wheeling expenses shall be credited to this account as offsetting collections, to remain available until expended for the sole purpose of making purchase power and wheeling expenditures: Provided further, That, for purposes of this appropriation, annual expenses means expenditures that are generally recovered in the same year that they are incurred (excluding purchase power and wheeling expenses).

FALCON AND AMISTAD OPERATING AND MAINTENANCE FUND

For operation, maintenance, and emergency costs for the hydroelectric facilities at the Falcon and Amistad Dams, $4,727,000, to remain available until expended, and to be derived from the Falcon and Amistad Operating and Maintenance Fund of the Western Area Power Administration, as provided in section 2 of the Act of June 18, 1954 (68 Stat. 255): Provided, That notwithstanding the provisions of that Act and of 31 U.S.C. 3302, up to $4,499,000 collected by the Western Area Power Administration from the sale of power and related services from the Falcon and Amistad Dams shall be credited to this account as discretionary offsetting collections, to remain available until expended for the sole purpose of funding the annual expenses of the hydroelectric facilities of these Dams and associated Western Area Power Administration activities: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated for annual expenses shall be reduced as collections are received during the fiscal year so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation estimated at not more than $228,000: Provided further, That for purposes of this appropriation, annual expenses means expenditures that are generally recovered in the same year that they are incurred: Provided further, That for fiscal year 2015, the Administrator of the Western Area Power Administration may accept up to $802,000 in funds contributed by United States power customers of the Falcon and Amistad Dams for deposit into the Falcon and Amistad Operating and Maintenance Fund, and such funds shall be available for the purpose for which contributed in like manner as if said sums had been specifically appropriated for such purpose: Provided further, That any such funds shall be available without further appropriation and without fiscal year limitation for use by the Commissioner of the United States Section of the International Boundary and Water Commission for the sole purpose of operating, maintaining, repairing, rehabilitating, replacing, or upgrading the hydroelectric facilities at these Dams in accordance with agreements reached between the Administrator, Commissioner, and the power customers.

FEDERAL ENERGY REGULATORY COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to carry out the provisions of the Department of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), including services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109, the hire of passenger motor vehicles, and official reception and representation expenses not to exceed $3,000, $304,389,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That of the amount appropriated herein, not more than $5,400,000 may be made available for salaries, travel, and other support costs for the offices of the Commissioners: Provided further, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, not to exceed $304,389,000 of revenues from fees and annual charges, and other services and collections in fiscal year 2015 shall be retained and used for necessary expenses in this account, and shall remain available until expended: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated from the general fund shall be reduced as revenues are received during fiscal year 2015 so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation from the general fund estimated at not more than $0.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY (INCLUDING TRANSFER AND RESCISSIONS OF FUNDS)

SEC. 301. (a) No appropriation, funds, or authority made available by this title for the Department of Energy shall be used to initiate or resume any program, project, or activity or to prepare or initiate Requests For Proposals or similar arrangements (including Requests for Quotations, Requests for Information, and Funding Opportunity Announcements) for a program, project, or activity if the program, project, or activity has not been funded by Congress.

(b)(1) Unless the Secretary of Energy notifies the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate at least 3 full business days in advance, none of the funds made available in this title may be used to—

(A) make a grant allocation or discretionary grant award totaling $1,000,000 or more;

(B) make a discretionary contract award or Other Transaction Agreement totaling $1,000,000 or more, including a contract covered by the Federal Acquisition Regulation;

(C) issue a letter of intent to make an allocation, award, or Agreement in excess of the limits in subparagraph (A) or (B); or

(D) announce publicly the intention to make an allocation, award, or Agreement in excess of the limits in subparagraph (A) or (B).

(2) The Secretary of Energy shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate within 15 days of the conclusion of each quarter a report detailing each grant allocation or discretionary grant award totaling less than $1,000,000 provided during the previous quarter.

(3) The notification required by paragraph (1) and the report required by paragraph (2) shall include the recipient of the award, the amount of the award, the fiscal year for which the funds for the award were appropriated, the account and program, project, or activity from which the funds are being drawn, the title of the award, and a brief description of the activity for which the award is made.

(c) The Department of Energy may not, with respect to any program, project, or activity that uses budget authority made available in this title under the heading “Department of Energy—Energy Programs”, enter into a multiyear contract, award a multiyear grant, or enter into a multiyear cooperative agreement unless—

(1) the contract, grant, or cooperative agreement is funded for the full period of performance as anticipated at the time of award; or

(2) the contract, grant, or cooperative agreement includes a clause conditioning the Federal Government's obligation on the availability of future year budget authority and the Secretary notifies the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate at least 3 days in advance.

(d) Except as provided in subsections (e), (f), and (g), the amounts made available by this title shall be expended as authorized by law for the programs, projects, and activities specified in the “Final Bill” column in the “Department of Energy” table included under the heading “Title III—Department of Energy” in the explanatory statement described in section 4 (in the matter preceding division A of this consolidated Act).

(e) The amounts made available by this title may be reprogrammed for any program, project, or activity, and the Department shall notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate at least 30 days prior to the use of any proposed reprogramming which would cause any program, project, or activity funding level to increase or decrease by more than $5,000,000 or 10 percent, whichever is less, during the time period covered by this Act.

(f) None of the funds provided in this title shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming of funds that—

(1) creates, initiates, or eliminates a program, project, or activity;

(2) increases funds or personnel for any program, project, or activity for which funds are denied or restricted by this Act; or

(3) reduces funds that are directed to be used for a specific program, project, or activity by this Act.

(g)(1) The Secretary of Energy may waive any requirement or restriction in this section that applies to the use of funds made available for the Department of Energy if compliance with such requirement or restriction would pose a substantial risk to human health, the environment, welfare, or national security.

(2) The Secretary of Energy shall notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate of any waiver under paragraph (1) as soon as practicable, but not later than 3 days after the date of the activity to which a requirement or restriction would otherwise have applied. Such notice shall include an explanation of the substantial risk under paragraph (1) that permitted such waiver.

SEC. 302. The unexpended balances of prior appropriations provided for activities in this Act may be available to the same appropriation accounts for such activities established pursuant to this title. Available balances may be merged with funds in the applicable established accounts and thereafter may be accounted for as one fund for the same time period as originally enacted.

SEC. 303. Funds appropriated by this or any other Act, or made available by the transfer of funds in this Act, for intelligence activities are deemed to be specifically authorized by the Congress for purposes of section 504 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 414) during fiscal year 2015 until the enactment of the Intelligence Authorization Act for fiscal year 2015.

SEC. 304. None of the funds made available in this title shall be used for the construction of facilities classified as high-hazard nuclear facilities under 10 CFR Part 830 unless independent oversight is conducted by the Office of Independent Enterprise Assessments to ensure the project is in compliance with nuclear safety requirements.

SEC. 305. None of the funds made available in this title may be used to approve critical decision-2 or critical decision-3 under Department of Energy Order 413.3B, or any successive departmental guidance, for construction projects where the total project cost exceeds $100,000,000, until a separate independent cost estimate has been developed for the project for that critical decision.

SEC. 306. (a) SECRETARIAL DETERMINATIONS.—In this fiscal year, and in each subsequent fiscal year, any determination (including a determination made prior to the date of enactment of this Act) by the Secretary of Energy under section 3112(d)(2)(B) of the USEC Privatization Act (110 Stat. 1321–335), as amended, shall be valid for not more than 2 calendar years subsequent to such determination.

(b) CONGRESSIONAL NOTIFICATION.—In this fiscal year, and in each subsequent fiscal year, not less than 30 days prior to the provision of uranium in any form the Secretary of Energy shall notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the following—

- (1) the provisions of law (including regulations) authorizing the provision of uranium;
- (2) the amount of uranium to be provided;
- (3) an estimate by the Secretary of Energy of the gross fair market value of the uranium on the expected date of the provision of the uranium;
- (4) the expected date of the provision of the uranium;
- (5) the recipient of the uranium;
- (6) the value the Secretary of Energy expects to receive in exchange for the uranium, including any adjustments to the gross fair market value of the uranium; and
- (7) whether the uranium to be provided is encumbered by any restriction on use under an international agreement or otherwise.

SEC. 307. Notwithstanding section 301(c) of this Act, none of the funds made available under the heading “Department of Energy—Energy Programs—Science” may be used for a multiyear contract, grant, cooperative agreement, or Other Transaction Agreement of $1,000,000 or less unless the contract, grant, cooperative agreement, or Other Transaction Agreement is funded for the full period of performance as anticipated at the time of award.

SEC. 308. In fiscal year 2015 and subsequent fiscal years, the Secretary of Energy shall submit to the congressional defense committees (as defined in U.S.C. 101(a)(16)) a report, on each major warhead refurbishment program that reaches the Phase 6.3 milestone, that provides an analysis of alternatives. Such report shall include—

- (1) a full description of alternatives considered prior to the award of Phase 6.3;
- (2) a comparison of the costs and benefits of each of those alternatives, to include an analysis of trade-offs among cost, schedule, and performance objectives against each alternative considered;
- (3) identification of the cost and risk of critical technology elements associated with each alternative, including technology maturity, integration risk, manufacturing feasibility, and demonstration needs;
- (4) identification of the cost and risk of additional capital asset and infrastructure capabilities required to support production and certification of each alternative;
- (5) a comparative analysis of the risks, costs, and scheduling needs for any military requirement intended to enhance warhead safety, security, or maintainability, including any requirement to consolidate and/or integrate warhead systems or mods as compared to at least one other feasible refurbishment alternative the Nuclear Weapons Council considers appropriate; and
- (6) a life-cycle cost estimate for the alternative selected that details the overall cost, scope, and schedule planning assumptions.

SEC. 309. (a) Unobligated balances available from prior year appropriations are hereby rescinded from the following accounts of the Department of Energy in the specified amounts:

- (1) “Energy Programs—Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy”, $9,740,000.
- (2) “Energy Programs—Electricity Delivery and Energy Reliability”, $331,000.
- (3) “Energy Programs—Nuclear Energy”, $121,000.
- (4) “Energy Programs—Fossil Energy Research and Development”, $10,413,000.

(5) “Energy Programs—Science”, $3,262,000.

(6) “Energy Programs—Advanced Research Projects Agency—Energy”, $18,000.

(7) “Energy Programs—Departmental Administration”, $928,000.

(8) “Atomic Energy Defense Activities—National Nuclear Security Administration—Weapons Activities”, $6,298,000.

(9) “Atomic Energy Defense Activities—National Nuclear Security Administration—Defense Nuclear Nonproliferation”, $1,390,000.

(10) “Atomic Energy Defense Activities—National Nuclear Security Administration—Naval Reactors”, $160,000.

(11) “Atomic Energy Defense Activities—National Nuclear Security Administration—Office of the Administrator”, $413,000.

(12) “Environmental and Other Defense Activities—Defense Environmental Cleanup”, $9,983,000.

(13) “Environmental and Other Defense Activities—Other Defense Activities”, $551,000.

(14) “Power Marketing Administrations—Construction, Rehabilitation, Operation and Maintenance, Western Area Power Administration”, $1,632,000.

(b) No amounts may be rescinded by this section from amounts that were designated by the Congress as an emergency requirement pursuant to a concurrent resolution on the budget or the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

SEC. 310. (a) None of the funds made available in this or any prior Act under the heading “Defense Nuclear Nonproliferation” may be made available to enter into new contracts with, or new agreements for Federal assistance to, the Russian Federation.

(b) The Secretary of Energy may waive the prohibition in subsection (a) if the Secretary determines that such activity is in the national security interests of the United States. This waiver authority may not be delegated.

(c) A waiver under subsection (b) shall not be effective until 15 days after the date on which the Secretary submits to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, in classified form if necessary, a report on the justification for the waiver.

SEC. 311. Of the funds authorized by the Secretary of Energy for laboratory directed research and development, no individual program, project, or activity funded by this or any subsequent Act making appropriations for Energy and Water Development for any fiscal year may be charged more than the statutory maximum authorized for such activities: Provided, That this section shall take effect not earlier than October 1, 2015.

SEC. 312. (a) DOMESTIC URANIUM ENRICHMENT.—None of the funds appropriated by this or any other Act or that may be available to the Department of Energy may be used for the construction of centrifuges for the production of enriched uranium for national security needs in fiscal year 2015.

(b) The Department shall provide a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than April 30, 2015 that includes:

- (1) an accounting of the current and future availability of low-enriched uranium, highly-enriched uranium, and tritium to meet defense needs; and
- (2) a cost-benefit analysis of each of the options available to supply enriched uranium for defense purposes, including a preliminary cost and schedule estimate to build a national security train.

SEC. 313. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used—

(1) to implement or enforce section 430.32(x) of title 10, Code of Federal Regulations; or

(2) to implement or enforce the standards established by the tables contained in section 325(i)(1)(B) of the Energy Policy and Conservation Act (42 U.S.C. 6295(i)(1)(B)) with respect to BPAR incandescent reflector lamps, BR incandescent reflector lamps, and ER incandescent reflector lamps.

SEC. 314. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used in contravention of section 3112(d)(2)(B) of the USEC Privatization Act (42 U.S.C. 2297h-10(d)(2)(B)) and all public notice and comment requirements under chapter 6 of title 5, United States Code, that are applicable to carrying out such section.

SEC. 315. (a) NOTIFICATION OF STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVE DRAWDOWN.—None of the funds made available by this Act or any prior Act, or funds made available in the SPR Petroleum Account, may be used to conduct a drawdown (including a test drawdown) and sale or exchange of petroleum products from the Strategic Petroleum Reserve unless the Secretary of Energy provides notice, in accordance with subsection (b), of such exchange, or drawdown (including a test drawdown) to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

(b)(1) CONTENT OF NOTIFICATION.—The notification required under subsection (a) shall include at a minimum—

(A) The justification for the drawdown or exchange, including—

- (i) a specific description of any obligation under international energy agreements; and
- (ii) in the case of a test drawdown, the specific aspects of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve to be tested;

(B) the provisions of law (including regulations) authorizing the drawdown or exchange;

(C) the number of barrels of petroleum products proposed to be withdrawn or exchanged;

(D) the location of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve site or sites from which the petroleum products are proposed to be withdrawn;

(E) a good faith estimate of the expected proceeds from the sale of the petroleum products;

(F) an estimate of the total inventories of petroleum products in the Strategic Petroleum Reserve after the anticipated drawdown;

(G) a detailed plan for disposition of the proceeds after deposit into the SPR Petroleum Account; and

(H) a plan for refilling the Strategic Petroleum Reserve, including whether the acquisition will be of the same or a different petroleum product.

(2) TIMING OF NOTIFICATION.—The Secretary shall provide the notification required under subsection (a)—

(A) in the case of an exchange or a drawdown, as soon as practicable after the exchange or drawdown has occurred; and

(B) in the case of a test drawdown, not later than 30 days prior to a test drawdown.

(c) POST-SALE NOTIFICATION.—In addition to reporting requirements under other provisions of law, the Secretary shall, upon the execution of all contract awards associated with a competitive sale of petroleum products, notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the actual value of the proceeds from the sale.

(d)(1) NEW REGIONAL RESERVES.—The Secretary may not establish any new regional petroleum product reserve—

(A) unless funding for the proposed regional petroleum product reserve is explicitly requested in advance in an annual budget submission and approved by the Congress in an appropriations Act; or

(B) until 90 days after notification of, and approval by, the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

(2) The budget request or notification shall include—

(A) the justification for the new reserve;

(B) a cost estimate for the establishment, operation, and maintenance of the reserve, including funding sources;

(C) a detailed plan for operation of the reserve, including the conditions upon which the products may be released;

(D) the location of the reserve; and

(E) the estimate of the total inventory of the reserve.

(e) REPORT ON REFINED PETROLEUM PRODUCTS.—Not later than 180 days after the enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a detailed plan for operation of the refined petroleum products reserve, including funding sources and the conditions upon which refined petroleum products may be released.

(f) REPORT ON STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVE EXPANSION.—(1) The Secretary, through the Office of Energy Policy and Systems Analysis, shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act the report required in Public Law 111-8 (123 Stat. 617) regarding the expansion of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve.

(2) The report required in paragraph (1) shall include an analysis of the impacts of Northeast Regional Refined Petroleum Product Reserve on the domestic petroleum market.

TITLE IV

INDEPENDENT AGENCIES

APPALACHIAN REGIONAL COMMISSION

For expenses necessary to carry out the programs authorized by the Appalachian Regional Development Act of 1965, notwithstanding 40 U.S.C. 14704, and for necessary expenses for the Federal Co-Chairman and the Alternate on the Appalachian Regional Commission, for payment of the Federal share of the administrative expenses of the Commission, including services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109, and hire of passenger motor vehicles, $90,000,000, to remain available until expended.

DEFENSE NUCLEAR FACILITIES SAFETY BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For expenses necessary for the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board in carrying out activities authorized by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended by Public Law 100-456, section 1441, $28,500,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

DELTA REGIONAL AUTHORITY

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For expenses necessary of the Delta Regional Authority and to carry out its activities, as authorized by the Delta Regional Authority Act of 2000, notwithstanding sections 382C(b)(2), 382F(d), 382M, and 382N of said Act, $12,000,000, to remain available until expended.

DENALI COMMISSION

For expenses of the Denali Commission including the purchase, construction, and acquisition of plant and capital equipment as necessary and other expenses, $10,000,000, to remain available until expended, notwithstanding the limitations contained in section 306(g) of the Denali Commission Act of 1998: Provided, That funds shall be available for construction projects in an amount not to exceed 80 percent of total project cost for distressed communities, as defined by section 307 of the Denali Commission Act of 1998 (division C, title III, Public Law 105-277), as amended by section 701 of appendix D, title VII, Public Law 106-113 (113 Stat. 1501A-280), and an amount not to exceed 50 percent for non-distressed communities.

NORTHERN BORDER REGIONAL COMMISSION

For expenses necessary of the Northern Border Regional Commission in carrying out activities authorized by subtitle V of title 40, United States Code, $5,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That such amounts shall be available for administrative expenses, notwithstanding section 15751(b) of title 40, United States Code.

SOUTHEAST CRESCENT REGIONAL COMMISSION

For necessary expenses of the Southeast Crescent Regional Commission in carrying out activities authorized by subtitle V of title 40, United States Code, $250,000, to remain available until expended.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses of the Commission in carrying out the purposes of the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974 and the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, $1,003,233,000, including official representation expenses not to exceed $25,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That of the amount appropriated herein, not more than $7,500,000 may be made available for salaries, travel, and other support costs for the Office of the Commission, to remain available until September 30, 2016, of which, notwithstanding section 201(a)(2)(c) of the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5841(a)(2)(c)), the use and expenditure shall only be approved by a majority vote of the Commission: Provided further, That the Commission may reprogram, not earlier than 30 days after notification of and approval by the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, up to an additional $2,000,000 for salaries, travel, and other support costs of the Office of the Commission: Provided further, That revenues from licensing fees, inspection services, and other services and collections estimated at $885,375,000 in fiscal year 2015 shall be retained and used for necessary salaries and expenses in this account, notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3302, and shall remain available until expended: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated shall be reduced by the amount of revenues received during fiscal year 2015 so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation estimated at not more than $117,858,000: Provided further, That of the amounts appropriated under this heading, $10,000,000 shall be for university research and development in areas relevant to their respective organization's mission, and $5,000,000 shall be for a Nuclear Science and Engineering Grant Program that will support multiyear projects that do not align with programmatic missions but are critical to maintaining the discipline of nuclear science and engineering.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

For expenses necessary of the Office of Inspector General in carrying out the provisions of the Inspector General Act of 1978, $12,071,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016: Provided, That revenues from licensing fees, inspection services, and other services and collections estimated at $10,099,000 in fiscal year 2015 shall be retained and be available until September 30, 2016, for necessary salaries and expenses in this account, notwithstanding section 3302 of title 31, United States Code: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated shall be reduced by the amount of revenues received during fiscal year 2015 so as to result in a final fiscal year 2015 appropriation estimated at not more than $1,972,000: Provided further, That, of the amounts appropriated under this heading, $850,000 shall be for Inspector General services for the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board, which shall not be available from fee revenues: Provided further, That, notwithstanding any other provision of law, in this fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the Inspector General of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission is authorized to exercise the same authorities with respect to the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board, as determined by the Inspector General of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, as the Inspector General exercises under the Inspector General Act of 1978 (5 U.S.C. App.) with respect to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

NUCLEAR WASTE TECHNICAL REVIEW BOARD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For expenses necessary of the Nuclear Waste Technical Review Board, as authorized by Public Law 100-203, section 5051, $3,400,000, to be derived from the Nuclear Waste Fund, to remain available until September 30, 2016.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—INDEPENDENT AGENCIES

SEC. 401. The Chairman of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission shall notify the other members of the Commission, the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Environment and Public Works of the Senate, not later than 1 day after the Chairman begins performing functions under the authority of section 3 of Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1980, or after a member of the Commission who is delegated emergency functions under subsection (b) of that section begins performing those functions. Such notification shall include an explanation of the circumstances warranting the exercise of such authority. The Chairman shall report to the Committees, not less frequently than once each week, on the actions taken by the Chairman, or a delegated member of the Commission, under such authority, until the authority is relinquished. The Chairman shall notify the Committees not later than 1 day after such authority is relinquished. The Chairman shall submit the report required by section 3(d) of the Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1980 to the Committees not later than 1 day after it was submitted to the Commission. This section shall be in effect in fiscal year 2015 and each subsequent fiscal year.

SEC. 402. The Nuclear Regulatory Commission shall comply with the July 5, 2011, version of Chapter VI of its Internal Commission Procedures when responding to Congressional requests for information.

SEC. 403. (a) SECURING RADIOLOGICAL MATERIAL.—No later than 2 years from enactment of this Act, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) shall provide a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate that evaluates the effectiveness of the requirements of 10 CFR Part 37 and determines whether such requirements are adequate to protect high-risk radiological material. Such evaluation shall consider inspection results and event reports from the first two years of implementation of the requirements in 10 CFR Part 37 for NRC licensees.

(b) No later than 2 years after the completion of the NRC evaluation required in subsection (a), the Government Accountability Office, with assistance from an independent group of security experts, shall provide a report to Congress on the effectiveness of the requirements of 10 CFR Part 37 for NRC and Agreement State licensees and recommendations to further strengthen radiological security.

SEC. 404. For this fiscal year, and each fiscal year hereafter, each independent agency receiving funding under this title shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a Congressional Budget Justification and a detailed annual report.

TITLE V

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 501. None of the funds appropriated by this Act may be used in any way, directly or indirectly, to influence congressional action on any legislation or appropriation matters pending before Congress, other than to communicate to Members of Congress as described in 18 U.S.C. 1913.

SEC. 502. (a) None of the funds made available in title III of this Act may be transferred to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government, except pursuant to a transfer made by or transfer authority provided in this Act or any other appropriations Act for any fiscal year, transfer authority referenced in the explanatory statement described in section 4 (in the matter preceding division A of this consolidated Act), or any authority whereby a department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government may provide goods or services to another department, agency, or instrumentality.

(b) None of the funds made available for any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government may be transferred to accounts funded in title III of this Act, except pursuant to a transfer made by or transfer authority provided in this Act or any other appropriations Act for any fiscal year, transfer authority referenced in the explanatory statement described in section 4 (in the matter preceding division A of this consolidated Act), or any authority whereby a department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government may provide goods or services to another department, agency, or instrumentality.

(c) The head of any relevant department or agency funded in this Act utilizing any transfer authority shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate a semi-annual report detailing the transfer authorities, except for any authority whereby a department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government may provide goods or services to another department, agency, or instrumentality, used in the previous 6 months and in the year-to-date. This report shall include the amounts transferred and the purposes for which they were transferred, and shall not replace or modify existing notification requirements for each authority.

SEC. 112. Not to exceed 2 percent of any appropriations in this title made available under the headings "Departmental Offices—Salaries and Expenses", "Office of Inspector General", "Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program", "Financial Crimes Enforcement Network", "Bureau of the Fiscal Service", and "Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau" may be transferred between such appropriations upon the advance approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate: Provided, That no transfer under this section may increase or decrease any such appropriation by more than 2 percent.

SEC. 113. Not to exceed 2 percent of any appropriation made available in this Act to the Internal Revenue Service may be transferred to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration's appropriation upon the advance approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate: Provided, That no transfer may increase or decrease any such appropriation by more than 2 percent.

SEC. 114. None of the funds appropriated in this Act or otherwise available to the Department of the Treasury or the Bureau of Engraving and Printing may be used to redesign the $1 Federal Reserve note.

SEC. 115. The Secretary of the Treasury may transfer funds from the "Bureau of the Fiscal Service—Salaries and Expenses" to the Debt Collection Fund as necessary to cover the costs of debt collection: Provided, That such amounts shall be reimbursed to such salaries and expenses account from debt collections received in the Debt Collection Fund.

SEC. 116. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act may be used by the United States Mint to construct or operate any museum without the explicit approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, the House Committee on Financial Services, and the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

SEC. 117. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act or source to the Department of the Treasury, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and the United States Mint, individually or collectively, may be used to consolidate any or all functions of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and the United States Mint without the explicit approval of the House Committee on Financial Services; the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs; and the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

SEC. 118. Funds appropriated by this Act, or made available by the transfer of funds in this Act, for the Department of the Treasury's intelligence or intelligence related activities are deemed to be specifically authorized by the Congress for purposes of section 504 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 414) during fiscal year 2015 until the enactment of the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015.

SEC. 119. Not to exceed $5,000 shall be made available from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing's Industrial Revolving Fund for necessary official reception and representation expenses.

SEC. 120. The Secretary of the Treasury shall submit a Capital Investment Plan to the Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and the House of Representatives not later than 30 days following the submission of the annual budget submitted by the President: Provided, That such Capital Investment Plan shall include capital investment spending from all accounts within the Department of the Treasury, including but not limited to the Department-wide Systems and Capital Investment Programs account, Treasury Franchise Fund account, and the Treasury Forfeiture Fund account: Provided further, That such Capital Investment Plan shall include expenditures occurring in previous fiscal years for each capital investment project that has not been fully completed.

SEC. 121. (a) Not later than 60 days after the end of each quarter, the Office of Financial Stability and the Office of Financial Research shall submit reports on their activities to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, the Committee on Financial Services of the House of Representatives and the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

(b) The reports required under subsection (a) shall include—

(1) the obligations made during the previous quarter by object class, office, and activity;

(2) the estimated obligations for the remainder of the fiscal year by object class, office, and activity;

(3) the number of full-time equivalents within each office during the previous quarter;

(4) the estimated number of full-time equivalents within each office for the remainder of the fiscal year; and

(5) actions taken to achieve the goals, objectives, and performance measures of each office.

(c) At the request of any such Committees specified in subsection (a), the Office of Financial Stability and the Office of Financial Research shall make officials available to testify on the contents of the reports required under subsection (a).

SEC. 122. Within 45 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of the Treasury shall submit an itemized report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate on the amount of total funds charged to each office by the Franchise Fund including the amount charged for each service provided by the Franchise Fund to each office, a detailed description of the services, a detailed explanation of how each charge for each service is calculated, and a description of the role customers have in governing in the Franchise Fund.

SEC. 123. The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the appropriate agencies, departments, bureaus, and commissions that have expertise in terrorism and complex financial instruments, shall provide a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate, the Committee on Financial Services of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate not later than 90 days after the date of enactment of this Act on economic warfare and financial terrorism.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT AND FUNDS APPROPRIATED TO THE PRESIDENT
(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

SEC. 201. From funds made available in this Act under the headings "The White House", "Executive Residence at the White House", "White House Repair and Restoration", "Council of Economic Advisers", "National Security Council and Homeland Security Council", "Office of Administration", "Special Assistance to the President", and "Official Residence of the Vice President", the Director of the Office of Management and Budget (or such other officer as the President may designate in writing), may, with advance approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, transfer not to exceed 10 percent of any such appropriation to any other such appropriation, to be merged with and available for the same time and for the same purposes as the appropriation to which transferred: Provided, That the amount of an appropriation shall not be increased by more than 50 percent by such transfers: Provided further, That no amount shall be transferred from "Special Assistance to the President" or "Official Residence of the Vice President" without the approval of the Vice President.

SEC. 202. Within 90 days after the date of enactment of this section, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate on the costs of implementing the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Public Law 111-203). Such report shall include—

(1) the estimated mandatory and discretionary obligations of funds through fiscal year 2017, by Federal agency and by fiscal year, including—

(A) the estimated obligations by cost inputs such as rent, information technology, contracts, and personnel;

(B) the methodology and data sources used to calculate such estimated obligations; and

(C) the specific section of such Act that requires the obligation of funds; and

(2) the estimated receipts through fiscal year 2017 from assessments, user fees, and other fees by the Federal agency making the collections, by fiscal year, including—

(A) the methodology and data sources used to calculate such estimated collections; and

(B) the specific section of such Act that authorizes the collection of funds.

SEC. 203. (a) During fiscal year 2015, any Executive order issued by the President shall be accompanied by a statement from the Director of the Office of Management and Budget on the budgetary impact, including costs, benefits, and revenues, of the Executive order.

(b) Any such statement shall include—

(1) a narrative summary of the budgetary impact of such order on the Federal Government;

(2) the impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, listed by Federal agency, for each year in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2015; and

(3) the impact on revenues of the Federal Government over the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2015.

(c) If an Executive order is issued during fiscal year 2015 due to a national emergency, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget may issue the statement required by subsection (a) not later than 15 days after the date that the Executive order is issued.

SEC. 204. The Director of the Office of National Drug Control Policy shall submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, and prior to the initial obligation of more than 20 percent of the funds appropriated in any account under the heading "Office of National Drug Control Policy", a detailed narrative and financial plan on the proposed uses of all funds under the account by program, project, and activity: Provided, That the reports required by this section shall be updated and submitted to the Committees on Appropriations every 6 months and shall include information detailing how the estimates and assumptions contained in previous reports have changed: Provided further, That any new projects and changes in funding of ongoing projects shall be subject to the prior approval of the Committees on Appropriations.

SEC. 205. Not to exceed 2 percent of any appropriations in this Act made available to the Office of National Drug Control Policy may be transferred between appropriated programs upon the advance approval of the Committees on Appropriations: Provided, That no transfer may increase or decrease any such appropriation by more than 3 percent.

SEC. 206. Not to exceed $1,000,000 of any appropriations in this Act made available to the Office of National Drug Control Policy may be reprogrammed within a program, project, or activity upon the advance approval of the Committees on Appropriations.

SEC. 207. The first proviso under the heading "Data-Driven Innovation" in division E of Public Law 113-76 is amended by striking "shall" and inserting "may".

This title may be cited as the "Executive Office of the President Appropriations Act, 2015".

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—THE JUDICIARY
(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 301. Appropriations and authorizations made in this title which are available for salaries and expenses shall be available for services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109.

SEC. 302. Not to exceed 5 percent of any appropriation made available for the current fiscal year for the Judiciary in this Act may be transferred between such appropriations, but no such appropriation, except “Courts of Appeals, District Courts, and Other Judicial Services, Defender Services” and “Courts of Appeals, District Courts, and Other Judicial Services, Fees of Jurors and Commissioners”, shall be increased by more than 10 percent by any such transfers: Provided, That any transfer pursuant to this section shall be treated as a reprogramming of funds under sections 604 and 608 of this Act and shall not be available for obligation or expenditure except in compliance with the procedures set forth in section 608.

SEC. 303. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the salaries and expenses appropriation for “Courts of Appeals, District Courts, and Other Judicial Services” shall be available for official reception and representation expenses of the Judicial Conference of the United States: Provided, That such available funds shall not exceed $11,000 and shall be administered by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts in the capacity as Secretary of the Judicial Conference.

SEC. 304. Section 3314(a) of title 40, United States Code, shall be applied by substituting “Federal” for “executive” each place it appears.

SEC. 305. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. 561-569, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, the United States Marshals Service shall provide, for such courthouses as its Director may designate in consultation with the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, for purposes of a pilot program, the security services that 40 U.S.C. 1315 authorizes the Department of Homeland Security to provide, except for the services specified in 40 U.S.C. 1315(b)(2)(E). For building-specific security services at these courthouses, the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts shall reimburse the United States Marshals Service rather than the Department of Homeland Security.

SEC. 306. (a) Section 203(c) of the Judicial Improvements Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-650; 28 U.S.C. 133 note), is amended in the matter following paragraph (12)—

FEDERAL BUILDINGS FUND

LIMITATIONS ON AVAILABILITY OF REVENUE

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

Amounts in the Fund, including revenues and collections deposited into the Fund shall be available for necessary expenses of real property management and related activities not otherwise provided for, including operation, maintenance, and protection of federally owned and leased buildings; rental of buildings in the District of Columbia; restoration of leased premises; moving governmental agencies (including space adjustments and telecommunications relocation expenses) in connection with the assignment, allocation and transfer of space; contractual services incident to cleaning or servicing buildings, and moving; repair and alteration of federally owned buildings including grounds, approaches and appurtenances; care and safeguarding of sites; maintenance, preservation, demolition, and equipment; acquisition of buildings and sites by purchase, condemnation, or as otherwise authorized by law; acquisition of options to purchase buildings and sites; conversion and extension of federally owned buildings; preliminary planning and design of projects by contract or otherwise; construction of new buildings (including equipment for such buildings); and payment of principal, interest, and any other obligations for public buildings acquired by installment purchase and purchase contract; in the aggregate amount of $9,238,310,000, of which—

(1) $509,670,000 shall remain available until expended for construction and acquisition (including funds for sites and expenses, and associated design and construction services) of additional projects at—

(A) California, Calexico, Calexico West Land Port of Entry, $98,062,000;

(B) California, San Diego, San Ysidro Land Port of Entry, $216,828,000;

(C) District of Columbia, Washington, DHS Consolidation at St. Elizabeths, $144,000,000;

(D) National Capital Region, Civilian Cyber Campus, $35,000,000; and

(E) New York, Glenville, Scotia Depot, $15,780,000:

Provided, That each of the foregoing limits of costs on new construction and acquisition projects may be exceeded to the extent that savings are effected in other such projects, but not to exceed 10 percent of the amounts included in a transmitted prospectus, if required, unless advance approval is obtained from the Committees on Appropriations of a greater amount;

(2) $818,160,000 shall remain available until expended for repairs and alterations, including associated design and construction services, of which—

(A) $306,894,000 is for Major Repairs and Alterations;

(B) $390,266,000 is for Basic Repairs and Alterations; and

(C) $121,000,000 is for Special Emphasis Programs, of which—

(i) $5,000,000 is for Energy and Water Retrofit and Conservation Measures;

(ii) $26,000,000 is for Fire and Life Safety;

(iii) $20,000,000 is for Judiciary Capital Security; and

(iv) $70,000,000 is for Consolidation Activities: Provided, That consolidation projects result in reduced annual rent paid by the tenant agency: Provided further, That no consolidation project exceed $20,000,000 in costs: Provided further, That consolidation projects are approved by each of the committees specified in section 3307(a) of title 40, United States Code: Provided further, That preference is given to consolidation projects that achieve a utilization rate of 130 usable square feet or less per person for office space: Provided further, That the obligation of funds under this paragraph for consolidation activities may not be made until 10 days after a proposed spending plan and explanation for each project to be undertaken, including estimated savings, has been submitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate:

Provided, That funds made available in this or any previous Act in the Federal Buildings Fund for Repairs and Alterations shall, for prospectus projects, be limited to the amount identified for each project, except each project in this or any previous Act may be increased by an amount not to exceed 10 percent unless advance approval is obtained from the Committees on Appropriations of a greater amount: Provided further, That additional projects for which prospectuses have been fully approved may be funded under this category only if advance approval is obtained from the Committees on Appropriations: Provided further, That the amounts provided in this or any prior Act for “Repairs and Alterations” may be used to fund costs associated with implementing security improvements to buildings necessary to meet the minimum standards for security in accordance with current law and in compliance with the reprogramming guidelines of the appropriate Committees of the House and Senate: Provided further, That the difference between the funds appropriated and expended on any projects in this or any prior Act, under the heading “Repairs and Alterations”, may be transferred to Basic Repairs and Alterations or used to fund authorized increases in prospectus projects: Provided further, That the amount provided in this or any prior Act for Basic Repairs and Alterations may be used to pay claims against the Government arising from any projects under the heading “Repairs and Alterations” or used to fund authorized increases in prospectus projects;

(3) $5,666,348,000 for rental of space to remain available until expended; and

(4) $2,244,132,000 for building operations to remain available until expended, of which $1,122,727,000 is for building services, and $1,121,405,000 is for salaries and expenses: Provided further, That not to exceed 5 percent of any appropriation made available under this paragraph for building operations may be transferred between and merged with such appropriations upon notification to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, but no such appropriation shall be increased by more than 5 percent by any such transfers: Provided further, That section 508 of this title shall not apply with respect to funds made available under this heading for building operations:

Provided further, That the total amount of funds made available from this Fund to the General Services Administration shall not be available for expenses of any construction, repair, alteration and acquisition project for which a prospectus, if required by 40 U.S.C. 3307(a), has not been approved, except that necessary funds may be expended for each project for required expenses for the development of a proposed prospectus: Provided further, That funds available in the Federal Buildings Fund may be expended for emergency repairs when advance approval is obtained from the Committees on Appropriations: Provided further, That amounts necessary to provide reimbursable special services to other agencies under 40 U.S.C. 592(b)(2) and amounts to provide such reimbursable fencing, lighting, guard booths, and other facilities on private or other property not in Government ownership or control as may be appropriate to enable the United States Secret Service to perform its protective functions pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3056, shall be available from such revenues and collections: Provided further, That revenues and collections and any other sums accruing to this Fund during fiscal year 2015, excluding reimbursements under 40 U.S.C. 592(b)(2), in excess of the aggregate new obligational authority authorized for Real Property Activities of the Federal Buildings Fund in this Act shall remain in the Fund and shall not be available for expenditure except as authorized in appropriations Acts.

TITLE VI GENERAL PROVISIONS—THIS ACT (INCLUDING RESCISSION)

SEC. 601. None of the funds in this Act shall be used for the planning or execution of any program to pay the expenses of, or otherwise compensate, non-Federal parties intervening in regulatory or adjudicatory proceedings funded in this Act.

SEC. 602. None of the funds appropriated in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year, nor may any be transferred to other appropriations, unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 603. The expenditure of any appropriation under this Act for any consulting service through procurement contract pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 3109, shall be limited to those contracts where such expenditures are a matter of public record and available for public inspection, except where otherwise provided under existing law, or under existing Executive order issued pursuant to existing law.

SEC. 604. None of the funds made available in this Act may be transferred to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government, except pursuant to a transfer made by, or transfer authority provided in, this Act or any other appropriations Act.

SEC. 605. None of the funds made available by this Act shall be available for any activity or for paying the salary of any Government employee where funding an activity or paying a salary to a Government employee would result in a decision, determination, rule, regulation, or policy that would prohibit the enforcement of section 307 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1307).

SEC. 606. No funds appropriated pursuant to this Act may be expended by an entity unless the entity agrees that in expending the assistance the entity will comply with chapter 83 of title 41, United States Code.

SEC. 607. No funds appropriated or otherwise made available under this Act shall be made available to any person or entity that has been convicted of violating chapter 83 of title 41, United States Code.

SEC. 608. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, none of the funds provided in this Act, provided by previous appropriations Acts to the agencies or entities funded in this Act that remain available for obligation or expenditure in fiscal year 2015, or provided from any accounts in the Treasury derived by the collection of fees and available to the agencies funded by this Act, shall be available for obligation or expenditure through a reprogramming of funds that: (1) creates a new program; (2) eliminates a program, project, or activity; (3) increases funds or personnel for any program, project, or activity for which funds have been denied or restricted by the Congress; (4) proposes to use funds directed for a specific activity by the Committee on Appropriations of either the House of Representatives or the Senate for a different purpose; (5) augments existing programs, projects, or activities in excess of $5,000,000 or 10 percent, whichever is less; (6) reduces existing programs, projects, or activities by $5,000,000 or 10 percent, whichever is less; or (7) creates or reorganizes offices, programs, or activities unless prior approval is received from the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate: Provided, That prior to any significant reorganization or restructuring of offices, programs, or activities, each agency or entity funded in this Act shall consult with the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate: Provided further, That not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, each agency funded by this Act shall submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate to establish the baseline for application of reprogramming and transfer authorities for the current fiscal year: Provided further, That at a minimum the report shall include: (1) a table for each appropriation with a separate column to display the President's budget request, adjustments made by Congress, adjustments due to enacted rescissions, if appropriate, and the fiscal year enacted level; (2) a delineation in the table for each appropriation both by object class and program, project, and activity as detailed in the budget appendix for the respective appropriation; and (3) an identification of items of special congressional interest: Provided further, That the amount appropriated or limited for salaries and expenses for an agency shall be reduced by $100,000 per day for each day after the required date that the report has not been submitted to the Congress.

SEC. 609. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, not to exceed 50 percent of unobligated balances remaining available at the end of fiscal year 2015 from appropriations made available for salaries and expenses for fiscal year 2015 in this Act, shall remain available through September 30, 2016, for each such account for the purposes authorized: Provided, That a request shall be submitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate for approval prior to the expenditure of such funds: Provided further, That these requests shall be made in compliance with reprogramming guidelines.

SEC. 610. (a) None of the funds made available in this Act may be used by the Executive Office of the President to request—

(1) any official background investigation report on any individual from the Federal Bureau of Investigation; or

(2) a determination with respect to the treatment of an organization as described in section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of such Code from the Department of the Treasury or the Internal Revenue Service.

(b) Subsection (a) shall not apply—

(1) in the case of an official background investigation report, if such individual has given express written consent for such request not more than 6 months prior to the date of such request and during the same presidential administration; or

(2) if such request is required due to extraordinary circumstances involving national security.

SEC. 611. The cost accounting standards promulgated under chapter 15 of title 41, United States Code shall not apply with respect to a contract under the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program established under chapter 89 of title 5, United States Code.

SEC. 612. For the purpose of resolving litigation and implementing any settlement agreements regarding the nonforeign area cost-of-living allowance program, the Office of Personnel Management may accept and utilize (without regard to any restriction on unanticipated travel expenses imposed in an Appropriations Act) funds made available to the Office of Personnel Management pursuant to court approval.

SEC. 613. No funds appropriated by this Act shall be available to pay for an abortion, or the administrative expenses in connection with any health plan under the Federal employees health benefits program which provides any benefits or coverage for abortions.

SEC. 614. The provision of section 613 shall not apply where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term, or the pregnancy is the result of an act of rape or incest.

SEC. 615. In order to promote Government access to commercial information technology, the restriction on purchasing non-domestic articles, materials, and supplies set forth in chapter 83 of title 41, United States Code (popularly known as the Buy American Act), shall not apply to the acquisition by the Federal Government of information technology (as defined in section 11101 of title 40, United States Code), that is a commercial item (as defined in section 103 of title 41, United States Code).

SEC. 616. Notwithstanding section 1353 of title 31, United States Code, no officer or employee of any regulatory agency or commission funded by this Act may accept on behalf of that agency, nor may such agency or commission accept, payment or reimbursement from a non-Federal entity for travel, subsistence, or related expenses for the purpose of enabling an officer or employee to attend and participate in any meeting or similar function relating to the official duties of the officer or employee when the entity offering payment or reimbursement is a person or entity subject to regulation by such agency or commission, or represents a person or entity subject to regulation by such agency or commission, unless the person or entity is an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and exempt from tax under section 501(a) of such Code.

SEC. 617. Notwithstanding section 708 of this Act, funds made available to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission and the Securities and Exchange Commission by this or any other Act may be used for the inter-agency funding and sponsorship of a joint advisory committee to advise on emerging regulatory issues.

SEC. 618. (a)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an Executive agency covered by this Act otherwise authorized to enter into contracts for either leases or the construction or alteration of real property for office, meeting, storage, or other space must consult with the General Services Administration before issuing a solicitation for offers of new leases or construction contracts, and in the case of succeeding leases, before entering into negotiations with the current lessor.

(2) Any such agency with authority to enter into an emergency lease may do so during any period declared by the President to require emergency leasing authority with respect to such agency.

(b) For purposes of this section, the term "Executive agency covered by this Act" means any Executive agency provided funds by this Act, but does not include the General Services Administration or the United States Postal Service.

SEC. 619. (a) There are appropriated for the following activities the amounts required under current law:

(1) Compensation of the President (3 U.S.C. 102).

(2) Payments to—

(A) the Judicial Officers' Retirement Fund (28 U.S.C. 377(o));

(B) the Judicial Survivors' Annuities Fund (28 U.S.C. 376(c)); and

(C) the United States Court of Federal Claims Judges' Retirement Fund (28 U.S.C. 178(l)).

(3) Payment of Government contributions—

(A) with respect to the health benefits of retired employees, as authorized by chapter 89 of title 5, United States Code, and the Retired Federal Employees Health Benefits Act (74 Stat. 849); and

(B) with respect to the life insurance benefits for employees retiring after December 31, 1989 (5 U.S.C. ch. 87).

(4) Payment to finance the unfunded liability of new and increased annuity benefits under the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund (5 U.S.C. 8348).

(5) Payment of annuities authorized to be paid from the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund by statutory provisions other than subchapter III of chapter 83 or chapter 84 of title 5, United States Code.

(b) Nothing in this section may be construed to exempt any amount appropriated by this section from any otherwise applicable limitation on the use of funds contained in this Act.

SEC. 620. The Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (Board) shall have authority to obligate funds for the scholarship program established by section 109(c)(2) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (Public Law 107-204) in an aggregate amount not exceeding the amount of funds collected by the Board as of December 31, 2014, including accrued interest, as a result of the assessment of monetary penalties. Funds available for obligation in fiscal year 2015 shall remain available until expended.

SEC. 621. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used by the Federal Trade Commission to complete the draft report entitled "Interagency Working Group on Food Marketed to Children: Preliminary Proposed Nutrition Principles to Guide Industry Self-Regulatory Efforts" unless the Interagency Working Group on Food Marketed to Children complies with Executive Order No. 13563.

SEC. 622. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to pay the salaries and expenses for the following positions:

(1) Director, White House Office of Health Reform.

(2) Assistant to the President for Energy and Climate Change.

(3) Senior Advisor to the Secretary of the Treasury assigned to the Presidential Task Force on the Auto Industry and Senior Counselor for Manufacturing Policy.

(4) White House Director of Urban Affairs.

SEC. 623. None of the funds in this Act may be used for the Director of the Office of Personnel Management to award a contract, enter an extension of, or exercise an option on a contract to a contractor conducting the final quality review processes for background investigation fieldwork services or background investigation support services that, as of the date of the award of the contract, are being conducted by that contractor.

SEC. 624. Sections 1101(a) and 1104(a)(2)(A) of the Internet Tax Freedom Act (title XI of division C of Public Law 105-277; 47 U.S.C. 151 note) are amended by striking "November 1, 2014" and inserting "October 1, 2015".

SEC. 625. (a) The head of each executive branch agency funded by this Act shall ensure that the Chief Information Officer of the agency has the authority to participate in decisions regarding the budget planning process related to information technology.

(b) Amounts appropriated for any executive branch agency funded by this Act that are available for information technology shall be allocated within the agency, consistent with the provisions of appropriations Acts and budget guidelines and recommendations from the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, in such manner as specified by, or approved by, the Chief Information Officer of the agency in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of the agency and budget officials.

SEC. 626. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used in contravention of chapter 29, 31, or 33 of title 44, United States Code.

SEC. 627. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to enter into any contract with an incorporated entity if such entity's sealed bid or competitive proposal shows that such entity is incorporated or chartered in Bermuda or the Cayman Islands, and such entity's sealed bid or competitive proposal shows that such entity was previously incorporated in the United States.

SEC. 628. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to lease or purchase new light duty vehicles for any executive fleet, or for an agency's fleet inventory, except in accordance with Presidential Memorandum—Federal Fleet Performance, dated May 24, 2011. In instances where there is not an appropriate alternative fueled vehicle commercially available for a particular light duty vehicle class, an exception is granted as to not impede agency missions.

SEC. 629. From the unobligated balances available in the Securities and Exchange Commission Reserve Fund established by section 991 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Public Law 111-203), $25,000,000 are rescinded.

SEC. 630. Section 716 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 8305) is amended—

(1) in subsection (b)—

(A) in paragraph (2)(B), by striking "insured depository institution" and inserting "covered depository institution"; and

(B) by adding at the end the following:

"(3) COVERED DEPOSITORY INSTITUTION.—The term 'covered depository institution' means—

"(A) an insured depository institution, as that term is defined in section 3 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1813); and

"(B) a United States uninsured branch or agency of a foreign bank.";

(2) in subsection (c)—

(A) in the heading for such subsection, by striking "INSURED" and inserting "COVERED";

(B) by striking "an insured" and inserting "a covered";

(C) by striking "such insured" and inserting "such covered"; and

(D) by striking "or savings and loan holding company" and inserting "savings and loan holding company, or foreign banking organization (as such term is defined under Regulation K of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 CFR 211.21(o)))";

(3) by amending subsection (d) to read as follows:

"(d) ONLY BONA FIDE HEDGING AND TRADITIONAL BANK ACTIVITIES PERMITTED.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The prohibition in subsection (a) shall not apply to any covered depository institution that limits its swap and security-based swap activities to the following:

"(A) HEDGING AND OTHER SIMILAR RISK MITIGATION ACTIVITIES.—Hedging and other similar risk mitigating activities directly related to the covered depository institution's activities.

"(B) NON-STRUCTURED FINANCE SWAP ACTIVITIES.—Acting as a swaps entity for swaps or security-based swaps other than a structured finance swap.

"(C) CERTAIN STRUCTURED FINANCE SWAP ACTIVITIES.—Acting as a swaps entity for swaps or security-based swaps that are structured finance swaps, if—

"(i) such structured finance swaps are undertaken for hedging or risk management purposes; or

"(ii) each asset-backed security underlying such structured finance swaps is of a credit quality and of a type or category with respect to which the prudential regulators have jointly adopted rules authorizing swap or security-based swap activity by covered depository institutions.

"(2) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this subsection:

"(A) STRUCTURED FINANCE SWAP.—The term 'structured finance swap' means a swap or security-based swap based on an asset-backed security (or group or index primarily comprised of asset-backed securities).

"(B) ASSET-BACKED SECURITY.—The term 'asset-backed security' has the meaning given such term under section 3(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78c(a)).";

(4) in subsection (e), by striking "an insured" and inserting "a covered"; and

(5) in subsection (f)—

(A) by striking "an insured depository" and inserting "a covered depository"; and

(B) by striking "the insured depository" each place such term appears and inserting "the covered depository".

TITLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS—GOVERNMENT-WIDE

DEPARTMENTS, AGENCIES, AND CORPORATIONS (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 701. No department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States receiving appropriated funds under this or any other Act for fiscal year 2015 shall obligate or expend any such funds, unless such department, agency, or instrumentality has in place, and will continue to administer in good faith, a written policy designed to ensure that all of its workplaces are free from the illegal use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances (as defined in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802)) by the officers and employees of such department, agency, or instrumentality.

SEC. 702. Unless otherwise specifically provided, the maximum amount allowable during the current fiscal year in accordance with subsection 1343(c) of title 31, United States Code, for the purchase of any passenger motor vehicle (exclusive of buses, ambulances, law enforcement vehicles, protective vehicles, and undercover surveillance vehicles), is hereby fixed at $13,197 except station wagons for which the maximum shall be $13,631: Provided, That these limits may be exceeded by not to exceed $3,700 for police-type vehicles, and by not to exceed $4,000 for special heavy-duty vehicles: Provided further, That the limits set forth in this section may not be exceeded by more than 5 percent for electric or hybrid vehicles purchased for demonstration under the provisions of the Electric and Hybrid Vehicle Research, Development, and Demonstration Act of 1976: Provided further, That the limits set forth in this section may be exceeded by the incremental cost of clean alternative fuels vehicles acquired pursuant to Public Law 101-549 over the cost of comparable conventionally fueled vehicles: Provided further, That the limits set forth in this section shall not apply to any vehicle that is a commercial item and which operates on emerging motor vehicle technology, including but not limited to electric, plug-in hybrid electric, and hydrogen fuel cell vehicles.

SEC. 703. Appropriations of the executive departments and independent establishments for the current fiscal year available for expenses of travel, or for the expenses of the activity concerned, are hereby made available for quarters allowances and cost-of-living allowances, in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 5922-5924.

SEC. 704. Unless otherwise specified in law during the current fiscal year, no part of any appropriation contained in this or any other Act shall be used to pay the compensation of any officer or employee of the Government of the United States (including any agency the majority of the stock of which is owned by the Government of the United States) whose post of duty is in the continental United States unless such person: (1) is a citizen of the United States; (2) is a person who is lawfully admitted for permanent residence and is seeking citizenship as outlined in 8 U.S.C. 1324b(a)(3)(B); (3) is a person who is admitted as a refugee under 8 U.S.C. 1157 or is granted asylum under 8 U.S.C. 1158 and has filed a declaration of intention to become a lawful permanent resident and then a citizen when eligible; or (4) is a person who owes allegiance to the United States: Provided, That for purposes of this section, affidavits signed by any such person shall be considered prima facie evidence that the requirements of this section with respect to his or her status are being complied with: Provided further, That for purposes of subsections (2) and (3) such affidavits shall be submitted prior to employment and updated thereafter as necessary: Provided further, That any person making a false affidavit shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction, shall be fined no more than $4,000 or imprisoned for not more than 1 year, or both: Provided further, That the above penal clause shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other provisions of existing law: Provided further, That any payment made to any officer or employee contrary to the provisions of this section shall be recoverable in action by the Federal Government: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to any person who is an officer or employee of the Government of the United States on the date of enactment of this Act, or to international broadcasters employed by the Broadcasting Board of Governors, or to temporary employment of translators, or to temporary employment in the field service (not to exceed 60 days) as a result of emergencies: Provided further, That this section does not apply to the employment as Wildland firefighters for not more than 120 days of nonresident aliens employed by the Department of the Interior or the USDA Forest Service pursuant to an agreement with another country.

SEC. 705. Appropriations available to any department or agency during the current fiscal year for necessary expenses, including maintenance or operating expenses, shall also be available for payment to the General Services Administration for charges for space and services and those expenses of renovation and alteration of buildings and facilities which constitute public improvements performed in accordance with the Public Buildings Act of 1959 (73 Stat. 479), the Public Buildings Amendments of 1972 (86 Stat. 216), or other applicable law.

SEC. 706. In addition to funds provided in this or any other Act, all Federal agencies are authorized to receive and use funds resulting from the sale of materials, including Federal records disposed of pursuant to a records schedule recovered through recycling or waste prevention programs. Such funds shall be available until expended for the following purposes:

(1) Acquisition, waste reduction and prevention, and recycling programs as described in Executive Order No. 13423 (January 24, 2007), including any such programs adopted prior to the effective date of the Executive order.

(2) Other Federal agency environmental management programs, including, but not limited to, the development and implementation of hazardous waste management and pollution prevention programs.

(3) Other employee programs as authorized by law or as deemed appropriate by the head of the Federal agency.

SEC. 707. Funds made available by this or any other Act for administrative expenses in the current fiscal year of the corporations and agencies subject to chapter 91 of title 31, United States Code, shall be available, in addition to objects for which such funds are otherwise available, for rent in the District of Columbia; services in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 3109; and the objects specified under this head, all the provisions of which shall be applicable to the expenditure of such funds unless otherwise specified in the Act by which they are made available: Provided, That in the event any functions budgeted as administrative expenses are subsequently transferred to or paid from other funds, the limitations on administrative expenses shall be correspondingly reduced.

SEC. 708. No part of any appropriation contained in this or any other Act shall be available for interagency financing of boards (except Federal Executive Boards), commissions, councils, committees, or similar groups (whether or not they are interagency entities) which do not have a prior and specific statutory approval to receive financial support from more than one agency or instrumentality.

SEC. 709. None of the funds made available pursuant to the provisions of this or any other Act shall be used to implement, administer, or enforce any regulation which has been disapproved pursuant to a joint resolution duly adopted in accordance with the applicable law of the United States.

SEC. 710. During the period in which the head of any department or agency, or any other officer or civilian employee of the Federal Government appointed by the President of the United States, holds office, no funds may be obligated or expended in excess of $5,000 to furnish or redecorate the office of such department head, agency head, officer, or employee, or to purchase furniture or make improvements for any such office, unless advance notice of such furnishing or redecoration is transmitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate. For the purposes of this section, the term "office" shall include the entire suite of offices assigned to the individual, as well as any other space used primarily by the individual or the use of which is directly controlled by the individual.

SEC. 711. Notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 1346, or section 708 of this Act, funds made available for the current fiscal year by this or any other Act shall be available for the interagency funding of national security and emergency preparedness telecommunications initiatives which benefit multiple Federal departments, agencies, or entities, as provided by Executive Order No. 13618 (July 6, 2012).

SEC. 712. (a) None of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be obligated or expended by any department, agency, or other instrumentality of the Federal Government to pay the salaries or expenses of any individual appointed to a position of a confidential or policy-determining character that is excepted from the competitive service under section 3302 of title 5, United States Code, (pursuant to schedule C of subpart C of part 213 of title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations) unless the head of the applicable department, agency, or other instrumentality employing such schedule C individual certifies to the Director of the Office of Personnel Management that the schedule C position occupied by the individual was not created solely or primarily in order to detail the individual to the White House.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to Federal employees or members of the armed forces detailed to or from an element of the intelligence community (as that term is defined under section 3(4) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 3003(4))).

SEC. 713. No part of any appropriation contained in this or any other Act shall be available for the payment of the salary of any officer or employee of the Federal Government, who—

(1) prohibits or prevents, or attempts or threatens to prohibit or prevent, any other officer or employee of the Federal Government from having any direct oral or written communication or contact with any Member, committee, or subcommittee of the Congress in connection with any matter pertaining to the employment of such other officer or employee or pertaining to the department or agency of such other officer or employee in any way, irrespective of whether such communication or contact is at the initiative of such other officer or employee or in response to the request or inquiry of such Member, committee, or subcommittee; or

(2) removes, suspends from duty without pay, demotes, reduces in rank, seniority, status, pay, or performance or efficiency rating, denies promotion to, relocates, reassigns, transfers, disciplines, or discriminates in regard to any employment right, entitlement, or benefit, or any term or condition of employment of, any other officer or employee of the Federal Government, or attempts or threatens to commit any of the foregoing actions with respect to such other officer or employee, by reason of any communication or contact of such other officer or employee with any Member, committee, or subcommittee of the Congress as described in paragraph (1).

SEC. 714. (a) None of the funds made available in this or any other Act may be obligated or expended for any employee training that—

(1) does not meet identified needs for knowledge, skills, and abilities bearing directly upon the performance of official duties;

(2) contains elements likely to induce high levels of emotional response or psychological stress in some participants;

(3) does not require prior employee notification of the content and methods to be used in the training and written end of course evaluation;

(4) contains any methods or content associated with religious or quasi-religious belief systems or "new age" belief systems as defined in Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Notice N-915.022, dated September 2, 1988; or

(5) is offensive to, or designed to change, participants' personal values or lifestyle outside the workplace.

(b) Nothing in this section shall prohibit, restrict, or otherwise preclude an agency from conducting training bearing directly upon the performance of official duties.

SEC. 715. No part of any funds appropriated in this or any other Act shall be used by an agency of the executive branch, other than for normal and recognized executive-legislative relationships, for publicity or propaganda purposes, and for the preparation, distribution or use of any kit, pamphlet, booklet, publication, radio, television, or film presentation designed to support or defeat legislation pending before the Congress, except in presentation to the Congress itself.

SEC. 716. None of the funds appropriated by this or any other Act may be used by an agency to provide a Federal employee's home address to any labor organization except when the employee has authorized such disclosure or when such disclosure has been ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 717. None of the funds made available in this or any other Act may be used to provide any non-public information such as mailing, telephone or electronic mailing lists to any person or any organization outside of the Federal Government without the approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

SEC. 718. No part of any appropriation contained in this or any other Act shall be used directly or indirectly, including by private contractor, for publicity or propaganda purposes within the United States not heretofore authorized by Congress.

SEC. 719. (a) In this section, the term "agency"—

(1) means an Executive agency, as defined under 5 U.S.C. 105; and

(2) includes a military department, as defined under section 102 of such title, the Postal Service, and the Postal Regulatory Commission.

(b) Unless authorized in accordance with law or regulations to use such time for other purposes, an employee of an agency shall use official time in an honest effort to perform official duties. An employee not under a leave system, including a Presidential appointee exempted under 5 U.S.C. 6301(2), has an obligation to expend an honest effort and a reasonable proportion of such employee's time in the performance of official duties.

SEC. 720. Notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 1346 and section 708 of this Act, funds made available for the current fiscal year by this or any other Act to any department or agency, which is a member of the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board (FASAB), shall be available to finance an appropriate share of FASAB administrative costs.

SEC. 721. Notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 1346 and section 708 of this Act, the head of each Executive department and agency is hereby authorized to transfer to or reimburse "General Services Administration, Government-wide Policy" with the approval of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, funds made available for the current fiscal year by this or any other Act, including rebates from charge card and other contracts: Provided, That these funds shall be administered by the Administrator of General Services to support Government-wide and other multi-agency financial, information technology, procurement, and other management innovations, initiatives, and activities, as approved by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, in consultation with the appropriate interagency and multi-agency groups designated by the Director (including the President's Management Council for overall management improvement initiatives, the Chief Financial Officers Council for financial management initiatives, the Chief Information Officers Council for information technology initiatives, the Chief Human Capital Officers Council for human capital initiatives, the Chief Acquisition Officers Council for procurement initiatives, and the Performance Improvement Council for performance improvement initiatives): Provided further, That the total funds transferred or reimbursed shall not exceed $17,000,000 for Government-Wide innovations, initiatives, and activities: Provided further, That the funds transferred to or for reimbursement of "General Services Administration, Government-wide Policy" during fiscal year 2015 shall remain available for obligation through September 30, 2016: Provided further, That such transfers or reimbursements may only be made after 15 days following notification of the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

SEC. 722. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a woman may breastfeed her child at any location in a Federal building or on Federal property, if the woman and her child are otherwise authorized to be present at the location.

SEC. 723. Notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 1346, or section 708 of this Act, funds made available for the current fiscal year by this or any other Act shall be available for the inter-agency funding of specific projects, workshops, studies, and similar efforts to carry out the purposes of the National Science and Technology Council (authorized by Executive Order No. 12881), which benefit multiple Federal departments, agencies, or entities: Provided, That the Office of Management and Budget shall provide a report describing the budget of and resources connected with the National Science and Technology Council to the Committees on Appropriations, the House Committee on Science and Technology, and the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation 90 days after enactment of this Act.

SEC. 724. Any request for proposals, solicitation, grant application, form, notification, press release, or other publications involving the distribution of Federal funds shall indicate the agency providing the funds, the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Number, as applicable, and the amount provided: Provided, That this section shall apply to direct payments, formula funds, and grants received by a State receiving Federal funds.

SEC. 725. (a) PROHIBITION OF FEDERAL AGENCY MONITORING OF INDIVIDUALS' INTERNET USE.—None of the funds made available in this or any other Act may be used by any Federal agency—

(1) to collect, review, or create any aggregation of data, derived from any means, that includes any personally identifiable information relating to an individual's access to or use of any Federal Government Internet site of the agency; or

(2) to enter into any agreement with a third party (including another government agency) to collect, review, or obtain any aggregation of data, derived from any means, that includes any personally identifiable information relating to an individual's access to or use of any nongovernmental Internet site.

(b) EXCEPTIONS.—The limitations established in subsection (a) shall not apply to—

(1) any record of aggregate data that does not identify particular persons;

(2) any voluntary submission of personally identifiable information;

(3) any action taken for law enforcement, regulatory, or supervisory purposes, in accordance with applicable law; or

(4) any action described in subsection (a)(1) that is a system security action taken by the operator of an Internet site and is necessarily incident to providing the Internet site services or to protecting the rights or property of the provider of the Internet site.

(c) DEFINITIONS.—For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "regulatory" means agency actions to implement, interpret or enforce authorities provided in law.

(2) The term "supervisory" means examinations of the agency's supervised institutions, including assessing safety and soundness, overall financial condition, management practices and policies and compliance with applicable standards as provided in law.

SEC. 726. (a) None of the funds appropriated by this Act may be used to enter into or renew a contract which includes a provision providing prescription drug coverage, except where the contract also includes a provision for contraceptive coverage.

(b) Nothing in this section shall apply to a contract with—

(1) any of the following religious plans:

(A) Personal Care's HMO; and

(B) OSF HealthPlans, Inc.; and

(2) any existing or future plan, if the carrier for the plan objects to such coverage on the basis of religious beliefs.

(c) In implementing this section, any plan that enters into or renews a contract under this section may not subject any individual to discrimination on the basis that the individual refuses to prescribe or otherwise provide for contraceptives because such activities would be contrary to the individual's religious beliefs or moral convictions.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require coverage of abortion or abortion-related services.

SEC. 727. The United States is committed to ensuring the health of its Olympic, Pan American, and Paralympic athletes, and supports the strict adherence to anti-doping in sport through testing, adjudication, education, and research as performed by nationally recognized oversight authorities.

SEC. 728. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, funds appropriated for official travel to Federal departments and agencies may be used by such departments and agencies, if consistent with Office of Management and Budget Circular A-126 regarding official travel for Government personnel, to participate in the fractional aircraft ownership pilot program.

SEC. 729. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, none of the funds appropriated or made available under this or any other appropriations Act may be used to implement or enforce restrictions or limitations on the Coast Guard Congressional Fellowship Program, or to implement the proposed regulations of the Office of Personnel Management to add sections 300.311 through 300.316 to part 300 of title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations, published in the Federal Register, volume 68, number 174, on September 9, 2003 (relating to the detail of executive branch employees to the legislative branch).

SEC. 730. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no executive branch agency shall purchase, construct, or lease any additional facilities, except within or contiguous to existing locations, to be used for the purpose of conducting Federal law enforcement training without the advance approval of the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, except that the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center is authorized to obtain the temporary use of additional facilities by lease, contract, or other agreement for training which cannot be accommodated in existing Center facilities.

SEC. 731. Unless otherwise authorized by existing law, none of the funds provided in this or any other Act may be used by an executive branch agency to produce any prepackaged news story intended for broadcast or distribution in the United States, unless the story includes a clear notification within the text or audio of the prepackaged news story that the prepackaged news story was prepared or funded by that executive branch agency.

SEC. 732. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used in contravention of section 552a of title 5, United States Code (popularly known as the Privacy Act), and regulations implementing that section.

SEC. 733. (a) IN GENERAL.—None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act may be used for any Federal Government contract with any foreign incorporated entity which is treated as an inverted domestic corporation under section 835(b) of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (6 U.S.C. 395(b)) or any subsidiary of such an entity.

(b) WAIVERS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Any Secretary shall waive subsection (a) with respect to any Federal Government contract under the authority of such Secretary if the Secretary determines that the waiver is required in the interest of national security.

(2) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Any Secretary issuing a waiver under paragraph (1) shall report such issuance to Congress.

(c) EXCEPTION.—This section shall not apply to any Federal Government contract entered into before the date of the enactment of this Act, or to any task order issued pursuant to such contract.

SEC. 734. During fiscal year 2015, for each employee who—

(1) retires under section 8336(d)(2) or 8414(b)(1)(B) of title 5, United States Code; or

(2) retires under any other provision of subchapter III of chapter 83 or chapter 84 of such title 5 and receives a payment as an incentive to separate, the separating agency shall remit to the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund an amount equal to the Office of Personnel Management's average unit cost of processing a retirement claim for the preceding fiscal year. Such amounts shall be available until expended to the Office of Personnel Management and shall be deemed to be an administrative expense under section 8348(a)(1)(B) of title 5, United States Code.

SEC. 735. (a) None of the funds made available in this or any other Act may be used to recommend or require any entity submitting an offer for a Federal contract to disclose any of the following information as a condition of submitting the offer:

(1) Any payment consisting of a contribution, expenditure, independent expenditure, or disbursement for an electioneering communication that is made by the entity, its officers or directors, or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries to a candidate for election for Federal office or to a political committee, or that is otherwise made with respect to any election for Federal office.

(2) Any disbursement of funds (other than a payment described in paragraph (1)) made by the entity, its officers or directors, or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries to any person with the intent or the reasonable expectation that the person will use the funds to make a payment described in paragraph (1).

(b) In this section, each of the terms "contribution", "expenditure", "independent expenditure", "electioneering communication", "candidate", "election", and "Federal office" has the meaning given such term in the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (2 U.S.C. 431 et seq.).

SEC. 736. None of the funds made available in this or any other Act may be used to pay for the painting of a portrait of an officer or employee of the Federal government, including the President, the Vice President, a member of Congress (including a Delegate or a Resident Commissioner to Congress), the head of an executive branch agency (as defined in section 133 of title 41, United States Code), or the head of an office of the legislative branch.

SEC. 737. (a)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and except as otherwise provided in this section, no part of any of the funds appropriated for fiscal year 2015, by this or any other Act, may be used to pay any prevailing rate employee described in section 5342(a)(2)(A) of title 5, United States Code—

(A) during the period from the date of expiration of the limitation imposed by the comparable section for the previous fiscal years until the normal effective date of the applicable wage survey adjustment that is to take effect in fiscal year 2015, in an amount that exceeds the rate payable for the applicable grade and step of the applicable wage schedule in accordance with such section; and

(B) during the period consisting of the remainder of fiscal year 2015, in an amount that exceeds, as a result of a wage survey adjustment, the rate payable under subparagraph (A) by more than the sum of—

(i) the percentage adjustment taking effect in fiscal year 2015 under section 5303 of title 5, United States Code, in the rates of pay under the General Schedule; and

(ii) the difference between the overall average percentage of the locality-based comparability payments taking effect in fiscal year 2015 under section 5304 of such title (whether by adjustment or otherwise), and the overall average percentage of such payments which was effective in the previous fiscal year under such section.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no prevailing rate employee described in subparagraph (B) or (C) of section 5342(a)(2) of title 5, United States Code, and no employee covered by section 5348 of such title, may be paid during the periods for which paragraph (1) is in effect at a rate that exceeds the rates that would be payable under paragraph (1) were paragraph (1) applicable to such employee.

(3) For the purposes of this subsection, the rates payable to an employee who is covered by this subsection and who is paid from a schedule not in existence on September 30, 2014, shall be determined under regulations prescribed by the Office of Personnel Management.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rates of premium pay for employees subject to this subsection may not be changed from the rates in effect on September 30, 2014, except to the extent determined by the Office of Personnel Management to be consistent with the purpose of this subsection.

(5) This subsection shall apply with respect to pay for service performed after September 30, 2014.

(6) For the purpose of administering any provision of law (including any rule or regulation that provides premium pay, retirement, life insurance, or any other employee benefit) that requires any deduction or contribution, or that imposes any requirement or limitation on the basis of a rate of salary or basic pay, the rate of salary or basic pay payable after the application of this subsection shall be treated as the rate of salary or basic pay.

(7) Nothing in this subsection shall be considered to permit or require the payment to any employee covered by this subsection at a rate in excess of the rate that would be payable were this subsection not in effect.

(8) The Office of Personnel Management may provide for exceptions to the limitations imposed by this subsection if the Office determines that such exceptions are necessary to ensure the recruitment or retention of qualified employees.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), the adjustment in rates of basic pay for the statutory pay systems that take place in fiscal year 2015 under sections 5344 and 5348 of title 5, United States Code, shall be—

(1) not less than the percentage received by employees in the same location whose rates of basic pay are adjusted pursuant to the statutory pay systems under sections 5303 and 5304 of title 5, United States Code: Provided, That prevailing rate employees at locations where there are no employees whose pay is increased pursuant to sections 5303 and 5304 of title 5, United States Code, and prevailing rate employees described in section 5343(a)(5) of title 5, United States Code, shall be considered to be located in the pay locality designated as "Rest of United States" pursuant to section 5304 of title 5, United States Code, for purposes of this subsection; and

(2) effective as of the first day of the first applicable pay period beginning after September 30, 2014.

SEC. 738. (a) The Vice President may not receive a pay raise in calendar year 2015, notwithstanding the rate adjustment made under section 104 of title 3, United States Code, or any other provision of law.

(b) An employee serving in an Executive Schedule position, or in a position for which the rate of pay is fixed by statute at an Executive Schedule rate, may not receive a pay rate increase in calendar year 2015, notwithstanding schedule adjustments made under section 5318 of title 5, United States Code, or any other provision of law, except as provided in subsection (g), (h), or (i). This subsection applies only to employees who are holding a position under a political appointment.

(c) A chief of mission or ambassador at large may not receive a pay rate increase in calendar year 2015, notwithstanding section 401 of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 (Public Law 96-465) or any other provision of law, except as provided in subsection (g), (h), or (i).

(d) Notwithstanding sections 5382 and 5383 of title 5, United States Code, a pay rate increase may not be received in calendar year 2015 (except as provided in subsection (g), (h), or (i)) by—

(1) a noncareer appointee in the Senior Executive Service paid a rate of basic pay at or above level IV of the Executive Schedule; or

(2) a limited term appointee or limited emergency appointee in the Senior Executive Service serving under a political appointment and paid a rate of basic pay at or above level IV of the Executive Schedule.

(e) Any employee paid a rate of basic pay (including any locality-based payments under section 5304 of title 5, United States Code, or similar authority) at or above level IV of the Executive Schedule who serves under a political appointment may not receive a pay rate increase in calendar year 2015, notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in subsection (g), (h), or (i). This subsection does not apply to employees in the General Schedule pay system or the Foreign Service pay system, or to employees appointed under section 3161 of title 5, United States Code, or to employees in another pay system whose position would be classified at GS-15 or below if chapter 51 of title 5, United States Code, applied to them.

(f) Nothing in subsections (b) through (e) shall prevent employees who do not serve under a political appointment from receiving pay increases as otherwise provided under applicable law.

(g) A career appointee in the Senior Executive Service who receives a Presidential appointment and who makes an election to retain Senior Executive Service basic pay entitlements under section 3392 of title 5, United States Code, is not subject to this section.

(h) A member of the Senior Foreign Service who receives a Presidential appointment to any position in the executive branch and who makes an election to retain Senior Foreign Service pay entitlements under section 302(b) of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 (Public Law 96-465) is not subject to this section.

(i) Notwithstanding subsections (b) through (e), an employee in a covered position may receive a pay rate increase upon an authorized movement to a different covered position with higher-level duties and a pre-established higher level or range of pay, except that any such increase must be based on the rates of pay and applicable pay limitations in effect on December 31, 2013.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for an individual who is newly appointed to a covered position during the period of time subject to this section, the initial pay rate shall be based on the rates of pay and applicable pay limitations in effect on December 31, 2013.

(k) If an employee affected by subsections (b) through (e) is subject to a biweekly pay period that begins in calendar year 2015 but ends in calendar year 2016, the bar on the employee's receipt of pay rate increases shall apply through the end of that pay period.

SEC. 739. (a) The head of any Executive branch department, agency, board, commission, or office funded by this or any other appropriations Act shall submit annual reports to the Inspector General or senior ethics official for any entity without an Inspector General, regarding the costs and contracting procedures related to each conference held by any such department, agency, board, commission, or office during fiscal year 2015 for which the cost to the United States Government was more than $100,000.

(b) Each report submitted shall include, for each conference described in subsection (a) held during the applicable period—

- (1) a description of its purpose;
- (2) the number of participants attending;
- (3) a detailed statement of the costs to the United States Government, including—
  - (A) the cost of any food or beverages;
  - (B) the cost of any audio-visual services;
  - (C) the cost of employee or contractor travel to and from the conference; and
- (D) a discussion of the methodology used to determine which costs relate to the conference; and

(4) a description of the contracting procedures used including—

- (A) whether contracts were awarded on a competitive basis; and
- (B) a discussion of any cost comparison conducted by the departmental component or office in evaluating potential contractors for the conference.

(c) Within 15 days of the date of a conference held by any Executive branch department, agency, board, commission, or office funded by this or any other appropriations Act during fiscal year 2015 for which the cost to the United States Government was more than $20,000, the head of any such department, agency, board, commission, or office shall notify the Inspector General or senior ethics official for any entity without an Inspector General, of the date, location, and number of employees attending such conference.

(d) A grant or contract funded by amounts appropriated by this or any other appropriations Act may not be used for the purpose of defraying the costs of a conference described in subsection (c) that is not directly and programmatically related to the purpose for which the grant or contract was awarded, such as a conference held in connection with planning, training, assessment, review, or other routine purposes related to a project funded by the grant or contract.

(e) None of the funds made available in this or any other appropriations Act may be used for travel and conference activities that are not in compliance with Office of Management and Budget Memorandum M-12-12 dated May 11, 2012.

SEC. 740. None of the funds made available in this or any other appropriations Act may be used to increase, eliminate, or reduce funding for a program, project, or activity as proposed in the President's budget request for a fiscal year until such proposed change is subsequently enacted in an appropriation Act, or unless such change is made pursuant to the reprogramming or transfer provisions of this or any other appropriations Act.

SEC. 741. None of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be used to implement, administer, enforce, or apply the rule entitled "Competitive Area" published by the Office of Personnel Management in the Federal Register on April 15, 2008 (73 Fed. Reg. 20180 et seq.).

SEC. 742. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act may be used to begin or announce a study or public-private competition regarding the conversion to contractor performance of any function performed by Federal employees pursuant to Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76 or any other administrative regulation, directive, or policy.

SEC. 743. (a) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this or any other Act may be available for a contract, grant, or cooperative agreement with an entity that requires employees or contractors of such entity seeking to report fraud, waste, or abuse to sign internal confidentiality agreements or statements prohibiting or otherwise restricting such employees or contractors from lawfully reporting such waste, fraud, or abuse to a designated investigative or law enforcement representative of a Federal department or agency authorized to receive such information.

(b) The limitation in subsection (a) shall not contravene requirements applicable to Standard Form 312, Form 4414, or any other form issued by a Federal department or agency governing the nondisclosure of classified information.

SEC. 744. None of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be used to enter into a contract, memorandum of understanding, or cooperative agreement with, make a grant to, or provide a loan or loan guarantee to, any corporation that has any unpaid Federal tax liability that has been assessed, for which all judicial and administrative remedies have been exhausted or have lapsed, and that is not being paid in a timely manner pursuant to an agreement with the authority responsible for collecting the tax liability, where the awarding agency is aware of the unpaid tax liability, unless a Federal agency has considered suspension or debarment of the corporation and has made a determination that this further action is not necessary to protect the interests of the Government.

SEC. 745. None of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be used to enter into a contract, memorandum of understanding, or cooperative agreement with, make a grant to, or provide a loan or loan guarantee to, any corporation that was convicted of a felony criminal violation under any Federal law within the preceding 24 months, where the awarding agency is aware of the conviction, unless a Federal agency has considered suspension or debarment of the corporation and has made a determination that this further action is not necessary to protect the interests of the Government.

SEC. 746. Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, in consultation with the Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency, the Government Accountability Office, and other stakeholders shall develop—

(1) criteria for an agency that has demonstrated a stabilized, effective system of internal control over financial reporting, whereby the agency would qualify for a consolidated Department level audit for obtaining a financial statement audit opinion, rather than an agency level audit; and

(2) recommendations on how to improve current financial reporting requirements to increase government transparency, in conjunction with the implementation of the Digital Accountability and Transparency Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-101), and better meet the needs of all stakeholders.

SEC. 747. (a) No funds appropriated in this or any other Act may be used to implement or enforce the agreements in Standard Forms 312 and 4414 of the Government or any other nondisclosure policy, form, or agreement if such policy, form, or agreement does not contain the following provisions: "These provisions are consistent with and do not supersede, conflict with, or otherwise alter the employee obligations, rights, or liabilities created by existing statute or Executive order relating to (1) classified information, (2) communications to Congress, (3) the reporting to an Inspector General of a violation of any law, rule, or regulation, or mismanagement, a gross waste of funds, an abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety, or (4) any other whistleblower protection. The definitions, requirements, obligations, rights, sanctions, and liabilities created by controlling Executive orders and statutory provisions are incorporated into this agreement and are controlling." Provided, That notwithstanding the preceding provision of this section, a nondisclosure policy form or agreement that is to be executed by a person connected with the conduct of an intelligence or intelligence-related activity, other than an employee or officer of the United States Government, may contain provisions appropriate to the particular activity for which such document is to be used. Such form or agreement shall, at a minimum, require that the person will not disclose any classified information received in the course of such activity unless specifically authorized to do so by the United States Government. Such nondisclosure forms shall also make it clear that they do not bar disclosures to Congress, or to an authorized official of an executive agency or the Department of Justice, that are essential to reporting a substantial violation of law.

(b) A nondisclosure agreement may continue to be implemented and enforced notwithstanding subsection (a) if it complies with the requirements for such agreement that were in effect when the agreement was entered into.

(c) No funds appropriated in this or any other Act may be used to implement or enforce any agreement entered into during fiscal year 2014 which does not contain substantially similar language to that required in subsection (a).

SEC. 748. During fiscal year 2015, on the date that a request is made for a transfer of funds in accordance with section 1017 of Public Law 111–203, the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection shall notify Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, the Committee on Financial Services of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate of such requests.

SEC. 749. None of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be used to implement a new Federal Flood Risk Management Standard until the Administration has solicited and considered input from Governors, mayors, and other stakeholders.

SEC. 750. Except as expressly provided otherwise, any reference to “this Act” contained in any title other than title IV or VIII shall not apply to such title IV or VIII.

TITLE VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

SEC. 801. There are appropriated from the applicable funds of the District of Columbia such sums as may be necessary for making refunds and for the payment of legal settlements or judgments that have been entered against the District of Columbia government.

SEC. 802. None of the Federal funds provided in this Act shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes or implementation of any policy including boycott designed to support or defeat legislation pending before Congress or any State legislature.

SEC. 803. (a) None of the Federal funds provided under this Act to the agencies funded by this Act, both Federal and District government agencies, that remain available for obligation or expenditure in fiscal year 2015, or provided from any accounts in the Treasury of the United States derived by the collection of fees available to the agencies funded by this Act, shall be available for obligation or expenditures for an agency through a reprogramming of funds which—

- (1) creates new programs;
- (2) eliminates a program, project, or responsibility center;
- (3) establishes or changes allocations specifically denied, limited or increased under this Act;
- (4) increases funds or personnel by any means for any program, project, or responsibility center for which funds have been denied or restricted;
- (5) re-establishes any program or project previously deferred through reprogramming;
- (6) augments any existing program, project, or responsibility center through a reprogramming of funds in excess of $3,000,000 or 10 percent, whichever is less; or
- (7) increases by 20 percent or more personnel assigned to a specific program, project or responsibility center, unless prior approval is received from the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

(b) The District of Columbia government is authorized to approve and execute reprogramming and transfer requests of local funds under this title through November 7, 2015.

SEC. 804. None of the Federal funds provided in this Act may be used by the District of Columbia to provide for salaries, expenses, or other costs associated with the offices of United States Senator or United States Representative under section 4(d) of the District of Columbia Statehood Constitutional Convention Initiatives of 1979 (D.C. Law 3–171; D.C. Official Code, sec. 1–123).

SEC. 805. Except as otherwise provided in this section, none of the funds made available by this Act or by any other Act may be used to provide any officer or employee of the District of Columbia with an official vehicle unless the officer or employee uses the vehicle only in the performance of the officer's or employee's official duties. For purposes of this section, the term “official duties” does not include travel between the officer's or employee's residence and workplace, except in the case of—

- (1) an officer or employee of the Metropolitan Police Department who resides in the District of Columbia or is otherwise designated by the Chief of the Department;
- (2) at the discretion of the Fire Chief, an officer or employee of the District of Columbia Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department who resides in the District of Columbia and is on call 24 hours a day;
- (3) at the discretion of the Director of the Department of Corrections, an officer or employee of the District of Columbia Department of Corrections who resides in the District of Columbia and is on call 24 hours a day;
- (4) at the discretion of the Chief Medical Examiner, an officer or employee of the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner who resides in the District of Columbia and is on call 24 hours a day;
- (5) at the discretion of the Director of the Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency, an officer or employee of the Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency who resides in the District of Columbia and is on call 24 hours a day;
- (6) the Mayor of the District of Columbia; and
- (7) the Chairman of the Council of the District of Columbia.

SEC. 806. (a) None of the Federal funds contained in this Act may be used by the District of Columbia Attorney General or any other officer or entity of the District government to provide assistance for any petition drive or civil action which seeks to require Congress to provide for voting representation in Congress for the District of Columbia.

(b) Nothing in this section bars the District of Columbia Attorney General from reviewing or commenting on briefs in private lawsuits, or from consulting with officials of the District government regarding such lawsuits.

SEC. 807. None of the Federal funds contained in this Act may be used to distribute any needle or syringe for the purpose of preventing the spread of blood borne pathogens in any location that has been determined by the local public health or local law enforcement authorities to be inappropriate for such distribution.

SEC. 808. Nothing in this Act may be construed to prevent the Council or Mayor of the District of Columbia from addressing the issue of the provision of contraceptive coverage by health insurance plans, but it is the intent of Congress that any legislation enacted on such issue should include a “conscience clause” which provides exceptions for religious beliefs and moral convictions.

SEC. 809. (a) None of the Federal funds contained in this Act may be used to enact or carry out any law, rule, or regulation to legalize or otherwise reduce penalties associated with the possession, use, or distribution of any schedule I substance under the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 801 et seq.) or any tetrahydrocannabinols derivative.

(b) None of the funds contained in this Act may be used to enact any law, rule, or regulation to legalize or otherwise reduce penalties associated with the possession, use, or distribution of any schedule I substance under the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 801 et seq.) or any tetrahydrocannabinols derivative for recreational purposes.

SEC. 810. None of the funds appropriated under this Act shall be expended for any abortion except where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term or where the pregnancy is the result of an act of rape or incest.

SEC. 811. (a) No later than 30 calendar days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Chief Financial Officer for the District of Columbia shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress, the Mayor, and the Council of the District of Columbia, a revised appropriated funds operating budget in the format of the budget that the District of Columbia government submitted pursuant to section 442 of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act (D.C. Official Code, sec. 1–204.42), for all agencies of the District of Columbia government for fiscal year 2015 that is in the total amount of the approved appropriation and that realigns all budgeted data for personal services and other-than-personal services, respectively, with anticipated actual expenditures.

(b) This section shall apply only to an agency for which the Chief Financial Officer for the District of Columbia certifies that a reallocation is required to address unanticipated changes in program requirements.

SEC. 812. No later than 30 calendar days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Chief Financial Officer for the District of Columbia shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress, the Mayor, and the Council for the District of Columbia, a revised appropriated funds operating budget for the District of Columbia Public Schools that aligns schools budgets to actual enrollment. The revised appropriated funds budget shall be in the format of the budget that the District of Columbia government submitted pursuant to section 442 of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act (D.C. Official Code, Sec. 1–204.42).

SEC. 813. (a) Amounts appropriated in this Act as operating funds may be transferred to the District of Columbia's enterprise and capital funds and such amounts, once transferred, shall retain appropriation authority consistent with the provisions of this Act.

(b) The District of Columbia government is authorized to reprogram or transfer for operating expenses any local funds transferred or reprogrammed in this or the four prior fiscal years from operating funds to capital funds, and such amounts, once transferred or reprogrammed, shall retain appropriation authority consistent with the provisions of this Act.

(c) The District of Columbia government may not transfer or reprogram for operating expenses any funds derived from bonds, notes, or other obligations issued for capital projects.

SEC. 814. None of the Federal funds appropriated in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year, nor may any be transferred to other appropriations, unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 815. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law or under this Act, not to exceed 50 percent of unobligated balances remaining available at the end of fiscal year 2015 from appropriations of Federal funds made available for salaries and expenses for fiscal year 2015 in this Act, shall remain available through September 30, 2016, for each such account for the purposes authorized: Provided, That a request shall be submitted to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate for approval prior to the expenditure of such funds: Provided further, That these requests shall be made in compliance with reprogramming guidelines outlined in section 803 of this Act.

SEC. 816. (a) During fiscal year 2016, during a period in which neither a District of Columbia continuing resolution or a regular District of Columbia appropriation bill is in effect, local funds are appropriated in the amount provided for any project or activity for which local funds are provided in the Fiscal Year 2016 Budget Request Act of 2015 as submitted to Congress (subject to any modifications enacted by the District of Columbia as of the beginning of the period during which this subsection is in effect) at the rate set forth by such Act.

(b) Appropriations made by subsection (a) shall cease to be available—

(1) during any period in which a District of Columbia continuing resolution for fiscal year 2016 is in effect; or

(2) upon the enactment into law of the regular District of Columbia appropriation bill for fiscal year 2016.

(c) An appropriation made by subsection (a) is provided under the authority and conditions as provided under this Act and shall be available to the extent and in the manner that would be provided by this Act.

(d) An appropriation made by subsection (a) shall cover all obligations or expenditures incurred for such project or activity during the portion of fiscal year 2016 for which this section applies to such project or activity.

(e) This section shall not apply to a project or activity during any period of fiscal year 2016 if any other provision of law (other than an authorization of appropriations)—

(1) makes an appropriation, makes funds available, or grants authority for such project or activity to continue for such period; or

(2) specifically provides that no appropriation shall be made, no funds shall be made available, or no authority shall be granted for such project or activity to continue for such period.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect obligations of the government of the District of Columbia mandated by other law.

SEC. 817. Except as expressly provided otherwise, any reference to “this Act” contained in this title or in title IV shall be treated as referring only to the provisions of this title or of title IV.

This division may be cited as the “Financial Services and General Government Appropriations Act, 2015”.

DIVISION F—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, ENVIRONMENT, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2015

TITLE I

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT

MANAGEMENT OF LANDS AND RESOURCES

For necessary expenses for protection, use, improvement, development, disposal, cadastral surveying, classification, acquisition of easements and other interests in lands, and performance of other functions, including maintenance of facilities, as authorized by law, in the management of lands and their resources under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Land Management, including the general administration of the Bureau, and assessment of mineral potential of public lands pursuant to section 1010(a) of Public Law 96-487 (16 U.S.C. 3150(a)), $970,016,000, to remain available until expended; of which $3,000,000 shall be available in fiscal year 2015 subject to a match by at least an equal amount by the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation for cost-shared projects supporting conservation of Bureau lands; and such funds shall be advanced to the Foundation as a lump-sum grant without regard to when expenses are incurred.

In addition, $32,500,000 is for the processing of applications for permit to drill and related use authorizations, to remain available until expended, to be reduced by amounts collected by the Bureau and credited to this appropriation that shall be derived from a fee of $6,500 per new application for permit to drill that the Bureau shall collect upon submission of each new application, and, in addition, $39,696,000 is for Mining Law Administration program operations, including the cost of administering the mining claim fee program, to remain available until expended, to be reduced by amounts collected by the Bureau and credited to this appropriation from mining claim maintenance fees and location fees that are hereby authorized for fiscal year 2015 so as to result in a final appropriation estimated at not more than $970,016,000, and $2,000,000, to remain available until expended, from communication site rental fees established by the Bureau for the cost of administering communication site activities.

LAND ACQUISITION

For expenses necessary to carry out sections 205, 206, and 318(d) of Public Law 94-579, including administrative expenses and acquisition of lands or waters, or interests therein, $19,746,000, to be derived from the Land and Water Conservation Fund and to remain available until expended.

OREGON AND CALIFORNIA GRANT LANDS

For expenses necessary for management, protection, and development of resources and for construction, operation, and maintenance of access roads, reforestation, and other improvements on the revested Oregon and California Railroad grant lands, on other Federal lands in the Oregon and California land-grant counties of Oregon, and on adjacent rights-of-way; and acquisition of lands or interests therein, including existing connecting roads on or adjacent to such grant lands; $113,777,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That 25 percent of the aggregate of all receipts during the current fiscal year from the revested Oregon and California Railroad grant lands is hereby made a charge against the Oregon and California land-grant fund and shall be transferred to the General Fund in the Treasury in accordance with the second paragraph of subsection (b) of title II of the Act of August 28, 1937 (43 U.S.C. 1181(f)).

RANGE IMPROVEMENTS

For rehabilitation, protection, and acquisition of lands and interests therein, and improvement of Federal rangelands pursuant to section 401 of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1751), notwithstanding any other Act, sums equal to 50 percent of all moneys received during the prior fiscal year under sections 3 and 15 of the Taylor Grazing Act (43 U.S.C. 315(b), 315(m)) and the amount designated for range improvements from grazing fees and mineral leasing receipts from Bankhead-Jones lands transferred to the Department of the Interior pursuant to law, but not less than $10,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That not to exceed $600,000 shall be available for administrative expenses.

SERVICE CHARGES, DEPOSITS, AND FORFEITURES

For administrative expenses and other costs related to processing application documents and other authorizations for use and disposal of public lands and resources, for costs of providing copies of official public land documents, for monitoring construction, operation, and termination of facilities in conjunction with use authorizations, and for rehabilitation of damaged property, such amounts as may be collected under Public Law 94-579 (43 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), and under section 28 of the Mineral Leasing Act (30 U.S.C. 185), to remain available until expended: Provided, That, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary of section 305(a) of Public Law 94-579 (43 U.S.C. 1735(a)), any moneys that have been or will be received pursuant to that section, whether as a result of forfeiture, compromise, or settlement, if not appropriate for refund pursuant to section 305(c) of that Act (43 U.S.C. 1735(c)), shall be available and may be expended under the authority of this Act by the Secretary to improve, protect, or rehabilitate any public lands administered through the Bureau of Land Management which have been damaged by the action of a resource developer, purchaser, permittee, or any unauthorized person, without regard to whether all moneys collected from each such action are used on the exact lands damaged which led to the action: Provided further, That any such moneys that are in excess of amounts needed to repair damage to the exact land for which funds were collected may be used to repair other damaged public lands.

MISCELLANEOUS TRUST FUNDS

In addition to amounts authorized to be expended under existing laws, there is hereby appropriated such amounts as may be contributed under section 307 of Public Law 94-579 (43 U.S.C. 1737), and such amounts as may be advanced for administrative costs, surveys, appraisals, and costs of making conveyances of omitted lands under section 211(b) of that Act (43 U.S.C. 1721(b)), to remain available until expended.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

The Bureau of Land Management may carry out the operations funded under this Act by direct expenditure, contracts, grants, cooperative agreements and reimbursable agreements with public and private entities, including with States. Appropriations for the Bureau shall be available for purchase, erection, and dismantlement of temporary structures, and alteration and maintenance of necessary buildings and appurtenant facilities to which the United States has title; up to $100,000 for payments, at the discretion of the Secretary, for information or evidence concerning violations of laws administered by the Bureau; miscellaneous and emergency expenses of enforcement activities authorized or approved by the Secretary and to be accounted for solely on the Secretary's certificate, not to exceed $10,000: Provided, That notwithstanding Public Law 90-620 (44 U.S.C. 501), the Bureau may, under cooperative cost-sharing and partnership arrangements authorized by law, procure printing services from cooperators in connection with jointly produced publications for which the cooperators share the cost of printing either in cash or in services, and the Bureau determines the cooperator is capable of meeting accepted quality standards: Provided further, That projects to be funded pursuant to a written commitment by a State government to provide an identified amount of money in support of the project may be carried out by the Bureau on a reimbursable basis. Appropriations herein made shall not be available for the destruction of healthy, unadopted, wild horses and burros in the care of the Bureau or its contractors or for the sale of wild horses and burros that results in their destruction for processing into commercial products.

UNITED STATES FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

For necessary expenses of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, as authorized by law, and for scientific and economic studies, general administration, and for the performance of other authorized functions related to such resources, $1,207,658,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016 except as otherwise provided herein: Provided, That not to exceed $20,515,000 shall be used for implementing subsections (a), (b), (c), and (e) of section 4 of the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1533) (except for processing petitions, developing and issuing proposed and final regulations, and taking any other steps to implement actions described in subsection (c)(2)(A), (c)(2)(B)(i), or (c)(2)(B)(ii)), of which not to exceed $4,605,000 shall be used for any activity regarding the designation of critical habitat, pursuant to subsection (a)(3), excluding litigation support, for species listed pursuant to subsection (a)(1) prior to October 1, 2012; of which not to exceed $1,501,000 shall be used for any activity regarding petitions to list species that are indigenous to the United States pursuant to subsections (b)(3)(A) and (b)(3)(B); and, of which not to exceed $1,504,000 shall be used for implementing subsections (a), (b), (c), and (e) of section 4 of the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1533) for species that are not indigenous to the United States.

CONSTRUCTION

For construction, improvement, acquisition, or removal of buildings and other facilities required in the conservation, management, investigation, protection, and utilization of fish and wildlife resources, and the acquisition of lands and interests therein; $15,687,000, to remain available until expended.

LAND ACQUISITION

For expenses necessary to carry out the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965, (16 U.S.C. 460l-4 et seq.), including administrative expenses, and for acquisition of land or waters, or interest therein, in accordance with statutory authority applicable to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, $47,535,000, to be derived from the Land and Water Conservation Fund and to remain available until expended: Provided, That none of the funds appropriated for specific land acquisition projects may be used to pay for any administrative overhead, planning or other management costs.

COOPERATIVE ENDANGERED SPECIES CONSERVATION FUND

For expenses necessary to carry out section 6 of the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1535), $50,095,000, to remain available until expended, of which $22,695,000 is to be derived from the Cooperative Endangered Species Conservation Fund; and of which $27,400,000 is to be derived from the Land and Water Conservation Fund.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE FUND

For expenses necessary to implement the Act of October 17, 1978 (16 U.S.C. 715s), $13,228,000.

NORTH AMERICAN WETLANDS CONSERVATION FUND

For expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of the North American Wetlands Conservation Act (16 U.S.C. 4401 et seq.), $34,145,000, to remain available until expended.

NEOTROPICAL MIGRATORY BIRD CONSERVATION

For expenses necessary to carry out the Neotropical Migratory Bird Conservation Act (16 U.S.C. 6101 et seq.), $3,660,000, to remain available until expended.

MULTINATIONAL SPECIES CONSERVATION FUND

For expenses necessary to carry out the African Elephant Conservation Act (16 U.S.C. 4201 et seq.), the Asian Elephant Conservation Act of 1997 (16 U.S.C. 4261 et seq.), the Rhinoceros and Tiger Conservation Act of 1994 (16 U.S.C. 5301 et seq.), the Great Ape Conservation Act of 2000 (16 U.S.C. 6301 et seq.), and the Marine Turtle Conservation Act of 2004 (16 U.S.C. 6601 et seq.), $9,061,000, to remain available until expended.

STATE AND TRIBAL WILDLIFE GRANTS

For wildlife conservation grants to States and to the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, the United States Virgin Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, and Indian tribes under the provisions of the Fish and Wildlife Act of 1956 and the Fish and Wildlife Coordination Act, for the development and implementation of programs for the benefit of wildlife and their habitat, including species that are not hunted or fished, $58,695,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That of the amount provided herein, $4,084,000 is for a competitive grant program for Indian tribes not subject to the remaining provisions of this appropriation: Provided further, That $5,487,000 is for a competitive grant program for States, territories, and other jurisdictions and at the discretion of affected States, the regional Associations of fish and wildlife agencies, not subject to the remaining provisions of this appropriation: Provided further, That the Secretary shall, after deducting $9,571,000 and administrative expenses, apportion the amount provided herein in the following manner: (1) to the District of Columbia and to the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, each a sum equal to not more than one-half of 1 percent thereof; and (2) to Guam, American Samoa, the United States Virgin Islands, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, each a sum equal to not more than one-fourth of 1 percent thereof: Provided further, That the Secretary shall apportion the remaining amount in the following manner: (1) one-third of which is based on the ratio to which the land area of such State bears to the total land area of all such States; and (2) two-thirds of which is based on the ratio to which the population of such State bears to the total population of all such States: Provided further, That the amounts apportioned under this paragraph shall be adjusted equitably so that no State shall be apportioned a sum which is less than 1 percent of the amount available for apportionment under this paragraph for any fiscal year or more than 5 percent of such amount: Provided further, That the Federal share of planning grants shall not exceed 75 percent of the total costs of such projects and the Federal share of implementation grants shall not exceed 65 percent of the total costs of such projects: Provided further, That the non-Federal share of such projects may not be derived from Federal grant programs: Provided further, That any amount apportioned in 2015 to any State, territory, or other jurisdiction that remains unobligated as of September 30, 2016, shall be reapportioned, together with funds appropriated in 2017, in the manner provided herein.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

The United States Fish and Wildlife Service may carry out the operations of Service programs by direct expenditure, contracts, grants, cooperative agreements and reimbursable agreements with public and private entities. Appropriations and funds available to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service shall be available for repair of damage to public roads within and adjacent to reservation areas caused by operations of the Service; options for the purchase of land at not to exceed $1 for each option; facilities incident to such public recreational uses on conservation areas as are consistent with their primary purpose; and the maintenance and improvement of aquaria, buildings, and other facilities under the jurisdiction of the Service and to which the United States has title, and which are used pursuant to law in connection with management, and investigation of fish and wildlife resources: Provided, That notwithstanding 44 U.S.C. 501, the Service may, under cooperative cost sharing and partnership arrangements authorized by law, procure printing services from cooperators in connection with jointly produced publications for which the cooperators share at least one-half the cost of printing either in cash or services and the Service determines the cooperator is capable of meeting accepted quality standards: Provided further, That the Service may accept donated aircraft as replacements for existing aircraft: Provided further, That notwithstanding 31 U.S.C. 3302, all fees collected for non-toxic shot review and approval shall be deposited under the heading "United States Fish and Wildlife Service—Resource Management" and shall be available to the Secretary, without further appropriation, to be used for expenses of processing of such non-toxic shot type or coating applications and revising regulations as necessary, and shall remain available until expended.

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

OPERATION OF THE NATIONAL PARK SYSTEM

In addition, for costs to review, administer, and enforce permits issued by the Bureau pursuant to section 507 of Public Law 95-87 (30 U.S.C. 1257), $40,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That fees assessed and collected by the Bureau pursuant to such section 507 shall be credited to this account as discretionary offsetting collections, to remain available until expended: Provided further, That the sum herein appropriated from the general fund shall be reduced as collections are received during the fiscal year, so as to result in a fiscal year 2015 appropriation estimated at not more than $122,713,000.

ABANDONED MINE RECLAMATION FUND

For necessary expenses to carry out title IV of the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977, Public Law 95-87, $27,399,000, to be derived from receipts of the Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund and to remain available until expended: Provided, That pursuant to Public Law 97-365, the Department of the Interior is authorized to use up to 20 percent from the recovery of the delinquent debt owed to the United States Government to pay for contracts to collect these debts: Provided further, That funds made available under title IV of Public Law 95-87 may be used for any required non-Federal share of the cost of projects funded by the Federal Government for the purpose of environmental restoration related to treatment or abatement of acid mine drainage from abandoned mines: Provided further, That such projects must be consistent with the purposes and priorities of the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act: Provided further, That amounts provided under this heading may be used for the travel and per diem expenses of State and tribal personnel attending Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement sponsored training.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

In fiscal year 2015 and each fiscal year thereafter, with funds available for the Technical Innovation and Professional Services program in this or any other Act with respect to any fiscal year, the Secretary may transfer title for computer hardware, software and other technical equipment to State and tribal regulatory and reclamation programs.

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS AND BUREAU OF INDIAN EDUCATION

OPERATION OF INDIAN PROGRAMS

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

For expenses necessary for the operation of Indian programs, as authorized by law, including the Snyder Act of November 2, 1921 (25 U.S.C. 13), the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act of 1975 (25 U.S.C. 450 et seq.), the Education Amendments of 1978 (25 U.S.C. 2001-2019), and the Tribally Controlled Schools Act of 1988 (25 U.S.C. 2501 et seq.), $2,429,236,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, except as otherwise provided herein; of which not to exceed $8,500 may be for official reception and representation expenses; of which not to exceed $74,809,000 shall be for welfare assistance payments: Provided, That in cases of designated Federal disasters, the Secretary may exceed such cap, from the amounts provided herein, to provide for disaster relief to Indian communities affected by the disaster: Provided further, That federally recognized Indian tribes and tribal organizations of federally recognized Indian tribes may use their tribal priority allocations for unmet welfare assistance costs: Provided further, That not to exceed $606,690,000 for school operations costs of Bureau-funded schools and other education programs shall become available on July 1, 2015, and shall remain available until September 30, 2016: Provided further, That not to exceed $48,553,000 shall remain available until expended for housing improvement, road maintenance, attorney fees, litigation support, land records improvement, and the Navajo-Hopi Settlement Program: Provided further, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, including but not limited to the Indian Self-Determination Act of 1975 (25 U.S.C. 450f et seq.) and section 1128 of the Education Amendments of 1978 (25 U.S.C. 2008), not to exceed $62,395,000 within and only from such amounts made available for school operations shall be available for administrative cost grants associated with ongoing grants entered into with the Bureau prior to or during fiscal year 2014 for the operation of Bureau-funded schools, and up to $500,000 within and only from such amounts made available for administrative cost grants shall be available for the transitional costs of initial administrative cost grants to grantees that assume operation on or after July 1, 2014, of Bureau-funded schools: Provided further, That any forestry funds allocated to a federally recognized tribe which remain unobligated as of September 30, 2016, may be transferred during fiscal year 2017 to an Indian forest land assistance account established for the benefit of the holder of the funds within the holder's trust fund account:

Provided further, That any such unobligated balances not so transferred shall expire on September 30, 2017: Provided further, That in order to enhance the safety of Bureau field employees, the Bureau may use funds to purchase uniforms or other identifying articles of clothing for personnel.

CONSTRUCTION

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

For construction, repair, improvement, and maintenance of irrigation and power systems, buildings, utilities, and other facilities, including architectural and engineering services by contract; acquisition of lands, and interests in lands; and preparation of lands for farming, and for construction of the Navajo Indian Irrigation Project pursuant to Public Law 87-483, $128,876,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That such amounts as may be available for the construction of the Navajo Indian Irrigation Project may be transferred to the Bureau of Reclamation: Provided further, That not to exceed 6 percent of contract authority available to the Bureau of Indian Affairs from the Federal Highway Trust Fund may be used to cover the road program management costs of the Bureau: Provided further, That any funds provided for the Safety of Dams program pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 13 shall be made available on a nonreimbursable basis: Provided further, That for fiscal year 2015, in implementing new construction or facilities improvement and repair project grants in excess of $100,000 that are provided to grant schools under Public Law 100-297, the Secretary of the Interior shall use the Administrative and Audit Requirements and Cost Principles for Assistance Programs contained in 43 CFR part 12 as the regulatory requirements: Provided further, That such grants shall not be subject to section 12.61 of 43 CFR; the Secretary and the grantee shall negotiate and determine a schedule of payments for the work to be performed: Provided further, That in considering grant applications, the Secretary shall consider whether such grantee would be deficient in assuring that the construction projects conform to applicable building standards and codes and Federal, tribal, or State health and safety standards as required by 25 U.S.C. 2005(b), with respect to organizational and financial management capabilities: Provided further, That if the Secretary declines a grant application, the Secretary shall follow the requirements contained in 25 U.S.C. 2504(f): Provided further, That any disputes between the Secretary and any grantee concerning a grant shall be subject to the disputes provision in 25 U.S.C. 2507(e): Provided further, That in order to ensure timely completion of construction projects, the Secretary may assume control of a project and all funds related to the project, if, within 18 months of the date of enactment of this Act, any grantee receiving funds appropriated in this Act or in any prior Act, has not completed the planning and design phase of the project and commenced construction: Provided further, That this appropriation may be reimbursed from the Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians appropriation for the appropriate share of construction costs for space expansion needed in agency offices to meet trust reform implementation.

INDIAN LAND AND WATER CLAIM SETTLEMENTS AND MISCELLANEOUS PAYMENTS TO INDIANS

For payments and necessary administrative expenses for implementation of Indian land and water claim settlements pursuant to Public Laws 99-264, 100-580, 101-618, 111-11, and 111-291, and for implementation of other land and water rights settlements, $35,655,000, to remain available until expended.

INDIAN GUARANTEED LOAN PROGRAM ACCOUNT

For the cost of guaranteed loans and insured loans, $7,731,000, of which $1,045,000 is for administrative expenses, as authorized by the Indian Financing Act of 1974: Provided, That such costs, including the cost of modifying such loans, shall be as defined in section 502 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974: Provided further, That these funds are available to subsidize total loan principal, any part of which is to be guaranteed or insured, not to exceed $100,496,183.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

The Bureau of Indian Affairs may carry out the operation of Indian programs by direct expenditure, contracts, cooperative agreements, compacts, and grants, either directly or in cooperation with States and other organizations.

Notwithstanding 25 U.S.C. 15, the Bureau of Indian Affairs may contract for services in support of the management, operation, and maintenance of the Power Division of the San Carlos Irrigation Project.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no funds available to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for central office oversight and Executive Direction and Administrative Services (except executive direction and administrative services funding for Tribal Priority Allocations, regional offices, and facilities operations and maintenance) shall be available for contracts, grants, compacts, or cooperative agreements with the Bureau of Indian Affairs under the provisions of the Indian Self-Determination Act or the Tribal Self-Governance Act of 1994 (Public Law 103-413).

In the event any tribe returns appropriations made available by this Act to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, this action shall not diminish the Federal Government's trust responsibility to that tribe, or the government-to-government relationship between the United States and that tribe, or that tribe's ability to access future appropriations.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no funds available to the Bureau of Indian Education, other than the amounts provided herein for assistance to public schools under 25 U.S.C. 452 et seq., shall be available to support the operation of any elementary or secondary school in the State of Alaska.

No funds available to the Bureau of Indian Education shall be used to support expanded grades for any school or dormitory beyond the grade structure in place or approved by the Secretary of the Interior at each school in the Bureau of Indian Education school system as of October 1, 1995, except that the Secretary of the Interior may waive this prohibition to support expansion of up to one additional grade when the Secretary determines such waiver is needed to support accomplishment of the mission of the Bureau of Indian Education. Appropriations made available in this or any prior Act for schools funded by the Bureau shall be available, in accordance with the Bureau's funding formula, only to the schools in the Bureau school system as of September 1, 1996, and to any school or school program that was reinstated in fiscal year 2012. Funds made available under this Act may not be used to establish a charter school at a Bureau-funded school (as that term is defined in section 1141 of the Education Amendments of 1978 (25 U.S.C. 2021)), except that a charter school that is in existence on the date of the enactment of this Act and that has operated at a Bureau-funded school before September 1, 1999, may continue to operate during that period, but only if the charter school pays to the Bureau a pro rata share of funds to reimburse the Bureau for the use of the real and personal property (including buses and vans), the funds of the charter school are kept separate and apart from Bureau funds, and the Bureau does not assume any obligation for charter school programs of the State in which the school is located if the charter school loses such funding. Employees of Bureau-funded schools sharing a campus with a charter school and performing functions related to the charter school's operation and employees of a charter school shall not be treated as Federal employees for purposes of chapter 171 of title 28, United States Code.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including section 113 of title I of appendix C of Public Law 106-113, if in fiscal year 2003 or 2004 a grantee received indirect and administrative costs pursuant to a distribution formula based on section 5(f) of Public Law 101-301, the Secretary shall continue to distribute indirect and administrative cost funds to such grantee using the section 5(f) distribution formula.

Funds available under this Act may not be used to establish satellite locations of schools in the Bureau school system as of September 1, 1996, except that the Secretary may waive this prohibition in order for an Indian tribe to provide language and cultural immersion educational programs for non-public schools located within the jurisdictional area of the tribal government which exclusively serve tribal members, do not include grades beyond those currently served at the existing Bureau-funded school, provide an educational environment with educator presence and academic facilities comparable to the Bureau-funded school, comply with all applicable Tribal, Federal, or State health and safety standards, and the Americans with Disabilities Act, and demonstrate the benefits of establishing operations at a satellite location in lieu of incurring extraordinary costs, such as for transportation or other impacts to students such as those caused by busing students extended distances: Provided, That no funds available under this Act may be used to fund operations, maintenance, rehabilitation, construction or other facilities-related costs for such assets that are not owned by the Bureau: Provided further, That the term "satellite school" means a school location physically separated from the existing Bureau school by more than 50 miles but that forms part of the existing school in all other respects.

DEPARTMENTAL OFFICES

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

DEPARTMENTAL OPERATIONS

For necessary expenses for management of the Department of the Interior, including the collection and disbursement of royalties, fees, and other mineral revenue proceeds, and for grants and cooperative agreements, as authorized by law, $265,263,000, to remain available until September 30, 2016, of which not to exceed $15,000 may be for official reception and representation expenses; and of which up to $1,000,000 shall be available for workers compensation payments and unemployment compensation payments associated with the orderly closure of the United States Bureau of Mines; and of which $12,000,000 for the Office of Valuation Services is to be derived from the Land and Water Conservation Fund and shall remain available until expendent; and of which $38,300,000 shall remain available until expended for the purpose of mineral revenue management activities: Provided, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, $15,000 under this heading shall be available for refunds of overpayments in connection with certain Indian leases in which the Secretary concurred with the claimed refund due, to pay amounts owed to Indian allottees or tribes, or to correct prior unrecoverable erroneous payments.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

For fiscal year 2015, up to $400,000 of the payments authorized by the Act of October 20, 1976 (31 U.S.C. 6901-6907) may be retained for administrative expenses of the Payments in Lieu of Taxes Program: Provided, That no payment shall be made pursuant to that Act to otherwise eligible units of local government if the computed amount of the payment is less than $100: Provided further, That the Secretary may reduce the payment authorized by 31 U.S.C. 6901-6907 for an individual county by the amount necessary to correct prior year overpayments to that county: Provided further, That the amount needed to correct a prior year underpayment to an individual county shall be paid from any reductions for overpayments to other counties and the amount necessary to cover any remaining underpayment is hereby appropriated and shall be paid to individual counties.

INSULAR AFFAIRS

ASSISTANCE TO TERRITORIES

For expenses necessary for assistance to territories under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior and other jurisdictions identified in section 104(e) of Public Law 108-188, $85,976,000, of which: (1) $76,528,000 shall remain available until expended for territorial assistance, including general technical assistance, maintenance assistance, disaster assistance, coral reef initiative activities, and brown tree snake control and research; grants to the judiciary in American Samoa for compensation and expenses, as authorized by law (48 U.S.C. 1661(c)); grants to the Government of American Samoa, in addition to current local revenues, for construction and support of governmental functions; grants to the Government of the Virgin Islands as authorized by law; grants to the Government of Guam, as authorized by law; and grants to the Government of the Northern Mariana Islands as authorized by law (Public Law 94-241; 90 Stat. 272); and (2) $9,448,000 shall be available until September 30, 2016, for salaries and expenses of the Office of Insular Affairs: Provided, That all financial transactions of the territorial and local governments herein provided for, including such transactions of all agencies or instrumentalities established or used by such governments, may be audited by the Government Accountability Office, at its discretion, in accordance with chapter 35 of title 31, United States Code: Provided further, That Northern Mariana Islands Covenant grant funding shall be provided according to those terms of the Agreement of the Special Representatives on Future United States Financial Assistance for the Northern Mariana Islands approved by Public Law 104-134: Provided further, That the funds for the program of operations and maintenance improvement are appropriated to institutionalize routine operations and maintenance improvement of capital infrastructure with territorial participation and cost sharing to be determined by the Secretary based on the grantee's commitment to timely maintenance of its capital assets: Provided further, That any appropriation for disaster assistance under this heading in this Act or previous appropriations Acts may be used as non-Federal matching funds for the purpose of hazard mitigation grants provided pursuant to section 404 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5170c).

COMPACT OF FREE ASSOCIATION

For grants and necessary expenses, $3,318,000, to remain available until expended, as provided for in sections 221(a)(2) and 233 of the Compact of Free Association for the Republic of Palau; and section 221(a)(2) of the Compacts of Free Association for the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands and the Federated States of Micronesia, as authorized by Public Law 99-658 and Public Law 108-188.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

At the request of the Governor of Guam, the Secretary may transfer discretionary funds or mandatory funds provided under section 104(e) of Public Law 108-188 and Public Law 104-134, that are allocated for Guam, to the Secretary of Agriculture for the subsidy cost of direct or guaranteed loans, plus not to exceed three percent of the amount of the subsidy transferred for the cost of loan administration, for the purposes authorized by the Rural Electrification Act of 1936 and section 306(a)(1) of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act for construction and repair projects in Guam, and such funds shall remain available until expended: Provided, That such costs, including the cost of modifying such loans, shall be as defined in section 502 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974: Provided further, That such loans or loan guarantees may be made without regard to the population of the area, credit elsewhere requirements, and restrictions on the types of eligible entities under the Rural Electrification Act of 1936 and section 306(a)(1) of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act: Provided further, That any funds transferred to the Secretary of Agriculture shall be in addition to funds otherwise made available to make or guarantee loans under such authorities.

GENERAL PROVISIONS, DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

EMERGENCY TRANSFER AUTHORITY—INTRA-BUREAU

SEC. 101. Appropriations made in this title shall be available for expenditure or transfer (within each bureau or office), with the approval of the Secretary, for the emergency reconstruction, replacement, or repair of aircraft, buildings, utilities, or other facilities or equipment damaged or destroyed by fire, flood, storm, or other unavoidable causes: Provided, That no funds shall be made available under this authority until funds specifically made available to the Department of the Interior for emergencies shall have been exhausted: Provided further, That all funds used pursuant to this section must be replenished by a supplemental appropriation, which must be requested as promptly as possible.

EMERGENCY TRANSFER AUTHORITY—DEPARTMENT-WIDE

SEC. 102. The Secretary may authorize the expenditure or transfer of any no year appropriation in this title, in addition to the amounts included in the budget programs of the several agencies, for the suppression or emergency prevention of wildland fires on or threatening lands under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior; for the emergency rehabilitation of burned-over lands under its jurisdiction; for emergency actions related to potential or actual earthquakes, floods, volcanoes, storms, or other unavoidable causes; for contingency planning subsequent to actual oil spills; for response and natural resource damage assessment activities related to actual oil spills or releases of hazardous substances into the environment; for the prevention, suppression, and control of actual or potential grasshopper and Mormon cricket outbreaks on lands under the jurisdiction of the Secretary, pursuant to the authority in section 417(b) of Public Law 106-224 (7 U.S.C. 7717(b)); for emergency reclamation projects under section 410 of Public Law 95-87; and shall transfer, from any no year funds available to the Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, such funds as may be necessary to permit assumption of regulatory authority in the event a primacy State is not carrying out the regulatory provisions of the Surface Mining Act: Provided, That appropriations made in this title for wildland fire operations shall be available for the payment of obligations incurred during the preceding fiscal year, and for reimbursement to other Federal agencies for destruction of vehicles, aircraft, or other equipment in connection with their use for wildland fire operations, such reimbursement to be credited to appropriations currently available at the time of receipt thereof: Provided further, That for wildland fire operations, no funds shall be made available under this authority until the Secretary determines that funds appropriated for "wildland fire operations" and "FLAME Wildfire Suppression Reserve Fund" shall be exhausted within 30 days: Provided further, That all funds used pursuant to this section must be replenished by a supplemental appropriation, which must be requested as promptly as possible: Provided further, That such replenishment funds shall be used to reimburse, on a pro rata basis, accounts from which emergency funds were transferred.

AUTHORIZED USE OF FUNDS

SEC. 103. Appropriations made to the Department of the Interior in this title shall be available for services as authorized by section 3109 of title 5, United States Code, when authorized by the Secretary, in total amount not to exceed $500,000; purchase and replacement of motor vehicles, including specially equipped law enforcement vehicles; hire, maintenance, and operation of aircraft; hire of passenger motor vehicles; purchase of reprints; payment for telephone service in private residences in the field, when authorized under regulations approved by the Secretary; and the payment of dues, when authorized by the Secretary, for library membership in societies or associations which issue publications to members only or at a price to members lower than to subscribers who are not members.

AUTHORIZED USE OF FUNDS, INDIAN TRUST MANAGEMENT

SEC. 104. Appropriations made in this Act under the headings Bureau of Indian Affairs and Bureau of Indian Education, and Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians and any unobligated balances from prior appropriations Acts made under the same headings shall be available for expenditure or transfer for Indian trust management and reform activities. Total funding for historical accounting activities shall not exceed amounts specifically designated in this Act for such purpose.

REDISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS, BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

SEC. 105. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to redistribute any Tribal Priority Allocation funds, including tribal base funds, to alleviate tribal funding inequities by transferring funds to address identified, unmet needs, dual enrollment, overlapping service areas or inaccurate distribution methodologies. No tribe shall receive a reduction in Tribal Priority Allocation funds of more than 10 percent in fiscal year 2015. Under circumstances of dual enrollment, overlapping service areas or inaccurate distribution methodologies, the 10 percent limitation does not apply.

ELLIS, GOVERNORS, AND LIBERTY ISLANDS

SEC. 106. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to acquire lands, waters, or interests therein including the use of all or part of any pier, dock, or landing within the State of New York and the State of New Jersey, for the purpose of operating and maintaining facilities in the support of transportation and accommodation of visitors to Ellis, Governors, and Liberty Islands, and of other program and administrative activities, by donation or with appropriated funds, including franchise fees (and other monetary consideration), or by exchange; and the Secretary is authorized to negotiate and enter into leases, subleases, concession contracts or other agreements for the use of such facilities on such terms and conditions as the Secretary may determine reasonable.

OUTER CONTINENTAL SHELF INSPECTION FEES

SEC. 107. (a) In fiscal year 2015, the Secretary shall collect a nonrefundable inspection fee, which shall be deposited in the "Offshore Safety and Environmental Enforcement" account, from the designated operator for facilities subject to inspection under 43 U.S.C. 1348(c).

(b) Annual fees shall be collected for facilities that are above the waterline, excluding drilling rigs, and are in place at the start of the fiscal year. Fees for fiscal year 2015 shall be:

(1) $10,500 for facilities with no wells, but with processing equipment or gathering lines;

(2) $17,000 for facilities with 1 to 10 wells, with any combination of active or inactive wells; and

(3) $31,500 for facilities with more than 10 wells, with any combination of active or inactive wells.

(c) Fees for drilling rigs shall be assessed for all inspections completed in fiscal year 2015. Fees for fiscal year 2015 shall be:

(1) $30,500 per inspection for rigs operating in water depths of 500 feet or more; and

(2) $16,700 per inspection for rigs operating in water depths of less than 500 feet.

(d) The Secretary shall bill designated operators under subsection (b) within 60 days, with payment required within 30 days of billing. The Secretary shall bill designated operators under subsection (c) within 30 days of the end of the month in which the inspection occurred, with payment required within 30 days of billing.

OIL AND GAS LEASING INTERNET PROGRAM

SEC. 108. (a) Notwithstanding section 17(b)(1)(A) of the Mineral Leasing Act (30 U.S.C. 226(b)(1)(A)), the Secretary of the Interior shall have the authority to implement an oil and gas leasing Internet program, under which the Secretary may conduct lease sales through methods other than oral bidding.

(b) The authority in subsection (a) shall be effective for fiscal year 2015 until the date of the enactment of a provision of the Carl Levin and Howard P. "Buck" McKeon National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015 that amends section 17(b)(1) of the Mineral Leasing Act (30 U.S.C. 226(b)(1)) to authorize onshore lease sales through Internet-based bidding methods.

BUREAU OF OCEAN ENERGY MANAGEMENT, REGULATION AND ENFORCEMENT REORGANIZATION

SEC. 109. The Secretary of the Interior, in order to implement a reorganization of the Bureau of Ocean Energy Management, Regulation and Enforcement, may transfer funds among and between the successor offices and bureaus affected by the reorganization only in conformance with the reprogramming guidelines for division F in the explanatory statement described in section 4 (in the matter preceding division A of this consolidated Act).

CONTRACTS AND AGREEMENTS FOR WILD HORSE AND BURRO HOLDING FACILITIES

SEC. 110. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Secretary of the Interior may enter into multiyear cooperative agreements with nonprofit organizations and other appropriate entities, and may enter into multiyear contracts in accordance with the provisions of section 304B of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (41 U.S.C. 254c) (except that the 5-year term restriction in subsection (d) shall not apply), for the long-term care and maintenance of excess wild free roaming horses and burros by such organizations or entities on private land. Such cooperative agreements and contracts may not exceed 10 years, subject to renewal at the discretion of the Secretary.

MASS MARKING OF SALMONIDS

SEC. 111. The United States Fish and Wildlife Service shall, in carrying out its responsibilities to protect threatened and endangered species of salmon, implement a system of mass marking of salmonid stocks, intended for harvest, that are released from federally operated or federally financed hatcheries including but not limited to fish releases of coho, chinook, and steelhead species. Marked fish must have a visible mark that can be readily identified by commercial and recreational fishers.

PROHIBITION ON USE OF FUNDS

SEC. 112. (a) Any proposed new use of the Arizona & California Railroad Company's Right of Way for conveyance of water shall not proceed unless the Secretary of the Interior certifies that the proposed new use is within the scope of the Right of Way.

(b) No funds appropriated or otherwise made available to the Department of the Interior may be used, in relation to any proposal to store water underground for the purpose of export, for approval of any right-of-way or similar authorization on the Mojave National Preserve or lands managed by the Needles Field Office of the Bureau of Land Management, or for carrying out any activities associated with such right-of-way or similar approval.

REPUBLIC OF PALAU

SEC. 113. (a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsection (c), the United States Government, through the Secretary of the Interior shall provide to the Government of Palau for fiscal year 2015 grants in amounts equal to the annual amounts specified in subsections (a), (c), and (d) of section 211 of the Compact of Free Association between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Palau (48 U.S.C. 1931 note) (referred to in this section as the "Compact").

(b) PROGRAMMATIC ASSISTANCE.—Subject to subsection (c), the United States shall provide programmatic assistance to the Republic of Palau for fiscal year 2015 in amounts equal to the amounts provided in subsections (a) and (b)(1) of section 221 of the Compact.

(c) LIMITATIONS ON ASSISTANCE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The grants and programmatic assistance provided under subsections (a) and (b) shall be provided to the same extent and in the same manner as the grants and assistance were provided in fiscal year 2009.

(2) TRUST FUND.—If the Government of Palau withdraws more than $5,000,000 from the trust fund established under section 211(f) of the Compact, amounts to be provided under subsections (a) and (b) shall be withheld from the Government of Palau.
